RECEIVES PURPLE HEART

Marine Private First Class Robert W. McElhinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McElhinney, 6 Russell road, recently was awarded the Purple Heart Medal for wounds received in Korea.

Presentation of the medal was made by Lieutenant Col. R. C. Burns, commanding officer of the First Provisional Casual Company in Honshu, Japan.

Private McElhinney was wounded on September 4, 1950 at the Naktong River sector.

HINTLIAN — NOONAN

The Papal blessing was bestowed last Saturday morning on the marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Noonan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Noonan of Milton, to James Terry Hintlian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael H. Hintlian of Church street. Monsignor Daniel J. Donovan performed the ceremony at St. Agatha's Church in Milton at 10 o'clock and was also celebrant of the nuptial mass which followed.

Miss Noonan was given in marriage by her father. She wore a classic gown of ivory satin with a long train and her mother's veil of Brussels lace with pointe d'esprit arranged to form a self-cap. Her bouquet of fleur d'amour and stephanotis was combined with variegated ivy.

Mrs. Richard Stratton (Barbara Noonan) was her sister's matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Adele Hintlian of Winchester, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Helen Agnes Collins of Wollaston, Miss Jean Murray Feeley and Miss Mary Lou McCarthy of Milton and Miss Marie Claude Kroll of New York City.

Mrs. Stratton wore an ankle-length dress of sea-pink lace with a picture hat of matching lace and carried contrasting violets and roses edged with ivy. The bridesmaids carried the same flowers and wore identical dresses and picture hats of Sandringham blue lace fashioned like those of the honor attendant.

Richard Hintlian of Belmont was best man for his cousin, and the usher corps comprised Thomas Arnold and Richard William Sheehy, Jr., both of Winchester; William Fantone of Long Island, N. Y.; Richard Stratton of Boston, John Vincent Geary of Arlington and A. Joseph Schrauth of New York City.

A reception was held after the marriage at the Milton-Hoosic Club. Mrs. Noonan, mother of the bride, wore navy blue silk taffeta with a white starched lace hat and carried white orchids with her purse. Mrs. Hintlian, the bridegroom's mother, carried purple orchids with her purse and wore a gown of gray chiffon and lace with a lilac hat.

After a wedding journey to Jamaica Mr. and Mrs. Hintlian will make their home in Hancock Village.

The bride is a graduate of Jeanne d'Arc Academy and of Emmanuel College. Mr. Hintlian prepared at St. John's, Danvers, and is a graduate of Cornell University.

BISHOP LEWIS O. HARTMAN

METHODISTS CELEBRATE 80TH ANNIVERSARY

This coming Sunday begins a week of commemoration of the organization of the Methodist Church in Winchester. It was in April, 1871 that Mrs. John C. Mason and Mr. J. S. Owen, planted the first seeds of the society. The first meeting took place on Thursday, April 20th with sixty present.

Because of its steady growth, the society was encouraged to make plans for its own church building and in 1875, ground was broken for the new building to be erected at Mt. Vernon street and Converse Place.

This building was occupied by the society for almost fifty years. Again with need for expansion, in 1920, the church bought the triangular lot on the corner of Church and Dix streets. A planning committee of twenty people was organized with Frank E. Crawford as chairman and Edward I. Taylor as secretary.

After several years of labor in planning and pledging, the corner stone of the new building was laid, October 7, 1923 by the late Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes. The building was completed and dedicated on October 10, 1926.

Bishop Lewis O. Hartman will be the speaker this Sunday. He was editor of Zions Herald, independent Methodist weekly published in Boston, from 1920 until his election as a bishop of The Methodist Church by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference of the denomination meeting in June, 1944, at Ocean City, N. J. He was assigned to residence in the Boston Area, which covers nearly all New England except Vermont. He retired by age limitation, at the quadrennial session of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference, which was held in June at Albany, N. Y., Methodist law requiring the retirement of a bishop at the session of his Jurisdictional Conference following his seventieth birthday.

Bishop Hartman has made several trips to Europe, including Russia, and to the Orient, and is the author of a book, "Popular Aspects of Oriental Religions," published in 1917.

On December 8 last, at a meeting of the Zions Herald Associates celebrating the completion of 125 years of that journal's history, Bishop Hartman was presented by the Boston Wesleyan Association, publishers of the paper, with the "1947 Zions Herald Award for Methodist Churchmanship."

SEAGERS BACK FROM GREECE

Cedric Seager, who has been in Greece with the ECA for the past four years, returned to Winchester Tuesday with his wife, the former Gertrude Packer, their son and daughter, Walter and Elizabeth, and Mr. Seager's mother, Mrs. E. B. Seager of Shoreham, Kent, England.

The Seagers docked in Boston Tuesday morning, having crossed on the Export Liner Exeter. After a day in Winchester with Mrs. Seager's parents, Rev. and Mrs. William S. Packer of Yale street, Mr. Seager and his mother sailed again on the Exeter for New York.

From there they will go on to Washington where Mr Seager will report to the Headquarters of the ECA. Mrs. Seager and her son and daughter will remain in Winchester indefinitely.

JEFFERSON — ISHERWOOD

At St. John's Church in Arlington on Saturday evening, March 31, Miss Barbara Ann Isherwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Isherwood of 97 Cambridge street, became the bride of Charles Ellsworth Jefferson of 186 Highland avenue, Arlington. The Rev. Halsey Andrews read the candlelight service in a setting of ferns and vases of white flowers. During the seating of the guests there were several vocal solos by the father of the bride.

Miss Isherwood was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory Skinner satin with a Chantilly lace yoke, a stand-up collar trimmed with pearls and a full train. Her fingertip-length veil of illusion was held in place with a sweetheart-shaped half-hat of matching lace and she carried white iris and hyacinths.

Mrs. Charles Prescott of Arlington was matron of honor and Miss Norma Isherwood of Merion, Pa., cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. They wore jonquil-yellow nylon marquisette dresses with flower head-bands matching the blue iris and white hyacinths of their bouquets.

The bridesmaids wore dresses of blue nylon marquisette and carried bouquets of jonquils, wearing the same flowers in their hair. They were Miss Katherine Welsh of West Roxbury, Miss Betsy Schmalz of Dedham, Miss Cayl Magnus and Miss Eva Jefferson, sister of the bridegroom, both of Arlington.

William Jefferson of Arlington was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Albert Jefferson of Arlington, brother of the bridegroom; Joseph McBreen of Concord, William Bradley of Natick, Frederick Snow of New Jersey and Robert Gulesian and Eino Fimlaide, both of Arlington.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Music Hall on Bacon street, and at its conclusion Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson left on a wedding journey through the south.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. Holyoke College. Mr. Jefferson graduated from Burdett College and is in the United States Air Force.

WINCHESTER MOTORISTS IN NARROW ESCAPE

Mr. and Mrs. George Budd of 81 Mystic Valley Parkway, and Mrs. Budd's mother, Mrs. Lulu Krakauer, who lives with them, had a narrow escape from possible serious injuries Sunday when a left rear tire blew out, causing their automobile to get out of control.

The Budds were on their way back to Winchester and were riding on Haverhill street in Reading near the North Reading line. Mr. Budd was driving and was pulling out to pass a car going at only a moderate rate of speed when his tire, a recapped snow-tread, let go, causing him to lose control.

The car struck a concrete post, one of many at the side of the road, connected with a steel cable, hitting the post head on. The machine then turned around so that the rear of the car hit the next post.

Mr. and Mrs. Budd were thrown from the car, but fortunately landed on soft marshy land. Mr. Budd struck the door with his head and was cut about the head and face, bleeding profusely. Mrs. Budd was badly shaken up and complained of injuries to her neck. Mrs. Krakauer was not thrown from the machine and suffered chiefly from shock.

All three were taken in the Reading Police ambulance to the Winchester Hospital where they were treated by Dr. Milton J. Quinn. After having his cuts sewn up Mr. Budd went home with Mrs. Krakauer. Mrs. Budd was held at the hospital, with Dr. Alexander P. Aitken joining Dr. Quinn in the diagnosis.

She was in considerable pain, but her injuries were not believed to be serious, though precautionary X-rays were to be taken on Tuesday to determine the extent of her neck injuries.

Even the Budd car came out of the accident well, the damage it sustained being much less than usual for such a potentially serious accident.

TO WED MAINE GIRL

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Congdon of Brunswick, Maine, announce the engagement of their daughter, Drusilla Enman, to the Reverend John Cummins, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Cummins of Winchester.

Miss Congdon was graduated from Mount Holyoke College in 1946 and attended the Bread Loaf School of English. She is a member of the Brunswick High School teaching staff and assistant coach of dramatics.

The Rev. Mr. Cummins was graduated from Bowdoin College in 1947 and is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. He received his S. T. B. degree from Harvard University in 1950 and was installed as pastor of the First Universalist Church of Brunswick, Maine, last October.

An August wedding is planned.

DR. CHIDLEY TO REPRESENT DARTMOUTH COLLEGE AT INAUGURATION

At the request of Dartmouth College, Dr. Howard J. Chidley will represent his Alma Mater as official delegate at the Inauguration Exercises of Dr. Herbert J. Gezork as President of Andover Newton Theological Seminary, Newton Centre, April 12.

Dr. Gezork has often spoken at the local First Congregational Church at Dr. Chidley's invitation.

Dr. Chidley graduated from Dartmouth College in 1906, and the college conferred the degree of Doctor of Divinity on him in 1939.

MISS NANCY W. WOODWARD MR. RICHARD B. CANNON — WED

A very pretty home wedding was that of Miss Nancy Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Woodward of Winchester and Mr. Richard B. Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard S. Cannon, which took place on Saturday afternoon, March 31, at 287 Main street.

Standards with white ribbon were used to divide the room for the bridal party, with white gladiolus, snapdragons, stocks and ferns making an attractive setting for the candlelight ceremony.

Mr. Carl Woodward, of Montreal, Canada, uncle of the bride, gave Miss Woodward in marriage, and the Rev. Frederick H. Arterton of All Saints Church, Belmont, officiated.

The bride wore a white frosted organdy gown, over blush pink satin, with a fingertip veil fastened with seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white gardenias and sweetpeas.

Miss Janet Cary and Mrs. John Morgan, Jr., both of Winchester, were the bridal attendants and were gowned in white organdy over ice blue satin. Their bouquets were of yellow jonquils and hyacinths. Miss Barbara Burbank of Winchester, played the wedding march.

For the daughter's wedding Mrs. Woodward wore a King's blue chiffon gown and her corsage was pink camillias. Mrs. Cannon, mother of the groom, wore a periwinkle lace gown with matching hat and a corsage of baby orchids. Mr. William S. Cannon, Jr. of Belmont was his brother's best man. The ushers were Mr. Roland Cotten and Mr. Robert Johnson, both of Belmont.

Miss Woodward graduated from Winchester High School in 1948 and attended Wheaton College. Mr. Cannon attended University of Massachusetts and served in the Army Air Force during World War II. He is now associated with the concern of Dennison and Cannon.

After a three weeks honeymoon spent in New York, Washington and Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Cannon will reside in Cambridge.

WINCHESTER GIRL PAROCHIAL SCHOOL SPELLING WINNER

Lois Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Sullivan of 202 Washington street, a 16 year-old junior at St. Charles High School in Woburn, won the final round and top prize in the Boston Herald Parochial School Spelling Bee at Faneuil Hall, Boston, last Saturday. As a result of her victory she will be given a trip to Washington.

Miss Sullivan was a finalist in the spelling bee last year and a semi-finalist the year previous. This year she and Ruth Blanchard, a sophomore at St. Augustine High, South Boston, reached the final round, with Geraldine Casassa, a freshman at St. Mary's High, Cambridge, and Margaret Duran, a senior at Nazareth High, South Boston.

Miss Duran went out on probationary, spelling the word "cry". Miss Casassa was eliminated when she spelled wampum as ending in "n", leaving Miss Sullivan and Miss Blanchard in the competition.

The South Boston girl finally stumbled on the word, amortise, putting in an extra "m". Miss Sullivan quickly clinched her grand victory by spelling the word correctly. She admitted that she was "a wreck" after her winning performance, though she said she was more nervous while spelling against her own class than in the finals.

Miss Sullivan was 16 on February 6, and is one of four children, having twin brothers, Timmy and Billy, 14; and a sister, Marcia, 11. In school she likes English, both grammar and literature, and she believes boys do not do as well as girls in spelling contests because they "don't bother to study."

As a hobby the new Parochial School Spelling Champion collects cups, mostly of the demi-tasse size, and in her collection are cups from all over the world.

TWOMBLY NAMED TO WESTINGHOUSE TURBINE APPLICATION ENGINEERING POST

Robert C. Twombly has been appointed manager of the general purpose turbine application engineering section of the Westinghouse Steam Division at Lester, Penn.

In his new post, Mr. Twombly will be responsible for application of steam turbines used in industry for mechanical drives.

A native of this town, Mr. Twombly has been with the Westinghouse Electric Corporation since his graduation from Northeastern University at Boston at the end of 1941. He went into the Army in 1945, and spent more than a year in Germany, returning to the steam division in April, 1947.

Mr. Twombly married the former Jean Clark Loughridge, of Germantown, Penn., and the couple have an eight-month-old son, Robert, Jr.

SURTEES RECEIVES PROMOTION

Marine Private First Class Richard L. Surtees, son of Mrs. Margery Surtees, 246 Highland avenue, recently climaxed training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S. C. by receiving a promotion to his present rank and winning the silver badge of Marine Marksman.

Surtees completed training in training in field tactics and precision drill. He also received classroom instruction in field sanitation, first aid, Marine Corps history and military courtesy.

"UNCLE ELMER"

Elmer Herskind of "Uncle Elmer's Song Circle", broadcast over WEEI Sundays at 8:30 a.m.

"Uncle Elmer" and his "Pleasantville Choir", heard Sundays 8:30 to 9:00 a. m. over WEEI, CBS Boston, will appear in person at the First Baptist Church, on Sunday evening April 8th, at 7 o'clock.

This well-known radio group, which includes the "Pleasantville Choir", "Sunshine Trio" and "Neighborhood Quartette", is directed by Elmer C. Herskind, better known as "Uncle Elmer" to thousands of radio listeners. The group has appeared in many New England churches and has entertained in various hospitals as well as Army and Navy camps. The cast includes fifteen young men and women who are sincere in their efforts to be of service to humanity without distinguishing between race, creed or color. These young people work at their regular tasks every day and are employed as bookkeepers, stenographers, painters, clerks, and some are college students. They devote their spare time to bring to an enormous and appreciative audience not only worthwhile entertainment but an extremely interesting and helpful program. Through their efforts hundreds of wheel chairs, radio sets, and other articles too numerous to catalog have been placed with invalids and persons in dire need. Their humanitarian service is far-reaching as it covers all New England states. In appreciation of the fine work this group is performing, thousands of people listen regularly to their broadcasts.

The program Sunday evening will include some of the best loved hymns in chorus, quartette, duet and solo arrangements. "Uncle Elmer" is a superb leader of congregational singing. Between songs he talks to his audience in a friendly, philosophical way and always uses a generous variety of inspirational poems. No admission will be charged. However, a freewill offering will be taken.

The program is being presented by the Philathea group of the First Baptist Church, and a cordial invitation is extended to everyone.

FIREMAN'S BALL TONIGHT

The Winchester Fireman's Relief Association is holding its annual ball tonight at the town hall, and as usual standing room only will be the rule for late arrivals.

Miss Partridge, a member of the graduating class at the Melrose Hospital School of Nursing, graduated from Northfield Academy and Westbrook Junior College. Mr. Cobleigh is a graduate of Gloucester High School and Northeastern University.

A fall wedding is planned.

CLEARY — O'LEARY

At a 10 o'clock nuptial mass in St. Mary's Church on Saturday morning, March 31, Miss Marie Elizabeth O'Leary, daughter of Mrs. Margaret A. O'Leary of Dunham street, was married to David Edwin Cleary, son of Mrs. Mary E. Cleary of Winthrop street. Miss Mary Callahan, church organist, played the bridal music and the soloist was Miss Claire Murphy of Milton.

Miss O'Leary was given in marriage by her brother, Timothy O'Leary of Winchester. She wore a gown of white satin with a long train, a Queen Ann collar with an applique of lace and seed pearls and tiny buttons down the front. Her finger-tip length veil was of matching white satin, arranged with a self-cap and she carried a white prayer-book decorated with streamers and a white orchid.

Miss Margaret O'Leary of Winchester was her sister's honor maid and the bridesmaids were Miss Kathleen Gilgun of Winchester, Miss Marjorie Carson of Medford Hillside, Miss Therese Cleary of Winchester, sister of the bridegroom; and Miss Nancy Maloney of Lowell.

The honor maid wore a bright yellow dress of tissue taffeta with a matching yellow taffeta hat and carried an old fashioned bouquet.

The bridesmaids also carried old fashioned bouquets and wore aqua gowns of tissue taffeta with matching taffeta hats.

John F. Cleary of Somerville was best man for his brother and the ushers were Joseph and William O'Leary of Winchester, brothers of the bride; Robert Harvey of West Roxbury and Edward McKenney of Roslindale.

A reception was held after the marriage at the old Mill in Arlington. After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Cleary will make their home in Wakefield. The bridegroom is in the employ of the Massachusetts State Department of Public Works.

OLD TIMERS TO ATTEND PARISH PLAYERS SHOW

The Parish Players climax their Silver Anniversary Year on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, April 12, 13 and 14, in the Little Theatre Beneath a Spire with the comedy production of "Goodbye, My Fancy". In the audience on those three evenings will be Parish Players "old timers" who have acted or worked backstage during those twenty-five years, and a great many of them will serve as pourers, hostesses and ushers during the three performances.

The "typical old-fashioned dormitory" set has been designed and built by the stage crew, George H Gowdy, Donald Goss, Robert Sibley, George Hebb, Jr., Raymond J. Carter, F. Milne Blanchard, Kendall B. Spencer. Mrs. Otis Hammett and Mrs. Bradford M. Bentley will have charge of the stage setting; Miss Frances Perce and Margaret Hodgson have secured hand properties.

Mrs. F. Meredith Cooper, Mrs. Frank Tillton, Miss Jo Anne Robinson, and Miss Dorothy Osborne have charge of costumes.

Pourers at the coffee hour on Thursday will be Mesdames Roland R. Carter, James A. Newman, J. Mulford Olivier, A. Kirby Snell; on Friday, Mesdames H. Harold Dover, William H. Gilpatric, William I. Palmer, Walter W. Winship; Saturday, Mrs. Allen R. Cunningham, Mrs. Harold F. French, Mrs. Joseph W. Worthen, and Miss Nina Richardson.

With the pourers — all Parish Players members who have contributed to the growth of the Players — will be the following "old timers" as hostesses and ushers: Mrs. Malcolm D. Bennett, Mrs. Robert W. Charlton, Mr. and Mrs. F. Meredith Cooper, Mrs. Eugenia P. Kumpunen, George H. Hebb, Jr., Roland R. Carter, Donald E. Dalrymple, J. Mulford Olivier, Herbert T. Wadsworth, Mrs. Robert W. Armstrong, Jr., Mrs. Windsor S. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Russell, Dr. Ivar Hakanson, Sherman Russell, Richard J. Johnson, Arthur T. Rogde, Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Ashendon, Jr., Mrs. Richard J. Latta, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Pollard, Mrs. J. Lawrence Tobey, Oscar W. Crowers, Samuel M. Graves, Prescott W. Taylor. Many more "old timers" are planning to drive from long distances to attend the play and take part in the Silver Anniversary of the Parish Players, which has the distinction of being one of the oldest little theatre groups in the country.

WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB OF WINCHESTER

Monday afternoon, April 2nd, Mrs. Wilbert E. Underwood graciously opened her spacious home on Ravenscroft road, for the final meeting of the Board of the Women's Republican Club.

All members of the Board were present. Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes, the retiring President was the hostess at the Tea which followed the business meeting.

Many guests dropped in to pay their respects to Mrs. Barnes and to meet the incoming President, Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds.

Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds, Mrs. Wilbert E. Underwood, Mrs. Everett F. Gray, Mrs. Kenneth B. Hiscoe and Mrs. Theodore C. Browne were the pourers.

Mrs. Harris S. Richardson, in behalf of the Board presented Mrs. Barnes with a most attractive over-night travel case in appreciation of the outstanding work she has done in making the Club one of the most active clubs in the state. To-day its membership and financial status is larger and on a firmer basis than ever before.

The new slate has the approval of the Club members and the forecast is for a bright and busy 1951 — 1952 season.

ANNUAL CLEANING

During its annual cleaning, beautiful Morning Glory Pool, in Yellowstone National Park, was made to eject an amazing collection of objects thrown into it by visitors, and slowly choking it. More than 110 different types of objects were removed, including 5 lb. of tax tokens. $97.34 in coins, odd pocket pieces, wearing apparel, two watches, pocket knives, combs, whistles, and sun glasses.

Some time previous to last Thursday some one broke two locks on the railroad building between the Woburn loop and the Main line north of the center and gained access to the building, stealing a vault meter valued at $50 and a bag of tools valued at $52.50. The police were notified.

COMMUNITY CHEST

Winchester residents will do well to circle the date Thursday, April 26 on their calendar and reserve it for the annual meeting of the Winchester Community Chest, Inc. As usual the public is invited, however not in the usual manner will be the program and meeting place to be announced next week.

Plans for this meeting were discussed by the Board of Directors of the Chest on Wednesday, March 28 in the General Committee Room of the Town Hall.

Proposed revisions of the by-laws were reviewed and accepted in preparation for voting on them at the annual meeting.

Leslie J. Scott was elected to the Nominating Committee of the Corporation to fill the vacancy left by R. H. B. Smith.

The Directors present included: — the President, Mrs. William Kugler; Vice-President, Walcott Thompson; Secretary, Richard Frazier; Treasurer, Helen Monroe; Mrs. Henry Moffette; Mrs. Harlow Russell, Mrs. James Willing, and Clinton Bennett, Joseph Callahan, Earl Carrier, Davenport Davis, James Nowell, Harlow Russell, and Martin Swanson.

LYBECK WOBURN "Y" SPEAKER

Mr. Robert F. Lybeck of Everell road, former chairman of the School Committee, was the speaker last week at a largely attended dinner meeting of Y Men in Woburn.

Mr. Lybeck, who is president of the Aeronautical Association of Boston and manager of the Aviation Division of the Esso Standard Oil Co., took as his subject, "American Air Power and the Implication of War."

Widely traveled and intimately acquainted with the aviation field, Mr. Lybeck urged his listeners not to sell Americas short in any war with Russia, hot or cold. Although he is quoted as seeing no all out war in the immediate future, he stated the belief that we should not be complacent but should arm ourselves with might, since that is all that Russia understands.

Fear of Russia is causing us to overestimate her strength, just as before World War II we overestimated Germany's air strength.

Mr. Lybeck quoted a top military expert in Washington as stating that American air power could pulverize Russia's industrial strength in 72 hours, and that the Kremlin would need three times its present industrial strength to defeat America on this continent, where such a defeat would have to come.

BOOKS BY ROGER H. GARRISON

Roger H. Garrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Englebert H. Garrison of 17 Norwood street, has written two books on writing that are being highly praised by professional book critics, teachers and many who are finding them an "Open Sesame" to the field of the written word.

"A Guide to Creative Writing" is for those who really want to learn to write well. Creative writing, Mr. Garrison states, is not a knack or a natural gift belonging to a few lucky people. Creative writing is first creative thinking, and "A Guide to Creative Writing" suggests methods by which the amateur seeking professional levels can develop the kind of creative thinking that produces fine, salable writing.

How to observe, how to create verbal images, how to construct plot, how to edit, how to build character, how to rewrite effectively are some of the chapters. Mr. Garrison says the book was written by applying the seat of the pants firmly to a chair, and using ten fingers, time and a little stamina also entering largely into the process.

Henry Holt & Co. of New York are publishers of the book and its college text edition, "A Creative Approach to Writing", in which the writer takes the premise that all writing is in a real sense creative, which is another way of saying that good writing begins with good thinking. The writer must first of all know what he is talking about. He must also be able to think his subject through, organize it reasonably and persuasively and present it with clarity, attractiveness and vigor.

Mr. Garrison was born in Chicago 32 years ago, is married and has two sons. He teaches creative writing and literature at Briarcliff Junior College, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., joining the faculty there in 1947. A graduate of classical high school in Springfield, he also graduated from Oberlin College and from the Harvard University Graduate School of English.

After a period in the infantry, Mr. Garrison became a reporter for "Yank". He also wrote radio scripts for overseas information and news broadcasts and was also a researcher for United States Army documentary films under Frank Capra. In 1946 and 1947 he worked as a reporter for "Life".

"The New York Times", in a recent review, is most complimentary, saying, "Mr. Garrison cuts below the usual level of writing instruction and presents a series of problems in creative thinking". The "Citizen Register" of Ossining, N. Y., his home town paper, says, "If you are one of the hundreds of thousands who want to write — be it a book or a story or even a good strong letter to your newspaper — then Roger H. Garrison of Ossining merits attention".

ST. MARY'S HNS TO MEET

St. Mary's Holy Name Society will hold its regular monthly meeting Sunday morning, April 8, in Knights of Columbus Hall, following the 8 o'clock mass at St. Mary's Church. The members will receive Communion at the mass and breakfast will be served at the hall under the direction of Coleman G. Foley, Jr., assisted by Leonard Hurley and Michael J. Connolly.

President Arthur W. Hall has announced his great satisfaction over the attendance of members at the Holy Thursday all night vigil. He has appointed William J. Croughwell chairman of the nominating committee to select officers for next year, the remaining membership of the committee to be announced at Sunday's meeting.

Guest speaker at the meeting will be Dr. Paul R. Hinchley, well known Salem physician, whose subject will be "Our Bodies, the most wonderful Machine of All". Those who attend are assured of an interesting and instructive address.

Four panes of glass were broken last Saturday night on the High street side of Maryeliff Academy. The Police were notified.

ADELE HOOS LEE

Play Reviews

The inimitable Adele Hoos Lee is going to give her by now famous "Play Reviews" at the Unitarian Church on April 24 at 3 p. m. If you have never heard her, here is a new experience, but for many Winchesterites this event is going to be another afternoon in the theatre as only she can recreate it.

Mrs. Lee always gives a full, generous program of current New York and Boston reviews of plays dramatizing as she goes. The illusion of actually being in the theatre is a real experience to every one in her audience.

For her only Winchester appearance of the season save this date April 24 — on Tuesday — at 3 p. m. in Metcalf Hall in the Unitarian Church. Tickets are obtainable through Mrs. Theodore Godwin, WInchester 6-3197 or at the church office.

Frank B. Livingstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy P. Livingstone of 12 Chestnut street, following his recent arrival at Fort Dix, has completed the process of conversion from civilian to military status and has been assigned to M company, 39th Infantry, 9th Infantry Division at the Fort for six weeks of physical conditioning and instruction in general military subjects.

SPRING FASHION SHOW

Friday, April the thirteenth, is the lucky day chosen by the Winchester Florence Crittenton Circle for its annual Spring Fashion Show, to be held in the town hall at 2:30 p. m.

A Spring atmosphere will completely transform the auditorium and the models will put on a show culminating in a Bridal party. Mrs. Don S. Greer and Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, co-chairmen of the event, report that advance interest has been very keen.

Pretty high school girls will be waitresses and Mrs. Henry Dellicker, who is chairman of this committee, says they will wear yellow acacia in their hair instead of the usual waitress caps — Mrs. Dellicker is giving a coke party to get her young helpers together and give them final instructions in serving. The girls are: Lynne Stevens, Paula Lanigan, Jan Macaulay, Sona Norian, Pat Bradley, Carol Ambrose, Sue Melanson, Judy Bramhall, Mary Jane Davis, Maureen Dee, Lynne Whiting, Judy Snell, Dona Macaulay, Arlene Weafer, Mary Bostwick, Caroline Padelford, Adele Jonah, Shirley Kinney, Carolyn Oxford.

Music for the occasion will be planned by Mrs. John Ghirardini and will continue during the show.

Handling invitations and tickets are Mrs. Woodford Wilcox, and the extra special refreshments which were planned after Mrs. McCreery's now famous "tasting" party, will be in the hands of Mrs. Elisha George Pierce. Also assisting are Mrs. Langley Keyes and Mrs. Harold Blanchard. No food is being solicited from members for this unique affair, but the day before is sandwich-making day and a lively time is expected when members get together for an all-day jamboree of sandwich-making.

Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds is chairman of flower vendors who are members of the Junior Circle. They are Mrs. Benjamin Wilde, Mrs. Robert Wilde, Mrs. Richard Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Marther Porter, Mrs. John Green, Mrs. Harold Lewis and Mrs. George Blake, Jr.

There will be an attractive plant sale supervised by Mrs. Fred Ascltine and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, and there will be prizes and baby orchids and gardenias to add a festive note to the occasion. The decorations which will key-note "Spring-time in Winchester" are being planned under the direction of Mrs. Edward Kuypers and a large and able committee consisting of Mrs. Richard Harlow, Mrs. Arthur Agnew, Mrs. Richard Cunningham, Mrs. John S. Lynch, Mrs. Robert Fletcher and Mrs. R. Ronald Wyman — The many pretty hats worn by members of the Florence Crittenton Circle always add a note of color to this annual event and if the precedent of past years is followed, the spring outfits of the guests will surely carry out the "Springtime in Winchester" theme.

Proceeds will go to the Florence Crittenton League of Compassion.

AN "OLD TIMER" LEAVES TOWN

Mr. James J. Murphy of 35 Mystic avenue, a widely known resident of Winchester for many years, left town Monday to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Mary Hevey, on Commonwealth avenue in Boston.

Mr. Murphy's wife, Annie, with whom he spent 63 years of wedded life, died February 9. He is presently recovering from a slight heart attack he experienced shortly after her death, his recovery being steady and very satisfactory.

Mr. Murphy had been for many years in the employ of the Badger family in Winchester, serving the late Daniel B. Badger as coachman and caretaker of his property on Prospect street, and later driving and working in a similar capacity for Mr. Badger's son, Erastus B. Badger, when the latter went to occupy the family homestead.

In recent years Mr. Murphy has been retired, he and his late wife being seen frequently on drives about town or enjoying the sunshine on the front porch of their home.

Always cheerful, with a smile and pleasant word for everyone, "Jim" Murphy will be missed around town, especially by softball enthusiasts, for he was generally on hand at the more important Glnn Field games, seated with a group of cronies on the wall beside the diamond enjoying the action from the first to the final out, win, lose or draw!

SAWING SINCE 1812

Four generations of the same family have kept a water power sawmill in daily operation since 1812, at Marshfield, Mass. Ancestors of the owner built two houses on the property in 1622, just two years after the Mayflower arrived at nearby Plymouth.

BAY STATE HISTORICAL LEAGUE

Spring Meeting

The Worcester Historical Society, Armory Square, Worcester is entertaining the Bay State Historical League on Saturday, April 21 at 2 p. m. with the meeting at the Worcester Women's Club, Tuckerman street, around the corner from the Historical Society. A fine program has been planned, beginning with an address by the President, Hon. George R. Stubbs, followed by an "Old-fashioned" fashion show with costumes dating from 1800 to 1875. Refreshments will be served at the Historical Society.

Places to be visited before the meeting are: John Higgins Armory Museum (100 Barber avenue) open from 8 a. m. until 12, Worcester Historical Society exhibits open at 10 a. m., Worcester Art Museum, 55 Salisbury street open at 10 a. m., and Natural History Museum open at 10 a. m.

Transportation: Automobile route — follow Route 9 to Worcester over Belmont Hill (by Memorial Hospital on right) and down to Lincoln Square; cross R. R. and entire Square to Worcester Memorial Auditorium at front on right. Turn sharp right on Route 122A and proceed 200 yards to Armory Square.

By train from South Station 9 a. m., 10:45 a. m. and 12:45 ($1.74 one way.)

By bus from 10 Park Square, Boston 8:15, 9:45, 11:15 and 12:45 ($1.61 on way; $2.96 round trip.)

Places to eat: Howard Johnson's Route 9, Sheraton Hotel, Putnam and Thurston in Worcester. Box lunches may be eaten on 2nd floor of Worcester Historical Society.

PLANS MADE FOR EXPANSION PROGRAM

Mrs. Donald Wright opened her home on Wednesday evening for members of the Board of Education of Epiphany Church School. Plans for next year's expansion program were discussed, and several new ideas for the coming year's work were presented by Mrs. Wright and Mrs. William Towner, director of the Lower School. The following were present: Miss Katherine Philbrick, co-director with Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Miller, Mrs. Warren Haley, Mrs. Edgar Underwood and Mr. R. Alan Page.

BAPTIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

This Friday evening, April 6th, the monthly Fun-Nite of the Youth Fellowship will be held. This will be preceded by a Spaghetti Supper served at 6 o'clock, with Mrs. Paul E. Ward in charge. Following the meal Coach Meurling will direct the group in games, square dancing and fun for everyone. All boys and girls of Junior and Senior High age are welcome.

On Sunday evening, April 8th, the Youth Fellowship will get together at the Church for a very short meeting, after which the group will attend the special service in the Sanctuary at 7 o'clock, when the Philathea group is presenting Uncle Elmer's Radio Song Circle in a typical song circle meeting.

The members of the Junior and Senior High Church School classes are planning an exhibit of Bibles during April and May. If you have a very old Bible, or a Bible that is in some way unique, will you lend it for a few weeks? Mr. John Hunt Chapple, Director of Youth Activities, should be contacted if you have a Bible to loan.

PAST NOBLE GRAND'S SERVICE CLUB

The Past Noble Grand's Service Club of Victoria Rebekah Lodge No. 178 met at the home of Mrs. Ethel Horn, Thompson street, on March 28, 1951.

A short business meeting was held together with nomination of officers for the coming year.

The President of the Club, Miss Olive Stevenson, presided over the meeting and nominations.

The Mystery package was won by Mrs. Robert E. Smith.

After the meeting a Swap Party was held. Delicious refreshments were served by the Hostess and enjoyed by all. Thanks Ethel.

Our next meeting will be on April 25, 1951 at the home of Mrs. Alfred Denley, Maxwell road.

HOOKED RUG EXHIBIT

Plans are nearing completion for the Hooked Rug exhibit to be held in the Social and Recreation halls of the First Baptist Church, corner of Mt. Vernon and Washington streets, on Monday, April 16th from 10 a. m. until 9 p. m. The Women's League is sponsoring this annual event, under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. Walter L. Bailey and Mrs. Mark W. Coonerty, assisted by Mrs. Davenport F. Davis, President of the League, and the following committees:

Rug Committee: Mrs. Norman Mitchell, Chairman; Mrs. Edward H. Newhall, Mrs. H. Stanley Kinsley, Mrs. Frederick E. Emery, Mrs. Elmer D. Ripley, Mrs. Davenport F. Davis, Mrs. Lee Ralph, Mrs. Hazen Jonah.

Decorations: Mrs. Norman Mitchell, Chairman

"THE SNAKE" AGAIN

John "Snake" Dilorio of Winchester High was named to the WCOP Class B All Scholastic Basketball Team by Len Masters, schoolboy sports reporter, on his "High School Sports Parade" broadcast over WCOP at 6:45 p. m. last Saturday.

John, a junior, was high scorer on this year's Winchester team that tied for the Middlesex League championship and won the Class A Small Schools Crown. A forward, he is captain-elect of next year's team.

AN EVENING WITH BILL CUNNINGHAM

The Wyman School Chapter of the Winchester Mothers' Association is indeed proud to sponsor "An Evening with Bill Cunningham." Through the efforts of our President, Mrs. Virginia H. Dickey, Mr. Cunningham will speak on Wednesday evening, April 11th, at 8:30 p. m. at the High School Auditorium.

Mrs. Paul Rocray, Chairman of Ways and Means, is in charge of the evening. Working with her on tickets and publicity are Mrs. Paul M. White, Jr., Chairman of Room Mothers, Mrs. Thomas M Hill, Mrs. Robert B. L. Singer, and Mrs. Herbert F. Ross. Tickets have been distributed throughout Wyman School, and notices have been placed in all schools. Tickets are $1.20, Tax inc., and will be on sale at Filene's Friday, May 6, and Saturday, May 7, from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m.

We are pleased to present such a well-known columnist as the speaker at our annual fund-raising event. A substantial portion of the proceeds will be given to the Winchester Scholarship Foundation, the remainder being used by the Wyman School Chapter in its own school for the purpose of increasing the already cordial relationships between teachers, parents, and pupils. The Scholarship Foundation uses this money to help deserving students obtain further education, and training, beyond the High School years, in many fields of learning.

Ushers for the evening will include: Mr. Robert B. L. Singer, Mr. Thomas M. Hill, Mr. Herbert F. Ross, and Dr. Ronald Wyman.

Mr. Cunningham's name is Elias! He is just back from a look-see in Florida. Will he prophesy who is going to win the 1951 pennant? Anyway, we know he can give us much vital, interesting and pertinent information on persons in the news and sports, and on political events both here and abroad. Come with your neighbors and friends to enjoy "An Evening with Bill Cunningham." For reservations call Mrs. Robert B. L. Singer, WI 6-2401, or Mrs. Paul Rocray, WI 6-2492.

WOOD — AND YOUR SHOES

Other than as the source of the syrup that goes so well with pancakes, the casual observer would probably not regard the sturdy maple as being important to his physical well-being, and particularly with the condition of his feet. Nevertheless, upon the maple depends the style, fit, and comfort of virtually all the shoes made in the U. S. Shoes are made on lasts, and lasts are made from hard maple.

We heard no one at town meeting extend any thanks to the recent secondary school building committee when the committee was discharged at last week's session. Few realize the time given by this group to consideration of a knotty problem and the amount of genuinely hard work its members did in their attempt to arrive at a solution of our community school question. The Star believes the committee deserves a vote of thanks and in the absence of any such official action from the town extends its own hearty appreciation to the committee of its efforts in behalf of the community. We are not attempting to defend any mistakes the committee may have made. Chiefly we would say many, if not most, of them were due to political ineptness, and when you come right down to it, we have heard no member of the committee profess to any great degree of astuteness in the field of town politics. The committee also had to suffer for mistakes made by its well meaning but over-zealous friends. All in all, perhaps, their school plan may not have been a good one, but it certainly had some strong backing among official town boards who might be presumed to have the town's best interests at heart. Surely the Referendum Committee were not the only ones working for the good of the school children. Sincere persons on both sides professed to be working for the the good of the school children. Sincere persons on both sides professed to be working for the children of the town and what they need in secondary school facilities. The result to date is a stalemate. Last week we stated it is going to take a lot of give and take on both sides to arrive at any solution of our school problem that can command a two-thirds vote. If mistakes have been made, and undoubtedly there have been, on both sides of the question, let us not continue to harp upon them and hold our grudges. Let us remember the mistakes, yes, but only that we may profit from them by avoiding repetition, and let us hope that if a good plan is evolved by the new committee, it won't have its chances of acceptance marred, above all, by the efforts of its friends.

WHEN THE TREE BECOMES A CHILD

Editor of the Star:

During the recent whoop-de-doo over boys who get fun over exposing cutch busins for other children to fall into no mention was made about what might be expected of these "humorists" when they grow up into what is often euphemistically called adult maturity. I now know. They are granted licenses by a beneficent motor vehicle registry to put-see their careers along somewhat more advanced lines.

Last Saturday night one of these characters in some way managed to maneuver his car onto my lawn, get it at right angles to the drive way, break down two thirds of a beautiful Sydrangea tree that has taken years to develop, and leave a most end impression on a hedge.

I wouldn't mind that so much excepting that as this is written, this ignorant jerk has had neither the common decency nor the moral responsibility to even call or telephone me to apologize or explain, to say nothing of reimburse. This, mind you in spite of the fact that he is a local resident, his identity is known and he knows that it is known. He is either completely lacking in ordinary courtesy or is contemptuous of both that and property rights. He is just lucky in picking an individual who doesn't run squawking to the police whenever something happens. Particularly so because he left himself open to charges of drunken driving, reckless ditto, property damage and leaving the scene.

When are they going to quit giving the right to drive to such mechanical morons? When the tree becomes a child?

FARNSWORTH FOR OFFICERS SCHOOL

Editor of the Star:

It is with great pleasure and pride the writer is informed that Peter Farnsworth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., has been selected for Officers Candidate School, USA. Peter may choose to train as an Artillery Officer at Ft. Sill, Okla, or as an Infantry Officer at Ft. Benning. He has successfully competed not only with applicants from all the Armies in the United States, but with applicants from overseas. The writer is very proud when one of the hometown boys make the grade.

It is unorthodox to have any personal feelings regarding young men entering the services and herein lies the writer's great weakness! Every boy coming to the writer for consultation becomes a very personal matter and his problems become of great importance. One "sweats out" with the boy the waiting period necessary for OCS processing; rejoices with the boy who applies for, and gets, the branch and school of his choice; worries with the parents of a boy going into combat and follows the home town boys through their training periods. Every boy in town is welcome to consult with the writer.

A new low in public relations was reached in Washington by the announcement on April Fools Day of the sweeping student deferments. Let us hope no one gets fooled.

Good luck and congratulations to Peter Farnsworth and all the other town boys who have applied or are applying for OCS in the near future. Your country needs you.

Sincerely,
G. Toye, Chairman

FORTIETH YEAR TEACHING AMERICANIZATION

The Stoneham Americanization Classes held their closing exercises on Monday evening, April second, in the High School gymnasium which was seated for the occasion. The program has local interest as the Stoneham Supervisor is Mrs. Elizabeth C. McDonald of this town. It is noteworthy that Mrs. McDonald was closing her fortieth year of teaching Americanization; 25 years in Stoneham, and 15 years in various sections of Boston.

Before a large and appreciative audience the following program was offered:

Welcome — Mrs. McDonald.
Salute to the Flag — Mrs. Ruth McHale, American Legion Auxiliary.
Congratulations to classes and Supervisor — Mrs. Hazel Johnson, Chairman School Committee. (Mrs. Johnson asked other School Board members to take bows.)
State Certificate Awards — Raymond Burdick, Superintendent of Schools.
Evening School Memories — Charles E. Varney, Former Supt. of Schools.
Reminiscenses — Willard Higgins, Vocational Education director, evening school.
Greetings from American Legion — Frank (Tiger) Burns, Commander Stoneham American Legion, and Mrs. Louise Brown, President American Legion Auxiliary, and Mrs. Rose Coe, Past President American Legion Auxiliary.
Opportunities in Industrial Education — J. Joseph Tansey, Wentworth Institute.
Book Review — "Henry Gross and his Dowsing-rod," by Kenneth Roberts — County Commission Chairman James A. Cullen.
Piano Duet — Signe and Anaisa Poulson, Swedish pupils.
Songs by 6 of the Dutch pupils.
English Ballads — Phoebe Hibbard — English pupil.
Poem — "What America means to me" — Margot Dulong, German war bride, (former interpreter for U. S. and British Military Government Courts.)
God Bless America — led by Mrs. Ruth McHale and Mrs. Katharine English, new member of School Board, accompanied by William (Babe) McDonald, piano, and Victor Minichella, accordion. (Victor is a former pupil.)

An interesting feature of the evening's highlights was an elaborately decorated cake presented to their teacher by two Swedish pupils, Harry Ostlund and Gus Wikstrom. The whipped-cream frosting on this cake was embellished with Swedish and American flags centered with pale pink roses.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Phoebe Hibbard presented for the class, their gifts to Mrs. McDonald. These consisted of an armful of flowers and a set of exquisite Royal English bone China.

During the serving of a delicious lunch by the former graduates of the Americanization Classes, the Vocational Department exhibition of built dishes, handwork, painting, china, copper vessels and many other interesting articles which this year's pupils had brought from their homelands. The thirty guests who were present from Winchester voted this year's closing exercises at the Stoneham Evening School the best they had seen.

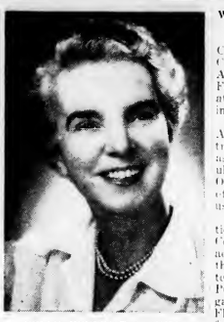

Because of their excellent attendance this year the classes are to be taken by auto next Sunday, April 8th, to see and enjoy the world-famous collection of glass flowers at the Peabody Museum in Cambridge.

HELEN HUNTINGTON SMITH

MISSION UNION GUILD

Tuesday, April 10, is Mission Union Day at the First Congregational Church. Members are invited to participate in the morning sewing at 10:00 o'clock under the direction of Miss Grace Pound and Miss Cassie Sands. Luncheon will be served at 1:00 p. m. in the Social Hall by Mrs. Arthur H. Cameron, Mrs. Ralph Meigs, and their committee.

The Annual Meeting, presided over by Mrs. Frederic B. Withington, Director of Mission Union, will be held at 1:45 in the Ladies' Parlor. At this time brief reports will be given by the committee chairmen, and the new slate of officers for 1951-52 presented. A worship service will follow, conducted by Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson.

As speaker of the afternoon, Mission Union is proud to have as its guest Helen Huntington Smith, who has had a fascinating and rewarding career in China as a teacher in Foochow under the American Board of Foreign Missions. Born of missionary parents in Ingtai, China and educated in the American School at Shanghai, she subsequently came to this country to study at Mt. Holyoke and later at Union Seminary and Teachers' College, Columbia. In 1929 she began her teaching career in China becoming a teacher at Wen Shan Girls' School in Foochow. Through the years up to 1950, when she fled China under Communist rule, she has been a highly successful teacher and Christian leader, tireless, enthusiastic and ever-serving. She has supplemented her academic activities with a variety of extra-curricular duties, serving as athletic instructor, organizing the Student Christian Association, and being a friend at large to the Chinese Christian girl.

Over the years, Wen Shan School has had an exciting history. Twice it has become a refugee institution and in 1941 it fled the invading Japanese army. On this trek Miss Smith traveled with 100 Chinese girl students in her charge for 11 days and nights. They followed country roads and mountain trails, threatened by bandits on the ground and enemy planes in the air. During that journey Miss Smith carried the school's funds wound up in her hair.

In the middle of World War II, absent from China on a furlough, she made her way back to her post after being flown over the hump from India. She was held up in Free China for more than a year before finally reaching Foochow in an Army C-47. Then she aided her school in getting back on its feet physically, mentally, and morally. In October, 1950 after working in Communist China for a year and a half, one of a limited few, she slipped under the bamboo curtain with the final dramatic message to her Chinese students and friends left behind: "Read between the lines and don't lose faith in us." In comment she adds, "This is no time for thoughtless criticism. Our Chinese brothers and sisters in the great family of God need most of all our confidence and faith, our prayers and our increasing support as they face foes of which we know nothing." Although she feels it tragic that American missionaries must withdraw from China, Miss Smith considers it essential that the Church of Christ in China face the new government unhampered by the constant thrusts that it is the imperialistic agent of America.

With her vast experience in China and coming so recently from this communistic state, Helen Huntington Smith will bring a wealth of material to speak of and a message from Christianity there.

All women of the Church and their friends are especially urged to hear her address.

HOW ABOUT IT, GIRLS?

The Star received this week a letter from D. F. "Teddy" Hawkes, an English boy serving with the Royal Air Force in England, asking for a Winchester girl, 18 to 20 years old, to be his "pen pal" and exchange letters with him.

"Teddy," his real name is Dennis, is not quite 19, and his favorite sport is football, though he says his game is not the same as the American variety.

He would be glad to hear from any girl interested, his address being 4050207 AC-2 Hawkes D., Course 11 Basic, X n s of e, Royal Air Force, Halton, Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire, England.

SERVICE PAPER REPRODUCED STAR ARTICLE

The Star was pleased to note in the April 1 edition of "News and Views," the publication serving the United States Army and United States Air Force in the First Army District, a reprint of our article praising the work of the Army and Air Force Recruiting Station in Medford. Apparently the recruiting authorities hereabouts have been most appreciative of our efforts to give a bit of credit where it manifestly is due.

Mr. Edmund C. Sanderson, chairman of the Water and Sewer Board, is ill with virus pneumonia at the New England Sanitarium in Melrose.

WHO RUNS CIVIL AIR PATROL

The National Commander of the Civil Air Patrol is appointed by the Chief of Staff of the United States Air Force. Served by a staff of Air Force officers and civilians, he is at National Headquarters in Washington.

Active intetest of the Regular Air Force in this voluntary civilian training program is shown by the assignment to each wing of Regular Air Force officers as Liaison Officer. He in turn has the services of an experienced enlisted Airman, usually a Sergeant First Class.

Reporting directly to the National Commander are the Wing Commanders, one directing C. A. P. activities in each of the 48 states, the District of Columbia, and the territories of Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. Each Wing is organized into Groups, squadrons and Flights. A typical squadron has from 50 to 200 senior members, and a typical Flight will have between 10 and 60. Each Senior unit may form a corresponding unit of C. A. P. Cadets.

Instructors for the Cadet program are usually senior C. A. P. members. Air Force Reserve members, other technically skilled former service men, or qualified civilians.

Parents, too, are asked to take active interest in the C. A. P. activities of the Cadets, as are teachers in the local school systems. Parents are asked to attend at least one C. A. P. meeting a month to watch the training program in action.

Any person who wants information about joining the Civil Air Patrol should call WI 6-0495 or WI 6-1078 after 7:00 p. m.

GALA DANCE AT EPIPHANY CHURCH

The Junior High School crowd at Epiphany Church School will hold a dance in the Parish Hall tonight, with dancing from 7:30 to 10:00 p. m. Decorations for the affair are in charge of Joan Sweetser, Ann Marks, Sharon Hartridge, Margie Thompson, Adele Mitchell, Gretchen Long, Jean McElroy and Jane Adams. Sponsors will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweetser, Mr. and Mrs. Walcott Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Adams, Mrs. James McElroy and Mrs. Virginia Dickey.

The dance will be preceded by several dinner parties. A party will be given at the home of Professor William H. Weston, Jr. for the eighth grade boys including Seth Weston, the host. Mrs. Harlow Russell, assisted by Mrs. William Towner, will entertain, as will Mrs. Benjamin T. Marshall. Mrs. R. Alan Page will hostess another affair. Mrs. Charles Sweetser, Mrs. James McElroy and Mrs. Virginia Dickey will entertain another group of young people for dinner as will Mrs. Ronald Wyman, assisted by Mrs. Maxwell McCreery and Mrs. Maxwell Fish. Other parties will be in the homes of Mrs. Kenneth Cullen, assisted by Mrs. Vincent March, and Mrs. Clarence Luitweiler, assisted by Mrs. E. P. Hall, Mrs. Frank d'Eseaux and Mrs. Bernard Chapin.

SECOND GRADE NOONAN ASSEMBLY

A spring assembly was given by the second grade at the Noonan School, Friday, March 30.

Sandra Chamberland was the announcer.

The Singing game, "Skip to My Love" was played by Michael Sullivan, Joyce Barnard, Larry Donlin, Marcia Martell, Donald Nadeau, Catherine Lizotte, Stewart Poole, Marie Gregory, Richard Franson, Jean Bolivar, and Victor Catrone.

Original poems about spring were given by Marcia Ayer, Marie Gregory, Victor Catrone, Joyce Barnard, Donald Nadeau, Helen Plante, and Catherine Lizotte.

Those who told about their pictures were Helen Plante, Stewart Poole, Michael Sullivan, Jean Bolivar, Richard Franson and Marcia Martell.

An imaginary trip out West to see what the cowboys and cowgirls do in the springtime was enacted by Ralph Marchesi, Victor Catrone, Donald Nadeau, Terry Collins, Larry Donlin, Lee Manzie and Marcia Ayer. They sang "The Cowboy Song" and "Home On The Range" around the campfire.

The final act consisted of the entire class participation in a style show. They modeled the latest spring fashions to the music of "A Pretty Girl Is Like A Melody."

ROTARY CLUB BOWLING TEAMS DINE

On Wednesday evening, April 4 the Rotary Club Bowling teams held their annual dinner at the Colonial Country Club in Lynnfield.

The teams have been playing since October winding up their final match on March 24. During that time Joe Moffett did not miss one match. Good record, Joe.

Team 3, captained by Allan Wilde with Gene Pollard, Wade Grindle, Russell Symmes and Phil Efromson were easily the top winners, winning 57 and losing 27. The team captained by Horne, Dullin, Bradlee, Ambrose and Russell came in a poor last.

The high single string goes to Allan Wilde, 127; high 3 strings to Dick Hakanson, 330; low single string to Seymour Russell, 59; and the low average to Charlie Koch, 78.7.

Members of the bowling teams and their averages for 1951 season are as follows:

Buffalo	94.5
Ambrose	93.99
Russ Symmes	91
Hakanson	90.2
Pollard	89.3

DRAMATIC GEYSERS FOLLOW RULES DESPITE UNEXPECTED APPEARANCES

Like a geyser in your backyard? Well, chances are that you won't ever have one. That's what the National Geographic Society has to say, in taking due note of events this month near California's Lake City, where such a column of steam and hot water unexpectedly knocked off a cap of earth and began roaring into the air much to the surprise of local inhabitants.

Although a geyser usually comes unheralded and gurgles, spouts, or screams in the seemingly devil-may-care mood of a New Year's Eve party, it nevertheless follows a set of rules as rigid as Victorian conventions. Well-behaved geysers have never been seen except in neighborhoods which can claim the distinction of volcanic birth.

While the geyser can be found in many areas of the earth its favorite resorts are limited to rather exclusive sections of Iceland, New Zealand, and the American West. In these widely separated locales are found the abundant hot water and complicated earthly plumbing systems necessary to geyser life.

Churn and Whistle

More geysers play in Yellowstone National Park than in all the rest of the world. The "regulars" there number somewhat more than 100, but "transients" keep appearing and disappearing from time to time.

Old Faithful, the most famous and dependable geyser in America, erupts about every hour, throwing a sheet of water 140 feet into the air. Grand Geyser, a less reliable performer, can put on a good 30-minute show when in the mood. Turban plays often and violently although its water column reaches no higher than 15 to 20 feet. Fountain Paintpot's specialty is tossing up constant showers of colored mud clods.

Churn Geyser pumps like a churn. Atomizer sprays in keeping with its name. Whistler whistles. Whirligig whirls. And Vixen Geyser is noted for temperament. Semi-centennial Geyser made its debut in 1922 and did its bit only for that year, taking its name from Yellowstone's fiftieth birth-year then being celebrated. Valentine Geyser was born on Valentine Day, 1907.

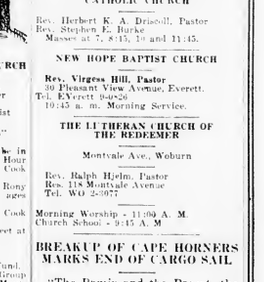

Man's Servant?

Geysers are creatures of an underground master, the volcanic furnace. They get action when steam vapors, generated by volcanic heat, build up enough pressure to push a column of water through an intricate system of pipes in the earth, until released above the ground's surface.

The geyser results of nature's power plant are spectacular to view, as visitors to Yellowstone will testify, but, if properly handled, they may also prove a source of power for man. Recently engineers harnessed two more or less dependable geysers on the little island of Ischia, in the Bay of Naples.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST, WINCHESTER

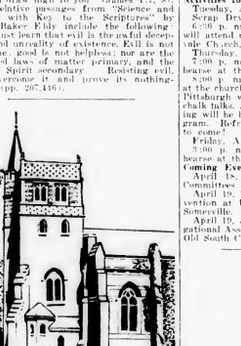

Sunday Services at 11 a. m.
Sunday School is held at the same hour as the church service.
Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson Street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The indestructible spiritual nature of good will be brought out in Christian Science services next Sunday. Title of the Lesson-Sermon is "Unreality."

The Golden Text is from Jesus' Sermon on the Mount: "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire" (Matthew 7:19).

Among the citations included in the Bible selections: "Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you" (James 4:7, 8).

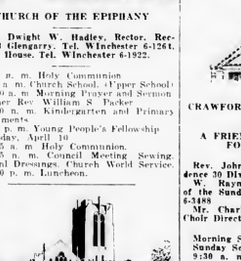

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following: "We must learn that evil is the sinful deception and unreality of existence. Evil is not supreme, good is not helpless; nor are the so-called laws of matter primary, and the law of Spirit secondary. Resisting evil, you overcome it, and prove its nothingness" (pp. 207, 416).

BREAKUP OF CAPE HORNERS MARKS END OF CARGO SAIL

"The Pamir and the Passat, the last two sailing barques to take part in the traditional grain race from Australia to England, will be taken in tow to Antwerp for breaking up."

In these few words, observes the National Geographic Society, a current dispatch from London writes a virtual obituary of Western World commercial sail. Here is why.

Launched at Hamburg in 1905 and 1911, the Pamir and the Passat early in the century were but two of dozens of stout, steel-hulled square-riggers capable of carrying 2,500 tons or more of cargo to any port in the world.

Shipyards in Finland, Sweden, Germany, and Great Britain built such vessels. Hardy seamen with blood of tar and hair of rope yarn knew every square foot of their sails. Carrying lumber, wool, grain, and other cargoes, they held their trade tenuously against the strong bid of steam.

Wars Spelled Doom

By the early 1920's, steam had ousted these picturesque windjammers from most of their commerce on the Seven Seas. But because they carried grain cheaply on the 15,000-mile Australia-to-England run, and didn't mind spending weeks in a loading dock or traveling far in ballast on the chance of a cargo, they managed to hold this trade.

Thus, in 1933, the Pamir and the Passat were two of 21 sailers which made the long and often punishing annual passage, grain-laden, from Australia to England by way of Cape Horn.

Not really races, the voyages came to be so regarded because the ships left Spencer Gulf, South Australia about the same time. The press at picturing the Cape Horners, some under as much as 40,000 square feet of sail, developed the racing theme. Battling Antarctic gales and snowstorms, tropical hurricanes and doldrums, the 1933 ships, for example, took from 83 to 146 days to complete the run.

The windjammers continued to dwindle in number. Some were converted to other power. One of the greatest went missing in the Southern Ocean, leaving no trace. The last Cape Horn grain run by several sailing ships was in 1939, by which time Finland's Aland Islands in the Gulf of Bothnia had become the last home of the fleet.

World War II, like the 1914-18 war, hastened the big windjammers' death. Bombs, mines, and raiders took a heavy toll. War broke the flow of trainees for the sailing crews.

Two-Ship Race in 1949

As sturdy, modern cargo steamers came to pampering their deck hands, offering such home comforts as choice of breakfast eggs and ice cream flavors, the men willing to accept sail's hardships disappeared. Only adventurous boys would blindly sign on for the cold, wet purgatory of the 6,000-mile struggle from Spencer Gulf to dreary Cape Horn, with the galley frequently under water and the food almost always cold.

By 1948, Pamir, Passat, Viking, and Lawhill were said to be the only genuine Cape Horners surviving. Final chapter in the grain-race saga, as the current London dispatch now proves, came in 1949. Pamir and Passat, starting from South Australia only three days or so apart, carried grain cargoes in a final grand fling at gales, hurricanes and doldrums of the rugged route around American's southern cape.

Somewhere east of Suez, thousands of Chinese junks, Makassar praus, and Arabian dhows still carry their payloads before the wind. But to the Western World's old-maritimers, commercial sail is dead — now that the cargo-carrying Cape Horner is done.

GEOGRAPHIC ODDITIES AND BRIEFS

The overland trails of the Indians, worn deep long before the white men came to America, were remarkable for following the shortest and easiest way possible between various points. So efficient, in fact, were the old wilderness routes, notes the National Geographic Society, that practically all of today's transportation lines east of the Mississippi are based on them.

The queenly pearl, always in fashion and extensively imitated, is the only precious gem to come from the sea; and the only one produced by a living process.

A short wave radio message can be sent around the world on less power than is required to operate an average size flashlight.

A CLASSIFIED AD IN THE STAR BRINGS RESULTS

MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The presidents of the eight school Chapters of the Winchester Mothers' Association were invited to meet with Dr. Norris recently at the home of Mrs. George Marks, President of the Mothers' Association. These meetings for discussion of topics of mutual interest are held several times a year in line with the policy of the organization to build and maintain active public interest in school affairs.

The Spring Concert of the Winchester School Glee Clubs, Band, and Orchestra on May 11 was announced.

The booklets explaining the composition and duties of the Winchester Mothers' Association and the Scholarship Foundation, which have been produced under the direction of Mrs. James Coon and printed in our High School print shop, are ready for distribution, and will be sent home by the school children within the next month.

A report was given of plans for the Winchester Parents' and Teachers' social evening to be held in May as a successor of last year's enthusiastically acclaimed "Friendly Frolic".

Dr. Norris presented a series of large, concise charts to illustrate school statistics in 1940, '45, '50, '51. This enlightening material has been shown and discussed at a meeting of the Winchester Rotary Club, and is available for use at group meetings.

The School Enrollment chart for the Elementary, Junior and Senior High Schools showed a total enrollment of 2,666 in 1950 compared with a total of 2,547 in 1940. Dr. Norris commented that, although this year's senior class is the smallest in years, and there is a small 8th grade entering this year, by 1954 each of the High School classes is expected to contain over 200 students, or a total exceeding 800.

The Average Teachers' Salaries chart was broken down into men's and women's salaries. Competition for teachers on the basis of salaries is keen not only from nearby communities, but also from such states as New York, New Jersey, and Connecticut. The State Aid to Education program is worthy of careful consideration.

The School Costs chart brought up the question of Vocational Training. The curriculum and facilities for this program are receiving constant study to keep them in pace with approved educational procedures. For instance, the proposed cooperative program of training High School students in conjunction with local banks, stores, shops, and factories is in line with recommended procedure in other forward-looking public school systems, since it furnishes (1) practical experience, (2) economical operation, and (3) more up-to-date equipment than a public school system can afford, as well as (4) careful, personal supervision by a trained Coordinator.

The Cost of Personal Services and Others chart afforded an opportunity for discussion of the numerous items financed under this budget estimate. It was obvious that these expenditures must be and have been administered with admirable business acumen, even to such items as trading the typewriters at the most strategic time to take advantage of the top trade-in value.

The Repairs of Buildings chart revealed amazingly low figures due particularly to three factors: — economy of upkeep of relatively new elementary schools, minimum of repair on secondary school buildings in order not to hamper the plans of the Secondary School Building Committee, and scheduling of upkeep work such as painting — to spread the expense as evenly as possible.

The Cost of Textbooks and Supplies chart showed an expected advance, but with 1951 estimated totals gratifyingly low considering the material supplied.

The representatives of the six elementary schools and two secondary schools agreed that such accurate and pertinent explanations of school statistics would be of interest to Winchester citizens, and hope that the information may be made available at some future time in public meeting.

MARYCLIFF GUILD

The regular monthly meeting of the Maryeliff Guild will be held on Tuesday, April 10th at the academy in Winchester at eight o'clock.

Mrs. J. Leo Rooney, president, will preside. Plans will be completed for the annual bridge and fashion show to be held April 27th.

Chairman of the evening will be Mrs. William Moynihan of Winchester who will present as guest speaker, Dr. Thomas E. Caulfield of Boston and Woburn.

Club members will be allowed guest privileges and refreshments will be served. Mrs. Moynihan will be assisted by the Mesdames Frank H. Ready of Lexington, John Considine of Belmont, Walter J. Hubert of Arlington and Patrick Mullaney of Winchester.

GUARD OUR EQUIPMENT!

Soaring metal scrap prices have proved too tempting for certain gentry possessed with trucks, hoists, and not too many scruples. Take the case of the logging operator who towed his rig into the deep woods and left it preparatory to beginning operations the next day. The minute he left, someone towed it off and cut it up into No. 1 Machinery Cast.

GIRL SCOUTS

Scouts planning to attend the Senior G. S. conference at Brookline on Saturday, April 7 are to meet in front of the Girl Scout Office at 9 a. m. Each Scout is reminded to bring with her the Parent-Permission slip.

Mrs. James Willing, Commissioner represented our Winchester Council at the New England States Regional Luncheon at the Kenmore Hotel Thursday, April 5. It was a privilege to meet Miss Dorothy Stratton the New National Girl Scout Director who spoke enthusiastically of the work of the Greater Boston Group in preparing for the National Convention to be held in Boston October, 1951.

Wednesday, April 11 the Girl Scout Council will meet at the Library at 10 a. m.

On Thursday and Friday, April 12 - 13 Mrs. Barbara Metcalf will attend the National Association of Girl Scout Executives at the Lennox Music Hall in Boston.

DEMONSTRATIONS IN READING IN WINCHESTER SCHOOLS

Announcement is made by Miss Marion E. Phipps, Reading Consultant in the Winchester Public Schools, that three Wednesday afternoons May 2, 9, and 16, will be used by elementary school teachers for special professional meetings. Except for the following groups, elementary school children will not be required to return on those Wednesdays for the afternoon session:

May 2 — Mrs. Esther Laughner's Grade One at Mystic School; Miss Margaret Harkins' Grade Two at Lincoln School.

May 9 — Mrs. Myrtle Dodge's Grade Three at Wyman and Mrs. Louise B. Mathews' Grade Four at Washington School.

May 16 — Mrs. Jane N. Kirkpatrick's Grade Five at Parkhurst School and Mrs. Genevieve Kelleher's Grade Six at Noonan School.

Believing that there is no one best way of teaching reading, the staff of elementary school teachers will observe the progress of reading grade by grade, and will note how six different teachers help the six demonstration classes.

Demonstration classes will be held in the children's schools, the teachers doing the travelling.

Following the demonstrations, teachers will discuss informally their techniques for teaching reading and will discuss plans to improve the reading program in Winchester Schools.

UNITARIAN PLAYERS IN "SECOND ENGAGEMENT"

Appropriately enough the name of the opening play of the Winchester Unitarian Players after a lull of several years is "Second Engagement". A big wonderful cast are deep in rehearsals now under the direction of the minister, Robert A. Storer.

Saturday night, May 5th is the date to remember when some of the former members of the group will be back "treading the boards" plus new welcome faces. For examples George Hayden who used to be top stage production man is again at it, designing an original set, and Mrs. E. B. Haynes has consented to put in hours of work as General Chairman.

The cast includes: Mrs. William Davies, Miss Nancy Nutter, Mrs. Herbert Black, Mrs. Philip Wadsworth, Mrs. W. H. D. Townley-Tilson, Mrs. Percy H. Hill, Mrs. Frank Moore, Miss Marjorie Bradford, William Spaulding, Edward Mansfield, Bradford Darling, Thornton Stearns, Jost Michelsen, Jr., Walter Keyes and Stowell Symmes.

This event is going to be a bright one on your Spring calendar. More news later about "Second Engagement" at the Unitarian Church.

WINCHESTER HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

Members of the Winchester Home and Garden Club are welcome on April 12 at Horticultural Hall to the all-day meeting of the joint Garden Federation Projects: Conservation, Roadside Beautification and Blue Star Memorial Highway.

Classes in Flower Arrangement of the Winchester Home and Garden Club will be resumed on April 12 at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Everett E. Gray under the direction of Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell.

The next regular meeting of the Club will be held April 18 at the home of Mrs. John B. Wills, and the subject will be "Planning a Garden; Transplanting; Shade Plants" by Miss Theodore Melahouris of Boston, Garden Consultant at Breck's and recommended by Garden Federation. Tea will be served.

FINAL REPORTS ON WATER POLICY

The last two volumes of the report of the President's Water Resources Policy Commission are now available (see December "Notes" for Volume 1).

D. A. R. DANCE GALA SUCCESS

A party is as successful as those who come to it make it so. And the D. A. R. Spring Dance Formal which was held last Saturday evening in the Town Hall was as gala and brilliant as any ever held there before. The entire hall was transformed into a beautiful spring garden with pussy-willows and forsythia boughs everywhere and even the table covers had gay little bouquets covering them. This, of course, was the first dancing party which the Committee of Safety Chapter of the Winchester D. A. R. has ever sponsored and since it was such a tremendous success both financially and socially, the following committee who worked hard for its accomplishment is most grateful:

MARYCLIFF ACADEMY HOLDS SCIENCE FAIR

This Saturday and Sunday, April 7 and 8, 25 students of Maryeliff Academy, Winchester, will exhibit their science projects. The Science Fair will be open to the public between 2:00 and 5:00 p. m. on Saturday and Sunday. Included among the exhibits will be studies of the human body, the eye, the ear, the heart and its functions, and the structure and diseases of the spine. Students of the Junior and Senior years have experimented with vertebrate physiology, genetics and the treatment of anemia by using Vitamin B12.

On Saturday, Mr. Raymond Scott of Cambridge Technology, Mr. John Brennan of Somerville High and Sister Eamon, S. S. J., of Cathedral High, Boston, will judge the students' work. Reverend Mother Cloonan, R. C. E. will give awards to the exhibitors displaying the best work: three blue ribbons, seven red ribbons and fourteen white ribbons. The three first prize winners will represent the Academy at the Diocesan Science Fair held at Mechanics Building on April 27 and 28.

BILL WEST'S STORY

Former High School Grid Star Saw Rugged Going in Korea

Captain William I. West, USA, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. West of Wedgemere avenue, got home from the wars last week, browned and back to his old football weight of just under 200 pounds after loafing in the sun on shipboard during his three weeks' return trip from the Orient. A brief announcement from his mother last Thursday that "Bill" was home took the Star sports writer back a few years to 1939 when the big boy, not so big then, was breaking into high school football.

Toward the end of the 1939 season a well set up freshman commenced to get into the high school backfield, throwing an occasional pass, punting a bit and running with the ball when he got a chance.

It wasn't so much what he did as the way he did it that impressed judges of football, who prophesied that some day "that young West", for that was the freshman's name, would be quite a football player. How right they were!

"Bill" West went on to prove himself one of Winchester High's greatest football stars, perhaps the best individual player the school has produced. If this writer was forced to pick an all time Winchester High eleven, he would start with "Bill" and then wonder where he would go from there!

Won Football Honors

After captaining Winchester's State Championship team in 1942 and winning all scholastic honors from Boston sports writers, "Bill" joined the Navy during World War II and was assigned to Dartmouth. He played war time football there, but not for long, as he got a chance to transfer to West Point and entered the Military Academy, from which he was graduated with the commission of 2nd lieutenant in 1947. At the Point "Bill" played hockey and lacrosse as well as football, being a regular member of that Cadet backfield which included "Doc" Blanchard and Glenn Davis. After his graduation he gave a couple of great exhibitions in all star games, playing for collegian elevens against professional teams.

"Bill" spent a year in the States after his graduation from West Point, part of the time at ground general school at Fort Riley, Kansas, and part of the time studying armor at Fort Knox, Ky.

Sent to the Orient

In August of 1948 Lt. West sailed for Japan where he joined the First Cavalry, General MacArthur's favorite outfit, in the Toyko-Yokohama area. Attached to the 8th Cavalry Regiment, which is really infantry now, Lt. West spent two years around Toyko, as a hobby coaching and playing with the Regimental football team that won the Division championship and was the best team on the Island. "Boy", said he, "I'd like to have played Winchester with that team of mine. They were smooth!"

In December of 1948 "Bill" was promoted to 1st Lieutenant, and January 11, 1950, became aide to the commander of the First Cavalry Division, General Hobart Gay, for whom he entertains the highest regard, both as a man and soldier.

Sailed for Korea

The First Cavalry Division, comprising the 2nd, 7th and 8th Cavalry Regiments, sailed for Korea July 15, 1950. Incidentally the 7th Cavalry is General Custer's old regiment and the young cavalry tradition has given the entire division a spirit that is very high.

In Korea the First Cavalry relieved the 24th Division at Yongdong and fought a series of delaying actions back to the Naktong River in what was known as the Pusan Perimeter. From August 1 to September 21, 1950, the First Cavalry defended the City of Taegu, and this, according to "Bill", was a really rough assignment for the division, at little better than half strength was called upon to defend a 46 mile front, usually defended by an entire army.

Big "Break Through"

From this assignment the First broke through the enemy and joined the 7th Division at Suwon after the 7th's landing at Inchon. In that maneuver General Gay's troops covered 100 miles in 24 hours, which the General believes is the fastest breakthrough in military history, even faster than the famous breakthrough of General Patton's 3rd Army in Europe during World War II.

From its junction with the 7th, the First Division pushed up to the 38th Parallel, where it waited a decision on crossing into North Korea. In October, 1950, the First Cavalry was the first American unit to cross the 38th Parallel, going on to capture the North Korean Capitol of Pingyang. "Bill's" outfit led all the way from Taegu to Pingyang and was the first to enter the city.

This was supposed to be the First's final mission before sailing back to Japan, but in November the Chinese communists entered the fighting and the Division was ordered to move north again.

This push north was halted when the 8th Cavalry got cut off at Unsan, forcing a gradual withdrawal of the First Cavalry Division back to the 38th Parallel. Additional pressure forced further withdrawal to Chunuju, below the 38th. "Bill" characterized the going during this withdrawal as "rough" with waves of Chinese reds and North Koreans being constantly thrown against the U. N. troops despite terrific losses. American fire power would mow down the Reds in droves, but still they came on, some armed only with sharpened sticks. Many were in American uniform.

From Chunuju the First Cavalry began another northern push, January 21, 1951, and by now are once again at the 38th Parallel.

Promotion and Decoration

On August 26, 1950, "Bill" was promoted from 1st Lieutenant to Captain, while in the field, which is a distinction, and September 6, 1950, his gallantry in action won him the Silver Star decoration.

While in action north of Taegu the 8th Cavalry had one of its battalions cut off by North Koreans who had infiltrated behind the Regiment on high ground on both sides of a vital road and set up a road block.

General Gay and Captain West as his aide went to investigate and while in the vicinity of the road black "Bill" was delighted to run into an old West Point football team-mate, 1st Lt. Art Geremetta, who was preparing to take off with his outfit to fight his way through to the cut off battalion.

Getting his General's permission, Captain West went along with his old gridiron buddy, whose unit fought their way in to the cut off 8th soldiers and rescued them. During the action "Bill" was in the thick of it, at one point mounting a tank in an exposed position and firing a 50 caliber machine-gun. This courageous act and his general bearing won him the Silver Star and the admiration of his associates.

On February 5, 1951, Captain West accompanied General Gay back to Japan under the rotation of general officers plan. For a month they were in Japan before commencing their three weeks' voyage back to America.

"Bill" has a thirty day leave, after which he will rejoin General Gay who is Deputy Commander of the 4th Army with headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas. Right now Capt. West is still the General's aide, but he is not at all sure what his future in the Army will be. He expects to be assigned to a tank unit and thinks he may be sent to Europe.

"Bill" had a good word to say for the British and Australian soldiers of the British 27th Brigade, who served with the First Cavalry. A battalion each of the Argyles and Middlesex troops comprised the British unit with a battalion of the Royal Australians. The Australians are tops in Captain West's book, wanting to fight all the time. The Marines are good, too, and were characterized by Captain West as finely disciplined troops.

RIFLE TEAM DOWNS WAKEFIELD

The Winchester High School Boys' Rifle team won its first rifle match, Monday night, April 2, 1951. The losing team was the Wakefield High School Rifle Team.

This was the first rifle match in which the Winchester team has been evenly matched. The Wakefield Team gave them a good run, but Eddie Cullen, the captain of the Winchester team saved the day with 171.

The scores were as follows:

CARS CRASHED AT INTERSECTION

Two automobiles were in collision at 11:30 last Thursday evening at the intersection of Cambridge, Church and High streets.

Gunnar W. Deurell of 188 Central avenue, Medford, told the Police he had stopped his Chevrolet sedan for a red traffic light at the intersection while headed south on Cambridge.

As he did so his machine was in collision with a Ford sedan, following his car and driven by Frederick F. McDonald of 8 Elbert street, Billerica. McDonald told the police he applied his brakes but was unable to avoid the collision.

Both machines were damaged, the Ford being so badly smashed about the front end it had to be towed away. Deurell complained of injuries to his back but his 19 year old daughter who was riding with him was unhurt and no injuries were reported in the other machine.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Leary announce the birth of a son, William MacLellan, born at the Winchester Hospital April 3.

TIME FOR ACCURACY

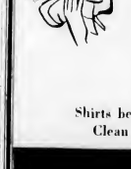

"Can you make this up in a hurry?" is a question we often hear in our prescription department. And our answer is always that we prepare the prescription promptly but that we cannot rush the compounding of any medicine. We must take the full amount of time needed to assure absolute accuracy in carrying out the doctor's instructions. And although we can't hurry a prescription, we will let you know exactly when your medicine will be ready and you will receive it at the time promised.

WINCHESTER HAD GREAT BASKETBALL SEASON

When jittery Winchester High lost a five-point Tech Tournament game to Milton at the Boston Garden on March 8, the Indians concluded their finest basketball season in many years with an enviable record of 22 wins and only three defeats. Previous to its appearance in the Tech Tournament Winchester won the Class A division of the Small Schools Tournament at Malden, beating Christopher Columbus High of Boston, Lexington and Needham in succeeding games. In addition to beating Lexington, one of the teams to beat the Indians during the regular season, and Needham in the closing week of the Small Schools tourney, Winchester played and beat Winthrop and traditional rival, Woburn, facing Winthrop at Winthrop Tuesday, Lexington, Wednesday; Woburn at Woburn Friday and Needham, Saturday.

Winning four games in a week, all of them on foreign floors, is consistency of a high order, and also attests to the versatility of the local boys, coached by Ted Bartlett and trained by Lou Goddu. No Winchester boop team has a better record, few have done as well.

Ask a man in the street will say that Winchester had great material this year. Perhaps you agree, take a peek at the Middlesex League "all star" selections made at the close of the season by the coaches, who know the capabilities of the players best.

Not a single Winchester boy was picked for the first team, despite the fact that Winchester tied with Lexington for the league championship, and only two of the Indians' varsity squad of eight got on the second team. It wasn't individual class that carried Winchester to its great season's record. The boys were for the most part very slow and all were inexperienced in varsity play.

Expert coaching by Ted Bartlett, who got the very most out of the team both offensively and defensively, plus fine team spirit, good shooting ability and height were the factors that brought success.

You can't over-emphasize the coaching. It has been consistently outstanding ever since Coach Bartlett took over before the war. Since his return from the service in 1948 his teams in four years have won 67 and lost 18, showing steady improvement until they hit the jackpot this season. Last year's team also did well, having a 17 and 5 record.

Coach Bartlett did not expect to have so fine a season this year. He started working with the group that was his varsity as freshmen two years ago, and kept the boys together last year when they played as a second team. With this year to acquire varsity experience and poise, he expected the team to arrive next year as a senior group. Coach Bartlett was as surprised as any one at this year's record, surprised, and shall we say, pleased!

Winchester made its previous appearance in a Tech tournament in 1943, when Henry Knowlton was coaching and the team was captained by Pete Twombly. Playing that year, with half the members suffering from heavy colds, the team was eliminated as was the case this year, in the first round. The '43 team finished second in the Middlesex League.

This year's team had no permanent captain, there being no letter player available to elect at the end of the preceding season. That is also one for the book, winning two titles and a Tech Tournament berth without a letter player to start the campaign.

Winchester in 25 games scored 1323 points for an average of 53.3 per game, holding the opposition to 1008 and an average of 40.3. In modern high scoring basketball holding the opposition to about 40 points per game is good.

This year's club had fine scoring balance there being only a 68 point spread throughout the first group. Johnny Dilorio, captain-elect, led the team in scoring with 258 points for the season, breaking Walter Murphy's previous record of 244 points, made in three less games. "Snake's" game average was 10.3.

Doug Hawkins was runner up to Dilorio with 243 points. Stowell Symmes had 226, Charlie Murphy 200 and "Rod" Long 190. Johnny Farrell led the reserve group of players with 85.

This year's team had a shooting average of 35.1, which is very good. Its foul shooting average, 48.6, is only mediocre. Symmes had the best shooting average, 44, with Long, second, with 39.5. Bob Forrester was best at the foul line with an average of 64.6. Long was again second with 54.5.

The current team, first Middlesex League co-champ since 1938, did not lose a home game, losing but three out of 15 games away, an outstanding record. Undoubtedly its key victory was its 43 - 42 defeat of Belmont at Belmont, and in this connection it should be remembered Winchester is the only team to beat Belmont on Belmont's court in a league game in five years. The Indians have turned this difficult trick for two years in a row.

Johnny Dilorio and Stowell Symmes were the starting forwards this year with Rodney Long at Center and Doug Hawkins and Charlie Murphy, guards. Bob Forrester and Peter Coon were forward replacements and Johnny Farrell and Tony Cirurso, sub-guards. Big Joe Donlon, football star, came very fast toward the end of the season on the second team and when Long came down with the flu before the second Stoneham game, he stepped into the breach and started the last nine games at guard. Hawkins moved up to center with Long as relief. Both Long and Forrester missed the Stoneham game because of illness, and this was the only time the team was not intact, an unfortunate time it turned out to be, too! Thomas Gallagher was manager.

What's the outlook for next year? Not bad, at all! Nine letter men will be back, Tony Cirurso being the only senior on this year's varsity. The entire second team, with a winning average of 18 out of 19, returned and there were one or two pretty good boys on the freshman team that won 10 of 11. Athletic Director Henry Knowlton coached both these groups, and Bill Carleton, who had to give up playing after a polio attack, managed the seconds.

This year's record follows:

NINETEENTH W. H. S. VAUDEVILLE

April 13 and 14

Two weeks and then Vaudeville, the greatest show on a high school stage, featuring 120 performers and a tremendous supporting cast, will open for the nineteenth year under the direction of Mr. Ray V. Hayward.

Vaudeville number nineteen will be a new show. A seven-piece dance band reported to be soft as silk will be a departure from the traditional brass band motif. Male soloists, after too long an absence, will again appear along with a mixed octette of soft-shoe hoofers, and a Phyllis O'Neil and Jean Neiley trained male ballet.

The famous Octette, somewhat more prominently featured, will give its customary top-flight performance as a unit and will also provide duet and solo numbers.

A hilarious glimpse of Hot-Rod Harold, a brother-sister act, magic by three of the prettiest girls minus their grown-up rabbits, dance groups with more fetching costumes than ever, and girl tumblers returning for their third season — all add up to show enough for anybody.

A new feature will be the public announcement of the winners of the contest to determine the prettiest girl and the handsomest boy. The winners will be unveiled and introduced to the audience by Mr. Thomas Morse. Several handsome prizes will be awarded.

Three-quarters of last year's Faculty Quartet, augmented by the voice and person of Mr. Fred Felmet, will appear again.

Posters prepared by art students directed by Miss Pauline Goodrich will shortly set forth time, place, and price. Jean Neiley's winning design will cover the programs.

A matinee performance at three-thirty on Friday, April 13, featuring four acts by Junior High School performers, will be especially for the younger set and a good "take" for anyone.

Miss Sue Hight, Winchester girl currently playing in the Broadway musical comedy, "Gentlemen Prefer Blonds'," came home from New York to spend a few hours of the Easter week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hight of Ledyard road.

HARVARD REPORTS ON "DILE"

A little more than a year ago, a [illegible] caught the eye of Harvard's diving coach Charlie Batterman as the frosh [illegible] through the yard [illegible] announce test dive, every [illegible] dent is required to take. Batterman suggested that the boy come out for the swimming team, and last week Paul W. Dillingham, Jr., of Cleveland, Ohio, formerly of Winchester, justified that advice by winning the Eastern Intercollegiate three meter diving championship.

"Pete," who had never swum competitively before he entered Harvard, displayed a natural ability for the aquatic sport from the first, and in his freshman year was the New England senior low board champion. Undefeated in nine meets as a freshman, he quickly took over the number one spot on both one and three meter high boards on the varsity squad this year. Coach Hal Ulen, veteran Harvard swimming mentor, calls the twenty-year old sophomore the most outstanding diving prospect that he has handled in many years, and is very enthusiastic about his future possibilities.

In addition to winning the Eastern crown, Dillingham was undefeated in regular season competition against his year, and his victories include two triumphs over Yale's ace Roger Hadlich. He has been entered in the national intercollegiate meet on March 30 and 31, at the University of Texas.

A star half-back on the 1949 Crimson freshman eleven, Dillingham gave up football last fall to concentrate his efforts on diving, but he expects to show up for spring practice and probably return to the gridiron sport again next fall.

Athletics, however, consume only a portion of his time at the nation's oldest university. His primary concern is with maintaining his scholarship grades in the Physical Sciences, his field of concentration. He is a pre-medical student and is a candidate for general honors.

Dillingham was graduated from Winchester High School in 1949. While there he earned letters in basketball, track, and football, which he co-captained in his senior year. He is the son of Lt. Colonel and Mrs. Paul W. Dillingham, Columbus General Depot, Columbus, Ohio.

AVENGERS LOSE RETURN GAME

In its second start the Winchester Avenger Hockey Team was defeated by an improved Waltham Hockey Club, on Friday, March 23, at the Cambridge Skating Club, by a score of 9 to 8.

Playing the best they could, the Winchester stickmen were led by their captain, Mahoney, who scored four times, while MacLeod, Lawson, Sericka and Mills each scored once.

The Waltham Club was sparked by Belle who scored three goals, while Petralia and O'Neil scored twice, with Greene and Johnson each hitting the cage once.

Winchester — G. Sipp; rd, MacLeod; ld, Sericka; c, Mahoney; rw, Lawson; lw, Dalton.

Waltham — G. Wadleigh; rd, Taylor; ld, Smith; c, Petralia; rw, O'Neil; lw, Belle.

MISS LEITWEILER ELECTED PRESIDENT

Miss Sarah Luitweiler of this town, has been elected president of the Women's Athletic Association by her fellow students at the College for Women of the University of Rochester.

Miss Luitweiler, a junior, has been active in student activities since her freshman year. In the line of athletics, she attended the Hockey Conference and was Captain of Freshman Basketball. As a sophomore, she was a student counsellor, head of hazing, and attended Cornell Playday. This year she has served as Chairman of Freshman Camp, Chairman of Cutler Union House Committee, a player in the National Hockey Tournament, and Chairman of the Christmas College Supper.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Luitweiler of 89 Cambridge street, she is a graduate of Winchester High School.

ATTENDED COACHES' MEETING

Winchester's Athletic Director, Henry Knowlton, attended the spring meeting of the Massachusetts State Coaches' Association at Holy Cross College in Worcester last Saturday, taking along Andrew Lentine, line coach at high school for the past two seasons, and Dick Kent of Arlington, who has been assisting in the athletic department at high school during the winter months.

In addition to the football clinic, at which Mr. Knowlton spent most of his time, there were clinics in track, baseball, basketball and hockey with outstanding coaches in charge of each.

Handling the football clinic were Dr. Edward N. Anderson, head coach at Mt. St. James; Jim Harris, line coach at "The Cross"; and "Chuckin' Charlie" O'Rourke, that old Bald Eagle, now backfield coach at H. C. Boston College's new coach, Mike Holovak, and Lloyd Jordan of Winchester, varsity coach at Harvard, were among the speakers.

Coach Knowlton naturally gravitated down to football practice and was impressed with the displacement and ability of the candidates he saw there, giving it as his considered opinion that "The Cross" is going to be very tough pickings for anyone in another year or so. He also spoke at terms of high praise of the steaks served in the Holy Cross dining room during the noon luncheon, and there are few who like their steaks, thick or thin, better than Winchester's popular coach.

TRACK MEN REPORT

Coach Henry Knowlton has a total of 16 candidates for his 1951 track team at Winchester High, but there is a scarcity of veteran performers available.

Co-captains Bob O'Brien and John Richmond are experienced sprinters, backed up by "Buzzie" Bird, miler; John Foley, half-miler; Tom Wilder, hurdler and 220 man and Bruce Corthell, hurdler and dash man.

Several candidates from last fall's cross country team are also helping to brighten the picture.

Big Joe Donlon has shown potentialities in the shot and high jump, and because of his superb build, Coach Knowlton is considering his possibilities as a hurdler. Rangy and fast, Joe may develop into a dependable man in this increasingly important event.

Jost Michelsen, varsity football quarterback, is going out for track instead of baseball this spring and is expected to bolster the track forces. Tall basketball center, Doug Hawkins, is also out for track.

Winchester's first meet is with Winthrop on April 27, after which the team meets Lexington, always a track power, on May 4.

BASE BALL PROSPECTS NOT ROSY

[illegible] Winchester High baseball [illegible] season [illegible] Harbor [illegible] Coach Ted Bartlett [illegible] Coach Lou Goddu [illegible] Bartlett [illegible] veterans [illegible] season.

Jack Murphy and Stowell Symmes were regular pitchers a year ago as sophomores and should be effective this year with a season's experience behind them, plus summer play with the Junior Legion.

Captain Tony Cirurso was the regular second baseman last year and figures to repeat with Eddie Crowley back to play first base, "Snake" Delorio, an infielder, and "Prep" Keyes, an outfielder, played some last year and had a summer of Junior Legion baseball to help them toward varsity jobs this year. "Charlie" DeFilipo is another youngster who has had valuable experience with the Junior Legion.

Coach Bartlett's principal job is finding a catching replacement for the graduated Tommy Dee and a shortstop to fill George Tansey's shoes. Dilorio is expected to take over John Power's place at third.

"Chocko" Sericka is being groomed for the catching job. A big rangy lad with a good arm, he may be the answer. Winchester plays its first league game with Wakefield at Wakefield April 17 and its first home game with Reading three days later.

"FISHIN' FOR FUN"

"Fishin' For Fun", a new 2-reel sound motion picture starring Ben Hardesty, Boston professional all-around bait and fly-casting champion, will be shown to an audience of some 500 fishing enthusiasts at Rates Hall at the Huntington Avenue Y. M. C. A., Tuesday, April 10, at 7:45 p. m.

This was announced this week by William C. Hultgren of 84 Woodside road, Director of the 7th Annual Fishermen's Clinic, who disclosed that a 16mm print of the film for the special showing is being obtained from the Detroit headquarters of the Fisher Body Division of General Motors, the firm that produced and is distributing the picture.

Described as an important contribution to fishing lore by conservation authorities and others who have viewed it, "Fishin' For Fun" presents a comprehensive exhibition in the art of fishing and casting, encouraging participation in the sport and emphasizing the thrill every fisherman seeks, according to Mr. Hultgren, who states that the film is completely devoid of advertising save for the credit titles.

Hardesty, a plain and fancy fisherman who truly labors for love, is described by Ted Husing who narrates the film as "a guy who drops 'em in a tea cup as far away as you can see it." He gives an exciting and dramatic display of angling for trout, bass, bonefish, sailfish and tarpon.

The film is a great display of the art of angling that is truly one of the greatest of American sports.

COE CHOSEN FOR COURSE AT M. I. T.

Benjamin P. Coe, former Winchester High track star and son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Coe of San Diego, Cal., formerly of Lagrange Street, is one of five Bowdoin College undergraduates recommended by the Bowdoin College Committee on the Bowdoin - M. I. T. Program to Massachusetts Institute of Technology for enrollment at the first time in the fall of 1951 for study under the combined study plan.

These men have received honor grades in their courses in mathematics and in the natural sciences, and have planned their programs at M. I. T. with that in mind.

If they are accepted by the Institute and their work there is satisfactory, they will receive simultaneous degrees of Bachelor of Arts from Bowdoin and Bachelor of Science from M. I. T.

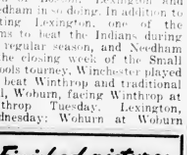

Coe is on the Dean's List at Bowdoin and is a James Bowdoin Scholar. He is also vice president of his class as well as of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, is a member of the Student Council and librarian of the Record Club. He prepared for college at Winchester High School.

UNUSED WOOD RESOURCES

A recent inventory of wood left on the ground in logging operations and the waste of wood-using industries in the State of Washington shows that nearly 210 million cubic feet of wood resources are wasted annually in that State. This is equivalent to three million tons of dry wood, enough to support five paper mills, or to produce 150 million gallons of industrial alcohol, now a critical item.

Mrs. Thomas I. Freeburn of Cabot street has returned from Coral Gables, Florida, where she has been the guest of Mrs. William C. Thayer the past two months.

CONGRESSMAN
JOSEPH W MARTIN, JR.

WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB OF WINCHESTER

The Women's Republican Club of Winchester will terminate an active year on Monday, April 16th, at the Epiphany Parish Hall, on Church street.

The event is the annual meeting, with the election of Officers and the annual luncheon. The luncheon will be at 12:30 p. m.

Through the indefatigable efforts of Mrs. Barnes, the President, Congressman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., has been secured as the main attraction.

"Joe" Martin is the Minority leader of the House of Representatives. He was born in North Attleboro, November 3rd, 1884. He has honorary degrees of LL.D from Tufts College; LL.D from Penn. Military College; D. C. L. from Boston University; M. S. B. A. from Bryant College, Providence; has been publisher of the Evening Chronicle, North Attleboro, and the Franklin Sentinel, Franklin, Mass.

Since 1912 he has served continually in prominent positions as a representative of the Republican party. Among the offices he has held has been the permanent Chairmanship of the Rep. National Convention at Philadelphia, in 1948. In 1924 he was elected member of the 69th Congress and each succeeding Congress; elected speaker of the House on January 3, 1947, on January 3, 1949 and in January 1951 he was elected Minority Leader, which position he now holds.

His topic will be "Republican Party can save the American way of Life."

To hear him lecture is an opportunity that no one should miss, also an opportunity to see and chat with a man who is close to the very pulse of the country.

CONGRESSWOMAN
EDITH NOURSE ROGERS

Edith Nourse Rogers, our Congresswoman from the 5th Congressional District, is no stranger to Winchester people. She has accepted the Club's invitation to attend the luncheon and will be on hand to greet her many friends.

Mrs. Rogers, since 1925, when she was elected to Congress to fill the vacancy of her late husband, the Hon. John Jacob Rogers, has consistently fought for all bills pertaining to benefits for the Veterans. On this subject she is an authority as she was a member of the Women's Overseas League and the American Legion Auxiliary. She served overseas in 1917 with the American Red Cross and later in 1922, 1923 and 1929 was personal representative of the disabled Veterans.

Another distinguished guest will be Mr. Richard Preston, the new Chairman of the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee. Mr. Preston, a former Commander in the Navy, represents the younger element of the new post-war type, which is rising to active leadership throughout the Commonwealth.

Mr. Preston will present a Certificate of Appreciation to the Winchester Republican Club by the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee, in recognition of the financial support the Club and its members gave in the 1950 campaign. He will present his plans for the 1951 - 1952 campaign which facts are of paramount importance and should prove most interesting.

Other honored guests who will sit at the head table are the Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, who will give the invocation; Mrs. Charles P. Howard, National Committee-woman of Massachusetts and Secretary of the Rep. National Committee; Mrs. Raymond W. Wheeler, Vice Chairman of the Rep. State Committee; Mrs. Joseph L. Roberts, State Committee-woman, 6th Middlesex District; Mrs. Hollis M. Gott, Pres. of the Arlington Women's Rep. Club; Mrs. N. S. Baxter, Pres. of the Medford Women's Rep. Club, and Mr. Ralph H. Bonnell of Winchester, State Committeeman of the 6th Middlesex District.

Senator Robert P. Campbell, of Medford, 6th Middlesex District, Representative Harrison Chadwick, of Winchester, representing Winchester in the State Legislature.

Others attending will be Mr. William J. Speers, Jr., Chairman of the Rep. Town Committee, Mrs. Theodore Elliott, Vice-Chairman of the Rep. Town Committee, Mr. William A. Wilde, Jr., President of the Winchester Republican "21" Club, Mrs. Alonzo F. Woodside, founder and Honorary President of Women's Republican Club of Winchester, Mrs. Howard J. Chidley, 1st Committee-woman of 6th Senatorial District; Mrs. William I. Palmer, 1st Chairman Women's Division of Winchester Town Committee; Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds, President elect of the Women's Republican Club of Winchester Mrs. Theo C. Browne, 1st Vice President of the Club, who is in charge of the annual luncheon and Mr. James H. Penaligan, representing the Winchester Star.

Since the capacity of the Parish Hall is only 200 it is advisable to secure your tickets immediately in anticipation of this stellar event.

FORUM TO SPONSOR SPRING FEVER FROLIC

The first dance of the spring season got under way on Friday evening, March 30, at 8:00 p. m. in the Parish Hall of the First Congregational Church. The hall was gaily decorated with a bright, cheery touch of spring. The music for this gala event was provided by Ed Tarr's band, "The Novettes," and it being the first dance of spring, a large crowd of young people were attracted.

This event has been scheduled since last October and final plans were made two weeks ago by the Social Committee over which Tina Tonon presided. Committees for decorations, tickets, properties, and refreshments were appointed, among whom were: Paul Leverette, Bob Traut, Scott Cunningham, Marcia Cunninghamm and Nancy Morse.

Others who attended the meeting and assisted in various ways were: Dobby Fish, Marjorie Carlson, Barbara Hammett, Judy Higgins, Jenny Meigs, George DeCamp, Jackie Sturtevant, John Becker, Dave and Janet Archibald, Audrey Clark, Judy Geerts, Sue Mitchell, Ricky Phippen, Gail Stratton, Don Cameron, and Bob Burnham. It was Bob who provided the name for the dance.

A Winchester student, Irving Dingwell, Jr., has been elected to Tau Beta Pi, honorary engineering society, at Tufts College, Medford. Dingwell, a senior at Tufts School of Engineering, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Dingwell, 184 Mystic Valley Parkway, and is a graduate of Winchester High School.

LITERATURE DISCUSSED BY FATHER BURKE

In response to several requests for the discussion of literature and authors by Rev. David M. Burke at a recent meeting of Winchester chapter, Guild of the Infant Saviour, the Star is printing the following summary of his remarks:

"Father Burke, an inspired and inspiring speaker, asked us to accompany him on an imaginery Easter Parade down Commonwealth avenue, where contrary to the usual custom, we would meet not the height in fashion but the height in literary genius. First stop on our stroll was at a bench on which was seated the former schoolteacher, Helen C. White, from whose novels Watch in the Night, Not Built with Hands and To the End of the World, Father Burke read several well-chosen passages. Moving along we encountered a man known primarily as a poet but who is also a great novelist, Alfred Noyes. Of Noyes' works, Father Burke chose to review and read from the classic, Orchards Bay.

Strolling on we came upon one of the interesting, tragic and inspiring figures in English literature, namely, Francis Thompson, whose hauntingly beautiful Hound of Heaven is familiar to everyone and whose fervent love of children is so beautifully expressed in the poem "Daisy," read by Father Burke, and in his epitaph, "Look for me in the nurseries of heaven." Still strolling, we met with a gigantic figure, a veritable "mountain" of a man, only to discover he was that magnificent master of prose, poetry and humor, Gilbert Keith Chesterton. "G. K." is in a class by himself, Father Burke explained, and of his numerous works he chose to mention especially Man Alive, The Biography of St. Thomas, Orthodoxy, Everlasting Man and his ever popular Father Brown stories.

On a bench at the right we noted those two great humorists, T. A. Daly and J. B. Morton but they were so engrossed in their own fun we passed along. Next we chanced to meet that famous English novelist, Graham Greene, who was a great writer long before his controversial Heart of the Master was published and whose novels Fallen Idol and The Third Man have been made into movies. Of Greene's books, Father Burke reviewed The Labyrinthine Way, since changed to The Power and the Glory. This book Father Burke named "the crowning gem of 1940." The figure with his back to us, who would not turn around, was that prolific writer "Anonymous," whose book, My Unknown Chum, Father Burke said, is a beautifully written but sadly neglected work. The last of our Easter Paraders were those two noted writers, Monsignors Fulton J. Sheen and Robert Hugh Benson. Outstanding among these great authors' work, Father Burke feels, are Monsignor Sheen's Divine Romance and Monsignor Benson's Kings' Achievement and Loneliness.

Private Francis A. Smith, the son of Mr. Frank A. Smith of 247 Swanton street, is undergoing on-the-job training as a disbursement clerk in the Finance Office, at George Air Force Base, Calif., near Victorville. He is assigned to Headquarters and Headquarters Squadron, 1st Fighter-Interceptor Wing.

SCOUTORAMA AT TUFTS

Fellsland Council, comprising Boy Scouts in Burlington, Medford, Stoneham, Winchester and Woburn, will hold its annual Scoutorama at Tufts College Saturday, April 28, commencing at 1 p. m.

Rally events, demonstrations and skits will be held in Cousens Gymnasium with the booth displays in the baseball cage, the dirt floor of which is better suited for tent-pegging and other camping displays.

Tufts is going all out in cooperating with the Scouts in putting on the exposition. The college campus police will assist in every way possible and the use of several college trucks has been offered the Council by the Maintenance Superintendent Jan Friis. The Gym has a seating capacity of 3,500 and parking space is available for over 3,000 cars.

Cub Scout events will be held during the afternoon, preliminaries and finals taking place in such competitions as knot-tying, walking the plank, tug-o-war, skits and musical selections. Supper will be served after the Cub events with the finals in Scout and Explorer events coming in the evening. Preliminaries in the competition for older scouts will be held during the afternoon and will consist of fire building by both flint and steel and friction, Morse Code signalling, tug-o-war, rope climbing, knot-tying, bugling, first aid, carries and blinker signalling as well as entertainments and displays.

Winchester Scouts and Cubs are working hard to make a good showing in the various competitions and it is hoped that local parents and friends will lend them encouragement and support by attending the Scoutorama at some time during its progress.

Mrs. Robert E. Hight of 21 Ledyard road is spending several weeks in Tucson, Ariz., visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Ballou Phillips of Tucson and New York City.

MRS. POWELL TO BE HOSTESS

Members and guests of the Winchester Toastmistress Club are looking forward to their next meeting to be held at Mrs. Hope Powell's charming new home on Lawrence street, Wakefield, the evening of April 10th.

This club whose purpose is to give its members practice and poise in Public Speaking is a non-profit organization and its membership list includes women from Boston, Woburn, Arlington, Newton, Dorchester and Winchester and other towns in the greater Boston area.

The three speakers chosen for this meeting are Miss Mae McDonough of Dorchester, Mrs. Charles Crede of Winchester and Mrs. Leslie Bennett of Winchester. There will also be extemporaneous two minute speeches by the members on a subject chosen by the Topic Mistress, Mrs. Hope Powell.

The Evaluators will be Mrs. Alice Coldwell of Boston and Mrs. Olive Anderson of Winchester. Mrs. Carrie Marden of Medford will be the Toastmistress.

An enthusiastic turnout of members and prospective members is expected.

"FIGHTING MAD"

The oil industry is fighting mad over the federal government's proposals to double the gasoline tax and reduce the percentage depletion allowance on the income tax of producers, and will tell Congress so in no uncertain terms. In laying his recommendations before the House Ways and Means Committee, Secretary of the Treasury Snyder estimated that the increased gasoline tax would raise $600 million and the depletion allowance $400 million a year, 10% of the total tax increase asked by the President.

Frogs and Cow-Catchers

I have a literary friend who sometimes rides the morning train with me.

"You know," he said one day as we were settling into our seat, "seeing the locomotive pull in just now reminded me of H. L. Mencken."

"Mencken? You mean the writer and critic?"

"That's the one. I was reading a book of his last night and he had some mighty interesting things to say about the differences between the English language and what he calls the 'American' language."

"Well, how did this locomotive remind you of that?" I asked.

"It was something he said about railroading here and in England — the terms that are used. And it shows you how much more picturesque and imaginative we are than they are, when it comes to naming things. For example, the English call a switch frog a 'crossing plate' — and, if you can believe it, they call a cow-catcher a 'plow'!"

"Whew! I feel kind of sorry for people as literal-minded as that!" I remarked.

"I suppose Eng-and was already pretty highly populated and civilized when railroading began there," said my friend. "The locomotive probably did more snow ploughing than cow-catching. But over here it was different — especially out in the west. That's where the word cow-catcher really must have meant something!"

This observation set us off on a discussion of the opening of the west — and by the time we reached the North Station we were realizing once again what a tremendous part railroads have played in the development and progress of our country. Not only do their lines today link all the continent together, and provide our nation with economical freight and passenger service, but lines like the B and M, located in areas of concentrated population provide in addition low-cost, dependable transportation for many thousands of contented commuters. UNITARIAN NEWS

A Coffee Hour will be held directly after the church service on Sunday morning in the Ladies' Parlor. At this time new members will be introduced to the parish. Mrs. W. I. P. Badger is in charge of arrangements.

At five thirty on Sunday afternoon, Chief of Police, Charles J. Harrold, will meet with members of the Junior High Fellowship for a discussion of problems arising in the community. This is part of a series of subjects devoted to young people and their proper relationships in the home, at school, and in the neighborhood. About forty members are enjoying this new organization.

Members of Metcalf Union are participating in a toy collection for Hale House in the South End of Boston. A toy lending service has been established in the High School. Young people are collecting and mending toys to help with the project.

The Couples' Club 1951 Cabaret will be held on Saturday evening, April 14th at 8:30. Members will furnish entertainment between dances. Mr. and Mrs. James Joslin are in charge of tickets.

COUPLES' CLUB OFFICERS

At a supper meeting of the Married Couples' Club at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, the following officers were elected for the year:

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kuhn — President

Mr. and Mrs. John McIntyre — Vice-President

Mr. and Mrs. William MacKenzie — Secretary

Mr. and Mrs. Kinney — Treasurer

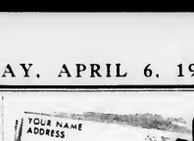

An excellent discussion on the respect of personality in relation to husband and wife, children and in labor and management, was led by Mr. Bruce Tallman. Panel leaders were Mr. J. W. Armstrong, Mrs. Harry Emmons, Mr. George Deroo, Mr. John McIntyre, Mr. Ralph Pingree and Mrs. Earl Haney.

The club has trebled its membership in the past two years and is looking forward to another excellent year. The program for next month is a Minstrel Show. All married couples are cordially invited.

YOUTH WIN HIGHEST AWARD

The Youth Group of Second Congregational Church won the attendance award at the Congress Meeting of the Sagamore Union of Christian Endeavor held at Shiloh Baptist Church, Medford, April 3. The group had one-hundred percent attendance, their minister, counsellor and one visitor. The Youth Group of Second Church is the newest group in the Union, and is quite proud of the high award it received at the meeting.

WILL YOU HELP?

The first appeals for contributions to the 1951 Cancer Crusade will be made this week, it was announced at American Chapter headquarters here.

Admiral William H. Buracker, drive Chairman for Winchester said, "Those asked to give include long-time supporters of the American Cancer Society, who are sincerely interested in the work of cancer control, as well as newcomers to our community who will want to have a share in helping Winchester reach its goal."

What is the one thing that everyone can do that will definitely save lives from cancer? The answer is to learn and observe cancer's seven danger signals. Early diagnosis and prompt treatment can double the figure of 70,000 cancer cures annually. Because of the importance of this part of the American Cancer Society program, we consider it the first objective in the 1951 Cancer Crusade. We believe it is just as important for people to learn the danger signals as it is to contribute money to the American Cancer Society. The seven danger signals might well be invaluable to you. It could mean the difference between life and death.

The seven danger signals, that the American Cancer Society says may mean cancer and certainly should mean a visit to your doctor, are:

1. Any sore that does not heal.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
4. Any change in a wart or mole.
5. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
6. Persistent hoarseness or cough.
7. Any change in normal bowel habits.

Contributions to the 1951 Cancer Crusade may be made to Davenport F. Davis, Treasurer, Winchester Trust Co., Winchester, Mass.

NAMED TO THE BETTER DEALER "HALL OF FAME"

Pontiac Motor Division of General Motors has named the Moody Motor Sales, Inc. to the Better Dealer "Hall of Fame" for outstanding dealer accomplishments.

The Moody Motor Sales, Inc. has represented Pontiac 4 years, in this location. The firm is headed by H. F. Moody, founder and president.

With honors, Mr. Moody has been presented a reproduction of the famous painting of Pontiac, Chief of the Ottawas and Indian Confederacy leader, for whom the car is named. Latham Clark, Manager of the Pontiac Boston Zone, made the formal presentation and lauded improvements, community service and accomplishments of Mr. Moody.

Mr. Clark said, "Pontiac's Better Dealer program has been in effect for about two years now, with an aim to make Pontiac Dealers preeminent in the automotive field."

Total employment of the firm is 20, with a payroll of $78,265.00 per year.

Mrs. Guy F. Merenda of Nelson street, with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Merenda, also of Nelson street, and Mrs. Robert Elliott of 547 Washington street, spent several days this week visiting in Montreal.

LIBRARY ACTIVITIES

Several new periodicals have been subscribed to by the Public Library.

"Of particular interest to business people and investors is "Barron's National Business and Financial Weekly." This magazine, in newspaper form, reports financial news accurately, authoritatively, and quickly. The publishing policy of "Barron's" to gather, sort, present, and interpret important facts, without prejudice, to help the reader make his decisions of which securities to buy or sell. It does not attempt to advise or make these decisions for him.

"Barron's" has several special features. It measures economic and political development and interprets their significance marketwise. It gives the "background" of business and the stockmarket. There is a page of statistics in each issue which aids in the analysis of the stock market. And there are several more outstanding features.

This is certainly a publication business men and investors will want to follow and we expect it will be used at the public library as frequently as is "Barron's" and the "Wall Street Journal."

Other magazines new in the library are: "Coronet," "Flying," "Trains," and "Science Newsletter." These will appeal to a wide range of people's interests.

Story Hours

This week Saturday morning, April 7 at 10:15, in the Art Gallery, Miss Elizabeth Russell, Children's Librarian, will hold the first in a spring series of Saturday Morning Story Hours for children. NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

TOWN OF WINCHESTER, MASS.
WATER AND SEWER BOARD

April 6, 1951

The Water and Sewer Board will receive bids on the following work in High Street Extension: Excavate approximately 1087 feet of trench. Install approximately 1087 feet of 8" sewer pipe with five manholes on the line; the Town to furnish the necessary pipe, manhole frames and covers and the Contractor to furnish all other materials. Install approximately 1087 feet of 8" water pipe with necessary fittings and hydrants; the Town to furnish pipe, hydrants, and fittings and the Contractor to furnish all other materials to complete the line. The Contractor will truck materials from the Town stock piles to site of work. Backfill the trench and remove surplus material leaving the site in clean condition. Ledge work will be the only extra allowed and bids must show unit price of this work.

Plans, profiles, and specifications may be secured at the Town Hall Office of the Water and Sewer Board. Bids submitted must cover all the above mentioned work. A bid bond consisting of a certified check amounting to 5% of the contract must be filed with the bid. The Town reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

A performance bond of 100% must be filed on awarding of the contract. Bond conditioned on faithful performance and payment of all labor and material bills.

The Water and Sewer Board will receive sealed bids for this work at its Town Hall office until Monday, April 16th, 1951 at 5:00 P. M.

At that time the sealed bids will be publicly opened and read.

Literature Committee

The Literature Group with Miss Gertrude M. Hall as Chairman has completed its series of biographical symposiums. Under the general title of "Notable Recent Biographies of Famous Literary Figures of the Nineteenth Century" the group instituted an objective course of study aimed to clarify and to revaluate commentaries on the life of seven distinguished authors of the nineteenth century.

Stephen Leacock's biography of "Charles Dickens" was the book reviewed by Mrs. Frank S. Evans in the last of the series held on Monday, April 2. Mrs. Evans read excerpts from the biography giving a coherent and comprehensive resume of the life and art of Dickens as portrayed by Leacock. It was delightful to traverse anew the path which led to the "Pickwick Papers", "Oliver Twist", "David Copperfield", to "Old Scrooge" in "A Christmas Carol" and other well known Dickens' stories.

Charles Dickens, one of England's greatest authors and one for whom America still holds a warm affection has been the subject of many biographies, the latest one, written by Hesketh Pearson has brought to light new material on the private life of Dickens and has been recommended as a valuable addition to the literary world.

The Fortnightly Literature Committee, organized in 1881 has maintained through the years a high standard of program based on selections from the world's best literature and poetry.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

As we mentioned last week, a special treat is in store for you at our next meeting on Tuesday, April 10th, when the Guild Players will present a comedy skit entitled "How The Club Was Formed" under the direction of Anita McGaragle.

Included in the cast are Frances Cavanagh, Kathryn McGreggs, Louise Purrington, Dorothy Scanlon, Margaret Huntlan, Lillian McElhinney, Marion Mameli, Adeline Murphy, Ruth Center, Lorraine Kelleher, Hazel Madden, Marie Ryan, Rose Marchant, Mary Hintlian, Katherine Doyle and Lee Mitchell.

If you feel in the need of some good, wholesome laughter, as who doesn't in these trying times, you owe it to yourself to be in the audience on Tuesday. We are calling this "Home Talent Day" and, just as surely as you like home cooking, you'll like our home talent. We'll be expecting you on Tuesday the 10th at 2 p. m. at Masonic Hall.

BOARD OF SURVEY

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Survey of the Town of Winchester, Mass., will give a public hearing in the Selectmen's Room in the Town Hall building on Monday the ninth day of April 1951 at 8 o'clock p. m. upon the petitions of Millyan Construction Co. Inc., for approval of certain plans filed with said petitions of certain private ways which the petitioners propose to open for public use as follows:

1. A way from Sunset Road extending easterly 637 feet to the extension of Hinds Road:

2. A way from Washington Street northeasterly 803 feet more or less to Sunset Road as approved by the Board of Survey February 4, 1946:

3. A way from an unnamed way extending northeasterly about 409 feet to Royalston Avenue as approved by the Board of Survey February 4, 1946.

After which hearing, the board may alter said plans and may determine where said ways shall be located and the widths and grades thereof.

Prior to the hearing, the plans may be examined at the office of the Town Engineer.

By order of the Board of Survey this twenty-sixth day of March, 1951.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS FOR JUNIOR FLORENCE CRITTENTON DANCE

JUNIOR CRITTENTON SPRING DANCE

Members and friends of the Winchester Circle of the Junior Florence Crittenton League are eagerly looking forward to their annual spring dance to be held April 28, 8:30 p. m. in the Town Hall. This year it has been turned over to Cinderella, who will have at her ball, Prince Charming, her coach and footmen, pumpkins and perhaps a few white mice. There's a rumor around that when the clock strikes twelve some lovely lady will wear Cinderella's glass slipper.

Under the capable direction of Mrs. G. Moulton Herrick and Mrs. Joseph Butler, Co-Chairman, various committees and members are working to make this a gay and exciting evening. Decorations will be lovely — and different — they promise, with a surprise for those who attend.

Mrs. Richard Kirkpatrick, chairman of the decorating committee is assisted by Mrs. David Walton, Mrs. Rollison W. Linscott, Jr., Mrs. Robert Richmond and Mrs. Arnold F. Morse. Mrs. Donald Davis and Mrs. Robert P. Wild are in charge of seating arrangements and beverages; Mrs. Frank O. Adams, publicity; Mrs. Merton E. Ober and Mrs. John K. Colony head the services committee and Mrs. Nelson Fontneau is in charge of the door.

Reservations are being made and many parties will precede the dance.

REARDON — MUNSON

A marriage of Winchester interest took place at 9:00 o'clock on Saturday morning, April 7, at St. Charles Church, Woburn, when Miss Eunice Mary Munson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto M. Munson of 24 Auburn street, Woburn, became the bride of Mr. John F. Reardon, son of Mrs. Delia Reardon of 12 Westley street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Lane of St. Charles Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin with cathedral train, and a full length veil. Her bouquet was made up of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Catherine Russell of Allston, Mass., maid of honor, wore nile green faille and carried yellow carnations to match her headdress.

The flower girl, Miss Emily McGowan of Melrose, cousin of the bride, wore yellow taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of spring flowers, and flowers in her hair.

D. Irving Reardon of this town was best man; and the usher corps was comprised of James F. McLaughlin, Jr., of Winchester, and Paul F. Ryan of Woburn.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the 1799 House in Woburn.

The bride is a graduate of St. Charles High School and Mt. Auburn Hospital School of Nursing.

The groom is a member of the Winchester Police Force, Winchester Knights of Columbus, and is a veteran of World War II.

After a wedding trip to Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Reardon will reside at 12 Westley street.

MISS DROHAN ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Drohan of Fenwick road announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosemary, to Mr. Francis J. Nolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Nolan of Wildwood street.

Miss Drohan is a graduate of Winchester High School and also a graduate of Regis College class of 1950.

Mr. Nolan was graduated from Harvard College with the class of 1950.

MISS GIULIANI RECEIVED AWARD

News has been received from Washington that Teresa M. Giuliani of 36 Richardson street, Winchester, has received a meritorious award and promotion for superior accomplishment in the performance of her duties.

Miss Giuliani has been a civilian employee of the Navy Department Bureau of Ships for the past three years. She was formerly employed by the Bacon Felt Co. and was a graduate of the Winchester High.

VERHAULT — MacISAAC

Miss Elizabeth Ann MacIsaac, daughter of Mr. John MacIsaac of 24 Salem street, was married on Sunday, March 25, at St. Mary's Church to Mr. Stephen Francis Verhault, son of Mrs. Sarah Verhault of 6 Glendale street, Dorchester. The Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan performed the 3 o'clock ceremony. Miss Dorothy Hickey was the soloist.

Miss MacIsaac was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white ballerina length lace dress with full skirt, short matching jacket with long sleeves pointed at the wrist. Her headdress was a white satin helmet trimmed with tulle veiling and caught at the front and sides with seed pearls with a shoulder length veil. She carried stephanotis with a removable orchid center.

Eileen MacIsaac was her sister's honor attendant wearing a pink ballerina length lace dress with full skirt and trimmed with pink satin with matching pink satin jacket. Her hat was a pink straw helmet trimmed with tulle veiling. She carried pink sweet peas with pink streamers.

Robert Verhault of Dorchester, brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Thomas Drapeau of Winchester and Andrew Smith of Medford.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Drapeau of 78 Sylvester avenue. Assisting in the receiving line was the bride's sister, Mrs. Gerard Collette, of Great Notch, N. J.

Mr. Verhault is assistant manager of Symmes Co., Boston store.

"MACK" TO CELEBRATE 83RD BIRTHDAY

Edward McKenzie of 24 Symmes road will hold open house on Sunday, April 22, in honor of his 83rd birthday.

"Mack" is a veteran newspaper reporter for the Woburn Times' Winchester column. He is well up on his sports and music, particularly "Irish" tunes and in the good old days he did a little umpiring at the baseball games.

He is a native of Winchester and knows the town and its inhabitants as few do.

We know his many friends will want to join with the Star in extending him a sincere "Happy Birthday."

TO WED JUNE 2ND

Miss Margaret Zoe Jackson of Cornwall and Saybrooke, Connecticut, has selected Saturday, June 2, at 11:00 a. m. for her marriage to Mr. Robert Charles Donahue, former Winchester boy now living in Alexandria, Virginia. The ceremony will be performed at the Jackson summer home in Saybrooke, with Monsignor Charles A. Donahue of West Roxbury, uncle of the groom-to-be officiating. Captain Frederick J. Donahue, Jr. of Virginia will be the best man.

WINCHESTER MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION BOOKLETS

The booklets explaining the composition and duties of the Winchester Mothers' Association and the Winchester Scholarship Foundation will be distributed in the early fall rather than in the near future — as announced in last week's Star.

BUZZOTTA — MAGGIO

On Sunday, April 8, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon Miss Geraldine Virginia Maggio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maggio of 35 Florence street, became the bride of Mr. Mario Andrew Buzzotta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Buzzotta of 57 Oak street. The ceremony, performed by the Rev. John P. O'Riordan, took place in St. Mary's Church.

Gowned in Italian maline and nylon net, and wearing a headpiece consisting of nylon veiling and a crown belonging to the mother of the bride, the bride was given in marriage by her father. She carried, instead of a bouquet, a prayer book with three green orchids and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Angela Dattilo, cousin of the bride, wore an ankle length, nile green gown of marquisette fashioned with a sweetheart neckline. She carried a bouquet of shattered carnations and daisies, with streamers of ivy.

The bridesmaids, Miss Angela Cirurso, cousin of the bride; Miss Marietta DeTeso, Miss Angela Cefali, and Miss Emily Buzzotta, sister of the groom, all of Winchester were identical green gowns identical to that of the honor maid, carrying shattered carnations and daisies.

Two cousins of the bride, Miss Marion Pizzo and Miss Teresa Dattilo were the flower girls. They were gowned alike in pinafore style ankle length dresses of yellow organdy, carrying baskets of rose petals.

Samuel Buzzotta was his brother's best man. The usher corps was comprised of Samuel Provinzano, Peter Provinzano, uncles of the bride, and Anthony Cirurso, all of Winchester.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at Columbus Hall, Winchester, with the parents of the bride and groom assisting in receiving.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of Winchester High School. The groom served three years in the Army Air Force.

After a wedding journey to Virginia Beach, Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Buzzotta will reside at 24 Raymond Place. Mr. Buzzotta is employed by the Perkins and Eaton Machine Co. of Boston.

VISITS HOME EN ROUTE TO AUSTRIA

Mr. Robert "Bob" Graham, 3 Balcony of Prince avenue and former staff reporter for the Boston Herald, returned to this town a week to visit his family at 72 Bacon street prior to leaving for an overseas assignment as a member of the State Department's Foreign Service.

"Bob" who entered the State Department's Overseas Information Program in Washington six months ago, after twelve years with the Boston Herald, has been appointed News and Feature Editor of the American Information Service for all of Austria. He expects to sail for his new post, headquarters in Vienna, within three weeks.

In being assigned to Austria, "Bob" is returning to a country he first entered with the 20th Armored Division during World War II. He revisited Austria last spring on assignment for the Boston Herald, retracing his wartime trail of five years earlier.

The Overseas Information Program is part of the State Department's "Campaign of Truth," which undertakes to create good will and understanding of the United States and the cause of freedom, to counter the prevalent Soviet propaganda.

Mrs. Graham and their daughter, Robin, 6, will join "Bob" in Vienna sometime this summer. Meanwhile they will continue to live in Washington where Mrs. Graham is working with the Washington Board of Trade.

"Bob" Graham is well known in Winchester, having been prominent in football and track circles during his high school career. He is a graduate of Dartmouth College, class of '40.

WINCHESTER ART ASSOCIATION NEW OFFICERS

At the annual meeting of the Winchester Art Association the following officers were elected: Dr. Herbert D. Lamson, president, Charles A. Mahoney, vice-president, Harriette Smith, Secretary, Mrs. Guy Livingstone, Treasurer, and the following chairmen: William Mason, Leonard Field, vice-chairmen. Exhibition, Speakers, Charles A. Mahoney, Mrs. Robert Williams, Hospitality, Publicity, Mrs. Joshua Whatmough, Membership, Mrs. Earl Carrier, Nominations, Mrs. Theodore Atkinson. These with the following members at large constitute the new Governing Board: Edna Hatch, George Budd and Ernest Dudley Chase.

Thirty-seven pictures by members were hung at this the nineteenth annual exhibition of this association. This exhibition will be open to the public during the month of April showing the following list of pictures: Old Trunk and Flowers, by Helen Walker; Mt. Washington and Saco River, by Elizabeth Lobingier; Mt. Washington from Jackson, N. H., by Marion Ladd Symmes; Shells, by Marianne C. Keyes; Self Portrait, by Nelle Allen Pihl; Maine Coast, by G. Russell Mann; Robert, Aged 6, by Mary Jacqueline King; On the Landing, by Margaret S. Bailey; The Maples, by Edith Lothrop Caverly; Morning in Yosemite, by Dorothy Day Howard; Rocks at Miss Mead's, by Emily Marks; Lumber Yard, by Mary Hodge; Daffodils, by Emma Boardman; Flowers, by Ernest Dudley Chase; Pomegranates, by James F. Atkinson; A Scene in Holland, by Helen L. Redfern; Pine Cottage, by Samuel Wilkins, M. D.; Winter, Woodstock, Vt., by Arthur Herrick; Mary Anne, by Mrs. John P. Boland; Portrait, by Ann Heaton; Night Piece, by Jack Berkman; White Peonies, by Grace Aseltine; Cabin in the Snow, by Francis T. Dineen; Fog at Vinal Haven, by Thomas Diviney; Portrait of Rae, by Francis Fish; and Pink Dogwood, by Elizabeth Tucker.

The above pictures were oils, the following pictures, watercolors; Winter exercise, by Charles A. Mahoney; Winter Birches, by Isabel Monk; Peter and Quail, by Dr. Herbert E. Maynard; Iris from a Kansas Garden, by Marion F. Whittam; Winchester Victorian, by Ardys Cammcross; Diane, by Suzanne Gleason; Joan and Tom, Provincetown, by Herbert D. Lamson; Lost Horizon, Adelaide M. Bratt; Beacon Street Crossing, by Vera Benson; Across the Street, by Ethel Stedhof; Strawberry Island, by Greta Kittel.

Ceramics, including porcelain and terra cotta, as usual at these annual exhibitions attracted much attention. There were bowls, cups, pitchers, with an alabaster statuette. These were exhibited by Carol Nickerson, Edna Hatch, Margaret Bailey and Esther Howe.

Harold F. Lindergreen, the critic of the evening, invoked all the arts of the goddesses of inspiration, during his tour about the art gallery at the Winchester Public Library. At the close of his critical study of the pictures he asked if there were any questions. So thoroughly did he explain his critique that there was only one question asked by a struggling artist: How to draw a round tree? Taking an oblong piece of crayon from his pocket Mr. Lindergreen with one downward motion of the hand and exerted pressure where necessary drew a tree trunk. It looked like one and even had the location of lopped off branches showing. He, then, placed the branches of the trees showing how they should extend toward the four points of the compass and in between. Peonies he brought out reflect the light from one petal to another and then this light is reflected back onto the first petal. These with many other examples illustrated the infinite pains and care that must be taken in observation for a successful artist. Mr. Lindergreen was very happy with the ability shown by the artists painting landscape with the adroit manner in which they depicted the New England scene.

COMMUNITY CONCERT MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

The sixth annual membership campaign of the Stoneham Community Concert Association will be held during the week beginning April 16.

For the sixth consecutive year the campaign will be conducted by Mrs. John P. English and her large corps of workers. Mr. Gerald Devlin has been assigned by New York to represent Community Concerts in the Stoneham campaign.

319TH ENGINEERS (RESERVE) ACCEPT ENLISTMENTS

The 319th Engineer Battalion is now authorized to accept enlistments of men from 17 to 34 to be trained to become officers, non-commissioned officers, or enlisted specialists.

The 319th is a cadre unit, a nucleus of volunteer officers, non-commissioned officers, and enlisted specialists from the Boston area, organized and trained to fill key positions to lead and train the unit when it is expanded to full strength. Men joining at this time will benefit from complete military and engineering training while still in civilian status. This paid training is conducted during twenty four evening periods and a two week summer camp.

Men subject to call under selective service will be accepted if they have not received notice of mental or physical examination. No previous military service or technical training is required as all training will be furnished.

A pamphlet has been prepared describing in detail the activities and advantages of the 319th Engineers and the active reserve program. Copies of this pamphlet, full information, and arrangements to visit a meeting of this unit, can be obtained any evening or during the weekend by telephoning Lt. Col. Lester C. Gustin at WI 6-3510 or Capt. John Colburn at AR 5-6102-R. Any weekday a visit or telephone call may be made to Major William S. Hart, Engineer Section, 4th Floor, Army Base, telephone LI 2-6000, Ext. 515.

The Junior Mrs. Guild of the First Congregational Church will conclude the season for its members with a covered dish supper on Tuesday evening, April 17, 1951 at 7:00 o'clock in the Parish Hall. Following this social hour, Mrs. Charles W. Tozier, Director of Jr. Mrs. Guild, will preside over the annual meeting of the Guild at which time there will be short reports by committee chairmen and the new slate of officers for 1951-52 will be presented. Bridge and canasta will furnish the entertainment of the evening.

Mrs. Raymond Carter is in charge of the supper, assisted by Mrs. Charles E. Crede, Mrs. Carleton E. Bolivar, and Mrs. George H. Gowdy. It is hoped that a large number of the Mr. and Mrs. members will be present. For reservations and food assignments, please call WInchester 6-1265-M or WInchester 6-0242 by Monday evening, April 16th.

Winchester BOY SCOUT News

WINCHESTER SCOUTS ALMOST READY FOR SCOUTORAMA

Each Scout Troop, Cub Pack and Senior Scouts (Explorers) in Troops plus Post No. 6 Winchester's lone Senior Unit, all are hard at work reviewing their scouting requirements for the forthcoming Scouting Exposition called Scoutorama. In an attempt to break the monopoly held by Medford Scouts in many events, Winchester's boys will not be found wanting in determination and effort this year if the signs exemplified at troop and pack meetings are any criterion. Harrassed Scoutmasters are racking their minds to select the individual teams to compete against the other troops. It is no easy task since there is so much talent and only a few places to fill. However the gaily decorated booths with their store of scouting knowledge to be, will enable scouts who this year may not be just ready to compete against the other troops as far as knot tying, rope climbing, fire by friction, fire by flint and steel, etc., to compete in this particular phase of the Exposition. Each troop and some cub packs and senior units present their own exemplifying some phase of scouting and many of them are really works of art. Awards for booths are much sought after and some of the requirements are that there be two boys in a booth at a time working in relays of course; 10 points will be awarded if this is met with then there are 10 points for some and even 15 points awarded for the following requirements such as, Booth ready on time; Originality; Action in booth; Subject covered properly; General appearance of booth; Boys in proper uniform; Personality of boys; Taking down of own material in booth at close of Exposition. All totaling 100 points. This is where boys come in who might not be competing in signaling, etc. and it is a most important task since there will be hundreds of grownups walking around to inspect these affairs and really gives the boys a chance to meet all kinds of nice people and explain things to them.

Saturday, April 14th is the last chance for units to apply for booth space and also to sign up for Rally events. Scouts will be admitted free, Cubs also on showing of their registration cards. Grownups have to pay a small sum and we understand Norumbega Council out Newton way is charging a very much higher admittance fee and scouts there have to pay a smaller amount.

In case you haven't heard, the big event takes place at Cousens Gym, Tufts College, Medford on Saturday, April 28th from 1:00 p. m. until 10:00 p. m. We understand that all trains going and coming from Boston or Winchester on that day will stop at Tufts College to enable everyone to either drive or ride on the train. There is plenty of parking space however and Winchester Units hope that their fellow townspeople will avail themselves of this opportunity to see them in action.

DEMONSTRATIONS IN READING IN WINCHESTER SCHOOLS

Announcement is made by Miss Marion E. Phipps, Reading Consultant in the Winchester Public Schools, that three Wednesday afternoons May 2, 9, and 16, will be used by elementary school teachers for special professional meetings. Except for the following groups, elementary school children will not be required to return on those Wednesdays for the afternoon session:

May 2 — Mrs. Esther Laughner's Grade One at Mystic School; Miss Margaret Hankins' Grade Two at Lincoln School.

May 9 — Mrs. Myrtle Dodge's Grade Three at Wyman and Mrs. Louise B. Mathews' Grade Four at Washington School.

May 16 — Mrs. Jane N. Kirkpatrick's Grade Five at Parkhurst School and Mrs. Genevieve Kelleher's Grade Six at Noonan School.

Believing that there is no one best way of teaching reading, the staff of elementary school teachers will observe the progress of reading grade by grade, and will note how six different teachers help the six demonstration classes.

Demonstration classes will be held in the children's schools, the teachers doing the travelling.

Following the demonstrations, teachers will discuss informally their techniques for teaching reading and will discuss plans to improve the reading program in Winchester Schools.

ADELE HOOS LEE

Have you been wanting to see and hear the new plays in Boston and on Broadway? Here is your opportunity. Mrs. Adele Hoos Lee is coming to the Unitarian Church on Tuesday, April 24 at 3 p. m. in her famous "Play Review".

Everyone who has watched Mrs. Lee give one of her performances agrees that it is an enchanting experience. She reviews and dramatizes at the same time not just a few but practically all the current and choice plays. This will be her only appearance in Winchester this season.

MISS RUSSELL HEADS HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Miss Clara R. Russell was elected President of the Winchester Historical Society at the annual meeting held last Saturday afternoon, April 7, in the Gallery of the Winchester Public Library. This is the second time Miss Russell has served as head of the Society. For the past two years she has been the very able curator of the Society, and was instrumental in securing many historically valuable items for the Society.

Other officers elected were as follows: first vice president, Mr. Frank E. Crawford; second vice president, Mr. Charles H. Gallagher; secretary, Mrs George E. Connor; treasurer, Miss Laura Tolman; curator, Miss Jean MacLellan; board of directors, Miss Louise Bancroft, Mrs. Arthur A. Belville, Mr. James Nowell, Mr. Arthur Noyes, Mr. Leon Sargent, Mr. Roland Simonds, Mr. Francis E. Smith, Mr. Marshall W. Symmes, and Mrs. John B. Wills.

Annual reports were read by the secretary, Miss Bancroft, the treasurer, Miss Tolman, Miss Russell, curator, and by Mrs. George E. Connor, president. Mr. Charles H. Gallagher presented the report of the nominating committee.

Several interesting items of historical interest, namely old skates from Mr. Moulton, given by Mr. William Beggs; two early pamphlets from Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard; beaded bag from Miss Elise Belcher, were among the items exhibited by Miss Russell, who explained to the members, with deep regret, the temporary "interruption of service" in the Historical Room. The library trustees, who have been most kind in giving the Historical Society the use of the room in the library for its treasures, now feel the need of that room to house the Edgar J. Rich collection. Ample storage space for the Society's treasures has been provided by the trustees in the third floor of the library, until such time as permanent quarters may be found. In the meantime, excellent care is being taken of the articles, and the Society hopes that Winchester residents will continue to be interested in its work, and in giving historical items to it for preservation.

Mrs. Belville presented a resolution to favor the adoption of the name "Richardson Row" instead of "Sunset Avenue" for the new housing area on the old Richardson Property off Washington street. Members of the Society signed the petition with enthusiasm, and will forward it to the Planning Board, in the hope that the old historical name of "Richardson Row" may be perpetuated.

Speaker of the afternoon was Mr. Charles H. P. Copeland, of the Peabody Museum, who spoke most interestingly on "Some Notes on Salem Commerce before 1850." Mr. Copeland, a splendid speaker with wit and enthusiasm for his subject, made the old sailing vessels, their captains and their Salem owners, and their fabulous cargoes live before the imagination of the audience. The days of the West India and Mediterranean trade, built on fish brought back to Salem from the Banks, salted down, and sent out to trade for rum, molasses and sugar, and then to England for the staples the colonies needed — the days when pirate ships were a menace to the merchants. All these stories were told by the speaker, mingled with names that still make Salem history.

The Winchester Country Club announces an informal dance for Saturday, April 21.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYS OPENER TODAY

Winchester High will pry the lid off its 1951 baseball season today as the Indians tackle the Browne and Nichols nine at Cambridge. After this preliminary game the Red and Black jumps right into its Middlesex League schedule as the locals travel to Wakefield next Tuesday and meet Reading at Manchester Field next Friday afternoon.

Coach Ted Bartlett has several problems to lick to field a capable nine this year as only three positions are manned by returning veterans with the other six positions to be filled by juniors and sophomores. Captain Dave Cuneo and Ed Crowley return to hold down second base and first base respectively while Stowell Symmes and Charlie Murphy will carry the brunt of the pitching load. Only John DiIorio, an infield reserve last year, has nailed down another starting berth, third base, while the other five positions are still unsettled.

Poor weather has curtailed the pre-season work considerably which has handicapped Coach Bartlett in his search for capable performers at the other five positions. It is expected that Peter Coon will open in the important catching berth. Coon has had no experience but shows a lot of hustle, has a strong arm, and looks like a good hitter. Bob Flaherty has the call at the vital shortstop position and again it is a matter of lack of experience as Flaherty was an outfielder with the Junior Legion last summer. Flaherty does have the necessary speed and strong arm, however, and the hustle that Coach Bartlett likes. The starting trio in the outfield will be picked from "Prep" Keyes, Jim Griffin, "Jocko" Scrieka, Paul McGowan, Stowell Symmes, and Charley DeFilippo. None of them has shown enough yet to be classed as a regular and the three berths are wide open.

In addition to the above named performers, others who may be able to work into the starting lineup are Dave Dalton, Charlie McLaughlin, and Ron MacKenzie as infielders and Charley DeFilippo on the mound. It is interesting to note that all but two of the 15 players named have had Junior Legion experience under Coach Bartlett which further indicates the importance of that program to the success of the high school nine. This team has more speed than many of its predecessors, will have more hustle and spirit than last year's outfit and should get good pitching from Symmes and Murphy. Whether or not these factors can compensate for the lack of experience and for the lack of power at the plate will determine the success of this year's nine.

TUFTS DENTAL WOMEN'S COMMITTEE PRESENTS ANNUAL CONCERT

The Tufts Dental Women's Committee is presenting its annual concert on April 17th, at New England Mutual Hall, Boston, with Dr. Thompson Stone conducting the Tufts-Jackson Chorus.

Dr. Franklin J. Lane is a patron of this concert, the proceeds of which are to increase the Tufts Dental Women's Committee Scholarship Fund, give aid to dental students and benefit the New England Medical Center.

Mrs. John Wallace and Mrs. R. Earl Dickson are active members of the organization, and have served on the board.

Mr. Kenneth P. Pond was re-elected chairman of the Wildwood Cemetery Board Monday night.

WINCHESTER ELKS NOTES

Things got off to a good start Installation Night and the lodge is looking forward to many events under Newt's leadership.

The awarding of the lot of land donated by Brother Bill Murray has been deferred thirty days (30) till May 1, 1951. By the way Bill or his committee are interested in talking to all persons who may be interested.

A group of the members accompanied Brother Bill Holland, P. E. R. and his suite of officers to Arlington Town Hall where Bill did a great job at installing the newly elected officers there last Wednesday night. In fact the lodge has been well represented through out the entire district at all of these events.

E. R. Newt would take this opportunity to publicly thank Winchester Post No. 97 American Legion for the very appreciative gift presented to him Installation Night by Brother Sam Murphy, past Legion Commander.

The gift was an expression of the Legion's very appreciative thanks for Newt's always available cooperation.

See you at the next meeting, Brothers.

WOODLAND FEARS FADE AT SCIENCE SHOW

"Why does a skunk smell like a skunk?"

Mr. Gilbert Merrill of the Museum of Science will answer this, and many other pungent questions at the Living Wonders Show at the High School Auditorium, Wednesday, April 25th, afternoon and evening. As he shows the live exhibits, Mr. Merrill expects more questions to be thrown at him by young oldsters and old youngsters than a porcupine throws quills (or does a porcupine throw quills??). This is a time for parents to let the children get the "whys" out of their systems — because Mr. Merrill knows the answers.

Now that the camping season is peeping above ground with the rest of the flora and fauna (skunk cabbage and skunk) it is a good chance for us all to examine our knowledge of our own New England woods. We have more friends than enemies in them. Examples of both will be on the stage. Can you tell the difference? Mr. Merrill, an experienced Nature Counselor, will show you that many of your real fears are imaginary — and vice versa. It's a fine time to have the whole family go on an "outing indoors."

Acting as advisor to the Junior High Associates, who are sponsoring this first appearance in Winchester, is Mr. David Freeman, of Middlesex street, Assistant Director of the new Museum of Science. Many different groups are adding their welcome to this fascinating show. Boy Scouts will usher in the afternoon — Girl Scouts in the evening. High ranking Science students from High School and Junior High will assist on the stage.

Especially enthusiastic about the Winchester debut of our woodland friends on the high school stage are a group invited by Mrs. Harrison Lyman to have a specially conducted tour through the new Museum. Those who saw some previews of some of our furry actors are: Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. John L. Green, Mrs. Neil Borden, Mrs. Sanborn Vincent, Mrs. Harry P. Hood, Mrs. Moulton Herrick, Mrs. Charles Main, Mrs. R. D. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. William Swett, and Mrs. Charles Moore.

Elaine Spear was saluted with a birthday greeting last Saturday, Apr[illegible] on the WOBP [illegible] Time's Cub Club [illegible] each Saturday morning at 9 a. m. over WOBP and WCOP-FM and Uncle Frank giving the birthday salutes and surprise messages.

"RETURN ENGAGEMENT"

Unitarian Church, May 5

The Unitarian Players certainly chose an aptly titled play for their first project in several years. Lawrence Riley's "Return Engagement" is a rollicking comedy which gives a big group of young and seasoned actors and actresses the chance to use Metcalf Hall stage again.

Many enthusiastic people are working on the project, topping the list being the Reverend Robert Street who is coaching all the actors and actresses. Mrs. E. B. Haynes and Miss Mary Scotland are the production chairmen. Mrs. P. Eric Anderson has already done a thorough job of distributing and selling tickets. Mrs. Bradford Darling and Mrs. George Stearns are "doing" properties and costumes. Mrs. Harold Mclver — in charge of programs and Mrs. Edward Ganz has made the attractive posters placed about town. In between the acts punch will be served by Mrs. Watson Eldridge. Mrs. Edward Mansfield is the promoter.

This is going to be a grand play so save the date May 5 — a Saturday night — at 8:15. More about the cast next week.

VAUDEVILLE SHOW NOTES

According to the somewhat caustic comments of Ray Hayward, Director of the High School Vaudeville Show, this year's production promises to be the best one yet and with it eighteen previous annual shows behind him, such a comment is significant. When pressed for his reasons, Mr. Hayward stressed the following facts: first, because of the great student interest in the show there is a great deal of unusual talent available this year, perhaps more than ever before. Over seventy students who have taken part in previous shows are headlining this year's show. Some indeed have been in two or three previous productions and have become almost professional in their acts. It is interesting to note that two senior girls, Allene Goodwin and Phyllis O'Neil, have taken active parts in three previous shows and will appear in their fourth this week. Both will be remembered for their unusual contributions to the success of the show for four years.

Second, the costumes and lighting this year promise to be a bit more colorful and varied than ever before. More thought and time has been expended upon attractive and striking costumes for the various dance groups, as well as for individual acts. Under the supervision of Tom Morse of the high school faculty special lighting features will be introduced this year with the purpose of making the lighting effects more professional. Black light will again be used this year with two or three numbers. In place of the somewhat colorless tan back drop, a silver screen will be used to enhance the lighting effects of the whole show.

Special music will be provided before and during the show by a four-piece orchestra under the direction and leadership of Ricky Ives of the senior class.

Some of the most popular features of previous shows will reveal the results of experience and training. The girls of the Tumbling Team for the past two years have delighted the audience with their daring and skill. This year's troupe consists of eleven really expert and clever girls whose performance promises to give more than one father and mother a thrill.

The Octette, one of Winchester's most popular girl singing groups, will again be one of the highlights of the show in their original and delightful interpretation of popular songs. And last year's favorite Alfalfa Quartet has something up its sleeves that is designed to call for encores. One must not forget the Pony Chorus of pretty girls in pretty costumes; the cute little ponettes who will appear as jockeys with jockey costumes and horses and saddles. But it is not necessary to list more of the many acts planned for the show. For eighteen years Vaudeville has grown in popularity and promises award to please capacity audiences of fun-fests, parents, friends, and, most certainly all fans, past performers.

BAPTIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

On Sunday evening, April 15th at 6:30 p. m. the regular meeting of the Youth Fellowship will be held in the Church. The program is in charge of Sherman Josephson and Stanley Mallen. The topic for the evening is "Boy Meets Girl," and an excellent film will be shown. All young people of Junior and Senior High age are welcome.

Mr. Davenport F. Davis, treasurer of the Winchester Trust Company, accompanied by Mrs. Davis, left the first of the week for a three weeks stay in Florida.

WILL YOU?!

Editor of the Star:

The time has come when Winchester boys are going into combat in Korea. So often people say "I wish there were something I could do for them." If you really mean this, will you read the following rather thoughtfully?

Television has become a new kind of therapy for our wounded and while the Murphy Army Hospital has several television sets for use in the wards - although not enough of them — there is need for remote control sets for patients who must be in private rooms and who are unable to get out of bed to adjust the set. Just such a case is that of Sgt. William Jack whom many of you have met. This man had been in Korea since last August, he is badly wounded and has ahead of him about a year in hospitals and months in bed. Sgt. Jack is married and has two small children.

It is my most ardent wish that the people of Winchester open their hearts to these men who have served us so well and donate a remote control television set to the Murphy Army Hospital as a token of gratitude to the men who are giving so much. The men in Korea would be glad to know we are aware of their sacrifices by remembering their buddies in hospitals.

For the convenience of our townspeople, an account in the Winchester Savings Bank has been opened, through the cooperation of Mr. William Priest, to receive contributions from every man, woman and child who cares. Deposit any amount in the "Television for Murphy" account. The remote control set costs around $475.00 wholesale and will be purchased at cost because of the generosity of 3 dealers who have so offered.

I appreciate your letters and calls of thanks for whatever small service I may have been to your boys and will continue to do all I can. Meanwhile, will you reciprocate by dropping in at the Savings Bank and doing your bit — within the next two weeks?

From the bottom of my heart I thank you in advance. You cannot live 25 years in a town like this and not know that blood flows through the veins of our townspeople — not ice.

Cordially yours,
Mrs. K. B. Toye

NO HURRY NOW

Editor of the Star:

At the close of the Winchester Annual Town Meeting of March 15 a very fine spirit had been created between the factions which had contended bitterly over the secondary school problem. A new respect for one another's opinions and for truly democratic procedure was clearly present in the interchanges that took place on and off the town hall floor. There was a generous desire on both sides to forget the past and work harmoniously together for the greater future good.

After the Meeting it was widely remarked by some of the most ardent proponents of the defeated Alternate Plan that the Town Moderator had been afforded a golden opportunity to knit up old wounds and to create a fine atmosphere of goodwill. By prompt appointment of the new nine-man committee using for the four to be selected at-large the list of the highly qualified men proposed by the Referendum Committee, the Moderator would have satisfied the earnestly expressed hopes of many. Even had the selections at-large been made from among other men as highly qualified in construction work the result would have been the same, namely, the creation of an able committee in an atmosphere of town-wide enthusiasm and cooperation.

Almost a whole month has now elapsed since Town Meeting and the new Building Committee has not yet, to my knowledge, been appointed. From confident anticipation and genial prediction of success the townspeople have been allowed to drift down through puzzled bewilderment to the sour suspicion that their confidence has been misplaced. The bloom, alas, has gone from the rose!

Winchester people are beginning to wonder why there seems to be more to the appointing of such a committee than meets the eye and to understand why the Referendum Committee proposed that the naming be done in open Town Meeting from a list, based solely upon qualifications, which had been prepared in three days!

At least it is comforting to many recently of the "No" side to see that there are those in high places who agree with their contention that, as far as new secondary school construction itself is concerned, there is no particular hurry about the matter.

DID NOT LIKE BILL CUNNINGHAM

Editor of the Star:

I have just returned from a lecture by Bill Cunningham at the Winchester High School, sponsored by the Wyman Mothers' Association for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund and the Wyman School.

I deeply regret any encouragement my presence may have given to such a moronic and vulgar display of poor judgment and poor taste.

After acknowledging at the outset the speaker's pleasure in participating in such a worthy cause as the raising of funds for scholarships, he proceeded by a cheap vilification and abuse to tear down the reputations of men who are the elected leaders of the same people whose children hope to use these scholarships.

I have enjoyed listening to Bill Cunningham in the past but I feel he touched a new low tonight in an endeavor to say what he thought his audience would like to hear.

I question whether that audience with their inherent American sense of fair play condones the poor glossing over of such an apparent lack of talent.

A man with as great a claim to fame as the speaker should not have been at a loss for words no matter how short the notice — no matter how suddenly the world situation changed.

"The end does not necessarily justify the means."

NOW THAT MacARTHUR IS FIRED

Editor of the Star:

Now that the President has fired General MacArthur the Congress should call the General before it and get the truth of this asinine Far Eastern Policy of Atcheson et al that has brought this country into a most dangerous condition.

Let the Congress dig out the Skunks, the Big Ones and the Little Ones and let the Small till the noses of all the people, even though it is not a pleasant one.

There has been too many of these Varmints under cover.

OPEN HOUSE

On Thursday, April 26th, the Directors of the Home for the Aged 110 Mt. Vernon street will hold open house for the members of the family and their many friends throughout the town. All are cordially invited and tea will be served from 3 to 5 p. m.

It is earnestly hoped that many of our townspeople will avail themselves of this opportunity to visit the Home and become better acquainted with it. ap13-2t

ST. MARY'S HOLY NAME SOCIETY HEARD DR. PAUL R. HINCHEY

St. Mary's Holy Name Society received corporate communion at the 8:00 Mass on Sunday, April 8th with the sermon being preached by Rev. William H. Walsh, Spiritual Director of the Society, led by Music Director Edward J. McDevitt, the men joined together in the singing of the hymns with Miss Kay Roache Society Organist accompanying.

Following the Mass the society adjourned to K. of C. Hall for light breakfast during which all were treated as nice and entertaining as could be; musical interlude by members Bob Cleary on the piano and Newt Purrington on the piano-accordian. A few vocals were interspersed among the musical selections with a few "oldies" and several new ones.

Following breakfast reports of Secretary Bob Barstow, Treasurer Al Mougal and Sick and Vigil Chairman Harry Bennett were made with the latter announcing that baskets of fruit had been sent to every ill member, hospitalized, namely Fire Chief Callahan, Ed Dunhan, and Ed Rogers. The Society wishes them a speedy recovery. President Arthur W. Hall announced the nominating committee who will report at next month's meeting their slate of officers for next season for the members to vote for or nominate other nominees from the floor. President William J. Coughlan is chairman of this committee with other Past Presidents Frank Dolan, Frank Hurley, John A. Volpe, Vincent F. Erhard and Harry J. Bennett Sick and Vigil Chairman as the rest of the committee. Both Fr. Walsh and President Hall announced the forthcoming Holy Hour to be held by the Holy Name groups of the Diocese at Braves Field, Boston on Sunday, May 27th with more details later.

Calling upon Fr. Walsh to introduce the guest speaker, President Hall concluded by urging the men to inform any of the officers if they learn that any member of the H. N. S. in the service of the country has not as yet received his Servicemen's kit from the Archbishop.

Dr. Paul R. Hinchey of Salem, Mass. in an inspiring address deplored the fact that we do not always seem to appreciate the God given gifts in our bodies. Pointing out the vast strides made in the field of Science and medicine, the speaker chided the world for not recognizing the main fact that all came from God. We cannot compare the success in man made machines such as the artificial kidney, mechanical brain and others with the initial gift of God which latter receives scant recognition. Color photography takes twenty-five or so processes to be developed while our eyes instantly employ shutters to permit us to view what we want in natural fashion. To appreciate this only upon losing one's sight the speaker termed deplorable. Now is the time to appreciate our sight, gift from God. The speaker went on to point out that if God should publicly announce a coming miracle on Boston Common that everyone would head for that location. Yet we have miracles every day within our presence.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL STRESSES CORRECT SPEECH

The importance of good speech was dramatically represented at an assembly program provided by sixth grade boys and girls of the Washington School last Thursday.

One way of practicing speech, the learning and speaking of tongue twisters, was demonstrated by Carol Richburg, Ann Tofuri, John Kelleher, Sandra Burr, Gloria Bennett, and Diane Lorentzen.

The entire class sang, "Let the Fun Begin", a tongue-twister song, and then did "The Little Half Chick" as choral speaking.

The cast included Phyllis Schiraga as the story teller, John Mawn as the Half Chick, Jimmy Barbaro as Fire, Ernest Cantella as Water, Emily Allen as Wind, and Donald Wyman as Cook.

The final number "Why The Princess Couldn't Stay", contrasting right and wrong pronunciation, had for a cast Carol Eaton as Princess Katharine, Joseph Cussen as Cute Less, Charles Carlson as Si Lent, Carol Ann Ferrera as Impa, John Fitzgerald, Peter Quine, Norma Crockett, Nancy Fowle, and Dianne Roberts as the Five Quints.

In recording the subscription of Mr. J. Frank Tuttle this week the Star is pleased to note that this is his 56th yearly payment. He is one of the Star's oldest subscribers. A life-long resident of Winchester, Mr. Tuttle took up his residence in Clearwater, Florida a year ago.

GIRL SCOUTS

All over Winchester doorbells will ring at 3:30 on Friday April 27, for that's the starting time for the Girl Scout cookie drive. For those who stick to the rules there are some mighty fine prizes offered. All leaders will be prepared to explain the details the week after vacation. Since this is our only cookie sale this year we shall expect every Brownie and Scout to be a Super Salesman.

Each Brownie and Scout troop is going to send in news through their Scribes from now on — so many interesting programs are never reported unless each Scribe writes up her troop news.

Brownie troop 23 met at the Mystic School on Monday with Mrs. Arnold Goodwin, Leader. Katherine Swisher, Scribe reports that May Baskets were made.

The Girl Scouts of troop 54, Wyman School, Grade 6 have had a rather busy month of March. We have been to the Junior High and learned what we'll be doing and learning. Also we have been to the Winn Watch Hand factory where we saw different radio and watch-bands being made.

Last week we went to the Texaco Gas Station, and we all would like to thank Mr. Murphy for explaining and showing us the different parts of a bicycle, so we can pass our cycling badge requirements. Susan Joyner, Scribe.

Last week Brownie Troop 27 of Wyman School went to the fire station. Captain Noonan showed us around. He showed us the way they come down the pole, real fast. He said if the fire alarm rang at night when they were asleep, they could be up, dressed and out in twenty seconds. The Brownies that went were: Leslie Blackwood, Helen Brandt, Marie Enright, Dolly Kittell, Janet Gallagher, Bonnie Liberty, Martha Wood, Rosalind Walling, Peggy Padelford, Bonnie Sawyer, Ann Powers, Laurel Stabile, and Jinny Joyner. The Leaders were Mrs. Padelford, Mrs. Walling and Mrs. Joyner — reported by Jinny Joyner, Scribe.

The first Greater Boston Senior Scout Conference, held at Brookline High School was a great success. The Winchester delegation numbering 16 was headed by Mrs. Willing, Mrs. DeSieseaux, and Mrs. Hersey and included 4 committees Louise Kugler, Tina Tonon and Carolyn Edgar as Delegate.

"Vocational Vignettes" was the title of the morning program and representatives from the Nursing, Teaching, Secretarial, Professional, Scouting, and merchandising fields spoke to the girls, giving very welcome guidance and suggestions.

After lunch, the Conference divided into Program Buddies, including groups on International Friendship, good grooming, Junior Miss Program Aides, Hospital Aides, and others. The two Winchester girls who sat in on International Friendships found a fascinated audience for their tales of England and Scotland, and spent over an hour telling about their experiences.

The last speaker of the day was Miss Helen Fogg, who spoke on her experiences with displaced persons in Germany. We mustn't think of the displaced people as a whole unit" she said "for they are all individuals with different needs. Never forget that".

All the girls agreed that Miss Fogg, of the Unitarian Service Comm. was an excellent speaker, and that the conference had also been very successful. Submitted by Carolyn Edgar.

The Cabin Committee met this week with Mrs. G. W. Carey to schedule the work to be done at the cabin by Scouts and Dads on Thurs. day April 19. The hours decided on were 10 till 2 with coffee served at noon but each worker is asked to bring his own sandwiches. There will be painting jobs as well as out door work. Since the tool supply is very meager it will be a good idea to bring along your own pet hoe and pruning shears. There are no clippers or garden shears at the Cabin. If an hour is all you can spare — do come — as many jobs can be finished in a short time.

The power of spiritual Truth to dissolve human belief in sin, sickness, and death, and bring healing, will be brought out in Christian Science services next Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled, "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?"

The Golden Text is from Psalms (68:20): "He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death."

The following statement, from Paul's letter to the Romans, is among the selections from the Bible: "Be not conformed to this world: but be ye trans-formed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Romans 12:2).

Passages from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following: "To hold yourself superior to sin, because God made you superior to it and governs man, is true wisdom. . . . To hold yourself superior to sickness and death is equally wise, and is in accordance with divine Science. To affirm is impossible, when you fully apprehend God and know that they are no part of His creation" (p. 230).

A Thought To Remember For The Sabbath

Did you attend church this morning? Did you worship? Were you edified? Did the Lord speak to you? Did you speak to Him? Do you mean more seriously to be pure, honest, upright, generous and holy from what you did and heard today? If you answer in the affirmative, then a pleasure and duty of great importance has been accomplished in your life this day.

W. H. S. ANNUAL SPRING CONCERT MAY 11

Winchester High School's glee clubs directed by Miss Eleanor Anifantis and the orchestra and band directed by Mr. Fred Felmet will present their annual Spring Concert on Friday evening, May 11, at the High School Auditorium.

The program scheduled to begin at eight will include such special features as violin and trumpet solos, brass quartet, clarinet quartet, flute quartet and vocal solos by outstanding music students.

The Spring Concert is being sponsored by the Central Mothers' Association with the active cooperation of all the local chapters in the various schools. The support of this live-wire organization increases the possibility of a sell-out and those parents and friends of the school who plan to attend the concert are urged to get their tickets early from Miss A. Louise Cone at Winchester High School or from the Mothers' Association of their neighborhood school.

Many of the sane students who will take part in the Spring Concert on May 11 will attend the Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festival in Marblehead on May 5th. In this festival, bands, orchestras, glee clubs, and soloists from various high schools in this section of the state will play for the criticism of expert judges in the morning. A gigantic parade with 30 bands will take place in the afternoon followed by the playing of all the bands massed into one organization.

WINCHESTER SCHOOL NEWS

After spot seeding, fertilizing, and rolling, Manchester Field is again in use for the busy spring sports season.

Due for special treatment this spring are the lawns and play areas at Parkhurst and Wyman Schools, and the lawns at the Junior and Senior High Schools. Extensive work is also planned for the Mystic playground.

Meeting recently with Dr. Norris, teachers of the Junior and Senior High Schools were organized into sub-committees to study and report on the requirements of classrooms for the type of program being attempted in the various departments. Included in their study are possible built-in features, flooring, ceilings, furniture, lighting, ventilation, sub-division of classrooms, work rooms, laboratories, storage rooms, administrative offices, other features, such as chalkboards, bulletin boards, cabinets, book cases, and other items desirable in a school building.

FORUM MEMBERS LEAVING FOR CONFERENCE AT LAKE MOHONK

Sixty-three young people and seven adults will leave Sunday at 1:15 by Gray Line busses for a week's conference sponsored by the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church. The conference will be held at Lake Mohonk, New York, where the beautiful grounds and Mountain House will be available for many kinds of indoor and outdoor activities.

The staff of leaders for the conference includes Dr. Osbert W. Warmingham of the American Youth Foundation, Rev. Edward Cowles, pastor of the Congregational Church in Westfield, Mass., Rev. William R. Valentine, Jr., youth worker at the Methodist Church of Waltham, Mass., Mrs. William R. Valentine, Jr., R. N., who will act as the Conference Nurse, Mrs. F. Duane Hawkins of Winchester who will be the House Mother, and Rev. and Mrs. Donald B. Tarr.

The young people have been busy planning a well-balanced program of recreation and fun, discussion, social activities, and worship. The Student Council directly responsible for the program consists of Dick Bush, chairman, Douglas Hawkins, Janet Archibald, David Pratt, Dorothy Parker, Gordon Bird, Jr., and Donald Cameron, with David Archibald, President of Forum, and Dorothy Brandt, Vice-President, on the committee ex-officio. Jennifer Meigs is chairman of the recreation committee. Tom Ordway heads up the Equipment Committee.

The following young people are making the trip: David Archibald, Janet Archibald, John Atkinson, Nancy Ayer, Nancy Barnard, Judith Beges, Gordon Bird, Jr., John Borden, Dorothy Brandt, Matty Branneman, Beverly Browne, Vivian Bullard, Bouldin Burbank, Robert Burnham, Donald Cameron, Marjorie Cameron, Audrey Clark, Roberta Coon, Bruce Cortbell, Sally Cunningham, Carol Damon, George DeCamp, Marjorie Dexter, Marilyn Dyer, Theodore Elliott, Jr., Debby Fish, Judy Geerts, Louise Gray, Deborah Hall, Barbara Hammett, Douglas Hawkins, Judy Higgins, Prescott Keyes, Louise Kugler, Dick Lowry, Dona Macaulay, Ronald McKenzie, Diane McNeill, Jennifer Meigs, Suzanne Mitchell, Bette Nelson, Thomas Ordway, Carolyn Padelford, Dorothy Parker, Peter Perkins, David Pratt, Richard Rush, June Ryan, Peter Sharon, Kathryn Smith, Wendell Snow, Laura Snow, Lynne, Stevens, Priscilla Stone, Jacqueline Sturtevant, Judy Swan, Donald Swanson, Edward Tarr, Joyce Thomas, Robert Wiklund, Judy Winship, Sandra Wittet.

Recognition of the Mohonk delegates will be made at the Sunday morning chapel service of the Forum at 9:30 in Ripley Chapel when Rev. Leicester Potter, Jr., Chaplain of the Massachusetts Memorial Hospitals will give his second address to the Forum, using as his topic, "Can I Reach the Top?" Marshall Pihl, Jr., will be the chaplain for the service, assisted by Thomas Ordway.

The Right Mortgage Is Important

In arranging a mortgage on your home it is important to examine every feature that will contribute to economy, convenience and security. The amount of the loan, the method of payment, the period of time and other details should have careful consideration.

We invite an opportunity to discuss your mortgage requirements and to cooperate in a plan of financing adapted to your individual needs.

REV. JOHN SNOOK, JR.

86TH ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM CONTINUES

All members and friends of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church are cordially invited to the Birthday Party which begins at 7:30 p.m.

A review of the accomplishments of the year will be revealed in the reports of various officers and committees. These annual meeting reports will be of interest and concern to all who are related to the church.

After the meeting, which will be conducted by the District Supt. Archiver J. Strait, there will be a program in which the choir and three representatives of the church, will travel by way of music and brief messages, from the beginning of the church organization to the place of the church in the future. Mrs. Myrtle L. and Miss Mary L. Hodge will bring some interesting facts about the past. Mrs. Shirley Kuhn will present several highlights of the present church program and Miss Phyllis Kilmer, will talk about the future. Mrs. Marjorie Galucia and Mrs. Olive Wilkins are co-chairmen of the program.

Sunday morning, the pastor, Rev. John Snook, Jr., will bring the final Anniversary message. His subject will be, "Room For Improvement."

AGGIES WIN IN TOURNEY PLAY

During the past three weeks the Boys' Club Basketball Tournament at Charlestown has been in session. A total of 250 teams entered the tournament which was divided into three groups, Junior, Intermediate, and Senior.

The Aggies, a team made up of 8 sophomore second team players, have so far stood up under all competition in the Senior Division. The Senior Division which was made up of 140 teams originally has now dwindled to 8.

The first game the Aggies took 46 - 28 from the Charlestown Falcons. Winchester completely dominated play from the opening whistle. Steve Yale, who just moved to Winchester from Iowa last year had the hot hand in the local scoring with 12 points. He may prove to be a valuable asset to this young quintet in the future. Fran Murphy, another addition to the team this year, collected 10 points.

In the second contest Winchester upset a good Milton quintet, 35 - 21.

In the third game the Aggies defeated a mediocre Rockland quintet by a score of 38 - 31. Slipping badly from their victory over Milton, the Aggies still managed to come out on top. Playing poorly they piled up a 15 - 13 advantage during the first half. The third period showed considerable improvement as they outclassed their opponents all the way. Going into the 4th period Winchester was on top by a 30 - 21 score. They coasted through the last period for their win. Norman Howard was high man with 15 while John Atkinson scored 11, 9 of which came in the first half. This was the third straight victory for the Aggies putting them in the quarter finals of the Charlestown Boys' Club Tourney.

The Winchester Sachems, another local outfit, made up of 8 varsity players also saw action in the Tournament. Led by Captain-elect John DiIorio, the Sachems took two games from Boston teams before being eliminated by the Musiniski Club of Lynn. The Musiniskis' champions of last year's tournament, had too much height and experience for the locals and they won easily 61 - 31.

The quarter, semi-finals and the finals, will be held on next Wednesday Thursday, and Saturday nights respectively. Winchester meets Charter Oaks in Wednesday night's quarter final game.

A Winchester resident, Jeremiah McCarron of 33 Arthur street has been admitted to Liberty Mutual Insurance Company's Rehabilitation Center for physical and occupational therapy treatments for an injury-caused disability. Employed as a buffer, the 70-year-old Arthur street resident suffered an acute strain of the left shoulder when he fell several weeks ago.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

If there were ever any doubts about the many talents possessed by our members, they were dispelled on Tuesday when a Guild group presented the hilarious comedy skit "How The Club Was Formed" before a capacity audience in Masonic Hall, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph McGarargle.

The story deals with the women of a small country town, who, fed up with the monotony of their daily lives and fearful that the men were having all the fun, decide to form a club. The ladies gather at the home of a very forthright and outspoken village woman, who promptly elects herself president of the club "because she thought of the idea", and after much amusing discussion and wrangling, the club is finally formed and named. Having no knowledge of how women's clubs operate, the president is guided and directed in this venture by the very "uppish" young stepdaughter of one of the ladies, who has just returned from visiting Boston and knows all about clubs from attending her Aunt Jane's. In the last act, to the howls of laughter of a delighted audience, the ladies arrive for the first club meeting dressed in their Sunday-go-to-meeting clothes and carrying the essays and "current events" the president has instructed them to prepare and read. The reading of these masterpieces kept the audiences in an uproar but, for some reason, they didn't seem to please the president, who decided the ladies just weren't bright enough to belong to a club. The final straw came when the ladies openly insulted the "spread", consisting of one cracker each, that the president served at the end of the meeting and in a fit of temper she abolishes the club and sends them all home. What was to be the first club meeting is also the last.

Our thanks go to all the members of the cast and to our capable director, Mrs. McGarargle, for her fine direction of this play and to our Program Chairman, Mrs. Charles E. Flynn, for her inestimable help in filling in everywhere she was needed.

Tea was served by Hospitality Chairman Mrs. C. Douglas Wheeler, and hostesses for the day were Mrs. John Volpe, Mrs. Daniel J. Doherty, Mrs. John M. Ryan, Mrs. Hugh F. McPartland, Mrs. Leo T. Manoli, Mrs. Chester J. Powers, Mrs. M. J. Quinn, Mrs. George Doherty, Mrs. Peter Murphy and Mrs. James H. Shaw.

Our next meeting will be our very important Annual Meeting to be held on Tuesday, April 24th, when we will have as guest speaker the Reverend Phillip J. Kearney of the Catholic Bureau. We urge all of our members to make a special effort to attend this meeting and hear the reports of what we, as a group, have accomplished this past year.

Have you made your reservation for our Communion Breakfast as yet? If not, don't fail to do so when you are contacted by one of the committee members.

Remember now, the annual meeting, Tuesday the 24th. We'll see you then.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD

At 8:45 a. m. Sunday morning, April 15th, the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church will meet around the breakfast table for the last Brotherhood Breakfast of the season. Following the meal Dr. Forbes Norris will bring his usual inspiring and challenging message to the men. Come and join in the fellowship that goes with a good meal and congenial companions.

On the following Sunday, April 22nd, the Brotherhood is planning to meet at the church at 7 o'clock to attend the Communion Service at Trinity Church, Copley Square, at 7:30 a. m. Men of all Protestant faiths will meet at one common Communion table, and will then march in a body to Mechanics Building where a Communion Breakfast will be served. They will return to their respective churches in time for Morning Service. This will be a great gathering, demonstrating the solidarity of men of all Protestant churches in these trying times.

HOOKED RUG EXHIBIT AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Among the exhibitors in the Third Annual Hooked Rug Exhibit presented by the Women's League of the First Baptist Church in the Social and Recreation halls of the Church on Monday, April 16th, are the following: Mrs. Walter L. Bailey, Mrs. Edward H. Newhall, Mrs. Ray C. Ellis, Mrs. Alan Howard, Mrs. Irving Jennings, Mrs. Chandler Symmes, Mrs. Franklin Lane, Mrs. Fred Hetson, Mrs. H. Wadsworth Hight, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. Herbert Preble, Mrs. Lester Leathers, Mrs. Clifton S. Hall, Mrs. Meigs, Mrs. Leon Leavitt, Mrs. G. Russell Mann, Mrs. Lillian Palmer, Mrs. William Connell, Dr. Ruth Boule, Mrs. Martha L. Porter, Mrs. Frank Jones, Mrs. K. William Cox, Mrs. Joseph Burgatti, Mrs. Florence Ciarchi, Mrs. Eric Anderson, all of Winchester; Mrs. Eliot Hardy of Woburn; Mrs. Stanley Kinsley, Mrs. Clarence Lent, Mrs. Leslie Patten, Mrs. Harold Moffett, Mrs. Leonard Fuyat, Mrs. Roland Kenyon, Mrs. Charles Sanborn, Mrs. Kingsley Cochrane, Mrs. Nicholas Appolakis, all of Stoneham; and Mrs. Daniel Paine of Malden; and Mrs. Edgar Larsen of Cambridge.

The pupils of Mrs. Claire Ashton who will also exhibit their rugs are: Mrs. Victoria Barbieri, Mrs. Doris Gould, Mrs. R. M. Spinney, Mrs. Dorothy Ferretti, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, Mrs. J. W. Hinchley, Mrs. Margarite Harrison all of Medford; Mrs. Burnham Walker of Cambridge, and Miss Marion Crawford of Wellesley.

A rug of special interest to be shown in the Exhibit will be a rose-colored 9x12 executed in petitpoint by Miss Marguerite Asher, formerly principal of the Mystic and Lincoln Schools. The design is original with Miss Asher and represents many hours of work, her own and that of her friends.

Mrs. Marjory S. Thompson, well-known in hooking circles as an outstanding authority on color, will demonstrate periodically the fascinating and practical art of dyeing. This will certainly be of interest to all hookers, for who of us hasn't dabbled at dyeing at sometime or other, with varying degrees of success. We can learn much from Mrs. Thompson's demonstrations. Mrs. Thompson, a teacher of note herself, will also exhibit a number of rugs. She will also have available swatches, rug patterns and other material indispensable to developing this most delightful and practical of hobbies.

The Snack Bar will be open for those who wish to come during mealtime or those who may come from a distance.

Don't neglect this opportunity to see this fine exhibit of rugs made by many of our townspeople and friends from surrounding towns on Monday, April 16th, from 10 o'clock to 9 p. m., in the Social and Recreation Halls of the First Baptist Church.

GEORGE WASHINGTON MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION NEWS

The April meeting of the George Washington Mothers' Association was held Tuesday, April 10th, at 3:15 p. m. After a brief business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Thomas Purtle, Mrs. Paul Lamareche gave a report on the Scholarship Fund and Mrs. Joseph Bogue spoke of the coming annual gathering of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. Robert Holland then introduced the speaker, Miss Grace Wills, a former director of Lincoln House and at present Chairman of Friendly Visitors to Framingham. Miss Wills, in a very informal talk, contrasted travel to Europe in 1913 with that of the present day. Her experiences in Luxembourg, Paris, and Salzburg were graphically and amusingly recounted, from her comparisons of the American and French kitchens, to the Mozart Festival in Salzburg. A coffee hour followed, served by Mrs. Donald Abbott and her Social Committee.

Two Winchester boys, John Moriarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Moriarty of 20 Sheffield road, and Richard Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Smith of 88 Church street, have been awarded varsity hockey letters at Norwich University. Both boys are Juniors.

TAKES UP DUTIES IN GERMANY

First Lieutenant Warburton K. VerPlanck of 37 Calumet road, has arrived on Heidelberg Military Post in the U. S. Zone of Germany to assume duties with the 7812th Station Complement Unit.

His mother, Mrs. Florence W. VerPlanck, resides at 21 Chestnut street, Salem. A 1948 graduate of Phillips Exeter academy, the lieutenant received his bachelor's degree in civil engineering at Yale university, New Haven, Connecticut, in 1942.

He entered the Army in January, 1943, and received his commission at aviation cadet engineer officers school in August of that year. During World War II he served in the European theater of operations with an Engineer aviation battalion. His decorations include the European theater ribbon with two battle stars.

VerPlanck returned to civilian life in June, 1946. From August, 1947 until he was recalled to active duty last month he worked as an engineer with the Brask Engineering company, Boston.

His wife, Frances and their two children, Ann, 2, and Frances, 1, are with the lieutenant in Germany. Mrs. VerPlanck's father, T. C. Browne, reside at the Winchester address.

WHAT IS THE MISSION OF THE CIVIL AIR PATROL

The Civil Air Patrol is not a military organization.

Membership in the C. A. P. does not obligate anyone to serve in the Regular Air Force or any other Armed Service.

The Civil Air Patrol is a voluntary civilian training program, designed to acquaint young Americans with the air age in which they live, and to prepare them, if they wish, for a more active and vital role in the Air Force or in civilian aviation, or for greater enjoyment and skill in private flying if their careers are not in the field of aviation it self.

Cadet training includes a ground training course far exceeding Civil Aeronautics authority requirements for the pilot's license. This training includes theory of flight, map reading, meteorology, navigation, aircraft structures, engines and instruments, crash procedure and Civil Air Regulations.

Military training includes Infantry Drill, safe-guarding of military information, guard duty, military discipline and organization of the United States Air Force.

Cadet training does not include flight training, but the C. A. P. encourages its members to fly through private instruction. In some areas, funds have been donated to award flight scholarships to outstanding cadets.

Anyone who is interested in joining the Civil Air Patrol should call WI 6-0495 or WI 6-1678.

MYSTIC SCHOOL NEWS

Fifth Grade Assembly

Miss Wood's 5th Grade at the Mystic School gave a most impressive Assembly on Wednesday morning, April 4th at 9:30 a. m. in the Mystic School Assembly Hall before the parents and invited guests and the pupils of the 3rd, 4th and 6th grades.

The assembly program was about Life in Early Virginia, and was written and produced by members of the 5th Grade in conjunction with their work in history, social studies, music and art. The backdrop alone was most effective: one of the rivers of Virginia in the springtime, with its typical wharf and tobacco warehouse, was depicted flowing along with an orchard of lovely soft yellow green trees on the opposite bank.

Lively march music, played by Marilyn Snelling and Kathleen Doherty, opened the Assembly, which was followed by the reading of an excellent original poem by Kirby Baker, "A Guest in Early Virginia".

1651 was the year represented in the play, which portrayed the problems of family life on estates of at least 5,000 acres, where neighbors were many miles away; the work of raising and harvesting tobacco, the chief crop, and the important business of having it inspected, sold and shipped away; the difficulties of ordering most of the clothing and supplies from England and of waiting many months for their delivery; the enjoyment of entertaining other families; the problems of new settlers from the Old World; and the danger of Indian attacks. Much delightful humor, as well as some lovely choral singing, was interspersed in this portrayal of life in Virginia 300 years ago.

All of this was seen through the eyes of the Ellis family and of their friends, the Gates. Mr. Ellis was played by Robert Boone; Mrs. Ellis by Helen Bolster; their daughter Sally by Agnes Money, and their son Roger by Robert Mingolelli. The part of Mr. Gates was acted by Kirby Baker; Mrs. Gates by Betsy Bolster in a lovely dress from her Grandmother's trousseau; their daughter Clara by Marilyn Snelling, and their son Paul by Patrick Lennon.

Rufus Young took the part of Captain of the ship while John Ghirardini was one of the sailors. The Overseers of the Plantation were Stevenson Davies as John Austin, Frank Varian as Samuel Barton, and Lyman Hewins as brings Results.

Sam; the three slaves were Daniel O'Connell, David Van Ummersen, and Daniel Adams. Stephen Fisher as Black Fox, and John Forward as Young Beaver, were the two Indians who complained that the settlers' cattle had stampeded their village and demanded retribution for their grievance.

Two Negro spirituals, "Jacob's Ladder" and "I Want to Climb", as well as the more familiar "Swanee River" and "Old Black Joe", were sung at appropriate times during the play by an excellent chorus in beautiful old costumes, several of which belonged to Cynthia Dunn's great grandmother. The members of the chorus were Patricia Bates, Richard Conti, Brenda Cowles, Kathleen Doherty, Cynthia Dunn, Rosemary Fonseca, Joan Freeman, David Hopkins, Irene Kearns, Vivianne Loustauan, Richard Mingolelli, Richard Nahigian, Richard Niles, Joel Peckham, Ann Tisdale, Gretchen Wolsey and Arthur Wood. The music added much to the effectiveness of the play. During the intermission and at the end other piano selections were played by Richard Mingolelli and Kirby Baker, and the Announcer was Douglas Canning.

Because the 5th grade is the only grade at the Mystic School which contains fewer than forty children, it cannot be divided. Only grades of forty or more children are divided. But with 36 youngsters in one class, there is also much talent to call upon. Last Wednesday all of this talent was used to the best advantage to produce an outstanding assembly.

Teachers' Luncheon

Mrs. Albert Fesler of 5 Edgehill road opened her home on Wednesday, April 4th, for a luncheon for Mr. Fotte, Mrs. Dover, and the Mystic School teachers. She was assisted by Mrs John Farnum, Mrs. Burton Miller and Mrs. Herbert Preble. This was one of a series of such luncheons and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

METHODIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

This past Sunday, the Methodist Youth Fellowship visited the East Saugus church for a combined fellowship program. Rev. John Snook, Jr., preached.

This Sunday Dale Dunivan will lead the devotions and the group will discuss Summer Institute and begin to set up ideas for the coming year's program.

Wet Weather—and Walloping Winds

I love 'em both—wet weather and walloping winds. The rhythmic drip, drip off the roof soothes me to quiet slumber, my lawn is being watered free of charge while the garden hose lies snugly coiled, water supplies are being replenished as nature intended. People differ, I agree, on the fascination of driving gales, but surely there is nothing nicer than watching the tree tops giving to the gusts and always coming back as if to say "Let's do it again."

And as I trudge down to the station with coat collar snug around my neck and hat brim dripping small cascades over my shoulders, I wonder if I'm right to treat the rain with such exaggerated respect—as though it were somehow unfriendly. The red setter nosing his way across the park, the chipmunk peering saucily from caves in his stone wall, the robin playing tug-of-war with his anticipated breakfast—they don't bother with raincoats. They take the rain as it comes—and like it.

I like it, too. But I'm also extremely grateful to the engineers and trainmen who make it possible for me to dry out in comfort on my way to work, to read the paper, chat with my friends, and maybe get a head start on the day's work.

DRIVING THROUGH MEXICO

The following article gives the observations of a Winchester couple who are traveling by auto through Mexico. Since the article is written by a Winchester man, and as it has been suggested that some of the Star readers may be interested in a similar trip, his observations are printed herewith.

Mexico City
Monday, March 26, 1951

Dear Everybody:

My observations of Mexico Auto Traffic, Roads and Police.

Our first experience, of course, was in Vera Cruz. So far, in the congested centers of the larger towns and cities we've been in, the streets are mostly at right angles and most are one way and well marked with names on the corners of buildings. You always know where to look for the name and under it is a black sign with a clearly understood white arrow on which is the word "Transito." That points the direction and it's hard to go wrong.

Mexico City has such a right angular district. But outside of that are really wide roads, double lane, with trees in the center and on both sides about 1½ times the width of Commonwealth avenue.

We've driven a lot in our own car about the city within a range of a 5 mile radius and there are scores of these avenues running in many directions much as they do in Washington, D. C. Frequently, they are broken by circles in some of which are monuments that put anything we have to shame. There must be several hundred miles of such avenues.

A few run into almost the center of town. Today coming back from the doctor's by taxi we traveled one and at a police stop signal there were two busses and three taxis abreast and room for as many more on the other side. Would that some of our Boston streets were like that! Yet this city is older and 3 times as populous.

In the smaller places, some of the streets are unbelievably narrow. In Orizak (upward of 50,000 people) we thought we saw an interesting church up a side street so we turned off the main stem after a bus. We thought that if a bus went that way it was all right but we soon found ourselves on a street no more than 30 feet wide including sidewalks and sidewalk stands and goods on sale out in the street beyond the curb line to say nothing of crowds of Mexicans and Indians who are chattering and bargaining and buying. To top it all, the busses and cars usually cut out the muffler so that noise is baffling. You "hoot your hooter" as the South Africans say and hope you can make a few feet headway at a time without running over someone or someone's wares. The plain truth is that no one in an auto has any right to get onto such a street but we didn't know what we were getting into. The street we were on was open (1) because the busses had to go through, the side streets were impassable altogether so we went the full length of ½ mile before we could return by less congested streets.

Even Mexico City has numerous sections like that but on the whole the traffic moves well.

The main section of town has the snappiest traffic police I've ever seen and it's all regulated so simply. There are very few red and green lights. Instead a traffic officer stands on a little box about 2 feet square and 18 inches high. He signals with his arm and a whistle and his body. When his front or back faces you, it means "Stop" and everyone does. Then he blows his whistle once and makes a quarter turn and everything stops. Then two short notes on his whistle and a signal with his hands and the proper lanes move.

I said they were very snappy and I mean just that. The cop is like an American Army officer's cap of medium brown or dark tan. The coat is fitted like an Army officer's tunic, is of darker brown and they wear a wide brown leather belt and brown shoes. Once in a while, you see one with an American flag just under his badge. That means he speaks English and I am told a few wear as many as 5 flags of different nations!

A word about the whistle. It isn't the shrill whistle our cops use with a trill in it (if you know what I mean) but sounds more like the note you'd get from a fine wood instrument like a flute and it's musical and friendly and it sounds kind of courteous.

The other police are not so bad either. Their uniforms are blue and in the city are neat. As you go through the outlying towns, they run from ordinary to sloppy but they are good-natured and mean well. At the Bull Ring, one of them spotted us. He could speak a little English and offered to guide us to our seats. Now that was no mean offer for the ring holds over 50,000 people and has tunnels galore and "portals" and "gates" and "aisles" and "rows." To complicate matters a little, he couldn't read the tickets but we found our way together to the seats and they were right smack next to those of one passenger who was on the ship with us! A peso for his pains seemed to make the officer happy. Again at the Shrine of Guadalupe, we parked on a wide avenue. A policeman found a place for us, wound up the window of our car and told us to lock it. Later he reminded us he had watched our car. So a peso made him happy!

A little later I had occasion to telephone the hotel. Passing a Police Sentry box, I went over to ask where there was a pay telephone. In the Sentry Box to be sure. He was smart, that chap, because he understood my need and put in the call himself. How much? At your service, Senor!

So it goes. Some of our American police would learn a lot from these chaps.

It's easier to drive your own car here than to ride in a taxi. In your own car you can choose your speed and go reasonably slow. Others will pass you on either side but they usually blow so you know they intend to. But if you are in a taxi (and the fares are unbelievably low) hold onto the seat, if you can. We came back from the Bull Ring yesterday in one. On the way out it cost us 6 Pesos (about 75c American) for a ride that took about 40 minutes. You ask before you start what the cost will be. They do not use meters. The only way you can identify a taxi is by a little sign which says "Libre," meaning "At Liberty."

At the Bull Ring as we emerged, there were upward of 50,000 people wanting to get away. A little boy approached and said he could find us a taxi. Good! When we got there, we asked "How much?" "Ten Pesos?" "No," and the driver turned away. But the kid was back in a moment with a taxi that would take us and 2 others for six pesos. Mrs. Munro and I sat on the seat with the driver. He tried to make the distance of several miles to our hotel in as much as he could under nothing flat. And he darned near did it at that!

He twisted that car in and out, from side to side through spots you wouldn't want to tackle with a wheelbarrow, caught up with cars ahead and jammed on his brakes. Then when things began to move, he stepped on the throttle in low gear and boy, I'm telling you, we lost no time. We never said a word, no one cussed him out as far as we know but inside we swayed and pitched forward and were jerked back. If that guy isn't the world's champion obstacle driver, then I never expect to see one!

And now a word about the open country roads between Vera Cruz where we landed and Mexico City. In the state of Vera Cruz, the pavement was in only moderately good repair but the nearer you get to Mexico City, the better the pavement. Most of it is as good as what we have in Massachusetts.

You can make good time if you want to until you get to Fortin de las Flores. Then you really begin to get mountain climbing. I thought we had enough long distance busses on our main highways. We haven't anything. Nearly all of the 286 miles from the coast, busses passed us at the rate of about 5 to the mile. Sometimes there would be 3 or 4 in view on the short turns in the mountains where you couldn't see more than 600 or 700 feet ahead at a time.

A good part of the mountain road is so steep that you go in first gear when going up. The busses cut out their mufflers and make the darnedest racket in low gear and no muffler. They go faster than I wanted to go. Not only do they carry passengers but anything the passenger has with him. This duffle is put on top of the bus. They have ladders on the back so this can be done without delay. The busses stop anywhere anyone wants to get on or off. They have no stop lights so you just keep your eyes open and alerted for sudden stops.

On these long runs, we estimated that the busses outnumbered the passenger cars by about 5 to 1. We saw scarcely any trucks. I don't know if that is usual or not for we came up during Holy Week when many businesses are closed for about 5 days. About the only heavy trucking we saw were gasoline trucks. They don't call it gasoline here. The industry is state-owned and called "Mexpet" so you buy "Mexoline". It's not as high octane as our gasoline but it works all right in this high altitude (10,486 feet above sea level at top of Continental Divide and 7,349 feet at Mexico City) and it's a lot less expensive than what we buy.

When you go short runs of 25 - 40 miles outside of the city, then you really see busses of all kinds. They turn on about a 20 second headway or oftener and they race each other tooting their horns most of the time. Many run only to towns 20 or 30 miles away, picking up passengers wherever they may be. You wouldn't ever have to wait long for one but from what we've seen, I don't think you'd want to ride in one of the "local" busses more than once. There are many that make much longer limited stop runs. Reservations for seats have to be made in advance, the equipment is the equal of anything we have in the states.

Well, we expect to go a lot more miles over Mexico roads. I may see other things but this is all I can remember now about this particular subject.

TROOP 12 ADDRESSED BY B. C. HOCKEY STAR

Sherm "Whip" Saltmarsh, hard playing forward of the Boston College Varsity and member of the three-time champs of the Eastern Amateur Hockey League, the Winchester Hockey Club, was a welcome invited guest speaker to Troop 12 of St. Mary's Church on the occasion of their weekly meeting held on Wednesday, April 4th. With Hockey his topic, "Whip" launched into a most informative and interesting talk concerning this sport. Giving much credit to his Dad for going all out to advance this sport among the young men in town, the speaker told of the trials at the start to get a place to play. Shoveling snow all winter to get a playing surface was told to the assembled scouts grouped around him seated on chairs. Finally the opportunity to practice at the Boston Skating Club arrived but the boys' spark was not diminished one whit by the fact that they were granted a practice session at 4:00 a. m. in the morning. This before a school session at the High School. That it paid dividends is evidenced by two boys from the group making the varsity at Boston College and others the Tufts varsity. Many of the highlights of the past season's games were recounted as well as the undefeated B. C. Freshmen team's games which team was the best in B. C. annals. The plane trips, the fine hotels, the banquets and visits to Yale, Dartmouth, Michigan, Brown and other colleges were unfolded also with the fine food and inner feeling of really doing something for one's alma mater. Surviving cuts on the B. C. team where 60 candidates reported, then the number cut to 40 to 20 and finally 17 remained the maximum limit was pointed out to the boys with Whip crediting the long hours of faithful practice, the attainment of good marks and particularly the ability to "take" for the chance to make the team. He admonished the boys to choose good equipment and gave a demonstration with his own hockey stick as to how to hold it, etc. Getting good skates, that are not too large is an important factor also to be pointed out. The main principle is to learn first how to skate. Playing hockey is contingent on this premise. Skate, skate, skate he admonished. "Always do your best," he counseled the boys and told them not to be overawed by reputations of others who might be better performers in a given sport. Never turn on your adversaries he counseled also since an expellation from the game which might hurt your team will result. During the question and answer period the star player declared that the most exciting games was the one against Harvard wherein B. C. was losing 9 to 5 going into the last period and emerged the winner 10 to 9 with himself getting one of the goals.

Scoutmaster Bob Flore and Assit S. M. Al Thorne, Jr. led the scouts in a rousing cheer for the guest.

ACCIDENT AT BACON'S FELT MILL

Two men were injured Monday noon at the Bacon Felt Mill when an elevator which they were loading dropped from the first floor to the basement. Thomas E. Mulmem of 9 Franklin street and Paul J. Doherty of 11 Salem street, both of Woburn were taken to the Winchester Hospital by Sgt. Thomas Cassidy and Patrolman Kennedy. Doherty did not regain consciousness until after his arrival. Both men were treated by Dr. P. J. McManus.

CANCER
AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

APRIL CRUSADERS TO FIGHT CANCER

April is devoted to an intensive educational and fund-raising crusade against cancer. President Truman has proclaimed it Cancer Control Month and called for a sustained drive against the disease that last year killed an estimated 210,000 Americans.

Why is cancer singled out for such an intensive attack in which physicians, researchers and the public unite? Because so many thousands of lives — perhaps half of those who develop the disease — can be saved.

Cancer is a disease of the cells. It occurs when for reasons not entirely understood, cells throw off normal rules of behavior and begin to act like gangsters. Instead of being useful working citizens of the body they devote their energy to growth, and they steal the food of normal cells.

The 1951 Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society seeks funds to combat this outlaw disease. Your dollars help guard your family. Strike back! Give to conquer cancer.

Winchester's goal for the Cancer Fund Campaign is set at $5,000.

The drive has completed its second week. Gifts are coming in daily and the Winchester Committee is grateful to those who have already contributed. Those who have not yet subscribed to the 1951 Crusade are urged to do so as soon as possible through Davenport F. Davis, Treasurer, Winchester Trust Company, Winchester.

HOME ON VISIT

Lt. (jg) and Mrs. F. Glenn Hathaway (Jean Clement) and daughter, Janice Lee, arrived in Winchester on Monday of last week. They drove across the country from Walla Walla, Washington, and on Saturday, Lt. (jg) Hathaway left for Washington, D. C., where he reported for active duty with the Navy. Mrs. Hathaway and her daughter will remain with Mrs. Hathaway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Clement of 8 Park avenue until Lt. (jg) Hathaway is able to find living accommodations for them in Washington, D. C.

COMMUNITY CHEST ANNUAL MEETING

The spacious, hospitable cabin of Winchester Girl Scouts will be the meeting place for the Annual Meeting of the Winchester Community Chest, Inc., on Thursday evening, April 26 at 7:45 p. m. This will be an appropriate setting as the Girl Scouts are one of our local Red Feather services which, as a member agency of the Winchester Community Chest, benefits by our annual contributions to the Red Feather Drive each fall.

Mrs. Harlow Russell, in charge of arrangements for this meeting, promises an opportunity for enjoying sociability, the attractive surroundings, and a stimulating program.

At the business session, reports of the officers, committees, and — especially — the member agencies will afford glimpses into the amazing scope of services and activities of the local Red Feather agencies. There will be voting on by-law revisions, and the election of a treasurer, a clerk, a member of the Nominating Committee of the Corporation, and the directors.

The special treat of the evening will be the guest of honor, Mr. Alan Steinert, General Chairman of the Greater Boston Red Feather Campaign for 1952.

The clerk (Richard H. Frazier, 7 Summit avenue) has filed copies of the current and proposed by-laws at the Winchester Public Library. Mr. Frazier will accept nominations, other than those submitted by the Nominating Committee, provided they are signed by at least ten members of the Chest and are received by him not later than seven days prior to the date of the meeting.

SPRING PARTY FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS ON MAY 17

Arrangements are now well underway for the second annual get together of Winchester parents and teachers to be held at the High School on Thursday evening, May 17.

In an attempt this year to provide for all who wish to attend the Spring Party, a catered meal will be served both in the High School Cafeteria and in the Gymnasium. The diners will adjourn to the auditorium for a program of light entertainment which the committee hopes will meet with popular approval.

Mrs. Frank d'Elseaux and Mrs. Myrtle Dodge are co-chairmen of the committee which consists of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Nanry, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. Loring Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. William Davies, Miss Charlotte LeClair, Mr. Thomas Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tansey, Mr. George Snyder, Mrs. Ralph Jope, Mr. John Stevens, Mr. Paul Forester, Mrs. Joseph Bogue, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schaefer, Mr. Paul Lamarche and Mrs. Ruth Graham.

Details of the Spring Party, including announcement of a lower price for tickets than last year, will be sent to the homes of Winchester boys and girls after vacation, on or about April 23.

This year's committee, recalling the four hundred and fifty people who attended last year's Friendly Frolic and the large number who were unable to get reservations, decided that the only space indoors large enough to accommodate the gathering would be the High School Cafeteria and the gymnasium equipped with tables and chairs.

NOTICE

Mr. Bernard B. Eckberg wishes to notify his customers who may have emergency work during his absence from Winchester to call WOburn 2-2033-M and prompt service will be rendered. Mr. Eckberg will return and resume his business September 1. ap13-3t

DARTMOUTH WOMEN'S CLUB

The Dartmouth Women's Club will hold their annual meeting and luncheon on Wednesday, April 18th at the Hotel Vendome with the President, Mrs. Percy E. Gleason, presiding.

The business meeting and election of officers will be held at 11:30 a. m. after which the luncheon will be served at 1:30 p. m.

The guest speaker, Edward S. Chamberlain, Executive Officer of Dartmouth College, will be presented with the Scholarship Gift from the Club at the conclusion of his talk.

You Can Even Choose It for Economy!

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.
It is true, of course, that when men and women move up to Cadillac, their motivating thought is not economy. Their hearts are set on owning the "Standard of the World."
But if they needed another impulse to move them to Cadillac, it could certainly be found in the car's remarkable record for practicality.
Even on the basis of its initial cost, a Cadillac represents a surprisingly sound automotive investment. Indeed, some half million American motorists are driving other makes of cars which actually cost them more than they would have had to invest if they had purchased new Cadillacs!
And the surprise is no less when you look to the everyday aspects of Cadillac's economy. Few could ask for greater mileage from a gallon of gasoline. And the car's freedom from the needs of service—beyond the routine—has long been traditional.
And finally, of course, is Cadillac's tremendous capacity to serve—the years and years and years of wonderful utility designed and built into it.
Yes—when you want a Cadillac, you want it for what it is, and does, and represents. But what an added satisfaction it is to reflect that it is also so eminently practical!
We deeply regret that we are unable to deliver new Cadillac cars without some delay. But the demand for the car is unprecedented—and much of the company's energies and materials are now being devoted to the needs of national security. Once the car is delivered into your hands, however, we know you'll agree that—patience never brought a richer reward.

Three Alarm Fire At White Building Wednesday Morning

WHITE BLOCK BADLY DAMAGED WEDNESDAY

A second fire in one of Winchester's business blocks occurred on Wednesday morning when a bad blaze was discovered in the White Block at the corner of Church and Main street. The block is known largely as McCormack's Block through the drug store occupying its corner. Three months ago the block across the square — Lyceum Building — had a similar fire in which the top story was destroyed.

Wednesday's fire was discovered by police officer John Reardon who telephoned the fire department at seven o'clock. At that time the fire was well under way with clouds of smoke pouring from the windows. Box 21 had been sounded for the fire and a second alarm was immediately sounded. Assistance was sent from Arlington and Woburn, and apparatus from Stoneham and Medford came to town to fill in while Winchester fought the blaze. The police had a busy time rerouting traffic and some streets were marked "one way" to keep traffic from the center.

The fire evidently originated in the cellar beneath the McCormack's drug store and worked its way to the second story through the back of the store. Dense smoke made it difficult for the firemen to get at the source of the fire and smoke masks were used by the men who entered the building. The entire building was filled with smoke and the damage was heavy to the drug store, the Camera Shop, Queen Quality Tailors, the law offices of William E. Beggs and the Knight of Columbus rooms. The building is owned by Mr. Harry E. Chefalo, and his damage will be heavy. No estimates of the damage have been made. The Star Office adjoining the building was well filled with smoke which seeped through the cellar and its basement was flooded with the water which was poured into the White Block cellar.

The firemen made a good stop in fighting the fire, confining the chief damage to the cellar and a part of the first floor. Smoke damage was heavy. The fire was well under control an hour after it started, although water was poured into the cellar for another hour before the blaze was finally out.

Moore — Wheaton

On Sunday, April 8, at 4 o'clock p. m. in St. Mary's Church, Miss Dawn Louise Wheaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Wheaton of 48 Oak street, became the bride of Mr. David Charles Moore, son of Mrs. Mary Ellen Moore of 24 Bryant street, Woburn.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan, Pastor of St. Mary's Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and Chantilly lace fashioned with long sleeves, tuxedo front and court train. Her fingertip veil was of starched lace, matching the lace in her gown.

Miss Anna Mae Muraco of Winchester, the honor attendant was gowned in yellow organdy, carrying an old fashioned bouquet.

The bridesmaids, Miss Helen Wheaton, Miss Nancy Wheaton, cousins of the bride, both of Medford; Miss Eleanor Subrizio, and Miss Beatrice Carroll, of Winchester, wore organdy gowns of pink, blue, yellow and orchid, and carried old fashioned bouquets.

Miss Lynne Marshall of Lowell, the flower girl, wore yellow organdy.

Louis Macinanti of Woburn was Mr. Moore's best man. The usher corps was comprised of Mr. Robert Moore, brother of the groom; Mr. Robert Brady of Woburn, Mr. George Wheaton, and Mr. Frederick Wheaton, brothers of the bride.

A reception was held after the ceremony at VFW hall, Stoneham.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School in the class of 1945; and is employed by the New England Trust Co., of Boston.

The groom, who served 2½ years in the Navy during World War II, is in the employ of Beggs and Cobb.

After a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will reside at 48 Oak street.

James H. McCarthy

James H. McCarthy of 42 Harvard street died at the United States Marine Hospital on Monday, April 16, after several months' illness.

Mr. McCarthy was born in Boston in 1876 and was a Spanish War Veteran. He had lived in town for a good many years and was well known. He was a retired chauffeur and had worked for many prominent families in town.

The flags on the public buildings and common were at half mast during the week in honor of his demise.

He is survived by his wife, Victoria Fields McCarthy.

Funeral services are being held this Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock from the Bennett Funeral Home, with Rev. Virgess Hill of the New Hope Baptist Church officiating.

Born

To Dr. and Mrs. Morton Wheeler (Lydia Rogers) of Salisbury, Mass., a third daughter, Molly Tufts; April 5. Sharing grandparent honors are Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Rogers of Winchester and Mrs. John Wheeler of Plymouth, N. H.

Fiske — Holmes

Miss Rosalie Ann Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holmes, 14 Manchester road, was married on Wednesday evening, April 11, at St. Mary's Church to Mr. George Elliott Fiske, son of Mrs. George E. Fiske formerly of 303 Main street. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock with the Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan officiating. The soloist was Mr. Arnold Callahan.

Gowned in ivory Skinner satin, with yoke, sleeves and mitts of imported French Chantilly lace, veil was of imported French silk illusion, chapel length with a crown of lace to match gown. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Joyce Holmes, the bride's sister, was the honor attendant. Her gown was of white frosted marquisette, lily of the valley design over lilac taffeta, with long lilac sash and mitts to match the dress, tied with lilac ribbon. She carried a colonial bouquet of variegated flowers with matching ribbons, wearing a coronet headdress of the same flowers.

The bridesmaids were, Mrs. Joseph Mazzucchelli, of West Roxbury, Mrs. Joseph Sweeney of Newton Center, both cousins of the bride; Mrs. Leo Rideout of Roslindale, Bette Fitzgerald of Winchester and Marie Sullivan of Roslindale. Their gowns and headdress were the same as the honor attendant, and all wore necklaces of pearls and rhinestones, gift of the bride.

Mr. Fiske had as his best man his brother-in-law, Mr. Arlington L. Collins of Windsor, Vermont.

Mr. Barry A. Holmes, brother of the bride was honorary usher, he is serving in the Navy and is en route to Korea. The other ushers were, Hugh P. Lynch, cousin of the bride of West Roxbury; John O'Leary of Arlington; David Drake of Seattle, Washington and Joseph P. Sweeney of Newton Center.

A reception was held at the Winchester Country Club immediately after the ceremony. Assisting in the receiving line were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holmes and the groom's mother, Mrs. George E. Fiske. Music was furnished by Mrs. John A. Sullivan and Mr. Leo Rideout.

The bride is a graduate of Girls' High, Boston and the Boston University Dunn Memorial. The groom graduated from Manter Hall and Northeastern University.

After a wedding trip to Mexico and California the couple will make their home in San Diego, California, where Mr. Fiske is stationed with the Navy.

Maria Mawn

Mrs. Maria (Glynn) Mawn, wife of the late Dominic Mawn, who made her home in Winchester for over 70 years, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Maloney in Jackson Heights, New York, where she had been visiting.

While in Winchester Mrs. Mawn's home was on Canal street. She was at one time active in the Sodality of St. Mary's Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Susan Mawn of Canal street, Mrs. Fred Maloney of New York, and two sons, Joseph D. of Canal street and Leo J. of Marblehead.

Funeral services were held on Thursday morning, April 19, at 8:15 a. m. from the Moffett Funeral Home with a solemn High Mass at St. Mary's at 9 o'clock.

Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Woburn.

Confirmation At St. Mary's

Two hundred and eighty five boys and girls were confirmed at St. Mary's Church on Friday afternoon, April 13 by the Most Rev. Archbishop Richard J. Cushing of Boston.

Sisters of St. Mary's Convent arranged the floral decorations on the altars for the services, which were by all means beautiful.

The services were largely attended by parents and friends of the youngsters being confirmed.

Mr. Virgil Ghirardini was sponsor of the boys with Mrs. Ghirardini acting in a similar capacity for the girls.

After the confirmation Archbishop Cushing spoke to the young people congratulating them, their parents and their pastor.

Clifford Weber Dead

Master Charles Castleman, nine year old violin prodigy, who will be the featured artist at the Mystic Glee Club Eleventh Annual Spring Concert at the Winchester High School, Friday, May 4 at 8:15 p. m.

Mystic Glee Club Will Present Boy Violinist

Charles Castleman, nine year old violinist, will be the Guest Artist at the Eleventh Annual Spring Concert of the Mystic Glee Club, it was announced this week. The Concert will be held at the Winchester High School on Friday evening, May 4th at 8:15.

Charles has been playing the violin since he was four years old, when he began his studies with Mme. Gladys Posselt Ondricek. At the age of six he had composed several pieces, and has since conducted three of his orchestral sketches with various New England orchestras with which he has also appeared as violin soloist. In 1949 he became the youngest artist ever to appear with the Esplanade Concerts, under Arthur Fiedler. Last March he made a Jordan Hall Recital, under the Concert Direction of Aaron Richmond.

Although he's a musical prodigy, young Charlie has found the time to be a real boy as well. He is a cub scout, and an enthusiastic hobbyist, just as are most boys his age. Baseball, swimming, and fishing fill in his outdoor time.

The Mystic Glee Club believes that the inclusion of so exceptional an instrumentalist on the Spring Concert Program will be welcomed by its sponsors and friends.

Mrs. Axel G. Strandman

Mrs. Tekla K. Strandman, wife of Axel G. Strandman, died at her home, 6 Fairmount street on Wednesday, April 11, after several months' illness.

Mrs. Strandman was born in Vastergotland, Sweden on February 23, 1896 the daughter of the late Lars P. and Ida Larson.

She was a member of Oscar Bernadotte Lodge, I. O. G. T., and the Bostonia Lodge, S. F. of A.

Besides her husband she leaves a sister, Mrs. Eva Carlson of Malden.

Funeral services were held from the Bergland Funeral Home in Arlington on last Saturday, April 14 at 2 o'clock, with Rev. Martin L. Cornell of Cambridge officiating.

Interment was in Wildwood cemetery.

One Week Remains Until Scoutorama At Tufts !!

The big annual affair in Scouting, The Scoutorama or Exposition of Scouting which will be held at Tufts College, this year, Cousen's Gym on Saturday, April from 1:00 p. m. until 10:00 p. m. is rapidly approaching. Winchester Units not to be outdone by other members of Fellsland Council (Medford, Woburn, Stoneham, Burlington, Winchester) are climaxing their many weeks of refreshing themselves on scouting items by last minute concerted efforts towards perfection. Ticket sales are booming and of course any boy selling 200 tickets receives a free week at Camp Fellsland in Ameshury, near Salisbury Beach. A troop selling 300 tickets can award a free week to any boy they choose in their troop. It is reported that in Medford several boys have sold the required 200 tickets.

Scout Executive Edward Nelson and Field Executive Francis McFeeley sincerely hope that not only the parents of the scouts will attend the Exposition since they are expected to attend anyway as their boys will be bitterly disappointed if they don't — but that the majority of the Winchester townsfolk will attend also to learn first hand what scouting is endeavoring to do for the youth of America whether it be for Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts or Senior Scouts.

Tufts College has cooperated magnainmously in allowing the use of their property with its spaciousness in as fine a gesture as anyone would desire. It is really much appreciated by the entire scouting family. Much good can come from this for besides helping the scouts, the college authorities may realize a dividend later in the enrollment of several of these youngsters who may be influenced to attend Tufts through this gesture of friendliness towards them.

On Saturday, April 21st one week before the Scoutorama the Scouts of Winchester Troops will converge upon the Winchester Hospital grounds in a mass cleaning up of shrubbery to show service to community. The Hospital authorities are visibly pleased at this token of helpfulness since they have been sorely handicapped in manpower to do the job on the grounds. The boys will report at 9:00 a. m. with rake and basket and a lunch will be served it is expected at noon, of "hot-dogs and milk."

In regards to the necessary doctor's medical examination needed for Camp Fellsland, Dr. Richard W. Sheehy speaking for the Winchester doctors has announced that boys planning to attend Camp may visit their family physician in this matter and no fee will be charged them. Boys are urged to save up for camp themselves and pay their own way so to speak and this graciousness on the part of the doctors will stretch those pennies a little further. Other communities in the Council are endeavoring to obtain the same favor for their scouts.

Events for the Scoutorama will be as follows:

Cub Scouts: 8 - 9 - 10 years of age; Knot Tying teams of 6 cub scouts; Walking the Plank (42 inches by 4 inches); teams of 6 cub scouts; Tug of War teams of 10 cub scouts.

Cub Pack Seven News

Cub Pack Seven held their April meeting at the First Baptist Church on April 6th. The meeting opened with the usual game period supervised by Coach Muerling. The games included a volley ball contest between the Cubs and their Mothers. Both sides are of the opinion that they won. Cubmaster Bob Low described the forthcoming Scoutorama in Medford, April 27th at Tufts College. The Cubs decided that they would enter all the Cub events at the Scoutorama and these are, the 2 x 4 walking contest, knot tying contest, and the tug-of-war. Last year, as well as the four preceding years Pack Seven have come away from the Scoutorama with at least one prize and this year they expect to add a couple of more honors to their collection. A movie about railroads was shown and after the picture Cubmaster Low announced that Pack Seven would make a trip to the Boston and Maine yards to see close at hand the mechanical wonders shown in the film. Committeeman James Wakefield made the following awards:

Winchester Cub Pack Three

Skit night, the annual event at which each den presents a skit for its audience of parents and friends, will be held at the First Congregational Church, Friday, April 27, at 7:00 p. m. Cubs have been selling tickets to this event for several weeks and expect a good audience.

Each den is hard at work organizing its skits, learning lines, and rehearsing. Interest among the boys is keen and there is rivalry to see which den can put on the best performance.

Cub Pack 1 News

The monthly meeting of Cub Pack No. 1 was held last Thursday at the Parkhurst School Assembly Hall. The Pledge to the Flag was led by John Watkins. The two new members of Den 1, Toby Page and Douglas Kirkwood were introduced. Chairman Black presented the following awards:

Robert Award — Talbot Page and Douglas Kirkwood.

Lion Award — Dick Scott and Bob Watkins.

Denner Stripes — Jack Gibbons.

Silver Arrow — Bill Sibley.

Asst. Denner — Dave Bates.

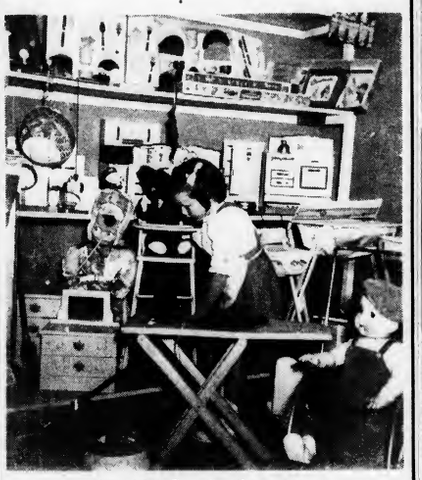

Silver Arrow — Vandy French and Tommy Black.

Den 2 exhibited their projects which were scout lanyards made by the boys. Den 3 gave an exhibition of sports with emphasis on basketball. Demonstrations were made of the various plays.

Den 1 presented a skit on International Friendship, with India as the subject. The boys were dressed in Indian Costumes and had prepared a large mural of a street scene in India as background.

Car And Garage Damaged

On Saturday, April 14, the Police received a report that windows had been broken and damage done to a car at the E. B. Badger estate, 12 Prospect street. Officers D. R. Reardon and William Haggerty responded and found broken windows in the garage, one at the rear of the building above a lock on a door. On entering the garage they found that a Cadillac sedan parked in the garage had been walked on and showed the marks of a small foot.

The caretaker said that the house had been vacant for a period of a few days and that small children were in the habit of playing on the grounds.

Softball League

A meeting will be held at the Legion Home on Monday evening, April 30, at eight o'clock to organize the Town Softball League for this coming season. All managers of teams that were members of the League last year are requested to be present at this meeting. New teams are welcome and representatives of any such new teams are cordially invited to attend this organizational meeting.

Pat and Ralphie Sexton are spending the school vacation with their grandmother in Holyoke, making the trip by train and by themselves.

Winchester Wins, 25-0

It may sound like a football score but Winchester High rolled over Browne and Nichols School by a score of 25 - 0 in baseball at Cambridge last Friday afternoon. It was the opening game of the season for both teams but the private school boys were no match for the Indians who batted out 16 hits, including four doubles, a triple, and a homerun.

"Jocko" Serieka and Jim Griffin paced the Winchester attack with three hits apiece, with Serieka collecting a homerun and Griffin a double. Preep Keyes, Charlie Murphy, and Ed Crowley had two safeties each as every member of the starting Winchester lineup hit safely. Browne and Nichols contributed to the runaway score by making seven errors while their trio of pitchers gave up no less than 13 bases on balls.

Charlie Murphy and Stowell Symmes divided the pitching chores for Winchester and both were very effective in their first outing of the season. Murphy pitched the first five innings and allowed but two hits as he struck out eight batters while issuing only one base on balls. Symmes contributed a performance equally as good over the last three innings as he allowed only two hits while striking out five batters and giving up a solitary base on balls.

Windows Smashed On Main Street

A call was received at the Police Station at 2:55 a. m. on Tuesday from Howard McAuley, 270 Main street, who reported a bottle thrown at the front door of his home.

Officers Elliott and Palmer responded. On arriving at the McAuley home they found that three holes had been made in the living room window.

Mr. McAuley said that cream jars had been flung at the window. One of them had not broken and was found 20 feet inside the room, having previously passed through a storm window, a window of double thick glass, and a venetian blind.

The officers investigated the yard and neighborhood but found neither pedestrians nor cars.

The Women's Republican Club Of Winchester

A host of true Americans, Independents, Democrats, and Republicans alike were most disappointed that they were unable to attend the annual luncheon and meeting of the Women's Republican Club of Winchester, on Monday, April 16th, at the Epiphany Parish Hall.

The drawing card on this occasion was the presence of the Honorable Joseph W. Martin, Jr., the minority leader of the House of Representatives as guest speaker.

The publicity given the unfortunate ouster of General Douglas MacArthur and the major role that "Joe" has played in bringing the facts before the American public cause an unprecedented demand for tickets so that a great many desirous of attending were regretfully turned away as the Hall could accommodate only approximately 230.

A reception to the Hon. Joseph W. Martin and his colleague, Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers was held in the church library, and preceded the luncheon.

The Parish Hall was beautifully decorated by Mr. Whittaker, of the Winchester Conservatories. The color scheme was red, white and blue. The head table where the honor guests sat was on the stage. A huge blanket of red roses, white gaudenias and blue iris formed the centerpiece. Large vases of similar flowers banked the sides of the stage. Dainty red, white and blue corsages were worn by the members of the board, while the male guests wore white boutoniers, with the exception of "Joe" who appropriately had bachelor buttons in his lapel. The place cards for the guests and board were mascot elephants, designed and painted by Mrs. Charles W. Blanchard, daughter of the President, Mrs. Barnes.

Senator Robert P. Campbell, of the 6th Middlesex District, Representative Harrison Chadwick, Mrs. Charles P. Howard, National Committeewoman of Massachusetts and Secretary of the Republican National Committee, Mrs. Raymond W. Wheeler, Vice Chairman of the Rep. State Committee and Mrs. Joseph L. Roberts, State Committee woman of the 6th Middlesex District all brought greetings to the Club and spoke a few words of appreciation. Former Senator Harris S. Richardson, who for 14 years carried the banner for the Republican party in the State house, also made a few pertinent remarks, reiterating his desire to help weld the Republican party together and work for a radical change in government in 1952. W. Allan Wilde, Jr., as President of the Winchester 21 Club, gave a vocal picture of the worthwhile work that the active and aggressive "21" Club is performing.

Time was taken out for the luncheon, following which Mr. Richard Preston, Chairman of the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee presented the Club with a Certificate of Appreciation from the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee.

Edith Nourse Rogers, Congresswoman from the 5th Congressional District, spoke in glowing terms of the work of "Joe" Martin as "the man of the hour" in these crucial times. Mrs. Rogers, for 26 years, has been blazing the trail for women in politics and is known throughout the country as the Veterans friend.

Following Mrs. Rogers was the Hon. Joseph W. Martin, whose views everyone in the hall was waiting to hear.

Not a person within the range of his voice but felt the innate sincerity of the man; the deep humility with which he accepted his great responsibility to his country, a responsibility that is predominantly American, which duty prompted him to make public the letter from Gen. MacArthur. The letter which caused all thinking Americans to rise up in indignation at the firing of a man who more than any other man is needed to quench the flowering trend toward communism in the world. The man best qualified through experience and ability to rid the world of the Russian menace.

He stated that the Republican party must band together to defeat a Police state and have a free state; that the Republican party is the only party that can stop communism because it is the only party that has no personal contacts with communists or friends among them. He cited the fact that with three Democratic Presidents we have had three wars and yet they have the audacity to call themselves the peace party.

An amusing incident happened, following his speech, when Mrs. Barnes the President presented him with an elephant designed tie to take the place of the tie he was wearing. The tie happened to have a motif of a devil with a pitchfork on it which "Jo" jokingly declared was to drive the Democratic devils out of Washington. Mrs. Barnes also presented him with a miniature gold elephant as a good luck charm and a symbol of a bright 1952.

Mrs. Kenneth B. Toye, Chairman of the manpower commission of Winchester read a letter from a 19 year old boy in Korea, who said that if America was good enough to live in it was good enough to fight for and that was why he had requested foreign service. The letter proved to be from Mrs. Barnes' son and caused an emotional reaction.

After an ovation to the honored guests who then left the annual meeting was called to order. Mrs. Wilbert E. Underwood, the secretary read a most comprehensive annual report and Mrs. Dunbar L. Shanklin, the treasurer read her annual report, both of which were accepted and placed on file.

The new slate presented by the nominating committee is as follows:

President — Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds.

First Vice-President — Mrs. Maxwell R. McCreery.

Second Vice-President — Mrs. Wilbert E. Underwood.

Rec. Sec. — Mrs. Don S. Greer.

Cor. Sec. — Mrs. Vera L. McKenzie.

Treasurer — Mrs. Alexander M. Clark.

Chairmen of Committees

Ways and Means — Co-Chairmen; Mrs. James M. Beale and Mrs. Charles A. Wenner.

Transportation — Mrs. Ralph H. Bonnell.

Membership — Mrs. Frank R. Creelman.

Hospitality — Mrs. William C. Cusack.

Social — Mrs. J. Howard Macaulay.

Registration — Mrs. Harold M. Twombly.

Education — Mrs. Marshall R. Pihl.

Finance for 3 years — Mrs. Theodore Elliott.

Auditor — Miss Helen Munroe.

Press — Mrs. R. Gilman Wallace.

Nominating — Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman, Chairman; Mrs. Colver P. Dyer, Mrs. Michael H. Hintlian, Mrs. Lawrence Mullin, and Mrs. Clarence H. Roberts.

Mrs. Barnes then turned over a new silver trimmed gavel to the new President Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds, who accepted with a few gracious words. The meeting was then adjourned.

Winchester District Nursing Association

Mrs. Ethel Savage, Winchester School Nurse, was the key speaker last Friday morning at the April meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association, held in the General Assembly Room of the Town Hall, with Mrs. Henry E. Moffette presiding. During the business meeting which preceded Mrs. Savage's talk, the board members enjoyed the always vital and interesting report from Mrs. Doris Wiklund, executive director, as she told of the last visits made by the three-nurse staff during March.

Mrs. Wiklund, who eschews routine figures in favor of the compelling story which lies behind them, gave the board a graphic word picture of a patient's case history, and told of the type of visits made to the patient. She also explained that the Association could use gifts of commode chairs or hospital beds, to be passed along to patients. Mrs. Wiklund, with Mrs. Guy Livingstone, will attend special regional conference by the NOPHN in Providence on April 19 and 20, and will report her findings to the Association at the May meeting.

Mrs. Theodore Browne, educational chairman, introduced Mrs. Savage, who has been a familiar figure to most residents and whose work is known in every home where there are school children. Yet in spite of everyone's familiarity with her work in general, most of her listeners only knew a fraction of her activities among the children, and it was with keen pleasure last Friday that the board members heard her straight-forward yet vivid explanation of her "duties."

Robert S. Curry, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Curry, of 60 Lloyd street, a sophomore at Holy Cross College, has been appointed news editor of the college newspaper, the Tomahawk. He graduated from Boston College high school in 1949. At Holy Cross he is enrolled in the bachelor of arts course and is an honor student. He is also publicity and continuity director of WCHC, the campus radio station.

Girl Scout News

Twenty-four Winchester Girl Scouts left for New York Monday, April 16 to study the United Nations Educational Program during their school vacation.

During their four days in New York the girls will listen to debates in the United Nations chambers, tour the city, and the Museums of Natural History and Fine Arts, in addition to trips to the Statue of Liberty and harbor islands.

In charge of the group are Scouting Executive Mrs. Barbara Metcalf, Mrs. Margaret Wenfer, Mrs. Mrs. Vivian White, Mrs. Walter Roberts and Mrs. Marion Robertson.

Miss Blanche McGowan will be at the cabin April 26 at 3 p. m. to conduct a program of songs and dances for the Jr. High Girl Scouts. Important all leaders attend.

Junior High Art Shows

The Junior High art students under Miss Edna Hall have let their imaginations take a walk in the woods. The result is that colorful groups of raccoons, rabbits, squirrels, bats, and snakes are hopping and slithering over posters for the Living Wonders Show now on display in various store windows. Look and see if you can find these masterpieces done by: Virginia Wadsworth, C. Carlson, Mott Ward, R. Flaherty, Nancy Jane Corey, J. Roberts, Anne Marks, Sharon Hartridge, Joan McElroy, L. Luongo, Seth Weston, Barbara Bolster, Adele Mitchell, and Sue Clark. A group of High School art students under Miss Goodrich also generously gave posters for display to the Elementary Schools.

The Junior High Association is proud that these students have helped make this project a Family Party at the High School Auditorium Wednesday, April 25th for the Winchester Scholarship Foundation.

Help Us Fight Cancer

Cancer still looms as the most important among modern ills, continuing to take more than 200,000 lives of our people every year. The prosperity and welfare of everyone depends inevitably on personal health. Funds available for research last year were only half of what could have been spent profitably in the great search for the answer to cancer. Many of the qualified young scientists who applied for fellowships were turned down because funds were lacking.

Readers need all the help that you can give them through the 1951 Cancer Crusade. Your dollars help guard your family. Strike back. Give to conquer cancer.

It is the sincere hope of the Winchester Committee that there will be town wide participation in this appeal, no gift is too small to help in saving lives. Make checks payable to: Davenport F. Bates, Treas., Winchester Trust Co., Winchester.

Drove Up On Piazza

Sunday morning shortly after midnight two boys taking turns in driving a car crashed into a piazza of a home at the corner of Canal street and Sylvester avenue, damaging the piazza as well as the car.

Neither boy had a license to operate and the car was unregistered. The boys were uninjured in the accident.

Need For Immediate Action A Myth

Editor of the Star:

Thoughtful residents of Winchester have considered the local school building business and are willing to take time to think over the situation.

To quote from the Winchester Star, February 2, 1951, a letter signed by Richard M Rush reads in part, "The need for immediate action in 1951 is a myth. It may have flooded me once but it is not rooted in the facts — We do not have to begin actual building until June, 1954. Certainly 1951 is no time to embark on such an expenditure."

Approximately one and half months and two town meetings later the Star printed another letter from Captain Rush. From the April 13th issue; "Almost a whole month has now elapsed since Town Meeting and the new Building Committee has not yet, to my knowledge, been appointed. From confident anticipation and genial prediction of success the townspeople have been allowed to drift down through puzzled bewilderment to the sour suspicion that their confidence has been misplaced. The bloom, alas, has gone from the rose?"

It is unfortunate the men and women of the Referendum Committee have had to bear the brunt of criticism. I believe in all sincerity that group with the rest of us has confidence in the Moderator and the school-building committee-to-be. Surely they also have an amicable interest in the solution to our upper school building needs.

Let us all support the committee, when named, and give it our support with sincerity, honesty, understanding and be willing to lend a helping hand when asked.

Stop Breaking Lanterns

Editor of The Star:

I have worked with the town on some of their highway, sewer and construction work for 15 years. The wanton and needless destruction of town property I have observed in the way of smashed lanterns and barricade horses and petty pilfering of equipment left on these jobs is disgusting. This occurs to a more or less degree in all sections of the town.

The act I observed on coming to work on the morning of April 16th on Nathaniel road prompted me to write this letter.

A large number of the lanterns placed at obstructions to warn the traveling public were either moved or tipped over and in one instance there were six or eight lanterns all thrown in a heap in the middle of the road and the globes broken. In a space of about a hundred feet 4 or 5 more were tipped over and the globes broken.

The education and headwork required by the adults who allow the children or adults to commit these acts is amazing. The mental attitude of these persons with respect public property with the idea it doesn't cost them anything is appalling.

It seems to me that I don't think the town will go broke over the money spent to replace or repair this needless damage, but it surely could be put to a better use.

Hoping that our citizens will achieve a better respect for the care of public or any property.

Sincerely yours,
Ronald G. Richburg

Library Activities

Story Hour

Saturday morning at 10:15 Miss Elizabeth Russell, Children's Librarian, will hold Story Hour. As usual, the candle ceremony will take place promptly at 10:15. The Story Hour will continue until about 11 o'clock. Tickets for the Story Hours are not necessary. Boys and girls through the fifth grade will enjoy the story hours next.

The Mikado to be Played at the Library

On Wednesday afternoon, April 25, at 3 p. m. and again Wednesday evening at 7:30 p. m. Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Mikado", recorded by the D'Oyly Carte Opera Company, will be presented in the Jacob Memorial Room. Librettos will be available for all those who wish to follow the music as they listen. This is the last in this, the first series of recorded music programs in the Jacob Room. A new music series will begin in the Fall. Watch for announcements or ask to have your name placed on the mailing list to receive monthly programs.

The Charles River Library Club

The Spring meeting of The Charles River Library Club was held in the Winchester Public Library recently. This is a professional group of librarians and trustees that meet three times each year for the discussion of library problems and to hear speakers on pertinent subjects.

Mr. Neil H. Borden, Chairman of the Board of Library Trustees, welcomed The Charles River Library Club to Winchester and to the Public Library. Mr. Philip Dolan, Librarian of the Cambridge Public Library, presided and presented the following program:

Discussion of Some Library Problems

Miss Martha Redfield of the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy whose topic was "Trained Leadership in International Affairs."

Mrs. Mary Moody Pickup, mother of Ralph Moody, author of "Little Britches," whose topic was "As the Twig is Bent."

The meeting was followed by an excellent luncheon served by the ladies of the Philathea group of the Baptist Church.

Plans are going forward for the installation of a book charging machine in the Boys' and Girls' Library. Registration of boys and girls is now in process and it is hoped that all boys and girls will present themselves soon to register under this new system.

Library Hours

Adult Library 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. (Saturdays 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.)

Guild Of The Infant Saviour

Just another reminder of our annual Communion Breakfast and Memorial Mass to be held on Sunday, April 29th. The Memorial Mass, in memory of all of our deceased members, will be at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's Church with the breakfast immediately following at the Town Line in Woburn.

The committee in charge includes Mrs. Eugene B. O'Keefe and Mrs. Theodore Dissel, Co-chairmen, Mrs. Katherine Doyle, Mrs. John J. Gorman, Mrs. Frederick L. Patton, Mrs. Hugh F. McPartland, Mrs. Vincent L. Scanlon, Mrs. J. William Plunkett, Mrs. J. Henry Rooney, Mrs. Leo T. Manoli, Mrs. James C. Marchant and Mrs. Thomas F. Touhey.

Our guest speaker for the Communion Breakfast will be the Reverend Theodore Christian Petersen, C. S. P. Father Petersen, born in India of German Lutheran missionary parents, is a noted scholar and convert to Catholicism. He is a leading authority in the field of scriptures and related subjects and a longtime member of the faculty of the Catholic University in Washington, D. C. He will speak to us on the subject of the Reunion of Christendom.

Have you made your reservations as yet? If not, you may make them by calling any of the above committee members or Mrs. Eugene B. O'Keefe at Winchester 6-2892 and Mrs. Theodore Dissel at Winchester 6-1570.

Now don't forget our important annual meeting to be held on Tuesday, April 24th at 2 p. m. at Masonic Hall. We'll be expecting you.

Thank You

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to both the Fire Department and Police Department on their efficient work in fighting such a difficult fire so expertly.

We also want to thank all those who helped us in any way during the fire.

Water Commissioner Edmund C. Sanderson, who is at the New England Sanitarium, is reported as having recovered sufficiently to be allowed to sit up.

The Fortnightly

The annual meeting of The Fortnightly held on April 9 closed the 50th Session of the Club's Activities. A special luncheon served in Masonic Hall was attended by more than one hundred members with the President, Mrs. Kenneth Boone presiding. With the gay colors of bright spring hats in competition with the beautiful table bouquets and the lively chatter of an animated group, the scene took on a festive air.

Between luncheon courses, Officers and Chairmen, seated at the head table, were presented by the President. Special greetings were extended to all past presidents with special recognition made to Mrs. Nathaniel Nichols now a 50 year member, who served the Club as president from 1911 to 1913.

The Fortnightly's guest of honor, Mrs. Robert E. Fowle, third vice-president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs spoke briefly on the purpose and aims of the Federation's State and National Conventions to be held this year.

The business meeting convened at 2:00 p. m., with the election of officers as highlight on the business agenda.

The musical program which closed the session was provided by Mrs. Natalie Weidner, pianist and Miss Eleanor Davis, vocalist, both artists of real merit. Miss Davis with a rich mezzo-soprano voice of wide range and dramatic ability presented a program of concert music including the following numbers: Aria from "La Boheme", "Alleluia" Mozart; Folk Songs — John J. Niles, "Only A Rose" — Rudolph, and many other well known arias from operettas. The singer, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Nathalie Weidner, held the rapt attention of her audience with a truly remarkable performance, revealing an amazing range of voice and clarity of tone with dramatic interpretive ability.

Mrs. Weidner, Eastern Regional Vice-President of Federated Women's Clubs is well known among club members as a talented pianist and accompanist. Her solo numbers, "Chromatic Waltz" by Goddard and an amusing light number called "Butterflies" was also greatly enjoyed by the group.

State Federation

The annual meeting of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at the New Ocean House at Swampscott, May 23 — 26. Opening session Wednesday noon, May 23. Mesdames Kenneth Hiscox, Sidney Burr and William Priest will serve the Federation as Fortnightly delegates.

Unitarian News

The evening group of the daytime Alliance will meet for the second time at the home of Mrs. Hoyt C. Hottel, at 27 Cambridge street, on April 26th. Newly-formed, the group has as its first project the collection and repairing of toys, and the dressing of dolls to be used in a toy lending plan at Hale House, in Boston. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Lynwood Bryant and Mrs. Robert Williams.

Tickets are going fast for the "Return Engagement" of the Unitarian Players on Saturday evening May 5th. There are a few available at the Church office. The stage crew under the direction of George Hayden is working overtime on the setting which is the terrace of a summer home.

At a recent meeting of the Men's Club a committee was appointed to work with the officers in preparing a new program and purpose for the Club. Albert M. Horle, Don R. Kroell, Allan Wilde and William W. Davies, III, are on the planning committee. John Chandler Hill is president.

Grace Norian, accomplished pianist, played the Organ Prelude in the morning service last Sunday. Miss Norian is the assistant to Mary Rauton Witham, Choir director.

Adele Hoes Lee comes to the Unitarian Church on Tuesday afternoon of April 24th at three o'clock. Miss Lee, noted for her unusual presentations of current plays is to be sponsored by The Alliance. The public is invited.

Baptist Youth Fellowship

The Baptist Youth Fellowship is continuing their series of evening programs on Boy-Girl Relations. Following last week's film on "Boy Meets Girl," the film "Boy Dates Girl" will be shown at the Fellowship meeting Sunday evening, April 22nd, at 6:30 o'clock. The worship service will be in charge of Cecil Pride and Philip Dresser. Refreshments will be in charge of Patricia Newhall and James MacLeod.

Two Winchester boys, Scott Doub and Tom Bayne, were awarded most valuable player trophies at Tufts College this week. Doub received the hockey award and Bane the indoor track award.

Spring Fashion Show And Tea

On Friday, April 13 at 2:30 o'clock, a Fashion Show and Tea were given by the Winchester Circle and the Florence Crittenton League of Compassion. Mrs. John J. Lynch, president welcomed the guests.

The lovely gowns shown were from the shop of Rita Thornton, 37 Newbury street, Boston. Miss Thornton gave most generously of herself and her time in providing and choosing the gowns to be worn and in speaking of each as it appeared on the model. The Circle is deeply indebted to her. The models were Winchester residents which made the show even more interesting.

The Town Hall was decorated with smilax and forsythia. The models entered through a gold picture frame which was banked on either side with palms, ferns and forsythia. This was all accomplished with the cooperation and expert assistance of Mr. Lester G. Whittaker proprietor of the Winchester Conservatories. Mrs. John Ghirardini played selections on the piano while the models walked up and down the aisles so as to afford a better look at the gowns.

Other interests of the day were a sale of plants and cut flowers, and garden-ins and tiny orchids. Chances were sold on an old fashioned bouquet with ten dollars in bills tied to it.

Immediately following the Fashion Show a beautiful and delicious tea was served in the rear of the Town Hall.

Mrs. Don Greer and Mrs. Maxwell McCreery were co-chairmen of the affair which was a huge success from every angle. Their diligent and enthusiastic committee included: Mrs. John J. Lynch, Mrs. Edward Kuypers, Mrs. George E. Pierce, Mrs. Frank Creelman, Mrs. Frederick Aseltine, Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Mrs. Henry Dellicker, Mrs. Woodford Wilcox, and Mrs. John Ghirardini.

D. A. R.

The annual meeting of the Committee of Safety Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry S. Parsons, 73 Bacon street on Monday afternoon, April 23 at 2:30 p. m. After an important business meeting which includes the election of delegates to the fall state meeting October 4 and 5, the guest speaker, Eleanor March Moody will present "Women and the Law."

Mrs. Moody is an attorney of note and a counsellor-at-law, specializing in the Fiduciary Field. She is a member of the Massachusetts Bar, the Federal Bar for the District of Massachusets, the U. S. Court of Appeals and the Bar of the U. S. Supreme Court, Washington, D. C. She is a member of the American Bar Association and past president of the National Association of Women Lawyers, also a member of a committee of state legislation affecting Truants and Estates, and another on marriage and divorce laws and Family Courts. Her check list for Guardians and Litem is used by all Boston Banks and law firms. A book on Administration of Estates is in process.

Hooked Rug Exhibit

The third annual Hooked Rug Exhibit, held at the First Baptist Church Monday, April 16th, was a decided success. The rugs displayed were exceptionally fine and reflected the unusual talent of our townspeople and friends of neighboring towns. The Committee Chairmen, Mrs. Walter L. Bailey and Mrs. Mark Coonerty, wish to express their appreciation of the generosity of all these people in loaning their rugs for the enjoyment of the public.

Winchester Hospital News

The last in the series of "Know Your Hospital" meetings was held on Tuesday evening, April 17th, at the Nurses' Home of the Winchester Hospital. A very interested group of the Friends of Winchester Hospital attended to hear a discussion of two very important departments of the Hospital. Miss Marguerite Poore, chief dietitian, discussed the Dietary Department and its problems. Miss Laura Rogers, Superintendent of Nurses, talked on nursing.

It was very enlightening to learn of the problems involved in preparing, and delivering to the bedside of the patient, food which is not only wholesome, but appealing to pallid appetites. The Winchester Hospital has always had the reputation of serving excellent meals. Miss Poore explained her staff organization which makes this possible, even today, in spite of very difficult and costly market conditions. It was interesting to note that approximately 20% of the patients' meals are special therapeutic diets, which must be tailored to each patient's diagnosis.

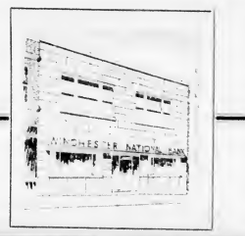

The Nursing Department, Miss Rogers explained, is the largest department in the Hospital. It accounts for about one-third of the total Hospital budget. The function of the nurse is indispensable to the care of the patient. The nurse is, in many ways, the doctor's assistant — carrying out his orders for the care and treatment of the patient. Their responsibility is great, as the health and safety of the patient depends on her strict compliance with the orders and intent of the physician. She also went on to tell how the nurse must be able to intelligently observe and evaluate the patient's reactions and how she is concerned with many other phases of the care of the patient — such as feeding, maintenance of supplies and equipment and keeping of records, etc. It was enlightening to learn just how vital the nurse is in the care of the sick.

After the talks Mrs. Emily Marks, Chairman of the meeting, conducted a very interesting question and answer period.

The Annual Corporation meeting of the Winchester Hospital will be held on Tuesday evening, April 24th, at 8:00 p. m. in the Nurses' Home. The public is invited and urged to attend to learn of the progress that has been made in the Hospital in the past year.

Among those receiving the Phi Beta Kappa key at Boston University Wednesday was Robert Warren Lamson of 23 Kenwin road.

Miss Beiswenger, Mr. Tourtellot Wed

At an evening double ring ceremony performed on Saturday, April 21 by Dr. Charles A. Ross in the First Presbyterian Church of Elizabeth, N. J., Miss Gertrude Helen Elizabeth Beiswenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Adam Beiswenger of Elizabeth, N. J., became the bride of Mr. Carl Thurston Tourtellot, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thurston Tourtellot, of 9 Penn road.

Miss Beiswenger, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in Chantilly lace fashioned with a tiered skirt, fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and court train. Her veil of Chantilly lace was held in place by lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Edward V. Cunnion of Florida, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, Miss Cora M. Davis of Scottdale, Penn.; Miss Antoinette Carpenter of Geneva, Ill.; Mrs. Charles E. Currier of Holden, Mass., sister of the groom; Miss Jane P. Steele of Jenkintown, Penn.; were gowned alike in hyacinth blue bouffant gowns, with fitted bodices and capes, full nylon skirts over taffeta. They wore garlands of spring flowers in their hair and carried varicolored spring flowers.

The mother of the bride was gowned in blue crepe and lace with a corsage of orchids.

The usher corps was comprised of Roderick N. Shepherd of Cambridge, Mass., best man; Mr. Irving W. Tourtellot, Mr. Richard C. Tourtellot, and Mrs. Raymond B. Tourtellot, all brothers of the groom, of Winchester; Mr. Charles E. Currier of Holden, Mass.; Mr. Earl H. Gallup, Jr. of Albany, N. Y.; and Mr. David A. Ritchie of Annisquam, Mass.

A reception was held after the ceremony at Elizabeth Carteret Hotel, Elizabeth, N. J.

After a wedding journey to Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Tourtellot will reside at 4531 Forbes street, Pittsburgh, Penn.

The bride is an alumna of Prospect Hill School and Pennsylvania College for Women, and is now with the University of Pittsburgh.

The groom, an alumnus of Kimball Union Academy and Dartmouth College and a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity, served with the Army Air Force during World War II. At present, he is with the Foreign Marketing Department of Gulf Oil Corp., of Pittsburgh, Penn.

McMasters — Knoettner

There is local interest in the wedding to take place tonight, Friday, April 20 in Saint Paul's Church, Dedham, when Miss G. Violet McMasters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. McMasters of 292 High street, Westwood will marry Mr. Robert P. Knoettner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Knoettner of 5 Sachem road. The ceremony will be performed at 7 p.m. by the Rev. Rudolph Roell of the Episcopal Church.

Miss McMasters gowned in an ivory satin dress with a sweetheart neckline, wearing a long tulle veil with a crown headpiece and carrying a bouquet of white calla lilies will be given in marriage by her father.

For her honor attendants she will have her sisters, Mrs. William P. McLaren and Mrs. Hazel C. Taylor, both of Westwood. Mrs. McLaren will wear a silk taffeta gown of tuscel color, lace gloves of pale green and carry a bouquet of spring flowers with a matching headpiece of spring flowers. Mrs. Taylor will be gowned in silk taffeta of a pastoral green wearing yellow gloves, carrying a bouquet of spring flowers and a matching headpiece of spring flowers.

Mr. Fulton M. J. Brown of this town has been chosen as the best man. The ushers will be Mr. Robert Thornton of Natick, and Mr. William P. McLaren of Westwood.

A reception will follow immediately after the ceremony in Saint Paul's Parish House, Dedham.

The bride-to-be graduated from Fisher Business College and is now employed in Boston as Secretary at Cryan and Way Attys.

Mr. Knoettner graduated from Franklin Technical Institute and is now Machine Designer.

After a wedding trip to New York they will make their home at 8 Garden Terrace, Woburn.

Maytime Musicale

Mary Ranton Witham, director of Music at the Winchester Unitarian Church, today announced that the Winchester Unitarian Choir will present a Maytime Musicale, its fourth annual evening of familiar Music on Thursday evening, May 24th at 8:30 p. m. in the Music Hall, for the benefit of the Church Budget.

Previous Musicales have been highly successful and this outstanding choir will display great versatility in this program of very light entertainment.

As in the past, many novelties are being planned and original arrangements of the Music from "Call Me Madam" as well as numbers from other current musical comedies will be featured.

Troop 6 News

On April 16th, Troop 6 had a very well attended parents night. One Eagle and two Star awards were made. Mr. P. Joseph Corrigan, President of Felis and Council presented Steve Dunn with his Eagle's badge. Craig Muncaster and Bob Becker received their Star badges from Mr. James Muncaster, Scout-Commissioner. After the awards the troop put on a demonstration of knot tieing and fire by flint and steel.

Mr. Olcott Hooper, troop scoutmaster, announced plans for an overnight camping trip to Breakhart forest next Saturday, the 21st of April.

Refreshments were served.

Methodist Youth Fellowship Meet

This Sunday evening at 6:30, Rev. Claude Vorhees, pastor of the East Saugus Methodist Church, will be the speaker at the Methodist Youth Fellowship. Mr. Vorhees was formerly a chaplain in the U. S. Army. The members of the Saugus Youth Fellowship will be guests.

Several of the young people represented the group at the Lynn District Conference at Somerville last week and a number of the group are already making plans for the Summer Institute at Rolling Ridge.

Mrs. Doyle Honored

On Thursday evening of last week, the 12th, telephone workers, past and present, turned out en masse to pay tribute to one of their most popular operators, Mrs. Katherine E. (McCue) Doyle of 83 Sheridan Circle.

It was said by many of those in attendance at the reception that seldom has there been such a manifestation of lasting friendship.

Operators who had served at the Winchester Exchange thirty years ago and over, who have married and now make their homes in near and far places, were all there — to pay tribute to Kay.

The dinner party was staged in the beautifully decorated dining hall of the Reservoir Club in Cambridge and 175 guests enjoyed its full-course goodness.

Officials high in the service of the local telephone district were seated at the head table. These included chief operator Miss May Vaugh, whose brief but sincere remarks took note of Mrs. Doyle's faithful service and also her activity in the forefront of every local drive, civic and charitable.

Mr. Paul K. Palmer presented to the guest of honor the exquisite diamond service pin which denotes 35 years of service.

He was followed by Mr. Stanley Vose Telephone District Superintendent, who presented to Mrs. Doyle a beautifully constructed fan, made entirely of paper money.

Mr. Richard Brooks, District Manager, brought the felicitations of the local district, following which songs were contributed by Miss Dorothy Hickey, Miss Mary Terese Rogers and Mrs. Mary Jane McLaughlin.

Then Mrs. McLaughlin led the group in singing the Anniversary Waltz and other favorite selections.

The social hour which followed saw the happy mingling of old and sincere friends, and in this long to be remembered reunion the vivacious guest of honor was the gracious and popular center of attraction.

Credit for the very successful arrangements are due the committee: Miss Angela Flavin, Mrs. Mary Daily and Mrs. Claudia Donohue.

Doak — Erb

Miss Jacqueline Yvonne Doak, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Doak of East street, Carlisle, was married to Mr. Ronald Sidney Erb son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Erb of 32 Grayson road on Sunday, April 8th at the Carlisle Congregational Church. The Rev. Charles Masson of the First Baptist Church in Arlington performed the ceremony at 2:30 p. m. Miss Hazel C. Dutton was the soloist.

Miss Doak was gowned in a white slipper satin dress with a sweetheart neckline with fitted bodice and a long train; her veil was of illusion and lace, full length. She was given in marriage by her uncle Mr. Cecil Latter.

The maid of honor, Miss Muriel Dresher of Carlisle, wore a pale green net dress with fitted bodice and full skirt and wore lace mitts. Her headdress was a simple hat of net.

Miss Lois Erb, of Winchester, sister of the groom and Miss Shirley Doak, sister of the bride, of Carlisle, acted as bridesmaids. Their gowns were old rose satin with old fashioned ruffles in back, wearing on their heads veils and roses.

Mr. Ronald Purcell of Winchester was the best man for the groom. The ushers were Charles Mahoney of Winchester and George Doak of Carlisle, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the church and in the receiving line with the bridal couple was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Latter and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Erb, parents of the groom.

The couple's wedding trip took them to Washington and Virginia.

Mrs. Erb graduated from Winchester High and attended New England Air Craft and Roberts Technical School. He is in United States Air Force Reserve and is to report for active duty May 1st. The couple will make their home in Concord, Mass.

Save The Children Federation Drive

Save The Children Federation is conducting a State wide Spring Drive for clothing and funds, to meet the present extraordinary needs of the world's children. The local drive for clothing and funds will be held this coming week - April 23 - 28. Through the courtesy of Mr. James Cullen, Middlesex County Commissioner, the store at 16 Winchester Place, opposite the Police Station, is to be used as clothing collection depot. Clothing may be left in the afternoons from 2 - 6 o'clock. Donations of money may be sent to the Winchester Trust Co., in care of Mr. Vincent C. Ambrose. Any amount, large or small, will be most welcome!

At this particular time the need for clothing in Korea is extremely urgent. The greater part of the clothing collected throughout the State in this Spring Drive will be shipped to Korea under direction of Army authorities, who will see to its distribution upon arrival. Children of Greece also will benefit, as will those in other devastated areas.

Bring your children's outgrown clothes or that no-longer stylish dress or coat you no longer want! Baby clothes are greatly needed, too!

Will Visit Marycliff Academy

Reverend Mother Sauques, Superior General of the Religious of Christian Education, accompanied by Reverend Mother Cornille, one of her counsellors, will arrive in New York on Monday, April 23, where she will be met by the superiors of two of the Boston Houses.

During her stay in Boston, Reverend Mother Sauques will visit the Houses of the Congregation in the Archdiocese. These will include Marycliff Academy, Winchester; Bethany Academy, Milton; Saint Peter's School, Waltham; and Saint James' School, Arlington.

Miss Briggs — Mr. Colbath Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Briggs of Allen road announce the engagement of their daughter, Janet, to Mr. Robert G. Colbath, son of Mrs. Henry Colbath of Tewksbury.

Miss Briggs was graduated from the Winchester High School in 1949 and is attending the Fay Secretarial School in Boston.

Mr. Colbath served with the U. S. Army in Japan and is now attending Northeastern University.

Nalchajian — Carlson

At a candlelight service on Saturday, April 14 at 4:00 p.m. in the Second Congregational Church of Winchester, Miss Ellen Mathilda Carlson, daughter of Mrs. Alfred N. Carlson of 61 Brookside avenue, became the bride of Mr. Donald Warren Nalchajian, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Nalchajian of 11 Fremont avenue, Chelsea.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Cook, Rector of the Second Congregational Church, assisted by the Rev. Edward S. Hickox of the 4th Congregational Church of Hartford, Conn.

Music for the wedding was "O Perfect Love", "Because", and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Harry J. Carlson, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with pointed collar and court train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a seed pearl satin headpiece. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Stuart A. Bemis of Woburn, sister of the groom, was gowned in pale blue nylon net with Chantilly lace bodice, carrying an old fashioned bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Harry Carlson, sister-in-law of the bride, of Arlington; and Mrs. John Carlson of Norwood, Mass., the bridesmaids, wore gowns identical to that of the matron of honor.

The ushers were Mr. John Dikran Nalchajian, brother of the groom, best man; Dr. Willard Nalchajian of Chelsea, cousin of the groom; Mr. Carl Carlson, brother of the bride, Mr. Roland Carlson, cousin of the bride, both of Winchester; and Mr. John Carlson of Norwood.

The mother of the bride was gowned in dusty rose and the mother of the groom was gowned in apple green lace. Both wore white orchid corsages.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Music Hall on Church street, Winchester. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by the mother of the bride, and the mother and father of the groom.

Mrs. Nalchajian is a graduate of Winchester High School, and attended the New England School of Art. She is in the employ of the National Shawmut Bank of Boston.

Mr. Nalchajian was graduated from Holderness School, N. H., Tufts College, Franklin Technical Institute and Northeastern University. He is a member of the Robert Lash Lodge of Masons of Chelsea and is employed as a draftsman by the Waghorne & Brown Co., of Boston.

After a wedding trip to New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Nalchajian will reside at 61 Brookside avenue.

Badminton News

Next Tuesday, the 24th, will be the last meeting of the season and for a final get-together Parker Symmes ran a draw tournament this week. Ten couples participated and surprisingly the whole thing was played off in one evening; we fully expected it to carry on to our last evening of play next week. Ed Williams and Pat Burns won the final round beating Parker Symmes and Jeanne Holden by a narrow margin.

Attendance this year has been "spotty" to say the least. We began, as always with great enthusiasm, but about Christmas time our members seemed to find other interests, until, in early spring we were forced to cry for players to come down and join us in order to keep the club going until April. Altogether over ninety Winchesterites have played at our club this season and it seems too bad we have to stop playing now as local interest in the game is increasing once more — but remember that the 1951 - 52 season will begin on Tuesday, October 2nd and that there will be a welcome for all on that date.

Edith Marshall Clarke To Entertain At Women's Association Annual Meeting

The Women's Association of the First Congregational Church will hold its Annual Meeting in the Social Hall on Tuesday, April 24th, at 2:00 p. m. The president of the Association, Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson, will preside. Short reports will be presented by the officers and committee chairmen, and an election of officers will be held. The worship service will be led by Mrs. Howard J. Chidley. Miss Edith Marshall Clarke, novelty instrumentalist, will entertain using English Hand Bells, Xylophone and French Lyre.

Miss Clarke has been entertaining the public since early childhood. At the age of five she was heard at the Boston theater and since then has played in every state in the union. Her wide experience together with a dramatic sense far above the average gives her a rare artistry in presenting her recital. She will present a program, unique and refreshingly different, featuring her colorful interpretation of church music, operatic and concert selections.

The Mission Union Guild will be the hostess at the Tea which follows the program. The pourers will be Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson and Mrs. Frederick B. Withington. Guests are invited.

Staff And Key Concert

"A Concert of Operetta Favorites" will be presented on Wednesday evening, May 2, 8:30 o'clock, by the Winchester Staff and Key Society in the High School Auditorium. Outstanding musical comedy tunes, old and new, from Victor Herbert to Rodgers and Hammerstein, plus the best-loved numbers from Gilbert and Sullivan operettas, will make the evening a pleasant and varied one for music-lovers of all ages.

L. Hassler Einzig will be the director, with Lucy Wilcox Cushman as the accompanist. Soloists on the program will include Cushla de Lange, Gordon Bennett, F. Milne Blanchard, Joseph S. Hancott, Genevieve Crovo, Lewis Parks, Dorothy M. Hickey, Helen Goodwin, and Roger John Krohn. Many of their songs will make feet tap, and hearts young again!

Mrs. Hall Gamage is chairman of program, with Mrs. George E. Connor in charge of publicity. Ticket chairmen are Mrs. Gordon C. Bennett, and Marjorie McGaw. There are no reserved seats, and the single admission price is for floor and balcony. The concert is being presented this spring in order that this young musical organization may build up a treasury large enough to afford the high royalties on many musical shows demanded by Winchester Audiences.

Heard in the program will be the Cachucha from the "Gondoliers"; "With a Song in My Heart", selections from "Porgy and Bess", music from "Annie Get Your Gun" and "Naughty Marietta".

Hooked Rug Exhibition

The pupils of Mrs John Winthrop Johnson of Wildwood street are to hold an exhibition of hooked rugs at the home of Mrs. G. Russell Mann, 17 Fenwick road, on April 26th, 27th, and 28th, from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. Pupils from Winchester, Chestnut Hill, Oak Hill, Arlington, Dedham and Melrose will exhibit over 50 rugs, including one room size rug.

Anyone who is interested will be welcome.

The exhibition will be closed if it is raining.

25c donation for the benefit of the Winchester Branch of the M. S. P. C. A. which is maintaining a cage at the Angell Memorial Hospital in Boston, in memory of their first president, Mrs. Richard Taylor.

April 19th Holiday Notice

Schools are closed for Spring Vacation. The B. A. A. marathon and Patriots Day will bring out a million spectators — thousands of bike riders and highways jammed with traffic. Registrar King and the Police ask your cooperation — watch out for children and bike riders — drive slowly — enjoy the holiday and week-end.

As in 1775 "Vigilance is the Order of the Day".

Parkhurst Assembly

The World of Sports was the title of an assembly program given on Friday, April 13, at the Parkhurst School. The program was written and presented by the fifth grade. The class found it very interesting to learn the history of their favorite sports. Each person made a report on a sport he enjoyed. Several scenes were dramatized and sports songs were sung.

Mary Welden and Douglas Kirkwood helped a great deal in planning the unit, but were both out of town the day the program was presented.

Silver Anniversary

At the close of the final performance of "Goodbye, My Fancy" on Saturday night, last, few of the departing audience realized that an event unique in the annals of the Parish Players, and a real anti-climax to the play itself, was to transpire almost immediately in Social Hall. This was the presentation of "Oscars" (on a scale not approached by Hollywood!) to all members, present or absent, from scene painter and stage carpenter to actor and director, whose faithful service extends d to five or more productions.

The occasion was enlivened by the presence of many old-time members whose faces had been absent from their midst for many years. The Players' own "Oscar" — Oscar Crowers, beloved member of former years, was on hand, looking strangely like his former self, "Sam" Graves, with his genial smile, ushered as of old!

Emphasizing the importance of the Players to both church and community, J. Waldo Bond read a list of their achievements, both in the way of productions and of contributions to worthy causes. In the twenty-five years of their existence, they have produced 67 plays, including the Christmas pageant, with a total of 145 performances. During the war, thirty-six performances of three-act plays were given in Army, Navy, and Marine hospitals, and over a hundred Ward Shows.

The benevolences follow:

St. John's Church, Woburn	$25.00
Boy Scouts	50.00
Russian War Relief	75.00
Chinese War Relief	100.00
Winchester Hospital	200.00
Chaplain Lindsay	298.00
Red Cross	300.00
Miscellaneous	345.00
Needy people — during depression	400.00
Scholarship Foundation	410.00
Service Men's Committee and Stained Glass Window	637.00
British War Relief	947.00
First Congregational Church	3,282.00
Total	$7,069.00

Benefit performances were given to the number of eleven, adding to these figures at least another $1925, making the grand total for the twenty-six years, $9,940.00.

The awarding of Oscars proved to be the occasion for much incidental merriment as those called advanced to the platform for their statuettes. Presentations were made by George Gowdy to the following group of back-stage workers, all veterans of five or more productions: — Anna French, Frances Chidley, Dorothy Wills, Dick Ashendy, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Plitt, Peg Cooper, Isabelle Rogde, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fulton, William Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William Morse, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin McDermott, Ken Spencer, Ray Carter, Harriet Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Seed, Dick Gould, and Mr. and Mrs. George Gowdy.

Mr. Gowdy received, in behalf of the Players, a very beautiful coffee urn, the gift of "the Founders".

In the acting division, F. Milne Blanchard honored the following, veterans of five or more productions, but less than ten: Ivar Hakanson, Irving Plitt, Katrina Morse, Nathan Thumim, David Abbott, Nina Richardson, Boardman O'Connor, Nancy Worthen, Herbert Wadsworth, Mulford Olivier, Harlow Russell, Dana Kelly, Fanny Olivier, Priscilla Morrill, Edmund Merriam, Edith Chamberlin, George Hebb, Mary Snell, William Higgins, Ruth Smith, Joan Latta, Persilla Durbin, Prescott Taylor, Margaret Randall, and T. Parker Clarke.

And then, to cap the climax, Frances Chidley herself gracefully tendered Oscars to a very special — but still numerous — group who had participated in ten or more productions: — John Hall, John Kishler, Tommy Blake, George Connor, Hubert Bernard, Hanlan Grant, Reveley H. B. Smith, Janet Dalrymple, Bob Blake, Waldo Bond, Bertha Blanchard, Lenore Gammage, Ellouise Graves, Samuel Keeley, Dorothy Wills, Eugene Pollard, Oscar Crowers, F. Milne Blanchard.

Each gift was accompanied by particularly apt and well worded comment.

The outstanding champion in this group was F. Milne Blanchard with a total of thirty-seven roles, most of them leading parts. If Jim Riley is "Old Man Tennis" to this town of Winchester, then "Doc" Blanchard is "Old Man Drama," and his likeness (in the role of Grandpa in "You Can't Take It With You," from which he can never escape) might well serve as the Players' trademark, in much the same manner as Eustace Tilley, who annually makes his appearance on the cover of the "New Yorker," has come to symbolize that magazine; displacing the adventurous gentleman who now decorate their program, constantly searching for (but never finding) bats in that belfry!

Turn about is fair play, so "Doc" immediately summoned Mrs. Chidley back to the stage to receive a very special gold Oscar for being, as he put it, "Our founder, our spark, our Mother!" Although caught completely off guard, it was evident that Frances Chidley — as the youngsters would say — "had it coming to her!" For who knows better than the Parish Players that, whatever the project may be, and with complete defiance of all obstacles, once Frances Chidley puts her hand to the wheel, things move quietly but irresistibly to their inevitable goal. From the very outset, she has been inspiration, guiding spirit, chief adviser, emergency man, trouble shooter, and general factotum to this ambitious group. Besides the Oscar, an engraved chatelaine of appropriate design was also presented to Mrs. Chidley by the Players.

After these varied presentation ceremonies, all present repaired to the rear of the hall, where tables groaned beneath the weight of coffee, sandwiches (i. e., "the makin's"), assorted cakes, cookies, confectionery, pickles, relishes, and what haven't you!

As if further proof were needed that the Players are a forward-looking group, mention was made of their fiftieth anniversary, and important plans for that occasion!

MR. ALAN STEINERT

Alan Steinert To Speak

The Winchester Community Chest, Inc. will have Mr. Alan Steinert as the guest speaker at its annual meeting on Thursday, April 26 at 7:45 p. m. in the Girl Scout cabin.

Mr. Steinert, who is in great demand as a speaker, is the General Chairman of the Greater Boston 1952 Red Feather Campaign. This well-known fund-raising campaign which takes place each fall raises money to help support numerous social services agencies in both Winchester and Boston which are in frequent use by Winchester citizens.

A graduate of the Taft School and Yale University '23, Mr. Steinert is now president of the Eastern Company, Cambridge. In addition to many civic interests, he has also been actively associated with a number of Red Feather agencies: — member of the Corporation of the Massachusetts General Hospital, board member of the Cambridge Community Federation, director of the James Jackson Putnam Children's Center. Having served on various committees of the United Community Services and having taken a responsible part in six previous Red Feather Campaigns, Mr. Steinert has a broad knowledge of social service agencies, their functioning and support.

The public is most welcome to attend this annual meeting. The Girl Scout cabin can be reached — after parking the car on South Border road — by walking up the short road opposite the entrance to the Boy Scout lodge.

Winchester College Club

The spring meeting of the Study Groups of the Winchester College Club will be held at the Church of the Epiphany on Monday evening, April 23, at 7:45 p.m. Coffee and dessert will be served, after which each of the Study Groups will report on the winter's program.

Dr. James Hackney Keeley, professor at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts College, where he teaches courses on the contemporary Near East, and former United States minister to Syria, will speak informally on "The Life of U. S. Ministers in a foreign country."

All members of the study groups are invited.

Goodbye, My Fancy

It is no secret hereabouts that with their current season the Parish Players are celebrating twenty-five years of continuous activity, placing them well among the elite of such organizations. During that period (as a glance at the back of the program will verify) they have regaled their audiences with a substantial slice of the best of modern drama, as well as not a few of the classic plays of all time. For an amateur group, this is achievement of no mean order, and the Parish Players are entitled to their year of jubilation.

For their twenty-fifth season, while not invading the classics, they have furnished their audiences with an excellent variety of entertainment, with a number of parts calculated to bring forth their best abilities, and hence with something to please nearly everyone.

"Goodbye, My Fancy," their third and final presentation of the season, is a more or less run-of-the-mill piece which served both Ruth Hussey in New York and Madeleine Carroll in New York and Boston as a satisfactory vehicle. It is a pleasant comedy, affording several parts that permit real character portrayals, and players and audiences both found it much to their liking. In brief, it tells the story of a Congresswoman who returns to her old college and an old love affair only to be disappointed in both. The theme is the alleged corruption of our institutions of learning by the subservience of what should be their guiding spirits to realistically-minded and business trained boards of trustees. It opens up the whole question of academic freedom, one of the many freedoms threatened in our present-day world. Without discussing the matter of how well the author has developed her theme, she has presented it with enough glib showmanship to make it eminently digestible as an evening's entertainment, and so the audience found it.

As the Congresswoman, Lenore Gamage gave a skillful impersonation of a woman of affairs, poised and capable, bent on a week-end holiday, momentarily intrigued by the flicker of an ancient flame. Like Candida, it is a part that can absorb practically every talent of which an actress is capable, and it is no easy assignment. She must be beautiful, good, courageous, capable, liberal, successful, and all-conquering — all one. Not only did Mrs. Gamage do the part justice, but she managed to lend it special appeal through the glamour of her own personality. She moved gracefully and naturally through her scenes, a woman using head as well as heart to cope with what life had to offer (no pun intended!) A pleasing and intelligent performance.

Hall Gamage played the part of the college head with dignity and charm. Someone has said it takes a real actor to play a sentimental scene with his own wife and get away with it! (Like reading over old love-letters). If so, one must give Hall credit for a convincing job. Nor did he fail, in the earlier moments of the play, to suggest the ultimate flaw in his character.

In the role of the Life photographer, George Connor enjoyed an actor's field-day — or so it seemed to this observer. His keen enjoyment of the part was heartily shared by the audience, the more so because, in addition to giving it the hard-boiled, cynical qualities it demanded, he was able to contribute an air of puckishness peculiarly his own. The part, in short, fitted him to the proverbial "T," and it was performed in like fashion. (One would like to see him as "Lob" in some future production of Barrie's "Dear Brutus").

John MacLellan lent authority and an easy stage presence to his impersonation of Dr. Pitt, the disillusioned professor. His inherent fineness, his idealism and consequent hitterness of frustration were well brought out. Although hy no means a leading part, he made it a significant one.

Shirley Puffer as Ellen Griswold, impulsive, gushing, enthusiastic, fussily absorbed in the doings of her little world, vague at anything outside it, was excellent in kind, presenting a character recognizable by all.

As her husband, Claude, wealthy trustee whose hide-bound conservatism does much to hamstring the progress of true education, Robert Blake definitely had his moments, and uttered pious platitudes with real conviction.

As the secretary, unimpressed, matter-of-fact, slightly bored and cynical, but unfailingly efficient and loyal, Bertha Blanchard scored in something of a new type for her, adding much to the evening's hilarity.

What can one say about our Janet Dalrymple — except that she was superlative, as always? Here, as Miss Shackleford, she portrayed with her usual finesse one of those perennial busybodies fluttering more or less ineffectively on the edge of things, yet assuming all the airs of management. So perfectly was the character worked out that I am sure many in the audience had unpleasant recollections of contact with her at one time or another.

As the only senior in the college visibly not a moron, Genevieve Crovo revealed a gracious and natural stage presence, and a charming personality. She was especially effective in her final scene with her father.

Constance Hessler as Mary Nell, wide-eyed and omnipresent, visibly emerging from adolescence, was definitely in focus, and must have awakened nostalgic memories in the mind of more than one matron.

The other seniors, in lesser parts, helped round out the picture.

Mrs. Wills, as Miss Bridgehaw, professor of physiology (now called Sex Hygeine?) with her perennial infatuation for Professor Dingley, and the bumbling Professor Dingley in person, as played by T. Parker Clarke, added a note of delightful drollery to the proceedings. Together they walked off — or should one say floundered off? — with the biggest laugh of the evening! (In cap and gown Mrs. Wills looked very sweet, and more — much more! — like a physiology prof!)

The other incidental characters were entirely adequate, as is bound to be the case in any of Harlan Grant's productions. One really should attend a rehearsal to get a true close-up of his meticulous attention to detail, his complete artistic integrity, and his gracious, half-humorous conduct of affairs.

The single setting was atmospheric, and the costumes — particularly those of Mrs. Gamage — invariably bright and pleasing.

As advance sales eloquently testify, the majority of Parish Players audiences have by now become incurable addicts. And indeed, something more is involved than the plays, for the Players themselves are friendly folk, ambitious, intelligent, and endlessly enthusiastic. And their enthusiasm is contagious! Each and every one of them, we know, is "having a wonderful time!" It's been pleasant going along with them, these twenty-five years. May the future be kind to them, and the path of progress bright!

Spring Party

Plans are well underway for the pre-supper gatherings on the evening of the second annual Spring Party sponsored by the Winchester parents and teachers, Thursday evening, May 17. Because of the reasonable price of the dinner, the committee is sure the tickets will move fast, and they wish to remind every one that the first 700 to buy tickets will be the lucky ones.

Parents or groups of parents and or teachers wishing to entertain are asked to call and make arrangements with a member of the committee listed below:

Lincoln School — Mrs. R. Ashley Lewis WI 6-2953
Mystic School — Mrs. W. James Masterson WI 6-1162-M

Boat Club News

Ahoy, mates! The Winchester Boat Club season has begun. Anchors were hoisted officially yesterday, and the club embarked on the first year of its second half century. The first social event of the summer will be the "opening night" party on May 11.

This year the ladies are going to show their stuff in some special snipe races, and also get a crack at the Commodore's Trophy. A schedule for the wives and daughters has been set up already.

New kitchen equipment has been ordered, and Steward Dave Maxwell will be able to serve meals at any time to the members and their guests. The successful bean and buffet suppers of last season will be repeated as regular events now. Supper schedules will be sent to the members shortly.

More emphasis will be placed on entertainment for all ages this year, it was decided at the directors' meeting. The entertainment committee is planning bridge and canasta parties plus other entertainment after each supper.

The new life guard is Richard Moriarty of 10 Sheffield road, and he will give swimming lessons to members on appointment.

The kiddies will be delighted to see the new slide and teeter swing that have been purchased especially for them.

The snipe skippers are dying to get a good spanking breeze in their sails, and are very busy preparing the boats. The schedule of races has been planned.

"Jam II," Mal Moller's boat, which came in first in so many of the races last year, has been bought by Roger Swanson, so the sailors had better keep an eye on him. Rodney Long is the new owner of Al Litchfield's "Foray," and is hard at work refinishing the bottom and deck.

Vice-commodore Edward Morse, fleet captain, is in full charge of the new flagpole. As flag officer he will fly weather flags from the port yardarm daily. Ed was a signal officer in World War II, and is now reviewing his sailor's manual.

Looks like a bang-up season, doesn't it?

Commuters' Column

A Bunch of Flowers

Sometimes when I see a big "double-header" diesel nosing out of the North Station yards or zooming past the station as I wait for the morning train, I think of the great forward strides in railroading that have taken place in the past few years.

Diesels, streamlined stainless steel coaches, freight cars riding on roller bearing axles — they're all evidences of progress and increased efficiency. They and such developments as Centralized Traffic Control are the improvements in railroading that are keeping rail transportation abreast of the times, in successful competition with the trucks, busses and airlines.

Somebody told me the other day that the Boston and Maine is one of the most highly dieselized railroads in America; and the time will come I, and a lot of my country friends hope it's a long way off when all B and M locomotives are diesels, and "steam" is a thing of the past.

I suppose our children and grandchildren will regard the era of steam in much the same way that we look back on the days of kerosene lamps, or the horse and buggy. But locomotives then will be identified simply by numbers and gone forever will be such resounding names as "Pacific," "Lima," "Consolidation," "Mountain," "Mallet," "Santa Fe," "Mikado," "Prairie" and "Twelve-Wheeler."

With them will go some of the romance of railroading. No diesel, however big, however sleek, can ever make such a spectacular picture of power as a great black steamer roaring and pounding down the track.

Perhaps it's because diesels are somehow impersonal — all their working parts concealed, no puffing smoke, and their crews high and dry, hidden in a little cabin complete with windshield wipers.

Anyhow, I'm sure no diesel will ever give me the lift I get when our faithful Mogul comes around the curve on a wet day, right on the dot of 8:08, with the steam spurting — the engineer leaning out the cab window — sand pouring in front of the big drivers — and, in spring, a bunch of flowers tied to the cow-catcher!

Chosen Dream Girl

Sally Luitweiler of Winchester, was chosen as the "Dream Girl of Theta Chi Fraternity" at the University of Rochester junior class prom. A junior at the Rochester Women's College, Miss Luitweiler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence S. Luitweiler of 80 Cambridge street. Not only "lovely to look at, delightful to know", Miss Luitweiler is prominent in campus activities at the University of Rochester. She is president of the Women's College Athletic Association, served as freshman camp chairman last fall, and also has been chairman of the house committee of Cutler Union, student life center at the college. She played in the National Women's Field Hockey tournament last fall.

Tennis Officials Elected

At the annual meeting of the Winchester Tennis Association, held on April 11 at the residence of the retiring President, Warren E. Branch, the following were elected officers for the coming year:

President — E. Whitney Gray
Vice-President — Arthur R. Hills
Sec. Treas. — Dwight E. Bellows
Members of the Governing Board — Warren E. Branch, Rowland V. Patrick.

In addition to running the usual Spring and Fall tournaments the Association plans to conduct an instruction clinic for young people early in May. Further information concerning this clinic will appear in next week's Star and notices will be sent to all Winchester Schools.

Christian Science Lecture

Residents of Winchester have been invited to attend a public lecture on Christian Science by Mrs. Claire Rauthe of London, England, to be delivered in Bedford on Friday, April 20, at 8:00 p. m. The lecture is sponsored by The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston and is open to all without charge.

Mrs. Rauthe has chosen as her subject "Christian Science: Its Revelation of God's Liberating Law." She will speak in the First Parish Church, Unitarian, Great Road at Bedford Center.

Mrs. Rauthe is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church. She first became a Christian Science practitioner in London in the early 1920's.

Winchester Toastmistress Club

Mrs. Walter H. Last of Medford, president of the Winchester Toastmistress Club, will preside at the April 24th meeting, which will be held at the Winchester Public Library.

This meeting is of great interest to members and guests of the club, as it is the final contest meeting, when six of our members will compete for the honor of representing the Winchester Toastmistress Club as its chosen speaker at the Council meeting to be held in Boston later this season.

The Club is honored in having as judges for the Competition speeches, Miss Lenore Rich, of Saugus, principal of the George Washington and Noonan Schools of Winchester, Mrs. Raymond Merrill of Arlington formerly of Rangeley, and Mrs. Charles Eaton of Winchester.

Miss Hilda Hope of Winchester will conduct the Contest. Miss Hope is in charge of all contest arrangements. Mrs. Harold Powell of Wakefield, will be Toastmistress.

At the Council meeting the Winchester speaker will compete with chosen speakers from the Wellesley and Quincy Toastmistress Clubs. The winner of that contest is eligible to speak at the Regional Conference to be held at Akron, Ohio. The chosen speaker there is then the representative speaker of her group at the National Convention of the International Toastmistress Clubs and is the high goal of all Toastmistresses.

The competing members are: Mrs. Leslie Bennett of Winchester, Mrs. Charles Crede, Winchester, Miss Mae McDonough, Dorchester, Mrs. Harry Marden, who is the Executive Director of the Medford Red Cross, Miss Anna Kuhn, teacher and author, and Mrs. Samuel Schwartz, Jr., Past President of the Toastmistress Club, Miss Kuhn is from Arlington and Mrs. Schwartz from Boston.

The public is invited to attend this meeting at the Public Library, Winchester, April 24th.

Members and their wives of the Toastmistress Clubs of Boston, Needham, and Wakefield have been invited and are planning to attend this meeting.

Blake Granted Patent

On April 3, 1951, the United States Patent Office granted number 2,547,736 on a "Process For Stretching Continuous Materials Such as Sheeting And The Like" to Robert P. Blake, Winchester.

It is known that the physical properties of many solid materials, such as plastic films, sheets, ribbons and the like, may be changed by a stretching operation. For example, stretching may increase the tensile strength, area or length of a sheet material, and it may decrease the thickness and width. Obviously, it is desirable to stretch continuous lengths of such materials; and it therefore is the object of Mr. Blake's invention to provide an improved apparatus for such purpose.

Although the details of his equipment and practice may best be understood by a study of his patent specifications and drawings, basically, it may be said that he makes use of two spaced-apart sets of rotating rolls between which the material is gripped and by which it is subjected to opposite tensional forces. Of particular importance is the fact that one of these forces is applied at a time when the material is drawn and moved as it undergoes stretching.

As a particular feature of his assembly, Mr. Blake sets up an oven through which the sheet, being processed, passes and is softened; and in this manner, there is created a relatively short region or zone wherein the greatest deformation occurs. However, stretched sheet stock, in a softened condition, has a tendency to shrink when it is relieved of tensions, and thus provision is made for cooling, and therefore hardening, the material after it leaves the oven and while it is still under tension.

As indicative of the type of material upon which the apparatus of this invention is capable of working, it should be noted that plastic sheeting, having an unstretched width of two inches and a thickness of only five-thousandths of an inch, may readily be elongated to about eight times its length.

This patent has been assigned to Polaroid Corporation, Cambridge, Mass.

Noonan School Mothers' Association

The April meeting of the Noonan School Mothers' Association was held Wednesday afternoon, April 11th in the school auditorium. Coffee and dessert were served at 1:30 p. m. by Mrs. James Flaherty and Mrs. Ray Horn, Co-Chairmen of the Social Committee. They were assisted by Mrs. Alfred Poole, Mrs. Lawrence Donlin and Mrs. Lawrence Nadeau and the mothers of Grades 1 and 2. The brief business meeting was conducted by the President, Mrs. Clarence Bonaglias and was followed by Bingo, Whist and Canasta. The sudden downpour of rain kept many mothers at home, but for those who came early, the gaily decorated tables with bright red geraniums made a pleasant atmosphere in the hall, in contrast to the darkness and dismal outside. Mrs. Gladys Casey was the winner of a basket of fruit and Mrs. John Elliott won the door prize.

Friendship House Sold

The estate on Church street opposite the Winchester Trust Company, known as the Friendship House has been sold by Mr. Robert W. Armstrong to Mr. Aram T. Mouradian, proprietor of the Mouradian Rug Company.

Mr. Mouradian, now occupying quarters in the adjoining block, plans extensive additions and alterations and will move his showroom to the new location. An addition in front of the Friendship House will be built to the sidewalk providing a fine new store. Jerome Eaton will be the architect in charge. At the rear of this new store the present house will be remodeled to provide additional showroom.

On the property at the rear of the Friendship House Mr. Mouradian will erect a large and modern factory for washing and cleaning rugs and for storage.

It is anticipated that the work of remodeling will take several months before completion.

Open House

On Thursday, April 26th, the Directors of the Home for the Aged 110 Mt. Vernon street will hold open house for the members of the family and their many friends throughout the town. All are cordially invited and tea will be served from 3 to 5 p. m.

It is earnestly hoped that many of our townspeople will avail themselves of this opportunity to visit the Home and become better acquainted with it. apr13-2t

One pound of conversation... please!

Everybody has to do a little waiting once in awhile . . . especially during rush hours. Most of us don't mind too much so long as the "pound" we get is of good quality . . . and the service, cheerful.

People on party lines are particularly understanding of the need to wait once in awhile. Just as the woman at the busy grocery counter makes her purchases as quickly as she can to make way for the next person.

That's one of the amazing and wonderful things about party line customers. They know that others have friends with whom they want to talk or do business — and they realize that these others are entitled to the same courteous, efficient service that they enjoy.

The party line customer is a fine example of cooperation — of American thoughtfulness of others. And the great majority report complete satisfaction with party line service, despite occasional inconvenience and irritations.

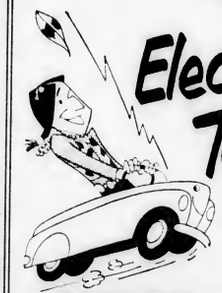

EVEN MORE IMPORTANT TODAY

Quite naturally, we are more than appreciative of this cooperation, because right now with the ever-increasing demands of national defense we simply cannot offer all the one and two party line service we would like.

That's why we say "Thank you party line customers for the way you help us maintain service for everybody on your line."

Vaudeville Show Still A Hit Performance

During nineteen years of Winchester High School Vaudeville directed by Ray V. Hayward of the faculty, capacity audiences have enjoyed the programs of dancing, singing, comedy, and gymnastics.

Every year Vaudeville has been advance-billed as the best ever and every year the billing has been justified by the performance.

Last Friday and Saturday evenings, near-capacity audiences applauded another Vaudeville in the High School Auditorium. Keeping up with the times, the 19th Vaudeville used snatches of Broadway hits, new dance routines, songs from the popular musical shows of today, and innovations in lighting that took advantage of the color and design now available in costumes.

What is most significant, however, is that every year Vaudeville is a Winchester production. The actors and actresses are Winchester boys and girls. The stage hands, the technicians, the entire production staff is composed of school boys and girls who annually combine their talent to make an all-school, all-Winchester show. To single out the 19th Vaudeville is a temptation since we remember best the most recent, but to do so is to break faith with the two thousand or so performers who have, over the years, built up the tradition of Vaudeville.

Glancing over the program one notices nothing really new in Vaudeville; the acts are somewhat the same. It's the generation that's new and with it has come a new approach to a familiar situation.

The Novettes opened the Show. Their music was smooth, the work of Anthony Bellino, Dick Giacalone, Robert Mangano, Dan Mantini, Dick Migliaccio, Edward Tarr, Todd Wallis, Sue Melanson, accompanist, who play because they like to.

Syncopated Rhythm was the dancing of four couples that ended dramatically in the building of a pyramid. Roberta Coon, Lew Curtis, Henry Hooper, Dawn Horn, George Johnson, Walter Maroney, Betty Nelson, and Becky Smith were the dancers.

Bruce McIntyre, boy soprano, sang two pieces well and with a pleasing naivete.

Oriental Patterns, a harem-type scene, was colorful and modest. Participating were Mary Chamberland, Janice Collins, Gretchen Daschbach, Anne Fiorenza, Betsy Freeman, Roselyn Gagliormella, Barbara Gerbich, Mary Lou Mooney, Mary O'Connell, and Ruth Peel.

To Dad, dictated by Harold Quigley to nurse Janice Lynch, was in keeping with the number one assignment facing an eighteen-year-old boy.

Dom Suppa, Bob Burnham, and Vernon Honsinger enjoyed an interlude for their harmonica trio just before becoming members of Olla Podrida, which featured weird musical contraptions and depended for its melody on Carol Hawkins's accordian, Carolyn Edera's guitar, the harmonicas, and considerable vocalizing by the others. Others in the act were Jim Carroll, Mary Cullen, Virginia Dyer, John Farrell, Bob Flaherty, Dominic Giacalone, Althea Hersey, Henry Hooper, Louise Kuglen, Don MacFeeley, Michael Neagle, Dottie Parker, Dave Snow, Tina Tonan, Arlene Weafer, and Fred Wheaton.

Phyllis O'Neil and Jean Neiley did The Big Date, a typical vaudeville act, with vigor and drew applause for their comedy.

Steve and Stephanie Yale, using an episode from a currently popular musical show, gave an outstanding brother and sister act.

Muscle Men John Farrell and Dick Errico, in the currently popular "black light", provided the male tumbling act, using no apparatus.

Monkey Business starred Elizabeth Curtis and Marcia Symmes, tap specialists, in a cute number.

Dorothy Brandt, member of the Octette, sang a soprano solo most pleasingly, as did Patricia Carroll somewhat later in the show.

Dimpled Darlings, while sorely testing the stage floor, brought down the house. Male athletes in ballet costumes will do that, but these had rhythm and precision — and such pink cheeks.

Dimpled Darlings were Belinda Burbank, Judy Johnson, Katy Keniston, Lizzie Lentine, Maggie McElhinney, Ophelia O'Brien, Patricia Pratt, Sophronia Suppa.

Pantomime expert Walter Maroney used someone else's voice very convincingly in Sunday Driving, complete with steering wheel and other props.

The Jockeyettes, the pony chorus, were attractively costumed in jockey outfits. Theirs was one of the best dance group numbers. Dancing were Midge Dexter, Deborah Fish, Phoebe Greenwood, Dawn Horn, Nancy Morse, Judy Nanny, Ruth Pech, Catherine Serrafore, Audrey Smith, Laura Snow, Anita Watson, and Wendy Wood.

The girls' tumbling team, animating the animals in a toy shop, was outstanding. No longer can one point to masculine supremacy in the art of tumbling, especially when it has a theme as well as a pattern. Taking part were Roberta Coon, Betty Crispo, Janet Easton, Dianne Greer, Bette Kneeland, Harris MacDonald, Sue Morton, Joan Nelles, Sue Ordway, Margaret Smith, and Sonia Smith.

Sandy Burbank's solos were tops with the high schoolers, many of whom gave his performance top place.

Many still are wondering about that itinerant lamp in the dance produced by Allene Goodwin, Phoebe Greenwood, and Janice Lynch in almost total darkness, an act one had to follow.

George Johnson, billed as Rhymatonic Acrobat, must have been all of that. His flips and leaps aroused moans of appreciation and showed the rewarding performance after constant practice.

At this point four bearded gentlemen in academic robes gave forth with very close harmony — too bad Jim was in the hospital — and performed three rapid changes to fishermen, to college boys, and back to profs. For a large segment of the audience this was the hit of the show. The quartet consisted of Messrs. Ragnar Brandt, Fred Felmet, Jake Mosser, and Henry Fitts.

Tapping and rope skipping simultaneously, Marjorie Sanger and Becky Smith were pleasing in their routine which included a "black light" scene showing lively ropes and shoes most effectively.

Mr. Tom Morse then ad libbed while the Beauty Contest winners were secreted behind transluscent screens and then introduced Miss 1951 as Joan Flaherty and Mr. 1951 as Prep Keyes. Recipients of an array of gifts provided by Winchester merchants, the handsome couple were apparently popular choices in the contest sponsored by the "Red and Black" and Vaudeville.

Flower Fantasie, a colorfully costumed modern dance group compared favorably with Manhattan Serenaders whose costumes were adapted for "black light". In the Fantasie were Annette Barbaro, Carolyn Buracker, Marilyn Dyer, Jan Flaherty, Allene Goodwin, Dianne Greer, Jean Neiley, Cynthia Nichols, Mary O'Connell, Sonia Smith, and Anne Whiton. The Serenaders were Carole Ambrose, Annette Barbaro, Audrey Elliott, Allene Goodwin, Nancy McDevitt, Phyllis O'Neil, Muriel Pride, Jean Roberts, Anita Watson, Gail Watson, and Mary Smith. Both groups are Miss Carroll's modern dance students.

The Orgettas sisters, Louise and Mary, stepped out of the Octette for well received duets.

The Octette, in full length gowns, matching bonnets, and twirling matching parasols added movement and color to their already notable singing. Octette members are Dorothy Brandt, Janet Archibald, Patricia Carroll, Shirley Cary, Phoebe Greenwood, Louise Orgettas, Mary Orgettas, Nancy Ross, Mary Reid, Accompanist, and Miss Eleanor Anifantis, Director.

Phyllis O'Neil, who has given her talent to four successive Shows, led the final number, Toys on Tape, as she drew to a close the evening's performance and her days as a Vaudeville performer in a highly creditable manner.

The stage was crowded for the extremely colorful finale after which Phyllis O'Neil presented a gift to Ricky Ives who had accompanied every rehearsal and who from his piano led the orchestra that played for every act. Jean Neiley presented a gift to Miss Helen Carroll to express the appreciation of the tumblers, the dancers, and numerous others who were skillfully coached for their expert performances.

Ricky Ives made the presentation to Mr. Ray Hayward, pointing out that the cast had enjoyed producing the 19th Hayward Vaudeville Show, rumored to be his swansong.

Favorably received at the Friday matinee was solo tap and acrobatic dancer, Noreen Johnson; the boy and girl duet by Billy Harlow and Ronny Reed, the Johnson sisters whose inverted stairs climbing, flips, and handstands were sensational, and the efficient Junior High School tap chorus in plaid blouses and red shorts.

Mention must also be made of Barbara Macaulay, Accompanist, who played for several of the soloists.

Vaudeville is wonderful. Perhaps Mr. Hayward can be prevailed on to produce a 20th.

Rutherfords Attend Reunion And Convention

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Rutherford of Winslow road recently returned from a trip to the middlewest. On their flight out to Chicago, their daughter Betty was one of the stewardesses aboard the United Mainliner DC-6. In Chicago they were welcomed cordially at the Hot Point headquarters, shown through the famous range factory, walking miles over this largest electric range factory in the world, entertained at luncheon, and then spent considerable time in conference with the Kitchen Planning Division of the Hot Point Company. From Chicago they journeyed to Milwaukee to visit the factories producing the Hot Point dishwashers, disposals and water heaters. They regretted having no time to see the new clothes drier and automatic washer production but were due at the next stop of their journey, Madison, Wis.

Since this was their first trip back in about twenty-five years, the Rutherfords enjoyed seeing the many changes at the University as well as in Madison. One of the high points of this tour was being shown the greatly expanded facilities of the Chemistry Department by Prof. Matthews, now head of the Department of Chemistry and who had been Mrs. Rutherford's advisor in college days. As one of the outstanding ballistics experts in this country, Prof. Matthews was able to demonstrate a number of special devices he has invented for the study of bullets and guns involved in legal cases. The old "quant" lab where the Rutherfords first met long years ago was another point of interest.

While Mr. Rutherford attended the special functions of the reunion of his fraternity chapter of Alpha Chi Rho, Mrs. Rutherford renewed acquaintance with friends of the old days in Madison. At the Alpha Chi Rho banquet, the chief speaker was a former classmate, Robert R. Stewart, Vice President and Comptroller of Purdue University. Mr. Rutherford hopes to have this talk repeated sometime in the future for Winchester Rotary. After appropriate comment on relative baldness etc., the oldtimers vied with each other in showing pictures of wives, children and grandchildren. This gathering from all parts of the country was such a success that all wonder why they had to wait over twenty-five years to start such a tradition.

ALL OVER NEW ENGLAND WE ARE MULTIPLYING ELECTRIC POWER!

The business methods of investor-built electric companies are responsible for New England's abundant supply of electric power. Men with experience and vision perfected the plans . . . raised the money . . . and built the huge modern electric generating stations that have already gone into service throughout New England since the end of World War II. And now . . . from blue-prints prepared long before the present national emergency . . . your tax-paying electric companies are creating still greater additions to this region's supply of electric energy . . . still further strengthening New England's ability to meet the challenge of the times.

EDWARD PATRICK McKENZIE

Mack's Birthday

DEAN OF WINCHESTER NEWSPAPERMEN IS 83

Eighty-three years ago on April 22nd, 1868, Edward Patrick McKenzie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McKenzie, old-time Winchester residents, was born in the old Black Horse Tavern on what is now Black Horse Terrace.

Sunday marked Ed's birthday and the town celebrated it with proper honor and pleasure.

From 2 until 11 p. m. friends and relatives from all parts of Winchester, north end, east and west sides, crowded the spacious rooms of the McKenzie family home at 24 Symmes road in the greatest community outpouring of felicitation to a local resident in modern memory. Present, too, were relatives and friends from Woburn, Medford, Burlington, Milton, Somerville, Stoneham, South Boston, Watertown, Mills, Detroit, New Hampshire, Lexington, Hamilton, Worcester, Baltimore.

The lovely rooms were a bower of Spring flowers, sent by admiring friends, and the huge punch bowl on the dining table was flanked by a large birthday cake and two lambs, made of cake with simulated wool composed of white cocoanut icing.

The reception line, in the large front hall included, beside the honor guest himself, his daughters, Misses Lucia and Mary of Winchester and Mrs. William A. Durant of Medford, and his sons, Edward and Alfred of Winchester.

Among the many gifts of money, cigars and other things, was one which gave the host especial pleasure. It was a letter from His Excellency, Archbishop Richard J. Cushing, in which he told Mack that in addition to his birthday blessing he was offering for him a special birthday Mass. Then, too, from Monsignor John B. Condon, Pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Medford, there was a beautiful rosary, especially blessed by the Pope.

Board Of Assessors Announce New Formula For Assessing Personal Property Taxes

The Board of Assessors announced this past week that all their field work for the year 1950 had been completed and that they would now start on the year 1951. The entire Poll Taxes have been committed to the Tax Collector for collection and the office force of the Board of Assessors are now working on the recapitulation and balancing of the real estate taxes and betterments. Upon completion of this work they then will start on the new formula to be applied in figuring all personal property taxes for the year 1951.

In former years the personal property tax has been paid according to the following:

A person living in house and garage assessed between $6500 and $10,000 paid on a $500 personal property tax. When the value of house and garage was assessed from $10,000 to $20,000 the personal property tax assessed was $1,000. Assessments over a $20,000 valuation were treated as special cases.

The Board of Assessors have felt for some time that an improvement could be made for a more equitable distribution of the personal property tax and have voted to follow the new percentage formula to be used in assessing all personal property for the year 1951.

With the new formula as a basis, any citizen wishing to figure his personal property tax can do so by applying the following formula:

Take 20% of the total valuation of house and garage, deduct $1,000 exemption, and the balance will be taxed as personal property.

All citizens living in houses with attached or unattached garages valued at $6,000 and over would be assessed according to the above formula, and any citizen already receiving a personal property tax under the $6,000 value will continue to receive the same tax as before.

The Board believes this method to be more equitable than the old method in arriving at a truer valuation of personal property, as the percentage rule applies to all citizens, except in special cases.

The Board of Assessors wishes all citizens of the Town to know that they are attempting to do their work with fair taxation for all, and extends an open invitation for any citizen to attend their meetings, which are held each Thursday morning of the week between the hours of nine and twelve. We welcome suggestions and constructive criticism in our attempt to revalue the entire town and raise the necessary tax money to run our Town on a sound program fair to the Town and to all citizens and taxpayers.

Gilgun's 25th Wedding Anniversary

Postmaster and Mrs. Thomas J. Gilgun celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday, April 22, at their home 75 Woodside road.

Mrs. Gilgun was the former Charlotte Smith and was married to Thomas J. Gilgun on April 18, 1926 in St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Fr. James E. Fitzgibbons.

They have two daughters, Kathleen and Charlotte, who were responsible for making arrangements for the affair. About 150 people called on them during the day.

The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers for the occasion. A buffet lunch was served and entertainment was provided by the talented guests.

Mr. Gilgun is a native of Woburn but has resided in Winchester since his marriage. He was appointed Postmaster of the local postoffice three years ago.

Miss Johnson Mr. Palmunen Engaged

A late summer wedding is planned for Miss Nathalie Beatrice Johnson, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Thomas of Barnstable, announce her engagement to Mr. Walter John Palmunen of Winchester and Centerville, son of Mrs. Aina W. Palmunen of Centerville. Miss Johnson was graduated from Sargent College of Boston University. Mr. Palmunen served with the Navy and was graduated from Dartmouth College.

Engagement Announced

The engagement is announced of Miss Geraldine Earle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Earle of Rochester, N. Y., to Mr. Henry K. Roberts, 3rd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Roberts, Jr. of Marshfield, formerly of Winchester. Mr. Roberts is a student at the University of New Hampshire.

Todesca — Sweeney

Miss Emma Margaret Sweeney of 6 Hill street, Stoneham, was united in marriage to Mr. Benjamin Forest Todesca, son of Mrs. Catherine Todesca of 45 Tremont street, on April 14 in St. Patrick's Church, Stoneham. Rev. Fr. David Burke performed the 3 o'clock ceremony. Soloist was James Fitzpatrick accompanied on the organ by Donald Orsillo. The altars of the church were beautifully decorated with white glads and white snapdragons.

The bride's gown was nylon net over white satin and her veil was fingertip length. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Teresa Hanson of Milltown, N. B. was the honor attendant. She wore a gown of American beauty silk with a spring flower headpiece, and carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Mr. Todesca had for his best man Pasquale Tofuri of this town. The uhers were Albert Russell of Winchester and James Dawson of Stoneham.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Neergaard of 4 Ardley road, Winchester from 3 to 7 p. m. The decorations at the house were red roses and white snapdragons.

Celebrated 25th Wedding Anniversary

Lieut. Joseph J. Derro of the local Police Department, and Mrs. Derro, held open house on Saturday evening, April 21, at their home, 433 Washington street, in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Lt. Derro and Concetta Ferrina were married April 17, 1926 in St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Fr. James E. Fitzgibbons.

The Derro's have three children, Joseph J. Derro, Jr., attending N. C. State College; Robert Derro, a sophomore and Madeline, a freshman, both in the Winchester High School.

The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers for the occasion. A buffet lunch was served during the evening.

The couple were presented with a bouquet of silver dollars and gifts of silver from the guests, they also received several telegrams.

A few of the guests at the wedding twenty five years ago were also present at the twenty fifth anniversary party, one of them being, Mr. Ernest R. Eustis.

Wiswell Named Director Of New England Advertising Council

George C. Wiswell of Fletcher street, treasurer of the Chambers and Wiswell, Inc., advertising agency, Boston has been elected director of the New England Advertising Council.

Wiswell, a Boston native, joined George J. Chambers in 1919 in establishing Chambers and Wiswell, Inc., which for many years has been one of the leading advertising agencies in New England. He is a past president of the Advertising Club of Boston as well as three-time commander of Crosscup-Pishon Post, American Legion.

Former Residents Celebrate Twenty-Fifth

Mr. and Mrs. Rodger M. Tolman, former Winchester residents, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, April 17th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Barnes, 2 Fenwick road, girlhood home of Mrs. Tolman (nee Frances Barnes), where they were at home to some seventy-five friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Tolman are widely acquainted in Winchester, having lived here some years before moving to Nelson, N. H., last summer. Refreshments were served, and several happy hours spent in the company of former friends and neighbors.

Winchester Boys Inducted

Three Winchester boys were inducted into the armed services on Wednesday. The list included:

David K. Snell, 5 Dix Terrace.

Morris — Beaugrand

Miss Margaret Anne Beaugrand, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Hegarty of 24 Oak street, Reading, was married to Mr. Christopher J. Morris, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher J. Morris of 850 Main street on Thursday morning, April 19th. The ceremony was performed in St. Agnes' Church in Reading at 10 o'clock with the Rev. Fr. Walter Lavin officiating. Music was furnished by Brendon Hoyt, soloist, with Edson Kimball at the organ.

Miss Beaugrand wore a nylon and marquisette gown with fingertip veil of French illusion and a crown of seeded pearls. She carried a hand painted missal with streamers of sweet peas.

Miss Rosalie Hegarty, of South Groveland, cousin of the bride, was honor attendant. Her dress was of aqua taffeta with matching headdress and mitts, and for flowers she carried an old fashioned bouquet.

The flower girl was Judy Ann Flanagan of Reading. Her dress was of pink organdie with matching headpiece, and she carried an old fashioned bouquet.

Mr. Nils Anderson of Woburn was the best man. The ushers were Mr. Robert Hegarty of Reading, cousin of the bride and Justin Horie of 10 Westley street.

A reception was held at Howard Johnsons' in Wakefield. Assisting in receiving were the parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hegarty, Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Hegarty and Mrs. Thomas Flanagan.

After a wedding trip to New York, Mr. and Mrs. Morris will make their home in Medford.

Mr. Morris is manager of the First National Store in Lynn.

Edwin L. Noble

Private funeral services were held for Edwin L. Noble, 59, of 14 Leslie road on Thursday in the Bennett Funeral Chapel.

Mr. Noble was an executive with the H. P. Hood & Sons, and was general manager of the Noble Milk Co., prior to its merger with Hood's. He died Monday night, April 23 at the Winchester Hospital.

He was a native of Boston and was graduated from Yale University in 1915. During World War I he was a highly decorated pilot in the newly formed Air Force. Following the war he joined his father in the milk business.

He is survived by his wife, Susan Phillips, a daughter, Jenn and a brother Arthur Noble.

Jeremiah McCarthy

Jeremiah McCarthy of 49 Swanton street passed away at the Winchester Hospital Monday, April 23rd, after a few weeks illness.

He was born in Brookline 82 years ago the son of the late Andrew and Ellen (Curry) McCarthy, but had lived in Winchester about 65 years, and was a painter by trade. He was a member of the Mass. Catholic Order of Foresters and St. Mary's Holy Name Society.

The only survivor is a sister, Mary T. McCarthy of this town.

Funeral services were held from his late home on Wednesday morning at 8 a. m. with a solemn Mass of Requiem at St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock. Interment was in Calvary cemetery.

Rachel Lewtas Bateson

Private funeral services were held at the Perry Funeral Home, Billerica Center, Mass., for Rachel Lewtas Bateson, aged 86, widow of Thomas Bateson, Friday, April 20, at two o'clock. Mrs. Bateson was the mother of Mrs. Harrison McKRainie, of 41 Calumet road, Winchester, with whom she made her home. She is survived by her daughter, a son, Thomas H. Bateson, of Walpole, Mass., six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. The Episcopal burial service was read by Rev. J. Harold Dale, D. D. of Billerica and interment was in the family lot at the North Cemetery, North Billerica.

George W. Hayden Dead

Mr. George W. Hayden, for many years a prominent resident of this town until his removal to Center Ossipee, New Hampshire, about six years ago, died at his home on Saturday. He was 76 years of age and was a native of Boston.

Mr. Hayden was associated with the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company for 37 years up to his retirement ten years ago, at which time he was division superintendent for Western Massachusetts.

He was a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and made his residence in Springfield before coming to Winchester. In Springfield he was active in Masonic circles, being past master of Esoteric Lodge. He was instrumental in the organization of the Springfield Rotary Club and its first secretary and was also a past president. He was a director of the Eastern States Exposition and a vice-president of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce.

While in Winchester he was active in the Rotary Club of Winchester and served as clerk of the local Selective Service Board and co-chairman of the civil defence during World War II. He was a member of William Parkman Lodge, AF and AM. In Center Ossipee he was a director of Y. M. C. A. Camp Huckins, cochairman of the Red Cross and Town Auditor.

Mr. Hayden is survived by his wife, Marion S. Hayden, one son, Mr. George W. Hayden, Jr., of this town and four daughters; Mrs. Richard Berkley of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Madison B. Brown of Tuckahoe, N. Y., Mrs. John Trask of West Lebanon, N. H., and Mrs. Whitelaw Wright, Jr., of Lexington. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. Albert H. Wiggin of New York.

Funeral services were held at The Congregational Church, Center Ossipee, Monday afternoon at three o'clock and the burial was in Grant Cemetery, that town.

Eightieth Anniversary Winchester Savings Bank

The Corporators and Trustees of the Winchester Savings Bank met at the Winchester Country Club for the eightieth annual election of Officers and Trustees on Wednesday, April 25th. Clinton W. Bennett, Gilbert H. Hood, Jr. and Harrison F. Lyman, Jr. were added to the Board of Corporators.

President H. Wadsworth Hight, in his annual report, noted that from a begining in 1871, with deposits of $11,058.64, the Bank has grown so that now its assets stand at $12,338,042.49 after crediting the one hundred fifty-ninth semi-annual dividend. This is an increase of over $2,000,000 for the past five years.

The strength of the Institution is evidenced by the fact that the Guaranty Fund and Profit and Loss account amount to $1,267,745.85, or over 11.6% of deposits.

The Bank operates a School Savings system for our Winchester Schools with 3520 participating; these accounts now total $135,191.11.

Savings Bank Life Insurance is sold. Mortgage money is available upon plans to suit everyone at reasonable interest rates with up to twenty years to pay.

After the anual meeting dinner was followed by remarks by Past President Harry C. Sanborn, greetings from the Massachusetts Savings Banks Association by Mr. Crawford H. Stocker, Jr., Vice President of that association and President of the Lynn Five Cents Savings Bank.

Another guest was Mr. Robert F. Nutting, Past President of the Association and President of the Cambridgeport Savings Bank who gave an interesting talk on the subject "Taxation of Savings."

Mrs. Walter H. Carter

Mrs. Edith Gertrude Carter, wife of Walter H. Carter, died at a nursing home in Woburn on Wednesday morning, April 25 after a long illness.

Mrs. Carter was born in East Boston on April 20, 1874 the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Colburn Dean. She was married in 1921 to Mr. Carter and has made her home at 19 Kenwin road ever since.

Mrs. Carter was a member of the Fortnightly, Women's Republican Club and the Florence Crittenton League.

Besides her husband she leaves a sister Mrs. Ada Scalon of Boston.

Funeral services are being held today, Friday, from the Lane Funeral Home at 2 p. m. with Rev. John W. Cook of the Second Congregational Church officiating.

Interment was in Monroe Cemetery, Lexington.

BURTON A. MILLER

Burton A. Miller of 25 Ridgefield road has been appointed chairman for Winchester in next fall's Red Feather campaign, Mrs. William A. Kugler, president of Winchester Community Chest and Council, announced today. This community is one of 48 cities and towns joining in this annual appeal toward 1952 support of nearly 300 health, social and recreation agencies serving the people of the area. The campaign is centrally administrated by United Community Services of Metropolitan Boston.

Winchester agencies benefiting directly from this once-a-year drive include Winchester Hospital, District Nursing Association, Home for Aged People, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Immaculate Conception and St. Mary's Conferences, St. Vincent de Paul.

"In one way or another, "Mr. Miller asserts, "we all share the never-ending job of assuring vital Red Feather services in this great metropolitan area of which Winchester is such an attractive part."

Mr. Miller is consultant with Scudder, Stevens and Clark, investment counsel of Boston. He is a graduate of the State University of Iowa, 1929, and member of Phi Beta Kappa, Delta Sigma Rho and Delta Chi fraternities. A lieutenant, USNR, in World War II, he was attached to the Finance Division, Bureau of Naval Personnel in Washington from 1944 to 1946. The Millers have three children, Pamela, 12; Stephanie, 7, and five-year-old Craig.

Thomas Brown Died Suddenly

Mr. Thomas Brown, aged 54, of 65 Hemingway street, proprietor of Brown's Restaurant, Main street, died suddenly last Friday afternoon. He was conducting his restaurant as usual when he suddenly collapsed and died instantly of a heart attack.

Mr. Brown came to Winchester about three years ago from Woburn. He purchased the house at 65 Hemingway street and opened the restaurant on Main street which he had since conducted.

He is survived by his wife, Gladys Esau, and one brother, Andrew, and a sister, Julie, both of Lynn. Mr. Brown was a native of Greece.

Funeral services were held at St. George's Church, Lynn, with high mass at 2 p. m. Burial was in Cedar Grove Cemetery, Lynn.

Grant L. Clark

Grant L. Clark, a life long resident of Winchester, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Francis Tremberth of 149 Central street, Stoneham, on April 20th after a long illness.

Mr. Clark was an electrician by trade and worked for E. C. Sanderson for many years and later for Harold Tarbox.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Francis Tremberth, Mrs. Ralph MacAdams; three sons, Lemert, Clyde and Mott Albah all of Stoneham.

Funeral services were held from the Bennett Funeral Home on Monday, April 23 at 2:30 p. m., with Rev. John Snook, Jr., officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

Unitarian Players To Give "Return Engagement"

The crew, the cast, the coach are all working feverishly this final week at the Unitarian Church to put on the grand comedy "Return Engagement". The large group are really having a good time. With the Reverend Robert Storer as head coach who could help but catch some of his bouncing energy.

On Saturday night, May 5 at 8:15 the show will go on in Metcalf Hall and also on Friday night, May 4, same time, same place, there will be a dress rehearsal staged for those who just cannot attend the main performance and for Junior High and High School students who would prefer to get in on the more informal event.

Everyone who has ever seen Lucille Townley-Tilson and William Spaulding in Unitarian plays before knows they are going to chalk up another hit. Mr. George Stearns and Miss Nancy Nutter are the other lead team. For downright humor coupled with intelligent playacting watch Mrs. William Davies. She has that sure fire part of the dirtiness of the summer theatre. Her voice, her mannerisms, her hands are, as the saying goes, priceless.

Charlotte Hall Hill is beautifully cast as the charming daughter of her over-ambitious step-mother played by Mrs. Philip Wadsworth. Edward Mansfield is the director of the "play within a play" and Bradford Darling has a splendid role as the man-of-all-work.

The younger generation has its representation in a rollicking trinity-rate in the persons of Jost Michelson, Jr., Prescott Keyes, and Stowell Semmes. Mrs. Herbert Black, Mrs. Frank Moore, and Miss Marjorie Bradford round out the good cast.

These days cry out for some light-hearted moments, and "Return Engagement" is packed with them.

United World Federalists Hold Meeting

On Wednesday evening, April 18th, a meeting of the Winchester Chapter of United World Federalists was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John L. Lobingier. After enjoying delicious coffee and refreshments, the group was welcomed by Mr. Robert Williams, Chairman who introduced two distinguished guests representing the State Branch and National Headquarters. They were Mrs. Donna Baer, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts State Branch, UWF, and the newly appointed Field Representative from National Headquarters, Miss Ruth Root.

The meeting was then turned over to Dr. Lobingier who led a lively discussion on twenty questions previously submitted by the membership. These questions covered many aspects of world government with particular emphasis on the concerns of the United World Federalists. Current reading material was made available to all and plans were made for a similar educational meeting to be held during the month of May at the home of Mrs. Cutler Downer of 39 Everett avenue.

All who are interested in taking part in the next meeting will be most cordially welcome and announcement of this will be made in the Winchester Star in advance of the meeting.

Wyman School Circus Party

The circus has really "come to town" in Mrs. Smith's first grade room at the Wyman School. While developing a unit on the circus, the children prepared animal cages in which were placed various toy animals. Cages were named according to the animals contained in them, and warning signs, such as "Watch Out for the Crocodile," lent an air of realism to the experience.

Circus animals made of newspaper and painted by the children were displayed around the room, and their drawings were hung up as a border to represent a circus parade.

To climax the experience, the children invited their parents to visit their room for an afternoon of festivities. At this time each child read a story to the assembled parents to show them how well they could read.

After the reading period, each child, fairly bursting with pride and enthusiasm, served his or her parent refreshments consisting of ginger ale and animal crackers.

Mrs. Denise Marchesi of 251 Swanton street was the winner of 100 lb. bag of sugar at the Woburn Grange on Monday evening.

Church Of The Open Bible

Narrow escapes from death in the hands of primitive Indians in Columbia, S. A., thrilling experiences of a missionary among the desert tribes in French West Africa, life in the Belgian Congo observing the habits of the pigmies, enduring the hardships of dog-sledding in Alaska and fortifying the natives of Indonesia and Malaya will be related by the missionary speakers at the Annual Bible and Missionary Conference to be held in The Church of the Open Bible, Montvale avenue, Woburn, April 29th through May 6th.

Ten speakers are listed on the diversified program which includes the display of curios, the showing of slides, motion pictures and sound film for the eight days of the inter-denominational conference designed to acquaint the people of this area with the progress of Christian faith missions throughout the world. Some of the speakers will appear in native costume, lending color to the services.

Dr. Leland Wang, world-famous Chinese educator and evangelist, recently returned from an extensive tour of Southeast Asia and Formosa, will be one of the main speakers, representing the Chinese Foreign Missionary Union of which he is president. Other faith missions receiving inter-denominational support to be represented on the program are The Evangelical Alliance Mission, The Africa Inland Mission, The Sudan Interior Mission, the Slavic Gospel Association, The South American Indian Mission and the China Inland Mission. Fields represented are Alaska, the Far East, India, Indo-China, South Africa, South America and Central and West Africa.

The conference which is open to the public begins on Sunday, April 29th, with Rev. Charles E. Tournay, who has traveled extensively all over Africa, as one of the main speakers. Dr. D. Stuart Clark from Quito, Ecuador, follows him on the program and will show colored sound film. Services will be held on four afternoons next week (Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday) at 3:00 o'clock. Evening meetings with pictures and speakers from many lands will be held each week night except Saturday at 7:45 p. m. The closing services will be on Sunday, May 6th.

New Market Holds Open House

Winchester's newest market will open its doors to residents of the Town next Wednesday night. The Converse Market, opening in the former Richardson Market location at 10 Mt. Vernon street, will hold open house from 5 p. m. to 11 p. m. on Wednesday evening, May 2. No goods will be sold but valuable prizes and souvenirs will be awarded and presented to all visitors.

Everyone in Winchester is invited.

The new store has been outfitted with the latest fixtures and conveniences for the sale of groceries, fruit, fine meats and provisions. A large portion of the floor space will be given over to a serve-yourself department, while the freezers will display the meats and perishables. The big walk-in refrigerator is capable of holding a month's supply of meat. All vegetables will arrive fresh daily.

Included in the prizes to be distributed Wednesday evening will be twenty-five huge baskets of choice food. Other gifts will delight the huge crowd which is expected to attend.

Don't forget the date:
Wednesday, May 2
5 p. m. to 11 p. m.
Converse Market, 10 Mt. Vernon St.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Ober, Jr., formerly of Cambridge street and who moved to Miami Springs, Florida this week, were given many farewell parties by their host of friends last week. Various dinner parties took up every evening in the week.

State-Wide Bird Walks — May 5th

As in past years, the Massachusetts Audubon Society is holding Spring Bird Walks all over the State at the same time. This year they will be held on Saturday, May 5. The Winchester walk will meet on the corner of Washington and Forest streets at 8:00 a. m. Mrs. S. K. Harris will be the leader. We hope there will be fine birding weather, many attending, and a host of interesting birds to be observed. Mark your calendar, invite your friends and neighbors, and join our birding party.

Mr. Joseph Donaghey of the local postoffice department is confined to his home on Warren avenue, Woburn.

Baptist Women's League Annual Meeting

A Smorgasbord, with Mrs. Gunnar Abrahamson as Chairman, will be served at 12 o'clock, Thursday, May 3rd, for the Annual Business Meeting of the Women's League of the First Baptist Church. Devotions will be conducted by Mrs. Walter L. Bailey. Mrs. Davenport F. Davis, President of the League, will preside at the Business meeting when reports of the year's work will be heard and officers for the coming year elected. Sound-slides "For a Closer Walk with God" will be shown, with pictures of the American Baptist Assembly grounds at Green Lake, Wisconsin.

Indians Won League Opener

Winchester High won its opening game in the Middlesex League by defeating Wakefield High by a score of 7-5 at Wakefield last week. It was a pleasing comeback-and victory for the Indians who were trailing 3-0 going into the sixth inning but rallied for four runs to take a lead they never relinquished. Although outhit by their Wakefield opponents, the locals played smarter baseball as they capitalized on ten Wakefield errors to score seven runs on only four hits.

Charlie Murphy pitched steady ball for Winchester and had the stuff to bear down in the clutch to prevent Wakefield from staging a big inning at any time in the ball game. Captain Tony Cirurso banged out the longest hit of the ball game, a triple to deep centerfield. Coach Bartlett was pleased with the way in which his younger players held up under the pressure of their first League game. If this team can generate some power at the plate, they may well have a good season as they stand to get good pitching and will play good defensive ball.

Indians Win Second League Game

Extra base hits featured the Winchester High 9 to 6 victory over Reading High at Manchester Field last Friday afternoon. A double by Jim Griffin and triples by Ed Crowley, Chuck Serickx and Pete Coon provided the margin of victory as the Indians captured their second straight Middlesex League victory.

The game was tight until the last of the sixth when the locals came up with a five-run rally, featured by Pete Coon's two-run triple. Reading continued to threaten, however, as they scored a run in the eighth and two more in the ninth while leaving the bases loaded in that final inning. Charlie Murphy relieved Stowell Symmes in the last of the ninth as Symmes seemed to be tiring. Up to that inning Symmes had pitched good ball for the locals, although he was having trouble with his control and it was that lack of control that put him in occasional trouble.

John Dilorio sparkled in the field for Winchester as he had a busy afternoon, accepting successfully 12 out of 13 chances. Dilorio and Bob Flaherty paced the Winchester batting attack as they connected for two hits apiece as eight of the Red and Black starters collected safeties.

League Of Women Voters

The annual meeting of the Winchester League of Women Voters will be held on Wednesday, May 2, at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Reginald Bradlee, 6 Ledgewood road. Mrs. Moses H. Lurie, who is a past president of the Massachusetts League, will give a report of the recent National Council meeting which she attended as a board member. At this meeting the League members will vote on the local program, the budget, and the Nominating Committee's slate of officers for 1951-52.

Early Tennis At The Country Club

Spring tennis in Winchester received one of its earliest starts when Lester Wildgus had the four courts at the Winchester Country Club ready for the spring vacation. The nets were put up on April 13 and the courts with their new "standard green" surfaces which were installed two years ago were in perfect condition. With their dark green surface, new nets, and sparkling white lines, the courts on Saturday morning gave an early season picture which would thrill any tennis enthusiast.

Corey-Wynn, Harvard freshmen tennis coach, provided a good start for tennis at the Club. Each morning through the vacation week, beginning on Saturday, April 14, he was at the courts for group instruction of the type which he and Jack Barnaby have developed so successfully at Harvard, the Duxbury Yacht Club, the Dedham Country and Polo Club, and at Marion.

A great deal of enthusiasm was shown during the week with over thirty youngsters and adults of all degrees of tennis ability participating in the group classes. Corey organized these into five different groups of six or more per group, and with five active sessions for each group considerable early season progress was made by the youngsters and members of their families who attended.

Girls predominated in the attendance, promising a good season for Winchester girls' tennis this year. Those who participated at the Club courts included:

Winchester Art Association

Dr. Herbert D. Lamson, president of the Winchester Art Association, presides as the newly elected president for the coming year at the May Day opening of the watercolor exhibition by several members of the Boston Society of Water Color Painters in the art gallery of the Public Library building next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock.

Herman Dudley Murphy, one of the prime movers in the formation of the Winchester Art Association, has his light still shining as this show goes on. He attracted Charles A. Mahoney, secretary and treasurer of the Boston Society of Water Color Painters, to that society by getting the young man to submit paintings and these paintings led to Mr. Mahoney being invited to join the society which he now serves as an officer. Mr. Mahoney is putting on this show for the Winchester Art Association. Although the members of the Boston Society are having their annual exhibit in the Boston Art Museum he has gotten an excellent collection together for this show of ours.

Forest Orr formerly of Winchester and now of Norfolk and also a member of the Boston society will show a picture. Joseph L. C. Santoro, a member of the state boxing commission will hang a picture. Dwight Shepler, combat artist, during the Second World War will also show. Charles Demetropoulis, several times winner at Jordans will have a picture hung as will William C. Hanley who recently won an award at the American Water Color Society show. Philip Parsons our friend, demonstrator at the first meeting of the season now coming to a close, and our neighbor from Lexington will have a picture for us. William Jewel, well known to members of the Winchester Art Association, is expected to show. Other members of the Boston Society of Water Color Painters, organized by John Sargent in 1885, who will hang pictures in this show are: Carrol Bill, Charles E. Richert, William Kaula, James Wingate Parr and Glenn MacNutt.

Harold F. Lindergreen who so wonderfully criticised the art work of the members of the Winchester Art Association at its last meeting, their regular annual meeting, will have a picture to show. Lester Peterson and Otis Philbrick are going to show if possible.

Again, Charles A. Mahoney, vice-president of the Winchester Art Association, will show some of his pictures to round out an excellent show.

Up from Rockport, the tip of Cape Anne, comes Miss Mae Bennett-Brown with her oils and flowers to call the brush strokes as she makes them. She is a Winchester favorite having shown here at our January meeting with Marion Ladd Symmes and last year doing a flower study with pastels for the edification and instruction of our people. She comes to us from Station Studio out on the tip of Cape Anne where she uses water color, oils and pastels. She chose oils for her demon-tration at this, our May Day meeting.

Over 200 members and guests attended the open house held by Winchester Masonic organizations at the Masonic rooms Sunday. The affair was held largely to give the many friends of the organizations opportunity to inspect the fine new quarters of Winchester Masons. Refreshments and a musical program were a feature of the afternoon.

Winchester College Club

The Annual Spring Meeting of the Winchester College Club will be held at the home of Mrs. William L. Davis, 3 Central Green, on Thursday, May 3, at 2:30 p.m. All members of the club are invited.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Harry Sherman, reader for The Book of the Month Club, and the wife of its head. She is Associate Editor of The Ladies Home Journal and a columnist who writes under the name of Bernadine Kielty.

Mrs. Sherman has recently returned from an adventuresome visit to Africa, and her subject, "Impressions of Africa — 1951", is bound to be full of interest.

Members are reminded that dues for 1951 - 1952 are payable at this meeting.

Jr. Mrs. Guild

At the annual meeting of the Jr. Mrs. Guild of the First Congregational Church on Tuesday, April 17, officers for the year 1951 - 52 were elected as follows: Director — Mrs. Lawrence H. Pexton, Assistant director — Mrs. Erskine H. Kelley, Jr., Recording secretary — Mrs. Carleton H. Clogston and Corresponding secretary — Mrs. Clifford M. Hammell. Chairmen of the committees were elected as follow: Devotional — Mrs. Seymour Russell, Finance — Mrs. Otis Jason, Membership — Mrs. Herbert F. Ross and Mrs. J. Wilson Lorne, Program — Mrs. Robert M. Mulford, Social — Mrs. George B. Heath, Nominating — Mrs. Charles W. Tozier, Publicity — Mrs. Lawrence E. Beckley, Project — Mrs. Charles H. Ungerman and Fair Table — Mrs. John U. Monro.

Home again in Winchester, Massachusetts, after a recent vacation in the Sun Colony area are Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Norton, their daughter, Elizabeth, and son, Lawrence. They were guests at the Nautical Aire Apartments in Delray Beach during their Florida visit.

To Get In The Paper

Editor of the Star:

It was interesting — in Bill Cunningham's talk here — to get from a newspaper man a frank confession of the generally known fact that what makes news is crime and misdoing in general, which command columns where virtue gets a paragraph. In the current issue of Time, Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen holds forth on a similar theme.

"There is great goodness in the world," says he, "but it is unsung and unheralded. To get into the papers these days, all you have to do is break one of the Ten Commandments." Well, of course that is true, and has been ever since the episode of the prodigal son. Judging by the type of newspaper most in evidence these days, it may even be suspected that the errant members of mankind act as a sort of mental catnip for those others who enjoy the comparative monotony of virtuous, well-ordered lives!

But neither Bill nor Msgr. Sheen mention the fact that fundamentally this denotes a healthy situation — that there is great encouragement to be had in the fact that evil-doing is still news, and that the front page of the average newspaper can contain the outstanding acts of crime for the entire country. In other words, the average citizen, constituting the great mass of mankind, still minds his own business, respects the law, pays his taxes, and tries to support his family. When the decent, self-respecting citizen becomes newsworthy, and the front pages carry the intimate details of his activities, then we really have to worry!

Sincerely,
Rupert F. Jones

Old Fashioned Community Helpfulness

Editor of the Star:

On Saturday, April 21st, we witnessed a demonstration of old-fashioned community helpfulness. Thirty Boy Scouts and four Scout leaders gathered at the Winchester Hospital in the morning with their rakes, baskets and a truck and began the arduous task of cleaning the Hospital grounds. The boys worked all day with only a break for lunch and an occasional "coke." It was hard work, but they kept at it as if they were being paid for piece work. When they had finished, many truckloads of the winter's accumulation of leaves and debris had been removed. The hospital had been saved considerable expense.

This observer was given new faith in the American way of doing things. Because, through this good deed it was demonstrated that communities can handle many of their own problems by this old-fashioned "help your neighbor" custom. Perhaps if we had more of this spirit there would be less excuse for Government interference into our society.

We thank the Boy Scouts for their very good deed.

Attention! Please

Editor of the Star:

I am writing this with the earnest hope that it may be read by the person who recently used mice seed out of doors. I am sure this strychnine poison was put out for the express purpose for which it is compounded with no thought of the dire consequences that could ensue. My dog was the victim, on Saturday and it is only through prompt action and the care of a fine veterinarian that he is alive — still a sick dog. The emetic given by the doctor proved the presence of the mice seed. I am sure if anyone could have witnessed the suffering of this animal he or she would gladly refrain from outdoor use of this poison. My plea is for the future of other dogs and cats.

Portion of Rigging Class, 319th Engineer Battalion 94th Reserve Division. Lieutenant William S. Hennessey instructing.

Editor of the Star:

On the invitation of Maj. General Ralph A. Palladino, Commanding General of the 94th Reserve Division, the writer recently spent an evening at the Army Base attending class with the Reservists. This was an educational experience — but probably quite a shock to the officers and men of the 94th.

The above picture shows a portion of a class being conducted by 1st Lt. William S. Hennessey of the 319th Engineers. The subject being discussed was "Rigging" and, as the subject was entirely over the head of the writer, it provided a good opportunity to study the caliber of the men and amount of interest being shown. Both were high. Having in mind the tremendous job the Engineers are doing in Korea, the ingenuity they are displaying in order to overcome the difficult terrain, it was with a good deal of admiration the writer watched these veterans, still serving their country, keeping up with latest developments and training the non-veteran youngsters who are joining them.

The second class we attended was conducted by Captain William P. Callahan and the subject was "Military Courtesy." Here the writer was more at home. After the showing of a film, questions and answers flew fast and furious. A great deal of stress was placed on the salute, the necessity of which the civilian does not always understand. Without self-discipline and military courtesy an army would be nothing but a mob.

The mission of the Active Reserve is to furnish, in event of national emergency, units effectively organized, trained and equipped in peacetime, for rapid mobilization, expansion and deployment. The training consists of 24, two hour, evening training periods and two weeks summer camp. Training pay is a full day's pay for each two hour drill period and the summer camp is paid also. Age of enlistment 18 - 34 years 017 years with parent's consent) provided enlistee has not received a notice from Selective Service to take a physical examination. Enlistment can be for 3 - 5 - 6 years.

Space does not permit for the listing of the many advantages obtainable under the Active Reserve program, but full information can be obtained in Winchester from the Public Relations Unit recently set up under Lt. Lester Gustin, or the writer; or, if you are near the Army Base, stop in and see Major W. S. Hart, 4th Floor, or call him at LIberty 2-6000, Ext. 515. The writer has found him to be one of the most cooperative men in the U. S. Army.

Many people ask "What are Reguhar Army officers doing with the Reserves?" Under the Career Management Plan for officers of the U. S. Army they will serve a period of duty with the Reserve Components — National Guard, ROTC, etc.

The writer highly recommends service with the 94th Reserve Division and appreciates highly the courtesy shown her during the recent visit to the Army Base by Major General Palladino and all his officers.

Cordially yours,
G. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Company

Appreciation

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the Winchester Fire and Police Departments for their magnificent work in handling the fire in the White Block, which houses my drug store, on Wednesday, April 18, 1951. They succeeded in keeping the loss at a minimum and brought the blaze under control in an amazingly short time. I would also like to express my thanks to my friendly neighbors, Mr. T. P. Wilson, and Clay Spector of the Hillside Paint, for the use of their premises for temporary storage. Everyone was most courteous and sympathetic during our trouble and we want to assure all our good friends that we shall be back at our same location as soon as possible with a new face and tops in service.

Thank You

To all those who were so kind when we were burned out last Wednesday please except our deepest thanks and appreciation for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Oubray Barksdale and family.

Last Call For Cancer Drive

The 1951 Cancer Drive is entering the final week. It is earnestly hoped that those who have not yet made their contribution this year will do so before April 30th, so that Winchester's goal of $5,000 may be assured. Please make checks payable and send to Davenport F. Davis, Treasurer, Winchester Trust Co., Winchester, Mass.

Story Hours At The Library

Again Saturday morning at 10:15 in the Public Library Art Gallery, Miss Elizabeth Russell, Children's Librarian, will hold Story Hour. The usual candle ceremony will take place promptly at 10:15. Story Hour will last until about 11 o'clock.

It is planned to continue this series of Saturday morning Story Hours through the month of May.

It is not necessary to have tickets for the Story Hours. Boys and girls through the fifth grade are invited to the Story Hours.

Forum Sunday At Church

Sunday morning, the members of the Forum of the First Congregational Church will attend the morning church service, sitting together in the balcony, regular chapel service. Dr. Chidley will preach a youth sermon, "What's the Use?" The Chaplain for the service will be Robert Burnham. Ushers will be Andrew Robertson, Peter Perkins, Richard Phippen, Gordon Bird, Jr., Richard Fernandez, David Snow, and Douglas Hawkins. The offering will be received by Donald Cameron, Richard Rush, Jr., Archie Bolster, Scott Cunningham, Ed Wandt, Jr., and Robert Traut. The Junior choir will sing.

In the afternoon, the First Congregational Church will be host to 300 young people of the Woburn Association Pilgrim Fellowship. The program will begin with registration at 2:30. The theme for the rally is "There's a U in the U. N.," and four seminars will be held led by youth leaders who accompanied various youth groups on trips to the United Nations. Elections of officers will be held at the business session. At 6:00, the young people will assemble in the Social Hall for supper, followed by evening worship and installation of the new officers. The evening speaker will be Rev. Robert Little, of the Dane Street Congregational Church in Beverly, whose topic will be, "The Do's and Don'ts of Dating." Donald Cameron, Chairman of the Forum Worship Committee, is the Forum's representative in the Association, and has been active in making the plans. The rally will close at 8:00.

Cars will leave the church tonight at 7:00 with a group of Forum members who will go to the Massachusetts Home in Boston to entertain the elderly ladies who live there. This is a service project of the Forum sponsored by the Deputations Committee under the leadership of Sue Melanson. Musical numbers, skits, readings, a ballet chorus will bring pleasure to a group of women who are looking forward to this contact with enthusiastic young people.

On Friday, May 4, Dan Briggs, Caller Extraordinary, will be in the Social Hall to lead an evening of fun in square dancing, polkas, schottisches, couples' dances,—lots of variety and lots of fun. Forum members who were present for the dance he led last November have been asking when he was coming again. So this is it! A large crowd is expected.

D. A. R.

Mrs. Charles M. Jenkins of 18 Mystic Valley Parkway was hostess to the Boston Tea Party Chapter, D. A. R., at its regular meeting Tuesday, April 24. The speaker of the afternoon was Commander Henry C. Nichols of the First Naval District, Boston, who gave an inspiring address on early naval engagements and the history of our flag. He is the author of a recent and highly commended book, "The Voice at Sea." Winchester members present included Mrs. Horace deRivera, Mrs. Allen S. Farquhar, Mrs. Harry M. Easton and Mrs. Blanche S. Barnard. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Arthur E. Dorr and Mrs. Francis R. Henderson.

The work of cleaning out the debris of the McCormack Drug Store, which was gutted by fire last week, is progressing rapidly. Although the store was almost completely burned out, Mr. McCormack is continuing to do business, handling it from his Billerica store. The entire inside of his Winchester store will have to be refinished, with new fixtures, floors and lighting.

Bay State Historical League

The Spring Meeting of the League was held in Tuckerman Hall of the Worcester Women's Club on Saturday, April 21 at 2 p. m. and was a very well-planned and executed affair; an out-standing occasion.

The President, Mr. Charles Tapley of Danvers, introduced the Hon. George R. Stubbs, President of the Worcester Historical Society, whose subject was "Some interesting events in Worcester History." Raids by the neighboring Nipmuc Indians drove the settlers back east many times, in fact, they destroyed the first two settlements in 1667 and 1685 (Quinsigmund Plantations). Finally a permanent village was established, and in 1731 Worcester became the County Seat, and its growth and prosperity began. He said the reason for this was due to the vision of its many illustrious citizens, who were either born in Worcester or became famous there.

After the lecture the ladies of the Historical Society staged a wonderful "Old-fashioned Fashion Show," showing very benutiful 1800 to 1875 costumes owned now by the Society. The models were introduced by the two narrators (also in costumes), who described the costumes and personalities who originally wore the dresses, many of which were silk and satin wedding gowns made in Paris.

Then everyone was invited next door to the Historical Society Building for sandwiches, cakes, coffee and strawberry punch.

The Society has a splendid collection of Indian relics, early American furniture and furnishings, silver, china, costumes and all kinds of implements. They also own models illustrating the city's many industries. Some exhibits were displayed by separate sections furnished as different rooms in early homes. One alcove was filled with pictures, gifts, medals, etc. of a famous Worcester sea captain, who had rescued many shipwrecked persons — Captain Fried.

The Worcester Art Museum was nearby, and their collection, and their paintings, silver, pottery, etc. is most notable.

The following members of the Winchester Historical Society attended: Miss Clara Russell, Mrs. P. J. Glendon, Misses Laura Tolman, Violet Williamson, Susie Gustin, Eleanor and Louise Bancroft.

Correction

Last week's edition of the Staf, in its account of the High School Vaudeville, stated, "Favorably received at the Friday matinee was a toe and acrobatic dancer, Noreen Johnson."

The young lady who actually danced and performed the difficult acrobatics was Miss Janet Keene.

The Star deeply regrets this error and hastens to apologize.

Reading room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson Street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The immortality of man, made in God's own likeness, will be made clear to the congregations in all Christian Science services next Sunday. Subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Probation After Death."

The Golden Text is from Proverbs 21:16,21: "The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead . . . He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour."

Selections from the Bible include this statement from Isaiah 26:7: "The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following: No final judgment awaits mortals, for the judgment-day of wisdom comes hourly and continually, even the judgment by which mortal man is divested of all material error." (p. 291)

Glee Club Sang Concert In Reading

Winchester's Mystic Glee Club, which will present its Eleventh Annual Spring Concert next week, recently sang a concert in Reading, Mass. Sponsored by the Missionary Group of the Old South Methodist Church, the Club, under the leadership of Keith Snyder, appeared at the Church on April 18th. The concert, which was in a sense a preview of the forthcoming Winchester appearance, included a variety of selections, ranging from the deeply religious through folktunes and Spirituals to show tunes and humorous numbers.

The audience cordially received the Club, which is not unknown in Reading, since the conductor and seven of its active members live in that town. After the concert, refreshments were served.

Since then, activities have been centered on readying the program for presentation at Winchester High School on Friday evening, May 4th at 8:15. Featured artist will be Charles Castleman, 9 year old violin virtuoso.

Although largely subscribed by the Sponsoring Members, there is a limited number of Concert tickets available at the present time. They may be obtained at the Mouradian Rug Co., 34 Church street.

Forum Spring Conference A Great Success

On Saturday, April 21, at 7:30, two busses of the Gray Line drove into the yard of the First Congregational Church and disgorged 70 passengers, — 63 young people and 7 adult leaders, — who had spent a never-to-be-forgotten week together at Lake Mohonk, New York. Parents and friends were on hand to welcome them home, having been notified by telephone at about what time the busses would arrive.

On Sunday morning at the Forum service at 9:30, nine young people attempted to put into words what the conference had meant to them. They found it a difficult task but succeeded in transmitting their enthusiasm and their buoyant spirit. Harris MacDonald told about Lake Mohonk itself, a place of indescribable beauty with miles of paths and trails, cliffs, lake and mountain scenery, and the Rondout Valley, a patchwork of farms and tiny settlements. Five young people, Robert Burnham, Gordon Bird, Jr., Carol Damon, Marjorie Dexter, and Donald Cameron, gave the highlights from the discussion groups they had attended on Bible (New Testament under Rev. William R. Valentine, Jr., and Christian Beliefs (under Rev. William R. Valentine, Jr.) and Christian Beliefs (under Rev. William R. Valentine, Jr.) respectively. Prescott Keyes told about the afternoon Interest Groups, Choir, Folk-dancing, Recreational Leadership, Newspaper — the Skyline Journal — Dramatic Club and Skit Group. Douglas Hawkins told about the fun that had been enjoyed during the week, highlights being the Treasure Hunt, the Talent Show, the group singing, the hike to the Pine Forest, and just the fun of being together, hiking, boating, horseback riding, and enjoying themselves on the 7,500 acres of Lake Mohonk property. The group shared some of the songs they had enjoyed during the week. The service was brought to a climax with Dorothy Brandt's account of the meaningful worship experiences they had had during the week.

Morning Watch, chapel and vespers, the Gaithean service beside the lake, and the closing Communion candlelight service. David Archibald and Richard Rush, Jr., were the chaplains for the service. The Offering was received by Richard Avery and John Merritt.

The conference was a memorable experience, the biggest project the Forum has ever undertaken and it paid the richest dividends, in fun, fellowship, and personal living.

Mrs. F. Duane Hawkins of Winchester, was the conference mother and proved to be a wonderful addition to the staff, always being at the right place at the right time with just the right word of helpfulness when she was needed. "Daddy" Warmingham, "Ted" Cowles, "Bill" and "Mona" Valentine together with the Tarrs of our own church made a staff that the young people felt could hardly have been better. As one boy said to his mother upon his return, "You couldn't have bought this week with a million dollars."

Town Softball League

A meeting of the managers of all teams interested in joining the Town Softball League will be held at the Legion Home next Monday evening, April 30, at eight o'clock. Managers of teams that were members of the League last season are especially urged to attend as well as representatives of any other groups who wish to enter the League this year.

The Town Softball League program will be conducted this year by the Board of Park Commissioners and Ted Bartlett, who organized the League five years ago, will again serve as League Director. It is planned to open the League schedule on May 14 which leaves only two short weeks to get the League organized, schedules drawn up, and teams in condition to play.

Winchester Hospital News

On Tuesday evening, April 24th, the 39th Annual Meeting of the Winchester Hospital was held at the Nurses' Home. Reports of the officials of the Hospital and representatives of the various groups affiliated with the Hospital were read. The theme running through most of the reports was that the Hospital has made considerable progress during the past year, but that it has been a difficult year from the financial standpoint, due to the rising cost of operation. The two events receiving the most comment were — the organization of the "Friends of the Winchester Hospital," and the construction of the new addition.

The following new Directors and Trustees were elected: —

Directors for three years:
Erastus B. Badger; James F. Dwinell, Jr.; Winsome A. Brown (Mrs. Fulton); Vincent Farnsworth, Jr.; President of En Ka Society (Mrs. Thomas M. Righter, Jr.); President of Winton Club (Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker); President of District Nurse Association (Mrs. Henry E. Moffette); President of Winchester Hospital Alumnae Association (Claire Kiley).

Director for two years:
Roberta S. Avery (Mrs. Paul F.);

Trustee for three years:
Herman E. Pike

Trustee for one year:
William F. Morton

The same officers as the preceding year, headed by Mr. Edward H. Kenerson as President of the Board, were renominated. Vice-President, Mr. Gilbert H. Hood; Secretary, Mr. Charles Y. Wadsworth, and Treasurer, Mr. Ralph W. Hatch.

Tennis Clinic Ready To Roll

With the help of Joe Corish, well-known organizer of tennis clinics and donator of the Corish Cup for inter-sectional competition, the Winchester Tennis Association is again sponsoring a tennis clinic of three sessions, to be held from 10:00 to 12:00 a. m. on the next three Saturdays (April 28, May 5, May 12). Players who are in the sixth grade or over are invited to sign up for the series (at no charge) by telephoning either Henry Fitts or James Ware, whose phone numbers are given below. The first meeting will be held this Saturday, April 28, 10:00 a. m. in the high school auditorium. Mr. Corish will speak and instruct the assembled group, and following his talk Don Budge's movie on tennis fundamentals will be shown. Please do not bring rackets to this first meeting, but do bring a pencil and a notebook. Come at the last minute, even if you have not signed up, but please try to register ahead of time. Parents and other interested nonplayers are equally welcome, particularly at the first meeting. Later meetings will be held on the following two Saturday mornings at the Packer Courts on Palmer street.

Edward McKenzie has passed his whole life in Winchester and upon completion of his course at Winchester High School, he was accepted at Dartmouth College. A serious ear affliction interfered with those plans, however, and Ed settled down to work locally, conducting for many years a successful gardening business.

He married Miss Mary Burke of South Boston in 1899 and seven children blessed their ideally happy union. Young Bill died in his 15th year, and Mrs. McKenzie passed away in August 1945, leaving a wide gap in the closely-knit family circle. Another son, John, is in Florida. The early family home was on Middlesex street from which the family moved to a new home on Hemingway street in 1924.

For the past few years the McKenzies have occupied their present residence on Symmes road. It is noteworthy that whole families of neighbors from their two former neighborhoods were present at the celebration as were the newer neighbors in the Symmes corner section.

During the evening part of the birthday program several talented guests favored the gathering with piano and vocal selections. The many guests enjoyed the bounteous collation and the pleasure of meeting old friends.

The following priests were present Rev. Samuel Matthews of Baltimore, Maryland; Rev. Thomas F. Ferris, Millis St. Thomas Church, Millis; Rev. Paul S. Barry, Holy Cross College; Rev. Joseph P. Mahoney; Rev. James P. Ryan of Medford; Rev. Frederick Brigham, Winchester. Also, Winchester Town Officials were present, almost everyone of them, to offer their felicitations.

Thirty-two years ago Ed became Winchester Reporter and Commentator for the Woburn Daily Times and it has been as such well-known local figure that he has been in touch with so many residents of this and the surrounding towns. Years ago he served as Manager for several local ball teams and also officiated as umpire at many games. Thus he became to many the local "Connie Mark."

At the close of his birthday party the genial Ed was pretty well exhausted with hand shaking and listening to stories of the old days and we understand that on Monday morning, for the first weekday in thirty-two years, he didn't take the 6:30 bus to Woburn.

A friend of the host, who is an amateur poet, contributed a congratulatory poem for his birthday celebration. We quote a few of the stanzas, chosen at random:

Dear Ed:
Birthdays are the milestones
And, all along the track,
We look in two directions —
Forward and back.

To few is given your reward
As, looking back you see
The years that sped so swiftly
Now you're eighty-three.

Your life's been filled with interests —
Baseball, parties, christening, dead,
And — how the old town should be run —

— You told 'em, Ed.
And always in your writing
No dirt besmirched the line;
You knew and kept our secrets —
A neighbor fine.

Good luck and may long happy years
For you lie straight ahead;
These wishes come from all your friends;
Congratulations, Ed!

Pfc. James (Boy) Cogan son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Cogan of 8 Richardson street is attending Officers' Candidate School at Fort Riley, Kansas. James enlisted in the army last October and has been stationed at Camp Atterbury, Indiana, in the Medical Corp.

Junior Rifle Club

The Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks have for years sponsored and provided the money for many Youth Activities. These activities took the form of baseball, football, basketball, and softball teams, Boy Scout troops, swimming teams, and many other forms of activities that would keep the youth of our country busy and happy. Winchester Lodge of Elks now are providing for the Junior Rifle Teams of Winchester, medals, brassards, and pins to keep the young of Winchester interested and active in this sport.

This year in addition we are giving a trophy to the boy and girl with the best record, not only for shooting excellence but also for Sportsmanship. Many of our citizens do not know about this education of the young boys and girls that has been going on for some years. Coached by Mr. Ralph Schadt and Mr. Hendrickson at the rifle range on Park street they learn not only how to shoot but also how to handle a rifle, how to care for them, and to be very careful in the handling of all firearms.

These girls and boys all are members of the N.R.A. and must abide by their rules. Mr. Schadt and Mr. Hendrickson give freely of their time and experience in coaching the club and deserve the thanks not only of the parents but the townspeople also for their fine work.

Guild Of The Infant Saviour

On last Tuesday, April 24th, the Annual meeting of the Chapter was held in Masonic Hall. A good representation of our members was noted.

President Mrs. John T. Lennon conducted the meeting and introduced our guest speaker Rev. Father Kearny, assistant director of the Catholic Charitable Bureau, Boston.

The annual report was read by Mrs. Carl Thomas, secretary. Mrs. Thomas gave a general outline of the work accomplished during this our Twentieth Anniversary Year. The financial and spiritual results of our efforts during this period are most heartening. More than five hundred little garments have been sent in to the Bureau this year.

The reports of the various committee chairmen including that of Treasurer Mrs. Martin P. Higgins, were convincingly reassuring. Our steady progress has given us hope of greater security in the years to come.

Our two vice-presidents, Mrs. Eugene O'Keefe and Mrs. Theodore Dissel are co-chairmen of the Annual Communion breakfast to take place on next Sunday, April 29th at St. Mary's Church. The Mass will be celebrated at 8 o'clock, breakfast immediately following at Town Line, Woburn. Members of the committee assisting are: treasurer Mrs. John G. Gorman, Mrs. Frederick L. Patten, Mrs. Leo T. Manoli, Mrs. Hugh F. McPartland. Ushers for the Mass will be past presidents, Mrs. Virgil Ghirardini and Mrs. Chester J. Powers.

Father Kearny gave a most interesting talk on his work as Chaplain in the Army. Having had experience in that line during the late war Fr. Kearny has given intelligent attention to the many problems which are bound to arise in that position. At least one boy was saved from court martial by his timely advice and understanding.

The next event of importance is the coming Annual Luncheon and Bridge on May 17th at Bear Hill Country Club. Mrs. Manlino G. Moffet and Mrs. Clarence Dunbury are working hard for its success.

D. A. R.

Mrs. Harry S. Parsons of 73 Bacon street opened her home on Monday afternoon, April 23rd for the annual meeting of the Committee of Safety Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The Regent, Mrs. William W. Goodhue presided over the meeting which included a gratifying report of the recent dance sponsored by the Ways and Means Committee, Mrs. Charles M. Vanner, Chairman; annual reports and the election of delegates to the Fall State meeting, October 4 - 5 at the New Ocean House, Swampscott.

The delegates are Mrs. William W. Goodhue, Mrs. Raymond C. Strawbridge, Mrs. Charles M. Vanner and Miss Clara R. Russell. The alternates are Mrs. Earle E. Andrews, Miss Louise J. Banerveft, Mrs. Francis P. Carlson, Mrs. Paul F. Stoneman, Mrs. Howard H. P. Wright, Mrs. Harold M. Twombly, Mrs. George H. Peckham and Mrs. Marshall W. Symmes.

The guest speaker of the afternoon was Eleanor March Moody, specialist in the Fiduciary Field of Law and member of the Supreme Court of the United States since 1939. She gave an interesting, informative and most enlightening talk on "Wills".

Mrs. Parsons was assisted by the following tea committee. Mrs. Harold F. French, Mrs. Charles A. Grant, Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, Mrs. Samuel E. Perkins, Miss Clara R. Russell, Mrs. Rony Snyder, Mrs. Harry T. Winn and Mrs. Richard A. Harlow.

Winchester Home And Garden Club

On Wednesday, April 18 many members of the Winchester Home and Garden Club took advantage of a beautiful day to attend the meeting at the home of Mrs. John B. Wills, who is always a most gracious hostess.

At 2 p. m. Mrs. Frank J. Robinson, the President, greeted the members and called attention to the following notices: The Russell Jonquil Garden in Dedham is now in blossom.

On Monday, April 30, the Federation Horticultural Committee meeting is to be held in their Hall at 10:30 a. m. The speaker will be F. Caroll Sargent on "Flowering Shrubs through the Spring." Any Club member is welcome.

East Regional Federation Meeting will be held at DeCordova Museum in Lincoln on May 8 at 10 a. m. The Lincoln Garden Club is in charge of the Flower Show at the Museum, as well as the opening of several contemporary and colonial houses and gardens from 11:30 to 3 p. m.

The Federation is planning a Pop Concert Night and Flower Show at Symphony Hall on May 21.

Mrs. Norman N. Mitchell, Horticultural Chairman, gave some timely advice on fertilizing lawns so that they may be greener and better this year.

The speaker of the afternoon was Miss Theodore Melanhouri of Boston, who gave careful and minute directions for planting many annuals and perennials in her talk, "Planting the Garden; Transplanting: Shade Plants," illustrated with cards showing gay prints of the plants mentioned.

Following the meeting, Mrs. Wills, assisted by Mrs. George French, Social Chairman and her committee, served tea and fancy sandwiches.

Antique Show And Sale

The Antique Show and Sale to be held in The Parish Hall of the Church of the Epiphany from 1:00 to 9:00 p. m. on May 9th and 10th will have twenty-five booths exhibiting small Antiques. During this Show and Sale a snack bar will be open where sandwiches, cakes and coffee will be sold. Mrs. Fred E. A. Smith and Mrs. John Bledsoe are co-chairmen of this event which promises to be a most interesting one. Mrs. Harlow Russell assisted by Mrs. Robert Lewis is in charge of the Food Committee and they are aided by Mrs. Alexander P. Aitken, Mrs. Warren Shoemaker, Mrs. Richard Frazier, Mrs. Edward Schenck, Mrs. Hollis Dyer, Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth.

Mrs. Harry Whiton is chairman of the telephone committee. Mrs. Donald Wright, Mrs. John K. Colony and Mrs. Kern Folkers are chairmen of the Ticket Committee which includes: Mrs. Davenport Brown, Mrs. Richard Page, Mrs. Mrs. Donald Bowman, Mrs. Richard Bateman, Mrs. Phinehas Newton, Mrs. Howard Richardson, Mrs. Warren Haley, Mrs. Richard Hopkins, Mrs. Henry Fitts, Mrs. John Willis, Mrs. James Moran, Mrs. Rolliston Linscott, Mrs. R. Ronald Wyman, Mrs. John MacLellan and Mrs. Edward Bennett.

Lobster Luncheon At Epiphany

The members of the Parish of the Epiphany and their friends will be delighted to know that the Annual Lobster Luncheon will take place on Wednesday, May 3rd in the Parish Hall. This annual event is always pleasurably anticipated and remembered by those who have the chance to attend it. Again the very capable chairman will be Mrs. Ray E. Munger and her able committee: Mrs. William Priest, Mrs. Frank Madge, Mrs. Gerald Curtis, Mrs. Ernest Knoettner, Mrs. Albert Parker, Mrs. Malcolm Cook, Mrs. Ronald Fletcher, and Mrs. Arthur Farrell. In charge of tickets is Mrs. Lloyd Wallis.

Reservations have already been made by: Mrs. Bowen Tufts, Mrs. Robert Thomason, Mrs. Marens B. May, Mrs. H. G. Davy, Mrs. Frank Booth, Mrs. Gerald Hills, Mrs. Dwight Hadley, Mrs. Warren Shoemaker, Mrs. F. C. Bowes, Mrs. Clarence Perkins, Mrs. France Votaw, Mrs. Paul Roeray, Mrs. Maxwell Fish, and Mrs. Robert G. Abbott.

Baptist Youth Fellowship

This Friday night, April 27th, is the Monthly Fun-Nite for the Baptist Youth Fellowship. There will be games, square dancing and refreshments. All Junior and Senior High people are invited.

On Sunday evening, April 29th, the Youth Fellowship will meet as usual at the Church. Because last Sunday's film "Boy Dates Girl" did not arrive in time for showing it will be shown this Sunday. There will be a lively discussion on this subject, so come and give us your views.

The Bible Exhibit sponsored by the young people is growing rapidly. There are many excellent ones, both old and new. If you have an unusual one, please contact Mr. Chapple so that it may be put on exhibition. These Bibles will be displayed in the Chapel very shortly, so be looking for them. This project has been a worthwhile and educational one for the young people.

Methodist Youth Fellowship

This coming Sunday at 6:30 p. m., the Methodist Youth Fellowship will have a Family Night, with invitations extended to all the parents. Robert Surtees, co-president, will have charge of devotions. There will be a panel led by three of the members of the Fellowship and three parents. The discussion will be on the responsibility of the teen-ager in the home and in the church.

Department of Education Certifies Winchester

Winchester High School has again been approved as a High School in Class A according to an announcement received earlier this month from A. Russell Mack, Supervisor of Secondary Education for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

New Train Time Sunday

The spring and summer schedule of trains on the B & M will go into effect this coming Sunday, April 29. The new timetables will carry all train times in daylight saving time.

Winchester will not be greatly affected by the new changes. Minor changes in departure and arrival of existing trains should be noted and the train taken off last fall but restored as a "special" will be continued as a regular.

Convenient pocket size timetables showing the new schedule may be obtained of the following:

E. H. Butterworth, Jeweler.
M. G. Moffett, Taxi and Funeral Service.
W. Allan Wilde, Insurance.
Winchester Co-operative Bank.
Winchester National Bank.

Comes the Daylight Saving

We grinned at each other as we got aboard the train at the North Station. We'd had a nodding acquaintance before, but now we were both carrying long-handled cultivators. That gave us a lot in common.

"I see you're getting ready to make the most of Daylight Saving too," I said.

"You bet," he agreed. "Comes in Sunday. And it can't come any too soon to suit me!"

"That extra hour means a lot to us gardeners," I said. We sat down togetber, making sure we didn't clip anybody with our cultivator bandles.

I put my bead back with a comfortable sigb. "You really can relax on the train," I said.

"Sure can," he agreed, "and when you get home, you feel like some strenuous gardening. Your tulips bloomed yet?"

"I go more for vegetables," I said. "The Missus grows the flowers — no tulips, though."

The conductor put in a word as he took our tickets. "There's nothing like flowering shrubs," he told us.

"Say," said my new friend suddenly, "are the B and M timetables going to be in Daylight Saving Time this year?"

"Sure are," the conductor nodded. "But you'd better pick up a new one before next week. There may be one or two changes in train schedules."

"That's all right by me." My seat mate shifted his cultivator. "Long as timetable times agree with my watch."

"Don't worry," said the conductor. "It'll be just like a year ago. You won't have to do any adding or subtracting at all."

"Fine," I said. "I can concentrate on the garden!"

As we got off at our station my fellow-cultivator took a deep breath. "Say," he remarked, "it sure is nice to tbink it'll be broad daylight this time next Monday!"

"You bet!" I nodded — "and no timetable trouble either. Good old Daylight Saving!"

Red Cross News

Veterans and their friends and families were much cheered last week when the Winchester Chapter took charge of refreshments at the Open House on Sunday afternoon at the Bedford Veterans' Hospital.

Canteen Chairman Mrs. R. E. Maugee was ably assisted by Mrs. William O. Thompson in arranging the lace covered tea table which was attractively decorated, and supervising the many details to make such a party a success.

Serving were: Marjorie Geerts, Ann Thompson and Janet Johnson, while Miss Alice Gaffney of the Motor Corps was the driver.

At the Sunday afternoon teas, veterans act as hosts for their visitors and coffee, cakes and cookies are served.

Mrs. George Dutting, Executive Director of the Red Cross, is happy to announce this week the appointment of Mr. F. D. Weafer, of 170 Mt. Vernon street, High School Math teacher, as Chairman of First Aid. Mr. Weafer taught Standard First Aid and Advanced First Aid classes during World War II. Classes in First Aid are now in progress with Sgt. Edward Bowler, instructor, and Mr. Gerald Hills teaching the advanced class. In a few weeks a class will be formed for Instructors. Auxiliary Police will be taught First Aid by Sgt. Bowler, assisted by Mr. Weafer. Auxiliary Firemen will also have a course. Mr. Weafer is anxious to have all graduates of the Advanced Course now take the Instructor's course.

It was announced that Mrs. S. Kennedy Tully of 556 South Border road, formerly Publicity Chairman of the Blood Program, would replace Stillman Hilton of the Boston American, who resigned as Publicity Chairman, coordinating both offices.

After working on the first two Community Fund campaigns at Boston Headquarters, Mrs. Tully worked two years with the Motion Picture Research Council, two years at the Yankee Network News Service and five years at the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee.

Upon completion of the Gray Lady course, Mrs. Virgil J. Ghirardini of 12 Foxcroft road, was hostess at morning coffee recently for the graduates and, after a delightful social hour, Mrs. George A. Dutting, Executive Director, announced the following ladies are now ready to serve officially as Red Cross Gray Ladies.

Mrs. Guy E. Brooks
Mrs. James Coon
Mrs. Daniel J. Doherty
Mrs. Robert E. Dutting
Mrs. B. R. Finn
Mrs. Norman Hall
Mrs. James B. Harlow
Mrs. George S. Hebb
Mrs. Frank Herrick
Mrs. Arthur Johns
Mrs. George A. Kean, Jr.
Mrs. Waldo V. Lyon
Mrs. James C. Marchant
Mrs. O. W. Merrow
Mrs. Lewis K. Moore
Mrs. Denton Randall
Mrs. Herman E. Shane
Mrs. Richard W. Wyman

In explaining the duties of this group, Mrs. T. Parker Clarke, the Chairman, said that Gray Ladies have been working at the Winchester Hospital since October, 1950.

The Red Cross canteen workers were on the job at the White Building, McCormack's Apothecary fire on Wednesday morning from 8 a. m. to 12:30 noon, serving coffee and donuts to the firemen, police and other workers.

Will Reside On Madison Avenue

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley F. Kimball have recently taken the house at 16 Madison avenue and will make their future home in Winchester. Mr. Kimball is associated with the Container Corporation of America as packaging engineer. He is a member of the Finance Committee of the Town of Belmont and a member of Joseph Warren Lodge, AF and AM, and vestryman of All Saints Church, Belmont. Mrs. Kimball is active in the Belmont Garden Club and Belmont Women's Club. Their daughter Janet, a graduate of Stephens Junior College and Museum of Fine Arts School, is doing graduate work at the latter institution.

Boy Scout News

Doing their "good turn" in the last Boy Scout tradition 24 Winchester Boy Scouts carried out one of their community service projects by cleaning the Winchester Hospital grounds on Saturday, April 21. Those scouts participating in the cleaning up of the winters' accumulation of leaves and debris and helping to beautify the hospital grounds were:

Troop 1
Danny McLeod
Harrison McLeod
Gerald Port

Troop 6
Robert Carter
David Gowing

Troop 7

James Caulfield
Peter Dee
Richard DeMinico
Eddie Fitzgerald
David Fortiere
Edward Joyce

At the wheel of the dump truck furnished by the Park Department was Jack Aubrey, while Scout Commissioner Jim Muncaster neighborhood Commissioner Elmer Ripley and District Committee chairman A. Ben Gowing assisted at the rake handle — Ernest Fitzsimmons, Superintendent of the hospital maintenance department supervised operations.

Some Potatoes

What might have been a serious accident occurred on Tuesday noon on Mt. Pleasant street when a delivery truck, loaded mostly with potatoes, rolled backward on Mt. Pleasant street. The driver stopped near the residence of Mr. Harris Richardson, but his brakes failed to hold and the truck began to roll backward down the steep street.

Mr. Harrison Wagner, who was walking in the street on the opposite side, was struck a glancing blow by the truck and knocked down, the truck continuing on until its rear end struck a tree which stopped it.

Potatoes jolted out of the truck and rolled to the bottom of the hill, and although Dr. Dennett endeavored to rescue some of the load, the quantity to be salvaged proved too much for him and he gave the task up — for more agile helpers.

The almost new truck was badly wrecked in the rear end. Mr. Wagner apparently escaped without serious damage. The driver, who stuck to the truck, escaped likewise.

Scoutorama At Tufts Tomorrow

Look out Medford, Woburn, Stoneham and Burlington is the cry of Winchester's Cub Scouts, Scouts, and Senior Scouts this week when on Saturday, April 28th the annual Scoutorama or Exposition will be held at Tufts College Gym. The time for adults is 1:30 p. m. until 10:00 p. m. One can attend and view the contests for a while and enjoy the various refreshments, take in the various booth displays in the adjoining baseball cage building part of the gym. There is seating capacity for 3,000 at least in the gym proper and besides the contests there will be demonstrations and skits. In the early evening there will be movies shown at no extra charge than the initial price of a ticket. Cub events are held solely in the afternoon and of course these boys will probably want to remain for the movies and then go home. Scout events will be held in the afternoon that is the preliminaries with the winners of the trial heats being slated to return in the evening to really put on the final show for the adults who attend at that time. It is expected that a mass demonstration in tribute to Scout GI's who have died in the service of their country will be portrayed by the Explorers aided by all other scouts with double taps included. It promises to be a very thrilling spectacle for the evening show. Then there will be awards made, after demonstrations, skits, entertainments with the friendly rivalry uppermost in the minds of all for the scouting contests. It is hoped that Winchester Units will "bring home the bacon" so to speak in the many fine prizes for successful competition. Arrangements for the Scoutorama are being handled by the following committees headed by Carleton Spinney of Medford. The complete list follows:

Smith Coming Home From Turkey

Mr. Harold Smith, a former well known resident of Winchester who has been in Ankara, Turkey, for the past several years on a U. S. mission with the Armored Group, writes that he expects to return to America the first part of June according to an air mail letter received this week.

Mrs. Smith, who has been with her husband in Ankara, left Turkey a fortnight ago and was expected to arrive in Connecticut on Monday where she will stay with her son, Arnold. She expects to visit Winchester friends shortly.

Mr. Smith will go to Elizabethtown, Kentucky, upon his arrival here.

According to his letter the whole of Turkey is alarmed over the MacArthur controversy as they follow American news carefully. "Their faith and confidence in us is something you must live with to understand," Mr. Smith writes. "What Washington does is far-reaching." He states that during the three and a half years he has been in that country he has seen great changes there and feels that America has done a bang-up job.

Sundberg Appointed At Brandeis

The appointment of Clifford S. (Cliff) Sundberg of Winchester and William F. (Bill) Liston of Medford, Boston newspapermen, as co-directors of sports publicity at Brandeis University, was announced today by Benny Friedman, the University's director of athletics.

Mr. Sundberg is the former director of sports publicity at Boston University, from which he graduated in 1941. He also served for three years during the war with the Office of War Information and State Department in New York, Algiers, Rome, and Sofia, Bulgaria. A former news editor at radio stations WBZ-WBZA in Boston, the new Brandeis appointee currently is employed as a night desk editor at the Boston Post.

Mr. George B. Cumings of Mystic avenue, who suffered a heart attack last week was taken to the Winchester Hospital on Sunday.

Morning Musicale And Coffee By Friends of Winchester Hospital

Members and guests are cordially invited to the Silver Coffee and Morning Musicale on Thursday morning, May 3, at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Fulton Brown, 24 Arlington street, sponsored by the Friends of the Winchester Hospital, Ways and Means committee. Coffee and doughnuts will be served at ten, followed by an unusually fine concert by the Mary Witham Singers.

Proceeds from the Silver Coffee will be used by the Friends to carry on their many projects for the hospital during the coming months.

Mrs. Charles R. Baisley and Mrs. Carl M. Smith of Reading are in charge of the coffee; Mrs. David Conners, seats; Mrs. William Hickey, Sr., flowers and china; Mrs. Robert Heaviside, spoons; Mrs. Donald J. Birchall, doughnut centers which are being provided through the generosity of Dorothy Muriels' and Peg's Doughnut Shop. Mrs. John Page, Ways and Means chairman, has charge of sugar, cream and napkins. Her committee also includes Mrs. Sanford Moses, Mrs. Paul Roeray, Mrs. John J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Frank B. Kelley, Jr., Mrs. Clement Williams, Mrs. Bruce W. Young, Mrs. Percy Sweetser of Reading; Mrs. George E. Connor, publicity.

Mrs. Mary Witham will direct her choral group, and Mrs. Marian T. Blake will present a program of dramatic readings. Grace Norian and Siron Hovnanian will be heard in many artistic piano arrangements.

In keeping with the Spring tradition of lightheartness and music, Staff and Key Society of Winchester have planned a brilliant and refreshing concert for Wednesday evening, May 2, in the High School auditorium, at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. L. Hassler Einzig will direct, with Lucy Wilcox Cushman at the piano.

As soloists on the program, Cushla de Lange will add her lovely soprano voice to the words and music of America's leading musical comedy writers, with Gordon Bennett joining her in duets as well as solos of his own. F. Milne Blanchard, who "brings down the house" with his Gilbert and Sullivan numbers, will be heard in an old favorite from a familiar G and S score, as will the whimsical and vivid Joe Hancort. Genevieve Crovo, Lewis Parks, Dorothy M. Hickey, Helen Goodwin and Roger John Krohn will also appear as soloists and will add to the pleasure of the evening. So whether the music-lover wants to tap his feet to the Cachucha song from "The Gondoliers," or prefers to sit back and dream to the strains of "People Will Say We're In Love," there is a favorite melody waiting for everyone in this concert program.

Mrs. Hall Gammage has charge of program, Mrs. George E. Conner, publicity; Mrs. Gordon C. Bennett and Miss Marjorie McGaw, tickets.

Girl Scouts

Every Scout Cookie Salesman just take a good look — More prizes than ever before — Two to each elementary school — Two to 7th and 8th grades. One to Seniors.

A two week Campership at our own Camp Joy in the Fells, or $2 gift certificate at Filene's Scout Shop to the Brownie and Intermediate in each school. Just as easy and turns in the money for — the most cookies. A permanent wave or its equivalent in good grooming to the 1st and 2nd top sellers among all 7th and 8th grade Scouts. A permanent or similar beadgut of to the Senior salesswoman.

This is the only Girl Scout Cookie Sale planned for 1951. Three-fourths of our support comes from the Community Fund. The money from this sale supplies one-fourth of the total budget of the Winchester Girl Scouts.

On May 1 all leaders will plan to attend the sectional meeting at Cedar Hill, Waltham. The meetings are scheduled from ten till 2:20. Call the office to arrange for transportation.

All Senior Leaders are to meet at the office on May 3.

Vacation week was a time for special trips and events for many of our Scouts. Mary Baker, Scribe for Troop 49 reports that they enjoyed a visit to the Boston office of the Christian Science Monitor. The girls were quite impressed with the magnitude of operation but the glass globe with the 360 lights brought the greatest applause. Those sponsoring the troop are, Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. Schuman, Mrs. Bodehan, Mrs. Rich and Mrs. Fish.

Troop 23 have finished the Tenderfoot tests, Scribe Katherine Swisher reports.

A very enthusiastic group of workers turned out April 19 to do the Spring cleaning. Mrs. G. W. Cary wishes to thank Mrs. Harry Baker and Mary; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cullen, Gail and Doreen; Mr. Edward Cullen, Miss Nellie MacDonald, Mr. Hanson Milley and Mrs. Richard Smith.

Brownie Troop 25 (16 girls and 2 leaders) enjoyed an overnight at the cabin on April 19. The Girl Scouts were very pleased to be hostesses for the Winchester Community Chest annual meeting this year. The group met at the cabin on Thursday to hear Mr. Allan Steinert who is the General Chairman of the 1952 campaign.

Troop Scribes have responded so well that we can use the stories just as presented. The following reports are included without change.

April 23, 1951. The Fells, a trip. We went to the Fells to see what signs of spring we could find. We thought we saw some pollywog eggs. We go there a lot. We saw Blue Berry Pond. Love, Joyce Pollard, Troop 35 — Brownies.

A trip to the old Corner Book Store in Boston. We went to Boston to see Christopher Robbins' real toy animals. Piglet and Winnie the Pooh. We saw Kanga too. Eeyore looked much better in shape than any of the others. We thought Christopher took him to bed every night.

Rosalind Webster Brownie Troop 35.

New York Trip

Monday, April 16 marked the long awaited trip for twenty-four girls and five leaders to New York City. About 9:00 a. m. we left Winchester in a big Greyhound bus. After a six hour trip we arrived at the Century Hotel in the heart of New York. A tour of the NBC radio and television studios had been planned and we were extremely fortunate to be able to see and hear Marion Anderson sing on the Bell Telephone Hour.

Following an early breakfast at an Automat Tuesday morning, we went to Arthur Godfrey's morning show. The show proved extremely good and we left CBS with samples of Rinso, grapefruit juice, and crackers, plus autographs of such personalities as announcer Tony Marvin, Tom Lockard, the Chordettes, and the Mariners. We made a visit to Saint Patrick's Cathedral and then had lunch. Tuesday afternoon was spent going to the top of the Empire State Building and later shopping on Fifth avenue, a delicious dinner was given in a French restaurant after which we went to Radio City Music Hall. After a quick look around the huge hall we sat down to enjoy the wonderful program offered by the Rockettes and Dick Liebert at the Music Hall organ. We also saw the amusing new movie "Father's Little Dividend."

Wednesday morning we started out in the bus for Lake Success. Upon reaching the temporary headquarters of the United Nations, we embarked on a very interesting tour of the buildings. The Security Council was not in session but we sat in the Council meeting room and learned about the seating arrangements of the delegates, the press, and the public. Especially interesting was the explanation of the different types of interpretation used in these meetings. We also looked in on the conference rooms and the delegates' lounge before a delicious lunch in the United Nations cafeteria. We stopped at La Guardia Field on the way back to New York City, and watched several large planes land and take off. Dinner was followed by the Perry Como television show. The show itself was extremely good and many of us got Perry Como's autograph at the end. We walked through Times Square on the way back to the hotel to get a glimpse of the world famous center of huge lights and signs.

After a breakfast at the Automat on Thursday morning we hurried back to the hotel to do last minute packing. Then we started home on the bus about 10:30, reaching Winchester about 6:30 p. m. that night.

We, the twenty-four Girl Scouts who went to New York wish to thank our leaders, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Robertson, Mrs. White, Mrs. Weafer and Mrs. Roberts for making this trip so wonderful, and unforgettable.

Pop Concert

One year ago last September the Orchestra of the First Congregational Church feverishly performed its entire repertory of three pieces before an audience which was best described as "understanding." After one or two other guest appearances last year, the group gave a Pop Concert at the close of the season. The surprise of that concert will be remembered as being considerable for the group had not only improved immensely, — but it played with a flair and spirit which showed that its members had entered wholeheartedly into the cause which the Orchestra represent.

The Orchestra has made but one appearance this year, when it played music of the eighteenth century — music technically difficult and stylistically extremely touchy for amateur groups. Nevertheless, the Orchestra did well with this program, and showed that it has been steadily progressing all the time.

With this continual development in mind, the coming Pop Concert becomes an event of considerable interest. Herbert Clement, the group's conductor, has come up with a veritable suitcase full of musical delights, which are bound to interest anyone who attends the concert. Composers to be represented are Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Sibelius, Masenet, Gilbert and Sullivan, Ippolitov Ivanov, Humperdinck, Richard Strauss, Schubert, Rimsky Korsakov, Soedermann, Goldman and LeRoy Anderson. The program has its quota of typical Pop surprises — including a vocal duet from "The Gondoliers", to be sung by singers as yet unannounced, — and the usual extras.

It has been noted that there are two heralds of Springtime here in Winchester. One is the weather, accompanied as it is by theatre openings, concerts, art exhibits, and other events of topical interest to provide an added view of humanity, as it were, from the door. In addition, Carl introduced "Mr. Penny Proper Bostonian", who was the means of conveying in an amusing fashion his large amount of historical research on Boston. The Sunday presentation of this series was "Going Your Way", and featured music with Rakov, a full chorus of a score of voices, plus interesting narrations by de Suze in which he recreated the charm and excitement of Boston.

Mr. de Suze is graduate of Bowdoin College and was later awarded a two-year scholarship at the Bennington College Theatre Studio in Vermont. He is an ardent student of Shakespeare. During his earlier days, he wrote, directed, and acted in college plays, appeared in numerous summer theatre productions, and was a member of the WBZ Players. He is still talked about for his lead in the 1944 premiere of "O Genteel Lady", a play adapted from the novel by Esther Forbes. His writings have been published in leading national magazines, including the Atlantic Monthly, and in Metropolitan newspapers. He has a book of children's stories to his credit, as well.

Carl has often been referred to as "Boston's most versatile announcer". His performances have taken him from the whispered introductions and commentaries of Symphony Hall to the rhythmic tones of Lower Basin Street. He has found Radio announcing much more to his liking than fulfilling his parents' dream of a diplomatic career. His account of his "misadventures before the microphone" on October 4 should be most entertaining.

Mrs. Thomas M. Downs, at Winchester 6-1833, is in charge of the sale of tickets for the Winchester Mornings, at which coffee will be served as in the past. Early subscribers include Mrs. Frederick Abbe, Mrs. Fred Abbot, Mrs. Robert G. Abbot, Mrs. Blanche Barnard, Mrs. J. Waldo Bond, Mrs. Austin T. Bunker, Mrs. John Carr, Mrs. William Colley, Mrs. William DeCamp, Mrs. Charles Dutch, Mrs. Allen O. Eaton, Mrs. Parker Heath, Mrs. Robert J. Holmes, Mrs. Robert Macdonald, Mrs. Charles Jellison, Mrs. R. S. Vinal, Mrs. Ralph Sexton, Mrs. Robert Stone, Mrs. Wayne D. Thompson, Mrs. Gilman Wallace, Mrs. Kenneth Williams, Mrs. Joseph Worthen, Mrs. Arthur W. Turner, and Mrs. Arthur Watkins.

Carl de Suze

The Wellesley Club of Winchester will present Carl de Suze as the first speaker on its Mornings series this fall.

A native New Yorker, Mr. de Suze has been with WBZ since 1942. He is well known to New England homemakers as the announcer-artist on the Marjorie Mills program each Monday through Friday. Another of his most popular radio achievements was the "You're Telling Us" series, a unique daily program of around-the-town commentary with guest interviews. It was on these shows, incidentally, that he first conceived the idea of those ubiquitous little mice, "Peedi," "Pepe" and "Madame Pom Pom", who were to export so adventurously on his subsequent television hit, "Carl's Surprize Package" over WBZ-TV. They accompanied him on theatre openings, concerts, art exhibits, and other events of topical interest to provide an added view of humanity, as it were, from the floor. In addition, Carl introduced "Mr. Penny Proper Bostonian", who was the means of conveying in an amusing fashion his large amount of historical research on Boston. The Sunday presentation of this series was "Going Your Way", and featured music with Rakov, a full chorus of a score of voices, plus interesting narrations by de Suze in which he recreated the charm and excitement of Boston.

Aggies Lose In Quarter Finals

The Winchester Aggies, victorious in three games of tournament play at Charlestown, went down to defeat Wednesday night with colors flying. It took a strong Charter Oaks Club to defeat the Aggies.

Winchester held its own throughout the first half. Winchester jumped into the driver's seat during the first quarter and led 13 - 6 at the end of that stanza. However the Oaks soon caught up and the score stood tied - 22 at half time.

The Oaks kept right on going to win, 53 - 37. The locals, down 14 points, put on a last period surge to come within 8 points of the Oaks half way through the last stanza. Bob "Flats" Flaherty with 10 points was high man for the Aggies.

Neddy Corangelo of English High was high point getter of the evening for the Oaks with 16 big points. Corangelo, only three sports captain in English High's history, was very effective in grabbing rebounds off both boards.

Joe Bellafalto, from Christopher Columbus High of Boston, also played for the Oaks. He was captain of Columbus High's basketball team this winter. In the small schools tournament, Bellafalto gave the varsity plenty of trouble with his drive in shots.

The Aggies ended their season with a record of 21 wins and two defeats. This team, having played together since the eighth grade, have compiled a record of 36 wins and 4 defeats.

The team members are as follows: John Atkinson, Frank Carleton, Nicholas Fitzgerald, Robert Flaherty, Norman Howard, Francis Murphy, Stewart Thompson, and Steve Yale. Richard "Dee" Young and Joe Harris, who were members on the Bonnell Championship team this winter, did an effective job in coaching the Aggies during tournament play.

Grace Ann Padelford, junior at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, was recently elected president of Shepardson Club, a social group there. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Norman J. Padelford, 6 Ravenscroft road.

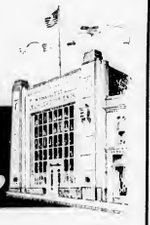

Theodore Elliot Ginsberg of 6 Euclid avenue has been promoted to Staff Sergeant at Scott Air Force Base in Illinois, where he is instructing in Code. His former classmates at Winchester High will be glad to know of his promotion.

VOL. LXX NO. 37 THE WINCHESTER MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, MAY 4, 1951 PRICE TEN CENTS

RED FEATHER SYMBOL OF SERVICE was presented by Alan Steinert of Cambridge, left, 1952 Red Feather campaign chairman, to Burton A. Miller who will lead next fall's drive in Winchester at the annual meeting of Winchester Community Chest. Mrs. William A. Kugler, center, president, presided at the meeting held in the cabin of the Girl Scouts, local Red Feather youth service.

Community Chest, Inc., Held Annual Meeting

Mr. Alan Steinert, Chairman of the Metropolitan Boston 1952 Red Feather Drive, was the guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Winchester Community Chest, Inc., held recently at the Girl Scout cabin.

In stressing the importance of the cooperative effort of the many Greater Boston communities in the annual Red Feather Drive and the Red Feather services, Mr. Steinert pointed out that the "3D's" — Delinquency, Disease, and Disaster — do not observe boundaries, and, therefore, those who are waging the war against them cannot afford to think in terms of their own community alone.

An analysis of services rendered by Red Feather agencies shows the frequency with which communities — such as Winchester — surrounding Boston use the Red Feather services. Sixty percent of services of Metropolitan Boston Red Feather agencies are rendered to the residents of communities outside Boston; only 40 percent of services of Metropolitan Boston are used by Boston residents alone. However, 98 percent of services of the agencies located outside Boston are in use by the local residents, and only 2 percent are used by residents of Boston. The dependence on Boston agencies is obvious; the mutual support should be equally obvious.

Mr. Steinert welcomed Mr. Burton A. Miller to the "Red Feather Team" as the Chairman of Winchester's 1952 Red Feather Drive. The announcement of this appointment was made by Mrs. William A. Kugler, President of the Winchester Community Chest, who also extended congratulations and thanks to Charles W. Butler, the former Drive leader.

Reports from the Treasurer, Miss Helen Monroe; Clerk, Richard H. Frazier; and Budget Committee Chairman, Clinton Bennett were followed by the acceptance of the by-law revisions.

Mr. Kenerson, President of the Winchester Hospital Board, told of continued operation of the Hospital, in spite of an extensive addition to the building.

For the Winchester District Nursing Association, Mrs. Henry Moffette, President, reported on the 52nd year of service of that Red Feather organization with a course in "Nursing in Atomic Warfare" pointing up its customary up-to-the-minute techniques and practices.

The Home for the Aged was represented by Mr. Robert Stone who told of the happy life of the "Home Family", of their appreciativeness of the assistance given by individuals and groups — including the Red Feather funds — and of a proposed modest addition to the facilities.

The variety of activities — from Brownies to Hospital Aides — of the Winchester Girl Scouts was understandable when Mrs. Willing, Commissioner, explained that 180 adults and 787 girls are participating locally. Eighty-two percent of eligible Winchester girls are enrolled as compared with a national average of 12 percent.

Mr. Arthur Pratt reporting for the 500 Winchester Boy Scouts told of the day that the Boy Scouts took over the town offices and climaxed it with a mock Town Meeting.

The Clerk read Mr. Joseph Callahan's analysis of the work of the Immaculate Conception Conference of the Society of St Vincent de Paul.

The elected slate proposed by the Nominating Committee Chairman, Mr. Martin Swanson, named ten directors for one year: —

Charles W. Butler
Nicholas H. Fitzgerald
Richard H Frazier
Ralph T. Jope
Miss Helen M. Monroe
James Nowell
Leon F Sargent
Walcott B. Thompson
Erskine N. White
Philip J. Woodward

and designated Miss Monroe as Treasurer, and Mr. Woodward as Clerk.

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chest will be held in the General Committee Room of the Town Hall at 7:45 P. M. on Monday, May 7th.

Shartel — Maroney

A reception at the Winchester Country Club followed the ceremony performed in St. Mary's Church, Saturday morning at which Miss Charlotte Lou Maroney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keif Maroney of Swan road became the bride of Ens. Howard Austin Shartel, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stratton Shartel of Kansas City, Mo. The Rev. Paul G. Donahue of Annunciation Church, Danvers, officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of ivory slipper satin fashioned with a yoke of Italian handcut lace. Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was caught to a cap of the same lace, and she carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley centered with a white orchid corsage.

The maid of honor, Miss Rosalind McPeake of this town, and the bride's younger sister, Miss Linda Maroney, as junior bridesmaid, wore identical gowns of maize frosted organza over hoopskirts. Miss McPeake carried a cascade of yellow carnations with ivy, and Linda carried an old-fashioned nosegay of marguerites and white sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Miss Betty Shartel of Kansas City, Mo., and Miss Janet McDonald of Chestnut Hill, wore Nile green frosted organza gowns and carried cascades of pale yellow carnations with ivy.

Mr. James Pendergast of Kansas City, Mo., was best man and the ushers were Mr. James H. Maroney of Winchester, Mr. Stanley F. Alger, Jr., of Middleboro, and Ens. Horace D. Clarke, USN, of Norfolk, Va.

The bride was graduated from Salve Regina College in Newport, R. I., and Mr. Shartel attended Yale and was graduated in 1950 from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. They will live in Pensacola, Fla., where Ens. Shartel is stationed.

Will Wed In June

Sally Ray, daughter of Mrs. Harold H. Blanchard of Calumet road, will have ten attendants when she becomes the bride of John Hoagland, Jr., on June 14, in the Church of the Epiphany. Because there'll be so many Saturday weddings in June, she has chosen a Thursday, instead. The wedding reception will be held in the Blanchards' garden.

Sally's two sisters, Mrs. John S. Wurts, Jr., of Williamsport, Pa., and Mrs. Henderson Inches, Jr., of Chestnut Hill, will be the matrons of honor. The bridesmaids will be her former Smith classmates, Joy Budlong of Cambridge, Jane Rainie of Winchester, Joan Gale of Andover, Lucia Smith of Cleveland, Ohio, Robbie Oxnard of Denver, Colo., Nancy Carter of Hanover, N. H., Mrs. George Bushnell, Jr., of Grosse Pointe, Mich., and Mrs. William Shluter of Buffalo.

The future bridegroom will have his father, John H. Hoagland of Beacon street, formerly of Louisville, Ky., as his best man. The ushers, most of them former Yale classmates, will include John S. Wurts, Jr., of Williamsport, Pa., Henderson Inches, Jr., of Chestnut Hill, Stephen Moulton of Boston, William Whittemore of West Roxbury, Holland Clark of Savannah, Ga., William Freck of Floral Park, L. I., Henry Koehler of Louisville, Ky., Bradford Dillman of Santa Barbara, Calif., William Greer, Jr., of Owensboro, Ky., George Kreutzer, Jr., of Bronxsville, N. Y., Connor Faig of Indianapolis, James Duffy, 3d, of Guilford, Ct., and Ralph Stephan of New York City.

Sodality Communion Breakfast

The Annual Communion Breakfast of the Blessed Virgin Sodality of St. Mary's Parish will take place on Sunday, May 6, at the Town Hall. The organization and their many friends will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass in St. Mary's Church and then proceed to the Town Hall for the Breakfast.

The guest speaker for the occasion will be the Rev. Francis Archdeacon S. J., of St. Mary's Church, Boston. The advance sale of tickets has been exceptionally large and a banner attendance is anticipated.

Over The Top!

It is with much pleasure that I quote in part a letter dated April 24th, received from Richard C. Floyd, Associate Director American Cancer Society, Massachusetts Division. "On behalf of the American Cancer Society please let me extend to you and every member of your committee, and to all who helped in any way our heartiest and sincerest congratulations on Winchester reaching and exceeding its goal. On obtaining over $5000 your town has made the best record of any year in the Cancer campaign in Winchester, beating the best previous record by over twenty-five per cent".

Since this letter was written there have been a number of additional contributions, and responses are still coming in. Our committee has endeavored to conduct this campaign as a matter of individual concern and the numbers who have joined with us in the continued fight against this dreaded disease are indeed inspiring. While the generosity of our townspeople more than met our allotted quota, and well within the period of the drive, the Massachusetts Division is as yet far from meeting its quota. Those of you from whom we have not heard are again urged to make your checks payable to the American Cancer Society and mail to Davenport F. Davis, Winchester Trust Co. our local treasurer.

I should like to take this means to publicly thank each of the other fourteen members of our Winchester Committee, who have given so generously of their time and money to make our campaign such a success. With them I want to thank each of you who made the contributions, those of you who displayed our placards and coin boxes, and "the Star" for helping us carry our plea. I am sure we may all feel amply repaid for our material contribution to this just cause.

William H. Buracker
Chairman Winchester Committee

En Ka Street Fair, May 26

Once again the time nears for that gala event the En Ka Street Fair. On May 26th the grounds of the old Town Hall will take on a gay and festive air and the results of months of work by En Ka members will be enjoyed by all.

Do you realize how much good you have done through the years by supporting the Fair? To refresh your memory here are just a few of the things which you have made possible:

$5000. to build the nursery in the new wing at the hospital.

Bassinets for the nursery.

A $500. scholarship for a deserving girl or boy graduating from Winchester High School.

The kitchen and a floor at the Girl Scout Cabin — also money toward landscaping.

Canoes for the Boy Scouts and help on winterizing their cabin.

Contributions to the Library — including furnishing the Family Room and a record player.

Uniforms and instruments for the High School band.

At the home for the Aged you have contributed to their comfort and enjoyment with the gift of a dumbwaiter, a deep freeze and a television. The new porch which is now under construction is possible because of your support of En Ka's Street Fair.

These are only a few of the good things you have done, so remember the date - May 26 - and let's keep up the good work.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Alexander of Bridgeport, Connecticut, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jean Maria, to Mr. Ferdinand L. Manning, son of Professor and Mrs. George A. Manning of 28 Symmes road, Winchester.

Miss Alexander attended Simmons College in Boston and was graduated from The Katherine Gibbs School in New York. She is secretary to Boyd M. Smith, Chairman of the Department of Drama, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut.

Mr. Manning graduated from Columbian Prep School, Washington, D. C. He received his B. A. degree from Tulane University where he was a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. He will receive the Master of Fine Arts in June from the Department of Drama, Yale University. He is a veteran of the armed forces.

New Finance Members

The Town Moderator appointed five new members to serve on the Finance Committee for a term of 3 years.

The new members are:

Dean W. Carleton
Charles R. Fish
Thomas L. Morison
Stanley E. Neill
Pasquale A. Tofuri

At a preceding meeting of the Finance Committee Mr. Otto E. Schaefer was appointed chairman.

No Decision On White's Block

Selectman Harry Chefalo, owner of White's Block in the center where McCormack's Apothecary was burned out last week, has made no decision regarding remodeling the building. Rumor has had it this week that Mr. Chefalo plans to remove the two top stories on the building, but such a plan has not been decided upon.

Former Resident Died In Lexington

George L. Dolloff, 70, of 41 Watertown street, Lexington, vice-president of the Wildey Savings Bank Boston, former general contractor and long active in Masonic and Odd Fellows' circles, died last week Thursday in the New England Center Hospital, Boston.

He was formerly a member of the concern of C. W. Dolloff and Company, Somerville, pavers and contractors. Born in Boston, he lived in Somerville and for many years in Winchester before moving to Lexington in 1945.

A 32d degree Mason, he was a past district deputy grand master of the Third Masonic District; past master and secretary emeritus of Noodle Island Lodge, A. F. and A. M., East Boston; past master of King Solomon's Lodge, A. F. and A. M., Somerville; member of Somerville Royal Arch Chapter, Somerville Council Royal and Select Masters; Coeur de Lion Commandery, Knights Templars, Charlestown, and past patron of Highland Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Somerville.

In the Odd Fellows, Mr. Dolloff was the past supreme monarchos of Orientals of the United States and Canada; past noble grand of Paul Revere Lodge IOOF, Somerville; past grand master of Odd Fellows in Massachusetts; a past president of the Odd Fellows' Home in Worcester and a member of Ermine Rebekah Lodge, Somerville. He was a life member of Somerville Lodge of Elks, and a member of the Hancock Congregational Church, Lexington.

Mr. Dolloff leaves his wife, Dorothy (Whittaker); two sons, Charles W. Dolloff of Quincy, and George L. Dolloff, Jr., USN, stationed in Guam; three daughters, Mrs. Virginia D. Woodbury and Mrs. Marjorie W. Robertson of Stoneham, and Miss Betty L. Dolloff; six grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Annie D. Howard of Somerville, Mrs. Virginia Lentine of West Medford and Mrs. Mabel Webster of Weymouth, and a brother, Frank A. Dolloff of Lexington.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in the Hancock Congregational Church, Lexington, and burial was in Westview Cemetery, Lexington.

Is Your Reservation Made? Set Aside May 17

Everyone who purchases a ticket for the second annual Spring Party of Winchester parents and teachers to be held on Thursday evening, May 17, commencing at seven o'clock, is cordially invited to attend a pre-supper party or to give one if he prefers. The committees responsible for arranging the parties have asked that tickets be purchased on or before Monday, May 7, to allow time for the hostesses to make preparations.

The catered meal, to be served buffet style in the High School Cafeteria and Gymnasium, features chicken a la king on hot baking powder biscuits, potato sticks, green peas, Waldorf and tossed green salads with French dressing, banana fritters, finger rolls, sherbet, tea cakes, coffee, salted nuts, and mints.

Entertainers engaged for the evening are Harvey Davies "The Clown Prince of Music", who will present a program entitled "Don't Let The Music Fool You!"; and Edwin T. Shaw, "The Honest Pickpocket". Mr. Davies combines outstanding musicianship with natural wit to provide an hilarious program. Mr. Shaw, whose motto is "Merriment born of Bewilderment" is famous for mental telepathy, memory feats, and second sight — with 100 percent audience participation.

An effort has been made to keep the cost of tickets to a minimum. An advertisement on the theatre page gives the details.

For tickets, call Mr. Paul Forester at Winchester 6-0820 or Miss Loring Nichols at Winchester 6-1234 on or before Monday, May 7, the deadline for informing the caterer of the number expected.

Arranged by a committee of parents from each school district and teachers from each school, the Spring Party is an All-Winchester event at which teachers and parents of Winchester's boys and girls can get together for an evening of food, fun, and fellowship.

Halwartz Named

Anticipating the possible need for inspection of food and water supplies should an area be subject to atomic bombing and consequent contamination due to dangerous radiation, Civil Defence Director John F. Stokes has named 27 expert assistants on environmental sanitation. Winchester, which is included in Region 5, will be taken care of by Mr. James D. Halwartz, superintendent of the Winchester Water Department.

Birth Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Clark (Alice May Pride) of 11 Cambridge street announce the birth of their daughter Darcey May, born April 17, at the Winchester Hospital.

Maternal grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. Cecil W. Pride of Winchester, and paternal grandparents are Rev. and Mrs. P. C. Clark of North Billerica.

Mr. and Mrs. William A Pride of South Portland, Maine are the great grandparents.

Fitzpatrick — Cady

Miss Selena Katherine Cady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. DeWitt Cady of 49 Myrtle Terrace, was married to Mr. Paul Francis Fitzpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Fitzpatrick of 19 Sargent road on Saturday afternoon, April 28th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John O'Riordan of St. Mary's Church at 2 o'clock, soloist Miss Arlene Brault. The altar of the church was beautifully decorated with stephanotis and snapdragons.

Miss Cady was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of ivory satin with a beaded sweetheart neckline and a stand-up collar of chantilly lace, wearing a hip length veil. She carried stephanotis and orchid cascade bouquet.

Mrs. Harrison Wagner of Wetersfield, Conn., sister of the bride, was matron of honor wearing yellow taffeta with white net with a crescent of white daisies. Miss Marie Fitzpatrick, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, her dress was blue taffeta with white net, and a crescent of yellow daisies.

The bridesmaids, Misses Diane Cady, sister of the bride, and Miss Betty Craik of Boston were gowned in blue taffeta with white net and a crescent of yellow daisies.

Mr. John Campbell of Winchester was the best man for the groom, Thomas Arnold, Richard Briggs of Winchester and Harrison Wagner of Wetersfield, Conn., served as ushers.

A reception was held at the Music Hall from 2:30 to 5 p. m. with Mrs. G. DeWitt Cady, Mrs. Francis Fitzpatrick and Miss Ann Connor assisting in receiving with the bridal party.

After a wedding trip by plane to Bermuda the couple will make their home at 61 Grozier road, Cambridge.

The bride graduated from Katherine Gibbs and Gloversville High School. Mr. Fitzpatrick graduated from Boston University, and is associated with the sales and service department of the Albany Carpet Company.

Lucas — Capone

On Saturday, April 14, at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass in St. Mary's Church, Miss Frances Margaret Capone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Capone of 51 Spruce street, became the bride of Mr. John Francis Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas Lucas of 9 Cove street, Woburn.

The ceremony, performed by the Rev. Charles Anadore of St. Mary's Church, took place against a setting of white carnations and gladiolas.

Music was provided by Arnold Callahan, soloist, and Mary Callahan at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, wearing a gown of white satin fashioned with beaded yoke, mandarin collar and long train. Her fingertip-length veil was caught to a beaded tiara. She carried a prayer book with an orchid and streamers of stephanotis.

Miss Josephine Capone was her sister's honor maid, wearing orchid marquisette over taffeta with hoop skirt, and matching headdress. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of yellow and orchid gladiolas.

The bridesmaid, Miss Rose Capone, also a sister of the bride, wore a gown of yellow frosted organdy with matching picture hat, carrying an old fashioned bouquet of yellow and orchid gladiolas.

The usher corps was comprised of Mr. Joseph Thomas Lucas, Jr., best man and brother of the groom; Mr. John Airey and Mr. Richard Piggot, both of Woburn.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, and a dinner was given at the Town Line for the immediate families.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School.

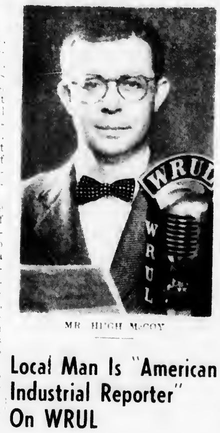

The groom was graduated from Woburn High School. Both bride and groom are in the employ of the Catalyne Co. of Winchester.

After a wedding trip to New Hampshire and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas will make their home on Prospect street, Woburn.

Receives Master Of Education Degree

Albert L. Fisher of 5 Edgehill road, Winchester, administrative dean of the Fisher School of Business Management for Men in Boston, has been awarded a master of education degree, according to a recent announcement from the Harvard University graduate school of education.

The degree was awarded in the field of guidance and personnel in which Dean Fisher majored at the Cambridge institution. He also is a former president of the New England College Association and the Somerville Kiwanis Club.

MR. HUGH McCOY

Local Man Is "American Industrial Reporter" On WRUL

Businessmen, technical men and industrialists in Europe, Latin America and the Near East gain much profitable information by listening to "The American Industrial Reporter" program over WRUL, Radio Boston.

This is evidenced by the many letters received by Hugh McCoy, who prepares and broadcasts this program daily. "The American Industrial Reporter" program contains latest news of developments and trends in science and industry, business and finance.

Typical of the many letters is one from a businessman-investor in Buenos Aires who wrote in part, "... and keep up the good work. Every businessman in this city listens. They all agree your American Industrial Reports provide them with invaluable information ... keeps them up-to-date on what's what in business and industry ... It has provided profitable information on several occasions."

Mr. McCoy, who broadcasts this unique program, is assistant manager of the Boston Studios of The World Wide Broadcasting Foundation which beams its programs over the powerful short wave transmitters of WRUL, also known as "The Voice of Freedom."

The Foundation, a non-profit, non-commercial operation, is a private enterprise counterpart of the Voice of America. Studios are at 133 Commonwealth avenue, Boston's Back Bay section near Copley square.

Besides his responsibilities as assistant manager, Mr. McCoy also handles publicity and promotional for the Foundation. A former newspaperman who has worked as a reporter on papers in New York State and New England, he has a background as news editor and newscaster for radio stations in Massachusetts and New York. Mr. McCoy came to World Wide from WFLY, "The FM Voice of The Record Newspapers", Troy, N. Y., where he was News Director. Mr. McCoy broadcast daily newscasts over the Rural Radio Network with which WFLY was affiliated. RRN covers New York state and part of Pennsylvania. He was graduated from Boston University and lives with his wife and daughter, Lael, 3, at 128 Washington street, Winchester.

Second Church Adult Group To Hear Speaker

Harrell F. Beck, acting director of the School of Oriental Studies in the American University, Cairo Egypt, will speak to the Adult Group at the Second Congregational Church, Thursday, May 10 at eight o'clock. Mr. Beck is widely traveled having been recently in the Near East, Italy, France, the British Isles, Germany, Austria, etc. He is at present Resident Fellow of Old Testament at Boston University. Mr. Beck is well informed concerning conditions in the Near East and will speak to the group on "Social Conditions in the Arab World." A question-answer period will be held after the talk. A coffee hour will be enjoyed at the close of the program. The public is cordially invited to this program.

Appointed To National Health Institute

Miss Helen Elliott of Linden street has been appointed to the National Health Institute at Washington, D. C. Miss Elliott is the daughter of Mrs. Harold K. Elliott and is a graduate of Winchester High and Boston University where she majored in Chemistry. Since graduation she has been doing research work at Tufts Medical and has collaborated on several papers published in the Medical Journal. Miss Elliott is also a member of the American Chemical Society.

Archibald Took Top Honors In Math Contest

David Archibald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kimball Archibald of Penn road, Winchester, was proclaimed the winner of the fifth annual Mathematics Contest for secondary school students held Wednesday afternoon at Tufts College.

Four students from each of sixteen schools competed for the first prize of $50. Mr. Arthur E. Butters, head of the Winchester High School mathematics department and sponsor of the Math Club reports that the other Winchester contestants, Robert Surtees, Langdon Smith, and Vernon Honsinger, were well up in the running. Mr. Butters explained the first step in the contest to be solving three problems in the first five minutes in order to avoid elimination.

Silver Tea

The Main Street Group of the Women's Society of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, will have a "Silver Tea" May 15th from 2 - 5 p. m. at the home of Mrs. William Thomas, 95 Middlesex street. Members and friends are invited to attend.

Past Masters' Night

In accordance with its annual custom, William Parkman Lodge, A. F. and A. M., has designated Tuesday, May 8, as Past Masters' Night. On this evening the Lodge will be served entirely by Past Masters, who will conduct the Fellowcraft Degree.

Music Hall To Stay

Winchester people will be pleased to learn that the rumor that the Music Hall on Bacon street will be closed or torn down is without foundation. Mr. William C. Cusack, owner of the property, has made no such decision.

WINCHESTER

To Dog Owners:

Your attention is called to Article III Section 10A and 10B By-Laws of the Town of Winchester, Massachusetts.

SECTION 10A No dog shall be permitted to run at large in the town at any time unless it shall have been vaccinated against rabies within the preceding twelve months and evidence thereof shall have been filed in the office of the Police Department.

SECTION 10B. Any owner or keeper of the dog who violates the provision of Section 10A shall be subject to a fine of not more than $10.00 for each offense.

For the purpose of complying with this law the Board of Health has arranged to conduct a clinic in the basement of the Town Hall on Wednesday, May 9, 1951 from 1 to 4 P. M.

Winchester Students In Tufts Play

Three Winchester students, Joseph Kuchta, a junior at Tufts College, of 35 Henry street; James Quine, a sophomore at Tufts, of 11 Grayson road; and Nancy Nutter, a junior at Jackson College, department for Women at Tufts, of 3 Black Horse Terrace, are all working on George Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell," current production of Pen, Paint and Pretzels of Tufts College. This revival of the delightful turn-of-the century comedy is being performed in the Arena Theater on the campus.

Quine plays the role of a waiter in the extravagantly costumed show; Miss Nutter and Mr. Kuchta are both members of the backstage crew.

Meet In Music Hall

The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Middlesex East District Medical Society will be held Thursday, May 10th, at the Music Hall in Winchester at 2:30 p. m.

The guests present will be the State Officers of the Massachusetts Woman's Medical Auxiliary. Mrs. Howard Root, President of the State Auxiliary, will speak on proposed amendments to the State By-Laws. The topic of her speech will be of personal interest to all members of the local Auxiliary, hence it is urged that they be present.

A musical program will follow the meeting and tea will be served. Miss Grace Nolan will be the guest pianist.

Guild Of The Infant Saviour

It was gratifying to see the large number of our members that turned out for our twentieth annual communion breakfast on Sunday, immediately following the Memorial Mass for deceased members at St. Mary's Church.

Following the bountiful breakfast the president welcomed the members and turned the meeting over to the chairman of the day, Mrs. Theodore Dissel, who in turn introduced our guest speaker the Reverend Theodore Christian Petersen, C. S. P. Father Petersen, a brilliant scholar and linguist, gave a most interesting account of his life from his birth in India to missionary parents, through his studies on the continent and for the Lutheran ministry and his subsequent conversion to Catholicism. Speaking on the subject of the Reunion of Christendom Father Petersen explained that we are indebted to an Episcopal minister, Father Watson, for our present devotion of the Church Unity Octave celebrated in the month of January between the feast of St. Peter and the conversion of St. Paul. In the early days of Christendom, the pagans marvelled at the Christians, saying, "see how they love one another" and we must, Father Petersen said, once again give this good example by the reunion of all Christians. With two terrible world wars, in which Christian fought Christian, we have given scandal to the non-Christians who make up three-fourths of the world population, said Father Petersen. The late Cardinal O'Connell was among the first to accept the devotion of the Church Unity Octave in the years 1907 - 1908 and he introduced it in Boston in 1909. The world today hungers and thirsts after unity, Father Petersen concluded, and working for this ultimate goal offers a wonderful opportunity for Christian work.

Seated at the head table were Father Petersen, Reverend Charles Anadore of St. Mary's and the following offices of the Guild: Mrs. John Lennon, Mrs. Eugene B. O'Keefe, Mrs. Theodore Dissel, Mrs. Michael H. Hintlian, Mrs. Martin P. Higgins, Mrs. Carl H. Thomas and Mrs. Talma Greenwood.

Our next and last event of the year will be our annual spring luncheon and bridge to be held at the Bear Hill Country Club on May 17th. If you have not made your reservations as yet please, please, make them soon by calling Mrs. M. G. Moffett at WI 6-1730 or Mrs. Clarence Dunbury at WI 6-0165-W.

Open Houses For Garden Club

Three of Winchester's most interesting houses, and one garden, will be open to the public on Friday afternoon, May 18 from 2 to 1:30 o'clock, under the sponsorship of the Winchester Home and Garden Club. Mrs. George E. Connor is chairman, with Mrs. Frank B. Robinson, co-chairman, assisted by a large committee. This project will enable the club to carry on three vital projects: veterans' service in nearby veterans' hospital — a service which will be enlarged this coming year; the gradual addition of good shrubs to the library grounds, in keeping with a long-range planning program; planting at the Home for the Aged, and flower assistance at the Winchester Hospital.

Members and guests who attend the Open Houses on May 18 will share a double pleasure helping with these projects, and enjoying the lovely homes and the flower arrangements.

Dr. and Mrs. William D. Barone will open their fascinating modern home on the corner of School and Church streets, and flower arrangements in keeping with the tasteful and charming house and furnishings will be provided by Garden Club members, under the guidance of Mrs. Norman Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hadley's home on 193 Forest street — its quaintness admired by all who drive past it — will be open, with Mrs. Hadley's fabulous collection of early Americana on display, and flower arrangements in containers of that period.

The third house to be open is that of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Raymond, 10 Hillcrest Parkway (just off Highland avenue), the former home of the artist Philbrick. A beautiful home with many unusual features and furnishings, this house lends itself beautifully to flower arrangements of many types, and will appeal to all who visit it.

At the end of the pilgrimage, Mrs. John B. Wells will open her garden at 238 Highland avenue for afternoon punch and cookies. With the flowering shrubs, greenhouses, and the wisteria trees in bloom, this will be a fitting "finale" for the afternoon. Mrs. Sidney Burr and Mrs. Raymond Strawbridge are planning the refreshments.

Delegates At Convention

Mrs. A. L. Young (Verna Aitchison) of Hyannis, Sr Vice-President of the Women's Relief Corps, and the President, Mrs. Louis Howard, were delegates at the Kenmore Hotel, Boston, for a three day convention. They were appointed delegate and alternate to the National Convention of the G A R and W R C to be held in Chicago, Ill., at the two day annual convention of the Mass. State Dept.

Square Dance At Town Hall

Life can be wonderful. Life can be gay. Life — Human Life will be whirling, stomping and spinning at the Town Hall on Saturday evening, May 26th. The event will be the grand finale of the 1951 Street Fair. Here is a chance for the "old-timers" to show the youngsters how they swung their partners in the "gay nineties." Here's a chance for the young fry to show the "oldsters" the 1951 version.

Right Hand — Left Hand — Sachez down the hall. Quadrilles, contras, Virginia Reels — all back in vogue. Don't miss this rare opportunity to swing your partners to the voice of Ted Sennella and his orchestra. One of the best callers in New England, Ted Sennella has a large following. With him will be a number of his fans who have consented to put on an Exhibition Square Dance during intermission.

For those who wish to watch the dancing for the evening and see the exhibition dancing there will be balcony seats at a very small fee.

Think of how relaxing that will be to have a chance to sit down at the Fair and be entertained in the bargain. Dozie Doke! Forget your cares and taxes for one night and join the throng wending their way to the Town Hall on May the 26th.

The committee planning this gala event are Mrs. Victor A. Wolff and Mrs. Samuel D. Cole Co-Chairmen; Mrs. Robert B. L. Singer, Mrs. Henry A. Dellicker, Mrs. E. George Pierce, Jr., Mrs. Ralph W. Swan, Mrs. W. Allan Wilde.

Volpe Appointed Deputy State Chairman

In a departure from precedent, the Republican State Committee has authorized the appointment of four Deputy State Chairmen. Included in the four is Mr. John A. Volpe of this town.

Avengers Beat Melrose Twice

The Winchester Avengers beat the Melrose Raiders 11 to 5, at the Cambridge Skating Club, Wednesday, April 18. The Avengers were in control throughout the game with practically everyone in the forward line scoring.

However, in the second game, on Saturday, April 28, also at the Skating Club, the Avengers met an improved Melrose team in a thrilling game, edging them out 6 to 5.

Winchester got off to a good start and was leading throughout the game, but in the last minutes Melrose scored three times making the game very close.

For Winchester, Mahoney scored twice while Lawson, Harrigan, Coules, and Ryan each scored once, with Sipp playing remarkably well in the goal, making many difficult saves.

For Melrose O'Connell scored twice and Davis, Murray, and Poole each scored once.

The line-up for the second game is as follows:

Winchester — G, Sipp; rd, MacLeod; ld, Zimmerman; c, Mahoney; rw, Lawson; lw, Harrigan.

Melrose — g, Eccleston; rd, Falanci; ld, Thomas; c, Olson; rw, O'Connell; lw, Davis.

Winchester Alternates — Curtis, MacKenzie, Ryan, Coules, Godwin.

Melrose Alternates — Fulmore, Murray, Poole, Foss, Olson.

Torr W. Harmer, Jr., son of Mrs. Torr W. Harmer 4, Lakeview terrace has been promoted to Private First Class and will be assigned to Perrin AFB, Texas for technical training in the Air Force.

Cogan Assistant In Track

James F. Cogan, Jr., of 34 Holland road, Melrose, a student at Harvard, is the new assistant track coach.

Mr. Cogan, who began his duties on April 17 will assist Coach Henry Knowlton during the 1951 track season.

While at Melrose High School, Mr. Cogan ran on the cross country team and was a miler in track. At Harvard he was captain of cross country and ran the mile and two mile distances.

Leon E. Fernandez, a senior at Hebron Academy, has recently been named Editor-in-Chief of the 1951 Hebron Academy Yearbook.

Winchester 13-7 Win Over Woburn

Winchester High pounded out 16 hits to take a 13 to 7 verdict over Woburn High at Woburn last Saturday afternoon. Four Woburn twirlers were treated harshly by the locals as three double plays by the Woburn infield prevented the Indians from doing even more scoring. Three of the local hits were for extra bases as Stowell Symmes connected for a double and Peter Coon and "Jocko" Scrieka banged out triples.

Stowell Symmes was on the mound for Winchester and pitched good ball except for two shaky innings in which Woburn twice scored three runs. Woburn made three hits in each of these three-run innings but Symmes allowed only five hits over the other seven innings. A pleasing feature to Coach Bartlett was that Symmes seemed stronger as the game progressed as he permitted only one hit over the last three innings.

Jim Griffin was the leading Winchester hitter with four singles in five trips to the plate. John DiIorio continued to meet the ball squarely as he collected three hits in four official trips to the plate. Peter Coon had three hits, including a triple, in five times at bat while "Prep" Keyes celebrated his return to the lineup with two solid hits. "Butch" McLaughlin showed why he is considered the best baseball prospect in this area with four straight hits which included a tremendous triple on which he scored when the outfield relay was messed up. Captain Tony Cirurso and John DiIorio turned in sparkling defensive plays while Peter Coon looks better behind the plate with each outing.

Good Turnout For Tennis Clinic

With a turnout of about sixty young hopefuls and a dozen or more adults, the 1951 Tennis Clinic, sponsored by the Winchester Tennis Association and directed by Mr. Joe Corish of the New England Lawn Tennis Association, got underway last Saturday morning with a talk and moving picture at the high school gymnasium. "Don't be an oops player," said Mr. Corish as he outlined the important fundamentals of the game, explaining some of the essential differences between the hitter and the hacker. His talk was followed by the showing of a Don Budge moving picture on strokes and court play.

The second session of the clinic will be held on Saturday, May 5th at the Packer Courts on Palmer street. Players of sixth grade age or older are invited to attend, whether they were present at the first session or not. Registration should be made by telephoning or writing one of the committeemen listed below, and players should bring rackets to the courts. In case of rain the meeting will be postponed until the following Saturday.

Appeal For A Television

Editor of the Star:

I know a direct appeal from you will do much more than I can, but I wish you would give publicity to the need of a television set at the Murphy Army Hospital.

There are many patients who must be kept in private rooms and who are therefore not able to watch the set which may be in their ward. For these patients television is a new form of therapy — instead of reliving Korea, or wherever their accident may have occurred — they are able to forget for a few hours and watch the ball games or other shows. It is a great boost for their morale. For a patient unable to get out of bed and work a set, a remote control is necessary and this is what I am aiming for. Being able to buy it wholesale it will cost around $175.00.

I have opened an account at the Savings Bank and all the people have to do is to step in and deposit anything they want in the "Television for Murphy Army Hospital" account.

It seems a small thing to do for the men who are making such great sacrifices for us, and people should remember that Winchester boys are now in combat. Furthermore, Murphy is the hospital for this area and if anything should happen to their boys, anywhere overseas, or in this country, this is the hospital to which they will be brought. God forbid that anything does happen to them.

I have never asked the people of this town for anything and find it almost impossible to do so now for such a necessary thing, but I would like to feel that people of this town are willing to share in this small way in bringing some happiness to sad's wounded men.

Sincerely,
Gladys N. Tarr

Spring Party For Parents And Teachers

Editor of the Star:

In the news columns of this week's Star appears an item about the second annual Spring Party for parents and teachers to be held at the High School on Thursday evening, May 17.

The High School was chosen as the place for this year's gathering because there is no other single building in Winchester that could accommodate the number of people anticipated at the Spring Party. Four hundred and fifty or so attended last year's Friendly Frolic, with many being disappointed because reservations were limited. The Committee sought room enough for seven hundred diners. By using the cafeteria and by setting up tables in the gymnasium, seven hundred can be accommodated.

The Committee that planned the Spring Party, representing every Winchester public school district, agreed that the price of each ticket should be lower than last year's and that the entertainment should be light and professional.

Since the Spring Party is to be purely social in nature, the entire proceeds will be used to defray expenses. The best meal and the best entertainment available within the budget figures have been obtained.

All that remains is for those who plan to attend to purchase their tickets by next Monday, so that the catering contract can be let and so that hostesses planning pre-supper parties may know how many and whom to except. Everyone who buys a ticket will be invited to a pre-supper party.

An event of this kind provides Winchester with an opportunity to set an example of Democracy in Action.

John D. Stevens
Member of the Committee

Do You Read Them?

The Star is interested in obtaining its readers' opinions regarding the series of Boston and Maine Railroad advertisements which have been appearing for some time under the title of "Commuters' Columns." If you read these little articles and are interested in them, and look forward to reading them each week, we will appreciate it if you will so inform us.

Ft. Dix, N. J., and will then go to Ft. Sill, Okla., for 14 weeks. Upon successful completion of their schooling, they will be commissioned 2nd Lts.

Peter Vincent Farnsworth, aged 20, went to Grammar School in Winchester, then graduated from Hebron Academy and was attending New England Aircraft School at time of enlistment. Charles Edward Flynn, aged 21 went to Winchester High School, a senior at Syracuse University at time of enlistment and will be awarded his A.B. degree, in absentia, next June. "Charlie" has been quite an athlete during high school years having played football for Winchester High and for Syracuse, as well as being on the Winchester track team and Syracuse boxing team. He was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

The writer feels that the best wishes of their townspeople follow these boys as they start on their new careers. They have a hard row to hoe but they will make it. It was nice to have their parents present during that important moment when the oath was taken. The writer will be glad to arrange for other parents of boys who have been accepted for O & S to also witness the swearing in of their boys. It is an important step and the boys are accepting great responsibility.

The best of luck to Peter and Charles.

Cordially yours,
G. Toye

Red Cross News

Furnishings, clothes, food, and other articles, too numerous to mention were brought forth in record time last week when the Winchester Chapter of the American Red Cross appealed through our local churches for all the necessities of life to rehabilitate two families that were burned out on Collamore avenue.

The gratifying response was most heartwarming. With their houses completely gutted and only the clothes on their backs left to them, the many donations gave them a wonderful start again.

On behalf of the victims and the Winchester Red Cross, Mrs. Gladys Dotting, Executive Director, expressed hearty appreciation.

Meeting with the Sub Regional Coordinating Committee for the Massachusetts Blood Program at the Gloucester Street Chapter House last Tuesday were Mrs. James Coon, Blood Program Chairman, Mrs. Ruth Hilton, Director, Mrs. Gladys Dotting, Executive Director, and Mrs. S. Kennedy Tully, Publicity. Mrs. Tully was recently elected Secretary of the Metropolitan Chapter. Problems of Recruitment, Public Information, etc., as regards the Blood Program were discussed by the forty members who attended from the Metropolitan Area.

They will be installed on May 9, at the Masonic Hall, 1 Mount Vernon street, Winchester square, and the public is cordially invited. Before the installation a supper will be held at the First Baptist Church Hall, Winchester.

Local Post Office Puts On Two Government Trucks

Postmaster Thomas J. Gilgun announces that two new Dodge one-ton trucks were put in operation at the local office on May 1, 1951. These new government trucks will replace the lited ones which were being used.

These two trucks as well as a one half ton one were ordered by the postmaster about a year ago, but for various reasons, delivery could not be effected until now.

Mr. Gilgun feels that these new trucks will substantially reduce the cost of mail delivery here as well as give more efficient service.

Methodist Fellowship At North Andover

This Sunday at 3:30 p. m. the Youth Fellowship of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, will leave for its Conference Center, Rolling Ridge for a supper service and supper picnic. Fireplaces will be available for cooking.

Dr. Charles R. Mingins, one of the counselors for the young people, will lead the devotional service.

All the young people are cordially invited.

Mystic Glee Club Concert Tonight

At 8:15 tonight, Friday, the Mystic Glee Club will present its Eighth Annual Spring Concert at the Winchester High School auditorium. Featured soloist will be nine-year-old Charles Castellano of Braintree, talented violinist, who will play the Allegro movement of Mozart's Concerto in D, and selections by Moskowski, Wieniawski and Monti.

The program to be sung by the Club comprises four groups. Group One includes selections from "Iolanthe" and "East is West," and folk-songs from Kentucky and Czechoslovakia. Group Two is composed of show-tunes: "The Student Prince," "Brigadoon" and "South Pacific" being represented.

A negro spiritual and a sea chantey, and several college songs make up the third group, while the final section will include numbers by Oley Speaks, Charles Wakefield Cadman, Richard Kountz and Herbert Hughes. While varied, the program is of a light nature, in keeping with the Spring season.

Keith Synder will again be the Conductor and Mary Louise Middelton the accompanist for the Club.

Dr. N. J. Padelford To Address The Forum

Members of the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church will have the privilege Sunday morning at 9:30 of hearing Dr. Norman J. Padelford, Professor of International Relations at M. I. T., and resident of Winchester. So many young people have expressed concern over their part in the world of today, Dr. Padelford will speak on a subject that will be helpful to every young person present, "The Christian in a World of Conflict." Marshall Pihl, Jr., will be the chaplain. The offering will be received by Terry Tallman and Robert Wiklund.

All High Schoolers are cordially invited to the Forum Square Dance this evening at 8:00, with Dan Briggs as the Caller Extraordinary. No feet will be idle with Mr. Briggs at the microphone. Catherine Goss and Alan Thomas are in charge of arrangements. Cokes will be dispensed by Bobby Crockett and tickets at the door will be collected by Carol Cleaves and Mary Jane Davis.

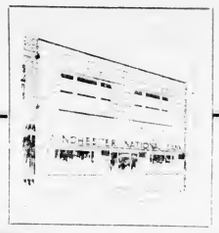

Junior High School Associates

On Tuesday, May 15th at 7:30 in the High School Auditorium the Winchester Junior High School Associates will hold their Annual Meeting.

After a brief business meeting and the election of officers for new year there will be entertainment by the children under the direction of the Music and Athletic Departments.

The board feels that this really comprehensive program will give a great deal of pleasure to the Junior High Associates and urges all parents to attend.

Celebrates Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Alden H. Symmes entertained a group of Winchester and Melrose young people last Thursday evening at the Colonial Country Club, Lynnfield, in honor of their daughter, Lucille Ann Symmes. The occasion was to celebrate their daughter, Lucille's sixteenth birthday. Dinner and dancing were enjoyed by the following young people:

Elizabeth Freeman, Henry Hooper, Roberta Coon, Stuart Thomson, Marcia Symmes, John Arnold, Marilyn Dyer, Richard Fernandez, Martha Sheerin, Bernard Carpenter, Caroline Goodwin, James Kidd, Jane Foss, Robert Jenney, Myriam MacDonald, Webster Herne, Nancy Sherman, Robert Cathcart, Lucille Symmes and Paul Newbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Bigelow of Winchester assisted Mr. and Mrs. Symmes in making the party a success.

Professor Sigmund Neumann, of Harvard College, will be the speaker at a meeting Monday, May 7, of the Harvard Club of Eastern Middlesex. The meeting is scheduled for the Bear Hill Country Club in Stoneham, with cocktails preceding the dinner, which is set for seven o'clock. Members may bring guests.

Demonstrations In Reading

Announcement is made by Miss Marian E. Phipps, Reading Consultant in the Winchester Public Schools, that two Wednesday afternoons, May 9, and 16, will be used by elementary school teachers for special professional meetings. Except for the following groups, elementary school children will not be required to return on those Wednesdays for the afternoon session:

May 9 — Mrs. Myrtle Dodge's Grade Three at Wyman and Mrs. Louise B. Mathews's Grade Four at Washington School.

May 16 — Mrs. Jane N. Kirkpatrick's Grade Five at Parkhurst School and Mrs. Genevieve Kelleher's Grade Six at Noonan School.

Believing that there is no one best way of teaching reading, the staff of elementary school teachers will observe the progress of reading, grade by grade, and will note how six different teachers help the six demonstration classes.

Demonstration classes will be held in the children's schools, the teachers doing the traveling.

Following the demonstrations, teachers will discuss informally their techniques for teaching reading and will discuss plans to improve the reading program in Winchester Schools.

Mr. Leary Charter Member

Mr. Otis W. Leary of the Winchester High School faculty flew to New York Wednesday morning to participate in a conference of the American Industrial Arts Association at the Hotel New Yorker.

Mr. Leary was invited to become a charter member of the new National Council for Industrial Arts Supervisors which will serve as a clearing house and adviser on such subjects as selection of new teachers, in service education of teachers, selection and use of texts and reference books, shop lay out, development and use of teaching aids, new material in the industrial arts curriculum, and salary problems.

Newsy Paragraphs

Mrs. Karl Terzaghi, 3 Robinson Circle, will serve as chairman in Winchester during the University of Chicago Alumni Foundation campaign for the alumni's 1951 gift to the university, Chester W. Laing, chairman of the Foundation, announced today.

Vernon W. Jones, local Real Estate Broker has been reappointed as a Notary Public for a seven year term.

Fred Thumim of St. Louis, nephew of Mr. Nathan Thumim made a good showing at the AAU tournament sponsored by the Boston Y. M. C. U. at the High School of Commerce last Saturday night. He handily won the weight lifting contest in the 148 pound class junior championship with a lift of 620 pounds. He represented the Ozarks AAU.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bottger of Sheffield road who are spending a few days in New York City are registered at the George Washington Hotel.

The ways of the Government are sometimes hard to understand. The Star is receiving, on a regular schedule we presume, a beautiful kraft envelope measuring 12 x 16 inches. The envelope has thus far contained two sheets of paper 7 x 8½ inches. We suppose folding takes time and paper is short, so stock on hand is the only thing which can be used.

Mr. James H. Penaligan, assistant editor of the Star, who was recently operated upon at the Hahnemann Hospital, returned to his home on Maxwell road Saturday.

The William J. Croughwells, Jr., and "Winkie" of Levittown, L. I., spent last weekend with their parents in Rangeley.

Miss Ella May Emerson, who has been in St. Petersburg, Fla., for several months is leaving the first of the week to return to Winchester.

Mr. Manuel Sousa of Woburn, who passed away in that city on Saturday, was the father of Charles Sousa, assistant custodian at the Town Hall.

While watching the boxing matches in Boston Monday night, George Spinney, linotyper at the Star Office, had his car stolen. Word was received Tuesday morning that the car had been discovered in the woods in Wilmington. All four wheels were stolen along with the tires, two windows were broken and other damage done.

David Snow of 68 Fletcher street is a private in the Air Force and is stationed at Lackland Air Base, San Antonio, Texas.

Mr. George Cumings of Mystic avenue is still at the Winchester Hospital, where he was taken two weeks ago with a heart attack. It is reported that his condition has improved but that he will remain in the hospital for an indefinite time.

132 dogs were innoculated at the Town Hall on Wednesday, May 2.

First place will be at stake this afternoon as Winchester High plays Melrose High at Manchester Field at 3:15 p. m.

Two Winchester men are members of the committee for the annual Rector's Dinner which the Holy Cross Club of Boston will tender the Very Rev. John A. O'Brien, S. J., president of Holy Cross College at the Parker House Roof on Thursday, May 10. They are Dr. Phillip J. McManus of 465 Main street and Richard F. Hegarty of 17 Wolcott road.

Snake Charmers Thrill Crowds At Science Show

Patricia Matthews of Lawson road and Jerry Marks of Foxcroft road were the envy of every child in the audiences totalling almost a thousand as they were unexpectedly launched on possible future careers as snake charmers. They appeared on the stage of the High School Auditorium at the Living Wonders show last Wednesday.

"The tongue of the black snake felt just like a feather when it [illegible]" revealed Patricia, a second grader from Mystic School. Jerry, from Wyman School testified "[illegible]". They feel like a pair of new shoes." And Jerry ought to know for he stood [illegible] as Mr. Gilbert Merrill of the Museum of Science artistically draped a [illegible] snake around his neck and shoulders.

The real clown of this fascinating show was "Spooks" the four-week-old horned owl who swoozles strips of meat just like kids swoozle noodles.

There are apt to be a number of clogged Bendixes as a result of Mr. Merrill's tip that socks made excellent containers for snakes as you collect them on walks through the woods. You can then tuck them under your belt and have your hands free for further adventures.

The surprise climax of the show — and surely the first time on the high school stage — was a very active diamond back rattler that had been flown up from Florida, freshly caught the week before. However, Mr. Merrill clearly demonstrated that we have nothing to fear from most of the animals in our New England woods.

The Junior High Associates sponsored the show to benefit the Scholarship Foundation and to purchase some new equipment for the Junior High.

1,400 At Open House

Over 1,400 persons attended the open house which signaled the opening of the fine new Converse Market on Mt. Vernon street Wednesday night. From five until eleven the store was crowded, visitors admiring the fine new fixtures and fittings and the magnificent display of goods, including fruit, meats, fish and provisions. No goods were sold during the open house, and the winners of the magnificent food baskets will be announced in our next issue.

NEW SHOWROOMS AND OFFICES OF MIRAK CHEVROLET: Recently opened building at 430 Massachusett's Avenue which will offer improved sales facilities to the public.

Many At Mirak Open House

More than 800 people — including Arlington town officials and Chevrolet's National Sales Manager, attended the grand "Open House" at the Mirak Chevrolet, Inc., 430 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington, last weekend.

cut the ribbon opening the new showrooms and offices of Mirak Chevrole', Inc. Representing Chevrolet also were Ivan X. Sarvis, Assistant General Sales Manager, L. H. Averhill, Manager, Metropolitan City Dept., and three members of the Market Analysis Dept.: George Greig, R. M. Hoffman, and Jack Irving — all from Detroit; C. S. Glock, Boston Zone Manager; and J. J. O'Brien, Boston City Manager.

James E. St. Clair, son of Mr. and Mrs. James St. Clair, 6 Bacon street, was recently pledged to membership in Sigma Nu social fraternity at Colgate University. St. Clair, a freshman, was one of 324 men who were accepted into membership by the 13 national fraternities and the Commons Club, a local fraternity.

Winchester Home And Garden Club

"Flower Arrangements in Antiques, and Corsages" (Demonstration Lecture) by Mrs. Mark Werman of Southein Brookline Club will be an especially interesting and outstanding meeting, as Mrs. Werman is a fine and popular speaker and her arrangements and corsages most attractive, having won prizes for her at the Boston Flower Shows. This meeting of the Winchester Home and Garden Club will be in the Art Room of the Library at 2 p. m. on Wednesday, May 16.

This month there are many Garden Clubs having Flower Shows and open gardens, among which are: May 11 Flower Show at Filene's sponsored by the Garden Club Federation; May 15 Flower Show by Swampscott Garden Club at King Hooper Mansion in Marblehead; Dover Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Arthur Adams, Strawberry Hill on May 17; and on May 18 the Winchester Home and Garden Club is featuring Open Houses with Flower Arrangements by members. Several of our Club members are helping at the East Middlesex Regional all-day meeting at the Decoradova Museum in Lincoln on May 8.

Ernest Dade, E. Abbot Bradlee and Sidney Elliott spent the week end at Lake Winnipisaukee, N. H. They enjoyed the fishing, but no fish.

Phil Saltman To Entertain

Phil Saltman, the well known musician will entertain the members of the Tuesday Luncheon Group of the Epiphany Church and their guests on Tuesday, May 8th at the Music Hall.

Dessert and coffee will be served at one-thirty by the committee consisting of Mesdames: William H. Burnes, Jr., Keen E. Folkers, Richard A. Barlow, Thomas P. Salmon, Philip J. Woodward, Albert C. Buffum. Mrs. Bruce LaRose is in charge of the flower arrangements.

There will be a short meeting to announce the new officers for next year before the piano selections by Phil Saltman.

American Legion Auxiliary

The regular monthly meeting of the Legion Auxiliary will be held on Monday evening, May 7, at 8 p. m. at the Legion Home. This is a very important meeting as the officers for the coming year will be elected and final plans for the Past Presidents' Tea must be made. Contact all the members who may have forgotten and bring them with you.

Mrs. Crede Wins Toastmistress Contest

The Winchester Library Hall was filled with an enthusiastic audience at the Contest meeting of the Winchester Toastmistress Club last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Walter Last of Medford, president of the Club presided at the business meeting and welcomed the many guests. The meeting was then turned over to Miss Hilda Hope of Winchester our very efficient Contest Chairman who spoke briefly on the rules of the Contest and the preparation by the contestants.

Mrs. Charles Crede of Winchester was chosen by the judges and timers as the member who best fulfilled the rules of the contest and was adjudged the winner. Mrs. Crede will now be the club speaker at the Council meeting to be held in Quincy early in May. Her speech was titled 'Salesmen For Freedom.'

Winchester Gardens Open May 22nd

Five Winchester gardens will be opened under the auspices of the Winchester Circle of the Florence Crittenton League of Compassion to members and the general public on Tuesday, May 22 from 2:00 to 4:30 p. m. If the weather continues as favorably as it has so far this spring, the gardens should be at their loveliest toward the end of May, and a stroll through some of them should provide a pleasant afternoon's recreation.

Mrs. Vincent P. Clarke is chairman of the committee on arrangements, and among those assisting her are Mrs. Chesney F. Cook, Mrs. J. Howard Macaulay, Mrs. Ernest L. Parker, Mrs. John S. Swift and Mrs. Everett A. Tisdale.

The Winner At Mirak's

The Mirak Chevrolet Inc., held open house on Friday and Saturday at their new showroom, 430 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington.

As a special door prize, to the lucky person, Mr. P. H. Stockford of 11 Fielding street, Wakefield, was given a handsome new 20 inch Philco TV set. The drawing was made Monday evening April 30.

Miss Jacqueline Fritch, daughter of Mrs. Marion Fitch of 30 Mt. Pleasant street, a freshman at Simmons College and active in College affairs, is a member of the publicity committee for the "Spring Spree," an annual event to be held this Saturday, May 5.

Second Annual Pop Concert

"What America needs most is more music by more people." That is the slogan of the First Congregational Church Orchestra; and it is under the slogan's guiding spirit that the orchestra carries on its yearly list of musical activities. Where the slogan comes from is a moot question. It suddenly appeared on the rehearsal sheets, and was forthwith adopted.

The obvious intent of the slogan is to acquaint as many people as possible with music. Therefore to have more people play music at the expense of listeners would be to defeat the title's purpose. The expense must be twofold. There must be more people playing good music and more listening to it.

This year's outlook is bright, for the orchestra's goal is again in sight. The group has increased in membership since last year; and judging by the ticket sales, the audience will be larger — for the hall is nearly sold out as it is.

Mr. Herbert Clement, conductor of the group, asks those who come to listen to Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven not to burst if they notice, alongside these worthy masters, jaunty tunes by one LeRoy Anderson, or lush waltzes by Strauss. For in this year's concert some fourteen composers will be represented — especially chosen to cater to the tastes of those with widely diversified musical interests.

Here are some examples:

If you are in an exotic mood (as well you may be, for the excellent refreshments and beautiful floral decorations will quickly prepare you for the chiffon of the concert season) settle back and wallow in the mystical clanking of tambourines, as heard in the "Caucasian Sketches."

If you are uncomfortably hot, cool yourself off with a "Sleigh Ride," by LeRoy Anderson.

If you are feeling ponderously philosophical, turn your attention to the second movement of Beethoven's "First Symphony" (and think of Kant, Schopenhauer etc.). All the philosophy you could hope for is there.

If you are feeling veddy veddy elegant, focus your lorgnette on the haughty aristocracy of the graceful "Rosenkavalier Waltzes," by Richard Strauss.

If you simply want to be "sent", bring along your dime store flag and bag of confetti to raise the roof when the orchestra blasts its way through the rousing "On The Mall" march by Goldman.

In short, it would be difficult to go wrong by attending the second annual pop concert at the First Congregational Church. A glance at the coming events section of the Star will tell you where to get tickets.

The dictionary has something interesting to say about pop concerts. "Pop" apparently means "a fizzing, unintoxicating beverage", and "concert" means "a musical performance". The orchestra does not promise, by this definition, to present a concert by blowing on empty pop bottles but it does assure the finishing touches on the local musical season. Dessert, musically speaking, is easily found at any season of the year in Winchester — but only at the First Congregational Church Pop Concert will you find the whipped cream topping.

Linda Bartlett of Kendall Hall and Althea Hersey will be the guests of Elliott Hersey and Larry Howard at the Senior Prom Weekend at Kimball Union Academy.

Maytime Musicale

At a recent Music Committee meeting of the Winchester Unitarian Church held at the home of its chairman, Mrs. G. L. Witham, Mrs. Henry E. Worcester and Mrs. William L. Davis accepted the co-chairmanship of sponsors for the Maytime Musicale, the fourth annual evening of Familiar Music which will be given by the Winchester Unitarian choir at the Music Hall on the evening of May 24th at 8:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Lewis L. Wadsworth, Jr. will again serve as Treasurer of the affair, the proceeds of which will go to the church fund and Miss Mary Norian will be ticket chairman. Mrs. Paul W. Walton will be in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Eugene B. Haynes and Mrs. Edward Ganz will serve as co-chairmen of decorations. Mr. W. H. Dermot Townley-Tilson is in charge of ushers.

A gala evening of light music is being planned by this extraordinarily versatile and able choir. Original arrangements of the very latest musical comedy tunes have been planned for this evening of delightful entertainment.

The Winchester Unitarian Choir is fortunate in its unusually fine soloists — Eleanore Howe, soprano; Muriel Thorley, contralto; Richard Smith, tenor; George Fortune, bass-baritone. These artists will be heard in solos as well as the ensemble.

Thomas Quarles, a choir member, will present his Yale Barbershop Quartette, a group which has done a great deal of entertaining about New England and is highly regarded in this popular field of music.

Bob Horne, who directed the choral music in the recent B. F. production of "Finian's Rainbow," will add his youthful charm to several numbers from "Call Me Madam." Bob Brotherston will join him in a classic duet on the common garden variety of "Sweet Potato."

Sandy Burbank, a talented musician, will add considerable effectiveness in a percussive way, to several choral numbers.

Mary Norian will join Bob Horne in "You're Just in Love" and Janet Burbank, Joan Sprague, Dianne Mansfield, Rebecca Robinson, Linda Witham, Sona Norian and our Episcopalian friend, Sophia H. Gardner, will be heard in incidental solos and trios.

Our favorite Bowdoin tenor, James Joslin, will, in his incomparable manner, be featured in "There's Nothing Like a Dame," which by popular request, is being done again this year.

Sherman Russell, our Amherst representative in that department, will sing with trio background and Bob Evans, one of our two bassi profundi will sing the incidental solo in "Marrying for Love."

As a contrast to the choral aspect of the programme, Grace Norian, assistant at the Unitarian Church and concert pianist, will play from the works of Rachmaninoff, Bert, Templeton. Miss Norian has appeared locally on several occasions this season as well as at the Piano Fair in Symphony Hall and with the Reading Symphony Orhestra and everywhere has received high acclaim.

Mary Ranton Witham is directing the entire programme which will be recorded by Mr. W. H. Fulton, recording engineer with the Mutual Broadcasting Company.

The Men Of Song

The Men of Song, who will appear on Monday, May 7 at Stoneham Town Hall is an accomplished, versatile quartet of four virile male voices. Veterans of three years on the concert stage, numerous appearances in radio, television and records, each of the four singers has a full musical background and education. Recently the quartet was named one of the ten best musical attractions in America by the National Society of Music. The key to their ability to delight audiences of all types lies in the individual musical training and experience of the Men of Song.

MR. MARTIN S. SWANSON

Chairman, Finance Committee, First Baptist Church

Taking over what seemed an almost impossible task, Mr. Martin S. Swanson assumed the responsibility of the Chairmanship of the Finance Committee of the First Baptist Church on May 1, 1948, with the indebtedness of the Church at the staggering figure of $145,710. In only twelve years this debt has been completely wiped out and on May 11th the actual burning of the church mortgage will take place with appropriate ceremony.

Although Mr. Swanson modestly disclaims the credit for eliminating this terrific indebtedness, insisting it is due to the loyal support of the members and friends of the Church, the almost unbelievable contributions from the Thrift Shop with its corps of faithful workers, and the inspiration and assistance of one of the fine members of the Church who in the last few years has personally matched the current giving for this purpose, it is a fact that without the ability and the many hours of time and effort on his part this could not have been accomplished. This, of course, is in addition to the raising of the current expense and missionary budget for the Church over these years.

With all the work this has involved Mr. Swanson has managed to take a very active part in the Greater Boston Community Fund drives and Red Cross solicitations, and served as Commodore of the Winchester Boat Club for two years.

New Armco Engineer Has Sister Here

The announcement that Mr. W. F. Tuttle has been appointed chief engineer of the Armco Steel Corporation holds interest in Winchester through the fact that his sister, Miss A. Allan Kimball is a Cabot street resident. Mr. Tuttle's advancement became effective April 23. As assistant chief engineer of all Armco he has played an important part in many revolutionary developments in steel-making during the last 20 years. He joined the company in 1922, when Armco's Ashland, Ky., division was being developed. He was transferred to that plant the following year and worked in the design and construction of the historic continuous mill which revolutionized the steel industry.

Returning to Middletown in 1926, Tuttle became assistant in design and construction of the hot strip mill at the East Works, and was placed in charge of the engineering department of the Middletown division in 1930. In 1945 he was appointed assistant chief engineer in the general engineering department.

Take Tables For Smith Night

Smith Night at the Pops on May 9 for the benefit of the Boston Smith Club Scholarship has many Winchester people among its patronesses.

Among those taking tables to help Smith College are: from Winchester, Mrs. Stanley E. Neill, Mrs. D. Reid Weedon, Jr., Mrs. Harrison Lyman, Mrs. Arthur Hertig, Mrs. Gilbert H. Hood, Jr., Mrs. William J. Bates, Mrs. Prescott F. Wild, Mrs. Geoffrey C. Neilly and Mrs. Sanborn Vincent; from Wakefield, Mrs. Marcus G. Beebe and Mrs. Bartlett Walton.

Mission Union Meeting First Congregational Church

Tuesday, May 8th, the Mission Union Guild of the First Congregational Church will hold its final meeting of the season. Sewing will start at 10:00 a. m. under the direction of Mrs. Grace Pound and Miss Margaret Sands. Luncheon will be served at 1:00 p. m. in the social hall by Mrs. Paul E. Nason, Mrs. Otis Jason and their committee.

Mrs. James S. Allen, director of Mission Union will preside at the afternoon meeting at 2:00. The worship service will be led by Mrs. John L. Lobingier. The speaker of the afternoon will be Dr. Kending Culley, whose topic will be "What Are Missions". Dr. Culley is minister of the Congregational Church at Haverhill. All women of the Church are cordially invited.

Winchester Garden Club

The Winchester Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Twombly on Thursday, April 26.

The spirit of spring was expressed throughout the house by beautiful arrangements of spring flowers in pastel shades. Ices in the form and color of flowers were served, accompanied by delicious and unique cakes.

The President, Mrs. William Goodhue, conducted the business of the meeting and the slate for '51 and '52 was presented by Mrs. Frank Knight, Nominating Chairman.

Following the business program, the Annual Auction Sale was conducted with Mrs. Roger Hadley as auctioneer. Under Mrs. Hadley's able salesmanship the bidding was brisk and a goodly sum was added to the treasury.

Samuel Reynolds of 16 Sargent road took the part of Michael Barnes in the Boston University show given by the School of Public Relations this week.

Made-To-Order MEDICINE

Few things you can buy are so completely "custom-made" as our prescribed medicines. And this cannot be otherwise, because when your doctor prescribes, he must take into careful consideration your age, weight, general condition, and then specify drugs in such quantities as will be best for your particular condition. In carrying out his orders, we take pains to conform exactly with each and every specification, because we know the importance of a prescribed medicine being "made to order."

Morning Study Group

On Friday, April 27th, the Morning Study Group of the College Club enjoyed a trip to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts and Radcliffe College. Miss Eleanor Gaveney, the museum's very interesting gallery talk. She emphasized the characteristics values of the periods represented in the paintings of each room. The many important paintings were the Last Supper, Venetian, mid-16th century, an early Corot which was a group of houses, and a small bright pink Renoir. The studio of mosaics was very unusual. A corridor lined with students' work also interesting, especially two of pupils of Hyman Bloom.

The loan exhibit of John Piper is very colorful, mostly 1950, in oils and gouaches. They show his 3rd period of painting, when he returned to drawing plus the abstract, using bright yellows and lighter grays.

Several returned to the campus after lunch at the Inn, for a visit to the Treasure Room. There Miss French showed the beautifully illuminated Hours and other rare books. The Breasting Collection from Alice Freeman and George Herbert Palmer. There were several Sinclair spare follios, since this is his anniversary, in a glass exhibition case. There is the recording secretary's report of a very successful season for which Mrs. Murray Moore has been the general chairman. With her as chairman for the first museum visit we went to the Currier Gallery of Art in Manchester, N. H. Mrs. John Carr had charge of the Schweitzer Festival (African Art) in the Mirsky Gallery, Boston. In December Miss Dorothy Adlow, critic of art for the Christian Science Monitor took us through the Dodge Miniature Memorial Exhibit at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts. Miss Alice Main was chairman in February for American Portraiture at the Fogg Art Museum. In March Mrs. Gerald Barrett was chairman for the Jack Yeats, Irish painter, exhibit in the Institute of Contemporary Art.

And WHEREAS, the Board of Survey of the Town of Winchester on the ninth day of February 1931 approved and filed in the office of the Town Clerk certain plans submitted with the petition of Flora A. Richardson of a way designated as "Road A", to be laid out in her land, beginning at No. 152 Forest Street and to extend northwesterly about two hundred seventy-eight (278) feet to a proposed way designated on said plans as "Road B"; and a way designated on said plans as "Road B" proposed to be laid out in her land, said "Road B" to begin at "Road A" and to extend northeasterly about three hundred (300) feet; said plans being entitled respectively "Plan and Profile Road A" made by Parker Holbrook, Engineer, dated January 24, 1931 and "Plan and Profile Road B" made by Parker Holbrook, Engineer, dated January 24, 1931;

And WHEREAS, the Board of Survey of the Town of Winchester on the 12th day of December 1932 approved and filed in the office of the Town Clerk a certain plan submitted with the petition of Flora A. Richardson and James and Mary C. Hinds of a way beginning at a point about four hundred twenty-five (425) feet northeasterly from "Road A" as laid out by the Board of Survey February 9, 1931 and extending northwesterly about three hundred forty (340) feet to "Road B", said plan being entitled "Plan and Profile Road C" by Parker Holbrook, Engineer, dated November 26, 1932;

And WHEREAS, the Board of Survey now contemplates the making of changes on said plans by altering the established grade lines as indicated on copies of said plans now on file in the office of the town engineer, and which will be exhibited at the hearing;

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Survey will give a public hearing thereon in the Selectmen's Room in the Town Hall building on Monday the 14th day of May, 1951 at 8:00 p.m.

By Order of the Board of Survey this 30th day of April 1951.

WINCHESTER CENTER SHOWING THE WHITE BLOCK SOON TO LOSE ITS TWO TOP STORIES

To Make White Block One Story Building

Owner Harry Chefalo stated this week that work will begin at once on removing the two top stories of the White Block at the corner of Church and Main streets. This three-story building, erected in the 1890's, has long been a center land mark. A few weeks ago a bad fire in the McCormack Drug Store in the corner of the building necessitated extensive alterations and repairs, and from this viewpoint Mr. Chefalo has decided to make the block into a one story building.

When finally finished the remaining one story structure will be modernized and brought into keeping architecturally with other center buildings. How long work will take has not been stated, but completion is expected before Fall.

En Ka Yearly Fair

Mrs. Leslie J. Tucker is the capable chairman of this year's Street Fair which is to be held May 26th and is to be called the En Ka Yearly Fair.

Each booth is to represented by a magazine. The idea has proved a popular one with the publications and all have cooperated willingly with the properties committee headed by Mrs. Leslie J. Scott, to make this a most colorful and interesting fair. Besides furnishing material to be used for decorating, each magazine has donated a subscription which En Ka in turn will give to you. There are thirty-one magazines represented — a few examples follow.

The Attic, headed by Mrs. Evan Kibbe and Mrs. Davenport Davis invites you to "Look".

The "Ladies Home Journal" takes care of the Bakery, which is in charge of Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker.

What could be more appropriate than "Highlights for Children" to represent the balloons? Mrs. Forest Pitman and Mrs. Clark Collins will see that all children are well supplied.

A Square Dance is surely the epitome of "Life". Mrs. Samuel Cole and Mrs. Victor Wolff head that committee for the highlight of the evening.

Mrs. Chandler Symmes and Mrs. Herbert Ross and their committee have been working since January to make the gift table one of the best with aprons, knitting bags and many other things. "McCall's" is full of good ideas like these. Filene's in Winchester has generously donated a wonderful talking doll to this booth.

Mrs. Townley-Tilson has charge of the supper to be served in the Baptist Church and it will surely be as good as any which is served in the "American Home".

The Garden Booth, whose committee is headed by Mrs. Robert Roundey, is represented by "House and Garden". Barbo's of Stoneham has donated a garden table and umbrella to this booth.

The Midway will be the usual gay place with fun for everybody

We are assured of this because Mrs. Edward T. Peabody and Mrs. Lyndon Burnham have made all the arrangements. There are new attractions this year as well as the old favorites. Here are some of them and the magazines chosen to represent them.

Ferris Wheel — "Outdoor Life".
Hop-a-long — "Sports A'Field".
Base Ball — "Sport".
Auto Ride — "Parents".
Darts — "Newsweek".
Tilt a Whirl — "Vogue".
Merry-Go-Round — "The Wonder Book".
Ping Pong — "Country Gentlemen".
Octopus — "Seventeen".
Fire Engine — "Saturday Evening Post".

Elected Community Chest President

Walcott B. Thompson was elected President of the Winchester Community Chest, Inc., at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors on Monday evening, May 7th.

Mr. Thompson, formerly Chairman of the Winchester Finance Committee, has served the Chest previously as both Clerk and Vice-President, and was Chairman of the Red Feather Drive in 1947. Miss McClenahan Wed To Mr. Neiley

There is Winchester interest in the wedding that took place on Saturday, May 5, in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rosemont, Penn., when Miss Patricia Lee McClenahan, daughter of Mrs. John Mcgredy McClenahan of 7 Banbury Way, Wayne, Penn., and the late Mr. McClenahan became the bride of Mr. Richard Bowdoin Neiley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowdoin Neiley of 4 Myopia road. The Reverend William P. S. Lander officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. John Kenton Eisenbrey of Villa Nova, Penn., wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned with fitted bodice and mandarin collar, with panels of Chantilly lace down the front and back, ending in a circular train. Her veil was of tulle with satin headband. She carried white roses and stephanotis of the valley.

Miss Alida Baird McClenahan, maid of honor, was gowned in pale yellow marquisette, with matching jacket of taffeta. She wore a scalloped helmet of yellow taffeta, and carried salmon tea roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Cynthia Anne Clarke, Miss Joan Howell Humphrey, Miss Barbara Brown, and Miss Jean Reid Neiley, sister of the groom, wore gowns of shrimp color similar in style to that of the maid of honor. They carried pale yellow roses.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of champagne marquisette and Chantilly lace, and baby blue butterfly orchids.

The mother of the groom was gowned in Navy blue, and wore a corsage of gardenias.

The usher corps was comprised of Mr. John Mcgredy McClenahan, brother of the bride, and Mr. Neiley's best man; Mr. Northam Lee Griggs of Sewickley, Penn.; Mr. Alfred Nathan of Eatontown, N. J.; Mr. David E. Kuizinga of Dover, N. J.; Mr. Philip A. Wilde, Jr., of Bedford, Conn.; Mr. William Wisner of Beaver, Penn.; Mr. Thomas H. Alexander of Pittsburgh, Penn.; and Mr. Alexander H. Neiley of this town, brother of the groom.

After a wedding trip to The Cloisters, Sea Island, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Neiley will make their home in Sewickley, Penn.

Rev. Clarence A. Macksey

Rev. Fr. Clarence A. Macksey died at his home, 4 Norwood street, on Wednesday morning, May 9, after several months' illness. Fr. Macksey was born August 2, 1901 in Winchester, son of the late Thomas J. and Lucy (MacDougall) Macksey. He attended Winchester Schools, graduated from Boston College High School in 1919. He attended Boston College, where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in the class of 1923. Fr. Macksey entered St. John's Seminary, Brighton, to study for the priesthood, and was ordained May 25, 1928.

His first priestly assignment of ten months was to St. Mary's Church, Franklin, where he worked diligently with the boys of Dean Academy and the prisoners at the Norfolk Prison Colony. In the spring of 1929 he was transferred to St. Therese's Church, North Everett, to be assistant, first to the Rev. Frederick J. Allehin and then to the Rev. Joseph A. Curtin. St. Therese's Parish was a newly formed one and Fr. Macksey worked with the children in the Sunday School and for many years directed the social activities of the parish.

In the fall of 1943, the late Cardinal O'Connell promoted Fr. Macksey to be assistant to the Rt. Rev. James Kelly, Our Lady of Lourdes, Jamaica Plain. Here in this parish again Fr. Macksey had charge of the children's work, re-establishing two troops of boy scouts and taking a great interest in the children.

In November of 1945 Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing D. D. sent Fr. Macksey to Lowell to be Director of the Catholic Charitable Bureau and Chaplain of Keith Academy.

Office of the dead will be at St. Mary's Church on Friday, May 11 at 4 p. m. and the body will lie in state in the church until 9 p. m.

A Children's mass for the deceased will be held Saturday morning, May 12 at 8 o'clock and a solemn Requiem High Mass will be celebrated at 10 a. m. in St. Mary's Church.

Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery, Woburn.

Rev. Benjamin P. Browne

Preacher At Victory Celebration

With two great services, one religious and the other social, the members and friends of the First Baptist Church will celebrate the victory of liquidating the heavy indebtedness they have been carrying for so many years. During the past seven years under the leadership of the present pastor, Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, such tremendous strides have been made in reducing and completely wiping out this mortgage, that the long looked for day of freedom from debt was reached before the most optimistic-minded had anticipated it.

Coming back to the Church he was instrumental in having constructed at the time of his pastorate here in Winchester, Dr. Benjamin P. Browne of Philadelphia will be the preacher at the Victory Morning Sanctuary service, Sunday, May 13th, at 10:45 o'clock. His subject is "A Strategy for New Victories."

Dr. Browne, following his well-remembered pastorate here and a very successful one in Holyoke, went to Philadelphia, where he is at present Executive Director of the Division of Christian Publications of the American Baptist Convention, a position which carried responsibilities for 117 publications which pass over his desk and reach a total annual circulation of 18,000,000 individual pieces. He is known to many Sunday church school leaders as the editor of the "Baptist Leader," and is a frequent speaker at conferences, conventions and colleges. Many of the townspeople of Winchester, as well as his former parishioners, will remember him for his friendliness, his ready smile and his ability for translating his thoughts and ideas into words. His message Sunday morning will be a fervent and inspiring one for the new era in First Baptist's history which is just beginning.

Dr. Everett C. Herrick, who was one of the speakers at the Dedication services of this church building, will take part in this service of gratitude to God.

The Social event marking the end of this indebtedness will be held on Monday evening, May 14th, in the Social Hall of the Church, in conjunction with the Annual Church Business Meeting. A banquet at 6:30 will precede the Business Meeting, following which a fitting program has been planned leading up to the burning of the mortgage.

Mr. William Breed, President of the Massachusetts Baptist Convention, will bring greetings from the Convention; Dr. Isaac Higginbotham, Executive Secretary of the Convention, will speak on "Challenge to New Achievements," Dr. Browne will speak on "Retrospect and Prospect"; Mr. A. Ollis Weld, Chairman of the original Building Committee, will bring reminiscences and introduce some of the members of the building and building finance committees; Mr. Martin S. Swanson, chairman of the Church Finance Committee for the past twelve years and an indefatigable worker on the reduction of the mortgage, will tell "How We were Able to Do It," at which time he will present Rev. Arthur L. Winn, who so generously helped in the past few years to make this victory possible by his matching of all contributions by friends and members of the Church. To Rev. Winn has been given the privilege of the actual burning of the mortgage, a kind of praise to God will conclude the evening's program.

To all who in any way have helped to make this victory possible the First Baptist Church wishes to express its heartfelt gratitude as the Church with its financial burden removed now stands at the threshold of this new era in its nearly 100 years of service in this community.

Annual Plant Sale And Luncheon, Winchester Smith College Club

It's Spring and around the Winchester Smith College Club [illegible] the annual Plant Sale and Lunch[illegible] to be held again this year at Central Congregational Church, on Saturday, May 19th. Always a highlight of the spring season, this event, not for the benefit of the Club's scholarship fund, promises this year to be better than ever. Even the weather is cooperating. The sudden rush of warm spring sunshine is not only making all Winchester garden minded, but is readying the tulip beds at Central Green that provide such a lovely setting for the affair. Every club member is taking some active part in the preparations, and even non-member friends and several husbands are again volunteering for active service.

The Committee in charge of the plants, Mrs. William H. Davis, Mrs. Arthur T. Myers, Mrs. Gilbert H. Head, Jr., and Mrs. Henry K. Spencer, will be assisted by Mrs. Robert G. Abbott, Mrs. J. Waldo Bond, Mrs. John L. Green, Mrs. Clinton Farnham, Mrs. Maxwell Fish, Mrs. Albert Haskell, Mrs. Robert B. Kittridge, Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. Stanley Neill, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Gilbert H. Tapley, Mrs. Frederick Walsh. The familiar yellow order blanks have already been mailed to a long list of Winchester "garden-ers", and offer again this year a wide variety of annuals, all the favorite perennials, an assortment of potted plants and three of the best varieties of tomatoes. Two new colors will be introduced in the petunia group this year, "Silver Medal", a soft pink, and "Gypsy" a brilliant salmon pink. Orders will be assembled and ready to be picked up at Central Green on Saturday, May 19th, from ten in the morning until five at night. A group of "hardy perennial" club workers, equipped with children's carts, will transport your plants to your waiting cars while you enjoy luncheon in one of the Central Green Houses.

By popular demand, the same delicious chicken salad luncheon will be served again this year from 12:30 until 2 p. m. There will be a garden atmosphere inside as well as out; tables will have pastel-colored cloths and floral centerpieces; waitresses will wear Smith colors, white dresses with yellow aprons and everywhere there will be those interesting flower arrangements at which Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Spencer are so adept.

Mrs. Clarence P. Wheaf is General Chairman of the Luncheon and will be hostess at her own house, assisted by Mrs. Richard Parkhurst, Mrs. Harold Beebe, Miss Pauline Hayden, Mrs. Merton Grush, Mrs. Austin Broadhurst and Miss Helen Hall. Her waitresses will be Mrs. Robert Roundy, Miss Sally Ray, Mrs. Thornton Stearns, and Mrs. F. J. Schiffmacher.

Mrs. Neil Borden will have charge of the luncheon at the home of Mrs. Henry Spencer, and will be assisted by: Mrs. Kenneth Hall, Mrs. Harry Parsons, Mrs. Harold Tozier, Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Mrs. Benjamin Marshall, Mrs. Harold French, Mrs. Verne Chapman, and Mrs. Arthur Snow. Her waitresses will be Mrs. Kendall Spencer, Miss Mary McCormick, Miss June Lewis, and Miss Carolyn Reeves.

Mrs. Bowen Tufts will be chairman of the luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Bayne, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Watkins, Mrs. Charles Watson, Mrs. Reuben Mc-Calif, Mrs. Burton Cary, Mrs. Morris Kerr, and Mrs. Herbert Bixler. Mrs. Melvin Hughes, Miss Idella Tapley, and Miss Jane Coulson will be waitresses.

Miss Adelaide Homer will direct the luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harold Farnsworth, assisted by Mrs. Clark Collins, Mrs. Marion Clark, Mrs. Robert Blackler, Mrs. Franklin Lane, Mrs. Geoffrey Neiley, and Mrs. James Severance. Her waitresses will be Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. Warren Peare and Mrs. Robert Kittridge.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Charles H. Tozier, 21 Ridgefield road, Old, Winchester 0-0088) or from the Knit Shop on Thompson street. Limited to 200, tickets should be ordered well in advance of the deadline, May 16th.

The popular Hot Dog Grill will be ready for business from 10 o'clock on and will be run again this year by the successful team: Dr. Arthur Hertig, Mr. Gilbert Hood, and Mr. Thornton Stearns, with newcomer Mr. Austin Broadhurst assisting.

Lewis Named Officer Of Banking Institute

Donald J. Lewis of 17 Chestnut street, was named chief consul of Boston Chapter, Inc., American Institute of Banking, at the first meeting of the chapter board of governors for the 1951-52 institute year.

He will supervise and coordinate the efforts of consuls in the banks of 20 eastern Massachusetts cities and towns to secure memberships in the chapter and enrollments in the business and financial courses offered by the institute. He will also direct the social program of the chapter.

Mr. Lewis is vice-president of The Second National Bank of Boston, in charge of the Station office of the bank. He is a graduate of the American Institute of Banking and of the Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University. He is a former member of the chapter board of governors and a past president of the Winchester Rotary.

Crandall — Kendrick

On Sunday afternoon, May 6, in the Second Congregational Church, at 1 p. m., Marjorie I. Kendrick, daughter of Mrs. Arthur E. Kendrick and the late Mr. Kendrick, was united in marriage to Mr. David W. Crandall, son of Mrs. David Crandall and the late Mr. Crandall of Reading. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Cook, pastor of the Second Congregational Church.

The bride wore an aqua colored dress with a pink hat, carrying a nosegay bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

The bride-maid, Mrs. Betty Blood, sister of the bride, wore a lilac colored dress with a white hat and carried a nosegay bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. George E. Blood was Mr. Crandall's best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride, which was beautifully decorated with red roses and spring flowers.

On return from a wedding trip to Canada, they will make their home in Reading.

Mr. Crandall is associated with the Fraser Corporation of Wakefield.

Born

To Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Heenan, (Elizabeth Elliott) of Park Forest, Illinois, a son, child, Richard Elliott Heenan, May 5, 1951, at St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Elliott of 40 Woodside road, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Heenan of Rahway, New Jersey.

Engaged

Dr. and Mrs. William J. Eklund of Larrance street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Nanette Eklund, to Mr. Harry Sarkisian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Unan Sarkisian of New York, and the late Mr. Sarkisian.

Miss Eklund was graduated from Boston University in August, 1950.

Mr. Sarkisian served with the Navy on the Pacific area, and was graduated from Boston University in August, 1950. He is now a student at Boston University School of Law. A June wedding is planned.

Double Shower

The Staff of the Winchester Public Library gave a Double Shower for two of its members who will have June weddings. Miss Bernice Taber and Miss Nanette Eklund were the honored guests.

The Shower was held Tuesday evening after library hours at the home of Miss Doris Maxwell, on Thornton road. Arrangements were in charge of Miss Maxwell, Mrs. Philip Dennett and Miss Elizabeth Russell of the library staff.

Wisteria Out

For many years Winchester residents have annually visited "Arborledge," the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wills at 28 Highland avenue to view the lovely spring flowers. This year the Wills report that the wisteria will be at its height during next week — May 12 to May 19. This year's display promises to be the finest ever seen. Mr. and Mrs. Wills invite Winchester people and their friends to call and see the flowers.

William H. Conway

William H. Conway of 41 Salisbury street, husband of the late Jessie C. Little Conway, died at the Winchester Hospital on Wednesday, May 9, after a week's illness.

Mr. Conway was born in Woburn 72 years ago, but has been living in Winchester for the past 38 years. He was at one time Commissioner of Public Works in Woburn. Up to the time of his retirement four-teen years ago he was secretary and treasurer of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company of Boston. He was a member of Woburn Council 77, Knights of Columbus.

Surviving him is a sister, Miss Marguerette J. Conway of this town.

Services will be held on Saturday morning, May 12 at 8 o'clock from the Medlett Funeral Home with a high mass of requiem celebrated in St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock.

Interment will be in Wildwood cemetery.

Agnes S. Sleeth

Mrs. Agnes Sarah Sleeth, widow of James F. Sleeth of 384 Washington street, died Saturday, May 5 at the Winchester Hospital after a short illness.

Mrs. Sleeth was born June 12, 1878 in Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, the daughter of Duncan MacKay and Anna (MacDonald) MacKay. She has resided in Winchester for over twenty years.

She is survived by a daughter, Miss Ada R. Sleeth, bookkeeper at the Winchester Hospital; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Waterman and Miss Mary MacKay; a brother Rev. John S. MacKay, all of Boston.

Services were held at the Bennett Funeral Chapel on Monday, May 7 at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley officiated.

Interment was in Mount Auburn, Cambridge.

James Thomson

James Thomson, husband of Catherine McDevitt Thomson, died at his home, 41 Allen road, on Thursday May 3, after a brief illness. He was 81 years old. Mr. Thomson had made his home in Winchester for the past 18 years.

He was a member of the Prospect Congregational Church of Somerville; Royal Arch Chapter of Charlestown; the Loyal Washington Lodge, 7175, IOOF, of Lawrence; the Grecian College, A. F. A. M. of Lawrence and the Clan MacDougall Order of Scottish Clans of Somerville.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Edward W. Thomson of Boston; two daughters, Mrs. Everett W. Goss of 41 Allen road, with whom he made his home and Mrs. Ralph Stone of Miami, Florida, six grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.

Services were held on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the David Fadden & Sons Funeral Home in Somerville, Rev. A. W. Stone officiated.

Interment was in Wildwood cemetery.

Observes 87th Birthday

Mrs. James H. Noonan observed her 87th birthday at her home, 27 Sheridan Circle, on Sunday, May 6th.

She received telegrams, messages and floral pieces during the day.

A dinner was held in the evening in her honor and attended by her immediate family, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

The Star joins with her many friends in wishing her "Happy Birthday."

Simonds — Dotten

Roland E. Simonds of Myrtle street and Louise M. Dotten formerly of Rosemont street were quietly married at the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church by the Rev. John Snook, Jr. on Saturday, May 5, 1951, at 12 o'clock noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Simonds will make their home at 16 Myrtle street, Winchester, Mass.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Ove E. Mortensen of Harwichport (formerly of Winchester) announce the engagement of their daughter Nancy Marie to Charles R. Irving, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Cunningham of Winchester. No immediate plans have been made for the wedding.

Sunday Tea

Mr. and Mrs. Leon F. Sargent of Central street were hosts to the Library Trustees, their wives and husbands, and the members of the library staff at tea last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Sargent is a member of the Board of Library Trustees.

They Are Back

The ducks and geese are back in the Mill Pond again. The Park Department returned them on Friday from North Woburn, where they have been since last November.

They have been missed both by the children and grown ups, as they enjoyed feeding and watching them sail around the pond.

Florence Crittenton Garden Tour

On Tuesday, May 22 from 2:00 to 4:30 p. m. five Winchester gardens will be opened under the auspices of the Winchester Circle of the Florence Crittenton League of Compassion to members and the public. Mrs. Vincent P. Clarke, General Chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. J. Howard Macaulay, Tickets; Mrs. Everett A. Tisdale, Publicity; and Mrs. Carl G. Richmond, Refreshments. In case of rain, the tour will be postponed until the next day Wednesday, May 23rd.

Tickets may be purchased at Filene's in Winchester on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 15th and 16th from 10:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. under the direction of Mrs. J. Howard Macaulay and her ticket committee: Mrs. Francis G. Chase, Mrs. Cheney E. Cook, and Mrs. John M. Murray.

Observing gardeners report the season to be two weeks ahead, but if the weather is reasonably cool for the next few days, the following should be the highlights of Winchester's most beautiful gardens.

Mrs. John B. Wills of 238 Highland avenue has a magnificent display of lovely lavendar Chinese wisteria, which is unusually full this year, as well as some beautiful azaleas.

Mrs. P. A. Sorokin's garden at 8 Cliff street, which adjoins that of Mrs. Wills, is also noted for its fine specimens and many varieties of colorful azaleas, which cover her hillside with spring brilliance.

The beautiful Central Green gardens, in a warm and sheltered part of town, are probably farthest advanced. They include the gardens of Mrs. Henry K. Spencer at 1 Central Green, of Mrs. Clarence P. Whorf at 2 Central Green, and the attractive terraced garden of Mrs. William L. Davis leading to her large lower garden at 3 Central Green.

Mrs. William J. L. Roop at 16 Niles Lane has, in the springtime, an interesting green garden with forty year old rhododendrons growing to great heights on either side of a grand vista of the Mystic Lakes. Many unusual trees are another feature of this garden: a larch tree as well as five lindens, one of tremendous size, are of especial interest. The linden trees are not native to this country, and were originally imported from abroad.

The last garden is that of Mrs. Harold F. Meyer at 16 Everett avenue, where both house and garden will be opened. Afternoon punch and cookies will be served in the beautiful foyer looking down on the Mystic Lakes and in the spacious dining room. Mrs. Frederick N. Stephens and Mrs. Frank H. Knight, Mrs. Frank S. Garnett and Mrs. Frederick W. Aseltine will preside at the punch bowl. Hostesses for the afternoon include Mrs. John Lynch, President, Mrs. Alvin M. Litchfield, Mrs. Benjamin Hill, Mrs. Herbert T. Wadsworth, Mrs. Cheney E. Cook, and Mrs. Howard B. Richmond.

The refreshments are being planned by Mrs. Carl G. Richmond and her co-chairman, Mrs. Herbert Preble, assisted by Mrs. George B. Field, Mrs. Ernest J. Wright, Mrs. Archie S. MacKellar and Mrs. Henry C. Marcionette.

It has been suggested that cuban heels (or lower) are most considerate of lawns and of the Garden Hostesses who so kindly extend the privilege to so many of seeing their gardens.

Entertains Wellesley Club Board

Mrs. Albert D. Swazey, president of the Winchester Wellesley Club, entertained the members of the board of that club at luncheon at her home on Thursday, May 3. Plans were made for the annual meeting of the Wellesley Club which is to be held at the Fieldstones in Andover.

Among those who have served on the board with Mrs. Swazey during the past two years are Mrs. Frederic E. Abbe, Mrs. Wayne E. Davis, Mrs. John L. Graves, Mrs. Peter Laban, Mrs. Paul B. Leverette, Mrs. Arthur T. Roode, Mrs. Roy W. Wilson, and Mrs. Charles T. Main, 2nd. The chairman of last year's Winchester Mornings, Mrs. H. Gardner Bradlee, and the chairman of this year's series of Mornings, Mrs. H. Lindsay Caldwell, were also present at the luncheon.

Mystic School Assembly Program

The boys and girls of Miss Salice's 3rd Grade presented a delightful spring assembly program on Thursday, May 3rd at 9:30 a. m. in the Mystic School Assembly Hall to the primary grades and invited guests. The children marched into to the Hall as "Gypsy Waltz" by Vladimir Padwa was being played by Virginia Blake.

The program in four parts was announced by Martha Dyer:

Part 1: Three poems
- Baby Seed Song:
  - Martha Bond
  - Dorothy March
  - Virginia Blake
- Roller Skates:
  - Janet Kearns
- Thief Robin:
  - Bill Schweers

Part 2: Three songs by a group of boys and girls
- Lady Spring
- A Golden Boat I'll Buy You
- Spring Fever

Part 3:

An enchanting version of Charles Perrault's "Sleeping Beauty," in which fairies with golden wings and heralds in coats of mail lent a note of fantasy to an ever popular fairy tale, was dramatized by the class from a story in one of their third grade reading books.

The cast of characters in "Sleeping Beauty" follows:
- The Two Heralds
  - Shaun Scanlon
  - George Tisdale
- The King
  - Stephen Murphy
- The Queen
  - Mariana Ross
- The Two Servants
  - James Towle
  - Martha Dyer
- The Good Fairies
  - Martha Bond
  - Joan Caldwell
  - Sandy Wolsey
  - Nan Shorey
  - Dorothy March
  - Cornelia Frazier
  - Judith Davis
  - Louise Huntoon
- The Bad Fairy
  - Suzanne Fisher
- The Princess
  - Nancy Morrison
- The Robin
  - John Johnian
- The Two Rabbits
  - Charles Corey
  - David Kennedy
- The Squirrel
  - Bill Schweers
- The Trees
  - David Grant
  - Parker Allen
  - Janet Kearns
- The Prince
  - John Hosmer
- The Two Courtiers
  - Clark Chandler
  - Robert Williams

Act 1 took place in the Royal Palace just after the birth of the Princess. Act II portrayed the events which occurred in the palace on the Princess's sixteenth birthday, while the first scene in Act III took place 100 years later outside the palace walls, and the last scene in which the charming Prince awakened the Princess was in the Royal Palace itself. During the changing of the scenes, Virginia Blake played a scene in Act III entitled "Spring Magic."

Part 4:

The Virginia Reel, very well danced by a group of boys and girls, concluded the program.

V. F. W. Auxiliary News

The V. F. W. Auxiliary Bowling League held their banquet Friday, May 4, at Blinstrubs Village. Trophies were presented to the following: High average and high 3 strings, Cusi Fiore; high single, Kay Procopio; high average second place, "Jo" Capone; top team, Ann Amico, Margaret Thomman, Eleanor Giannotti, and Mary Jane Penta.

The Auxiliary also sponsored a dance at the Bedford Hospital on Thursday, May 3. We wish to thank the non-members for their splendid cooperation.

Annual Meeting Of Hospital Friends

The first Annual Meeting of the Friends of the Winchester Hospital will be held on Thursday, May 17 at 3 o'clock in the Music Hall on Bacon street. The annual report and election of officers will come first, followed by the speaker of the afternoon, Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Administrator of the Hospital. Tea will be served after the meeting, with ample opportunity for all members to meet the chairmen of the volunteer services, Mrs. Fulton Brown will preside.

This meeting, which also marks the first birthday of the Friends, is open to everyone, and present members are urged to invite guests. During this first year, the Friends have assisted in nine volunteer services for the Winchester Hospital, have sponsored several projects for Ways and Means, and have become a vital part of the community the Hospital serves. Members are from Winchester, Reading, Wakefield, Wilmington, Stoneham, and neighboring towns.

Mrs. Erskine N. White and Mrs. Frank C. d'Elseaux will present the list of officers for 1951 - 52, to be voted on at this meeting on May 17.

W. H. S. Student Told Of Life In Iran

Archie Bolster, who lived in Iran for two and a half years from 1946 to 1948, gave an interesting talk to one of Mrs. Stacy's history classes on the history of that country on Friday, April 27. While in Iran, Archie's father, Mr. H. G. Bolster, was Agricultural Attache with the American Embassy in Teheran. Archie told the class that Iran's recorded history dates back to 4000 B. C. He culminated his talk with a report on existing conditions in that country today.

The Bolsters traveled extensively in Iran, so Archie showed slides which the family took while there, giving the class a fascinating glimpse into the life of that region. While showing the slides Archie answered numerous questions about Iran and explained many of its customs. The sincere interest shown by the class was a tribute to the effectiveness of Archie's talk.

Indians Lost 8 - 3 To Melrose

A jittery first inning in which they spotted Melrose High a four-run lead cost Winchester High an 8 - 3 defeat at Manchester Field last Friday afternoon. In that opening inning the first two Melrose batters singled, the third batter was passed after he should have been retired on a foul fly, one run came home on an error on a routine ground ball, a two-run double, and a long fly accounted for the Melrose tallies. The locals played the visitors evenly the rest of the way but never could overcome that first inning margin.

The Indians could not seem to do anything right as the breaks went consistently against them all through the game. In the fourth inning Winchester filled the bases with nobody out but failed to score. A hit or two then could have put them in the ball game, especially as they scored two runs in the following inning and left two more runners on base. In the seventh the locals made three solid singles but failed to score as the result of over-eager base running. Considerable credit must go to the Melrose key-stone pair, however, as they handled 17 chances without an error, including a vital 6 - 4 - 3 double play when the locals had the bases loaded.

After the first inning Stowell Symmes pitched great ball for Winchester and actually outpitched his highly publicized rival. Symmes gave up only two bases on balls while striking out eight Melrose batters but ragged support handed Melrose four extra runs. Jim Griffin and Prep Keyes had two hits apiece for the locals but the others were too anxious up there at the plate and were going after bad pitches.

Locals Trounced Stoneham 20 - 7

The Winchester High batters had a field day at the expense of the Stoneham High pitching staff as the Indians pounded out a 20 - 7 victory at Stoneham on Tuesday, May 1. The locals bombarded four Stoneham pitchers for a total of 20 hits which included a double, four triples, and no less than four home runs. The extra base hitters for Winchester were Ed Crowley, Peter Coon, and "Jocko" Serieka with a home run and a triple apiece, Charlie Murphy with a home run and a double, and Captain Tony Cirurso with a triple.

Backed by such a savage display of power, Charlie Murphy had an easy time on the mound for the Indians as he won h's fourth game of the season. He was in complete command all the way as he permitted only five hits while striking out eight batters and giving up five bases on balls. He was in trouble in only the third and seventh innings but the four Stoneham runs in the third were unearned and it was not until the seventh when Stoneham combined a single and a base on balls with a double to score an earned run.

Ed Crowley had a big day for the Indians as he collected four consecutive hits after going hitless in his first two trips to the plate. Peter Coon and Bob Flaherty connected for three safeties apiece while Prep Keyes, "Jocko" Serieka, and Charlie Murphy had a brace of hits to their credit. The fielding gems of the game were contributed by Dave Dalton, Ed Crowley, and Bob Flaherty.

The Postman

It is a pleasure to see that a few of the younger letter carriers are beginning to take pride in their uniform. There was a time when the uniformed members of the postal service made a fine appearance as they made their rounds. But the younger men haven't seemed to care how they looked. Most of them were too accustomed to military uniforms to care for wearing another . . . and two years are beginning to "age" them. They are fine, and it is good to see the old-timers, who were always so careful of them appearance as the uniform, is his smile!

Exchange.

League Of Women Voters

The April meeting of the League of Women Voters was held at the home of Mrs. Reginald Bratton on the day, May 2. The report of the several committee chairmen showed that it has been a busy year for all members studying national and state problems, getting out the information for voters, equal pay for men and women, and equal reformatory rules for men and women for the first offenses.

Mrs. Moses Little, past president of the Massachusetts League and now a member of the National League board, reported on the recent National Council meeting. She said that the League is growing in numbers and effectiveness all over the country, and that state Leagues are now being organized in the western states even though the cities are so far from each other. Alaska now has two League organizations, and Honolulu one. The delegates at the National Council meeting recommended continued support of the U. N. and any measures to strengthen its security functions; the furtherance of international economic development to combat disease, misery and hopelessness; support of the Foreign Aid bill to come before Congress soon, which includes Marshall Aid, military aid, Point 4 and our share of the technical assistance program of the U. N.; conservation of natural resources by reorganization according to the Hoover report and other studies.

The Nominating Committee, Mrs. Philip Wadsworth, Chairman, submitted the following slate of officers for 1951 - 52, which was elected:

President — Mrs. Rodney Long
First Vice-President — Mrs. Rowland Patrick.
Second Vice-President — Mrs. Richard Wyman.
Recording Secretary — Mrs. William Davies.
Corresponding Secretary — Mrs. Carl Morse.
Treasurer — Mrs. Thomas Hill
Economic Policies — Miss Helen Monroe.
Education — Mrs. Antonio Mozzacappa.

Lewis Parkhurst Mothers' Association

The annual meeting of the Parkhurst Mothers' Association will be held in the Auditorium of the school next Tuesday afternoon, May 15, at 2:30.

Following the annual reports, election of officers for next year, and a message from Miss Cunningham, the Parkhurst Band will give a short recital. The assembled mothers and teachers will then have the privilege of hearing the highly recommended Miriam Cahalin do her monologues "Sketches From Life."

Coffee and sandwiches will be served at the close of the meeting. Children will be cared for in the Kindergarten for twenty-five cents per mother, so it is hoped all mothers of Parkhurst children will be able to attend

Witham Singers — Friends' Musicale

Last Thursday morning, the lovely home of Mrs. Fulton Brown, 24 Arlington street, was the scene of a charming May Day musicale and program, as the Mary Witham Singers presented a morning musicale for the Friends of the Winchester Hospital, and their guests. Coffee was served by Mrs. John Page and her committee, with Mrs. George Milner of Reading and Mrs. Erskine N. White pouring. The aroma of the good coffee, fresh doughnut-balls and pink apple blossoms made the French Provincial dining room a popular gathering place — while others preferred to stroll around the garden and grounds.

After coffee, members and guests gathered in the huge living room, and relaxed for the concert which followed — and even the most critical listeners were spellbound at the splendid program of the Mary Witham Singers! The delightful selections — the solos — the accompaniment, and the excellent direction were observed, and one could hear every word of each singer in the group, and marvelled at the wonderful diction. It was a responsive group of women — a group which seemed to enjoy the singing so thoroughly that the spirit was contagious.

Between musical numbers, poetry was read by Mrs. Robert P. Blake, from selections chosen by Mrs. Caroline Fitts. As the "disease" of the morning, Mrs. Blake was superb, and when she spoke, there wasn't a sound from the audience. Among the selections Mrs. Blake read were "Listening" by Amy Lowell, "The Night is Music" by Middleton; the whimsical poem of the child without a T. V. set, "Underprivileged Child" by McGinley; "Hymn to the Night" by Longfellow — and "Patterns" by Amy Lowell. Mrs. Blake has a beautiful voice, and she gave each line of "Patterns" the depth and full meaning the poetess meant it to have, and the reading of it last Thursday thrilled the listeners.

Solos were by Sophia Gardner, Elizabeth Gardner, and Olive Bird; Grace Norian was the able accompanist, assisted by Siron Hovnanian.

The musical selections by this outstanding choral group — all of whom are Winchester women — included "Spring" by Bainbridge-Crist; "At Evening," Debussy-Fine; "Songs My Mother Taught Me," Dvorak; "Early One Morning" (parody), Old English; "A Spring Flower," Campbell-Tipton; "Allah," by Chadwick; piano selections, "Rigaudon," by Ravel, and "The Little White Donkey" by Ibert; "Four Love Songs by Brahms, and "May Day Carol" by Taylor as the fitting finale.

Mrs. Fulton Brown, President of the Friends, opened the program with a word of welcome and concluded it with warm appreciation from the Friends of the Winchester Hospital to Mrs. Witham and her Singers for their kindness in presenting the concert, and for the much-enjoyed performance.

Winchester Party In The West

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDavitt of Everett avenue, with Mr. and Mrs. E. Ober Pride of Forested road and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Bennett of Everell road left last Friday for a week at the Hotel Broadmoor, Colorado Springs, Colorado. They were accompanied by four other Vice-Presidents of the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants and will attend a meeting of the Council, the governing body of the American Institute of Accountants. They will return by way of Denver and are due back in Winchester on Sunday, May 13th.

Community School Of Christian Education

At a meeting of the Planning Committee of the Community School of Christian Education held at the First Congregational Church on May 1st, a report of the Program was considered. Plans for the school have now progressed so that several of the courses may be announced at this time:

1. "You Can Teach." An ABC course for brand-new teachers and for prospective teachers.

2. "Creative Activities." A course of handwork, etc., for all age levels.

3. "Youth Work for the Junior High Age." For junior high leaders and advisers.

4. "Parents' Problems." A consultant course for parents, at which the problems of children and young people will be discussed.

5. "Dramatics." Including choric speech, motion choir, and dramatics to be used informally in the classroom and at seasonal programs of the church.

Church school workers and parents will not want to miss the opportunity offered by this School to prepare themselves to do a better job as teachers and as parents. Prospective workers with children and young people will also wish to take advantage of this opportunity to prepare for future service.

The dates for the school are five consecutive Monday evenings — September 24, October 1, 8, 15, and 22. The sessions will begin at 7:30 o'clock with dessert and coffee, followed by class sessions from 8 o'clock until 8:50, with a General Assembly at 9 o'clock. The Assembly will be a Bible study course for everybody, with two evenings on the Old Testament, two evenings on the New Testament, and the fifth evening for summaries of the courses, findings and exhibits.

The Program Committee includes:

Rev. Robert A. Storer of the Unitarian Church, Chairman.

Mrs. H. Stanley Kinsley of the First Baptist Church.

Dr. John L. Lobingier of the First Congregational Church.

Dr. Richard Manwell, of the Woburn First Congregational Church.

Rev. John Smook, Jr., of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church.

Rev. Donald B. Tarr of the First Congregational Church.

Mrs. Lucia Wright of the Church of the Epiphany.

Morgan Memorial Needs Your Help

The Goodwill Industries of Morgan Memorial in Boston have a great need for good second hand clothing which may be sold at reasonable rates to needy persons. This is spring cleaning time and any articles of clothing, furniture, etc., which you can send in to Morgan Memorial will be much appreciated.

The aged and handicapped, who do not want charity but do want a chance to earn self respecting wages, need your cooperation in this matter. Several persons have spoken about truck drivers of another Agency assuring them that they take Morgan Memorial bags and return them to Morgan Memorial. These drivers do return the bags, but empty of the contents and recently about 800 bags were returned to Morgan Memorial empty of the contents and even without the cords. Not only is this a mean misrepresentation but it is a substantial loss to Morgan Memorial.

Please save your bags for the regular Morgan Memorial drivers and ask your friends to do the same. Telephone HAncock 6-9670 and the truck will be glad to call.

Three Houses Open To Public May 18

On Friday afternoon, May 18, from 2 to 4:30 o'clock, the Winchester Home and Garden Club will hold "Open House" at three of Winchester's most unusual homes, with refreshments served at the close of the pilgrimage in the lovely spring garden of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wills, 228 Highland avenue. Admittance cards, to be worn by the visitor, may be secured in advance from Mrs. Everett Gray, WI 6-1038-M, or Mrs. Edward Mansfield, WI 6-3149-W. Those who would like transportation on that day are also asked to call either number, and arrangements will be made by the Club as a courtesy.

Mrs. George E. Connor and Mrs. Frank B. Robinson are in charge of general arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Edward B. Mansfield, Mrs. Alexander P. Aitken, Mrs. Frederick Churchill, and Mrs. Olcott Hooper. Mrs. Sidney A. Burr and Mrs. Raymond C. Strawbridge are in charge of refreshments. The hostesses on Friday have opened their homes to assist the Club in carrying on its Garden Club Service — mainly assistance at the veterans' hospitals, planting for the library and Home for the Aged, and flower arrangement at the hospital. Visitors to the Open Houses will not only be sharing in these Service plans, but will also be enjoying three delightful and different homes, with flower arrangements by local women. And at the close of the visits, there will be an opportunity to relax and enjoy the flowering shrubs and wisteria of the Wills' garden.

Homes to be open Friday, May 18, will be the modern home of Dr. and Mrs. William D. Barone, Church and School streets — a house as modern as tomorrow, with many eye-catching details of architecture and furnishing planned by the owners that will appeal to all visitors; the early American home of Mr. and Mrs. Rogee C. Hadley, 193 Forest street, which permits the visitors to step back, for a moment, into life of another century — to the days of pumpkin hoods and Betty lamps! The third house open to Garden visitors will be the L. J. Raymond home, 10 Hillcrest Parkway (near Washington School) which is most unusual, most charming — and almost beggars any word-description. This house has been written up in leading magazines, and on Friday will also have handsome flower arrangements on exhibit. A sheet of directions to the houses and gardens will be given to each visitor.

Pre-Revolutionary church communion silver will be shown at the First Annual Lexington Antique Show and Sale to be held in Cary Memorial Hall, Lexington, May 15, 16 and 17 from 1 p. m. until 10 p. m. The show, sponsored by dealers from both the Boston area and out-of-state, will display and offer for sale antiques of every description.

The Bridge

To the Young American Soldiers:
From my home I can see across the Mystic Lakes a range of hills, where the sun goes down. Beyond the hills lie Lexington and Concord, where the rude bridge arched the flood — the bridge of destiny. It was here the prophetic shot was fired "heard round the world."

On a day late in October I set out for Concord, part of the way I traveled by the road on which the running fight took place; past the green in Lexington, where blood was spilt on a day in April, 1775.

I was low in spirit, troubled by a feeling of helplessness, frustration, nearly akin to despair, brought about by the confusion in the world; the ugliness of it was frightening. I felt the need of rededication as an American.

As I went on my way words spoken by Lincoln during a great crisis in the history of our country ran through my mind. It is for us the living, rather to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here thus far so nobly advanced." That work was "testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure." The testing has continued in many lands, now in far away Korea, where Americans are fighting for Liberty as valiantly as our fathers fought at Lexington and Concord. And twice "four score and seven years" the river has flowed beneath the Bridge. And I thought of you, the youth of America, who hold the future in your hands and hearts.

For as long as you can remember you have heard of Liberty. You have lived in Liberty, it has been the very breath of your life but now, your land and my land needs you and you are called to serve. You are required to give up the way of life to which you are accustomed, to struggle and suffer for that very liberty which temporarily has been denied to you. This may not be easy to understand.

As I walked slowly down the tree-lined road that leads to the Bridge thinking of these things, through the trees I caught a glimpse of the Old Manse standing serene in weathered dignity, just as it stood long ago on the day of the fight. And I saw also the great block of granite that marks the burial place of British soldiers.

I walked on to the bridge. That Autumn day the river was peaceful as though fearful of disturbing the reflection on its surface of the deep blue of the sky and the scarlet and golden leaves that hung motionless in the sunlight, in striking contrast to undrooping on that long-remembered April day. Spring was early that year, it is said, the air was sweet, buds were bursting, the apple trees were in bloom. The soldiers in red coats felt the heat on the road back before the day was done.

They faced one another across the Bridge, the King's men and the men of the colony. There was a moment of hesitation as though by some mysterious way they sensed the world-wide consequences of their next step. Then the guns spoke their awful message. More men of Middlesex fell. A soldier in a red coat lay motionless on the Bridge.

So the fight began, and went on and on; "The farmers gave them ball for ball, from behind each fence and farmyard wall, chasing the red coats down the lane, then crossing the fields to emerge again, under the trees at the turn of the road, only pausing to fire and load." It was long past sundown when the last shot echoed across the Mystic River at Charlestown.

As I lingered on the Bridge I thought not only of you but of the youth of all America through all the years who have marched across the pages of history. I seemed to hear the tramp of marching millions, and the music, the songs of the people; and I heard the prayers, and I saw the glisten of tears in the eyes of mothers and wives and sweethearts, and I saw grim-faced fathers who dare not speak because of what they knew of war.

You are among the chosen, chosen not to conquer but to save, to preserve the things precious beyond price, that those men fought for at the Bridge. You have been chosen because of your youth, for the courage and strength of youth. None other is better equipped to do this.

Yes, you have guessed it, I am a sentimental old soldier, but, as I see it, men without sentiment for home and country are cold, soulless machines. Don't be ashamed of sentiment. For your service be such that in the years to come you will be proud that you served.

Above all, do not listen to the traitorous croaking of those who predict the downfall of democracy, or mere survival. Now is the time for faith and courage and work.

As I turned reluctantly away from the Bridge I felt a glow as of rebirth, a revival of faith, a sense of rededication, wrought by the memories of those stouthearted men of long ago, and my faith in you the youth of America — the unconquered.

Good luck, remember the men at the Bridge, and God keep you.

The newly formed Pal Club, sponsored by Master Motors of Main street, this town, is getting ready to enter the fifth annual model plane contest of the Plymouth Dealers of Greater Boston which will be held at Columbus Park, South Boston, on Sunday, June 24. These youngsters all from Winchester and Woburn meet weekly at Master Motors and all are eyeing those prize trips to Detroit next August to compete with the best model plane fliers from all the world as well as Europe and South America. Even "Pepper", the mascot of the group is anxious to take part in the contest.

WHS Girls' Tennis Team

The girls' tennis team has played only two matches so far, but in both they have shown what a team made up of 4 returning letter-winners and several strong sophomores can do. Since the beginning of practice in mid-April, the girls have put in many, many hours of work, all of which have paid off in a strong, well-positioned team.

On Thursday, May 3, the season opened with a match with Concord on the home courts. Playing at the Club and Packer Courts, WHS had no trouble at all in shutting out the visitors 5 - 0; the only trouble was, hot cocoa would have been more welcome than cold coke after the games!

For their first away match of the year, the girls traveled to Melrose, along with the softball team, on Monday, May 7. Here the opposition was a little tougher, from both players and weather, for it was very cold and windy, but we still managed to pull it out, 3 - 2. Sue Morton had the most difficult match, being faced with Ruth Jeffrees, who has played at Longwood and Tedesco and was recently rated by a national magazine as one of the best junior players in the state. Jane Chiswell dropped her match, too, but Captain Carol Hawkins and the two doubles teams secured for WHS top honors for the day.

The line-ups and scores:

Concord at Winchester

Carol Hawkins vs Virginia Mutty — Winchester, 7 - 5, 6 - 4

Sue Morton vs Elizabeth Melloon — Winchester, 6 - 0, 6 - 0

Mary Anne Damon vs Eleanor Buxton — Winchester, 4 - 6, 6 - 4, 6 - 0

Jane Chiswell and Carolyn Stone vs B. Chaffee and Jean Banks — Winchester, 6 - 0, 6 - 4

Harris MacDonald and Betsey Freeman vs Meg MacWalter and Nancy Couner — Winchester, 8-6, 6 - 1

Winchester at Melrose:

Sue Morton vs Ruth Jeffrees — Melrose, 6 - 2, 6 - 3

Carol Hawkins vs Joan Turner — Winchester, 6 - 4, 6 - 2

Jane Chiswell vs Frances Stuart — Melrose, 6 - 3, 3 - 6, 6 - 4

Mary Anne Damon and Betsey Freeman vs Nancy Weeks and Carolyn Powers — Winchester, 6 - 1, 4 - 6, 7 - 5

Carolyn Stone and Franceline Cullen vs Judy Boaman and Anne Wiekstrom — Winchester, 7 - 5, 6 - 2

Winchester Lodge Elks

On June 14, Thursday, at 7:30 p. m. the Winchester Lodge of Elks will hold their annual Flag Day exercises on the High School Field. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Girls Beat Melrose 10-9

The WHS softball team managed to squeeze out a 10 - 9 victory over Melrose on May 7 in a game which went into extra innings. Due to three hits, two errors, and a base on balls, five runs scored against starter Gretchie Daschbach in the first inning, so she was relieved by Sonny Smith in the second. After allowing one run in the second and three in the third, Sonny held the Melrose team scoreless for the remainder of the game.

The team was trailing 9 - 2 in the early innings due to poor defensive play, but they came through in the clutch, while the Melrose team became rattled. The winning run was scored in the eighth, when Lynne Stevens singled and went to second on an error by the shortstop; Jan Easton hit a ball which went through the second baseman, and Lynne scored from second.

The base running on the part of Captain Bette Kneeland and her team mates deserves special mention for the Winchester team stole 11 bases with Bette leading the group with four to her credit. Bugs Smith starred offensively with a homerun and two singles, while Jan Collins and Bette Kneeland also got three hits apiece.

Charles Hart, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hart, 3 Felsdale Close, is a member of the Fishing Club at Vermont Academy, Saxtons River, Vermont. This Club is an unusual extra-curriculum activity, probaly one of the few of its type to be found in an independent school Included among nine cadet officers of the Bowdoin College Transportation Corps ROTC battalion who were decorated at the final inspection and review held at Whittier Field Tuesday afternoon was Cadet Major Lloyd Wallis, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wallis of Everell road.

Indians 7 - 5 Over Concord

Winchester High won a hard fought 7 - 5 game from Concord High at Manchester Field on Tuesday afternoon. The contest concluded the first half of the Middlesex League schedule with the locals sporting a record of six victories in seven League games and eight victories in the nine games played to date.

The Indians had to fight all the way to win this one as Concord proved unexpectedly tough as they received good pitching from Stockellburg who struck out nine Winchester batters and allowed only one extra-base hit. Trailing 4 - 3 in the last of the sixth, the Indians scored three times to win. With two out and nobody on base, Dave Dalton and "Jocko" Serieka singled, Dalton holding up at second. Stowell Symmes singled through the middle and when Concord had finished throwing the ball around, all three Winchester runners had scored.

Stowell Symmes pitched good ball for Winchester as he gave up six hits while striking out seven batters and issuing five bases on balls. Two of Concord's hits were triples and another a home run, however, which accounted for three Concord tallies. The Red and Black pulled off two brilliantly executed double plays that eased the pressure in both the eighth and ninth innings when the Concord lead-off man reached first safely. In the eighth the play went from Symmes to Flaherty to Crowley while in the ninth it was a Flaherty to Dalton to Crowley combination that prevented any Concord rally.

Winchester 6 - 4 Win Over Belmont

Winchester High defeated Belmont High by a score of 6 - 4 at Manchester Field in a Middlesex League game on Monday afternoon. A double by John DiIorio with the bases loaded which was good for three runs was the big blow of the game as it provided the Indians with their only cluster of runs. What turned out to be the winning run was driven across the plate in the sixth on a long triple to right center by Captain Tony Cirurso with Jim Griffin on base.

Charlie Murphy pitched steady ball for the Indians to notch his fifth victory of the season. The first and sixth innings were his only troublesome frames but he worked himself out of trouble in each ease without too much damage. Belmont played errorless ball in giving their pitchers excellent support. Neither of the two Winchester errors caused any damage and Crowley, Cirurso, and Murphy all came up with brilliant defensive plays.

Softball Team Won First Game

Sonny Smith pitched the WHS softball team to its first victory of the year on May 3 by defeating Concord 12 - 2. Sonny's fast pitching held the visiting team to two runs and two hits, while she struck out six and allowed only two bases on balls.

Although the team was far above standard defensively, they have 11 Concord errors to thank for 10 of their runs. Concord's pitcher allowed only eight hits with Sonny Smith, Jan Collins, and Jan Easton leading the Winchester line-up with two apiece. The longest hit ball of the afternoon was a triple by Concord's shortstop, Barbara Caldwell.

The most spectacular play of the game was a sensational running catch by Bugs Smith; Bugs catching the ball off balance turned a somersault and held on to the ball all the time.

The coming week marks not only a significant event in Winchester's church life but a stepping stone of great importance to one of its oldest churches. In freeing itself from debt the First Baptist Church has as it is heralded achieved a great victory. The exercises planned for the occasion, both religious and social, will undoubtedly draw many church-goers in Winchester from other denominations who will rejoice with the Baptists in their accomplishment. Much of the credit for the coming celebration is due to the pastor of the church, Rev. Walter L. Bailey. Under his energetic and popular leadership what not long ago seemed impossible has come to pass. The ladies of the parish have worked unstintedly and untiringly in doing their part, and it is interesting to learn that the popular Thrift Shop which they have conducted along with other activities has contributed no less than $30,500 during the past nineteen years. The Star adds its congratulations with the rest of Winchester to the First Baptist Church.

Unitarian Players In "Return Engagement"

The Unitarian Players gave their long awaited play last Saturday evening and a most successful come-back it was. After an absence of ten years they chose a comedy by Lawrence Riley with a most appropriate title — "Return Engagement". With a group of players who ranged from former members of the old Unitarian Players to high school students of the present senior class they had a well rounded cast.

Mrs. W. H. D. Townley-Tilson and Mr. William Spaulding played the romantic leads, both of them doing unusually capable jobs by playing their parts of an estranged theatre couple with just the tongue-in-cheek interpretation to make the most of their pace-setting roles. Those who remembered their participation in the old group were not surprised at their sparkling performances. Mrs. Percy Hill kept the audience in a high state of amusement from the moment she appeared. We hope she'll be making regular appearances with the players from now on. Mrs. Philip P. Wadsworth had an extremely difficult part to play and succeeded in coming through with flying colors. The performances of the three high school students, Stowell Symmes, Prescott Keyes, and Jost Michelsen were a youthful and enjoyable addition to the cast. Mr. Edward B Munsfield, with his background in the Arlington Group Players, did a very capable job in the role of guest director in the summer theatre. Mrs. William Davies had the very important character lead of the summer stock producer. She had the audience laughing from the opening curtain, with her distinctive flair for comedy.

The ingenue leads were played by Miss Nancy Nutter and Mr. Thornton Stearns, who seemed to enjoy playing their roles as enthusiastically as the audience enjoyed watching them. Mrs. Herbert Black in her role of a professional actress gone "Summer Theatre" for the season, had a wise-cracking comedy role which she played to the hilt in a most amusing performance. Bradford Darling was very well received in his role of man-of-all-work at the summer theatre. Mrs. Gail Moore and Mrs. Marjorie Bradford rounded out the cast to perfection with their fine performances.

The fine direction of Mr. Robert Stearns, the minister of the Unitarian Church, was directly responsible for the smooth and polished performances of the cast. We are looking forward to his continued participation in this capacity with the players in the future. Mr. George W. Hayden who designed and executed the charming and professional looking set is to be especially commended. With the help of his versatile stage crew, he succeeded in transporting the audience to the courtyard of an old coach house that had been converted to the stock theatre. The co-operation of their production staff helped the Co-Chairmen, Mrs. Eugene B. Haynes and Miss Mary Norian, to keep things running smoothly throughout the weeks of rehearsal. The wish was expressed that many more such enjoyable performances will be forthcoming. We will all be looking forward to them.

Police Go On Five Day Week

Beginning June 3rd the Winchester police will go on a five day week. This is in accordance with the recent vote at the annual town meeting. At that time the firemen were granted a raise in pay and to make the two departments more equal in the pay rate the change will be made. At the present time the police work a six day week.

Reports were current about town this week that the work of elevating the railroad tracks through Winchester is to start at once. The Star has been unable to verify this, and a Boston and Maine official contacted the first of the week is reported as having no knowledge of the matter.

Dual Control Auto For High School

Winchester High School will have a new dual control automobile for use by the Drivers' Education Classes next week. With appropriate exercises Mr. Ralph Bonnell will turn the car over to Superintendent of Schools Forbes Norris. The transfer will take place next Monday, May 14, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon at the Bonnell Motors plant on Main street.

The car will be given to the Town for its use for one year for the sum of one dollar and is given solely by Mr. Bonnell.

Mr. William Branley, director of the Drivers' Education Classes at the High School, will have charge of the car.

Attending the ceremony on Monday forenoon, besides Winchester officials, will be Mr. Eugene Fanning, State Supervisor of Driver Training, and a Deputy from the office of Registrar Rudolph King.

Car Overturned On Highland Avenue

A car owned by Mr. Edwin Zimmerman of 390 Highland avenue and driven by his daughter, Miss Doris Zimmerman, who was accompanied by Miss Janet Foley of Mt. Pleasant street, was overturned in an accident on Highland avenue, Tuesday night when a car driven by Arthur Chase of Wilmington, entered Highland avenue from Kenwin road.

The Zimmerman car was overturned in the crash and Chase's car badly damaged at its front end. The two girls were taken to the Winchester Hospital nearby where they were treated for shock and bruises and later released. It is reported that Chase was uninjured.

Tennis Clinic To Have One More Meeting

Instructor Corish and committee members met forty or fifty young players at the Packer Courts on Palmer street last Saturday for the first of two outdoor meetings, at which time instruction in forehand and backhand strokes was given following a short review of the fundamentals learned the previous week. "Never mind the super reverse triple whammy," said Corish. "Strive to perfect the basic requirements, use the head as well as the body, and you will develop a sound game."

The final session of the clinic will be held at Palmer street on Saturday, May 12, from 10:00 to 12:00 a. m. New members are still welcome, but they are requested to register in advance by telephoning one of the committeemen listed below. Please bring rackets and tennis sneakers.

Library Activities

Please Help!

The library needs assistance during this period of re-registration of boys and girls in advance of installing the new and better charging system. Boys and girls should present themselves as soon as possible to register for their new membership cards. Will parents call this to the attention of their children through the 7th grade.

A new Book Charging Machine will be in use in the Boys' and Girls' Library beginning Tuesday, June 5. After that date books will not be charged under the old system, so boys and girls, do register for your new cards and be ready for membership in the new system!

News for Eighth Graders

You will soon be in Senior High School! Congratulations!

Your library invites you to the Adult Department of the library where you may now register for your card entitling you to use the adult library. If you will ask for your transfer slip when you visit the Boys' and Girls' Library next time, and present it at the main desk upstairs, you will be registered immediately so that you may now use the adult library.

Story Hour

Again this week Saturday morning at 10:15 a. m. Miss Russell will hold Story Hour in the Art Gallery. Boys and girls are enjoying the Story Hours and the Candle Ceremony. Why not tell your friends about this treat?

Something New and Beautiful

This very Wednesday morning 3 beautiful rhododendron shrubs were planted on the front lawn at the library, the gift of the Winchester Home and Garden Club, Mrs. Frank Robinson, President of the Club and Mrs. Samuel Kirkwood, a member of the Club who is a specialist in landscaping, supervised the planting of the shrubs. Do have a look at the new planting. You will be pleased and appreciative of the generosity of the Home and Garden Club.

The Winchester Home and Garden Club has adopted a landscaping plan for the grounds of the library. The plan was drawn by Mrs. Kirkwood. Each year, the Club intends to plant at the library so that little by little you will see the whole plan unfold.

Grateful thanks to the Winchester Home and Garden Club for instituting the library grounds project and for carrying it out year by year.

Parkhurst News

The Fourth Grade's culminating activity in its social studies unit was a program on Friday to which friends were informally invited. In native costume the youngsters introduced themselves as Mexican children, telling in song and story how life needs are met in that country of many climates. A play, written and enacted by the fourth grade, represented the reversals faced by Mexico's famous hero, Benito Juarez. Under the instruction of Mr. Muerling the children learned a Mexican Waltz which they were able to incorporate into the fiesta scene. Every child in fourth grade participated in the program which closed with the Mexican National Hymn in Spanish.

Grade Two enjoyed a pleasant and informative trip to the Children's museum on May 2. This trip was an outgrowth of their study about birds, animals, and signs of spring. The tour through the museum was well planned on a level with any primary school child, and left the children eager for other such field trips in the future. Mothers helping Miss Savard were Mrs. Robert Gray, Mrs. William Morton, Mrs. Arthur Rogde, Mrs. Arthur Schmidt, and Mrs. Harry Wood.

C. A. P. News

In addition to training described before, cadets are each year given the opportunity of attending summer encampments held at various USAF bases throughout the country. During these two weeks of "active duty" cadets put into practice the theory they have learned in ground training. Girls are eligible to attend special encampments arranged for them.

Leading C. A. P. cadets are chosen to make exchange visits with young Air Cadets from foreign countries, including Canada, England, Switzerland and France. Thus they are given an opportunity to see foreign lands, meet the young people of other nations, and learn first hand of the world-wide interest in aviation.

Each year state-wide competitions are held to find the outstanding drill teams of each state who then compete in a national contest for the honor of representing this country in International Drill Competitions.

Model plane flying is an important activity of the C. A. P. program. In cooperation with the Air Model Association, American Legion, V. F. W., National Aeronautics Association, Amateur Athletic Union, Air Scouts, Junior Chamber of Commerce and many others, the C. A. P. seeks to interest young Americans in all phases of flying.

The C. A. P. has been assigned two radio frequencies, 2971 Kilocycles and 148.14 Megacycles, for use in training and emergency communications. Radio fans get an opportunity to work with the C. A. P. Communications network, using these frequencies and the radio equipment made available to the C. A. P. by the Air Force.

With parental consent, C. A. P. cadets are given indoctrination flights in C. A. P. operated L-4 light planes loaned by the Air Force. These planes are used by the Civil Air Patrol for training, emergency search and Air-Sea Rescue work, and for observer training.

Any person interested in joining the Civil Air Patrol please call WInchester 6-0495 or WInchester 6-1678.

Wyman School

The children at Wyman have been very busy preparing and presenting various assemblies, which have delighted their mothers.

Last week Mrs. Greene's first graders entertained with two puppet shows, Little Red Riding Hood and The Three Bears. The children made the puppets and the scenery which were extremely well done for their young ages.

An operetta was presented on Tuesday, May 8, by Miss Murray's sixth graders. The scenery was made and painted by the class, it was complete from the gingerbread house to the fireplace. From all reports, it was well worth seeing.

Friday, May 11, Mr. Bennett's fifth grade class are presenting a "Hobby and Science Fair". The display will include a battle scene of soldiers, a stamp collection, rare coins, match covers, dolls, steam engine, old books, fishing equipment, artificial flowers, old lamps, miniature dogs, old firearms and trading cards. The children are very proud of their collections and are very anxious to show them.

Miss Rosanne Borden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil H. Borden, 150 Highland avenue, is among the 245 candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree at the 114th annual commencement at Mount Holyoke College on June 11th. A graduate of Winchester High School, Miss Borden also attended Oberlin College in Oberlin, Ohio. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Miss Borden is an American culture major and has served for the past year as treasurer of the American culture club. She has also been a member of the International Relations Club and the Friends of Art while at Mount Holyoke.

New Edition Of Service Book For Soldiers

One of the most popular devotional books used by men in service during the last World War was entitled "Strength for Service to God and Country."

This book was edited by Rev. Norman E. Nygaard, and was bound in blue for sailors and airmen, and in khaki for soldiers and marines. It was of military blouse-pocket size, and saw much service as a book of daily devotion to these men.

A new and revised edition is now being prepared by Arthur Sterling Ward; and Dr. Chidley has contributed to this new book.

Open House At Forum Chapel Service

Parents and friends of members of the Senior Forum of the First Congregational Church are cordially invited to attend the final chapel service of the year in Ripley Chapel Sunday morning at 9:30. Many parents have expressed a desire to attend the Forum chapel services and hear the excellent speakers presented by the Forum, but only once a year is this privilege allowed, — on Mother's Day each year when parents are invited to the service with their young people.

The speaker for this year's Family Service will be Dr. Paul E. Johnson, Professor of Psychology of Religion at Boston University School of Theology, and author of a recent book, "Christian Love." To the young people who attended the Forum Conference at Lake Mohonk, Dr. Johnson will be known as "Mona's Dad", Mona Johnson Valentine having served as the Conference Nurse.

Gordon Bird, Jr., Treasurer of the Forum will be the chaplain for the service, assisted by David Archibald, President. The prelude will be played by Edward Tarr, trumpeter, and the offertory sung by Dorothy Brandt, soprano. Ushers will be Robert Burnham and Donald Cameron, and the offering will be received by Robert Traut and Scott Cunningham.

Winchester Hospital News

Winchester Hospital, along with all the other hospitals in the Nation, will celebrate National Hospital Day on Saturday, May 12th. This date is the birthday of Florence Nightingale, who contributed more than any other person to the development of the modern hospital. Although there will be no particular celebration at the Hospital, the doors will be open to the general public during the regular visiting hours for inspection tours. Anyone interested in inspecting and learning something of the operation of their hospital, is cordially invited to visit this Saturday.

Mrs. Eva Macmillan has resigned her position as Director of Public Relations at the Winchester Hospital. For the past year Mrs. Macmillan has been employed on a part-time basis and has been instrumental in promoting better understanding of the Hospital in the community. Previously she was associated with the Building Fund and did much of the organization work connected with the fund drive.

The Hospital has just received as a gift from Mr. James A. Mooney, Sr., of the New England Gas Products, Inc., an all electric oxygen tent. It is one of the best pieces of equipment of its kind manufactured. The Hospital is very grateful to have this fine machine added to its inventory of lifesaving equipment.

Mr. Charles Hodgson of Wenham who passed away in that town on May 8, was the brother of Mr. Thomas G. Hodgson of 132 Forest street.

Gas Refrigerators To Be Shown

The Arlington Gas Light Company is pleased to announce the showing of the new models of the Servel Gas Refrigerator, at the local office at 4 Mt. Vernon street, Winchester on Friday, May 18.

Mrs. Hazel A. Cheever, Home Service Director of the company will be present from 2:00 p. m. to 5:00 p. m. to explain the new fine features of the new Servel Gas Refrigerators, and how to get the most out of them.

Mrs. Cheever will also explain the making of frozen desserts, ices, salads, etc., with the new quick freeze.

Mrs. Cheever is very well known among Winchester housewives, having conducted for them and the Winchester Girl Scouts, a series of classes in cooking and nutrition.

There will be a door prize on Friday, May 18.

Winchester School Committee Elects Teachers For 1951-1952

The Winchester School Committee on Monday evening elected the following teachers who will begin their duties in September:

Miss Jean McMath and Miss Margaret A. Millican to be elementary school teachers; Miss Galena Davenport to be Assistant Supervisor of Physical Education; Miss Loukia S. Sarando to be Assistant Supervisor of Music; Miss Barbara A. Blackstone to be Dean of Girls at Winchester High School and to be Assistant Guidance Director; and Miss Judith Kinney to be teacher of home economics.

Resignations accepted at this time were those of Miss Helen Goodwin, Miss Helen Niedringhaus, Miss Frances Larcom Hayward, who resigned to accept retirement; Mrs. Dorothy Riddles, and Mrs. Gretta Catozzi.

The School Committee set the date for the closing of Winchester public schools as Friday, June 15.

The committee reports that all teacher elections have been made and that contracts are being prepared for mailing. Applications of teachers who supervise extra-curricular activities were also acted upon. Notices of acceptance will accompany the contracts.

The School Committee will meet in special session on Monday evening, May 14, to consider recommendations of committees on wages and salaries, and to transact other items of business.

The Fortnightly

A Fortnightly Board Meeting — last of the season — will be held at the Winchester Public Library on Monday, May 21 at 10:15 a. m. The President urges all Board members to be present and to be prepared to submit plans for their respective committee work.

State Federation Meeting

The annual meeting of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs will convene at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, beginning Wednesday, May 23 through Friday, May 25. Junior Post-Convention Meeting, Saturday, May 26. Colonel Ben C. Limb, foreign minister of the Republic of Korea and also chief of the South Korean Mission to the United States will be the principal speaker.

Also speaking at the meeting will be George Fingold of Boston, former Assistant Attorney General. His subject will be: "Is there any Cure for Crime or Corruption?"

On Thursday evening the Viscomtesse Antoinette de Ballaigue, who for eight years was a member of the British Royal household, serving as tutor to the Royal Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret, will present her lecture, "The ten Greatest Women in the World and their Impact on Civilization."

An outstanding program has been planned, with interest to all and Fortnightly members are strongly urged to attend.

Police Officer John McHugh of Clark street is enjoying a vacation from his duties.

Do You Know?

That whole blood and blood products valued at over $1,298,148. have been returned to the people of Massachusetts through the Massachusetts Regional Blood Program in 1950. Here are some figures:

	Whole blood @
$25. per pint		$1,119,450.00
	Gamma Globulin @
$ 6. per ampoule		135,114.00
	Serum Albumin @
$85. per ampoule		43,554.00
Total		$1,298,148.00

Large quantities of plasma and numerous other blood fractions in lesser quantities have been and are continuing to be distributed as developed.

When you read these figures of accomplishment, it makes you wonder why the people of Massachusetts are falling down on their commitments to the armed forces. There must be an answer, because our people do place a value on their citizenship and are proud to accept their responsibilities usually. Living in a leading medical center of the United States, we should be the first to realize the demands for blood are greater, and respond to the call for blood donors as they do in other sections of the country. Let's not wait until the week of the Bloodmobile visit! Let's start making our appointments now to give blood the next time the Bloodmobile is in Winchester. Call your local Red Cross Chapter and make an appointment WI 6-2300.

The Bloodmobile date is June 1, Friday, from 1 to 7 p. m., First Congregational Church.

Unitarian News

On Sunday morning at 8:30 a May breakfast Cafeteria style, will be held in Metcalf Hall for parents, teachers and young people. This will be followed by a chapel service conducted by the pupils of the fourth grade under the leadership of Mrs. Antonio Mezzacappa. Christopher King, a fourth grader will play the offertory music on the organ. Those participating are Susan Black, Jean Gross, Carol McLean, Beverly Bonnell, Peter Bryant and Richard Sears. The parents and teachers will meet for a discussion period during which time the young people will be shown a sound moving picture in color "God of Creation" which is exceptionally beautiful. At the morning worship service Mr. Storer will preach on "The Family" and an infant christening will be conducted.

Members of the Junior Choir will participate in the Annual Festival of Junior choirs at the First Church in Boston on Sunday afternoon, May 20th at 4:00 p. m. Young people from Metcalf Union will present a rhythmic dramatization of "The Widow's Mite" as part of the service which is being directed by Mr. Storer.

Twenty-five young people from the Melrose Unitarian church were guests of Metcalf Union at a supper meeting last Sunday night. Martha Howens, supper chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Don Krwoll. A chapel service was skillfully conducted by Marcia Symmes, Joy Hewins, Darrell Harvey and Prescott Keyes.

Pihl Strokes Crew To Victory

As stroke of the first boat of the Varsity Crew at the Browne and Nichols School in Cambridge, Marshall R. Pihl, Jr. of the Parkway won his second crew race of the year on the Charles River last Saturday defeating the St. George's School crew. A week ago, it was a three-cornered race with Noble and Greenough and the Belmont Hill School when Marshall, as stroke of the second boat of the B. and N. Varsity Crew, brought his boat to victory. It is a tradition with oarsmen in a race that they bet their shirts on the race, and, consequently, Marshall is the proud owner of crew shirts from Noble and Greenough, Belmont Hill and St. George's. Next Saturday, the B. and N. Crew will meet St. Mark's and the Pomfret School for a three-cornered race out at Southborough.

REV. DONALD B. TARR

President Of Association Of Religious Educators

Rev. Donald B. Tarr, Assistant Pastor and Director of Religious Education at the First Congregational Church, has been elected President of the Association of Religious Educators of greater Boston for 1951 - 1952.

Rev. Tarr was elected at the annual meeting held Monday, May 7 at the Hotel Eliot. He has been Vice-President of the Association for the past year.

American Legion Auxiliary

All members of the Auxiliary are cordially invited to attend our Past Presidents' Tea on Sunday afternoon, May 20, at 3 o'clock at the Legion Home.

The Auxiliary wishes to extend an invitation from the Waltham Unit of the Legion Auxiliary to the Gold Star Mothers to attend a Tea on Sunday, May 13, from 3 - 5 o'clock at the Legion Home in Waltham.

Plans for the May Dance promise the usual fun and entertainment with many new surprises. Remember the date, May 26, Saturday evening at the Legion Home.

The Auxiliary is happy to announce that Sonia Norian of Robinson Circle, a member of the Junior Class at Winchester High School, has been selected to attend Girls' State at Bridgewater State Normal School and Dorothy Lazzaro, also a Junior is the alternate. These girls qualified because of their scholastic ability and being outstanding members of the Junior class. Girls' State is held in June of every year at Bridgewater and provides education in Americanism and Good Citizenship. The entire program is a non-partisan and non-politicial attempt to teach the youth of America a love of God and Country.

Winchester Federalists To Hold Discussion Meeting

The Winchester Chapter of United World Federalists will meet at the home of Mrs. Cutler Downer, 39 Everett avenue, on Wednesday evening, May 16th. Coffee will be served at 7:30 followed by discussion on the topic, "Recent Changes in Policies of United World Federalists," led by the chairman, Mr. Robert Williams.

This is the second meeting of its kind to be held by this recently-formed chapter. Judging by the enthusiasm of last month's meeting, it has been felt that discussion of pertinent questions stimulates growing interest in the purpose of this organization.

Any who would like to take this opportunity to learn more about United World Federalists and to become acquainted with the members of the Winchester Chapter are cordially invited. Please notify either Mrs. John L. Lobingier, Winchester 6-1467 W or Mrs. Winslow Smith, WInchester 6-0819-R if you plan to attend.

Winchester Music Department Notes

The Annual Spring Concert of the Winchester High School Orchestra, Glee Clubs, and Band will be given Friday night, May 11, at 8 o'clock in the High School Auditorium.

One hundred sixty-four students from Winchester High and Junior High Schools participated in the Northeastern Massachusetts Music Festival in Marblehead on May 5. Singing and playing were the High School Girls' Glee Club, the Junior High Boys' Glee Club, the High School Orchestra and Band. Mr. Wade Grindle, High School Principal, was present at the festival as an interested spectator and was a guest at the luncheon for supervisors and administrators. About 3,000 singers and instrumentalists from many Massachusetts high schools took part in this annual festival.

Mr. Fred Felmet, Supervisor of Music in Winchester, will be judge of bands and orchestras at the Western Massachusetts Music Festival to be held in Palmer on May 12.

The glee clubs and orchestra of Winchester Junior High School will present a short concert for the Junior High Associates on May 15.

Winchester Mornings Sold Out

All season tickets for the Winchester Mornings, sponsored by the Wellesley Club of Winchester, have been sold. Mrs. Thomas M. Downes has a few guest tickets for individual lectures. These are, however, available to holders of season tickets only. These morning lectures, held for the past few years at the Music Hall and preceded by a coffee hour, have become a Winchester institution.

Following Carl de Suze on October 1, will be John Beaufort on October 25. Mr. Beaufort is the present Arts Editor of the Christian Science Monitor. He has been with the Monitor since 1930 as general reporter, feature writer, film and theatre critic and New York drama and film correspondent. Following a strenuous period as a war correspondent in the Pacific, he was chief of the New York news bureau from 1945 to 1950. He plans to spend the summer in Europe and for his Winchester engagement will discuss the Theatre from London to Broadway.

Keep The Roadsides Clean

Spring is here, and with it, the restless urge to leave the familiar scene and seek refreshment in the country lane, to participate in the annual recreation of forest and meadow. We polish up the car, pack the picnic basket, and fare forth.

Is this not perhaps an appropriate moment to remind ourselves and our children, of the importance of outdoor good manners? Most of us dispose of litter through the car window from thoughtlessness or carelessness, and need only to be reminded of better manners to reform our ways. But there are some who insist on being "Litter Louts" and for these the Massachusetts legislature drew up a law in 1949:

"Whoever, in disposing of garbage, refuse, bottles, cans or rubbish, on a public highway or within twenty yards thereof, or on private property, without permission, commits a nuisance thereby, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars. If a motor vehicle is used in committing such a nuisance, a conviction under this section shall forthwith be reported by the court to the registrar of motor vehicles, and the registrar may suspend the license of the operator of such vehicle for not more than thirty days, and if it appears from the records of the registrar of motor vehicles that the registrar may suspend the certificate of registration of said vehicle for thirty days." Chapter 416 of the Acts of 1949.

Whether through fear of the law, or through enlightened public spirit, let's keep Massachusetts highroads attractively clean this year.

Do You Read Them?

The Star is interested in obtaining its readers' opinions regarding the series of Boston and Maine Railroad advertisements which have been appearing for some time under the title of "Commuters' Column." If you read these little articles and are interested in them, and look forward to reading them each week, we will appreciate it if you will so inform us.

Pvt. John Nowell, of Clark street, was home on leave over the week-end. John is in the Army Air Corps and is stationed at Sampson Air Base, Geneva, New York.

Committee Activities

Mrs. Kenneth Hiscoe, President of the Fortnightly, Mrs. Francis Bowes, Second Vice-President and Mrs. William C. Hultgren, Chairman of the Press and Radio Committee attended a meeting of the Junior League of Boston on Wednesday, April 25, an all day session designed to urge educators to help improve radio and television programs. The League, concerned with the "impact that radio and television is making on family life and in our communities," hopes to promote study groups among Parent-Teachers Associations and other educational groups of Massachusetts, to help determine the type of program most beneficial to children and to bring to the attention of parents their individual responsibility in regulating the time which children may devote to television.

The morning session was devoted to talks by Samuel S. Gould, Director of Boston University's educational station WBUR, and Kelsey B. Sweatt, in charge of radio - vidio - visual educational for the Mass. Board of Education.

The panel discussion of the afternoon brought together a formidable list of authoritative speakers. In addition to the morning speakers were: Mrs. Frank Chase, president of the Mass. Parent-Teachers' Association, Crosley Hodgeman, headmaster of the Beaver Country Day School, Mrs. Upton Terry, president of the Brookline Forum, W. C. S. Swartley, General Manager of Station WBZ. WBZTV and Mrs. Francis Flagg, Television Chairman of the Mass. Teachers' Federation.

As a result of an extensive poll of Mass. school children taken by the American Association of University Women, Mrs. Flagg stated that "more than a third of the children in Boston have meals served to them on card tables in front of television sets. It is not unusual for them to spend 31 hours a week watching television, — more hours than are spent at school."

Professor Gould's main point was that since "the effectiveness of any improvement campaign depends upon coordination on all fronts" that broadcasting agencies, home and school should work together to provide the type of program best suited for both adult and child.

Fortnightly members interested in forming study groups for Radio and Television program improvement, please notify Mrs. W. C. Hultgren, Press and Radio Chairman.

Holy Name Society To Hear Jesuit From Philippines

The final meeting of the year will take place on next Sunday, May 12th when the members of St. Mary's Holy Name Society will attend the 9:30 a. m. Mass and will receive Holy Communion in a body, join in the customary hymn singing which has proved so popular, and assist at the Benediction ceremony. Rev. William H. Walsh will preach the sermon. It being Mother's day also, the members will offer up the services for their mothers living or dead.

Following Mass the members will adjourn to Waterfield Hall, on Church street, for their business meeting and to enjoy their guest speaker.

Elections of officers will be held with nominations selected by the nominating committee. William J. Croughwell is chairman of this committee assisted by the following: Past Presidents: Frank Dolan, Frank P. Hurley, John A. Volpe, Vincent F. Erhard, William J. Croughwell and Harry J. Bennett, Chairman of the Sick and Vigil Committee, who has done such an outstanding job this year in seeing that every member who became hospitalized or seriously ill received a memento in the form of baskets of fruit or flowers from the Society.

The invited speaker for this final meeting of the season is Rev. Horacio de la Costa, S. J. who is a native of the Philippines coming from Manila. He attended the Jesuit schools there and was ordained to the priesthood at Woodstock, Md., in 1946. He has recently completed graduate studies at Harvard University. Members who have heard him at the First Friday Luncheon Club attest to his fine oratorical ability. His subject will be "Our Lady of Fatima", a most appropriate one in view of the fact that the month of May is the month of Our Lady.

President Arthur W. Hall indicates that the Society membership booklets will be in the mail shortly.

Mothers' Association News

A program of interest to all School Chapters of the Winchester Mothers' Association was planned at the meeting of the Executive Board on Monday, April 30. This program will be presented to the mothers of Winchester at the Association's annual meeting in the High School Auditorium on the afternoon of Wednesday, June 6.

It was announced that some tickets are still available for the "Second Annual Spring Party" — successor to the 1950 "Friendly Frolic" — to be held May 17th, for all Winchester teachers and parents. Anyone wishing to be a hostess at one of the popular pre-supper parties to which all ticket purchasers are to be invited may do so by calling the Hostesses' Representative in her own school: -

Noonan School News

Children of the Noonan School conducted a Junior Red Cross Meeting on Friday, April 27. The spring plans were to plant flower seeds to make the school grounds attractive. A clean up squad was appointed to pick up papers, sticks, and other things which are carelessly thrown about the grounds.

Following the meeting the fourth grade presented the following program:

Poem, "America For Me" — Boy of Grade 6
America, The Beautiful — Band of Grade 6
Watchwords of Democracy — Boys of Grade 4
Marine's Hymn — Band — Grade 6
Good Citizens' Code of Ethics — Boys of Grade 4
March — Girls and Boys of Grade 4
Anecdotes of Famous Americans — Harold Ekstrom, Jackie Doherty, Ronald Russo, and James Morris.
Caisson Song — Grade 6, Band
The American Creed — Janet Lynch
A Patriotic Wish — Paul Doherty
A Patriotic Hymn — Judy Olivadoti
Poem — Never Say Fail — Billy Bond, Cynthia Wilberger
America — Band, Grade 6
Four Leaf Clover — Grades 4 and 5
To conclude the program, the audience sang "God Bless America."
Announcer — Daniel Sericka

Mrs. Elizabeth Lobingier, 4 Manchester road, will be among the exhibitors in the annual Workshops Exhibition at the Boston Y. W. C. A., 140 Clarendon street, from May 14 through 25.

Commuters' Column

Maybe Diesel Interest You

"Hello, Stranger!" Bill reeted a mutual friend as he joined us on the 8:08. "We haven't had the pleasure of your company aboard for some time."

Our friend laughed. "My car is in the shop for a ring and re-boring job. It'll be out of commission the rest of the week, I guess. So I'm back on the good old B and M."

"If you had any sense," said Bill, "you'd be on the B and M every day, — and get reliable transportation!"

"Well," said the fellow defensively, "on my job I have to have a car most of the time — and any engine has to be overhauled once in awhile. I'll be even the B and M diesels have to go to the shop once a year or so."

"Once a year!" Bill snorted. (He's a walking encyclopedia of railroad information — and he loves to dispense it. "Every B and M diesel goes into the shop every day, and is checked over thoroughly — sand box filled, clean oil and air filters put in, fueled and watered. Then after a certain number of miles it goes in for new piston rings."

"And that put it out of circulation for 3 or 4 days, eh?" our friend observed hopefully.

"Just about two hours!" said Bill, with a withering glance. "Of course, they don't change all he pistons at once. They haul out two at each visit to the shop. Liner and all comes out of the cylinder, and a new cylinder liner with a piston already fitted to it is put in. That's efficiency, eh?"

"The engines are sixteen-cylinder, and two opposite pistons are changed at once. So after eight trips to the shop you've got practically a new engine — all new rings and pistons and what amounts to a re-boring job too. Pretty smart way to operate."

"Sure is," said our friend. "It certainly makes for dependability."

"And in the Bible of the B and M," said Bill, as the conductor punched his ticket, "dependability is second only to carefulness. Eh, Skipper?"

"Amen!" nodded the conductor.

The good weather and good help meant that the cookie Salesmen really surpassed their own expectations. In case any Mother is wondering how to use the extra cookies here are a couple of recipes.

Cookie Crust

1½ cups cookie crumbs
¼ cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup melted butter

Crush cookie crumbs to fine flour, stir in other ingredients. Line the pie dish, chill well, bake in moderate oven for 15 minutes. Any filling may be used, cover with meringue and put a few crumbs on top to brown.

Cookie-Mint Ice-Cream

One can condensed milk
One pint cream
12 - 20 Cooky-Mints

Whip cream and add condensed milk, mixing well. Put Cooky-Mints in a paper bag or between two sheets of heavy oil-paper and roll to crubs. Stir these into the cream and pour into the tray of electric refrigerator.

This recipe is especially recommended. It is a chocolate chip type, slightly mint flavored.

The Camp Committee met Tuesday, May 8 at 10 o'clock at the office.

The Council met May 9 at 10 a. m. at the Library.

These Spring days surely bring out the gypsy in the Scouts. So many are taking off for trips short and long. Senior Scouts of Troop 1 made a 60 mile bicycle trip to New Boston, New Hampshire, taking only about 8 hours — including time out for a picnic lunch which they had brought along. Good weather deserted them at Mt. Vernon, New Hampshire and the Scouts really surprised the home folks when they cycled up to the General Store in the pouring rain. While they camped at New Boston they entertained a group of boys and girls from the New Boston High School at a coodout. Preceding the campfire, and supper there was a spirited game of softball and after eating there were games and singing.

Those making the trip with Mrs. W. B. Hersey, the leader were Ann Hooper, Joy Hewins, Beth Hewins, Althea Hersey, Alison Hersey, Mary Cullen, Florence Newton, Mary Lou Armstrong, Betty Lou Martensen.

The Girl Scouts of Troop 14 Washington School, went to the Museum of Science show April 25, at the High School Auditorium. After the show we went to Randall's for a sundae. We had a grand time and you really missed something if you didn't go. The girls who went were: Gloria Bennett, Carol Eaton, Janet Chaffe, Sandra Burr, Norma Crockett, Carol Ann Ferrera, Marie Gentile, Constance Ewell, Ann Tofuri, Diane Lorentzen, Phyllis Shiraga, and Nancy Towle, supervised by Mrs. H. E. Crockett and Mrs. Arthur Towle with the help of Mrs. Eaton.

Scribe Nancy Towle

Troop 54, 6th grade Wyman, had a cookout at the Girl Scout cabin recently. We brought our own lunch and cooked it outdoors on the grill. After that almost all the girls went to the Pine Grove to play games but a few stayed to help clear up. We all thought it was lots of fun.

Last week Patrol 2 of the Troop 54 visited the Star office. Mr. Wilson showed us through and explained the different parts of a lot of machinery. After that we had our names printed on the linotype machine. We would like to express our gratitude to Mr. Wilson and many others who helped to make this trip possible.

Pack Nine News

Seventeen Cubs of Pack Nine, sponsored by the Washington School Dads' Club, took a trip into the Boston and Maine R. R. Engine House in Charlestown two weeks ago Saturday morning, accompanied by four Committeemen from the Pack. The excursion was arranged for by Francis Parsons, who led the group, and was a very educational, interesting experience. The men and boys were shown around by Mr. Manning of the Boston and Maine who took them onto the turntable and through the huge round steam engine repair house as well as through the fascinating Diesel engine repair shop. To everyone's surprise they were then given a brief ride around the yard in the cab of a big Diesel locomotive. All of the boys and men came away with a very respectful view of the way railroads keep up their equipment and practice extreme safety measures in everything they do.

On Tuesday evening, May 1 a meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fitts of 29 Prince avenue where twenty prospective Den mothers and others interested in the Cub movement which is growing so nicely at the Washington School, received an instructional talk on the Cub program and responsibilities of parents and Den Mothers. This talk was given by Francis MacFeeley, executive of the Boy Scouts' Fellsland Council. The group was also addressed briefly by Bill Davies, Council Cubbing Program Chairman, Charles Adams, President of Dads' Club welcomed the women, and Ben Marshall, Committee Chairman presided, Refreshments were served and many of the group present volunteered to serve as Den Mothers in the growing Pack as well as several who were unable to be present. The Committee is shooting for a minimum of three Den Mothers in each Den of five to eight boys.

The last Pack meeting of the season will be held Friday, May 18th in the auditorium of the Washington School. At this time it is hoped all parents of prospective Cubs will attend with their family and see the Pack in action. In all probability some of the newly formed Dens will be recognzied at this meeting and other new Cubs will at least know where they are going to fit into the program next October after summer vacation.

A blue ribbon will be presenteed to the Pack at this May 18th meeting for winning one of the exciting relay events called Walking the Plank at the annual Scoutorama held in the Tufts gymnasium and Cage last Saturday where the whole Council participated in a most impressive display of Scouting before a large adult audience.

Annual Scout Exposition At Tufts A Success

Winchester scout units found perfect weather prevailing on the occasion of the Fellsland Council annual Exposition called Scoutorama this year, which was held at Tufts College on Saturday afternoon and evening, April 28th from 1:30 p. m. until 10:00 p. m. with the College authorities graciously allowing the scouts the use of their facilities, gym, parking area, campus police, and baseball cage. The afternoon activities were as follows: Knot Tying for Cubs; Bugling for Scouts; Rope Climbing for Explorers; Walking the Plank for Cubs; Demonstrations; Skits; Knot Tying for Scouts; Morse Signaling for Scouts; Tug of War for Explorers; Rope Climbing for Scouts; Tug of War for Cubs; Fire by Friction; Tug of War for Scouts; followed by popular movies from 5:30 to 6:45. Meanwhile spectators intermittently journeyed about the baseball cage building between events to enjoy the many decorated booths exemplifying scouting, the following from Winchester: Pack 1 Winchester, Cubbing Skills; Pack 12, Winchester, Cub Handicraft; Troop 12, Winchester, Spirit of Scouting; Troop Winchester, Camping; Troop 6, Winchester, Camping; Troop 3, Winchester, Camping; Booths also on Camp Fellsland; Scout Office Supplies; and Girl Scout booths of Medford, Stoneham and Woburn; Pack 1, Winchester Legion Sponsored, of the Parkhurst school, displayed in their booth a soap box derby racing car, model trains, first aid kits, stamp collecting, and other items. Den 1 of this pack put on a colorful skit "Street Scene in India" with backdrop, and had cubs dressed in Indian Costume, playing flutes while a large cobra emerged from a nearby box in true snake charming fashion.

Pack 12 of St. Mary's Church Winchester, exhibited in their booth various handicraft items of stilts, ship models, bird houses, and many attractive utility items.

Troop 6 Winchester Unitarian Church, had a campsite display consisting of a Jamboree baker tent. Pup tent baker style and regular pup tent, small stone fireplace, baker's oven with hunter's fire frame and cooking pot ready for use, all nicely done.

Troop 12 Winchester of St. Mary's Church also had a booth display entitled "The Spirit of Scouting" with many hand painted posters displayed on the sides and back wall of the booth upon which was listed the many accomplishments of scouting throughout this Country in life saving, good citizenship, etc, while scouts took turns working in the booth on their projects and showing the planes, bird houses, scrap books, and other items which the scouts had prepared. The troop also had a fine Camping exhibit of a wall tent, pup tent, lashed tripod wash stand, lashed tripod food and water bag holder, bed rolls, with a hunter's fire, wood pile, freshly cut, emergency tin can stove employing wax heat and other gear were all laid out for the spectator's approval.

Troop 3 Winchester of the First Congregational Church, had a camp site with wall tent on shears, which was lashed for wintry and stormy weather, to poles; plus a nylon tent, (mountain), army shelter halves fastened together, a lashed fence, sleeping bags rounded out the display.

In the evening part of the Scoutorama, finals of the events held in the afternoon took place with several more activities such as blinker signaling, Explorer Bugling, Wrestling and Boxing Exhibitions, Presentation of Eagle Scout awards and Rally awards, etc. Troop 12 Explorer Division, presented a humorous Skit entitled, "The First Client" with Scouts Tony Doyle, Laurie Erhard, Henry Quill and Dave Flaherty after a piano solo by Scout Erhard.

An explorer tribute to scouts of the Armed Forces who have given their lives for their Country, was featured by the assembly on the floor of all Explorer Scouts and Taps solemnly played. Later a Candlelight ceremony took place entitled "Valley Forge" with the audience presented with candles which were the only means of illuminaton, a really colorful ceremony.

The results of the contests were as follows: Cub Events: Knot Tieing: first, Medford, 4; second, Medford 5; third, Woburn 8.— Walk the Plank: first, Winchester, 9; second, Stoneham 5; third, Medford, 5. Tug of War: first Stoneham, 5; second, Winchester 7; third Medford, 5. — Scout Events: Bugling first, Winchester 6; second; Medford 8; third, Medford 7; — Fire by Flint and Steel first, Medford 5; second, Winchester 3; third, Medford 21. — Knot Tieing: first, Medford 8 (7th consec. year) second, Medford, 4; third Medford 21; Morse Signaling: first Medford 8, second, Medford 4; third, Winchester 6; Rope Climbing: first, Medford 7; second Medford 8; third Stoneham 5; Fire by Friction: first Medford 21; second Medford 8; third Medford 5; Tug of War: first, Medford 21; second Stoneham 5; third, Medford 8. Explorer Events: Rope Climbing: first Stoneham 9; second Medford 5; third Stoneham 3; Tug of War: first, Medford 5; second Stoneham 3, third Stoneham 9. Bugling first Medford, 4; second, Winchester 6; third, Medford, 7; Knot Tieing: first Medford, 5; second Medford 8; third, Medford 4; Fire by Flint and Steel: first, Winchester 7; second, Medford 5; Fire by Friction: first Medford 24; second Winchester 6; third Medford 5. Blinker Signaling: first Medford 21; second Medford 5; third Winchester 6; Winchester Units were in there trying every minute.

The highly coveted Eagle award was made to three individuals one being Sam Rocray of Troop 6 Winchester, corsages were presented to their mothers in honor of the occasion.

New England's INDUSTRIAL LEADERSHIP is built on ELECTRIC POWER
All over New England there's abundant electric power . . . which New England's skilled workers use in abundance to make a huge share of America's goods. In addition there's plenty of electricity for commercial and home uses. And the reason New England has plenty of electric power is because New England business men made it their business to build huge new generating units as fast as possible after World War II. They are still building — so as to serve tomorrow as amply as today.

Cub Pack Seven News

Cub Pack 7 met at the First Baptist Church on Friday evening, May 4th.

The meeting started off with a Circus Parade. Mr. Bob Low, Cubmaster, led the parade dressed in a clown costume. He was followed by cowboys, fat ladies, thin men, sword swallowers, wild men, hobos, animals, clowns and more clowns. Chris King and Doug Thompson were cleverly disguised as a giraffe.

Den No. 2 headed by Mrs. Wakefield and Mrs. Donovan received an award of $1.00 for each boy for the best parent attendance at the monthly Pack Meetings during the year. At this meeting eleven out of the twelve parents attended.

All the boys exhibited splendid samples of handicraft made during the year. Gift certificates at the Sport Shop were awarded for handicraft to the following boys:

First prize to Sherwood Kelley for a hammered copper scrapbook cover.

Second prize to Thomas Purtle for a hammered copper scrapbook cover.

Third prize to William Morton for a wheelbarrow filled with violets.

Mrs. Francis MacFeeley, Field Director, and Mr. James Muncuster, Commissioner of Scouting in Winchester were the judges.

The following awards for advancement were made by Mr. Wakefield.

Den 1 — Robert Thompson, Lion Badge, Gold Arrow for Lion Badge; Webelos; Jeffrey McGraw, Wolf Badge.

Den 2 — Joseph Donovan, Webelos; Edward Morse, Gold Arrow for Lion Badge, Webelos; James Wakefield, Webelos.

Den 5 — David Dauphinais, Bear Badge; Edward Carter, Webelos; John Curtis, Webelos; Peter Gowing, Webelos; Philip Pollard, Webelos.

Den 6 — Albert Ducharme, Webelos; Daniel Chane, Webelos; Lincoln Morrison, Webelos; John Wakefield, Webelos.

Den 7 — Donald Farnham, Lion Badge; Christopher King, Lion Badge; Douglas Thomson, Lion Badge, Gold Arrow for Lion Badge; Stephen Hacker, Silver Arrow for Bear Badge.

Den 8 — Sherwood Kelley, Gold Arrow for Wolf Badge; Spencer Roberts, Wolf Badge.

Mr. Staff Rogers conducted a special ceremony awarding Webelos badges to the boys mentioned above.

The next and final meeting of this year will be a picnic in June for the boys and all members of their families.

Girl Scouts Enacted "Snow White"

Mrs. Gaynor's Brownie Troop No. 60 gave a splendid performance of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" at the cabin on Wednesday, May 2nd for their mothers. Mrs. Willing, Mrs. McCreery, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Metcalf also attended. The cast follows:

The Leader	Nancy Harder
Snow White	Jeanne Chase
Queen	Carlene Hatchell
Prince	Carol Robbins
Witch	Muffy Singer
Doe	Lynne Bradley
Happy	Joanna Hill
Grumpy	Lynn La Rose
Dopey	Signe Haynes
Bashful	Nancy Fessenden
Sneezy	Gail Blomberg
Sleepy	Joan Denton
Huntsman	Lynne Bradley
Mirror	Carol Gaynord
Bunny	Kathy Gaynor
Lion	Beverly Holbrook
Cat	Diane Bayley
Goat	Joanne Hanlon

Mrs. John Harder directed the play and was presented with a box of pansies.

One end of the cahin was realistically decorated as the woods with trees, shrubs, flowers surrounding the tiny house of the dwarfs.

After the play cookies and puneh were served to the children outdoors by the Girl Scout Aides while the mothers had delicious coffee and cake indoors.

A silver collection was taken and will be used to buy knives for the cabin. Mrs. Gaynor, Mrs. Hill and committee did a fine job and each Brownie deserves a pat on the baek for putting on such a good show.

Brownie Leaders' Meeting is Wednesday, May 16 at 10 a. m. at the cabin.

May 16 is the date of the State Meeting at Cedar Hill, Waltham. All registered adult Scouts are urged to attend, the meetings are held from 9:30 till 1:30 p. m. Miss Catherine Hammett is speaking on "Education in the Out of Doors." She will be available for consultation after the meeting.

Members of the Social Agency Group of Winchester will be guests of the local Girl Scouts at the cabin on May 16 at 12:30.

May 17 the 7th and 8th grade Leaders will meet at 10 a. m. at the office.

Camp Reunion will be held at the cabin on May 19 from 3:30 to 4:30. All former campers please plan to attend and bring a new camper with you. Remember to bring your registration card and fee with you.

Mystic Glee Club Concert

Met an old friend last Saturday morning while strolling across the Common, and asked him what he thought of the Concert given the night before by the Mystic Glee Club at the High School Auditorium.

"Say, those fellows really did all night," he answered. "The concert was just about as good as last year's big Reunion affair — in some ways better. The Club seems to be singing more as a unit these days; good rich tone — you could hear everybody and yet you couldn't hear any one voice — at least most of the time. Sounded good."

"How did you like Charles Castleman, the young violinist—?"

"Darnedest thing I ever saw," he interrupted. "Can't figure yet how four feet of boy and three feet of bow could get so much music out of two feet of fiddle. That youngster couldn't have played better violin if he'd been twice his size and four times his age. He had tone, technique and temper, and really enjoyed playing.

"Didn't get back to the Glee Club — that opening number — the 'Iolanthe' thing — was a real rouser; demonstrated a lot of vocal power. I did miss the clean diction you usually associate with Gilbert and Sullivan stuff, though. The 'Chinese Lullaby' was a good change-of-pace after the opener; and 'Down in the Valley' was a high spot. The diction was good in that one, and the baritones had a real nice tone. So did the rest of the Club. And isn't it a pretty thing? I think the boys do their best singing when they're not trying to raise the roof. The Czech Dance had lots of spirit and life — good shading and precise timing."

"The second group was all show tunes," we began —

"The audience ate 'em up," he said "It's pretty hard to sing such songs that everybody's taste because they're so well known, but the Club did them well. 'Heather on the Hill' from 'Brigadoon' was my favorite of this group, because it's got such a gay tune; but the general favorite was 'Nothing Like a Dame' — probably because it's got such a gay idea.

"I always have liked to hear them sing 'Battle of Jericho' and it was just as good this time. 'Shenandoah' showed up that good baritone quality again, and on this one I'll give them top billing, too. They got over to us the spirit of the song, with good shading and tone quality all the way. The Campus numbers, while not sung the way we used to sing when I was in college, were good. Made a lot of us feel older than we like to feel, though. That encore — the foreign number — Czech, wasn't it, — was a lot of fun to listen to and to sing, but I couldn't get the words.

"'Dr. Foster' is a favorite with Mystic Glee Club audiences, and 'Sylvia' is a favorite of all audiences. I'll give the tenors a houquet on both of these numbers. They sounded fine. In fact the tenors — top tenors particularly — did a good job all through the program. They haven't always, but they did this time, especially the final note, real high, in 'Sylvia'."

Here we started to point out that "Homeland" was to be the other Contest song, with "Shenandoah," in the coming competition of the New England Federation of Men's Glee Clubs. He picked one up:

"and if they sing it as well as they did 'Shenandoah' they're a cinch to win the cup. I think they strained a little too much on it — should have sung it a little freer, though, and the blending of the voices was particularly good here. The final number, 'Glory' was well done, although it wasn't as good a closing numher as some I've heard the Club do. But it wound up a darn good concert.

"The things that impressed me most were these: first, the good control that Keith Snyder, the leader seemed to have over the Club — except in 'Dry Bones,' the first-half encore. Incidentally, those hones should be decently interred again to my way of thinking, although the kids in the audience liked it. Keith was able to hold the boys down or speed them up, make them sing louder and softer when he wanted them to, pretty generally. Also more of the fellows looked like they were enjoying themselves this time; I actually saw many of them smiling during some of the numbers. And, of course, Mary Louise Middleton's piano added tremendously to the success of the evening. She's always good.

"In general the concert was excellent, although personally I would have liked to hear one or two selections of a more serious nature. I'm not a long-hair, and I know it's Spring, but I still could stand a little more really good stuff."

With a wave of his hand he moved off in the direction of the Bank, while we returned home to try to write a review of the concert of May 4th.

Local Pontiac Dealer Returns From Michigan

Hy Moody of the Moody Motor Sales, Pontiac dealer here, returned today from a two-day open forum meeting with top executives of the automotive plant in Pontiac, Michigan.

Mr. Moody was one of the 30 Pontiac dealers, representing each of the Division's 25 nationwide sales zones, who were called to the meeting by General Sales Manager L. W. Ward.

Future planning was discussed and the group toured Pontiac's gigantic modern plant. Mr. Moody spoke to the group on his experiences in Dealer — Employee Relations.

General Sales Manager L. W. Ward told dealers Pontiac will build and sell every car possible under the critical supply situation, in addition to fulfilling three major defense commitments.

Staff & Key Society Presents Operetta Favorites

On Friday evening, May 2nd, at the Winchester High School Auditorium, the Staff & Key Society offered one of the most unusual and pleasing musical programs that this town has seen. Under the capable direction of L. Hassler Einzig, with the able assistance of Lucy Wilcox Cushman as accompanist, this group of 50 voices sang with unusual warmth and interpretation. It is one of the very few musical organizations which apparently possesses perfect pitch.

The Staff & Key started its career in 1948 with a colorful presentation of "Trial By Jury". Since that time they have presented each year either Gilbert & Sullivan favorites including, "The Mikado", "Iolanthe", "Pirates of Penzance".

Lest they become branded as strictly a Gilbert & Sullivan group, they chose this year to offer a concert of well known operetta favorites, which was well received by an appreciative, though unfortunately small audience. Following is the program:

Cachucha from "The Gondoliers"
Chorus
Madrigal from "The Mikado"
Cushla de Lango, Genevieve Crovo
Gordon C. Bennett,
Phillip Morrison
A Heart That's Free
Alfred Robyn
Genevieve Crovo
The Long Day Closes
Sir Arthur Sullivan
Chorus
Nightmare Song from "Iolanthe"
Joseph S. Hancort
Braid The Raven Hair from
"The Mikado"
Genevieve Crovo and Chorus
The Legend from "Song of Norway" Wright-Forrest-Greig
Gordon C. Bennett
Policemen's Chorus from
"The Pirates of Penzance"
F. Milne Blanchard, Helen Goodwin,
Lucia A. Wright and Chorus
Intermission
Finale of Act 1 from "Iolanthe"
Chorus
Waiata Poi Alfred Hill
Cushla de Lange
Prayer from "Hansel and Gretel"
Engelbert Humperdinck
Chorus
With a Song in My Heart
Richard Rodgers
Chorus
The Flowers That Bloom in the Spring from "The Mikado"
Joseph S. Hancort
Hill of Dreams from "Song of Norway" Wright-Forrest-Greig
Cushla de Lange and
Gordon C. Bennett
Finale
Arranged by L. Hassler Einzig
Dorothy H. Hickey and Chorus
L. Hassler Einzig Conductor
Lucy Wilcox Cushman
Accompanist

The Staff & Key Society would like it known that they are attempting in no way to compete with other local musical organizations but are interested only in keeping alive the best in musical comedy both for the pleasure of those who actively participate and for the delight of those who enjoy good operetta.

The group extends a cordial welcome to any and all who would like to join and share in the fun of good fellowship and the musical stage.

Gave Luncheon For Mary Witham Singers

On Thursday, May third, Mrs. Paul W. Walton, a member of the Mary Witham Singers, entertained that group following its morning musicale at Mrs. Fulton Brown's. The program there, benefiting the Friends of Winchester Hospital, was the last of the season for the Mary Witham Singers, and the informal gathering at Mrs. Walton's was a very happy affair before disbanding for the summer. A delicious luncheon was served, and music and daneing were also enjoyed. Mrs. Walton in her cordial hospitality was graciously assisted by her mother, Mrs. Rohie Cove.

Among those present were Mesdames Victor Bagdasian, Gordon S. Bird, Robert P. Blake, Ragnar T. Brandt, Gerald D. Curtis, Henry K. Fitts Sr., Milton G. Galucia, Robert E. Gardner, Herbert S. Gardner, Garrett V. Graves, H. Philip Hovnanian, William C. Hultgren, Aram T. Mouradian, Thomas Mouranian, Laura W. Pancoast, Theodore B. Robinson, Robert A. Strong, Carle C. Zimmerman, and the Misses Barhara Galucia, Irene Kline, June Moffette, and Grace Norian.

Baptist Youth

The Youth Fellowship of the First Baptist Church, under the leadership of John Hunt Chapple, will hold their regular Sunday evening service at 6:30 May 13th, in the Church. This group has been studying Boy and Girl relationships with various films and film strips being shown over the past few weeks, and lively and helpful discussions. This Sunday evening will be the concluding program in this series, with "The Do's and Don't's of Dating" the subject for discussion. It is hoped every member will be present to give note to the program, as well as gain information on this important subject.

The Fellowship is looking forward to an all-day outing on either the first or second Saturday in June. A definite date will be decided on shortly.

The exhibit of old and rare Bibles, assembled by the members of the Junior and Senior High department of the Church School, is now on display in the Church Chapel. This is a very interesting collection of old and valuable copies of the "Book of Books". Everyone is urged to view this exhibit.

Miss Elaine Foster is now teaching Mrs. Leonard Clark's Junior High Class in the absence of Mrs. Clark. The Church School is greatly indebted to her for her help. Her group of girls is at present working on a panel drawing of the "Good Shepherd".

The Junior and Senior High department will have a communion service as a group on June 3rd. This will be the last Sunday together for the season, and it is hoped all members will make a special effort to be present.

Congregational Conference Center

Of interest to all Congregationalists of Winchester, and also to all Congregationalists of the entire state, is the dedication on Sunday, May 13th of the new Congregational Conference Center at Framingham Center.

During the afternoon visitors may look through the lovely big house, wander over the 130 acres of the estate, see the barns and farmhouse and thus get acquainted with the Center. The program at the Center will begin at five o'clock and continue until almost seven and will include organ music, a choir of 500 voices, a short dedicatory address by Dr. Frederick M. Meek, and the dedicatory prayer hy Dr. Albert Buckner Coe. As a part of the same dedicatory program, although held at the Memorial Auditorium in Framingham, will be a song recital hy Roland Hayes, the celebrated tenor. This will be at 7:30.

To reach the Conference Center take route 9 to Framingham Center. Turn at the 1812 House and go south on Salem End road for a little more than a mile. Parking space has been provided for a very large number of cars, for it is expected that thousands of people will be present at this significant event.

The Center is already being used daily for all kinds of church groups. Vesper services are held there every Sunday evening at five. As improvements are made, to accommodate a larger number of overnight guests, it is expected that this Congregational Conference Center will become the focal point for Congregationalism in the commonwealth.

$300 For Scholarship Fund

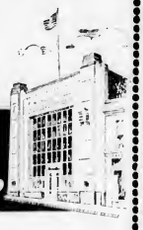

The sum of $300 has been allotted to the Winchester Scholarship Fund by the Winchester High School Parent Faculty Association. This action was taken May 3 at a meeting of the association's board of directors at the home of Mrs. James Coon, retiring president.

The money was raised hy a bridge and canasta party sponsored by the P. F. A. at the high school March 30.

The association's board, in its last meeting of the school year, also voted two other appropriations — one for $125 to be spent in renovating the women teachers' rest room at the high school, and $25 for the benefit of the high school band.

Hazen Ayer will succeed Mrs. Coon as president when the association resumes its activities next fall. The board gave a standing vote of thanks to Mrs. Coon for her services during her two years in office.

DR. FRANK W. ROUNDS

DR. ROUNDS DEAD

Noted Dentist Stricken Suddenly at Norwell Home

Dr. Frank Wendell Rounds of Norwell, for many years a resident of Central street, this town, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home on River street, Wednesday. He was 68 years old and was a nationally famed oral surgeon and anesthetist and had practiced in Boston for the past 30 years. He was widely known to a large circle of Winchester friends and residents.

Dr. Rounds was a pioneer specialist, teacher and lecturer in his chosen field and was known as the "dentists' dentist." His stature in the practice of dentistry had brought him many honors including the Fones medal of the Connecticut Dental Society and honorary memberships in the Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi and Maine Dental Societies.

In 1945 he was chosen a trustee of Bates College and was awarded an honorary degree of doctor of science by his alma mater in 1949. He was born in South Paris, Me., and was graduated from Bates College in 1904 and from University of Louisville Dental School in 1910.

He practiced dentistry in Kentucky and in Maine until 1915 and then specialized in oral surgery and anesthesia in addition to teaching at the University of Louisville. In 1922 he came to Boston and had practiced here since.

In recognition of his work in oral surgery, he was given membership in Phi Beta Kappa in 1939. He was a member of the newly formed Blue Shield committee of the Massachusett's Dental Society, and was a contributor of articles for professional publications.

He was past president of the Massachusetts Dental Society, American Society of Oral Surgeons, American Academy of Dental Science and New England Society of Oral Surgeons. He was a member also of the American Dental Association and Paris Lodge, A. F. & A. M.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mildred (Elder) Rounds, and by two sons, Frank W. Rounds, Jr., now in Russia, and Dr. Charles Elder Rounds of Norwell. Private services will be held at South Paris, Me., and Boston on Saturday.

McHUGH — O'DONNELL

On Sunday, May 6, in the Immaculate Conception Church at 3 o'clock p. m., Miss Catherine Ann O'Donnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George L. O'Donnell of 19 Stoddard street, Woburn, became the bride of Mr. John Peter McHugh, son of Mrs. John F. McHugh of 51 Clark street and the late Mr. McHugh. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Herbert K. A. Driscoll, pastor of the Immaculate Conception Church.

Mrs. William McGann played the organ, and Mr. Frank Flahive was soloist.

Miss O'Donnell was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of white dotted swiss was fashioned with hoop skirt, draped on the sides, with inserts of Chantilly lace, and fitted bodice with sweetheart neckline. Her veil was of imported French illusion caught in a lace cap. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Miss Ellen Elizabeth O'Donnell, maid of honor and sister of the bride, was gowned in yellow dotted swiss similar in style to the bride's gown. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of talisman roses and wore a sweetheart hat to match her gown.

The usher corps was comprised of Mr. Robert J. McHugh of Winchester, best man and brother of the groom; Mr. John J. Mills of Woburn, uncle of the groom; and Mr. Henry C. Heitz of Winchester.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the V. F. W. Hall, Melrose Highlands. Parents of the bride and the mother of the groom assisted Mr. and Mrs. McHugh in receiving. Mrs. O'Donnell was gowned in frosted pink with navy accessories and wore a corsage of American beauty roses. The groom's mother was gowned in aqua, accessories of navy.

The bride is a graduate of Woburn High School, and is employed by the W. W. Winship Co. Inc., of Boston.

The groom was graduated from Winchester High School, and is a member of the Winchester Police Force.

After a wedding journey to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. McHugh will reside at 43 Clark street.

ADELAIDE CORA WOODMAN

Mrs. Adelaide Cora (Small) Woodman, widow of Frank W. Woodman, died at the Medford Orthopedic Hospital on Saturday, May 12, where she had been confined for the past year.

Mrs. Woodman was born in Portland, Maine, April 8, 1858. Up to the time of entering the Orthopedic Hospital she had been living with her sister, the late Mrs. Francis Hight, at 19 Cabot street.

She is survived by two nephews, Philip Hight of Cabot street and Robert E. Hight of Ledyard road.

Funeral services were held from the Dunnett Funeral Chapel on Tuesday afternoon, May 15, at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. Robert A. Storer officiating. Interment was at Mt. Auburn.

STOCKWELL NAMED IN RED FEATHER CAMPAIGN

Fred E. Stockwell of Winchester has been named to an important volunteer position in next fall's Red Feather campaign. One of 12 top leaders in Campaign Chairman Alan Steinert's "cabinet", he will serve as chairman of the North and Central Metropolitan Divisions. Under his supervision will be the northern communities of Arlington, Bedford, Belmont, Lexington, Waltham, Watertown, Winchester and Woburn; and Brookline, Cambridge and Newton in Central.

Mr. Stockwell has been closely identified with Red Feather community and civic interests both in Cambridge and Belmont. He headed the Community Fund drive in Cambridge in 1949, is a former vice president of the Cambridge Community Federation, was a residential leader in Belmont and last year was chairman of the Boston real estate group.

In business Mr. Stockwell is associated with R. M. Bradley Co. Inc., realtors, and is a partner in the insurance firm of Stoger, Dunoon & Lund, both of Boston. A graduate of Dartmouth, he served in the U. S. Army Air Forces from 1942 to 1945. Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell whose home is at 2 Cabot street have three small children, Sandra, 6, Richard, 4, and two-year-old William.

ANNUAL MEETING HOME FOR THE AGED

The Annual Meeting of the Home for Aged People will be held at the Home, 110 Mt. Vernon street, on Monday evening, May 21st at 7:45 and it is hoped that as many members of the Corporation as possible will attend.

For some years the Directors of the Home have been considering the necessity of making a substantial addition to the capacity of the Home but steadily mounting costs of construction and the maintenance of a greatly enlarged Family have made that seem impossible.

The Directors have, however, decided to investigate the cost of building an addition to the present buildings to provide not less than four bedrooms, and a Committee of which Dr. William L. Davis is Chairman is now at work on the project.

Other projects are the new piazza presented by the En Ka Society, now nearing completion, and the replacement this summer of the two large heating boilers.

HONORED AT SIMMONS

Two Winchester girls were among those honored recently by the Student Government Council of Simmons College when they announced elections to offices in all organizations and classes for the coming year.

Among those honored were: Miss Jacqueline Fritch, daughter of Mrs. Marion D. Fritch of 30 Mt. Pleasant street, who was elected vice president of the Riding Club; and Miss Carolyn Zinn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Edward Zinn of 7 Yale street, who was chosen president of the YWCA.

Both students are graduates of Winchester High School, and have been active in college affairs since coming to Simmons.

MISS AMY WOODS

Miss Amy Woods of Ashfield, Mass., a member of one of Winchester's old families and formerly of 24 Park road and Brookline, Mass., passed away last week in Northampton, Mass., after a brief illness.

Miss Woods, at the time of her death was 75 years of age.

Funeral services were held on Monday at 2:00 p. m. in Battle, Mass.

Interment was in the family lot at Glen Valley Cemetery.

BURNING OF BAPTIST MORTGAGE

Occasion Celebrated With Dinner And Program

With unparalleled enthusiasm the very significant program of the burning of the church mortgage took place in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church on Monday evening, May 14th.

Supper was served at 6:30 to as many as could crowd into the spacious Social Hall. The following served as hosts and hostesses for the individual tables:

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers Colby, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ripley, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Lutes, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Josephson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Newhall, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Erskine, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Jonah, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chase.

Two head tables were on the platform with the following guests: Rev. and Mrs. Arthur L. Winn, Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin P. Browne, Dr. and Mrs. Forbes H. Norris, Rev. and Mrs. Walter L. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. William Breed, Dr. Isaac Higginbotham, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Dade, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ollis Weld, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Lamson, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Leon E. Gavitt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Sanborn.

FLORENCE CRITTENTON GARDEN PARTY

Plan to come and bring a friend to the garden party which the Winchester Circle of the Florence Crittenton League has arranged for Tuesday, May 22nd from 2:00 to 4:30 p. m. Tickets are still available and may be had by calling Mrs. J. Howard Macaulay at WI 6-2829 or Mrs. Francis G. Chase at WI 6-2719.

Gardens in several parts of town will be open, and include those of Mrs. John B. Wills at 28 Highland avenue, of Mrs. P. A. Sorokin at 8 Cliff street, of Mrs. Henry K. Spencer at 1 Central Green, of Mrs. Clarence P. Whoff nt 2 Central Green, and of Mrs. William L. Davis at 3 Central Green, also the garden of Mrs. William J. L. Roop at 16 Niles Lane overlooking the Mystic Lakes, and both the house and garden of Mrs. Harold F. Meyer at 16 Everett avenue, where afternoon punch and cookies will be served.

Our gracious hostesses, the committee and guests are hoping for fair and comfortable weather. Should it rain, however, the party will be postponed until the next day.

JOHN H. McMANUS RETIRES

Announcement was made over the week-end of the retirement from business life of Mr. John H. McManus, long a prominent figure in the packing industry and for many years manager of the John P. Squire Company of Cambridge and general manager of Swift & Company.

Mr. McManus, a resident of Harrison street, has a host of friends and Winchester neighbors who are extending felicitations. His official retirement was on Saturday, May 12.

Mr. McManus, a graduate of Georgetown University, entered the packing industry in 1912, associating himself with the firm of Sperry & Barnes in New Haven. He became sales manager of the firm in 1928 and in 1934 was appointed to his position with the Squires and Swift Companies. His responsibilities included supervision over the Sperry & Barnes Company, John P. Squire Company and H. L. Handy Company of Springfield.

THORLEY COLLISTER DEAD

Mr. Thorley Collister, a well known resident of Oxford street until his removal several years ago, died at his home in Duxbury last Friday. Although not in the best of health, death in his sleep May 11th was unexpected. He was 61 years of age.

Mr. Collister leaves his wife Mrs. Rena (Gerrish) Collister and one daughter, Mrs. Allan Macdonald (Mary Louise) of Goshen, Conn.

Funeral services were held in Kingston on Monday, May 14. The interment was in Duxbury.

MISS PAULINE G. COREY

Miss Pauline G. Corey, a former resident of Winchester, died suddenly on Tuesday, May 15 in Cooperstown, N. Y. The daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James E. Corey, Miss Corey was born in Winchester and educated in the Winchester schools, graduating from Winchester High School and Mount Holyoke College.

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Robert Johnson of Woburn, and her brother, Mr. G. Richard Corey of Lunenberg, Mass.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy of 39 Clark street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary E. to Mr. Alexander Milley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Milley of Somerville.

No date has been set for the wedding.

DRIVER TRAINING CAR FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Winchester High School on Monday became the 126th high school in the state to offer driver training with a dual-control car when Mr. Ralph Bonnell of Bonnell Motors presented the new dual-controlled Ford sedan to Mr. William Brunkley, Director of Driver Education. Mr. Bonnell was one of the original sponsors of the plan promoted by the Massachusetts State Automobile Dealers' Association whereby members of that organization make driver training cars available to their local high schools.

Deputy Registrar Anthony A. Bonzagni stated that of the 279 public high schools in the Commonwealth, 248 offer a course in driver training. Driver training, he said, has reduced the number of accidents by 46 per cent and that the young drivers, ages 16, 17 and 18 have as a group the best record of accident-free driving. Massachusetts, he said, is one of the few states in the Union in which liability insurance rates are the same when all members of the family drive. About 60,000 drivers will have been trained by high school driver courses by the end of the school year.

Driver education has been in progress at Winchester High School for several years. In other years the candidates were able to take only the examination on the legal phases of driving and the rules of the road. With the dual controlled car now available, the Registry will send an inspector to Winchester. Candidates will be able to take all of the mental and physical examinations here and take their driving test with the inspector in the dual-controlled automobile. The dual-controlled car drives as any car does, but there are auxiliary clutch and brake pedals on the rider's or instructor's side of the car.

Winchester residents will perhaps note a shiny blue Ford sedan bearing the registration number 267 - 389 and on each door:

Winchester High School
Driver Training Car
Courtesy of Bonnell Motors

Present at the brief ceremony of accepting the training automobile were Mr. Ralph Bonnell, Superintendent of Schools Forbes H. Norris, Principal Wade L. Grindle, Mr. Edward G. MacDonald, Manager of Bonnell Motors, Mr. Eugene Fanning, Supervisor of Driver Training, Mr. Anthony A. Bonzagni, Deputy Registrar, Mr. William A. Reardon, Chief Supervisor of Special Services (Education and Public Relations), Mr. Alfred T. Little, Supervisor of Special Services (Safety Education) and Mr. William E. Branley, Director of Driver Training in Winchester High School.

This car is made available through the courtesy of Bonnell Motors without cost to the town in the interest of public safety.

BISHOPS ATTEND REV. CLARENCE A. MACKSEY FUNERAL

A delegation of 75 priests headed by Most Rev. Erick W. McKenzie and Most Rev. Thomas F. Markham, Auxiliary Bishops of Boston, and six Monsigneors made up the large gathering at St. Mary's Church on Saturday morning, May 12 to pay final tribute to Rev. Clarence A. Macksey.

There was a mass at 9 o'clock for the children followed by a solemn requiem high mass at 10 o'clock. Monsignor Walter J. Furlong, Chancellor of the Archdiocese was celebrant, with Rev. Peter T. Linehan, parish priest of St. Theresa's Church, Everett, deacon; and Rev. Raymond L. Hyder, Director of Lowell Catholic Charitable Bureau, as sub-deacon.

Right Rev. Cornelius T. H. Sherlock, Superintendent of the Parochial schools preached the sermon giving tribute to the work of Father Macksey in God's vineyard and his accomplishments in the field of charity.

Interment was in Calvary cemetery, Woburn.

Father Macksey was born in Winchester, August 2, 1901, the son of the late Thomas J. and Lucy (McDougall) Macksey. He attended Winchester schools. He was ordained to the priesthood on May 25, 1928, after graduating from St. John's Seminary.

He was then assigned as a curate to St. Mary's Church, Franklin, then to St. Therese's Church, Everett, going from there to Our Lady of Lourdes Church, Jamaica Plain.

In November 1945 he was appointed director of the Lowell Catholic Charitable Bureau, also serving as Chaplain at Keith Academy, but he was forced to retire last February due to his illness.

WINCHESTER MASONIC SUNDAY

Masonic Sunday will be observed by the Winchester Masonic Lodges on May 20 with all three Lodges, William Parkman, Mystic Valley and Winchester Royal Arch Chapter, participating. A special communication will be held entitled Winchester Order DeMolay.

The services will be held at the Unitarian Church at 10:30 a. m. The Lodges will open in the Masonic rooms at 10:15, members marching to the church in a body. In case of inclement weather the Lodges will meet in the Meyer Chapel at the Unitarian Church at 10:30.

All Winchester Masons are invited to attend the service.

PARKER — ERHARDT

Announcement is made of the marriage on March 17th in Kansas City, Kansas of Carol Erhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Erhardt of Kansas City, and Robert D. Parker.

Mr. Parker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert I. Parker of 3 Sachem road.

WISTERIA TREE IN BLOOM

The John E. McIntyre's of 7 Sheffield west have in bloom a wisteria tree. It is a most unusual tree of an umbrella shape with a 15 foot span.

It would be worth your while to ride around and take a look at it this week end, while it is in full bloom.

WHERE ARE THESE PEOPLE!

The Winchester High School Class of 1926 is holding its 25th anniversary reunion at the High School gymnasium next month.

WINCHESTER'S TAX RATE
— $40.00 —
An Increase Of $4.00 Over Last Year

Chairman Marshall R. Pihl of the Board of Assessors announced yesterday afternoon that Winchester's tax rate for the current year will be $40.00.

This year's rate is based on a total valuation of $40,613,575.00 of which $3,561,500.00 is in personal property and $37,052,075.00 is in real estate. Last year's total valuation was $38,698,050.00, this year's higher figure resulting from increases of $460,425.00 in personal property and $1,455,100.00 in real estate.

Town appropriations for this year total $2,011,030.02, exclusive of transfers, an increase of $267,158.02 over the 1950 total of $1,743,601.00.

PARENTS TO HEAR MR. DICKMAN

The parents of all Winchester 6th graders are invited to hear Mr. Raymond Dickman, Principal of the Junior High School, speak about our young teen-agers. The meeting will be held at 10 a. m. on Monday, June 4 in the Mystic School Auditorium.

Sponsored by the Winchester Mothers' Association, this meeting will take the place of the smaller 6th grade groups from individual school districts which have been held in former years.

Many parents who have heard Mr. Dickman's informal and interesting talks have asked permission to attend. Therefore, a cordial invitation is extended to any parents of young adolescents to join with those of the 6th graders for whom the meeting is specifically planned.

Miss Brenda Martha Mahoney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Mahoney of 228 Cambridge street, will receive a B. A. degree at commencement exercises to be held at Mount St. Mary college May 27. Miss Mahoney who majored in social sciences and minored in English was on the honor roll. She has been president of the International Relations club, vice-president of the German club and a member of the Student council. She has also been affiliated with the music, swimming and athletic clubs and with Catholic Action.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Camp Joy Reunion is the Number 1 item on this weekend calendar at the Girl Scout Cabin. This is the happy occasion when all old campers get together and talk over good times and help those who are new to become acquainted with the program. See you at 3:30 Saturday.

Mrs. Barbara Metcalf has been appointed chairman of the Rehabilitation Committee of the Winchester Civil Defense program. Though this is not a part of her Girl Scout work she is holding her first meeting at the Girl Scout Office on May 27 at 7:45. She needs many helpers on various sub-committees and urges all interested in this phase of Civil Defense to attend the meeting.

The Annual Brownie Fly-up ceremony will be held at the cabin Monday, May 21 at 3:45. Staff Members of the Day Camp will meet Thursday, May 24 at the office at 10 a. m.

Girl Scouts assisting in the Cerebral Palsy Drive in Winchester were:

Vanessa Ahlfors
Cynthia Ahlfors
Judy Moller
Joan Dutell
Jean McElroy
Mickey Coon
Leonora Peckham
Mary Cullen
Ann Hooper
Louise Gray
Mary Lou Armstrong
Beth Hewins
Florence Newton
Joan Sweetser
Sue Clark
Mary Jane Heard
Natalie Anderson
Nancy Ayer
Carolyn Stone
Althea Hersey
Joy Hewins
Cynthia Nichols
Nancy Morris
Alison Hersey
Betty Lou Martensen

The Girl Scouts will be prepared and trained for their responsibilities in the Civil Defense work. Those who are working on the overall planning are:

Mrs. William Glowacki
Mrs. W. B. Hersey
Mrs. Maxwell McCreery

Mrs. James McElroy in charge of the Girl's Emergency Squads. Mrs. Loring Nichols and Mrs. R. P. Webster, Jr., Co-Chairmen of the adults' program of this training plan.

Two meetings have been held — one being the Sectional Meeting at Cedar Hill.

BAPTIST YOUTH

Miss Elaine Foster's Sunday School class of Junior High girls are to have a cookout on Saturday afternoon, May 19th, at Miss Foster's home, 8 Chesterford road. The girls will meet there at 3 o'clock and there will be fires ready for hot dogs (bring your own). Miss Foster will provide rolls, potato salad and tonic. There is good fishing in the pond nearby, so fishing equipment will be in order.

The Youth Fellowship will have two more Sunday evening meetings as a group. Next Sunday will be the final in the series of Boy-Girl relationships. "The Curiosity to Know" is the theme for this week.

June 9th is the date for the all-day outing of the Fellowship at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bosselman at Suncook, New Hampshire. A committee of the young people — Sherman Josephson, Philip Dresser, Patricia Dade and Priscilla Ward, working with Mr. Chapple, are making definite plans for this day of fun.

Patricia Dade and Carol Foster are working on a four by three foot panel painting depicting the "Good Shepherd". The painting is in water colors and is progressing very rapidly and developing into a really beautiful picture. The girls plan to have it completed so that it can be exhibited on Children's Day, the second Sunday in June.

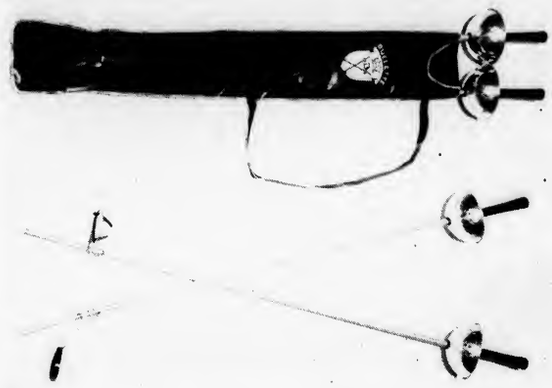

On June 3rd, during the regular Sunday School hour, in the Junior-Senior Sunday School chapel, a young people's communion service will be held. This will be the last official class meeting of this age group for this season, and each one is urged to be present.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

All members are invited to attend the Tea in honor of our Past Presidents on Sunday, May 20 at 3 p. m. at the Legion Home. Our President urges a large attendance for this very special occasion as there will be in addition to the Tea, and Initiation Ceremony in which all members will participate.

Make your reservations now for the annual May Dance to be held at the Legion Home on Saturday evening, May 26. The committee promises fun and entertainment for all with the usual excellent music for dancing.

PARKHURST MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Lewis Parkhurst Mothers' Association was held in the auditorium on Tuesday afternoon. The assembled mothers learned with regret that the President, Mrs. Lyndon Burnham, was prevented by illness from being present. Mrs. Leonard Moran, Vice President, presided for the first part before turning the meeting over to next year's President Mrs. G. Moulton Herrick.

Mrs. Quentin Roberts read the secretary's report and Mrs. George Farrar read the Treasurer's report. The following officers were elected for the year 1951 - 1952:

Officers

President — Mrs. G. Moulton Herrick
Vice-President — Mrs. Leonard Mead
Rec. Sec. — Mrs. W. J. O'Malley
Cor. Sec. — Mrs. John Stevens
Treas. — Mrs. Robert Lowry

Committee Chairmen

Extra-Curricular Activities — Mrs. Thomas Downes
Luncheon — Mrs. David Moore
Membership — Mrs. Pasquale Bruno
Room Mothers — Mrs. Evander French
Social — Mrs. Arthur Schmidt
Ways and Means — Mrs. Richard Pettingell
Publicity — Mrs. Alan Switzer
Nominating — Mrs. Paul Comins

Members at Large

Mrs. C. Andrew Perkins
Mrs. A. L. Watkins
Mrs. Caul Pynn

Nominating Committee

Mrs. Andrew Peterson
Mrs. Larry Burke
Mrs. H. K. Archibald
Mrs. Robert Abbott

The Parkhurst School Band played several selections surprisingly well under the direction of Mr. Fred Felmet. Samuel Kirkwood, accompanied by his mother, played a clarinet solo.

Miss Martha Cunningham spoke, stressing the happy child, teacher, parent relationship which has been achieved at Parkhurst. The mothers heard with regret that there is a possibility Miss Cunningham may not return in the fall due to her desire for further study. It is hoped for Parkhurst's sake that she will return to Winchester.

Mrs. Miriam Cahalin then convulsed the audience with her clever monologues "Sketches From Life."

Coffee and sandwiches were served by Mrs. G. Moulton Herrick, Mrs. Martha Porter, Mrs. Arthur Schmidt, and Mrs. Paul Comins.

ON COLLEGE YEARBOOK STAFF

Miss Louise Lane, a freshman at Centenary Junior College, Hackettstown, N. J., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Lane of 4 Drexel avenue, was elected to be the associate editor of the "Hack", the College yearbook, for the coming year.

RED CROSS WATER SAFETY

Swimming lessons and a course in Water Safety for all Winchester children is offered by the Winchester Red Cross at Palmer Beach under the able direction of Lawrence Palmer of Park avenue, who is on the coaching staff at Tufts College.

Classes for children who are beginners and need guidance before leaving for summer vacations will start June 18th. Regular classes will commence July first.

We are most fortunate in having Mr. Palmer, who is well known as a tennis ace. He was educated in Winchester public schools, University of Vermont and Boston University, School of Education. Not only has he been Physical Director of the Y. M. C. A., but also a Director of swimming for the "Y". He has taught physical education and swimming at Northeastern, and hockey at Winchester High and physical education at the Junior High.

It is significant indeed that he was selected by Sargent School as an instructor of physical education. He has been a director of summer camps, both private and institutional, for girls and boys, teaching swimming to persons of all ages.

RED CROSS ANNUAL MEETING

Friends and members of the American National Red Cross, Winchester Chapter, are cordially invited to attend the Annual Meeting, next Friday evening at 8:00 p. m., at the Music Hall on Bacon street.

All those who gave one dollar or more to the recent Red Cross campaign for funds are automatically members of the National Red Cross.

The annual election of officers will be held. A social hour will follow.

PRE-SUPPER GATHERINGS

Thanks to everybody who worked so hard to make a success of the parties preceding the Annual Parent-Teachers' Spring Party.

The various chairmen, and their committees did an endless amount of telephoning and checking of lists, to make doubly sure that everyone who wished to participate was included.

Special thanks to Miss Charlotte LeClaire, committee member from the Junior High School, and to Mrs. James K. McElroy, chairman for the Junior High parties, for their thorough job in coordinating the master list for the entire town.

We are also most grateful to Mrs. F. C. d'Eseaux, chairman of the Spring Party committee, for her unflagging concern and assistance.

A list of the committees for all schools follows:

High School:
Mrs. J. Warren Shoemaker, chairman
Mrs. Kenneth Cady
Mrs. Arthur Hertig
Mrs. Harold C. Wood
Mrs. Olcott Hooper
Mrs. Joseph Tansey

MYSTIC SCHOOL MOTHERS' MEETING

The Annual meeting of the Mystic School Mothers' Association was held on Tuesday, May 15th at 2:45 p. m. in the Mystic School Assembly Hall, and was unusually well attended. The retiring president, Mrs. Melvin L. Sears, conducted the meeting. After the officers and committee chairmen read their annual reports, Mrs. Robert Tonon, chairman of the nominating committee, presented her slate, which was unanimously elected.

The new officers for the year 1951 - 1952 are:

President — Mrs. Colver P. Dyer
Vice-Pres. — Mrs. Burton A. Miller
Sec. — Mrs. H. Gradner Bradlee
Treas. — Mrs. William S. Wolsey
Nom. Com. — Mrs. Nelson K. Brown
Publicity — Mrs. Earle F. Littleton
Ways and Means — Mrs. George E. Niles
Teachers' Luncheons — Mrs. Everrett A. Tisdale
Sixth Grade Dancing — Mrs. Richard D. Bolster
Refreshments — Mrs. Curtis J. Ware
Room Mothers — Mrs. W. Campbell Ross

After the election of the new officers, Mrs. Sears presented the gavel to Mrs. Dyer, who welcomed Mr. Alfred R. Meurling, Director of Physical Education, who was in charge of the afternoon's entertainment. One hundred and twenty-five pupils of the 1th, 5th, and 6th grades presented a program of Square Dancing under Mr. Meurling's direction.

"Sicilian Circle" and "Couples Go Round" was danced by the 4th grade pupils; "Grapevine Twist" and "Quadrille" was danced by the 5th grade boys and girls; and "Two Head Ladies Cross Over" and "Lady of the Lake", as well as a difficult quechussed number, by the 6th grade pupils. The dances were lively and varied, and thoroughly enjoyed by every one.

Afternoon punch with sherbet and delicious homemade cookies were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Lindsay H. Caldwell and her committee, Mrs. Nicholas J. Grant, Mrs. Harmon Hall, Mrs. Lynwood Bryant, and Mrs. Morton Grant. A lovely arrangement of lavender and white lilacs formed the center piece for the attractively decorated table where Mrs. Albert L. Fisher and Mrs. George E. Niles presided at the punch bowl.

ANNUAL MEETING OF WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to the Middlesex East District Medical Society was held Thursday, May 10th at the Music Hall in Winchester at 2:30 p. m.

Dr. Ingeborg Michelsen, the retiring President of the Auxiliary, called upon Committee Chairmen for their yearly reports. She stated she relinquished her post with much regret, and that she was very proud of the constructive work accomplished by the Auxiliary during her term of office. She further stated that the interest which had been stimulated within the high schools in the nursing profession, as a result of the two scholarships offered by the Auxiliary, was most gratifying.

Mrs. Howard Root, State President of the Auxiliary spoke on the aims and goals of the State Auxiliary. She stated that the present Auxiliary Organizations within Massachusetts have not only increased friendship between doctors' wives, but are organized as a working group performing an important function. They are solidly behind the medical profession, and handle matters pertaining to medical legislation, aid in nurse recruitment, and foster public relations. She stated further that the State Auxiliary has been in existence only three years, and within that short time has made much progress, with a present membership of just under 2,000. She also stated we must carry our share of the national medical burden by continuing to maintain the high standards always associated with the medical profession.

Mrs. Thomas P. Devlin of Stoneham, the newly elected President of the local Auxiliary was introduced and expressed the desire to carry on with the magnificent work performed by Dr. Michelsen during her term of office. The other newly elected officers include Mrs. Joseph Ward of Melrose as Vice President; Mrs. Sanford Moses of Winchester, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Robert E. Archibald of Melrose, Corresponding Secretary; and Mrs. John Anderson of Stoneham, Treasurer.

A musical program followed with Miss Grace Norian as guest pianist, and tea was served.

V. F. W. NEWS

ST. MARY'S HOLY NAME FINAL MEETING OF SEASON

The membership of St. Mary's H. N. S. attended the 8:00 a. m. Mass, received Holy Communion in a body last Sunday, after which they adjourned to Waterfield Hall for light breakfast and the business meeting. Rev. William H. Walsh, Spiritual Leader, praised the members for their fine showing on Mothers' Day. He said that we derive our salvation through Mary.

Following Breakfast the reports of Secretary Barstow and Treasurer McDonald were read. Harry Bennett, Sick and Vigil Chairman, reported that flowers from the Society were sent to the following hospitalized members: James Wharf, Ramie Doucette and Robert Horne. The Outdoor Holy Hour is scheduled to be held at Braves Field on Sunday evening, May 27th. On the question of the Society's annual contribution to the Winchester Scholarship fund, Publicity Chairman V. F. Erhard motioned that the Society contribute to this worthwhile cause and this was seconded by Albert Thorne, Sr.

Assistant Marshal Leonard Hurley was presented a beautiful Latin Missal by President Hall from the Society, the occasion being the plan of the recipient to enter the Seminary to study for the Priesthood in the near future.

Next season's officers will be: President Eric W. Johnson; V. P. Henry Barry; Secretary Robert Barstow; Treasurer C. Philip O'Rourke, Jr.; Delegates Arthur W. Hall and Charles Haggerty. President Hall thanked the Spiritual Director Fr. Walsh, the officers, committee Heads and members for their fine support the past season. Fr. Walsh expressed his pleasure at the success this season and urged the men not to forget their monthly communion program during the summer. Rev. Horacio de la Costa S. J. Native Philippine Priest who recently completed his graduate work at Harvard was the invited speaker.

4-H CLUB

The second meeting of the 4-H Club was held at 7:00 p. m. on May 10th at the Library. Mr. Foley started the meeting by taking attendance. All members were present. After the meeting was opened we elected officers. They are:

President — Dick Foster
Vice-Pres. — David Gowing
Secretary — Dorothy Pratt
Treasurer — Peter Gowing
News Reporter — Dick Bingham

Later we were given advice on our planting.

We closed the meeting as we decided to hold the next meeting May 31st. According to reports everyone has a garden started.

HIGH SCHOOL SPRING CONCERT

Playing and singing to an appreciative audience of schoolmates, parents, and friends, musical organizations of Winchester High School presented their annual Spring Concert in the High School Auditorium last Friday evening.

Offering a program of considerable variety, the music groups, directed by Supervisor of Music Fred Felmet and Assistant Supervisor Eleanor Anifantis, did themselves proud.

Band enthusiasts waited for the last part of the program especially, when the sixty-piece band played "Colonel Bogey March" by Alford, "Morris Dance" by German-Laurandeau, "American Fair" Rhapsody" by Grundman, "Silver Threads Among the Gold" by Danks, "French Military Marching Song" by Romberg-Peloquin, "Can Anyone Explain" by Benjamin-Weiss, The Thing, by Charles Green, illustrated by a report card drawn by John Merritt), and "Americans We March" by Fillmore.

Directed by Mr. Felmet, the Orchestra opened the program with "Entrance of the Sirdar" by Ippolitow-Ivanow and "Pavanne" by Morton Gould. "Chaconne" by Durand, and "Operatic Gems" from Sir Arthur Sullivan's popular music as arranged by Seredy.

Soprano Dorothy Brandt sang in her usual pleasing manner "Il Bacio" by Arditi, and John Willis, pianist, played "Revolutionary Etude" by Chopin.

Miss Anifantis directed the Octette and Glee Clubs. The Octette sang "Katydids" by Scarmolin "I Must and I Will Get Married," an Appalachian Folk Song, and "Wedding of the Painted Doll" by Nacio Brown.

The Girls' Glee Club, given a "Superior" rating at the Marblehead Music Festival, justified that award by singing "Rain and the River" by Oscar Fox, "Friendship" by Cuthbert Harris, "Three Little Maids from School" by Sullivan featuring soloists Dorothy Brandt, Patricia Carroll, and Phyllis O'Neil; "In Gay Seville" by Robert Gibb.

The Boys' Glee Club sang "Semper Fidelis" by Sousa, "O Singing Land" by Sibelius, "Spanish Guitar" with soloists Ronald Connor, Donald Palladino, John Everett, and Robert Flaherty, and "Dance, My Comrades."

The Mixed Glee Club sang "Climbing The Mountain," "I Arise from Dreams of Thee," "Alone I Sit and Sigh," and "Dry Bones," probably their most popular offering.

Accompanists were Margaret Reid and Janet Macaulay.

Special numbers besides those already mentioned were "Gavotte" by the flute quartet of Mary Lou Armstrong, Claron Swonger, Marcia Cunningham, and Beverly Ryd; "Carnival of Venice," a well played trumpet solo by Edward Tarr which left his audience breathless; "Wedding March," "Ezek'e Saw the Wheel," and "Old Zion's Children Marchin' Along" by the brass quartet of Todd Wallis, Edward Tarr, Richard Giacalone, and John Connors; "Andante and Menuetto" by a clarinet quartet composed of Roger Rotondi, Robert Traut, Raymond Simpson, and John Becker; a violin solo "Romance" by Wienawski played by Annette Barbaro; and a vocal solo by Patricia Carroll, "Romance" by Romberg.

Soloists Dorothy Brandt, Annette Barbaro, Edward Tarr, and Patricia Carroll were highlights of the concert, each performing in a highly creditable manner.

LOCAL TRAVEL AGENT ON HAWAIIAN TOUR

Miss Mavis McGrath of the McGrath Travel Service, Woburn, is enroute, via United Airlines, on an inspection tour of the West Coast and the Hawaiian Islands.

Miss McGrath left New York on United Airlines "Mainliner" DC-6, for Los Angeles, and from Los Angeles she will stay at the lovely Del Coronado Hotel, San Diego, for four days, visiting the surrounding cities, including the Mexican towns of Tinjuana and Agua Caliente.

Miss McGrath will then head north for Los Angeles, Arrowhead, Palm Springs and Santa Barbara, and back to Los Angeles, from where she will fly, via United Airlines "Mainliner" directly to the Hawaiian Islands.

Besides visiting Honolulu, Waikiki Beach, and the other interesting spots on the island of Oahu, she will fly to the island of Kauai for a complete coverage of this island; then to the island of Maui, with Haleakala, the world's largest volcano; then to the large island of Hawaii for full inspection of the lovely Kona Coast; thence to the islands of Lanai and Molokai, returning to Honolulu for a week at the beautiful Royal Hawaiian Hotel at Waikiki.

All of the travel between the islands will be done on the famous Inter-island Plane Travel Service.

Miss McGrath's return from Hawaii will be via San Francisco to Boston on United Airlines "Mainliner."

The entire trip is in the interest of better knowledge of the Islands for future travelers.

Anne W. Coleman of 20 Alden Lane will be managing editor of the "Kaleidoscope," student yearbook at Middlebury College, Vermont, for the 1952 issues.

MYSTIC SCHOOL TEACHERS' LUNCHEON

Despite the downpour on Friday, May 11th, Mrs. Robert Tonon of 53 Lawson road extension, opened her home for a very special spring luncheon, which was served to Mr. Joseph C. Forte and the Mystic School teachers. Because of the adverse weather, the delicious luncheon was even more welcome. Mrs. Charles O. Nichols, Mrs. Richard D. Bolster and Mrs. Henry A. Dellicker formed the committee assisting Mrs. Tonon with the luncheon.

Now — a million people own the Bell Telephone Business

More than the combined populations of the capitals of Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Vermont

This is a big moment in American business. For now the number of people who own the Bell System has reached one million.

It has never happened before. No other business in the world has even half as many owners as the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

They come from every walk of life. They live in 19,000 communities — in cities, towns, and on farms — all over the country. One out of every 45 American families is now an owner of A. T. & T. stock.

Many of them live in the territory served by The New England Telephone & Telegraph Company, which is part of the Bell System.

More than 15,000 are New England Telephone & Telegraph Company employees.

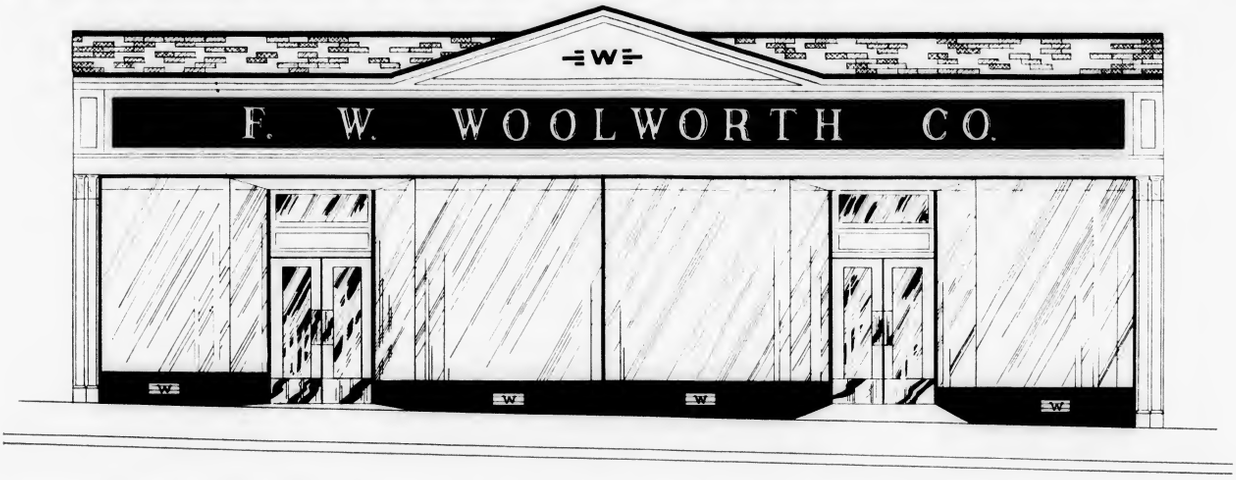

Over half are women.

It's the savings of these millions of people that buy the tools, buildings, switchboards, and other equipment which give you the world's fastest, most dependable telephone service.

That's important in peace. It's doubly important today in this national emergency.

ONCE UPON A TIME THERE WAS A CAT — AND STILL IS

Editor of the Star:

Like so many unanticipated events in life, this one was literally "out of the blue." While making a few purchases at the store across the street, the proprietor's wife, efficient and affable Mrs. Snow, called to me from the rear of the store, "Did you see that?" see what," said I. "Didn't you see Nancy come through the peephole in the store-room door?" Mrs. Snow queried in unbelieving tones.

I had to admit that I had seen nothing until now, when Nancy, the store cat, a year old tiger in the pink of condition, was edging up to the door to the street, eyeing each person on his way out with eloquent entreaty. "No you don't," said Mrs. Snow, making a quick pass which gathered Nancy into safe control. "You see, if I don't shut him in the store-room he will get out on the street before we close and we can't persuade him back in. Now he has discovered, all by himself, how to get out." "Yes?" I said, encouragingly.

"You see that little peephole way up in the door, well believe it or not, Nancy jumps from the floor, catches his front paws over the edge of the hole, puts his head through and without wasting a moment he pulls the rest of his body through and drops to the floor, free and ready for his night's outing — if he can elude our watchful eyes."

I listened respectfully, but with incredulous ears. "You want to see him do it?" she demanded? And so, picking up Nancy unceremoniously she deposited him on the other side of the store-room door. We waited — but not for long. "There he is," cried Mrs. Snow, with the pride of ownership in her voice. "See his head." I did. Head and two paws completely filling the tiny peephole. But even as I watched, the head came through — front paws gliding vertically down while Nancy concentrated on drawing himself through the hole which was accomplished with apparent ease. That did it. No more demonstration was required to convince me of the truth of Mrs. Snow's remarkable story.

"Hold everything" I shouted, "while I get my camera." And I dashed across the street for the necessary equipment, and in due time I secured the picture which appeared in Life magazine. I think that I had as much fun getting the picture as did Nancy in finding a way out of his temporary prison. Oh, by the way, Nancy is a male. She or he is called "Nancy Boy." Would that account for his rather unusual intelligence?

ATTENTION OF OFFICER CANDIDATE SCHOOL APPLICANTS

Editor of the Star:

Men who have their papers in for OCS and who may be graduating from college next month probably, because of their age, will be coming under the scrutiny of their Draft Boards. If such men, at the end of their 30 day added deferment time, have not received their letter of acceptance to OCS, they should enlist. If they do this they will stay under the jurisdiction of the First Army and their OCS papers will then follow them through to their new address and, if accepted, they will be transferred to one of the Officer Candidate Schools. If a man allows himself to be drafted before receiving his acceptance, we have no way of knowing where he will be sent and the writer cannot guarantee his OCS papers will follow him.

Our local Draft Board is well aware of the need for officers and has at all times cooperated, as far as the Selective Service Act allows, in giving men the opportunity to enlist. However, they are not mind readers, and applicants should at all times keep in touch with the members of the board and tell them they have received acceptance for OCS, examination, etc., etc.

Because the draft quotas have been cut down is no reason for men of 21 years of age to drift along with no thought for the future. It will pay you well to talk over your standing with Sgt. Edward Boyson of the Medford Recruiting Station or Chief Robert Nickerson of the Navy who can be reached at the Woburn City Hall every afternoon. Naturally, the writer is glad to talk with you at any time.

Very truly yours,
G. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

DEFENDERS OF FREEDOM

Editor of the Star:

The nation celebrates its second annual Armed Forces Day this Saturday, May 19. Originally conceived to consolidate Army, Navy and Air Force "Days" into a single observance demonstrating unification, Armed Force Day this year has taken on a new meaning. We are again engaged in a bloody conflict. Again the call to arms is being answered by patriotic manhood and womanhood. Again we scan casualty lists and hear pleas for blood donations. Again the sacrifice of a few defends the freedom of many.

To the men in foxholes, planes and ships, we Americans who are enjoying security and freedom wish to express our gratitude. Armed Forces Day 1951 is therefore a day of thanksgiving; a day on which we honor our "Defenders of Freedom."

Fly your American flag. Visit your local Armed Forces exhibit. Offer a sincere prayer that peace will soon evolve from today's battles. Our servicemen are entitled to your salute.

Winchester people will probably privately, if not publicly, join in the minute of silence, at noon on Saturday, in remembrance of the many who will not return from Korea.

Cordially yours,
G. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

A SOLDIER COMES HOME

Editor of the Star:

General MacArthur, peerless soldier-statesman and Government administrator, "first in peace, first in war and first in the hearts of his countrymen," has just received from the American people of all classes and faiths, the most amazing testimonial of love and approval ever bestowed upon any son of the United States. It is beyond the power of any man to add or detract from the glory that is his.

Could anything be finer and more heartwarming than the sincere, spontaneous tribute of respect and love of the Japanese people for the soldier-statesman who lived with them for six years and whom they knew so well.

Welcome home, General MacArthur. The thanks and gratitude of a grateful people are yours. Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Peace be with you, the peace that love and honor bestows.

BURNING OF BAPTIST MORTGAGE

Incidental music was furnished by a String Ensemble; Violinist, Adelaide Folmer; Cello, Barbara Sergarstrom; Accompanist, Katharine Lumpkin.

Following the meal the Annual Business Meeting with Dr. Herbert D. Lamson, Moderator, presiding, was held. Bound reports of the year's activities of the various officers, committees and organizations were distributed, officers and committees elected for the coming year, and the budget for 1951 - 1952 approved.

Dr. Forbes H. Norris introduced Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, the Pastor of the Church, who acted as Toastmaster of the evening. The Clerk, Mrs. Leon E. Leavitt, read a number of congratulatory letters which had been received, and greetings and congratulations were brought by Mr. William Bryson, President of the Massachusetts Baptist State Convention. Dr. Isaac Higginbotham, Executive Secretary of the Massachusetts Baptist State Convention, and Dr. Benjamin P. Browne, Editor and Director of Baptist Publications, who was pastor of this church at the time the present building was constructed, and who expressed his extreme pleasure at being on hand to see the job completed.

Mr. A. Ollis Weld, who was Chairman of the Building Committee for the present building, brought reminiscences and introduced a number of the members of the original Building Committee and Building Finance Committee who were able to be present.

Mr. Martin S. Swanson, Chairman of the Church Finance Committee, told the dramatic story of the reduction of the mortgage from $105,000. in twelve years.

Mrs. E. H. Garrison, General Manager of the Thrift Shop which has played such an important part in the reduction of the mortgage told the inspiring story of the origin and work of the Thrift Shop, ending with the words "There'll always be a Baptist Thrift Shop," the women of the church feeling that this shop serves a distinct purpose in the community.

Then Rev. Arthur L. Winn, a member of the First Baptist Church of Winchester for many years, whose generosity has aided so greatly in the acceleration of the payment of this indebtedness, and to whom had been entrusted the honor of the actual burning of the mortgage, spoke from a very full and thankful heart of his pleasure and gratitude in being able to see this task accomplished. While the huge crowd with high emotions stood and sang "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow," the mortgage was consumed in a brazier which Mr. Clifford Macdonald had procured from New York and which had been loaned for this occasion by Richard Carlyle, the 14th Earl of Foxley, with his hearty congratulations on this occasion. The brazier is of Roman origin, dating from the time of Christ. It was used in Rome at that time for heating purposes by burning charcoal and live coals in the basin. It is constructed for the most part of bronze containing a large percentage of lead, with the basin itself of an early type of Roman brass, and has been in the family of Lord Carlyle from the year 1299.

The evening concluded on this high note of gratitude to God for his goodness in the past and faith in His help in the coming years as the Church makes plans to go forward to bigger and better things for the community and the Kingdom of God.

A few comments from the guests following the program may be of interest: "This is a great hour in the history of our Church. Let us make the most of its implications and opportunities." (Dr. Forbes H. Norris); "The high spot of the century of our history. Like a miracle come to pass." (Mr. H. Wadsworth Hight); "One of the most significant religious gatherings I have attended in Winchester." (Mr. Lester R. Snow); "A great demonstration of enthusiasm, power and purpose. You have arrived." (Mr. William Breed.)

NEW PARKING ON THOMPSON STREET

Beginning this Monday angle parking on Thompson street in the center will be discontinued and parallel parking will be instituted. Considerable complaint has been made of Thompson street parking and the new regulations will be instituted with an idea of trying the scheme out and if satisfactory will be continued. It is felt that the fewer cars allowed by the method will not affect the general conditions.

PLEA FOR CAREFUL DRIVING ON MEMORIAL DAY

"As we are making our plans to honor our War dead on Memorial Day, we must give considerable thought to preserving the lives of those who will be on the highways on the Holiday and during the fine weather to come," said Chief Charles J. Harrold of the Winchester Police Department in an interview today.

"Our streets and highways will be teeming with pedestrians and motorists taking advantage of the pleasant season to observe Memorial Day, taking short trips to the country, and starting on their vacations," continued the Chief. "It is imperative that each motorist accept his individual responsibility for driving his car with extreme care during this period of heavy traffic as well as for the mechanical fitness of his car. Even though all motor vehicles were checked in the recent State inspection, a recheck before going on a trip is advisable. Mechanical troubles can develop in a very short time. It is better to be sure of your car than to guess about it.

"Figures obtained from the Massachusetts Safety Council," further explained the Chief, "show that the motor vehicle accident curve for 1951 is tending upward and firm measures must be taken to arrest this upward swing and force it downwards.

"We have been told that if the expected motor vehicle fatalities occur according to prediction, Mr. X, the millionth person to be killed by the automobile, will meet his death sometime in December. Is every driver of a motor vehicle will always use the care he should we can delay well into next year the predicted death of Mr. X," the Chief concluded.

LETTERS FROM JAPAN

Letters from students of elementary and high schools in Japan were forwarded today to the Winchester Chapter, American Red Cross, by the National Chapter in Washington.

Well-written letters in English to the Junior Red Cross of the Lincoln, Noonan and Wyman Schools were sent by the Japanese recipients of boxes sent last year.

Although the construction of sentences was not always perfect, these young Japanese boys and girls put across very well what they had to say and their handwriting was excellent. How many children in American "elementary" schools could write a letter in Japanese?

Twelve different letters were received, so — of course — there is not space to make copies of all of them, but just as an example, there follows one copied verbatim:

"My dear friend, American boys and girls.

Thank everybody for sending us a gift-box. We opened it very haste, without our teacher's pardon, when our teacher, Mr. Morito, gave us a gift-box.

Really thank you very much.

Being my home, I gave father a dentifrice, mother a soap, younger brother many glass beads and fine pencils, younger sister pretty socks and a ball. After that all my families were very glad.

I think this is a fine opportunity for us to build up the peace in the world together.

Believing you fair friendship.
Goodbye everybody.
Chicko Furihara

Many spoke of "going abroad" to the United States some day.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. John D. Schoonmaker, Jr., of Kingston, N. Y., announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Louise Benedict Schoonmaker, to Mr. Robert V. Keeley, son of the Honorable James Hugh Keeley, Career Minister of the Foreign Service of the United States, and Mrs. Keeley, of Winchester, Mass. Mr. Keeley is the former United States Minister to Syria. The wedding is planned for June 23 at St. John's Church, Kingston, N. Y.

Miss Schoonmaker attended the Masters School in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y. and was graduated from the Oldfields School, Glencoe, Md. She will graduate in June from Smith College. She is the daughter of Mrs. Hollis Seofield, of Sarasota, Fla. and Ladleton, N. Y., and the granddaughter of Mrs. May M. Govin, of Claryville, N. Y. and Havana, Cuba, and the late Mr. Rafael R. Govin, and of Mrs. John D. Schoonmaker, of New York, N.Y. and Kingston, N. Y., and the late Mr. Schoonmaker.

Mr. Keeley was graduated from the Peddie School, Hightstown, N. J., and will graduate in June from Princeton University where he is a member of the Campus Club. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Hugh Keeley, of Riverdale, Md., and of Mrs. C. W. Vossler, of Wellsville, N. Y., and the late Mr. Vossler.

Immortality, found through understanding that man is the reflection of God, Spirit, will be dealt with in Christian Science services next Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Mortals and Immortals."
Jesus' declaration to Nicodemus constitutes the Golden Text: "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit" (John 3:6).
Citations from the Bible include the following from II Corinthians (5:17): "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."
Also citations and passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include: "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine likeness, inseparable from his creator" (p. 494).

AMERICAN LEGION PRE-MEMORIAL DAY DINNER!

The Pre-Memorial Day dinner of Winchester Post No. 97 the American Legion will be held this year at the Post Quarters on Vine street the evening of May 29, 1951 at 7:15 p. m.

The committee in charge are hard at work making this one of the outstanding events of the year and have announced that honored guests of the evening will be a group of students from the High School. With many of the students looking forward to entry into the armed forces it was thought that this would be an appropriate time to acquaint them with the workings of the American Legion particularly on this most important of National holidays.

Also on the guest list for the evening will be all the Past Commanders of Winchester Post who meet annually, at this time.

THE DENTONS

ONE MILLION SHAREHOLDERS

American Telephone & Telegraph Company announced in New York today that its stockholders now total a million and that Mr. and Mrs. Brady Denton of Saginaw, Mich., joint owners of seven shares, represent the millionth stockholder. The Company heads the Bell Telephone System and is the first in United States history to be so widely owned. This distinction has come to AT&T in the 75th anniversary year of the telephone. The Dentons — including Brady, Jr., 6, and Johnny, 3 — are in New York this week as guests of the AT&T for a round of celebrating and visiting.

Massachusetts has over 102,000 of AT&T's million stockholders, according to Mr. Kenneth P. MacPherson, local manager of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Company.

He said the New England Company — operating in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Vermont, New Hampshire and Maine — is one of the regional telephone companies in the nationwide Bell System, of which AT&T is principal stockholder and itself the operator of inter-regional long distance lines. In the New England Company's whole area AT&T stockholders total about 141,500.

Better than one out of every 45 American families has a direct investment in the Bell System. Dividends paid to these stockholders add substantially to the aggregate of family incomes throughout the country. For example, the holdings of Massachusetts stockholders in the AT&T and the New England Company together represent an annual income of more than $31,785,000 on the basis of dividends paid in 1950.

But the job of building up the telephone system in Massachusetts for all the needs of today is not finished. These needs are not only for the additional facilities which will permit more telephones to be installed but which will also permit meeting customers' requests for individual lines or lines having fewer parties on them. Financing the projects for these needs will require attracting a still larger investment by telephone stockholders.

Donald K. Hatch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Hatch of Meadowcroft road has been promoted to Private First Class and will be assigned to Connally AFB, Prairie Hill, Miss., for technical training in automotive body repair career field, it was announced Monday by indoctrination center officials.

HELP EN KA — HELP WINCHESTER

On May 26th the High School Band will again open the annual En Ka Street Fair by marching and playing from the high school around through the center to the Town Hall. After the flag raising the fair will officially be open.

At the sign of "Jack and Jill" Mrs. Richard D. Bolster will be in charge of grabs to delight the young fry. If Mrs. Vera McKenzie and Mrs. Colver Dyer have their way you will have your fortune told. "Mademoiselle" and "Charm" are the magazines represented at this booth, and Mrs. Ober Pride and Mrs. Charles Lovejoy will see that you have all you want. Mrs. Roland Carter and Mrs. William Beal will have ice cream — "The Children's Digest", and Mrs. John McLean's popcorn booth will be represented by Dell Publishing Company, publishers of Walt Disney's Comics. At the sign of "The Atlantic Monthly" you may have your picture taken. Mrs. Esther Woodward is in charge of this. At any "Time" you may have tonic. Mrs. Clarence Luitwieler assures us that there will be plenty for everyone.

The Snack Bar, in charge of Mrs. Frank d'Elseaux will be located where the "Reader's Digest" is on display. There will be delicious toasted lobster sandwich rolls and home made brownies among other good things.

Tea, "The Woman's Home Companion" will be served from two until five o'clock. Mrs. Chandler Parkhurst and Mrs. Theodore Chilcott are preparing all sorts of dainty sandwiches and cakes and hope you will spend a relaxing half hour at the tea table.

Mrs. James M. Beale and Mrs. Herbert T. Wadsworth will have charge of that all-important central booth which is really the hub of the fair.

A good "American Home" supper of cold ham and scalloped potatoes, vegetable salad, corn bread, cakes and coffee will be served in the Baptist church under the auspices of Mrs. Townley-Tilson.

So you see there are many attractions for you, and your support in turn makes possible many benefits for Winchester organizations.

SPRING SOCIAL OF TELEPHONE PIONEERS

The North Metropolitan Council of the Telephone Pioneers will hold a Spring Social on May 24, 1951 at the Hotel Continental, Cambridge. Arrangements consist of a turkey dinner at 6:30 p. m., a talk by Mrs. Jacobs, Volunteer Chairman, Hand Transcribing Division of the National Braille Press, and dancing to the music of Freddy Devereaux and his band until 12:00.

Tickets may be obtained locally from Charles A. Farrar.

Non-members are also cordially invited.

Mr. Carl L. Eaton who was taken ill while on a fishing trip in Maine is now at the Redington Memorial Hospital, Skowhegan, Maine.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL NEWS

On Wednesday, May 16th, the quarterly meeting of the District Conferences for Business Office Personnel sponsored by the Boston Hospital Council was held at the Winchester Hospital. Administrators and accountants from most of the Metropolitan Boston hospitals were present to participate in a discussion of Hospital Admitting Practices. Miss Ada R. Sleeth, Office Manager at the Winchester Hospital, was chairman and presided at the meeting. At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Administrator, took the group on a tour of the Hospital and the new addition.

Mr. Christian W. Thompson has resigned his position as engineer at the Hospital. Mr. Thompson is leaving to go into construction work. He has served the Winchester Hospital as engineer for approximately eleven years.

AVENGERS LOSE TO CAMBRIDGE

On Saturday morning, May 12, the Winchester Avengers lost to the Cambridge Hockey Club 3 to 2, at the Cambridge Skating Club.

It was a thrilling game with neither team being able to hold an edge. However, with the score tied 2 to 2 and only 2 minutes remaining C. Riley of Cambridge was able to score.

For Winchester, MacLeod and Mahoney did the scoring, and for Cambridge, Riley, Mahoney and Wardwell scored. Both goalies turned in excellent performances.

The Avengers are playing a return game with Cambridge Saturday morning, May 19 at 7 a. m., at the Skating Club.

Winchester — g, Sipp; rd, MacLeod; ld, Wallis; c, Mahoney; rw, Lawson; lw, Harrigan.

Cambridge — g, Corcoran; rd, Wardwell; ld, Connor; c, Mahoney; rw, P. Riley; lw, J. Mahoney.

LIBRARY NEWS

Public Library Week

"One hundred years ago, on May 24th, 1851, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts approved an act of the state legislature which gave power to all cities and towns of the state to establish and maintain free public libraries for the use of the inhabitants thereof . . .

In recognition, therefore, of this centennial, I, Paul A. Dever, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, do hereby proclaim Public Library Week, May 20 - 27, 1951 and I urge all our citizens to visit their public libraries to become acquainted with the resources and services of the public library, to note the progress made during the one hundred years now past and to support progressive plans for even greater library service in the Commonwealth in the years to come."

Governor's Proclamation — May 9, 1951

Your Public Library

Eight years after the passage of the first library law in the Commonwealth, the Winchester Public Library came into being. Your Public Library is now 92 years old.

"At a legal town meeting held March 29, 1859, the library of the Winchester Association was presented to the town of Winchester under certain conditions, which conditions the town accepted, and thus came into possession of the nucleus of the present town library."

WHOLE BLOOD

Any idea that manufactured substitutes can take the place of human blood in treating the injured was banished a "dangerous misunderstanding" in an emphatic statement issued today by the National Research Council. Blood donors are needed as urgently as ever, and will continue to be needed, to save the lives of civilian injured as well as military casualties, the Council stressed.

Fearing donors would think science had made blood unnecessary, due to recent reports of so-called "plasma substitutes", now being actively studied and developed under the Council's auspices for military and civilian defense, the following statement was made by Dr. M. L. Winternitz, Chairman of the Council's Division of Medical Sciences:

"Whole blood is absolutely necessary both in military and civilian medicine. Unfortunately, blood cannot be kept longer than 3 weeks. Thus, stockpiling is impossible, and the amount that could be provided on short notice, depending as it does on donors, trained personnel, and processing laboratories, could not meet the needs of casualties in a sudden atomic attack. Hundreds of thousands might be injured, and each casualty requires an average of five pints of transfusion fluid.

"Plasma and plasma substitutes are the second line of defense. Medically inferior to blood, they have important practical advantages: they can be stockpiled, and the substitute can be manufactured in vast quantities.

"Whole blood, plasma, and plasma substitutes have one thing in common", Dr. Winternitz explained. "They are life-savers in shock, the condition most feared by military surgeons in World War II. All will restore the volume of the circulating blood, which is necessary to keep the patient alive until treatment aimed at the cause of the shock can be given.

"Just the same, there is no real substitute for whole blood, and none is in sight," Dr. Winternitz continued. "It is the best treatment for shock, regardless of cause. And when blood has been lost, or blood cells damaged — as by severe burns or atomic radiation — only blood itself can replace what is missing.

"Plasma is a natural body fluid and performs a few of the functions of blood. But it is made only from human blood, and the supply is limited. Research on plasma substitutes is in the limelight now, because of the all-out effort to improve these substances and produce them quickly in vast quantities for defense stockpiles. In the long, research on blood itself is likely to make the greatest contribution, where the chief effort is directed toward methods of preservation for longer periods", Dr. Winternitz predicted.

Funds for work on blood and its derivatives come largely from the U. S. Public Health Service and the American Red Cross.

Your bloodmobile will be at the First Congregational Church in Winchester on June 1st. Call the local Chapter, Winchester 6-2300 for an appointment today.

BRUSH FIRE ONLY

While the Winchester Fire Department was filling in for Arlington during the big lumber yard fire there last Thursday the local department received a call from box 273 for a brush and grass fire near the Medford line. Some residents thought the alarm was a second sounding for the Arlington fire, but the Winchester blaze was brought under control within a short time.

George R. Stewart of Winchester, Treasurer of the United States Coast Guard Engineer's Bowling League, is assisting in arrangements for its Annual Spring banquet, which is being held in the Circus Room of the Bradford Hotel, Wednesday evening, (May 16) to climax its 10-pin season.

HONORS TO WINCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Announced at the National Honor Society assembly by Principal Wade L. Grindle were three individual honors won by Winchester High School seniors. He congratulated David Archibald, the winner of the Tufts College sponsored Mathematics Contest. He announced that Edward Jones, son of Mr. Clyde Jones of Salisbury street, had won second prize for Chemistry research at the Science Fair held last Saturday at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. Grindle also announced that Carol Hawkins had won third prize in the Annual State Contest sponsored by the United Nations.

In a letter to Miss Hawkins congratulating her on winning the award, Mrs. Sidney N. Shurcliff, Contest Committee Chairman, wrote: "Winchester High and Mrs. Stacy have a long tradition of honors in this Contest, and I am very pleased that you are carrying on the good tradition."

Of interest to the whole school was the announcement that the Band, Octette, Junior High School Boys' Glee Club, and the High School Girls' Glee Club had won "Superior" ratings at the Music Festival Held at Marblehead last Saturday.

Mr. Grindle read from a letter received from a Boston bank praising the work of Miss Helen Bronson and the commercial department of which she is the head. He congratulated her on placing, to date, twenty-eight seniors in commercial establishments.

Mr. Grindle also referred to a letter written by Mr. Harry Damon which commended the college preparatory training of the High School that permitted three Winchester girls to be admitted to Middlebury College this year.

Miss Olive Hill of Winchester is faculty adviser for the annual Senior Prom of the High School of Practical Arts, Roxbury, which will be held in the Governor Bradford Room of the Bradford Hotel, Friday evening, May 18.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY ACCEPTS 24 W. H. S. MEMBERS

Initiation of new members for the Aberjona Chapter of the National Honor Society took place at Winchester High School last week.

Following a short but impressive reading from Proverbs by David Archibald and the repeating of the Lord's Prayer, President Robert Mirak of Aberjona Chapter explained the qualifications necessary for membership and introduced Principal Wade L. Grindle, who described the method of selection and announced the new junior class candidates to be Willard Carleton, Diane Greer, Vernon Honsinger, Susan Morton, Sona Norian, Carolyn Paddford, Richard Rush, and Robert Traut.

Besides David Archibald, Robert Mirak, Harris MacDonald, Anita Watson, and Phyllis O'Neil, elected last year, the senior candidates were John Borden, Dorothy Brandt, Jane Chiswell, Francelina Cullen, Mary Ann Damon, Claire DeLay, Nancy Doten, Carolyn Edgar, Jean Farquhar, Susan Gray, Carol Hawkins, Bette-luise Kneeland, Susan Ordway, Dorothy Parker, Jane Robinson, and Martha Whiting.

After the older members of the Chapter performed a brief candlelighting ceremony, Mr. Grindle told the candidates that selection for National Honor Society is the greatest honor the school can bestow and he charged them to remain true to the virtues by which they had been chosen as long as they live.

President Mirak then introduced Dr. Forbes B. Norris, whose daughter Marjorie was a member of the Class of 1947 and instrumental in founding the Aberjona Chapter.

Dr. Norris, in a brief address, deplored the tendency to emphasize sensational feats while overlooking the honor of scholastic achievement and good citizenship.

Using as his theme the quotation from the vineyard keeper of over three thousand years ago: "I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers", Dr. Norris developed the idea that the attitude of the scholar, his ideas, and his integrity can not be bought or sold.

"New Englanders," he said, "have a double responsibility in the land that produced scholars of the type of Emerson, Longfellow, Thoreau, Hawthorne, Bryant, Whittier, and others. Men and women of New England should always have in mind the inheritance of these fathers."

METHODIST MINISTER AT CONFERENCE

The New England Annual Conference of the Methodist Church is being held at Springfield, Mass., this week. Rev. John Snook, Jr., pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church will attend the sessions and be privileged to take an active part. He has been elected by the Board of Pensions to make its annual report to the conference. Rev. Snook is also chairman of the Conference Board of Evangelism. In cooperation with the Board of Education, the pastor has been assigned to present a tentative program of Evangelism for the coming year for all the churches of the New England Conference.

The appointments of ministers will be made this Sunday.

Among more than 100 students at the Boston University School of Education to be initiated into Alpha Gamma Chapter of Pi Lamda Theta, national honor society for women in education, last Saturday was Miss Margaret M. Harkins of 19 Eaton street.

W. S. C. S. MEETING

The annual meeting of the W. S. C. S. Society was held Thursday, May 10 in the Winifred Crawford Room of the Crawford Memorial Church. Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Stephen Burgoyne. The reports of the officers and of the several committee chairmen showed that the past year had been a busy and an interesting one.

After the committee reports, the following officers were installed for the coming year by Rev. John Snook, Jr.

A LESSON IN SOCIALISM

As a teacher in the public schools, I find that the socialist-communist idea of taking "from each according to his ability," and giving "to each according to his need" is now generally accepted without question by most of our pupils. In an effort to explain the fallacy in this theory, I sometimes try this approach with my pupils:

When one of the brighter or harder-working pupils makes a 95 on a test, I suggest that I take away 20 points and give them to a student who has made only 55 points on his test. Thus each would contribute according to his ability and — since both would have a passing mark — each would receive according to his need. After I have juggled the grades of all the other pupils in this fashion, the result is usually a "common ownership" grade of between 75 and 80 — the minimum needed for passing, or for survival. Then I speculate with the pupils as to the probable results if I actually used the socialistic theory for grading papers.

First, the highly productive pupils — and they are always a minority in the school as well as in life — would soon lose all incentive for producing. Why strive to make a high grade if part of it is taken from you by "authority" and given to someone else?

Second, the less productive pupils — a majority in school as elsewhere — would, for a time, be relieved of the necessity to study or to produce. This socialist-communist system would continue until the high producers had sunk — or had been driven down — to the level of the less producers. At that point, in order for anyone to survive, the "authority" would have no alternative but to begin a system of compulsory labor and punishments against even the low producers. They, of course, would then complain bitterly, but without understanding.

Finally I return the discussion to the ideas of freedom and enterprise — the market economy — where each person has freedom of choice, and is responsible for his own decisions and welfare.

Gratifying enough, most of my pupils then understand what I mean when I explain that socialism — even in a democracy — will eventually result in a living-death for all except the "authorities" and a few of their favorite lackeys.

AUTO ACCIDENT AT MOURADIAN'S

Shortly before five o'clock last Thursday evening the top store on Church street was damaged by an automobile crashing into its front. According to report an Oldsmobile driven by Mrs. Dither Swanson of Marshall road going into a parking space at Benton's store collided with a car already parked and continued on over the sidewalk and into the front of the Mouradian store, striking the front door support.

Fortunately no one was injured. The parked car was occupied at the time by Mrs. Frederick W. Wier and her mother Mrs. Annie M. Pahlbani of Church street, both of whom were somewhat shaken by the collision. Mrs. Swanson, who reported that she blacked out at the time of the collision, was also badly shocked and shaken.

By backing both cars into the street together the sidewalk was cleared and the cars separated, and the Swanson car was later towed away by a Somerville garage. No glass was broken although its front was badly splintered.

"I was reading an article the other night," said Bill. He had folded his paper and was gazing out the window of the 8:08 at the passing landscape. That's a bad habit of Bill's. Makes it hard to hear what he's saying, if he's sitting next to the window.

I runted. I hadn't finished with my newspaper. But Bill wasn't sitting next to the window this time, so I had to listen.

"It was about these automatic steering devices on ocean liners. Seems all they do is set a course from New York for the Lizard, or Cherbourg or anywhere, and the ship follows it clear across the ocean. Compensates for wind and waves — everything. Nobody has to lay a hand on the wheel."

"That's fine if it works," I answered. "But suppose it slipped a cog. The Queen Elizabeth migh star out to make a record run to England and wind up on a rock off to Wiscasset, Maine."

"They're foolproof," said Bill.

"Nothing's foolproof," I said.

"Not wishing to disagree with you in the slightest," Bill came back — warming up a little — "I'll show you something that's so near foolproof that there's practically no difference!"

I sighed and gave up trying to read the comics. "O.K.," I said, "show me it."

Bill kept on looking out the window and a moment later Bill said: "There!" I saw the flashing big red lights — the black-striped yellow barriers and heard the loud bell as we went by an automatic gate crossing.

"You may not believe it," Bill said "but these automatic jobs are actually safer — more foolproof — than crossings that are tended by men. They just can't fail."

"You mean they never break down?" I asked.

"It's almost impossible to break 'em down even if you try," answered Bill. "But if any thing does go wrong, why the gates just go down and stay down. The worst that can happen is that highway traffic is held up. Don't you call that foolproof?"

"Well," I had to admit, "if something works and does its job even when it breaks down — I guess you're right!"

"Most Dependable Car in America!"

Everyone knows that Pontiac is famous for dependability. If you want personal confirmation, talk to a few owners who have driven Pontiacs over the years. You'll be surprised how many say: "Pontiac is the most dependable car in America!"

That's an important reason why the 1951 Pontiac is in such tremendous demand. True, it's the most beautiful thing on wheels—a joy to drive and ride in. But Pontiac dependability is convincing a lot of people to make Pontiac their first choice.

Long, trouble-free operation is a big reason why dollar for dollar, you can't beat a Pontiac! Come in and get the facts and figures that prove it.

BOARD OF SURVEY

NOTICE OF HEARING

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Survey of the Town of Winchester, Massachusetts will give public hearings in the Selectmen's Room in the Town Hall building on Monday the twenty-eighth day of May, 1951 at 8:00 o'clock p. m. upon the petition of Frances Sylvester, 366 Main Street, for approval of certain plans filed with said petition of certain private ways which she proposes to open for public use, as follows:

UNNAMED WAY — A way from Forest Street, extending northwesterly about seven hundred and sixty-four feet to extension of approved portion of Sunset Road;

SUNSET ROAD — A way from the end of that portion of Sunset Road approved in 1946, extending northeasterly about two hundred and thirty-four feet to that portion of Sunset Road approved in 1950.

After which hearings the Board may alter said plans and may determine where said ways shall be located and the width and grades thereof.

Prior to the hearings, the plans may be examined at the office of the Town Engineer.

By Order of the Board of Survey, this fourteenth day of May, 1951.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL TEAM OVER LEXINGTON 14 - 7

At Lexington on May 15 once more the opponents of the Winchester High School softball team were held in the late innings by pitcher Sonny Smith.

Winchester scored three runs in the first on three hits and an error, but Lexington tied up the score in their half of the inning. Winchester added a run in the second and two in the third, but once more Lexington came from behind to tie the score. Then Winchester went ahead and had a small lead, until the seventh inning, when the Lexington pitcher became wild and loaded the bases with no outs. Her reliever immediately gave up two hits, and an error by the second-baseman made the score 14 - 7. Sonny allowed one hit in the last of the seventh, but two were already out, and the game was easily wrapped up as the next batter flied out.

The most exciting defensive plays of the game were four forceouts at the plate. Offensively, Callie Callahan, with a perfect day at the plate, led the team with three hits, followed by Sonny Smith and Carol Crockett, who each got three hits apiece.

GIRLS BEAT UNDEFEATED BELMONT 18 - 6

On May 10 the WHS softball team walloped Belmont 18 - 6. The Belmont team, which had not been beaten in two years, kept Winchester's lead low for the first three innings, but pitcher Sonny Smith held them for the remainder of the game, while the Winchester bats boomed.

Sonny allowed only six hits and struck out five. She had a little trouble getting the ball over the plate, but a big seven run rally by her teammates eased the tension. Bette Kneeland, who got a triple, a double, two singles, and batted in four runs, was the big power behind the plate, ably assisted by the homeruns of Diane Greer and Lynne Stevens.

The Town Softball League got away to a good start with six games played during the past week. Through the cooperation of the Park Department the diamonds were in excellent playing condition and several of the teams performed in mid-season fashion, indicating the results of several practice sessions. The weather was ideal for the games as good sized crowds turned out for this popular after-supper recreation program.

The Sons of Italy broke away to a fast start as they won both of their games during the past week. Their 3 - 2 victory in eight innings over the Atomics was as well a played game as the fans will see this summer. Bill Fiore was the hero of this victory for the Sons as he poled out two long home runs. The White Shirts were the only team to keep pace with the Sons as they won both of their games. The big surprise of the week was the 18 - 3 trimming the youthful Ramblers pinned on the perennially strong V. F. W.

WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB

Grown-ups and kiddies alike got many a chuckle when Sherm Feller and Judy Valentine came to the Winchester Boat Club last Friday night. Highlighting the evening were two quiz sessions in which senior and junior members participated.

The ladies defeated the men in a close fight with a score of 10 to 9. Eleanor Morse, Charlotte Davidson, Dorothy Thompson, Ed Emory, John Allen, and Bill Vaughn all received Boat Club glasses as prizes.

In the second quiz conduted by Feller, three girls and three boys scratched their heads over questions about the comic strips and other important problems, and the girls did it again with a score of 8 to 6. All of the contestants were picked at random from an audience of about 180 members and their guests. Most of them were new members.

Judy Valentine delighted the group with renditions of her most popular records. She and her husband also combined to sing some of the songs he had written for Army shows.

Several door prizes were awarded at the end of the entertainment. Among those receiving nylon stockings, cigarettes, maple syrup, and autographed copies of "Threesees," Sherm Feller's latest song sung by his wife, were Mrs. Raymond Harper of Arlington, Mrs. Rita Legere of Winchester, Mrs. Dorothy Southworth of Arlington, and Miss Lorna Samways of Somerville.

Doughnuts, cookies, coffee, and fruit punch were served by the steward, and informal dancing ended a successful "opening night" at the Boat Club. The committee chairman was Jim Fitzsimmons, assisted by Carl Freyer and Bart Sullivan.

W. H. S. 3 — WAKEFIELD 2

Winchester High won a tight-lipped 3 - 2 game from Wakefield High at Manchester Field on Wednesday afternoon. Stowell Symmes pitched his best ball of the season for the Indians as he gave up only five hits, struck out 11 batters, and issued four bases on balls. Symmes should have had a shutout with good support for he pitched hitless ball the first six innings. The lead off man scratched a hit to right in the seventh for the first safety off Symmes' delivery. The next two batters were strike out victims but then a routine ground ball that would have ended the inning was booted and this was followed by a single, a base on balls, and another single to tie the score at 2 - 2.

The locals' winning run in the last of the seventh was also tainted. Symmes opened the inning with a hard smash off the third baseman's shins for a hit and moved to second as the hurried throw was wild. Griffin grounded to third and was safe as the third baseman's throw pulled the first baseman off the bag. Symmes moving up to third. Keyes flied to right field with Symmes scurrying home after the catch with the winning run.

When the lead off batter for Wakefield singled in the ninth and was erased at second on an attempted sacrifice, leaving a runner on first, Coach Bartlett wisely decided that Symmes was tiring from the heat and called in Charlie Murphy to relieve. Murphy made his stint by look good by retiring the next two batters on a routine ground ball and a fly to center field to end the game. In an attempt to get more punch in the batting order, Dave Dalton was inserted into the line up and came through nicely with a pair of doubles for the only extra-base hits of the game.

READING HIGH 3 — W. H. S. 0

Reading High shut out Winchester High 3 - 0 in a Middlesex League game played at Reading on Tuesday afternoon. Bob Arsenault of Reading and Charlie Murphy of Winchester booked up in a tight pitcher's duel as each hurler allowed only five hits while issuing the same number of bases on balls. Arsenault took the decision, however, as his teammates provided him with gilt-edge support while the locals were guilty of five errors that aided in two of the Reading tallies.

The Indians filled the bases three times with one out but were unable to get the hit or the error that would give them a score. A hit or two in one of these spots would have put the Indians right in the contention but Arsenault had too much for the over-anxious Red and Black batters. Peter Coon was the only player on either team to collect two hits. He banged out a triple and a single. Stowell Symmes provided the fielding gem of the game when he raced back deep in left field to pull down a drive that had home run written all over it.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ACTIVE

The Winchester fire department received a call from Maryeliff Academy Tuesday afternoon but no fire was found as the alarm was accidentally sounded. Shortly after this alarm a call from Reading was received for help in fighting a bad forest fire raging there. Winchester was one of 16 places which sent apparatus and men and our firemen went right into the fire line. Winchester did not return until after ten in the evening. Outside the large area burned over the Reading fire damaged no homes, although a number were endangered. This fire was in the woods back of "Sailor Tom's".

HOW TO GREASE YOUR OWN CAR

1. Put on your dirtiest clothes and an old cap so you can crawl under your car.
2. Jack your car up with four jacks or dig a hole in your driveway or garage so you can get under the car.
3. Buy a supply of the proper transmission, differential, universal joint, water pump and chassis greases, five grease guns, a spray gun and some spring penetrating oil.
4. Equip yourself with lots of good strong words you like to use on the fittings where the grease doesn't want to come through. Keep using these words until the grease comes out on the other side.
5. Buy yourself a complete set of wrenches to use on the cases that must be opened to inspect the lubricating supply inside. Also get new skin to graft on your knuckles when the wrench slips.
6. Fill your spray gun with penetrating oil and spray on the springs. Get your neighbors to help you rock the car vigorously back and forth to help work the oil into the springs. Be sure not to breathe for about 10 minutes while spraying the springs or you may oil the inside of your lungs, which is bad.
7. Be sure not to miss any place that should be lubricated as it may cost you the price of 20 grease jobs for repairs.
8. Don't forget little places like the door catches and hinges; also generator, distributor, hood hinges and control rods under the hood.
9. Promote some distilled water somewhere and a battery hydrometer so that you can test and refill your battery.
10. Be sure at this stage that you have a curbstone mechanic handy to make a safety inspection — fan belt, muffler, brakes, lights, etc.
11. Now you're set for the finishing touch. Buy a tire pump, and tire gauge so you're certain to inflate your tires to the proper pressure so as to avoid excessive tire wear.

Or if you'd rather not be bothered with all this, we'll do a first class lubrication job for $1.25.

CASLER'S 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The Golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Casler was celebrated at the Woodbridge Hotel in Somerville Saturday evening May 19, 1951 with a four course dinner served to about 30 guests.

The dinner music was furnished by a Winchester Trio. The tables were very beautifully decorated with bouquets of cut flowers, with a carnation at each place as a favor. Mrs. Casler was lovely in a blue teal dress with a beautiful orchid pinned to her shoulder.

Captain Loyal F. Willis of Newport was master of ceremonies. Mr. Robert Smith took many pictures including one of Mr. and Mrs. Casler cutting the beautiful anniversary cake.

Guests present from out of town were Mrs. Casler's sister Mrs. Maud Chase, her brother and wife Captain and Mrs. Loyal Willis, two nephews and their wives Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Chase, Mr. and Mrs. John Chase, all of Newport.

Mr. Casler's sister Mrs. Gertrude Long, sister-in-law Mrs. Anna Garber, two nieces Mrs. Ray Spotts and Mrs. William Seelye, all of Michigan. Other guests were friends from Boston, Wiscasset, Maine and Winchester including Rev. Arthur L. Winn and wife. Rev. Winn preformed a wedding ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Casler received many beautiful gifts and cards which they will enjoy and cherish for a great many years.

PARENTS OF A SON

Mr. and Mrs. L. Donald Cole (Barbara Bonnell) of Salem are the parents of a son, Leland Scott Cole, born May 21 at the Winchester Hospital. Grandparent honors are shared by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Bonnell and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Cole.

STREET FAIR TO-MORROW

To-morrow is the Big Day! Come to the En Ka Street Fair at the Town Hall. There will be something doing from 10 a. m. until midnight.

The booths are to be gaily decorated with various magazine covers and there are fifty subscriptions to be given away. Come to the attractive Wishing Well and drop your name in the box for your favorite magazine.

The "Harper's Candy Bazaar" will have delicious home-made candy. Mrs. Philip Wadsworth and Mrs. Maxwell McCreery are heading this committee.

The Square Dance in the evening is going to be a grand place for a reunion with old Winchester friends. If you don't care to dance you may watch the fun from the balcony for a very nominal sum.

Housewives! To-morrow is the time for you to take a whole day off from the kitchen. You and your family will enjoy the luscious lobster sandwiches at the "Snack Bar", and any time from five-thirty until seven you may sit down to a good "American Home" supper which will be served in the Baptist Church.

Come to the Fair and remember every penny you spend is helping Winchester.

TO BE MARRIED IN JUNE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wansker of Duxbury, formerly of this town, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mrs. Jayne Wansker Jones to Mr. John Knowles Parker, son of Mrs. John K. Parker of Duxbury and the late Mr. Parker.

Mrs. Jones attended House in the Pines and was graduated from Colby Junior College.

Mr. Parker served five years in the armed forces during World War II.

GRADE CROSSING WAITS

Rumors have been in the forefront about town regarding the start of the work on our grade crossing. One persistent rumor has it that work is starting June 1st. Another rumor states the date has been put off until April of next year.

The Star has endeavored to learn the status of the project, which will elevate the railroad track from one end of the town to the other. According to our best information engineers of the Railroad and of the State are still working on the plans — that is, how the plans are to be carried out.

Until this ways and means conference is completed no date can be set for the start of the work.

Aside from this factor in the situation, which is important in that some method must be found to get the trains through our center if Winchester is to have any trains at all, there appears to be a question as to what center real estate is to be used. One report is that all of the buildings on the west side of Thompson street must be removed.

Reported estimate of the time necessary to complete the project is two and a half years. If Bacon street and the center are both closed, all east — west traffic will have to use the Swanton street bridge.

It's too bad they would not let the Kellaway Plan be used. There was no interuption in traffic with that plan — neither on the railroad nor on our streets.

BRIGGS — MILLS

At a small family wedding, performed by Dr. Carl F. Schultz in the Federated Church of Hyannis, Marjorie Mills was married last Friday night, May 18th, to Irving F. Briggs, Jr.

Miss Mills is the daughter of Mrs. Mildred Cummings Mills, formerly of Winchester and the late Mr. Herbert Mills.

Mr. Forrest Langdon Pitman of Winchester, uncle of the bride gave his neice in marriage and she had her mother as her matron of honor.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving F. Briggs of Hyannis, had his father as his best man.

After the first of June they will be at home at 7 Circle Drive, Hyannis, Mass.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wyman of Herrick street announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Judith Wyman, to Mr. Herrick A. Drake, son of Mrs. Ervin T. Drake of Chatham, N. J., and the late Mr. Ervin T. Drake.

Miss Wyman was graduated from the Beaver Country Day School, made her debut in the 1948-49 season, and is a member of the Junior League. She attended the Katharine Gibbs School and is now a student at Skidmore College.

Mr. Drake was graduated from Harvard College last year and is now attending Harvard Law School.

A September wedding is planned.

BANCROFT DRY GOODS STORE GOES

Raymond Bancroft, proprietor of the Bancroft Dry Goods Store, one of the oldest continuous businesses in town, has received notice he must vacate his store on Mt. Vernon street July 1. Needless to say, Mr. Bancroft is much perturbed over the situation. At the present time he is trying to find another location for his store. Failing this, he says he must go out of business.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson of 711 Main street announce the engagement of their daughter Louise Marie to David Merrow son of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Merrow of Glengarry.

Miss Anderson is a graduate of Boston University, College of Practical Arts and Letters.

Mr. Merrow will graduate from Tufts College this June.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

Winchester To Have Colorful Exercises

Winchester Post American Legion has completed plans for the observance of Memorial Day in Winchester. It is the hope of Post No. 97 American Legion and of the Abetjona Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars that all of the citizens of Winchester, and in particular all veterans, will join in the traditional tribute to the memory of our departed friends.

All veterans are invited to meet in front of the Legion Home on Vine street at ten thirty, on Sunday morning May twenty-seventh, from which point they will march to the Congregational Church to attend a religious service conducted by Reverend Howard J. Chidley. This is Winchester's official Memorial Service and all are urged to attend.

On Tuesday evening, May twenty-ninth, the customary Pre-Memorial Dinner will be held at the Legion Home. The speaker will be Captain Green, a veteran of recent service in the European Theater, who had lengthy experiences with the famous Berlin Air Lift. The Legion will have as its guests all of "letter men" of the High School, most of whom will probably be in the armed services in the next few years, and the Past Post Commanders of the Legion. All veterans are invited to attend this dinner, and may procure tickets at the Legion Home prior to Saturday evening, May twenty-sixth.

WINCHESTER COUPLE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

A Winchester couple, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Latta (Joanne Worthen) were seriously injured in an auto accident last Thursday while driving on Route 128 when a large truck and trailer, later identified as a surplus army weapons carrier, weaved across the road completely blocking it. The new Dodge car they were driving was demolished and both were seriously injured, Mr. Latta being unconscious until Tuesday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Latta suffered compound, comminuted fractures of the upper leg and in Mr. Latta's case of the left arm and elbow.

Mr. and Mrs. Latta were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Carter of Topsfield. They received less serious injuries, consisting of dislocations and severe cuts and are expected to be released from the hospital in about a week.

A fortunate feature of the accident was that it happened within four miles of the Sacred Heart Hospital with its blood bank, in Manchester, N. H., and the injured party received expert care almost immediately.

Mr. Latta's head injury, which appeared the most serious, appears to be better at latest reports. The leg fratures of both are being reduced by traction, a matter of some months.

It is reported that the truck driver had been driving steadily for about 19 hours and did not know the accident occured except that he failed to hold on his side of the road. He escaped injury.

Mrs. Latta, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Worthen of Wedgemere avenue. The couple have many Winchester friends who will be glad to learn that their accident was not more serious and congratulate them upon their lucky escape from death.

FATHER MOONEY TO SAY FIRST MASS

Rev. J. Joseph Mooney, Maryknoll Missionary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mooney of Arlington, and grandson of Mr. Patrick J. Mooney of 4 Westley street, will say his first mass at St. Agnes Church, Arlington on Sunday, June 17 at 11:30.

A reception will be held at The Shelton, Bay State road, Boston from 2:30 to 5 p. m.

Fr. Mooney has been assigned to do missionary work in Japan.

BAD CHECK PASSER

The local Police issued a warning to merchants and storekeepers to be on the watch for a man passing worthless checks drawn on the First National Bank of Boston.

The bad check passer was in town on May 15 and passed three worthless checks on storekeepers. The checks were signed with the signature of Thomas Harris and Stuart Harris and giving an address as 33 Lebanon street.

He is also wanted in Woburn for the same offense.

PRINCIPALS IN MORTGAGE BURNING CEREMONY, FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH MAY 14TH, 1951

NAME CHAIRMAN FOR 1951 V. F. W. POPPY CAMPAIGN

Announcement was made today of the selection of John T. Horn to function as chairman of the 1951 annual sale of Buddy Poppies to be sponsored by Post No. 3719, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In naming Horn as chairman, Commander Bolivar also announced that May 25 and 26 has been selected as the date of the Buddy Poppy sale here.

Under Chairman Horn direction, a small army of women and girls will be mobilized for the purpose of selling a record quantity of Buddy Poppies in the 1951 campaign.

"We are going to need the additional funds that will be made available, if we have a sufficient number of workers to help us sell a greater number of Buddy Poppies this year," Commander Bolivar explained.

Commander Bolivar emphasized that nearly all the proceeds of the annual sale of Buddy Poppies are spent to meet veteran welfare needs in this city. He also pointed out that all Buddy Poppies are made by disabled veterans in government hospitals. These convalescent veterans were given the opportunity to earn some money while being hospitalized. Officials of the Veterans Administration have approved this part-time employment for disabled veterans as a valuable form of occupational therapy treatment.

WILL BE SON'S BEST MAN

Park Commissioner James H. Coon left Winchester Tuesday to fly to Seattle, Wash., for several weeks' vacation. He will attend the graduation of his son, Richard, at Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash., and on June second will be Richard's best man at his wedding at Bar U Ranch, Washtucna. Mr. Coon's son, David, is a freshman at Whitman, and he will accompany his father home, both flying here.

CPL. ANTHONY L. RUSSO

Funeral services were held for Cpl. Anthony L. Russo, on Monday morning, May 14 at 8 o'clock from the Lane Funeral Home, 760 Main street with a Solemn High Mass of Requiem at St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock.

Pallbearers were members of the Winchester V. F. W. and Winchester Post American Legion.

Interment was in Calvary cemetery, Woburn, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Fr. John P. O'Riordan. Taps were sounded and a firing squad from the Charlestown Navy Yard was present.

Cpl. Russo was killed in action in the Seoul area in the Korean War on September 19, 1950 and his body was brought home for burial, arriving in Winchester on Friday, May 11th.

He was the son of Anthony Russo, owner of the Russo Auto Electric Company of Woburn, and the late Mrs. Russo. He was born in Albany, New York on August 13, 1930. He joined the Marines in Albany, New York on March 19, 1943.

Although never actually a resident of this town he visited with his grandfather, Michael Russo of Swanton street and other relatives and friends.

Besides his father he leaves a brother, Robert J. Russo of the United States Coast Guard.

REV. SNOOK COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Rev. John Snook, Jr., has been invited to give the Commencement address at the Westerly High School, Rhode Island, on June 10th and also at Sheffield High School, Mass. on June 15th.

The pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church has just been appointed back to Winchester for another year. He came from Marblehead in February of 1948 and this is his first full time work, having finished his theological training, while a student pastor in Marblehead.

FIRST SON

Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Weeks of 15 Fells road, are the parents of a third child, and first son, Norman Weeks, Jr., born at the Winchester Hospital on May 15th.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hjalmar Sundgren and Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Burr Weeks, all of Medford.

BORN

To Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Fowle (Mary Haskell) of Waltham, a second child, first daughter, Polly Weatherston Fowle, May 21 at the Richardson House. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert A. TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The traditional spring tournament open to all tennis players resident in Winchester is scheduled to start at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, June 2nd at the William S. Packer tennis courts on Palmer street. Following the established custom of the Winchester Tennis Association, this tournament features three events: Men's Draw Doubles, Mixed Draw Doubles, and Family Doubles. The draw doubles always bring forth some interesting tennis because the draws are arranged to avoid pairing the town's experts. This year the Family Doubles competition should be especially keen because the winners will have their names engraved on the Wallace Blanchard Memorial Trophy, an award established by the Winchester Tennis Association in honor of the memory of Wallace Blanchard who contributed greatly to the development of Winchester tennis.

Entry fee is twenty-five cents for each event. All Winchester residents are invited to participate. Entries should be made by postcard or telephone (after 7 p. m.) by Thursday, May 31 with any of the following members of the Tournament Committee:

Allan Buros, WInchester 6-3276-W.

R. Schuhmann, Jr., Winchester 6-0523-M.

Langdon Smith, WInchester 6-1678.

DOUBLES CHAMPIONS

Paul Peterson, Hamden, Conn., and Bill Bird, Winchester, University of Maine tennis team members, won the Maine Intercollegiate Doubles Tennis Championship Tuesday by defeating Charles Watson and Ted Noyes, of Bowdoin, 1-6, 7-5, 6-3, 6-2. Watson defeated Ben Blanchard of Maine, to annex the Maine intercollegiate singles championship.

WINCHESTER ELKS NO. 1445

Exalted Ruler Newell Purington had the pleasure this week, of presenting to the Winchester Scholarship Fund a substancial check as a gift of the local lodge. As is most commonly known the Elks through their National Foundation have distributed over $50,000 for scholarship alone, as part of it's extensive program of charitable works and even though the Winchester Lodge is a participating member of this great national endeavor it was most anxious to associate itself with the town's scholarship effort. P. E. R. Thomas Fallon is the Lodge Chairman of the Elks National Foundation Committee and will graciously accept contributions from all who wish to give. A donation to the Elks National Foundation may be given by Elks or non-elks and is a taxable deduction.

The Lodge will participate in the Memorial Day parade and all should turn out to pay their respect to their deceased loved ones — service men and non-service men alike.

The two trophies, which are now on display in Hevey's Drug Store, will be presented to the boy and girl who are outstanding in the program of rifle training, which is conducted under local supervision. These Trophies are in addition to the regular competitive prizes which are presented by the Winchester Elks Youth Activities Committee.

Chairman Carl Thomas has completed extensive arrangements for Flag Day exercises which will be held this year at 7 p. m. on Thursday, June 14 on Manchester Field. A complete detail of the arranged program will be announced at a later date.

Lt. John Leslie Green, USN, Clayton, Mo., and husband of Mrs. Miriam Symmes Green of 10 Lawson road, who was ordered back to active military service Februray 6, is serving aboard the destroyer USS Zellars in the Far East. The ship was active in the support of ground troops in the evacuation at Hungnam. The Zellars has also been active in shore bombardment of enemy forces.

JUNIOR HIGH TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Miss Dell Mitchell and Ken Williams were the new Girls' and Boys' Singles winners of the annual Junior High Tennis Tournament, held at the Packer Courts on May 19th and 20th. The match of the week-end was the finals of the Girls' event, in which Sue Clark made Dell work for every point to win 9 - 7; 15 - 13. Sue went on to win the Mixed Doubles with partner Pete Gove.

With this tournament as a practice, the strong players will enter Mrs. Hazel Wightman's Longwood Tournament May 26th. Mr. William S. Packer will add more incentive to the play with his soda prize to every player who keeps out of the consolations!

W. H. S. GIRLS' TENNIS TEAM

After their good start, with two wins from Concord and Melrose, the girls' tennis team dropped their second two matches of the season. On May 10 at Belmont, they were defeated by a very slim margin of 3 - 2, with Sue Morton winning by default when her opponent suffered from a cracked elbow, and with Jane Chiswell also downing her opponent, who used a vicious cut on every stroke. On Thursday, May 17, the team traveled to Malden, where they also lost, this time by a score of 4 - 1. Both Sue Morton and Captain Carol Hawkins had as their opponent girls who are well seeded in the state, Harriet Shannon and Nannie Kevill respectively.

On May 24 a challenge match is to be played at the Packer Courts, when the gals meet the WHS boys. That should be well worth watching!

The summary:

At Belmont

Sue Morton vs Mary Lee Boyle — Winchester by default
Carol Hawkins vs Gracia Parkhill — Belmont, 3 - 6, 6 - 4, 6 - 4
Jane Chiswell vs Genevra Osborn — Winchester, 6 - 3, 6 - 2
Mary Anne Damon and Betsey Freeman vs Shirley Glazier and Marcia Beardsall — Belmont, 3 - 6, 7 - 5, 6 - 4

At Malden

Sue Morton vs Harriet Shannon — Malden, 3 - 6, 6 - 4, 6 - 4
Carol Hawkins vs Nannie Kevill — Malden, 6 - 2, 5 - 7, 6 - 2
Jane Chiswell vs Isabell Conley — Malden — 6 - 4, 8 - 6
Mary Anne Damon and Betsey Freeman vs Pat Shirley and Joan Hayland — Malden, 6 - 1, 6 - 0
Carolyn Stone and Franceline Cullen vs Barbara Bilus and Barbara Lauro — Winchester 6 - 2, 6 - 0

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS DEFEAT FRESHMEN

The Junior High Girls' Softball teams showed their superior skill and strategy in softball by defeating both Freshmen teams at Ginn Field last week.

WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB SNIPE RACES

The first point score race held last Sunday on Mystic Lake found Rodney Long the winner with Roger Swanson and Ed Morse second and third. Jim Newman, George Jones and Dawson Blamire also finished. The Junior Races held May 19th had Tom Ledger in first with Bob Stengal, second and Ed Morse, Jr. in third position.

Mr. James H. Penaligan, assistant editor of the Star, who returned to his home several weeks ago following an operation at a Boston hospital, is recovering satisfactorily and is now able to be out of doors.

Mrs. Carl E. Morse of Lloyd street received a check for $12.00 last week for identifying a tune on the "Recall it and Win" program over Station WCOP on May 15.

WINCHESTER NOSED OUT BELMONT

Winchester High remained in the thick of the race for the Middlesex League championship by nosing out Belmont High 2 - 0 at Belmont on Tuesday afternoon. Ed Crowley scored the first Winchester run in the fifth when he opened the inning with a single to left, moved to second on a balk advanced to third on a passed ball, and scored when Charlie Murphy came through with a long single to right center with two out. The other Winchester run was scored in the eighth when "Jocko" Serieka led off with a double to center. Charlie Murphy struck out on a pitch in the dirt but alertly ran to first and when the first baseman muffled the poor throw, continued to second where he was thrown out as Serieka scored on the play with a nice piece of heads-up base running.

On this play Murphy sprained his ankle slightly sliding into second base which affected his pitching in the bottom half of the eighth. With one out, a single to center was followed by a fly-out and two successive bases on balls to fill the bases. It was obvious that his ankle was bothering Murphy and Coach Bartlett replaced him with John DiIorio in a hold piece of strategy as DiIorio has pitched only one inning this year. DiIorio came through with flying colors as he struck out Williams who had two hits in previous trips to the plate and then retired the side in order in the top of the ninth. Up to this point Murphy had pitched superb ball for the Indians as he allowed only five hits while striking out seven batters and was in trouble only twice as the result of bases on balls.

TWO GRADUATE FROM WELLESLEY

Miss L. Linda Fielding and Miss Molly Anne Heath are among the 361 candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree at Wellesley College's 73rd annual commencement on Monday, June 11. At this time 30 graduate students will also be candidates for advanced degrees.

Miss Fielding, daughter of Mr. Andrew Fielding of 12 Lawrence street, is majoring in chemistry at Wellesley. This spring she was elected an associate member of Sigma Xi, national scientific honorary society. She has been active in the college outing club and this year she won an outing club emblem and shirt as an outstanding club member who has led trips. In the summer of 1949 Miss Fielding attended the University of Colorado. She was graduated from Winchester High.

Miss Heath, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Parker Heath of 8 Fernway, has also been an outing club member at Wellesley. Under the auspices of W. B. S., the campus broadcasting system, she has also done international broadcasting. An English major, she was graduated from St. Mary's in the Mountains in Littleton, N. H.

Work started on Monday tearing down the two top stories of the White Block at the corner of Church and Main streets. The wrecking company in charge started a large force of men on the job which will take about two months. The building is owned by Selectman Harry Chefalo.

NAMED BUSINESS MANAGER

Bob Roth of Hillcrest Parkway, CBA, Boston University, has been named "Huh" business manager for 1952.

Roth, president of Lambda Chi, member of Loch honorary fraternity, and Scabbard and Blade, will be business manager next year.

Bob, a junior, comes from Winchester. Before entering CBA he attended Huntington Prep School for a year. He has been working on the Hub for three years and was the advertising manager last year.

REFERENDUM COMMITTEE WAS RIGHT

Editor of the Star:

The Winchester Star of March 9, 1951 quoted an opinion of the Town Counsel, Vincent P. Clarke, under the caption, "Committee Still in Existence — Town Counsel Turns Down Referendum Group".

It did not seem to me that his argument met squarely the issue that had been raised, particularly on a matter involving the expenditure of $17,000.00 of the Town's money. I have, therefore, taken steps to obtain legal advice on the matter. The following letter states the case clearly and attention is particularly called to the last two paragraphs.

May 16, 1951

Mr. George M. Bryne
4 Copley Street
Winchester, Mass.

Dear Mr. Bryne:

At your request I have considered the matter of the legality of the activities of the "High School and Enlarged Junior High School Building Committee" since November 30, 1950, with respect to the expenditure of the funds of the Town of Winchester, and based upon the following facts furnished me by you I herewith state my opinion.

At the adjourned annual representative town meeting held on March 21, 1949, a Committee was established known as the "High School and Enlarged Junior High School Committee". Definite duties, powers and responsibilities were given that Committee and a substantial appropriation made for carrying out of its purposes.

At the adjourned annual town meeting of March 20, 1950 the Committee made a report and in accordance with its request an additional appropriation was made. At the special representative town meeting of November 30, 1950 the Committee again made an additional report and the Town voted to receive and place on file said report.

The by-laws of the Town of Winchester provide among other things that the meetings and business of the Town shall be carried out in accordance with the provisions of "Cushing's Manual". You will observe, I am sure, the distinction between the action of the town meeting held on March 20, 1950 and the meeting held on November 30, 1950. In the first instance a report was made and it was not "received and placed on file" but that authorized further action by the Committee, whereas at the meeting of November 30, 1950, the report was received and placed on file by vote of the Town.

It is my opinion after conferring with representatives of the Attorney General's Department and consideration of the matter by me that the Committee ceased to exist on November 30, 1950, when the Town voted to receive and place on file its report, and that from that time on the Committee had no authority to act on behalf of the Town or to expend any money or incur any obligations on behalf of the Town of Winchester.

It is further my opinion that by a proper proceeding brought against the members of the Committee and other proper officials of the Town, any funds so expended may be recovered.

Yours very truly,
Frank Mulready
Attorney at Law

There is now no doubt in my mind that the Referendum Committee was right and the necessary steps to be taken to correct the illegal expenditure are now in order.

Yours very truly
George M. Bryne

THANKS WINCHESTER

Editor of the Star:

May I use the medium of your paper to thank all those who worked so hard to plan the Spring Party given on May 17th for parents and teachers. Perhaps everyone does not realize that the general committee was made up of two parents from each school and representatives from the Teachers' Club, with one liason member from the Winchester Mothers' Association. The committee was as follows:

Winchester Mothers' Association	Mrs. Ralph Jone
Washington School and Mrs. Paul Lanzarotte	Mrs. Joseph Bogue,
Lincoln	Mr. and Mrs. Austin Nanry
Mystic	Mr. and Mrs. William Davies,
Wood
Woman	Mrs. Frank d'Elseaux and Mr. Paul Forestell, Jr.
Parkhurst	Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowry
Norman	Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tansey
Jr. High	Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schaefer
Sr. High	Mr. and Mrs. Loring Nichols

Teachers

Mr. Thomas Morse
Mrs. John Stevens
Miss Charlotte LeClaire
Mr. George Snyder
Mrs. Ruth Graham
Mrs. Myrtle Dodge

Our special thanks go to Mr. Cummings of Cummings The Florist who very generously donated practically all the flowers which made our 31 tables so festive, to Mrs. Joseph Bogue, Mrs. Kenneth Cady and Mrs. Philip Wadsworth who arranged them, to the committee who planned the pre-supper parties, and the hostesses who gave them, to Mr. Fred Felmet and Miss Eleanor Anifantis who led group singing during the interlude between dinner and the featured entertainment.

It was a pleasure to have a part in this project again. I say thanks to all.

Sincerely yours,
Virginia G. d'Elseaux
(Mrs. Frank C.)

WINCHESTER MAN ONE OF TEN HONORED

Mr. Lawrence W. Hayes, Junior High Department teacher of the Church School of the First Congregational Church, has been selected from thousands of volunteer lay workers in Protestant Churches throughout the state of Massachusetts for unusual recognition.

Announcement of the honor was made by the Rev. John Edward Thomas, director of the department of religious education of the Mass. Council of Churches, and the Rev. H. Glenn Payne, acting chairman of the Council department and minister of the First Baptist Church of Wakefield.

Mr. Hayes is one of ten persons to be honored by the department of religious education of the Council for outstanding, faithful, and unique service in the field of Protestant religious education particularly in Sunday School work. Some of those to receive citations and certificates of recognition have worked in Sunday Schools more than 40 years.

The award to Mr. Hayes will be presented at the Second Annual Dinner of the department of religious education of the Council at the Old South Church, Copley Square, in Boston, on Thursday, May 31, at 6 p. m. A delegation from the First Congregational Church will accompany Mr. Hayes and take part in the program.

Speaker at the dinner will be Professor Samuel L. Hamilton of the department of religious education, New York University, New York City.

The dinner and awards will pay tribute to all volunteer lay Sunday School workers throughout the state. Among those to be honored are seven Congregationalists, two Baptists, and one Unitarian. Attendance at the dinner will be limited to 250.

For the past 17 years Mr. Hayes has been a teacher in the local Church School, although his total years of teaching numbers 32, going back to his membership in the Pilgrim Congregational Church in Cambridge.

The teaching of Mr. Hayes is unusual, in that he does not use the materials used by the School. He prefers to create his own course of study, using the best of modern scholarship. It is his custom to teach the same pupils during a two year period, teaching the important facts of the Old Treatment the first year, and continuing with the New Testament the second year. Each week he sends a card to each of his pupils with their individual assignments for the next Sunday. He is rarely absent and is noted for his faithfulness in attending staff and departmental meetings. Those who have been his pupils look back upon the experience of studying with Mr. Hayes, as one of the high points of their Church School experience.

In addition to his work in the Church School, Mr. Hayes has been very active for 25 years with the Gideons, fulfilling speaking engagements and during World War II helping to provide Bibles to service men. Mr. Hayes is treasurer of the Hayes Pump Machinery Co., is a member of the Harvard Club of Eastern Middlesex and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

FINE NEW WOOLWORTH STORE OPENS

The fine new Woolworth store on Main street was formally opened to the public last week-end, being visited by thousands from Winchester and surrounding places, all eager to see what has been accomplished in making this one of the finest stores in this section and the largest in Winchester.

By purchase of additional land the Woolworth Company has more than doubled the floor space occupied by its former store. Everything is on one floor, giving open space from front to back.

In opening the new store the company has added a large line of stock to its previous assortment and one may now purchase practically all of the merchandise carried by Woolworth.

MRS. ANN SINCLAIR GUSTIN

Ann Sinclair Gustin, wife of the late Clarence Gustin, died at her home 375 Cambridge street, on Wednesday morning, May 23. Mrs. Gustin fractured her hip last February and had been confined to her home ever since.

She was born January 10, 1863, the daughter of the late James and Ferguson Conqueror Sinclair in Therth Scotland. She was married to Mr. Gustin in Woburn on July 22, 1886, and has made her home in Winchester for the past 55 years. She was a member of the First Congregational church for 32 years. She was also a charter member of the Winchester Grange.

She is survived by a son, Harvey James Gustin of West Medford; five daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Thorp of Yarmouthport; Mrs. Marion Milner of Wollaston; Mrs. Mary Robinson and Mrs. Nellie Lafayette both of East Woburn and Miss Jessie Gustin of this town. She also leaves a brother, John Sinclair of Stoneham and a sister Mrs. Dolly Reeves of Donald, British Columbia.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon, May 26 at 1:30 o'clock in Bennett Funeral Chapel. Dr. Howard J. Chidley will officiate.

Interment will be in the family lot in Wildwood cemetery.

JOHN W. PETERSON

John W. Peterson, husband of Delia (Doherty) Peterson, died at his home 35 Baldwin street, Tuesday, May 22, after a long illness.

Mr. Peterson was born in Sweden 71 years ago, but had lived in Winchester for 40 years. He was a leather worker for many years at Beggs & Cobbs.

He was a member of the Holy Name Society of the Immaculate Conception Church, and a member of the Scandia Club of Woburn.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Carl E. and John D. Peterson of this town; a daughter Mrs. James Keating of Stoneham; a sister Mrs. Hedwick Peterson of Los Angeles, California; two brothers living in Sweden and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today, Friday, May 25, from the Lane Funeral Home at 8 o'clock with a High Mass of Requiem at the Immaculate Conception Church at 9 o'clock.

Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Woburn.

LYDIA ALLAN SNOW

The funeral services for Mrs. Lydia (Allan) Snow, wife of the late William Arthur Snow, and long time resident of this town, who passed away on Monday, May 21 in Reading were held on Thursday afternoon, May 24th at the First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Walter L. Bailey officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Snow was born in Glasgow, Scotland, eighty-seven years ago, daughter of John and Charlotte (Aitken) Allan.

She was very active in the Women's League and the Thrift Shop of the first Baptist Church over a long period, and has been a member of the church for many years. She will be remembered for her cheery smile and her friendly interest in people.

She is survived by her son, Thornton Allan Snow, a granddaughter Mrs. Norman Bissett, and two great grandsons, Thomas and Allan Bissett, all of Melrose.

FORUM OFFICERS ELECTED

At the Forum Banquet last Sunday the following officers were elected to serve for the following year:

President — Richard Rush.
Vice-President — Janet Macaulay.
Corresponding Secretary — Lynne Stevens.
Recording Secretary — Judith Harmon.
Treasurer — Douglas Hawkins.
Assistant Treasurer — Richard Fernandez.

Newly elected officers will meet with the officers of the past year on Sunday afternoon at the home of the new President to consider appointment of committee chairmen to head the 29 committees of the Forum for the coming year.

One more service of worship and one more social event remain for the Forum this year. Sunday, May 27, will be the Forum Baccalaureate Service in the morning church service at 10:45, when Dr. Chidley will preach especially to the young people, "Signposts of Destiny." David Archibald, retiring President, will be the chaplain.

On June 10, Saturday after the close of school, the entire Forum membership is invited to a beach party at Jacqueline Sturtevant's summer home in Magnolia.

HIGH SCHOOL 1926 CLASS REUNION

Plans for the reunion of the Winchester High School Class of 1926 to be held at the High School gymnasium on Saturday, June 16th, are nearing completion.

Notices to class members have been sent out, but the committee in charge of arrangements has been unable to locate all those who have at anytime been members of the class.

Addresses of Fred Demarest, Elizabeth Foley and Katherine von Nostitz are still missing. Any word of these people will be welcome. Kindly send information to the committee secretary, Ella Howlett Knowlton, 8 Maxwell road, Winchester, telephone WI 6-1574-J.

Committee chairman Wilfred Prue announces that any one at any time associated with the Class of 1926, whether or not a graduate, is cordially invited to attend the reunion.

Reservations must be made on or before June 4th with the secretary.

Other committee members are Class President Nicholas Fitzgerald, Katharine Carlisle, Mary Carr Baker, Howard Ambrose and Frank McCauley.

Miss Sally Morgan of the Star underwent a tonsil operation at the Winchester Hospital this week.

We have helped many people to own homes by means of our mortgage loans.

Perhaps we can, also, bring nearer to realization a dream of yours for home ownership.

U. N. TAKES ROAD SIGN ON TOUR OF THE GLOBE

A humble, unsung sentinel beside the highways of the earth — the road sign — suddenly has become a world traveler.

In France, Chile, Turkey, India and Southern Rhodesia, the National Geographic Society notes, the yellow-and-black curlicues, curves and angles of American highway markers have sprouted to guide foreign motorists through a series of United Nations safety tests.

At the same time, U. S. drivers are being taken over short sections of roads in Ohio, New York, Virginia and Minnesota marked temporarily by the bright-colored, cartoonlike signs of Europe's international highways.

A puffing locomotive in a red triangle is the European-style warning of road crossings unprotected by gates. Silhouettes of children signify a school or playground ahead. The outline of a careening automobile means "Slow Down Slippery Road," while a sign that looks like a camel's back clearly says "Bump!"

Stop, Look and Scratch Heads

In the few decades since high-speed travel by automobile began to make over the world, signs have become vital to the safety of millions. America, land of a single language, is sown with signs reading "Stop," "Dangerous Curve," or the famous "Stop, Look and Listen."

But in Europe, touring motorists have long been confused and confounded by signs which give obviously important information in an incomprehensible language. Other signs give warnings in several languages — and are so complicated they cannot be read without coming to a full stop.

In 1926, realizing the need for a universal sign language, an international meeting in Paris drew up a code of symbols and pictures which all countries could use. In 1949, these signs became the basis for a new standardization of signs by a United Nations commission.

Because most American roads are under state jurisdiction, U. S. representatives could sign neither the Paris convention nor the recent U. N. protocol. But Uncle Sam has joined other countries in tests to determine how the two systems — American and European — might both be adapted for better world-wide understanding.

Camels and Monsters

Road signs are found today in some of the most historic and remote corners of the earth, as well as guarding the world's busiest intersections.

At the crest of the Khyber Pass between Afghanistan and Pakistan, two arrows and sign-language pictures divide traffic. Automobiles go one way. Camels and horses take the other fork, following a centuries-old trading route to India.

At an intersection in Bali, a huge stone idol with totem-pole features stands guard with a road sign, as if to say, "Be careful, or the demons will drive with you."

When the first sign was erected, no one knows. Certainly it was behind the dawn of history. Perhaps the oldest road on earth is a sand-dune trail between the Euphrates and the Nile. Signs or symbols in forgotten languages guided traders and armies along this route thousands of years before the Christian era.

Mysterious stone pillars still standing on the wild moors of Brittany may have marked Europe's first roads. As a guide on night marches across the American plains, Pawnees used star charts painted on elkskin. But when wagon trains came to break the Santa Fe and Oregon Trails, scouts rode ahead to mark the way with fluttering rags, heaps of stones, or forest blaze marks — the first road signs on the first U. S. transcontinental highways.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST, WINCHESTER

Sunday Services at 11 a. m.
Sunday School is held at the same hour as the church services.
Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson Street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Man's spiritual individuality and his oneness with God, Soul, will be brought out in next Sunday's services in all Christian Science churches. Subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Soul and Body."

These words of the prophet Isaiah's song and praise constitute the Golden Text: "In the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee" (Isaiah 26:8).

Passages from the Bible include the following from II Corinthians: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (II Corinthians 5:1).

Correlative readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following: "Man understands spiritual existence in proportion as his treasures of Truth and Love are enlarged . . . This scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption Deity, and the loss of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expansive love, a higher and more permanent peace" (p. 265).

DIAMONDS LINKED THROUGH THE AGES WITH SENTIMENT AND SUPERSTITIONS

Everybody knows of the sentimental link between diamonds and brides. Now it can be proved by Census Bureau statistics.

Census compilations show that U. S. weddings and diamond imports increased together during the prosperous five-year postwar period. Significantly, the postwar high contrasts with a low in both nuptial and diamond departments during a similar time span ten years back.

The origin of the modern custom of presenting a diamond ring to one's betrothed has been lost behind the folklore curtain, notes the National Geographic Society. According to Pliny, only kings and princes, and not many of them, owned diamonds in the early days.

Although the ancients mined the precious stones in India and perhaps elsewhere, it was not until 1866 that a big scale industry was launched in South Africa, as the result of the discovery of a strangely bright pebble near Kimberley. The art of cutting diamonds to bring out maximum luster and brilliance began developing only a little earlier in the mid-1700's.

Symbol of Constancy

Yet there are records indicating that diamond engagement rings were by no means unknown in medieval times. In a reversal of modern style, the Princess of Burgundy, in 1477, was said to have sent the Duke of Austria a highly valuable diamond ring as a token of acceptance of his suit.

Italians called the stone in such rings the pietra della riconciliazione, stone of harmony, because of the part it was believed to play in keeping marital relationships smooth.

Through the ages, the diamond has been a symbol of constancy and purity, and as such particularly appropriate as a pledge of unswerving devotion. Its sparkle, legend said, was created by the fire of love. Hence when the stone became dull it was felt to be a portent of infidelity by one's beloved, or a warning of impending dangers.

An old English ballad sings of a king's daughter who gave to her adorer a ring set with seven diamonds. Far away at sea one day, the lover noticed the diamonds had grown pale. He rushed home, just in time to rescue his princess from marriage with another.

Good or Evil Power

All sorts of powers, for good luck, health and wealth as well as for darkest evil, have been attributed to the diamond. Alchemists once claimed that its wearer could be made invisible. It was thought that changes in the stone's color could betray the guilt or prove the innocence of an accused.

Pessimists held that the too-hard, too-bright gem brought its owner unhappiness, fear, and illness, and that possession of a diamond flecked with evil meant immediate death. Even today, a sinister folklore of misfortune and violence has accumulated around many of the world's most famous stones.

The modern diamond industry draws the bulk of its supply from South Africa and the Belgian Congo. The gem-quality stones come chiefly from South Africa, the industrial diamonds from the Belgian Congo, which accounts for the world's largest diamond output by weight.

Other important sources for the precious stones are Brazil and various West African states. Diamonds have also been found in the Arkansas area some 60 miles from the resort of Hot Springs. There Uncle Sam's only diamond mine was recently reported to be reopening as a tourist and educational attraction.

GEOGRAPHIC ODDITIES AND BRIEFS

Rain is a handicap for the big circus, now opening its annual season. This is not only due to the fact that Jupiter Pluvius cuts down on attendance, but also because rain doubles and triples the immense work of setting up this town-sized traveling amusement park. The canvas of one "big top" weighs 11 tons dry — and three times as much when wet, notes the National Geographic Society.

O Shima, island due south of Yokohama, is known in Japan as "suicide island." Hundreds of people have sought sulphurous oblivion by jumping into its volcano.

Astronomy and ballistics are twin sciences, the National Geographic Society notes. There is a peculiar affinity between the motion of heavenly bodies and the less heavenly paths of projectiles. Many astronomers worked in ballistics laboratories during World War II.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES

The following list of Contagious Diseases was reported for week ending, Thursday, May 24:

Cat bite	2
Dog bite	4
Mumps	1
German measles	1

Memorial Day, Wednesday the thirtieth, will be marked by the usual Parade to both the Calvary and Wildwood Cemeteries. As is customary, the Parade will start at the Town Hall promptly at nine o'clock, proceed to Calvary Cemetery via Washington street, where services will be conducted by Father Charles Arsdore, Chaplain of the American Legion. The parade will then return to the Town Hall where there will be a short pause for refreshment, and then leave promptly at eleven o'clock for the War Memorial in front of the High School, and then to Wildwood Cemetery, where services will be conducted by the Reverend Walter Bailey. The group will then return to the Town Hall to disband at noontime.

MARCH ORDER

8:30 Assemble at Town Hall
9:00 Parade departs via Washington street for Cavalry Cemetery
9:30 Ceremonies — Cavalry Cemetery
9:45 Return to Town Hall
10:20 Refreshments at Town Hall
10:45 Re-assemble
11:00 182nd Infantry joins Parade Parade proceeds to War Memorial
11:10 Depart for Wildwood Cemetery
11:30 Ceremonies at Wildwood Cemetery
11:45 Return to Town Hall

The Committee feels that it has been able to gather together colorful units to make up the parade again this year. The first division will step off to the fine music of the 567th USAF Band, the Famed Flying Band that made such a hit in the 1949 Memorial Day Parade, and in the Centennial Day Parade. Commander Gustin of the Legion has also procured the presence of the 101st Field Artillery, a motorized unit that will certainly attract great interest and a unit of the 319th Combat Engineer Battalion which has a number of Winchester men on its rolls. The 182nd Infantry (Co. G) will join the second portion of the march, after finishing its participation in Woburn's earlier exercises.

The Second Division will be led by the Winchester Fire Department and will be accompanied by our own excellent High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Fred Felmet. This musical unit needs no introduction to the citizens of Winchester, — it always turns in an outstanding performance. The rest of the Division will be made up of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the always welcome Civil Air Patrol.

The Third Division will be reserved for the Boy Scouts and Cub Packs, and the Girl Scouts and the Brownie Scouts. In fact, this Division will be the high spot of the Parade for many people for it will step out to the music of the now justly famous Bugle and Drum Corps of the Immaculate Conception's Catholic Youth Organization. This unit accompanied by its sister unit, the Girls Drill Team, has consistently won top honors in competitions for both types of units in recent years, and this yearly showing in its home town is always appreciated.

Not to be forgotten will be the quiet work of Harry Goodwin, Eddie Boyle, and Martie Foley, together with volunteer workers of both the Legion and the V. F. W. who will decorate all of the veterans graves this coming weekend. This group yearly carries out the true tradition of Decoration Day.

As is also customary, Commander Gustin with several assistants will visit the schools throughout the Town, and participate in each school's tribute to the heroes of all wars.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rooney of 214 Washington street are the parents of their third, daughter, Marilyn Elizabeth, born at the Winchester Hospital on May 18. Mrs. Rooney is the former Gertrude A. McNally.

WINCHESTER FEDERALISTS CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

The Winchester Branch of United World Federalists met on Wednesday evening, May 16th at the home of Mrs. Cutler Downer, 29 Everett avenue. After enjoying delicious coffee and refreshments, the members had a discussion of current aspects of United World Federalists and recent changes in policy led by Mr. Robert Williams, Chairman of the Branch. Current reading material was used as reference resource and was found so valuable by those present that copies of books and periodicals will soon be on display in the Winchester Public Library in a section given over to United World Federalists.

This meeting was a particularly memorable occasion since the Branch celebrated its first anniversary. Progress made to date in number of new people who have become interested and also active members was noted and plans for the coming year were made. Mrs. Bara Moulding and Mrs. Mildred Lawton were elected to prepare a slate of nominations for new officers to be presented to the members at a later date. Next fall will find the Winchester Branch sponsoring a meeting for the town at which a key speaker will be invited to give a talk on the general subject and this event will be followed by a series of study groups the purpose of which is to investigate in detail the impact of federalism on the international scene and the purpose of United World Federalists. Mrs. Winslow Smith and Mr. Robert Williams were appointed to arrange for the speaker and Dr. John L. Lobingier to be in charge of the study groups. Future announcements of activities of the Branch will appear in the Winchester Star.

MYSTIC SCHOOL 2ND GRADE ASSEMBLY

"The Vitamin Alphabet", was the main feature of the assembly program presented by the boys and girls of Mrs. Hartwell's 2nd Grade in the Mystic School Assembly Hall at 9:30 a. m., Wednesday morning, May 23rd. It was an original play and stressed the importance of eating the right foods in order to build strong bodies and good health.

The following children participated:

Announcer	Alvin Swonger
Vitamin A	Alvin Swonger
Vitamin B	Joan Ghirardini
Vitamin C	Robert Niles
Vitamin D	Charles Richmond
Vitamin G	Patricia Matthews
Little Boy	James Bradley
Mother	Diane Doten

A poem, "The Highway to Healthland," was recited by Barbara Corey and Larry Pooler.

All the class danced the following dances:

"Skip to My Low"
"Jump Jim Crow"
"All Around the Village"

Announcer for the dances — Pam Carens.

Stage Managers — Nelson Andrews, Rennie Estey.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOTES

The Winchester School Committee met last night to consider further the bids received from contractors for renovation and remodeling of school buildings.

At their meeting on Monday evening the Committee elected the following teachers who will begin their duties in September:

To be teacher of Junior High School science, Mr. Frank J. Provinzano.

To be teacher of Kindergarten, Miss Barbara Ann Sipp.

The following resignations were accepted:

That of Mrs. Margaret Matson, teacher of Kindergarten at Mystic School, that of Mr. Robert Allison, caretaker of Manchester Field.

The Committee learned that Miss Loukia Sarando had declined the position of Assistant Supervisor of Music to which she had been elected as successor to Miss Helen Goodwin, resigned.

On recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Forbes H. Norris, the Committee voted to make an exception to the Rules and Regulations as they pertain to the use of school buildings on Sunday, and granted the request for the use of the Noonan School auditorium on a Sunday morning by the Ladies Sodality of the Immaculate Conception Church.

An item pertaining to the elementary school lunch period during the months of January and February was added to the school calendar for the year 1951 - 1952.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

All the members of the Auxiliary wish to thank Barbara Murphy, who was the very capable Chairman of the Tea on last Sunday. It was a most successful party and we were happy to meet the Past Presidents of the Auxiliary who responded in such great numbers. Members who were unable to attend missed a very impressive and colorful Initiation Ceremony, conducted by the Initiation Suite of Middlesex County as well as the delicious refreshments and floral decorations. Thanks again to all who gave their assistance and time for this occasion.

The May Dance is on next Saturday evening, May 26, and the plans sound most interesting and entertaining. Chairman Grace Froberg and her energetic committee promise the usual excellent dance music plus some new added attractions. Call your friends and come early so that you will not miss any of the fun.

JUNIOR HIGH TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Future Winchester High tennis teams will have nothing to fear from the opposition, if the Junior High players continue to be as promising as they now are. In a tournament played at the Packer courts on May 19 and 20, amazing strength was shown by these 7th and 8th graders. The tournament was also a pat on the back for the two Packers, for all of the semi-finalists were Packer pupils!

In a staggering 9 - 7, 15 - 13 contest, Dell Mitchell finally took the girls' singles title from Sue Clark, and Lanny Keyes and Ken Williams went into 3 sets before Ken pulled ahead to win for boys' singles. With such strong contenders, the mixed doubles was an excellent series of matches, with Sue Clark and Peter Gove finally winning the Sunday final.

All the players deserve hearty congratulations for their high sportsmanship as well as ability.

JUNIOR HIGH ANNUAL MEETING

On Tuesday evening, May 15th, the Junior High Associates held their Annual Meeting. It was very well attended and proved to be a most entertaining evening. After a brief business meeting at which the secretary's and treasurer's annual reports were read and accepted Mrs. Joseph Tansey, Nominating chairman presented the slate for 1951-52. The following officers were elected:

President — Mrs. Paul E. Nason.
Vice-President — Mrs. A. Robert Tonon.
Secretary — Mrs. Arthur Hertig.
Treasurer — Mrs. Warren B. Osborne.
Program Chairman — Mr. Henry Kirk.
Program Co-Chairman — Mrs. Henry Kirk.
Membership Chairman — Mr. Jacob Mosser.
Membership Co-Chairman — Mrs. J. A. Wooley.
Publicity Chairman — Mrs. Harry W. Tisdall.
Social Chairman — Mrs. Joseph F. Cussen.
Ways and Means Chairman — Mr. James W. Walden.
Ways and Means Co-Chairman — Mrs. James W. Walden.
Chairman Room Mothers — Mrs. Addison J. Becker.
Nominating Chairman — Mrs. Nicholas H. Fitzgerald.
Auditor — Mr. James B. Willing.
Principal — Mr. Raymond J. Dickman.

Before adjourning the business meeting, Mrs. S. Mortimer Ward who has served the Junior High Associates so graciously and efficiently this year as president convinced all parents that this meeting should be a "must" on their busy schedule.

Mrs. Warren Osborne Treasurer, reported a healthy balance in the trensury which is due to the fine work of Mr. and Mrs. Burton A. Miller, Ways and Means chairman and all the parents.

The business meeting was then adjourned and the Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Fred Felmet played several group selections with exceptionally fine solos by:

Douglas Barnard, Clarinet, accompanied by Harlow Russell.

Rebecca Fish, Violin, accompanied by Miss Charlotte LeClaire.

Rich Rimbach, Trumpet.

Sigrid Gudheim and Mr. Robert Hayward (her teacher) Marimba duet.

Featured Drum players: Gretchen Luitwieler and Walter Abbott.

Eleanor Anifantis directing the Girl's and Boy's Glee Club entertained with the following program.

Girls' Glee Club
Accompanist — Marilyn DiSilva
Announcers — Cynthia and Catherine Ayer.
Selections:
1. "My Fair Lady"
2. "Santa Lucia"

Conducted by Anne Marks.

3. "Spin, Spin" — Soloists — Barbara Hickey, Joan Mello.
4. "Tarantella".

Boys' Glee Club
Accompanist — David Bartlett
Announcer — John Sullivan
Selections
1. "What shall we do with a Drunken Sailor"?
2. "When Father was a Boy"

Soloists:
Robert Innis
Peter Clark
Seth Weston
Terry Stowe

3. "Stodola Pumpa"

After this part of the program the audience was invited to the gymnasium where Mr. Muerling assisted by Charles Kent and Donald Dewhurst, students at Boston University took over. First came a fascinating demonstration of gym work and tumbling put on by a very large group of 7th and 8th grade boys. It was carried on with dispatch and efficiency to say nothing of skill and brought forth many rounds of applause.

Also an exhibition of square dancing which was enthusiastically received.

The promises of a well rounded and entertaining evening were certainly more than realised and all those present thought it a fitting climax to a good year under the leadership of Mr. Dickman principal of the Junior High School.

Mr. Roger E. Flaherty who died in Woburn on Monday was the father of Mrs. Elizabeth Melley of Cabot street.

BAPTIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

On Sunday, May 27th, the young people will meet at the First Baptist Church at 3:30 p. m. to go on a picnic. Their destination will be historic Walden Pond in Concord. Bring a lunch and swim suit if you want to swim. The young people will return home by 7:30. This will be the last regular meeting for the season, so everyone should plan to be there.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Winchester Girl Scout Council was distinctly honored to have one of it's active members, Mrs. Robert Tonan, appointed Ass't Treasurer of the Massachusetts Girl Scout Organization. Mrs. Tonan is now Chairman of the local Finance Comm.

Monday, May 28, all Senior Girl Scouts meet at the cabin at 7:15.

All 8th grade Scouts and Senior Scouts who wish to help as Camp Aides at Camp Joy please sign up at the Girl Scout office at once.

Thursday, May 31 all members of the staff of Camp Joy are to meet at the office at 10 a. m.

May 31 at 7:45 P. M. the Cabin Maintenance Committee will meet at the home of Mrs. Maxwell McCreery.

All Leaders and Assistant leaders will lunch together at the cabin on Friday, June 1 at 1 p. m.

Campers, please note. The pre-physical examinations (required) will be made at the Girl Scout office on Saturday, June 16 at 10 a. m.

En Ka does a lot to further the cause of good scouting in Winchester and rarely do the Scouts have a chance to return the favor. This Saturday, May 26, there will be a chance to do a small service at the En Ka Fair and the following Senior girls are more than glad to share in this project.

Let no one forget Monday, June 4 is the date of the Brownie Fashion Show at the Town Hall at 3:45 p. m. Memorial Day — All Scouts (No Brownies) (or fly ups) are to meet at 8:30 in back of the Town Hall. There is to be one parade to Calvary then at 10:15 the March to Wildwood will form. Each Scout must be in complete uniform and each group must be accompanied by a Leader. There will be refreshments but only for those who have shown by their behavious that they understand the the meaning of the Girl Scouts part in this event.

At a very impressive ceremony 130 Brownies became Scouts at the "Fly Up". The Brownies formed a double horseshoe to receive the welcome of Mrs. J. Willing. For the last time as Brownies they sang the "Smile Song" which is one of the first songs a Brownie learns.

Each Brownie was then presented with a pin and badge by Mrs. Metcalf and Mrs. Willing and introduced to the Scout Leader by a Senior Scout. At the close they repeated the Girl Scout Promise and Oath and sang "Girl Scouts Together". Mrs. O. Wright, Mrs. Monsen, Mrs. Schiemann, Janice Bushang, Kathryn Eden, Carol Monsen assisted in the service, and the Senior Scout's were — Sheila Scanlon and Petty McNally.

Girls Scouts of Troop 54 had a splash party in an indoor Y. M. C. A. pool in Somerville. All the girls had a lot of fun since it was the first time in swimming for most of the girls since last summer.

This past week-end we had an overnight at the Girl Scout cabin. Friday night after supper, it being Dorothy Smith's birthday, Mrs. Smith brought up ice cream and we all ate that with some cake. We had a scavenger hunt and square dancing. We went to bed at nine o'clock and went to sleep after some ghost stories and some talking. We woke up early, had breakfast, cleaned the cabin, went for a walk in the woods, then went home. — Scribe Susan Joyner. The members of the 2 patrols of this troop who went are:

On Friday, May 18, the Girl Scout's of troop 18 left for Tamworth, New Hampshire. We stayed at the home of Mr. Forrester Clark who was very nice to allow us to use his house. From there we could see Mt. Chocurua.

On Saturday we climbed Red Top Mountain in the state forest. There was a fire ranger station on the top. Some of us thought racing down the mountain was the most fun of all. Then we had a cookout on the shore of the White Lake, we even waded in the cool water. The Chinook Kennels were our next stopping point. There we saw Eskimo dogs and most interesting was a memorial placed there by Admiral Byrd. It read — "Admiral Byrd Memorial — To all noble dogs who gave their lives in the two Antartic expeditions to Little America in the interest of science." It was dedicated October 6, 1938.

In the evening at Conway we had ice cream which nicely ended a perfect day.

Sunday we started for home taking with us pleasant memories of Tamworth. All the Girl Scouts in Troop 18 are very grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Freeman for their kindness in taking us on our first and wonderful overnight camping trip.

Secretaries — Brenda Cowles, Vivianne Loustaunau.

Troop Members: Patricia Bates, Kathleen Doherty, Jean Freeman, Ann Tisdale, Agnes Mooney, Helen and Betsy Bolster, Irene Kearns, Gretchen Wolsey, Marily Snelling.

WINCHESTER CUB SCOUTS PACK 6

The Annual Father and Son outing for the Pack will be held on Saturday, June 2, 1951. Plans call for the group to leave from the Unitarian Church at 9:00 a. m. and a State Police escort will lead the way to Camp Fellsland at Amesbury.

There will be hard ball, soft ball, kick ball, a variety of races and games for all. Sharpen up your batting eye, warm up that arm and get the spikes ready for there will be prizes for all.

Each Cub and his Dad are to bring a lunch, and ice cream, soda and hot-dogs will be provided. Bring plenty for the day can be a long one and how those Cubs can eat.

Each Den must provide its own transportation and sufficient supervision for the day. One Dad from each Den will contact others in regard to transportation.

GUILD OF THE INFANT SAVIOUR

Despite the gray skies on Tuesday, an unusually large number of members and friends turned out for our annual spring luncheon and bridge, held at the Bear Hill Country Club in Stoneham, making it the most successful party of the year and a fitting climax to our busy and active twentieth anniversary year. The luncheon was delicious; the prizes were many and beautiful and, as always, the ladies' spring bonnets were breathtaking. The top scorer at each table won a very attractive leather-covered, velvet lined jewelry box and the fortunate chance prize winners were: Mrs. William P. Carley, Mrs. H. Lyman Armes, Mrs. Frank T. Hannon, Mrs. Vincent L. Scanlon, Mrs. John McDonald, Mrs. George Doherty, Mrs. Clarence Dunlavy, Mrs. William J. Sullivan, Mrs. Leo Howard, Mrs. Daniel Joyce, Mrs. John R. Povah, Mrs. Frank Carleton, Mrs. Vincent J. Murphy and Mrs. Robert H. Cavanagh.

With our spring luncheon we bring to a close our Guild activities for the present but, before leaving, we would like to express our thanks to the editor of The Star for their courtesy to us in the accurate printing of our Guild news throughout the year.

Now, on behalf of the officers and members of the board of the Guild of the Infant Saviour, we wish you a happy, healthy and restful summer. We'll be saying "Hello" to you again when October rolls around. Until then "Au revior."

COLLEGE CLUB ART STUDY GROUP

WINCHESTER HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

One of the most interesting and outstanding meetings of the Winchester Home and Garden Club was held at the Library on Wednesday, May 16, when Mrs. Frank J. Robinson presiding at the largely attended meeting.

The Secretary read some articles in the By-Laws of a 1942 Constitution pertaining to the duties of Finance Chairman, and at the next meeting, which will be taken concerning the elimination of this office, which was never held nor was it in any other copy of a Constitution.

Mrs. Robinson called attention to the article in the May 11th "Star" entitled "Keep the Roadside Clean," sponsored by the Garden Federation with Mrs. E. Sohier Welch as chairman of that committee. Mrs. Robinson expressed the gratituted and thanks of the Club for Mr. Wilson's cooperation in printing it.

The President urged everyone to support the "Open House" project on Friday, May 18, as more money is needed for Garden Club Service, since now so many wounded veterans are being returned from Korea; and also for the Home for Aged garden, and for the plantings around the Winchester Library.

A Rainbow Flower arrangement to be held at the R. H. Stearns Co. Chestnut Hill store is scheduled for June 15 and 19, for the benefit of the Federation Scholarship Fund.

The Annual Meeting will be held at the Winchester Girl Scout Cabin on Wednesday, June 13 with dessert and coffee being served at 1 p. m. Members may bring box lunches, if desired.

Mrs. Mark R. Werman of the Southern Brookline Garden Club gave a demonstration lecture on "Flower Arrangements in Antiques and Corsages." She gave some very practical illustrations of how to make an attractive, sturdy, and professional-looking corsage for all occasions.

Her containers were most varied and some very unusual — a wooden mortar, an old pewter jelly mold, a two-handled serving-dish, a lovely China bowl, and even an old-fashioned oil lamp. Her arrangements were very attractive and she was most charming and entertaining as she deftly and efficiently placed her her material.

TO TEACH AT WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY FOR SUMMER VACATION

Mr. William A. Withington, son of Mrs. Margaret Withington of 174 Mystic Valley Parkway, a student at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, is to be in Washington, D. C., during June and July.

He will teach two courses, Industrial Geography and Seminar on the Geography of Strategic Raw Materials for the department of Geography during the school's first summer session at George Washington University.

Mr. Withington recently passed his Doctoral preliminary exams successfully at Northwestern University in Geography and he will be in Winchester for six months beginning early in August to do Ph. D. dissertation research work on Suburban Residential Mobility.

Many Winchester residents remember the Holcomb boys, Arthur and Amasa. It is interesting to note that Amasa, now in business in Washington, D. C., recently applied to Town Clerk Mabel W. Stinson for a copy of his birth certificate to be used in making a visit to his daughter, who is Vice Consul in Frankfort, Germany.

FRIENDS OF THE WINCHESTER HOSPITAL

The first Annual Meeting of the Friends of the Winchester Hospital was held the afternoon of May 17th at the Music Hall with Mrs. Fulton Brown presiding. The reports showed that over 300 Friends had been working for the Hospital this first year. A splendid record!

Mr. Harlan L. Paine, Jr., Administrator of the Hospital, spoke of the increasing costs of operation. Last year it cost $17.00 a day to care for a patient. This year it costs $19.50. This is not due entirely to inflation, shortages and the raise in wages, but also to the high prices of the many drugs which must be stocked and ready.

He spoke of the help given by the Friends in relieving the trained personnel of many small, time-consuming tasks, and of an even greater opportunity for this kind of service in the future when it will be more and more difficult for private hospitals to procure enough good nurses.

Mrs. Harlow Russell, Chairman of the Nominating Committee presented the slate for the coming year and the following were elected:

President — Mrs. Fulton Brown, Winchester

Vice—President — Mrs. Howard A. Morrison, Winchester

Recording Secretary — Mrs. Paul R. Bergholtz, Reading

Corresponding Secretary — Mrs. Joseph T. McCauley, Winchester

Treasurer — Mrs. Weston D. Baxter, Wilmington

Director for three years — Mrs. Ernest D. Richmond, Jr., Reading

During refreshments after the meeting, the chairmen of the volunteer services explained the work and enlisted volunteers for the summer schedule.

AWARDED FLOORING CONTRACT

Merenda Floor Company of 65 Nelson street, has been awarded the flooring contract for the new Woburn Housing project, off Green street, from the Beacon Construction Company.

The contract running well into $30,000 is the third Housing Project in Woburn that the Merenda Floor has installed.

The company has just completed several flooring contracts in Housing Projects in near by cities and towns and in addition have several other large contracts in New England.

The Merenda Floor Company is being supervised by Charles F. Merenda since the death of his father, Guy F. Merenda last February.

FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS TOPS AT OPEN HOUSES

A surprisingly clear, sunny afternoon last Friday made a perfect background for "Open Houses," under the Winchester Home and Garden Club, with an excellent turnout of visitors to the homes open — the Barone modern house on School street, Raymond house at 10 Hillcrest Parkway, the 150 year old Hadley house at 193 Forest street and the Wills' Garden. Proceeds from the affair will be used by the Club to carry on its veterans' service and local garden club service at the Library, Home for the Aged, and Hospital.

Most of the visitors started the tour at the Barone house. Here Mrs. William D. Barone was assisted by Mrs. Robert D. Bayliss, Mrs. Philip Marvel, Mrs. F. Duane Hawkins, and Mrs. F. Meredith Cooper as hostesses. This fascinating ranch-style house with its handsome, huge fireplace and skillfully designed and furnished rooms, delighted everyone — and the flower arrangements were unusually well-planned. By popular voting, the arrangement of peach-colored tulips in a pewter container, by Mrs. Norman M. Mitchell, received first vote at the Barone house, and also the highest number of votes given to any arrangement in the three houses. Mrs. Theodore Elliott with her "Jack-In-The-Pulpit" in the dining room had the second highest number of votes, and tied for third were Mrs. George LeMay with her tulip and lilacs, and Mrs. Alexander Aitken with a white arrangement of tulips and lilacs.

At the Raymond house, Mrs. Leonard J. Raymond was assisted by Mrs. Rex T. Crandall, Mrs. Edwin Chesterman, Mrs. Clifford Williams, Mrs. J. Stewart Chaffe, Mrs. William Phippen, Mrs. Frederick Churchill, and Mrs. Frank J. Robinson.

This house, once the home of the artist Philbrook, has all the charm of the modern coupled with the graciousness of a traditional — highlighted by Mrs. Raymond's lovely collection of old Wedgewood. Here in the dining room, in the Wedgewood setting, Mrs. Norman Mitchell's gorgous arrangement of many flowers, from pale pink to deep purple, was given the highest number of votes, while Mrs. John C. Gilbert's pleasing arrangement of yellow tulips in the foyer came a close second, and tied for third place were Mrs. Donald Crowell and Mrs. Edward French, both of whom had flower arrangements in a bedroom — Mrs. French using pink dogwood, and Mrs. Crowell, a small bedside design in soft greens and yellows.

At the Hadley house, all the hostesses maintained a feeling of "yesterday" by wearing authentic period costumes. Mrs. Roger Hadley was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Pitman, Mrs. Donald S. Abbott, Mrs. Erskine H. Kelley, Mrs. Richard Smith, Mrs. Howard Witter, Mrs. T. T. Greenwood and Mrs. George E. Connor.

In this house, arrangements were in keeping with the old house and its treasury of antiques. Mrs. Needham B. Brown, Jr. with her arrangement of yellows and copper-colored tulips in a old copper kettle, was given top voting honors tand almost as many visitors commented with delight on her red geraniums in a wooden knife box in the old kitchen. Second award went to Miss Alice Crawford for her spring flowers in an old bowl, while third honors were divided between Mrs. Erskine Kelley's table centerpiece of puple lilacs and yellow tulips, and Mrs. Aitken's white lilacs, blue iris and scarlet tulips in a pewter sugar bowl. (And although she insisted that her arrangement was not in the voting, many visitors insisted on giving honorable mention to Mrs. Hadley for her own simple and picturesque bouquet of pink columbine in an old bowl.

Punch and cookies were served to visitors at the Wills' house, 298 Highland avenue, and the beautiful garden with wisteria in full bloom was open for the afternoon. Mrs. Wills' was assisted by Mrs. Sidney A. Burr and Mrs. Raymond Strawbridge.

Mrs. George E. Connor was chairman of "Open Houses," with Mrs. Frank J. Robinson, co-chairman. Mrs. Edward Mansfield, Mrs. Frederick W. Cole and Mrs. Frederick Churchill assisted with transportation.

The Winchester Home and Garden Club is deeply grateful to the hostesses who opened their homes last Friday — to the ladies who made lovely flower arrangements in the homes — and to those who came to "Open Houses" to help the Garden Club Service Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carrier will spend the summer in Hancock, N. H., where they have a summer home.

JR. FLORENCE CRITTENTON ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting, May 15, of the Winchester Junior Florence Crittenton marked the close of a very successful year for the Circle. Mrs. Joseph Dolben of 15 Lakeview road was hostess for the occasion.

The business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. Sanborn Vincent and reports were heard from officers and chairmen. This was followed by a discussion of the past year's activities and the presentation of new projects for the coming year.

Officers elected for the coming year were announced.

They are Mrs. G. Moulton Herrick, president; Mrs. Martha L. Potter, vice-president; Mrs. Robert G. Ingraham, secretary; Mrs. R. M. Bartwell, treasurer.

Following introduction of new officers a vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Vincent, the retiring president, for her brilliant and inspirational leadership of the group for the past two years.

At the close of the business meeting a very congenial social hour was enjoyed.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. C. Andrew Perkins and her committee. Coffee pourers were Mrs. Sanborn Vincent, and Mrs. G. Moulton Herrick, retiring and incoming presidents.

THE CHURCH OF THE OPEN BIBLE

A former Reading minister will be one of the main speakers at the evangelistic rally featuring leaflet evangelism on Friday night, May 25th, in The Church of the Open Bible on Montvale avenue in Woburn. Dr. Wesley G. Hubet, so well known to many local residents as the former pastor of the First Baptist Church in Reading and now the executive secretary of the Evangelistic Association of New England, will speak on "The 'Why' and 'How' of Leaflet Evangelism" at 7:45 o'clock.

The Rally to which all the Protestant churches of this section of Middlesex have been invited is jointly sponsored by the Christian Business Men's Committee of Greater Boston and the Evangelistic Association. A large colorful display of leaflets will be featured. Special music will be provided.

Mrs. Mary McHugh who passed away at her home in Woburn on Saturday leaves a daughter, Mrs. Hugh Marshall of this town.

ELECTRIC POWER

NEW ENGLAND'S STRONG RIGHT ARM

One of the reasons why New England makes such a huge share of the nation's goods, both in peace and in war, is because we have an abundance of electric power . . . more now than ever before. Since 1945 New England's business-managed electric companies have increased generating capacity by 41%. And new generating units to be added in 1951 and 1952 will jump the increase to 61%. Never before has so much new electric power been provided for this region's needs in such a short time . . . demonstrating again the ability of New England's investor-built electric companies to get things done in the public interest.

LEXINGTON UPSET WINCHESTER

Lexington High upset Winchester High by a score of 5 - 2 at Manchester Field on Wednesday afternoon by virtue of a five-run rally in the eighth inning. This defeat knocked the Indians out of the race for the Middlesex League title and was hard to take as all five runs were unearned.

It was a shame for Stowell Symmes to lose this one as he had pitched superb ball over the first seven innings, giving up only two hits while striking out five batters and issuing only one base on balls. In that fatal eighth the Winchester defense fell apart as they made all three of their errors in this inning. With Winchester leading 2 - 1, the first Lexington batter reached on an error but the next two batters popped out which gave no indication that the Minutemen were going on to score five runs.

The next Lexington batter scratched a hit into the hole that was partially deflected by the third baseman. Snelson singled sharply to left field where the ball was kicked around and then thrown wildly to third base as the tying runs scored. MacLean topped a roller down the third base line and Dalton's hurried throw was wild as the inning run tallied. A base on balls and two more singles followed which were good for two insurance runs for Lexington.

Failure to hit actually cost the locals the ball game as they put 15 men on base and sent only two of them across the plate. The game could have been sewed up early with a timely hit or two as the Indians twice left the bases loaded while failure to sacrifice successfully on two different occasions cost the local runs. The Indians have been in a terrific batting slump in the past three weeks and have done well to compile a ten and three record in view of such lack of power at the plate.

AVENGERS LOSE AGAIN TO CAMBRIDGE

In their return game on Saturday, May 19, at the Cambridge Skating Club, the Winchester Avengers lost to the Cambridge Hockey Club 3 to 1.

Cambridge with an improved team, having Welch, a Harvard Varsity hockey player playing for them, was in control throughout the game. But, when everything seemed hopeless for Winchester, Mahoney was able to score from a good passout from behind the cage by Lawson.

For Cambridge, Welch scored twice and Mahoney scored once. The Avengers hope to renew again their battle with Cambridge early in the fall.

The Sons of Italy continued undefeated through the second week of play in the Town Softball League as there were several more close games that kept spectator interest at a high level. The Sons had to go two extra innings on Tuesday night before they scored twice in the top of the ninth to edge the Beggs and Cobb by a score of 6 - 4. The Beggs threw a scare into them in the last of the ninth when they filled the bases with nobody out but three successive pop-ups retired the side without a score.

The V. F. W. staged one of their typical rallies against the White Shirts in the top of the seventh to score four runs after two were out to tie the score at 7 - 7 before the game was called because of darkness. The White Shirts had a 7 - 2 lead going into the final inning but were unable to hold it. The White Shirts have won three straight games and thus set the stage for the battle of two undefeated teams when the White Shirts and the Sons of Italy tangle at Ginn Field next Thursday evening. Next week's schedule is interrupted by the holiday but a pair of games will be played on Monday, Thursday, and Friday evenings.

WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB

Roger Swanson and his snipe, "Jam II", placed first last Saturday in the first of the point score series at the Winchester Boat Club. His boat was followed closely by "La Sus", skippered by Ed Morse, fleet captain. George Jones and "Youanf" came in third.

On Sunday morning Rodney Long's "Rondie" was the winner of the day, followed by "Jam II". Ed Morse's "La Sus" placed third.

The junior sailors raced on Sunday afternoon. Tommy Legere in "Jam II" was the winner. Bobby Stengel in "Rondie" and Ed Morse, Jr., skippering "La Sus", came in second and third respectively.

Libby glasses were the reward for the winners of the tune-up series, which were held on the weekends of May 5 and 12. Roger Swanson won first prize, and Dawson Blamire was runner-up.

Twenty-five point-score races and twelve junior competitions are slated for this season. A regatta is planned for August, and people from all over northeastern United States have been invited to come to Winchester and compete on the Mystic Lakes. It should be quite an event for Winchester!

The next social event of the season is a bean supper planned for Saturday, June 2. It will be delicious, if Steward Maxwell keeps up the good work of last summer! All members and their guests are urged to attend.

NOONAN SCHOOL NEWS

On Friday, May 18th, Miss Doherty's second and third grade children presented a social studies program in the Noonan School assembly hall.

The third grade has been studying about shelter. They showed pictures and gave reports about, "Shelter — Long Ago and Now."

Four songs were dramatized and sung:

The Policeman — Jimmie Flaherty
Mother — Carole Nelson
The Funny Clown — Carole Chute
The Waltz Song — Gail Frotton and Tommy Treacy.

Grade Two Singers:

Carolyn Doherty, Joyce Walden, Karen McHugh, Louise Vinson, Richard Saurman, Donald Sherburne.

Grade Three singers;

Ronald Chabot, Eleanor Pabst, Roberta McCarthy, Lawrence O'Keefe, Arthur Collins, Joan Downey, Priscilla Horn.

The last number on the program was a poem, "Young America" by the Choral Speaking group.

Announcer — Arthur Collins.

THREE GRADUATE FROM SMITH

Three Winchester girls will be among the candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree at Smith College this June. They are: Mrs. Jean Craig Asche, Miss Barbara Johnson, and Miss Cynthia Watson. Commencement exercises will be held out of doors on June 11.

Mrs. Asche is the daughter of Captain and Mrs. Edward C. Craig, U. S. N. She is living at 101 G. I. Village, Amherst College, Amherst, Mass. She prepared for college at Winchester High School, and majored in Fine Arts at Smith.

Miss Johnson, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Johnson of 40 Glen road, was chairman of Judicial Board, the judicial branch of student government, which administers the social honor system. Miss Johnson was also the president of her dormitory in her junior year, and during all her college years was a member of Gold Key, a group of official student guides who conduct visitors about the campus.

Miss Watson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Watson of 8 Salisbury street, prepared for college at Winchester High School and majored in Government at Smith.

COMPLETES 14 WEEKS INFANTRY TRAINING

Private John Myles McKenzie, Jr., son of Mrs. John H. McKenzie of this town and grandson of Edward P. McKenzie of Symmes road, has successfully completed his 14 weeks of infantry training with "Service" Battery, 45th Field Artillery of the famed 8th Infantry Division at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Private McKenzie attended Woburn High School and the University of Havana at Havana, Cuba. He was employed by McKenzie and Green prior to his induction last January.

Having completed his 14 weeks of training, Private McKenzie has fired most of the light infantry weapons, engaged in practical squad and platoon problems, and undergone intensive physical training in preparation for duty as a combat or service type replacement.

TRAFFIC STOPPED FOR DUCK SAFARI

A mother duck who has been bringing up her brood in the river at the side of the Ford restaurant, decided this week to take the babies on a picnic or an outing, or whatever ducks do when they seek new fields in their way of life. Leading the babies she boldly waddled across Main street at the bridge, ignoring traffic as though it never existed. The cars and trucks piled up clear beyond the Junior High Schol and jammed the center, but the journey was made in safety and the whole family climbed down the bank into the Mill Pond, where broader fields are now being enjoyed. No notice of the return trip has yet been made.

Mrs. Jeremiah J. Moynahan of Wildwood street, attended the Eire Society Dinner at the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston, on May 19. In Mrs. Moynahan's party, were Miss Katherine Keefe and Miss Mae Keefe of Cambridge, Mrs. Thomas C. Walsh of Jamaica Plain, and Miss Anna Kelly of Hyde Park, all members of the Eire Society.

LIBRARIAN

The following article was taken from the Boston Globe and sent into us by one of our subscribers, who believes Winchester has one of the finest librarians in the country.

"The good librarian is one . . .
Who knows not only books . . .
But how to handle people and . . .
To judge them by their looks . . .
Who also knows a thousand facts . . .
Or finds them in a hurry . . .
To satisfy the doubtful minds . . .
That cogitate and worry . . .
From ancient words to current news . . .
And how to spell a name . . .
The years that shaped geography . . . .
And who was most to blame . . . .
The best there is in juveniles . . . In poetry and fiction . . .
The latest thing in science and . . . The key to better diction . . .
The good librarian is kind . . .
And yet politely stern . . .
Whose knowledge is abounding but . . . Who does not cease to learn."

WINCHESTER MAN ACCEPTS CORPORATION MEMBERSHIP IN UNITED PRISON ASS'N.

H. Wadsworth Hight of Swan road has accepted membership for another year in the corporation of the United Prison Association of Massachusetts. Announcement was made this week by Edwin Powers, president of the 61-year-old organization which is primarily engaged in the work of rehabilitating men and women recently released from State and county correctional institutions.

Long interested in the correctional field, Mr. Hight is a former treasurer of the UPA.

Malcolm S. Nichols of Winchester, also has been re-elected to the UPA board of directors for a three-year term. Mr. Nichols, executive director of the Family Society of Greater Boston, is a former president of the prison association.

TROOP 12 ST. MARY'S C. Y. O. AT TROOP MEETING ROOM

TROOP 12 ST. MARY'S C. Y. O. TERMINATE MEETINGS FOR SUMMER

Weekly meetings of Troop 12 are over until the Fall with the Troop currently looking forward to their Camp Fellsland in Amesbury during part of July or August.

The Troop is highly delighted over their attaining a first place and a second place ribbon awards for their Booth and Camping exhibits at the recent Annual Exposition of Scouting at Tufts College. The Troop will also receive awards for their humorous skit and musical number performed there also.

The above picture does not include everyone in the Troop since a few boys were absent on the evening it was taken and some boys are newly arrived in the Troop since the picture was taken. However it does indicate how war scouting has progressed in the Troop since it was inaugurated only four years ago. Included in the picture are Rev. Francis O'Neill, C. Y. O. Director and Troop Chaplain; Scoutmaster Robert Fiore; Asst. Scoutmaster Albert Thorne, Jr.; Junior Asst. Scoutmaster, Anthony Doyle; Senior Patrol Leader, David Flaherty; Troop Scribe, Laurence Erhard; Troop Quartermaster, Henry Quill. The Troop Charter is being held by two of the scouts. The Troop Committee consists of Albert Thorne, Sr. as Advancement Chairman; Daniel L. Doherty, Treasurer; Sam Vangel and Vincent U. Erhard as Co-Chairmen. Fr. O'Neill expresses the hope that during the Summer anyone interested in assisting scouting in the Troop will speak to him with a view to joining the Troop Committee next Fall and attending the weekly meeting to lend assistance to the Scoutmaster and to encourage the boys along. Fathers of the boys are particularly asked to contact Fr. O'Neill.

HILLS — LECHTHALER

Miss Carol Audrey Lechthaler of Wollaston and Kenneth Millard Hills, Jr., were married on May 23 at 8 p. m. in the First Parish Church of Quincy with Rev. Dr. Charles Wing performing the ceremony.

Miss Lechthaler's gown was of white chantilly lace over satin and tulle with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, hoop skirt and Cathedral sleeves. Her veil of fingertip length was imported French silk illusion with a crown of orange blossoms, she carried a bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Penny of Watertown was her honor attendant, wearing a gown of apple green marquisette over taffeta with matching mitts, her headpiece was a floral crown and she carried a cascade of flame and lavendar snapdragons with mixed spring flowers.

The bridesmaids', Mrs. Robert Roy Cambridge, Mrs. Victor A. Prather of Boston, Mrs. Robert P. Alward of Watertown and Mrs. Richard Filbin of Wollaston were gowned alike, wearing dresses of apple green marquisette over taffeta styled similar to the honor attendant, with matching mitts and floral crowns, the bouquets were a cascade of yellow and lavendar flowers.

Mr. Robert Penny of Watertown was Mr. Hills, best man. The ushers were Mr. Richard H. Hills, brother of the groom, Mr. Robert Roy of Cambridge, Mr. Lawrence Holt of Lynnfield and Mr. Victor A. Prather of Boston.

After a reception held at the Neighborhood Club of Quincy, the couple left on a honeymoon to be spent at the Cloisters, Sea Island, Georgia.

Mr. Hills is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Hills of 17 Mason street. He is associated with the Hardware Mutual Insurance Company of Boston.

TWO WINCHESTER GIRLS GRADUATE

Miss Sally Blanchard of 10 Mt. Pleasant street and Miss Patricia Root of 27 Mt. Pleasant street were among the thirty-seven students attending graduation exercises of the Nursery Training School of Boston on Tuesday, May 29th at the Algonquin Club. Miss Blanchard is a former student of Colby College and has been taking professional training for work with nursery school and kindergarten children at the Nursery Training School. Miss Root graduated from Colby College last year and has been a member of the one-year course for college graduates.

Miss Blanchard will be married to Robert Maynard this next month and will live in Bedford. She plans to continue in nursery school work. Miss Root plans to combine teaching nursery school with further graduate studies toward the master's degree in Education at Boston University.

MARRIED AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH

At a 10 o'clock ceremony in St. Mary's Church, Saturday morning, Miss Eleanor Grace Donovan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Joseph Donovan of Winchester, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Henry Foley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henry Foley, also of Winchester. The Rt. Rev. Charles A. Donahue, pastor of St. Theresa's Church, West Roxbury, officiated, and the Rev. Frederick J. Brigham, Jr., of St. James' Church, Wellesley, celebrated the nuptial mass that followed. A reception was held at the Hotel Puritan.

The bride, who wore ivory satin with a tulle veil attached to an heirloom lace cap, and carried a cascade of white shattered carnations with lilies-of-the-valley, had four attendants. Miss Kathryn Marie Horan of Providence, R. I., the maid of honor, was gowned in white marquisette and organdy taffeta, and the bridesmaids, Miss Catherine Marie Foley, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Maria Theresa Pridham of Winchester, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Lynch of Waltham, wore similar gowns over aqua taffeta. They all carried cascades of harlequin carnations to match the coronets in their hair.

Mr. Gerard S. Ryan of Greenwich, Ct., was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Charles Philip O'Rourke, Jr., of Winchester, Mr. William Thomas Carey of Watertown, Mr. Robert J. Lennon of Haverhill, and Mr. Daniel A. Degnan of West Orange, N. J.

The bride is a graduate of Regis College, and Mr. Foley was graduated from Georgetown University, Washington, D. C. After a trip to Virginia Beach, they will live in Bayside, L. I., N. Y.

MARVIN — SCHULTZ ENGAGEMENT

Dr. and Mrs. George G. Marvin of Glen Mar Park, Maryland and previously of Winchester, Mass., announce the engagement of their daughter, Corinne, to Mr. Robert B. Schultz, son of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Schultz of Palo, Alto, California. The wedding will take place in August.

Miss Marvin graduated from Duke University in 1950, where she majored in Chemistry. At present, she is attending the Yale Graduate School of Nursing in New Haven, Conn. Her father is Assistant Director of the Division of Raw Material of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Schultz received his Bachelor's degree from Whitman College at Walla, Walla, Washington in 1947 and his Master's degree from Stanford University in 1948. At present, he is a third year student at the Yale School of Medicine. He served three and a half years in the Navy, part of the time as Gunnery Officer in the south and central Pacific on the USS Gendreau. His father is Professor of Bacteriology and Experimental Pathology at Stanford University, School of Medicine but is currently on a year's leave of absence doing special work at the National Institute of Health in Bethesda.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

The announced program in observance of Memorial Day was carried out by the American Legion on Wednesday notwithstanding the rainy weather. Details from the Post visited Calvary Cemetery during the morning, decorating the graves of fallen comrades. Upon its return to the Legion House a short stop was made for refreshments and then the parade started for Wildwood cemetery via the monument at the High School where a wreath was laid.

The list of marchers was considerably curtailed by the rain and several bands did not march. However the parade was colorful and the military units were in line, furnishing interest to those spectators who braved the inclement weather to line the route.

The entire program arranged by the Post was carried out as planned, with services on Sunday and dinner on Tuesday evening.

THE FORAY'S WINNERS AT DOG SHOW

At the Morris & Essex dog show held recently at Giralda Farms, Dodge Estate, in Morristown, New Jersey, Champion Foray's Antoinette won the Best of Breed's and Foray's Bismark a reserve winner. The dogs are owned by Mr. and Mrs. Lester T. Sawyer of W. Leominster. Champion Antoinette also went Best of Breed at Plainfield, N. J., the following day.

Foray's Diamond Jim owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Giblin of Arlington was the winner of the Best American Breed male dane at the same show. It was one of the largest outdoor shows in the world.

The Foray's are bred by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. Litchfield of 8 Niles Lane.

NEW CITIZEN

To Mr. and Mrs. Richard Arthur Roundy, Jr., (Ruth Olmstead) of Beverly a third daughter, Nancy Helen, at the Beverly Hospital May 20. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Roundy of Beverly and Mrs. Frank T. Olmstead of Madison avenue. The great grandmothers are Mrs. Lillian Kimball of Beverly and Mrs. R. F. Caverly of Wildwood street.

STREET FAIR A SUCCESS

Fair Weather Drew Largest Crowd In History

The weatherman was certainly on En Ka's side last Saturday when he provided such a perfect day for the annual Street Fair. The fair was officially opened when the high school band of which we're all so proud, marched to the Town Hall grounds and participated in the flag raising.

The Fair grounds and booths were never prettier or more colorful, with pennants of magazine covers strung overhead and decorating each booth. All credit for the festive appearance of the old Town Hall grounds is due to the properties committee of which Mrs. Leslie J. Scott and Mrs. Theodore Elliott were chairmen.

Judging by the throngs who joined in the fun from morning until midnight the fair must have been a huge succ ss. Although the final figures won't be available for some time, we're sure you have generously kept up the good work in helping Winchester.

The lucky winner of the Ford was Mr. Conrad Penucci of 106 George street, Medford. Mr. Ralph Bonnell drew the winning ticket.

The talking doll donated by Filene's went to Anna Boyd, 241 Franklin street, Reading, and the afghan was won by Mrs. John Mullins, 618 Highland avenue, Malden.

The baseball tickets went to six year old Dan Barnard, Jr., of 6 Indian Hill road.

The Gunmetal table and umbrella donated by Parbo's was won by David Shean, Jr., 5 Copley street.

"SUPERIOR" AT STATE MUSIC FESTIVAL

Singing in The Boston English High School Assembly Hall in the morning, and in the Hatch Memorial Shell on the Charles River Esplanade last Saturday evening, The Winchester High School Girls' Octette scored two more triumphs under the direction of Miss Eleanor Anifantis, Assistant Supervisor of Music.

Choosing for their selections on both occasions "Katydids" by Scamolin and "I Must and I Will Get Married," an Appalachian Folk Song, the Octette evoked such complimentary terms from Mr. John D. Raymond of Lafayette College, a member of "the Fred Waring staff, and judge of choruses, as "excellent blend — fine spirit — good tone quality — excellent appearance — fine phrasing." In conclusion he said, "This is a very fine choral ensemble. Keep up the good work." For an encore the girls sang "Wanting You."

For the Girls' Glee Club which sang on the same morning program "Rain and the River" by Oscar Fox, and "Friendship" by Cuthbert Harris, Mr. Raymond had this interesting comment: "Beautiful appearance — looks like Spring Itself." Other comments were "nice blend — excellent shading — good quality — wonderful spirit — fine crescendos."

Both groups received ratings of Superior. That rating becomes more meaningful when it is known that there are five divisions: Superior, Excellent, Good, Fair, Below Average.

Transportation for the girls was generously provided by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Goss, Mrs. Alice Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Derro, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Ayer, and Mr. and Mrs. Ragnar Brandt.

FRUIT AND FLOWER MISSION

With the advent of spring the first Fruit and Flower Mission will be June 5. Mrs. Richard A. Smith of the Crawford Memorial Church will be in charge. Mrs. Smith lives at 77 Church street, Tel. WI 6-3514. This is the first flower collection for people of all ages who are not able for some reason or other to have any flowers to enjoy.

With the beautiful gardens in our town surely we can share them with those who have no chance of enjoying our bounty. Please be generous. Just imagine if Spring and its beauty were denied you. Again Mrs. Smith's number is WI 6-3514.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Simonds of Melrose, announce the engagement of their daughter Pollyanne to Mr. Henry John Dempsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Dempsey of Winchester.

Miss Simonds graduated from Melrose Schools, also the Modern School of Fashion and Design, and the Academie Moderne and is a member of Phi Theta Xi sorority in Melrose. Mr. Dempsey graduated from Winchester schools, also Boston University where he is a member of Lambda Chi fraternity. Mr. Dempsey is now serving with the armed forces.

CARL EATON IMPROVING

The many friends of Carl L. Eaton will be pleased to know that after spending three weeks in the Redington Memorial Hospital, Skowhegan, Maine, he is able to be moved to a hospital nearer Boston. He was taken ill while on a fishing trip to Pierce Pond, Caratunk, Maine and had to be flown out from that remote spot by the Folsom Air Service of Oakdale, Maine.

ARCHBISHOP WILL PRESIDE AT MARYCLIFF COMMENCEMENT

His Excellency, Most Reverend Richard J. Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, will address the graduating class of Maryclif Academy, Winchester, on Friday, June 8, at three o'clock in the Academy auditorium.

Prior to the Archbishop's talk the Academy Glee Club will render Rachmaninoff's "Glorious Forever" and "Brother James Air" by Bain. June Ferrera '51 of Arlington will direct the musical program. Caroline Saunders '51 of Lexington will be the accompanist.

His Excellency will award the diplomas to the graduates. They are Helen Blanchard of Winchester; Elayne Coyne, Constance Dowd, and Joan Toomey of Belmont; June Ferrera, Mary McCormack, Patricia McDonald, Joan Demetriena, Martha Smith, and Maureen Tanner of Arlington; Audry McKenna of Cambridge, and Anne Vaccarest of Medford.

The scholastic awards will also be presented by the Archbishop. Elayne Coyne will receive a gold medal for maintaining the highest average in her class for the four years of her high school course, and the Bausch-Lomb award for excellency in science. The prizes for excellency in Religion and English Composition, offered by the Maryclif Guild, will be given at the Graduation Exercises.

FRANK WITHERELL REYNOLDS

Frank Witherell Reynolds died at the Winchester Hospital on Sunday, May 27 after a brief illness. At eighty three years of age, he had lived at 13 Everett avenue for the past forty one years. He was the husband of the late Maria Adams Reynolds.

Born in Providence, Rhode Island, the son of the late William Henry Reynolds and Mary Emma Witherell Reynolds, he was for many years prominent as an industrial engineer. Formerly President of Lockwood, Greene and Company, Engineers, Mr. Reynolds was instrumental in the design and development of textile mills and other industrial plants throughout the United States.

As a member of the First Congregational Church he had served on the Parish and the Finance Committees. In years past he was actively interested in town affairs.

Mr. Reynolds is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Marion R. Clark, of this town; a son, Arthur W. Reynolds of Andover; three grandchildren, three great grandchildren, and a brother Charles D. Reynolds.

Funeral services were held at the Ripley Chapel, First Congregational Church on Tuesday, May 29, with interment at Wildwood cemetery.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVED IN WINCHESTER SCHOOLS

Memorial Day programs throughout the Winchester Public Schools featured speakers from Winchester Post 97, American Legion, and school boys and girls.

An assembly on Monday morning at Winchester High School featured an address by Commander Lester Gustin who drew particular attention to the attitude toward Memorial Day in his school days here and that implied or expressed today. He commented on the fact that one-third of the school days of the present students have been during times when American men were engaged in war. The significance of Memorial Day, he said, is easily apparent to every family.

Student speakers participated in the program as follows:

Chairman — Cynthia Moses
Pledge of Allegiance — Garland Gray
Prayer — Harold Quigley
"Battle Hymn of the Republic" — Boys' Glee Club
Meaning of Memorial Day — Douglas Hawkins, and Sona Norian
"Semper Fidelis" — Boys' Glee Club

ELECTED TO SENIOR HONORARY SOCIETY

Miss Sarah Luitwieler was recently elected to membership in Marsiens, senior honorary society of College for Women of the University of Rochester.

Miss Luitwieler, a member of the junior class, is president-elect of the Women's Athletic Association and the annual Water Ballet. She served as a student counselor, was chairman of freshman hazing, and was chairman of freshman camp. Miss Luitwieler is a member of Theta Eta sorority.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Luitwieler, 89 Cambridge street, Miss Luitwieler is a graduate of Winchester High School.

FARLEYS VISIT WINCHESTER

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Farley of Richmond, Va., who spent last year in Winchester as occupants of the Marjorie Mills house in Rangely during Mr. Farley's attendance at M. I. T. as a member of the Sloan Fellowship Group, returned to town Tuesday for a visit during Mr. Farley's attendance at the Sloan Group seminar at Tech.

During their stay here they are being extensively entertained by many of their Winchester friends. They are making their headquarters at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sexton in Rangely, where several luncheons and teas have been given for Mrs. Farley. A party of 18 were entertained Wednesday noon at luncheon by Mr. and Mrs. T. Price Wilson, this group including Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lucas who are occupying the Mills house this year during Mr. Lucas' attendance at the Sloan course at Tech, and friends from Cohasset and Hingham.

Others to entertain include Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison of Park avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walsh.

The Farleys are flying back to Richmond this coming Sunday evening.

ENTERTAIN SLOAN GROUP

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Dunn of Grove street are entertaining a large number of gentlemen and ladies of the Sloan Group who are here attending the Sloan Group seminar. Mr. Dunn is a Sloan fellow.

Included in the group are Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burnett of Cargas, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boyer of Saginaw, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. William Fader, Jr., of Pittsburg, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Waslund of Corning, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weber of Corning, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Kenmore, N. Y. and Mr. and Mrs. George Yeomans of Rochester, N. Y.

ELKS TO OBSERVE FLAG DAY

The Winchester Lodge of Elks will have as guest speaker for their Flag Day exercises The Hon. John F. Fenton, Judge of the Mass. Land Court.

The Elks are indeed fortunate in obtaining Judge Fenton, who is an able speaker, one well qualified to speak on an occasion of this kind.

There will also be an exhibition drill by the Immaculate Conception Drum and Bugle Corps of Winchester, one of the outstanding Corps in and around Boston.

The history of our flag is a very interesting one as well as instructive. Those attending these exercises will be well repaid for their time.

ANGLE PARKING ASKED FOR THOMPSON STREET

A petition is being circulated asking for the resumption of angle parking on Thompson street. Copies of the petition are being displayed for signatures by Thompson street stores. The previous angle parking was changed a week ago to parallel parking.

ROSANNE BORDEN

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Professor and Mrs. Neil H. Borden of Winchester announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosanne, to Mr. Marvin V. Marshall of Boston, formerly of Kansas City, Missouri.

Miss Borden graduated from the Winchester High School in 1947, attended Oberlin College in 1947 - 1948, and Mount Holyoke College during the past three years. She will receive her degree from Mount Holyoke on June 4. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Page of Winchester.

Mr. Marshall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Marshall of Kansas City, Missouri. He is a graduate of the University of Missouri, 1943, and the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, 1947. During World War II, he served as a logistics officer on the Staff of Commander Aircraft Seventh Fleet, South Pacific, later as liaison officer for the southeastern United States, and is now a lieutenant, USNR. He taught at the University of Kansas 1947 - 1948 and currently he is a member of the faculty of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

The wedding is to take place at the Church of the Epiphany, Winchester, on September 5.

WINCHESTER REPUBLICAN CLUB

The first meeting of the new 1951 - 52 Executive Board of the Winchester Republican Club was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Robert W. Reynolds, on Thursday afternoon, May 23, 1951. Twelve members were present. Individual chairmen reported on the proposed work of their committees, and of major discussion was the forthcoming fall money making project in charge of the Ways and Means Committee. It was decided that the club hold a dessert bridge-Canasta party in mid-October.

The president brought to the attention of the group The Country Fair to be held at the Topsfield Fair Grounds on June 23, 1951, sponsored by the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee with Frederick Ayer, Jr. as chairman. It is hoped that all local Republican Clubs will undertake some project within the fair that members of the clubs will attend individually this affair characterized as "an old-fashioned Republican party." The Board offered several suggestions as to a possible group activity with a definite announcement to be made later.

Mrs. Percy Bughee of Symmes road entertained at luncheon at the Country Club Tuesday for Mrs. Newton Bughee of Allentown, Pa., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alan Bughee of Middlesex street.

MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The final event in the calendar of the Winchester Mothers' Association is scheduled for Wednesday, June 6 at 2 p. m. At that time all parents of Winchester's school-aged children are invited to come to the High School Auditorium for the annual meeting at which a varied program will be presented.

Punch and cookies served on the terrace or in the foyer of the Auditoruim will provide an opportunity for a chat with other parents preceding the short concert to be given by the Junior High School Glee Clubs at 2:30 o'clock.

During the business session, the brief reports of the eight School Chapters of the Association always reveal an amazing story of ingenuity and achievement.

The guest speaker will be a familiar figure, Mrs. Marion Chandler, who, as Chairman of the School Committee as well as an interested member of the Mothers' Association, will explain "How Your School Committee Serves the Parents of Winchester and Works With the School Department."

All mothers of children attending the Winchester public schools are members of the Winchester Mothers' Association and eligible to vote for the officers and committee chairmen for the coming year who are to be elected at this meeting.

It is also a privilege of the members to bring guests to this meeting at which the accomplishments of the year are reviewed with justifiable pleasure and pride.

Miss Lil Cook, secretary at Dr. P. J. McManus' office is enjoying a two weeks vacation from her duties.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The Thirty-Second Annual Convention of the Department of Massachusetts American Legion Auxiliary will be held Thursday, May 31st, through Saturday, June 2nd at the New Ocean House, Swampscott. WINCHESTER 18 — MALDEN 11

At Malden on May 17, the WHS softball team won a decisive victory, beating Malden 18 - 11, in spite of the weather. After Malden went ahead 4 - 2 in the first inning, Winchester rallied for six runs in the second and five runs in both the third and the sixth innings, while Sonny Smith's effective pitching kept Malden from threatening to tie the score. Gretchen Daschbach pitched the 9th inning, as Sonny moved to right field. Malden's poor defensive play counted for four Winchester runs, while Captain Bette Kneeland led her team offensively by battine in another four runs. Bette and catcher Callie Callahan, each had three hits apiece.

WINCHESTER 12 — STONEHAM 9

On May 21, the WHS softball team managed to squeeze out a 12 - 9 victory over Stoneham. Gretchie Daschbach, the Winchester pitcher, allowed only three hits, but received very little defensive support from her team mates and so was in hot water for the five innings she pitched. Sonny Smith came in to relieve in the sixth inning and received credit for the win, for Winchester, after trailing for four innings, tied the score in the sixth and went ahead to win in the seventh. Jan Collins starred at the plate with four hits and three runs batted in; Bugs Smith also got four hits.

Ted Covert, a student at the University of Mass. is home for a few weeks; he will return and work during the summer months on the college farm at the University.

W. H. S. VS. WOBURN HIGH

Winchester High will play Woburn High at Manchester Field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. This will be the final game of the season for both teams and the Tanners will be out to avenge an earlier 13 - 7 drubbing handed them by the Indians. Since that time Woburn has raced undefeated to the championship of the Northeastern Conference and is hopeful of an invitation to the Eastern Mass. Tournament next week. A second victory by Winchester would just about ruin Woburn's chances for such a bid and the locals are capable of doing just that as they are enjoying a good season themselves.

Stowell Symmes defeated Woburn in the first game but Coach Bartlett is expected to send Charlie Murphy to the mound as it will be the latter's turn to pitch. Both Symmes and Murphy have pitched good ball for the Indians this season and if either one gets any batting support from his teammates, they can set back the Tanners. The line ups:

A TALK TO PARENTS OF TEENERS

Especially planned for the parents of all 6th. graders is the talk to be given under the auspices of the Winchester Mothers' Association by Mr. Raymond Dickman, Principal of the Junior High School. This notice is a final reminder of the place and the time — Mystic School Auditorium at 10 a. m. on Monday, June 4.

Annually Mr. Dickman speaks to the parents of the children who are about to come under his supervision at the Junior High School. This year there is to be a single meeting — rather than one in each of the elementary schools — which all parents of 6th graders are urged to attend, and to which — in response to a number of requests — parents of any young teeners are invited to come.

ALBREE GRADUATES FROM NORWICH

John A. Albree, son of Mr. George N. Albree of 7 Stratford road, and Mrs. Grace M. Albree of 10 Chauncy street, Cambridge, is a candidate for the degree of bachelor of arts, with major in English, at Norwich University's 132nd commencement to be held Sunday, June 10, when the old military college will graduate over 130 seniors.

Mr. Albree, a World War II veteran, who served overseas as a sergeant with the Marine Corps, has been prominent in military work at Norwich. He was picked as a Distinguished Military Student, and he held the rank of first lieutenant in the cadet corps. He also was a member of the varsity hockey team and co-captain of the cheer leaders. His fraternity is Lambda Chi Alpha.

Selected for a commission as a second lieutenant in the Regular Army, he will attend Armored School at Fort Knox, Ky., following his graduation.

MEMORIAL DAY PROGRAM AT LINCOLN SCHOOL

EXPERT RIFLEMAN

Two members of the Winchester High School Rifle Club have won the Expert Rifleman Medal, it was announced today by the National Rifle Association. They are: Joseph B. Perlupo, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno J. Perlupo, 109 Middlesex street; and Russell B. Nielsen, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Nielsen, 98 Middlesex.

Both youngsters first took up the target sport four years ago. Under the guidance of the club instructor, Mr. Carl E. Reed, they have climbed steadily through the [illegible] ... safe [illegible] to teen-aged shooters.

METHODIST NEWSPAPER DRIVE

This Saturday morning, the members of the Finance Committee of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church will conduct a paper drive. George Needham and Harold Bergquist will be in charge.

If you have any papers the men will be pleased to call for them Saturday morning. Call WInchester 6-2285-M or WInchester 6-2159.

OPEN HOUSE AT EPIPHANY CHURCH

An Open House and Tea was held on Sunday, May 27, for the Lower School at Epiphany Church. The Lower School has been under the direction of Mrs. William Towner and has just closed a very full and exciting year. A worship service was held in the main church directed by Mrs. William Wilson, and the girls of the Third Grade presented a play under the supervision of Mrs. Robert Seddon.

Perfect attendance recognition was given to the following:

Jonathan Hopkins
Malcolm Bennett

Bibles were presented to the 41 members of the graduating class who will now be members of the Upper Church School. Following the program, the work done by the pupils during the past year was on exhibition and tea was served by Mrs. William Hopkins, assisted by Mrs. Everett Tisdale, to the pupils, their parents and friends who attended the closing exercises.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Winchester Council of Girl Scouts will entertain at the cabin at a one o'clock luncheon for all leaders and assistant leaders on Friday, June 1.

The high point of the year for the 8th grade Scouts occurs June 7 when they will be honored at a graduation ceremony. At this time they receive their senior pins. Senior Scouts from different troops participate in the service by explaining the various programs and by welcoming the new seniors.

June 6 we are all urged to take advantage of our good fortune by hearing Miss Pauline Fenno at the High School auditorium. Annual association reports will be placed on file so that all the time may be used for the program. No one can afford to miss this opportunity, come and bring your neighbors.

Mothers will plan to greet each other at the Brownie Fashion Show on Monday at the Town Hall.

Troop 29 of the Lincoln School (6th grade) had a most interesting trip on Tuesday, May 22 when they visited WBZ-TV. After waiting several weeks for the appointment they felt amply repaid for their patience. They had a conducted tour through the Studio and Record room and viewed two "line" TV shows. Mr. Galligan, the Doodler, cheerfully autographed cards for the 15 Scouts and presented each with a Book of the Studio. Mrs. Arthur Hewis and Mrs. Charles Fish, the leaders were assisted by Mrs. Swett and Mrs. Parfido, who drove.

The final month's program of Brownie troop 25, Lincoln School, is reported by Scribe Irene Mullins. In May the troop made May baskets for the Hospital and Pins and cards for our own Mothers for Mother's Day. We ended our meetings on May 22 with a swell weinie roast at our Leader's home, Mrs. Herbert Mullins.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST, WINCHESTER

Sunday Services at 11 a. m.
Sunday School is held at the same hour
The church reading room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson Street), Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The text for the lesson-sermon, which will be read in all Christian Science churches next Sunday, is "Soul and Body." Lesson-Sermon, composed of passages from the Bible—King James Version—and the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, is: "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced."

The Golden Text is from Paul's epistle to the Romans: "I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly." (Romans 16:19, 20).

The theme of spiritual awareness will be emphasized in other selections from the Bible, including this one: "Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober." (1 Thessalonians 5:5,6).

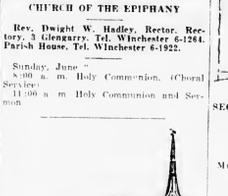

Correlative passages from Science and Health include: Mankind must learn that God is not power in so-called despotism, but a plan of nobleness." (p. 1:2-20).

HIGH PRICE ON TIN PUTS SQUEEZE ON U. S. PURSE

Ancient metallurgists called tin "diabolus metallorum" — devil among metals. Uncle Sam, suffering a sharp pain in the pocketbook because of tin, is apt to agree.

For pans and cans and bottle caps, for bells and books and toothpaste tubes, America depends almost entirely upon far-away mines and upon the National Geographic Society notes. This country has next to no tin of its own. Yet its industries swallow nearly half of the world's total output each year.

Since the Korean war began, the price of tin on the world market has taken a hitch on a skyrocket. It has soared to the highest level in history, nearly two and a half times its value of eight months ago. Amid Congressional charges of international price gouging, wartime controls have been reimposed on U. S. buying of tin.

Tin Travels by Sea

Southeast Asia, ridged by tin-bearing mountains which sweep from Burma, Thailand and Malaya to the Indonesian islands, is the world's major tin source. Huge furnaces in Penang and Singapore pour forth millions of ingots of "Straits tin."

To feed smelters in Western Europe and at Longhorn furnace built during World War II at Texas City, Texas, barrel-chested Bolivian Indians bore into veins of tin ore in Andes mines more than 15,000 feet above sea level, while wheelbarrow-pushing natives scoop it from jungle pockets in the Belgian Congo and Nigeria. Ore and ingot alike must travel thousands of miles by sea before tin reaches American factories. It has traveled thus as long as ships have sailed.

Before Babylon was built, the earliest metalworkers mixed tin-rich earth with copper, and the Age of Bronze was born. Swarthy, hawk-nosed Phoenician sailors pushed their tiny ships into the Atlantic to trade in tin with fur-clad Cornishmen on the English coast. The Romans, through them they gave tin its "devil" nickname, found Cornwall mines only too useful in arming their legions.

Tin in the Stone Age is reputed to break the grip of feudalism in the Middle Ages. Kings and commoners alike found riches or power, as tin was [illegible] Emissaries, [illegible] seemingly regarded long past their usual, permanent and courts. The science of photography, born on pewter sheets, grew up on tintypes. The "tin can" (tin-coated sheet steel) made America independent of the countryside for rations. It built the cities of the world by freeing men from the chore of growing their own food.

Cinderella Metal

Sheered at every today by adjectives such as "tinny" and product nicknames like "tin lizzie," tin has become the Cinderella metal of modern life. The world rides on tin, with automobiles, trains, airplanes and ocean liners using tin in many different ways. Tin plate makes cans and containers for literally thousands of different products. Collapsible tin tubes make many more ready to use at the squeeze of a finger. Tinfoil wraps still others.

Newspapers, magazines and books are printed with type metal, another in the tin alloy legion. Babbitt metal makes possible soft replaceable engine bearings. Solder is the tie that binds. As bell metal, tin rings from the world's churchtowers. Gun metal contains tin; so does the bronze of statues in the park.

By the alchemists' standards, tin "stannum" in Latin was a "base" metal — too common to be ranked with gold or silver or platinum. But in today's troubled world, where a sudden cessation of tin mining would cause industrial crisis and household discomfort, tin is a precious metal — plus.

GRADUATING CLASS OF RED CROSS NURSES AIDES

Left to right standing: Miss Laura Rogers, Superintendent of Nurses of the Winchester Hospital; Mrs. Alice Tait, Miss Virginia Dudley, Miss Janet Cary, Mrs. Mary Morgan, Miss Virginia Cary, Mrs. Mary Borg, Miss Madeline Squires, Miss Mary V. Loftus, R. N. Instructor of class.

NURSES AIDES GRADUATED

A colorful ceremony climaxing the most successful Red Cross Aides Course, 13 graduates were capped by Miss Laura Rogers, Superintendent of Nurses and Nursing Services, at the Nurses Home on Thursday, May 24th, and pinned by Miss Mary Virginia Loftus, RN, who conducted the course.

Reverend Richard Huff of Forest street, Pastor of the Unitarian Church in Stoneham, gave the Invocation, and Dr. Nelson C. Fontneau was the speaker.

Representing Mr. Lewis K. Moore, Chairman of the Winchester Chapter, American Red Cross, who was unable to attend, was Mr. Charles Watson, who spoke for the Red Cross.

In expressing her appreciation to all those who have made both the course and the ceremony itself such a success, the Chairman of Nurses for the Red Cross, Mrs. William F. Hickey, Jr., said: "We shall undoubtedly have to inaugurate another course in the near future, so many have expressed such keen interest."

Mrs. Nelson C. Fontneau, who was in charge of refreshments, made the social hour a very memorable occasion for the newly-capped Aides.

WINCHESTER GARDEN CLUB

On Thursday, May 24, members of the Winchester Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Angelo W. Ghirardini, Chesterford road, for their annual meeting and election of officers. Although the downpour of rain prevented the anticipated garden party cheer reigned indoors and the attractive garden and terrace were viewed through rain washed windows.

After a social hour over dessert and coffee the meeting was called to order by the President. Annual reports reviewed the many interesting and instructive programs given throughout the year, as well as several Federation activities which the Club has supported. Officers elected for the 1951 - 1952 season were President, Mrs. Charles R. Main; Vice-President, Mrs. Donald G. Crowell; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Angelo W. Ghirardini; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Arthur Pitman; Treasurer, Mrs. Waldo V. Lyon.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Carlisle Baker of Chestnut Hill, President of the Massachusetts State Federation of Garden Clubs and Mrs. S. Forrest Martin, our East Middlesex Regional Vice-President. Mrs. Baker spoke of the aims and activities of the Federation and its relation to the individual Garden Club. She announced the coming Flower Show at R. H. Stearns store in Chestnut Hill June 15 and 16, to be staged by members of various clubs, in return for which Stearns will make a generous donation to the Federation scholarship fund used to give deserving young men and women interested in floriculture and agriculture help in obtaining a college education in their chosen field. September 17 - 20 they will take over the seventh floor of Stearns' Boston store to stage a showing of about twenty table settings with centerpieces suitable to many occasions. Mrs. Baker expressed the hope Winchester Club would participate in these shows. Mrs. Martin announced a meeting in Lincoln for Presidents and Program Chairman of Clubs in this district which would be of mutual help in program planning and other Club interests.

With an invitation from Mrs. Robert M. Stone to meet at her lovely summer home in Rockport for lunch and a visit to the Flower Show of the Rockport Garden Club on August 9, the afternoon and the Club season for 1950 - 1951 was brought to a close.

DISTRICT NURSING MEETS JUNE 8

On Friday, June 8, there will be a morning and afternoon meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association at the home of Mrs. Harry E. Damon, Jr., 70 Arlington street. Board members, associate members, and past-presidents will attend this important June meeting, along with invited guests from the Board of Health and the Social Agencies.

Dr. Harry Mueller will speak during the afternoon session on the various phases of pediatrics, touching on current treatments and care of childhood diseases. The afternoon meeting begins at 1:30. The morning session is at 11, with a business meeting, and talk by Mrs. Doris Wiklund, executive director, on the responsibility of the nurses in the new biotics. Members will bring a box lunch, and dessert and coffee will be served by the social committee. Mrs. Henry Moffette will preside, and Mrs. Theodore Browne is chairman of the program.

WILL APPEAR IN BOSTON

Charlotte Nutter of 3 Blackhorse terrace, a seventh grade pupil at Winchester Junior High, and piano pupil of Americo Chaves of Arlington, will play the complete suite, Debussy's Children's Corner, on Thursday, June 7 in John Hancock Hall, as accompanist for a new ballet by Mary Corbett Burns of Arlington. The occasion will mark Miss Nutter's debut as concert pianist.

Another Winchester resident, Suzanne Dresser of Cambridge street, will dance the Shepherd in this work as well as featured dancer in other parts of the evening's program. She will be in the opening number, a demonstration of ballet class; the Golden Ring, with original music by Americo Chaves of Arlington; the Polish mazurka, a national dance; and will dance a solo part as a Falling Star in the Little Match Girl, another original ballet Burns.

THOMAS H. HOARE

TO PRESIDE AT PUBLIC RELATIONS MEETING

Thomas Holton Hoare, of 101 Church street, will preside at the first meeting of the New England Chapter of the Public Relations Society of America at the Hampshire House, Boston, Wednesday evening, June 6th.

Mr. Hoare, a former New York newspaperman and Public Relations director has lived in Winchester for the past ten years. He has an office at 6 Bacon street in Boston and serves clients in New England.

He is a member of the Public Relations committee of the United Community services of Boston, a member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Boston Family Society and the Eye and Ear Hospital of Boston. He lectures at Boston College and at M. I. T. on Public Relations. He was elected president of the New England Chapter of the National Public Relations Society when it was organized last month.

MRS. HAROLD H. GIVEN ELECTED DIRECTOR

Mrs. Harold H. Given was elected Eighth District Director of The Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs at the Annual Convention held at the New Ocean House, Swampscott.

The Eighth District has 21 Senior Clubs and 5 Junior Clubs, total membership approximately 4000.

Mrs. Given is Past President of The Fortnightly, Winchester and Past State Chairman of International Relations of The State Federation.

ROTARY NOTES

President Wade L. Grindle announced this week that the Winchester Rotary Club has contributed $300.00 to the Winchester Scholarship Foundation again this year.

In making this announcement, Mr. Grindle stated that the Rotary Club was pleased to be actively identified with the Scholarship Foundation in its endeavors to be of real assistance to graduates of the Winchester High School.

BLOODMOBILE HERE TODAY

In a recent letter to Mrs. James B. Coon, Chairman of the Red Cross Blood Program in Winchester, Mrs. Gladys N. Toye, Chairman of the Military Manpower Committee, said "Every wounded man I have talked to after returning from Korea — has said "Thank God for the blood sent us."

With her letter was an enclosure clipped from an Army publication, which told the story of a wounded GI, who topped transfusion records, when he received 75 pints of blood. Twenty-year-old Sgt. Richard Kimbrough was a member of one of the first units to enter the Korean combat area. He was wounded by enemy shrapnel, but six days later had returned to duty, recovered from superficial wounds on his arms and legs.

Then he was hit again — this time by a machine gun which put two slugs into his abdomen and two more in his left leg. Sergeant Kimbrough lost a lot of blood which had to be replaced. In one day, he received 25 pints of whole blood donated by the folks back home through the American Red Cross. Later he received 50 pints more. He said: "I could actually feel that new blood running into my veins. It was wonderful."

The Red Cross Bloodmobile is at the First Congregational Church today. Won't you walk in a be a donor?

The Annual Meeting of the American Red Cross, Winchester Chapter, was held Friday evening, May 25th, at the Music Hall on Bacon street.

Mrs. Mary Ranton Witham played the famous Ginn organ beautifully and everyone rose to join in singing the National Anthem. Mr. Lewis K. Moore, Chairman of the Board, greeted the members after Rev. John F. O'Riordan of St. Mary's Church gave the Invocation, and introduced Mrs. Dunbar L. Shanklin who read the Secretary's Report. Mr. Lawrence H. Pexton presented the Treasurer's report.

It was very encouraging to learn that Winchester was the first town in Massachusetts to make its quota in the recent Red Cross campaign and it was for this meritorious service, that Mr. John Volpe, Chairman of the campaign, was presented with the Award of Merit, from the National Red Cross, signed by David Sarnoff, President.

Mr. Roland P. Blodgett of the Medford Mercury was the speaker.

Election of officers followed:

Rev. Walter L. Bailey of the First Baptist Church gave the Benedication. A most pleasant social hour followed the meeting.

MUSIC FESTIVAL AT MYSTIC SCHOOL

Every child in the Mystic School, from the first through the sixth grades, participated in a most impressive Spring Music Festival, presented in the Mystic School Assembly Hall on Thursday, May 24th at 1:45 p. m. The Festival lasted an hour and a half, and was given before a large audience, which listened with an attention which was intensified by the fact that everyone in the audience (or nearly so) had a son or daughter who was taking part.

Mr. Fred M. Felmet, Director of Music, led the Band in the opening number, "Red, White and Blue."

Miss Helen E. Goodwin, Assistant Supervisor of Music, then welcomed the audience. The charm and enthusiasm with which she spoke was felt more deeply than ever, because many realized that Miss Goodwin was soon to leave her position in the Winchester Schools. The program, under Miss Goodwin's capable direction, continued with Mrs. Laughner's 1st Grade Rhythm Band Playing "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers." Mrs. Kirkpatrick's 1st Grade then sang "Feeding the Animals," "My May Basket" and "Dancing Together."

Miss Littlefield's 2nd Grade sang "The Waltz Song" and "The Cowboy." Several children dressed in cowboy and cowgirl outfits livened the song up as they swung their lariats. Mrs. Hartwell's 2nd Grade children gave Rhythmic Interpretations from Records. Forming a circle on the stage, they skipped, ran, jumped, or danced in the circle as the music made them feel like doing.

Both 3rd Grades then sang a group of songs: Miss Salice's boys and girls sang "Cousin Michael" and "The Lonely Song"; while the children in Mrs. Glass's room sang "French Market Song" and "The Sailor."

The String Ensemble played three numbers as the next feature on the program. Cynthia Dennett at the piano, Richard Niles playing the cello, and Helen Bolster, Cynthia Dunn, Nancy Clark and Jill Swonger, violinists, comprised the advanced group, which played "The Ash Grove" and the "Jenny Lind Song." The beginning group, Peter Bryant, Jean Gross, David Van Ummersen, Robert DeRivera, Joel Peckham, Robert Boone, Irene Kearns, Andrea Lousignnu and Jacqueline Keane, joined the advanced group to play one number, "The Whip."

Miss Jurgensen's and Miss Woodell's 4th Grades joined together to sing three correlation songs about countries which they have studied. "Alpine Shepherds" was about Switzerland, "Dame Hilda" was about Holland, and "Song of Mexico" about Mexico.

Miss Wood's 5th Grade sang a number of songs in two parts to show the development of two-part music. The titles of these songs were "Four Grains of Corn," "Lullaby of an Infant Chief," "Remembrance" and "Moral Song."

The faultless technique and joy in performance of the 6th Grade students was proof both of her excellent teaching, and of the fine system on which Miss Goodwin has based that teaching. Even to a casual observer, it was obvious that the children not only loved the music, but had mastered the technique of three-part singing. Mrs. Thompson's pupils joined with Mrs. McLean's pupils in the following songs in three parts: "Island of My Desire," "Bend to the Oar" and "The Big Carol."

At the close of the program, Miss Goodwin pointed out a number of pictures on display around the hall. These pictures had been painted by the children to illustrate ideas which the music suggested to them while they were listening to records of classical music during their music-appreciation hours. Books on music were also on display, and Miss Goodwin particularly recommended "American Singer Series," American Book Company, C. C. Birchard and Company; and "Our Singing World," Ginn and Company.

The program was concluded with the Band playing a second selection, that perennial favorite, "The Marines' Hymn."

Miss Frances Dodd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Dodd, 86 Bacon street, a sophomore at Vermont Jr. College in Montpelier, will graduate at exercises to be held in Alumni Hall on June 3.

MISS PAULINE FENNO

UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITY FOR WINCHESTER

We, in Winchester, are extremely fortunate in being able to hear Miss Pauline Fenno at the High School Auditorium on June 6 at 8 P. M.

This was to have been the last meeting of the season for the Winchester Girl Scout Council, but since Miss Fenno is such a drawing card, we are putting all reports on file so you may all have the wonderful opportunity of hearing such a dynamic speaker.

Miss Pauline Fenno of Rowley served from 1938 to 1945 as a member of the staff of Lady Reading, head of Great Britain's Women's Voluntary Services. She worked with Lady Reading from the very outset and is familiar with the organization of a woman's defense corps, having seen one in action throughout the Battle of Britain.

Each one of us has a specific responsibility and job in the preparedness program, but who knows what his job is? Here's the chance to answer this question. This is an open meeting and all residents are invited. Our first challenge in the world of tomorrow is to see that there is a tomorrow.

ATOM DETECTION NETWORK FORMED

A plan for recruiting a civilian corps of atomic radiation "minutemen" got underway today as Mr. Connelly began enlisting local owners of Polaroid Land Cameras for emergency radiation detection.

These cameras, tens of thousands of which are in use throughout the country, can produce a completely developed and printed picture in one minute. Owners may obtain free of charge through Winchester Camera Shop of which Mr. J. J. Connelly is the manager, a tiny "tell-tale" clip which, when inserted inside the camera, renders it highly useful for measuring gamma radiation. The store is contacting all of its Polaroid Camera owners to equip them with the clip, and is cooperating with local Civil Defense authorities in organizing the monitor corps.

METHODIST CHURCH SCHOOL GRADUATION

On Sunday, June 10th at the morning worship service — 10:45 a. m. the Church School will hold their graduation exercises. Children are asked to be at the church at 10:45 a. m. to prepare for the processional to the Church Sanctuary. Members and friends are cordially invited to the graduation program.

OPEN HOUSES JUNE 9

Several members of the Winchester Historical Society are planning to attend the Open Houses at Holliston on Saturday, June 9, from 2 to 6 p. m., under the auspices of the Holliston Historical Society, and the Holliston Garden Club. Many charming and interesting old houses, thoughtfully restored, are open to the public that day — twenty-one houses in all, with flower arrangements in each, and an exhibit of early arts and crafs. Luncheon and supper will be served at the First Congregational Church and the those who wish it, may have transportation to the houses that day in old horse-drawn vehicles!

Holliston was settled in 1659, and the town is a lovely one. Pictures in last Sunday's Herald rotogravure section featured these houses which will be open on June 9, and made the occasion sound most interesting.

CORPORATE COMMUNION

Corporate Communion for Church of Epiphany choir at 8 a. m. June 3. Choral service with special music. All invited to share in this worship.

W. H. S. 14 — STONEHAM H. S. 3

Winchester High snapped out of its batting slump as the Indians belted Stoneham High 14 - 3 at Manchester Field on Saturday afternoon. The locals broke out for 14 solid bingles, including a double by Charlie Murphy with the bases full, triples by Tony Cirurso and Peter Coon, and a long home run by Murphy. The Indians scored in every inning except the third as Jim Griffin led the way with three hits and Charlie Murphy and "Jocko" Sericka scored three runs apiece.

Behind such a barrage of hits, Charlie Murphy had an easy time on the mound as he chalked up his seventh win of the season against a solitary defeat. Murphy really had his stuff working as he granted only two infield hits over the seven innings he worked while striking out nine batters and giving up six bases on balls. Stowell Symmes continued the good work over the final two innings as he struck out four batters and the only hit off his delivery was a fly to right field that was lost in the sun. Prep Keyes contributed the fielding gem of the games as he made a fine running catch in right center of a line drive that would have scored the two Stoneham runners on base at the time.

WYMAN SCHOOL CIRCUS DAY

The Circus came to the Wyman School last Friday when Mrs. Edna Smith's first grade group staged an original play "The Circus" preceded by a gay circus parade. Suggested by the class current reading book, "Around Green Hills," the play vividly brought to life favorite characters and scenes from certain chapters in the book. Such details as gayly illustrated programs, a Big Top circus mural on the stage and animal cages in the foreground, colorful and unusually realistic costumes all helped to transport the audience into the atmospheric excitement of the Big Tent.

Following is the cast:

Announcer ..... Robert Stewart
Wendy (The little girl we are reading about this year) ..... Patricia Sexton
Kim (The little boy we are reading about) ..... Paul Valeski
The Wendy and Kim's dog ..... Pat's toy dog
Mrs. Day (One of the many characters in our story) ..... Laurel Ingraham

Many, many thanks to all those who helped to make "The Circus" a success.

TWO MEASURES TO RELIEVE TRAFFIC CONDITIONS

In the House of Representatives last week two measures to help to relieve traffic congestion in Arlington and the Mystic Valley Parkway Area were passed.

These measures were introduced by Representative Henry E. Keenan of Arlington. One is to reroute Route 60 in Arlington, Medford, Malden, Everett and Revere for pleasure vehicles. The other is to build a highway on the East side of the Mystic River to take care of the traffic coming down from Winchester and Woburn and points beyond and thus alleviate the necessity for this traffic doubling back into Arlington on the way to Cambridge and Boston. Both measures call for the Metropolitan District Commission and the Department of Public works to cooperate in relieving these congested traffic areas. This will be accomplished not only by the building of a new highway but also by the erection of information signs directing traffic to avoid the present congested areas.

Mr. George E. French of Wayland, who died May 27, was the father of Mr. Edward V. French of Ledgewood road.

RADIO ENGINEERS HEAR EXPERTS TELL OF JOB FOR ELECTRONICS

More than 1,400 electronic and radio engineers, attending the second annual conference of the Institute of Radio Engineers at the Biltmore Hotel, heard Gen. Omar Bradley's top electronics adviser and one of the country's foremost radio experts describe America's chances in the "microwave war" last night.

Dr. Harold B. Richmond of 30 Swan road, Winchester, chairman of the board of General Radio Company, Cambridge, and Maj. Gen. H. M. McClelland "a little bit tangent in their opinions," as one listener put it — told those attending the second conference of the IRE that "indisputably electronics would be an important part in our daily lives — peace or war."

Dr. Richmond, who in an interview lashed at the "excess control policies of the present administration," said he believed, from personal observation, that European countries were equal to the United States and "in some cases ahead of us" in technical instrumentation of radio properties.

He told the group, as the principal speaker, that he had observed in England and other European countries a "let's wait until we see what America does attitude," and then a sudden unleashing of technical measuring devices that equaled ours and awakened the "American to the fact that maybe we aren't so far ahead after all."

He said "we have a lot more television because of an economic landslide, but our technical advancements are being equaled."

It was the largest conference ever held by the Institute of Radio Engineers. This year's attendance also included members of a newly formed professional group of Airborne Radio and Electrical Engineers.

OUIMET AND PARTNER WIN AT COUNTRY CLUB

Notwithstanding the very rainy and cold weather, a field of 40 turned out at the Country Club last Friday for the annual mixed foursome alternate stroke competition. The honors for the event were taken by the famous Frances Ouimet, who played with his niece, Dorothy Sullivan of Marshfield with a gross of 178 - 83 - 81. They had a five stroke lead on Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Richart, Jr., 10 - 16 - 86, and Mrs. Donald M. Belcher and Horace Ford, 13 - 13 - 86.

Mr. and Mrs. Richart and Mrs. Belcher and Ford shared the second and third gross awards. The first three net prizes went to Mrs. Frank Howes of Weston and Henry Mitchell of Wellesley, 91 - 75; Barbara McKay and Lou Saba of Thorny Lea, 90 - 76; Mrs. Edward Kasper and Robert Johnson of Winchester, 92 - 76.

There was a three-way tie for fourth net among Mr. and Mrs. William Selberg of Winchester, 87 - 79; Mr. and Mrs. John Dingwell of Wells Ave., 92 - 79, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and Leo Purtle of Winchester, 91 - 74.

Other Winchester scorers were: Mr. and Mrs. John J. Lynch, Winchester ..... 102 - 82
Marjorie Wilson and J. W. Thomson, Jr., Winchester 87 - 82
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wansley, Winchester ..... 94 - 82
Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Rosner, Jr., Winchester 86 - 82
Mr. and Mrs. A. Kimball and Lt. Carol Codling, Winchester 93 - 83
Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell Jr., Winchester 101 - 84

PRESENTED MAYTIME MUSICALE

A Maytime Musicale was held last Thursday night, May 24th in the Music Hall by the Winchester Unitarian Choir under the direction of Mary Ranton Witham. The hall was filled to its capacity with only standing room left before the 8:30 curtain. It was their fourth annual Evening of Familiar Music.

This outstanding choir of forty voices noted for frequent performances of the finest of classical sacred music showed amazing versatility in its interpretation of popular music which included such numbers as Happy Talk, Sumertime and Dancing in the Dark.

The "Haffenpuffs" a quartette of Yale boys whose second tenor, Thomas Quarles, is a member of the choir. Their novel a cappella arrangements was one of the many highlights of the evening.

Grace Norian, a talented concert pianist, and assistant in music at the Unitarian Church charmed the audience with her ability.

Eleanore Howe, Muriel Thorley, Richard Smith and George Fortune soloists of the choir showed their concert abilities in their groups of solos. Particularly noteworthy was George Fortune, whose dramatic rendition of "I've Got Plenty of Nothing." Eleanore Howe as soloist with the choir showed a voice, of not only great lyric beauty, but also of dramatic power. Muriel Thorley's singing of "Deep Purple" displayed a voice of thrilling warmth.

The most enjoyable group were the tunes from "Call Me, Madam," with original arrangements made by Mrs. Witham.

Mary Norian and Bob Evans and the chorus were delightful in Marrying For Love and a four handed piano interlude in quickened tempo made a contrast to the dream like quality of the melody.

Sherman Russell with a quintette consisting of June Moffette, Becky Robinson, Bunny Gardner, Justine King and Janet Burbank interpreted delightfully "The Best Thing For You."

Sona Norian and Bob Howe were a thoroughly charming youthful couple whose voices and acting were most enjoyable.

The final tune in the "Call Me Madam" group, "Its a Lovely Day To-Day" started with a well blended trio consisting of Dottie Brandt, Joanne Sprague and Muriel Ganz followed by the chorus.

The girls sang two numbers "Happy Talk" and "Summertime," Sophia Gardner sang the solo with humming background.

The early American Folk Song, The Blue Tail Fly, featuring Reggie Brandt and Alan Mowatt was a colorful and amusing number which was followed by a comic skit "Barnacle Bill" with Janet Burbank displaying her prowess as a comedienne assisted by James Joslin and Charles R. Carter.

After the musicale there was a refreshment social hour during which many of the enthusiastic addience were loud in their praises of the choir and its director.

WINCHESTER GIRLS GRADUATE

Miss Virginia Farnsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr. of 8 Worthen road, and Miss Sylvia A. Gagan, daughter of Mr. Raymond A. Gagan of 21 New Meadows road, will be graduated at the annual Commencement of House in the Pines, Norton, June 3.

Miss Gagan will take part in "The Taming of The Shrew" which is to be presented as a part of the Commencement festivities.

This year Miss Farnsworth has been chairman of the dining room committee and in the fall she plans to enter Colby Junior College.

Play at the Winchester Country Club this coming Sunday, June 3, will be four ball vs par, 2-3 handicap.

WYMAN SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The annual meeting of the Mothers' Association of the Wyman School was held in the school auditorium on May 23 at 1:45. Mrs. Virginia Dickey, retiring president, conducted the business part of the meeting. Mrs. Richard Bateman, secretary, read the secretary's report which gave an account of the year's work which included a Get-acquainted Meeting in the fall, an Open House at the school, and an Evening With Bill Cunningham. The treasurer's report showing a profitable year was given by Mrs. Daniel McLaughlin. Mrs. McLaughlin also read the report of the Ways and Means Committee. An interesting and informative review of the Sixth Grade Dancing program was given by Mrs. Arthur Hertig. An account of the committee for teachers' luncheons was presented by Mrs. Greta Kitell. Mrs. Paul White told of the fine work done hy the various room mothers.

Mrs. Robert Fletcher, chairman of the nominating committee, presented next year's slate which was unaminously approved by the members of the association.

Before turning the meeting over to next year's president, Mrs. Ronald Wyman, Mrs. Dickey presented Miss Mabel Lowry with three record-playing machines which are this year's Mothers' Association gift to the school. In accepting these players, Miss Lowry thanked the Mothers on behalf of the teaching staff and spoke a few inspirational words on the subject, Hope.

Mrs. Wyman's first duty as new president was to introduce Mrs. Hatchell and her fifth grade chorus. They presented a very enjoyable program which featured several solos. The school band under the direction of Mr. Fred Felmet played several selections which pleased a receptive audience.

Following the business meeting and the program a social hour was enjoyed in the kindergarten room. The punch which featured flowers in the ice delighted everyone. This meeting brought to a close the year's activities.

Klaus Halm, of 34 Fells road, a senior at the School of Liberal Arts at Tufts College, was initiated into the Delta chapter of Phi Beta Kappa at exercises held recently on the campus. He was one of seven students elected to the honorary society in March. Halm, whose father, George S. Halm, is a professor at Tufts, has been president of the Canterbury Club, a society composed of English majors at the college, during the past year.

RED FEATHER

SYMBOL OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

In announcing the $21,165 allocation granted Winchester's Red Feather services toward operating costs in 1951, Walcott B. Thompson, president of Winchester Community Chest, points out that this figure does not represent by any means the actual service given the townspeople throughout the year by Red Feather health, social service and recreation agencies in general. He emphasizes also that all allotments from last fall's campaign follow the customary procedure of deficit financing over and above other sources of income.

The local chest agencies will receive these amounts: Winchester Hospital, $7500; Home for Aged People, $4590; Girl Scout Council, $4,500; Ditsrict Nursing Association, $3450; Immaculate Conception Conference, St. Vincent de Paul, $950; and Camp Lane (Boy Scouts), $175.

In addition to more than 2,000 men, women and children using these local agencies, hundreds more benefit from other Red Feather servies. Winchester Boy Scouts, for instance, upwards of 600 strong, share in the $14,800 allotment to Fellsland Council for Scouting administration in Medford, Stoneham, Winchester and Woburn.

While the majority of residents use Winchester Hospital, the latest year's record reveals that 503 local patients were cared for in 19 other Red Feather hospitals. In the same period 691 residents used 27 out-of-town Red Feather family, youth and children's services. Among these, the Family Society of Greater Boston helps those with family problems through its Fellsway office at 5 High street, Medford.

Behind these cold figures in dollars and cents and services rendered are some 70 volunteer men and women who devote endless hours each year to fair allocation of funds raised in the annual Red Feather campaigns. For the first time this year budgets in metropolitan communities have been worked out by local committees in cooperation with three group committees: family and children; youth and recreation; and health and homes for the aged. Final allocations are the decision of the central budgeting and allocating committee.

This new process, while requiring more time, is a decided improvement and provides a more equitable method of determing allotments for all communities, in the opinion of the committees. Strictest economy in any case, they point out, will be required of all agencies to keep within the limits of the funds raised. Hospital allotments, apportioned by a central committee, are based this year on the amount of free or partially free care given patients unable to pay full costs.

The generous response of 3,158 individuals and firms in last fall's Red Feather campaign, conducted by 539 volunteers under the leadership of Charles W. Butler, assures the people of Winchester of continued services by Red Feather health and welfare agencies.

Winchester's budget committee for the past year included Clinton W. Bennett, chairman, Shernan B. Russell, secretary, Dwight E. Bellows, William J. Croughwell, Franklin A. Flanders, Alfred J. Higgins, Richard J. Johnson, Donald J. Lewis, Edward J. McDevitt, Jr., Ronald H. Robnett, Ben R. Schneider, Robert B. Singer and John C. Willis.

Robert J. Sullivan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Sullivan of 30 Oak street, has enlisted in the Air Corps and is stationed at Sampson Air Force, New York.

Charles E. Flynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flynn of 35 Ivan road, is a candidate for a degree at the 95th commencement exercises of Syracuse University, June 4. Flynn, who has majored in economics in the College of Liberal Arts, is scheduled to receive his baccalauareate degree. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon social fraternity. He is a graduate of Winchester High School.

Donald J. W. H. S. 6 — DANVERS 0

Winchester High defeated Danvers High by a score of 6 - 0 in a non-league contest at Manchester Field on Monday afternoon. It was a well-played game by the Indians making six hits while Danvers collected only three, with neither team getting an extra-base knock. Stowell Symmes turned in another superb pitching performance as he limited Danvers to two hits in the good innings he worked while striking out seven and passing two batters. John DiIorio twirled the final two innings and gave up a solitary single as he continued to look good on the mound.

The story of the Winchester victories was wrapped up in the fifth inning when the locals bunched four of their six hits to score four runs. With one out Keyes started the trouble with a single to right. Dalton and DiIorio worked the pitcher for bases on balls to fill the bases. Peter Coon came through with a drive to right which was good for two runs. Crowley singled sharply to left to drive in DiIorio and after Cirurso went out, Serieka followed with a smash to center to score Coon. "Jocko" Serieka was the only player on either team to collect two hits while, strangely enough, two of the Danvers' pitchers and a pinch hitter collected their safeties.

W. H. S. 16 — MELROSE 4

Winchester High pounded the offerings of three Melrose twirlers as they banged out 16 hits for 16 runs to post a 16 - 4 victory over the League-leading Melrose High nine at Melrose on Tuesday afternoon. The locals drove Dick Kenefic, the Melrose ace, from the mound in the third inning which marked the first time in 11 games this season that he has failed to finish although he had dropped an earlier 4 - 2 defeat to Stoneham.

Charlie Murphy, "Jocko" Serieka, and Peter Coon were the top sluggers for the Red and Black with three hits apiece, Murphy and Serieka delivered vital hits on two different occasions with men on base while Coon opened both rallies in the second and third innings with sharp bingles to center field. The local's display of the art of clouting hit as they banged out hits in every one of their five scoring innings and did not collect a safety in their non-scoring turns at bat.

In addition to the tremendous show of power of the whole team, the local's star of the event for the victory must go to Charlie Murphy who pitched great ball for the locals. Murphy gave up only three hits while striking out 10 batters and granting five bases on balls. Two of the three Melrose hits were early scratches in the first but did not come until the seventh and was a topped roller down the third base line. Murphy was in trouble only in the third when he passed three men in succession with one out and all three scored on two errors and a fielder's choice. Strangely enough, in spite of his great pitching, his teammates did not give him good support as they committed six errors but Murphy was more than equal to the occasion in each case.

ENGLISH CAR SOLD HERE

The Hillman Minx, famous quality British motor car in the low price class, is now available at Hanson McPhee Engineering, Inc., 160 Cross street, for immediate delivery, it was announced here today.

Modern styling combined with the most advanced British design characterizes this 4-cylinder, high performance sedan, which is slightly smaller than the average American car. A top speed of 70 miles per hour is assured, according to the manufacturers, while gasoline mileage ranging from 30 to 35 miles per gallon is reported by owners in this aera.

A product of the famed Rootes Group of Britain, the Hillman Minx is distributed throughout the world, and it already sold and serviced in 119 countries. Coincidentally, with its introduction into the United States, the manufacturer established a nation-wide network of service stations and spare parts depots which assure service in all parts of the country, it has been announced.

Already approximately $1,000,000 worth of parts are on hand at the Group's American headquarters in Long Island City, New York.

Another Rootes Group product distributed by Hanson McPhee Engineering, Inc., is the Commer Van which is so popular for store delivery service, due to its ease of handling in city traffic and economy of operation.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL MUSIC FESTIVAL

All pupils of all grades I — IV inclusive entertained their parents and friends on Wednesday, May 23 at 1:45 p. m., with a delightful and different music festival. The program, being built up around the musical studies of each grade, gave a fine general picture of the advancement in the musical ability of the pupil with each higher grade.

Following is a brief synopsis of the program:

Formal greeting by Emily Allen.

Grades I and II — (teacher, Mrs. Wells).

These combination grades entertained with a varied program of bird songs. The pupils, gaily costumed in flower-petal head dress enjoyed the singing of their songs fully as much as their assembled guests enjoyed hearing them.

Grade II — (teacher, Miss Haley).

The pupils of this grade depicted very clearly, on large cards, the various musical notes. Members of their group spoke briefly on the name and value of each note. They also gave a demonstration of sight singing.

Grade III — (teacher, Miss Houghton).

The 3rd grade varied the musical program by rendering several of their favorite songs, covering the various phases of their musical studies.

Grades III and IV — (teacher, Mrs. Graham).

The pupils of this combination grade combined to show their studies of two-part singing in its beginning, and also showed how they were able to work together with their music.

A violin ensemble, made up of pupils from the IVth and Vth grades varied the program at this point. Two numbers were very well rendered, one by the advanced group, and one by all the violin students.

Grade IV — (teacher, Mrs. Mathews).

Mrs. Mathews' pupils gave a varied and smooth rendition of a series of songs to show the correlation of music with their studies of the different countries.

Grade V—(teacher, Mrs. Nault).

The perfection of two-part singing was shown by this class in their smooth and pleasing program of two-part songs.

Grade VI — (teacher, Miss Roberts).

Miss Roberts' class gave an interesting program of American music, showing the development of folk music in America.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

One recommendation of the Committee on Names, the Selectmen have approved the following names for new streets:

DICK SPENCER SHOOTING IN THE WEST

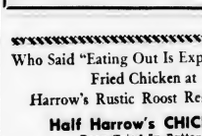

The Arundel Archery Club, of Kennebunk, Maine, has recently learned that one of their members, Dick Spencer of 8 Yale street, Winchester, who contributed largely in the development of the Arundel Course, has been shooting in the Rocky Mountains. Dick is a member of the U. S. Army Air Force at Lowry Field, Denver, Colorado, and is attending school there. Last Sunday, during a tournament, he shot the Mile High Course with Mr. and Mrs. Love, owners of the Fleetwood Archery Co., and received a medal as third man in the "Archer Class". He was interested to find that the Mile High Club has a field course similar to Arundel and is laid out in the midst of beautiful large Rocky Mountain Pines. Dick expects to graduate from Career Guidance school and return to Winchester for leave, sometime around the middle of June.

THE WINCHESTER STAR.

VOL. LXX NO. 42 THE WINCHESTER MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, JUNE 8, 1951 PRICE TEN CENTS

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION SUNDAY AT 6:30

One hundred and thirty-three diplomas will be awarded to the Class of 1951 of Winchester High School on Sunday evening, June 10.

Exercises on Manchester Field will begin at six-thirty. Prior to the processional, the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar, the High School Band will play a few selections as the guests are assembling.

Awards will be made by Mrs. Christine E. Greene, Chairman of the Winchester Scholarship Foundation's Scholarship Committee, and by Principal Wade L. Grindle.

Diplomas and Jere E. Downs scholarships will be awarded by Mrs. Marion Chandler, Chairman of the School Committee.

Class members who will address the class and guests will be President Robert Mirak, Carol Hawkins, David Archibald, Sheila Gray, and Harris MacDonald.

Admission to the Graduation Exercises Sunday evening will be by ticket, a limited number of which has been supplied to each member of the class.

On Saturday evening the class will meet in the High School gymnasium for the annual Class Night dinner, entertainment, and yearbook autographing. Dinner will be served at six, and will be followed by the customary class night orations and musical selections.

One of the high points of the evening will be distribution of the Aberjona, 1951 yearbook.

Seniors will assemble in the Junior High School gymnasium at seven this evening for the final rehearsal for the graduation exercises. This will be the only rehearsal which is held at a time when all members of the class can attend. It will be very important for those boys and girls who accepted employment prior to the close of school.

In the event of inclement weather on Sunday, the Graduation Exercises will be postponed until favorable weather conditions prevail. A "No-School" signal on Sunday will be sounded in the event of a postponement.

ELK'S FLAG DAY EXERCISES

On Thursday evening, June 14 at 7 p. m., the Winchester Lodge of Elks, in compliance with the statutes of the Grand Lodges, will honor the American Flag by holding public exercises on the High School field.

A very colorful program has been arranged, beginning with a parade at 7 p. m. Winchester organizations will participate in the exercises, including the well known Immaculate Conception Drum and Bugle Corps. The Immaculate drill team will give an exhibition drill preceding the exercises. Also in the line of march and providing the music for the exercises will be the Woburn city band, under the direction of Edson L. Kimball. Seats will be available for all who attend.

Newell W. Purington, Exalted Ruler of Winchester Lodge and his suite of officers will exemplify the Flag Day ritual: James L. Kelliher, Past Exalted Ruler, Past District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of Medford Lodge, will give the colorful and inspiring history of the American Flag, and the principal speaker will be the Hon. John E. Fenton, Past Exalted Ruler, Past District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler, Past President Mass. State Elks Association. Bro. Fenton is a member of Lawrence Lodge, and is judge of the Mass. Land Court. He is a fine speaker and those who attend will be well rewarded.

Carl H. Thomas, Esteemed Loyal Knight, Chairman of the Flag Day committee and the officers and members of the Winchester Lodge cordially invite all to attend these exercises, and to show your allegiance to our Flag by displaying the colors on Flag Day, June 14.

WINFORD WAY SWAMP COMMITTEE

Membership in the Winford Way Swamp Committee was announced this week. This committee was provided for at the March town meeting as a result of the tragic drowning of several young Medford boys in a swampy pond just over the line in Medford at the end of Winford Way. The Winchester Committee is to cooperate with Medford and State authorities in any steps that can be taken to eliminate the danger.

The Committee comprises:

Don S. Greer, 372 Highland avenue, appointed by Selectmen.

George H. Gowdy, 4 Lantern Lane, appointed by Park Commissioners.

Alexander M. Clark, 3 Greeley road, appointed by Moderator.

MISS TUFTS TO WED MR. CASSIDY

Jeanne Elizabeth Tufts, daughter of Mrs. Bowen Tufts of Arlington will be married on Saturday, June 9 at 4 o'clock ceremony to Mr. Frank Cassidy of New York.

Rev. Dwight Hadley of the Church of the Epiphany of Winchester will perform the ceremony. A very simple wedding is planned for only family and close relatives.

The couple will be at the Priscilla Beach Theatre this summer.

WINCHESTER

To Dog Owners:

Your attention is called to Article III Section 10A and 10B By-Laws of the Town of Winchester, Massachusetts.

SECTION 10A. No dog shall be permitted to run at large in the town at any time unless it shall have been vaccinated against rabies within the preceding twelve months and evidence thereof shall have been filed in the office of the Police Department.

SECTION 10B. Any owner or keeper of the dog who violates the provision of Section 10A shall be subject to a fine of not more than $10.00 for each offense.

For the purpose of complying with this law the Board of Health has arranged to conduct a clinic in the basement of the Town Hall on Wednesday, June 13, 1951 from 1 to 4 P. M.

A fee of 50 cents (fifty cents) will be charged to cover the cost of vaccine.

Please bring the license number of dog.

CENTER CHANGES

Tilley And Telephone Take New Locations

Winchester center will see some important changes this fall. The B. F. Tilley Co. on Church street will give up its present location and move to Thompson street where the firm will occupy the present Telephone office.

The Telephone Company will move from its present location to the former store of the Converse Fruit Co. on Main street at the corner of Converse Place.

The Telephone Company needs more room and the new location will provide this. The Tilley Company seeks a more desirable location than it at present enjoys.

G. Raymond Bancroft, giving up his present store on Mt. Vernon street, has not found a new location yet.

With the demolition of the two top stories of White's Block at the corner of Main and Church streets, the first floor is to be lowered to street level. Work on this building will be carried on during the summer, and already the roof of the one story building which will ultimately occupy the site, has been laid. The work of cleaning out the debris left from the recent fire is still progressing, and the work of removing the two top stories will start immediately.

WILL WED TOMORROW

The wedding of Miss Joan Leslie Crump and Mr. John Douglas Hanlon will take place this Saturday, June 9th, at the Trinity Episcopal Church in Cranford, N. J.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Crump of 175 Linden Place, Cranston. She will be given in marriage by her father and Rev. Frank Carthy, rector of Trinity Church, will officiate. She has chosen for her wedding dress a creation of white lace, ballerina length, with finger-tip veil, and will carry lilies of the valley.

Mr. Hanlon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hanlon, of Bridge street, Winchester, will have as his groomsman Mr. Carlton P. Chandler of Wollaston.

Mrs. Henry Slausen, Jr., of Englewood, N. J., will be matron of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Frances M. Liddy of Morris Plains, N. J., and Miss Ruth M. Walter of Columbia City, Iowa. They will wear dresses of white embroidered organdy over pale green, and their bouquets will be white daisies.

Following the twelve o'clock ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, the ushers for both the ceremony and reception being Messrs. Francis F. Rainey of Southern Pines, N. C., Thomas S. Dunlap of Wollaston, Mass., Francis A. Chapman of East Providence, R. I., and Galbraith M. Crump, the bride's brother.

They are planning a trip through New England for their honeymoon and are to make their future home at 175 Benefit street, Providence.

MRS. LOUISE BUDGELL

Mrs. Louise Budgell of 13 Wildwood street, passed away after a brief illness at the Winchester Hospital Saturday, June 2nd, in her 84th year.

Mrs. Budgell was the widow of the late William John Budgell and is survived by three children, Mrs. Henry F. Ripley of Hingham, Elysbeth T. and Paul T. Budgell of Winchester. She also leaves 4 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Budgell was for many years President of the New England District of the Women's Baptist Home Mission Society, former Vice President the Women's Baptist Social Union, and a member of the Board of the New England Baptist Hospital. Always an earnest church worker her great joy was the raising of $125,000.00 during her Presidency of the New England District of the Women's Baptist Home Mission Society as a golden jubilee offering.

She was an ardent worker in the Winchester Baptist Church and was one of the founders of the Thrift Shop.

Her joy was in the Church to:
Reach up! and in the hands of God
Place trustfully thine own,
And for Thy need He'll make indeed
His will to guide thee known
And give Thee strength and vision, too
That gracious well to do.

ELECTED TO AD CLUB

Mr. Morris B. Kerr was re-elected secretary and Mr. Harold Bugbee elected a director, for two years, to the Advertising Club of Boston at a meeting held on Tuesday.

Mr. Raymond C. Strawbridge, who has been president of the club, was succeeded by Mr. Andrew C. Quale of Milton.

SCHOOL BUILDING COMMITTEE ANNOUNCED

The long-waited Building Committee for Additional Facilities for Senior and Junior High Schools was announced on Wednesday, and will now attempt to formulate plans for solving this bitterly controversial problem which will prove satisfactory at least to a large enough majority of the town's voters.

Provisions for the new committee were made at the March Town meeting and in accordance with the vote of the delegates the committee comprises nine members. Two have been appointed by the School Committee and the Planning Board, each from its own membership. William J. Spears, Jr., of 2 Fernway is the School Committee member and Ralph H. Bonnell of 10 Fells road is the Planning Board nominee.

The remaining seven members have been appointed by the Moderator, but certain restrictions were laid down in this connection. One member of the new committee had to be chosen from each of the former Committee on School Facilities and Activities, from the former Junior High School Addition Building Committee and from the former High School and Enlarged Junior High School Building Committee. Respectively these members are Franklin J. Lane of 1 Drexel avenue, Charles A. Main, 2nd, of 52 Salisbury road, and Robert J. Fletcher of 72 Wedgemere avenue.

Rounding out the committee are James E. Chaffe, 5 Highland terrace; Melville I. Kishlei, 21 Canterbury road; Forrest L. Pitman of 36 Mt. Pleasant street; and J. Joseph Tansey of 19 Canal street. These four were among the nominees of a committee unsuccessfully offered the Town Meeting delegates at the March meeting by the Referendum Committee, the members of which had consistently opposed the building proposals of the High School and Enlarged Junior High School Building Committee.

50TH ANNIVERSARY

Irving C. Blodgett of 4 Harrington road, has just celebrated his 50th anniversary in the service of the Boston and Maine Railroad and has received a 50-year gold service pass from President E. S. French.

Blodgett is Supervisor of Schedules in the Mechanical Department of the railroad and entered the service May 1, 1901. In a letter of congratulations that accompanied the pass, President French said:

"It has just come to my attention that, on May 1st, you observed the Golden Anniversary of your association with the Boston and Maine Railroad, which commenced on May 1st, 1901. This is an exceptional achievement, symbolizing, as it does, a long and happy collaboration — and one of which we are no less proud than you!

"I am pleased indeed, therefore, to say 'Congratulations to you!' and hand you herewith, as a small token of our appreciation of your loyalty, your fifty years' service gold pass.

"May this Pass, which comes to you with our very best wishes, not only be of practical service to you on many memorable occasions but also be a source of increasing satisfaction to you by way of keeping you in close touch with your many friends on the Boston and Maine."

This pass is good for life without renewal over all lines of the Boston and Maine Railroad.

MAKE REUNION RESERVATIONS AT ONCE

Members of the Winchester High School Class of 1926, who have not yet done so, are urged to send in their reservations for the 25th reunion of the class on June 16 at once, so that dinner provisions can be made. Reservations should be sent to the Committee Secretary, Mrs. Ella Howlett Knowlton, at 8 Maxwell road, Winchester.

Plans for the reunion are nearing completion. The affair is to be held at the high school with dinner at 6:30, followed by entertainment. Invitations to attend have been accepted by High School Principal and Mrs. Wade L. Grindle, by Arthur E. Butters, head of the high school Mathematics Department, and Mrs. Butters; former Athletic Director and Mrs. Wendell D. Mansfield, Mrs. Ella Stacy, head of the school's History Department and by Rufus H. Bond, former W. H. S. teacher and successful football and baseball coach. Invitations have also been extended Ernest Benshimol, former English teacher, and John E. Fuller, former Science teacher.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL BUILDING ADDITION COMMITTEE

Chairman John C. Wakefield conferred with National Production Authority and U. S. Dept. of Education officials in Washington, D. C. this past week. On May 3rd a directive was issued requiring Government sanction of all school projects.

While unofficially it is estimated that not over 65% of the school applications will receive permits Mr. Wakefield is optimistic and expects the Government permit will be issued very soon. It is hoped requests for bids will go out within the next ten days or two weeks.

The committee has reasonable assurance that heavy structural steel will be available and reputable contractors feel all other materials will not be difficult to obtain.

DONAHUE — JACKSON

There is much Winchester interest in the marriage which took place at St. John's church in Old Saybrook, Conn., on Saturday, June 2, when Miss Zoe Margaret Jackson, daughter of Mrs. Bernard Wilberforce Jackson of Cornwall and Old Saybrook, Conn., and the late Mr. Jackson, became the bride of Robert Charles Donahue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Donahue of Mystic avenue. Msgr. Charles A. Donahue of St. Theresa's Church, West Roxbury, uncle of the bridegroom, performed the marriage ceremony at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, assisted by the Rev. Vincent A. McDonough of New Haven, Conn. White carnations decorated the altar with large urns of white gladiolas, stock, white carnations and spring flowers at both sides of the center gate of the communion rail.

Miss Jackson was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. Hartman F. Schmidt of Newburg, N. Y. She wore a gown of white organdy over taffeta, styled with a boat neckline outlined with appliqued flowers. Similar flowers edged flounces on each side of her bouffant skirt, which extended into a full circular train, and her mitts were flounced to match the short sleeves of her gown. A fingertip veil of French illusion, caught to a satin-edged sheer helmet trimmed with a tiny wreath of orange blossoms and rosebuds, completed her costume and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and roses.

Miss Jean P. McEvoy of Waterbury, Conn., was maid of honor and Miss Elizabeth Duncan Scheres-chewsky of Cornwall, Conn., was flower girl. Bridesmaids were Miss Pauline Theresa Donahue of Winchester, sister of the bridegroom; and five college classmates of the bride, Miss Eleanor A. Aimone of Leonia, N. J.; Miss Jean M. Butler of Hartford, Conn., Miss Marie T. Dungan and Miss Judith A. Heffernan, both of West Hartford, Conn.; and Mrs. Thomas R. Haufe of Millbrook, N. Y.

The honor maid wore a crisp white organdy off-the-shoulder dress with short sleeves and a bouffant skirt. She wore mitts to match her dress and her headdress was of moss green veiling trimmed with matching ribbon. Her flowers were yellow Talisman carnations and yellow illusion arranged in a crescent bouquet.

The bridesmaids were all gowned like the honor attendant but the yellow carnations of their bouquets were combined with moss green illusion.

The small flower girl's frock was a replica of those worn by the other bridal attendants She carried a basket of yellow carnations and wore a wreath of yellow rosebuds on her golden hair.

Captain Frederick J. Donahue, Jr., USA, of Alexandria, Va., was his brother's best man and the other two brothers of the bridegroom, George F. Donahue of Manhasset, Long Island, N. Y. and Richard A. Donahue of Winchester, were members of the usher corps. Other members were Dr. Thomas P. Haufe of Millbrook, N. Y., Joseph M. Stoltz of Glastonbury, Conn., cousin of the bride; and two college classmates of the bridegroom, Edwin F. Carr, Jr., of Worcester and Charles H. Dillon of Birmingham, Mich.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Riversea Inn, Fenwick, Old Saybrook, Conn., where the decorations repeated those at the church. The receiving line standing in front of the large fireplace of the inn included the mothers of the bride and bridegroom and the bridal attendants.

Mrs. Jackson was gowned in navy Chantilly lace and crepe and wore a flowered hat of pink carnations with French violet veiling and a corsage of pale lavender orchids. Mrs. Donahue wore a gown of sapphire blue Chantilly lace and chiffon with a large picture hat of Milan straw and a white orchid corsage.

After a wedding journey by motor to Asbury Park, N. J., Washington, D. C., and Virginia Beach, Mr. Donahue and his bride will make their home in Arlington, Va.

The bride, formerly assistant social welfare director for the State of Connecticut, graduated from the Academy of the Holy Family at Baltic, Conn., and received her A. B. from St. Joseph's College at West Hartford in the Class of 1947.

Mr. Donahue graduated from Winchester High School and from Holy Cross College in 1947, receiving his M. A. Degree from Boston University in 1950. During World War II he served in the Military Police of the United States Army, being stationed at the Hampton Roads Port of Embarkation in Virginia. He is now unit training officer for civilian personnel, Dept. of Navy, U. S. Marine Corps, in Washington, D. C.

BORN

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Collins of Glenwood avenue are the parents of a second child, first daughter, Christina Ann, born May 10 at the Winchester Hospital. Grandparents honors are shared by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Kenney of Stoneham, and Mr. and Mrs. John H. Collins of 965 Main street.

NEW CITIZEN

To Mr. and Mrs. Harlan L. P. Wendell (Dorothea Richardson) a first child, Harlan L. P. Wendell, Jr., at the Delaware Hospital, May 30, 1951. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. James I. Wendell of Pottstown, Penn., and Mr. and Mrs. Harris S. Richardson of Winchester.

NEIL H. BORDEN, CHAIRMAN

BOARD OF LIBRARY TRUSTEES

During Public Library Week the Trustees of the Winchester Public Library were hosts at an Open House for trustees and head librarians of neighboring cities and towns. This was one of ten such meetings for trustees held in various areas of Massachusetts in observance of the centennial of the first permissive library law in the Commonwealth enacted by the General Court in 1851.

Professor Neil H. Borden, Chairman of the Winchester Board of Library Trustees spoke briefly of the history of Winchester's public library development.

Miss Catherine M. Yerxa, President of the Massachusetts Library Association was the guest speaker.

About forty library trustees and head librarians from ten cities and towns in the neighborhood attended this meeting.

LLOYD WALLIS

Lloyd Wallis of 17 Everell road, a Boston credit counsellor who had made his home in Winchester for 26 years, died Tuesday, June 5, at the Winchester Hospital.

Mr. Wallis was the son of Charles, and Margaret (Little) Wallis. He was born March 30, 1890, in Bay City, Mich., and was a graduate of the University of Michigan. Before coming to Winchester he had made his home in Somerville. He had his own counselling business, was a member of the Boston Credit Men's Association and of Bay City Lodge of Masons in Michigan.

During World War I Mr. Wallis served in the field artillery of the United States Army with the rank of Lieutenant. Greatly interested in athletics, he was an ardent follower of Winchester High School teams, his friendly support making him a favorite with both the boys and their coaches.

Mr. Wallis leaves his wife, the former Alma Todd; a daughter, Miss Carol Wallis; and two sons, Lloyd, Jr., and Todd Wallis.

Private funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon at the Woodlawn Chapel in Everett by the Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany.

Flags on the Common and town buildings were displayed at half-staff until after the funeral.

MISS NORRIS RECEIVES AWARDS

Miss Mairee Norris was one of 142 to graduate from Rollins College at Winter Park, Florida on June 1st. She received her AB degree with distinction in history and the General Receive award of $100 as one of five maintaining the highest academic standing over four years.

She also received the Chi Omega Social Science award as senior woman with the highest standing in the field of social sciences, and a special award for having been on 15 varsity teams a new college record.

Miss Norris was awarded the Duke University $750 scholarship to study Far Eastern Affairs there next year.

She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Forbes H. Norris of Church street. Dr. and Mrs. Norris attended the graduation.

LATTA'S STILL IN HOSPITAL

Winchester friends of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Latta (Joanne Worthen) who were badly injured three weeks ago in an auto accident will regret to learn that both are still in the Sacred Heart Hospital at Manchester, N. H. They were taken to the hospital immediately following the accident, in which their new car was wrecked by a big trailer truck.

Mrs. Latta's condition is improving satisfactorily, but Mr. Latta is still unconscious and his condition is regarded as serious. Both suffered bad leg fractures and Mr. Latta a fractured skull.

THOMAS — ROGERS

At St. Mary's Church on Saturday afternoon, June 2, Miss Eleanor Marie Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Rogers of Wedge Pond road, became the bride of Robert Edward Thomas, son of Mrs. Juanita W. Thomas of Lothrop avenue, Milton, and the late Mr. Thomas. Rev. Father Thomas F. Casey of St. Mary's Church, Melrose, performed the marriage ceremony at 3 o'clock and the soloist was Arnold Callahan of Woburn, a tenor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white nylon marquisette over ivory satin with a cathedral length train. Her fingertip length veil of French illusion was trimmed with seed pearls and orange blossoms and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and valley lilies.

Miss Edythe A. Rogers of Winchester was her sister's only attendant. She wore a dress of frosted orchid organdy over orchid satin with a matching hat trimmed with yellow daisies. Her bouquet was yellow carnations and yellow daisies arranged in a cascade bouquet.

John Baggio of Lexington was best man for Mr. Thomas and the ushers were Charles F. Kenney of Quincy and Ralph T. Kenney of Medford, cousins of the bridegroom.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Shaker Glen House with the mothers of both the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving. Miss Rogers was gowned in aqua lace and wore a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Thomas wore sweetheart roses with her gown of [illegible] crepe.

Upon their return from a honeymoon at Ocean City and Atlantic City, N. J., Mr. Thomas and his bride will make their home in Holbrook.

The bride is a graduate of Framingham Teachers College. Mr. Thomas graduated from the Vesper George School of Art and served six years with the Navy in the Pacific Area during World War II.

SON OF FORMER WINCHESTER TEACHER KILLED

Former pupils and friends of Mr. John E. Fuller, at one time science teacher at Winchester High School, learned with regret of the death of his son by accident Monday, June 4, near Missoula in Montana.

J. Eugene Fuller, 21, captain of the 1951 golf team at Arlington High School, was killed and two of his former teammates were injured when the truck in which they were riding left the road. The three were en route to Seattle where they planned to go by plane to Fairbanks, Alaska, for summer employment. They left Arlington June 7 by automobile for Detroit where they left their car with the sister of one of the young men, picking up the truck which they were to deliver to the west coast in exchange for transportation.

Young Fuller graduated from Arlington High School and was a junior at Boston University. He leaves his parents and two brothers, Carl and Bruce. The Fuller home is at 337 Park avenue, Arlington.

Injured in the accident were Edgar Bosmer of Wellesley, a sophomore at M. I. T. and Perley Arthur of Arlington, a sophomore at Boston University.

WOBURN 2 — W. H. S. 0

A large gathering of fans was rewarded with another typical Winchester - Woburn game as the Tanners nipped the Indians 2 - 0 in ten innings at Manchester Field last Saturday afternoon. As is so often the case when these arch rivals meet, both teams rose to the occasion to put on a sparkling exhibition of baseball with Butch McLaughlin being by far the brightest star with a spectacular performance that prevented Winchester from winning in regulation innings. Twice he made seemingly impossible catches to take extra-base hits away from the Indians and climaxed his performance with a throw to the plate to retire a Winchester runner in the last of the ninth that was strictly big league. Many veteran observers stated that it was the finest high school game that they have seen for years.

The game was a brilliant pitching duel between Ed Reil and Charlie Murphy, with Reil getting the decision on the basis of the spectacular support provided by McLaughlin and Pete Marashio, Murphy pitched the best game of his career in holding the hard-hitting Woburn nine to six hits while striking out four batters and giving up the same number of bases on balls. Murphy yielded a single to the second batter to face him and did not give up another hit until the eighth which represented 6 2/3 innings of hitless ball. With the help of McLaughlin, Reil was able to match Murphy's scoreless performance but an indication that Reil was hit harder is shown by the fact that the Woburn outfielders made 13 putouts while the Winchester outfielders gathered in only four balls hit to the outfield. The locals left seven runners on base while Woburn left five runners stranded.

Winchester lost good scoring opportunities in the third when they put the first two batters on base but failed to score and again in the fourth when they put two runners on with one out but could not bring them home. The last of the ninth was the heart breaker for the locals and proved again that it was not in the cards for the Indians to win. DiIorio opened with a single to center and Coach Bartlett inserted his fastest runner, Bobby Flaherty, to run for DiIorio. Coon sacrificed him nicely to second Crowley flied out to short right field. Flaherty holding second. Captain Tony Cirurso then made a bid to close out his high school baseball career in a blaze of glory when he banged a line single over second. Flaherty started with the crack of the bat and it seemed that the Indians were about to win a thriller but McLaughlin raced in fast, scooped up the ball, and threw a perfect strike to catcher, Charley Bevilacqua, who held the ball as Flaherty crashed into him. It was a great play, perfectly executed, and had to be as Flaherty is very fast.

Like Winchester, Woburn had two good scoring opportunities on which they failed to cupitalize but did come through on their third chance where Winchester was frustrated by McLaughlin's great play. In the eighth the Tanners had runners on second and third with nobody out but failed to score on Murphy's courageous pitching. Again in the ninth McLaughlin reached third with one out but was caught at the plate as he tried to steal home with two out and two strikes on the batter. Woburn won the game in the tenth as Marashio opened by dropping a smart bunt safely down the third base line. Reil attempted to sacrifice but Marashio was nipped at second. Piazza singled to right center with Reil beating the throw to third by an eyelash as Pizzza took second on the throw in. Bevilacqua wasted no time as he singled sharply through the infield to drive home the winning runs.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The principal upset in the Winchester Tennis Association Tournament was the defeat of Ed Williams and Jack Millard by Robert Kittridge and Whit Gray, the score being 6 - 3, 5 - 7, 9 - 7. Robert Kittridge is a new resident here and he and his wife clearly rank among the top players in Winchester. Unlike the case of R. Kittridge the Tournament Committee was aware of the caliber of Blair Hawley, another new resident, and the sixth ranking player in New England.

The final matches of the men's Doubles will be played this weekend: B. Hawley and A. Burns versus W. Gray and R. Kittridge. In the Mixed Doubles the following semi-final matches will be played during the week. D. Hills and L. Smith versus Mrs. McKenna and D. Langdell, N. Nutter and B. Hawley versus S. Morton and R. Horne. Sue and Bill Morton are in the finals in the Family Doubles. The other finalists will depend upon the outcome of the match between the Kittridges and Nutters, who in turn will play Dot and Art Hills.

4 — H CLUB

The second meeting of the 4 — H Club was opened at 7:00 p. m. on May 31, at the library, by President Richard Foster. Secretary Dorothy Pratt read the minutes of the last meeting and took attendance. The Dauphinais Brothers were taken in as new members. Mr. Foley led us in a discussion about gardens and insects. A motion was made to close the meeting, it was seconded and passed so the president called for adjournment.

Miss Joyce Arlene Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Holmes of 14 Manchester road, was among the 31 graduates from the Mount Auburn Hospital School of Nursing on Monday evening, June 4.

W. H. S. 4 — CONCORD 2

Winchester High concluded their Middlesex League schedule with a 4 - 2 victory over Concord High at Concord last Friday afternoon. The win gave the Indians a record of eleven victories and three defeats in League competition which was good for a second place tie with Reading, one game behind the championship Melrose nine. This record represents a praiseworthy achievement by the locals whose prospects were not too bright at the beginning of the season but split their games with the top teams, Melrose and Reading and were upset by Lexington to knock them out of a tie for the title.

Winchester scored all four of their runs in one big rally in the third inning, Symmes reached first as the lead off batter on an error by the shortstop. Griffin beat out a hit to deep shortstop. Keyes laid down a pretty bunt and reached safely when the third baseman's throw pulled the first sacker off the bag, filling the bases. Dalton was passed, forcing in the first run. After DiIorio flied out, Coon lined a clutch single to left scoring Griffin but Keyes was wiped out at the plate on an accurate throw by McKenna. After Coon stole second, Crowley hit to right and the right fielder misjudged and then dropped the ball as Dalton and Coon scored.

Symmes twirled superb ball for the Indians and was never in trouble in the first eight innings as he granted only one hit, no bases on balls, and struck out seven batters over that stretch. In the ninth Concord came to life as McHugh singled with one out and Coughlin blasted a home run over the left field fence. After the next man went out, Olsen drew a base on balls and McKenna reached on an error to put the tying run on base. Symmes struck out Prendergast, however, to end the game and notch his sixth victory of the year.

ANNUAL PRESENTATION

The Arlington Academy of Music "Presentation" took place at the Junior High East, Tuesday, May 29th. The audience left the auditorium convinced that citizens of Arlington need how to no one as far as music schools are concerned.

The "Octette for Percussion", by Dean Frank E. Ward and labeled an experiment in rhythm proved a reality as far as audience enthusiasm was concerned. Winchester students taking part in the "Musical Presentation" were: Suzanne Dresser, Philip Dresser, Francis Mangano, Richard Migliacci, Beverly Snell, Claron Swonger, and Joseph Venardi.

HUNTINGTON GRADUATE

Richard A. Wickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson of Chesterford road, was one of a graduating class of 75 students receiving diplomas from the Huntington School in Boston at exercises held in Bates Hall on Friday. A graduate of Winchester High School, while at Huntington Richard was a member of the swimming and bowling teams, manager of the baseball team, and a member of the Huntington Forum.

Miss Virginia French, Supervisor of Art in the Winchester Public Schools, Miss Margaret Harkins, Teacher of Grade Two at the Lincoln School, and Miss Frances Dogherty, Teacher of Kindergarten at the Mystic School were awarded the degree, Master of Education, at the Boston University Commencement on Monday.

NEWSPAPER DRIVE SUCCESS

A man wearing khaki pants and a green jersey was seen driving a one and half ton truck through town Saturday. Approached by a townsman who asked the question, "Haven't I seen you some place before?" the auburn-haired chap replied, "perhaps, sir, I am the minister of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church." Assisted by Mr. Ralph Hatch, in case he might forget the gear shifts which he was not used to, Rev. John Snook, Jr., drove on, making the stops assigned.

All this was part of the Methodist paper drive in which a number of men from the Finance Committee and other men of the church picked up close to 9 tons of papers, magazines and cardboards. Additional men were called during the week to tie them up for shipment.

The Finance Committee is very grateful to the people of the parish and town for some very fine support. Another drive will be conducted in the Fall.

NINETY-EIGHT PINTS

Ninety-eight pints of whole blood were collected Friday, June first, at the First Congregational Church, when the Red Cross Bloodmobile made its quarterly visit to Winchester, it was announced today by Mrs. James B. Coon, Chairman of the Winchester Blood Program.

Although a great many people worked hard to make the Bloodmobile Day a success, fifty pints less were collected than at the previous visit. However, this was — in part — due to the heat of the day, and the fact that 21 persons had to be rejected for various reasons.

Among those who gave untiringly of their efforts were the following:

Gray Ladies
Mrs. Roy Wilson
Mrs. Charles Farrar

Nurses Aides
Mrs. Robert Armstrong
Mrs. Harold Ekstrom
Mrs. George B. Field
Mrs. W. James Masterton
Mrs. Daniel Morse
Mrs. Harrie Nutter

Mrs. Waldo Lyon
Mrs. Ruth Hilton
Miss Ruth Leydon
Mrs. F. Milne Blanchard
Mrs. Frank D. Hawkins
Mrs. Clifton Linnell
Mrs. Robert W. MacArthur

"We must make our quota of 150 pints on the next Bloodmobile visit", Mrs. Coon said. "Blood is so badly needed in Korea."

One hundred and twelve University of Maine athletes received awards at the annual spring award banquet. Among those who received awards were William T. Bird, Winchester, Major M in tennis; Henry M. Easton, Winchester, Major M in track and Arthur Withington II, Winchester, 1954 Numeral in track.

WYMAN SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION BOARD MEETING

The newly elected board of the Wyman School Mothers' Association met on Monday morning, June 4, at the home of Mrs. Ronald Wyman, the new president. Plans were made and dates were set for several meetings in the fall.

Suggestions were given to Mrs. Joseph Dolben for room mothers for the coming year. The date of October 4 was tentatively set for the fall meeting of the association.

Mrs. Wyman introduced Mrs. George Marks who spoke to the group about the Winchester Scholar-hip Foundation. The board is planning to sponsor a campaign in the fall to increase the number of sustaining memberships in the Scholarship Foundation in the Wyman School District. Mrs. Bradford M. Bentley was appointed chairman of the committee to organize this drive and it is hoped that the Wyman district will wholeheartedly support this worthwhile project.

Mrs. Wyman adjourned the meeting until next fall.

William W. Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Russell Ellis of 9 Madison avenue, has been awarded his letter in Track at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn.

COURTESY TO OUR FLAG

Next month, the Elks will observe their 44th Flag Day. A Flag Day Service, to be held on June 14, was adopted by the Grand Lodge in 1907; in 1937 a ritual was prescribed. A 1941 statute made it mandatory for lodges to observe Flag Day. Then in 1949 Congress designated June 14 as National Flag Day.

At a time when our country's institutions and ideals, so beautifully symbolized by our flag, are under attack by foreign enemies aided by traitors within our gates, it is not only the duty but also the opportunity for every Lodge of Elks to arrange the most impressive and instructive Flag Day ceremony within its capabilities. Correct usage of the flag is important always, but particularly on Flag Day, and for the benefit of our Brothers, we present the more important provisions of a code of courtesy contained in a Resolution adopted by Congress.

The Resolution states that the flag should be displayed on public buildings daily, except in inclement weather, and especially on holidays.

The flag should be hoisted briskly and lowered ceremoniously. When down at half-staff, as on Memorial Day, the flag should be hoisted to the peak then lowered to half-staff.

Displayed over a street, the flag should be suspended vertically with the union to the north on an east-west street, to the east on a north-south street. Displayed with another flag, the national flag should be on its right; with more than one flag, in the center; on a staff with other flags, at the top.

On a speaker's platform, if displayed flat, the flag should be above and behind the speaker. On a staff in a church chancel or on an auditorium platform, the flag should be at the speaker's right; elsewhere than in the chancel or on the platform, the flag should be at the audience's right.

The flag should never be dipped to any person or thing.

Covering a casket, the flag's union is placed at the head and over the left shoulder. It should be removed before the casket is lowered.

When the flag is raised or lowered, one should stand at attention and face the flag. If in uniform, the viewer gives the military salute. Civilian men remove the hat and place it over the heart; women honor it by placing the right hand over the heart.

Finally, when the flag's condition makes it unsuitable for display, it should be destroyed in a dignified manner, preferably by burning.

WADE L. GRINDLE VICE-PRESIDENT

The final meeting of the Harvard Club of Eastern Middlesex, which was held at the Bear Hill Country Club on the evening of June 4, took the form of a Ladies' Night.

The speaker of the evening was Mr. Gordon MacDougall, of the Spanish Department of Phillips Andover Academy.

The retiring president, John J. Donovan, '13, of Lakeview road, was accorded a rising vote of thanks for his work during the last four years. Election of new officers resulted as follows:

President — J. Joseph Maloney
1st Vice President — Wade L. Grindle
2nd Vice President — Charles P. Howard
Secretary - Treasurer — Edward J. Maher
Executive Committee — Philip R. White, H. Gardner Bradlee and Thomas M. Downes.

GOING ON VACATION!

Just about this time of year, everybody thinks of vacation. The word "vacation" means the mountains to one person, the seashore to another, but regaidless, it means a change. Yes, a change from work to play! Some will stay at home and take one or two-day trips, while others will go away for two or three weeks, and others, still, will send their family away for the whole summer.

But before you go, there are certain things which must be taken care of. The milkman, the paper boy, and if you have a domestic animal, be sure you either take it or make sure it is taken care of, while you are gone.

Then finally, comes the most important, the mailman! If your stay is but for a few days, make sure your mail slot will easily take all your mail. Do not have it piled up on your front porch. If your mailbox or slot is not large enough, call at the post office and have your letter carrier hold your mail for the few days you are away.

However, should you be fortunate enough to be able to go away for two or three weeks or more, give your letter carrier a forwarding address. This will enable him to send all your first-class mail to your summer address. But how about your magazines? To have these sent ahead, you will either have to give the mailman the money necessary to forward them, or tell him to forward them and you will pay for them when you get them.

Should you fail to do this and have them left on your front porch, you are giving an Open Invitation to any vandal or burglar to ransack and burglarize you house. Insurance may pay for some, but some of the losses will be irreparable. So contact the post office before you go!

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The meeting on last Monday night brought to a close a very successful season for the Auxiliary. However it was the last business meeting and does not mean that the social activities are concluded. The Auxiliary will continue to have parties throughout the summer for all who are interested in fun, entertainment and good eating. An energetic committee is already planning a "Weenie Roast" on Saturday, June 30 — so watch for notices concerning this and other activities.

President Mrs. Charles Meek, Jr., wishes to express her pleasure in all the worthwhile events accomplished by her Unit during the past season. These enabled us to carry on our very important Rehabilitation and Child Welfare Program with such great success. All of the officers extend their sincere thanks to the members and friends without whose cooperation and enthusiasm this would not have been possible.

The officers elected for the coming year include:

President — Mrs. Frances Burr.
Sr. Vice Pres. — Mrs. Rose Marchant.
Jr. Vice-Pres. — Mrs. Dorothy McCormack.
Secretary — Marion Laskey.
Treasurer — Dorothy Carroll.
Historian — Mae Barron.
Chaplain — Helen Scott.
Sgt. at Arms — Lola Bennett.
Board of Directors:
Rita Meek
Barbara Murphy
Ruby McKee
Dorothy Lynch

INJURED IN FALL FROM HORSE

Miss Joan Neiley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Neiley of Myopia Hill road, is reported as recovering nicely from back injuries she sustained May 26 when a horse she was jumping at Good's Glenny Farm in West Medford, slipped as he went in to the bars and threw her to the ground.

Miss Neiley, who has been an all around athlete at Winchester High School, from which she graduates on Sunday, broke two transverse processes in her lower back and fractured another. She was taken to the Lawrence Memorial Hospital for X rays and held over night.

Dr. Clark Staples, her physician, permitted her to come home the next day and she is able to be on and around the house. As a result of new techniques developed with injured flyers during the war Miss Neiley has assurance that her recovery will be much more speedy than otherwise and she is really looking forward to riding again in a month or so.

STEALING FROM CHURCH

Monday evening persons living near St. Mary's Church became suspicious of a man hanging around the building. They notified Officer William Callahan of the Police, who happened to be off duty at his home near the church, and he took the man into custody. It was found he had stolen $6.95 from vigil stands, and it was also found that he had been previously arrested for a similar offense in Winchester a little more than a year ago. He gave his name as John F. Nagle, last address, Brighton. He was given a four months sentence in the House of Correction.

TEELE LOST PAPER TRADE TITLE

Mr. Royal P. Teele of Wedgemere avenue, perennial president of the Palmer Beach Horseshoe Association and long-time horseshoe-pitching champion of the Boston Paper Trade, was recently stripped of his titular honors at the Paper Trade's annual outing at the Charles River Country Club.

Mr. James Dwyer, president of Stone and Forsythe, the paper house of which Mr. Robert M. Stone of Foxcroft road is treasurer, was the pitcher who took the Teele measure, and according to the information given the Star, the former champion's downfall occurred in the tournament's preliminary rounds. In other words Royal failed to qualify for the actual championship competition.

Whether or not Mr. Teele's defeat was what the erudite Mr. Luke P. Glendon would term a "deflocnation," which is the Gaelic for disgraceful rout, we are not in a position to state with accuracy. Our informer felt that the Teele showing was as Mr. Bartlett would say, "poor," but when pressed for details was unable to say whether or not Royal got into "the doubles," which is of course the yardstick by which all Palmer Beach contestants stand or fall.

At all events, and be that as it may, Mr. Teele himself must have felt that his exhibition was on the elementary side, for, evidently believing that he could do better, he challenged his conqueror to a return match after the tournament was concluded.

We wish we could record that Royal reversed the previous decision against him, but here again such evidence as is at hand seems to point in the other direction. As a matter of fact our informer tells the Star that in the second match the result was no more flattering to the Teele prestige than was its predecessor. In other words, and to put it bluntly, Royal got it twice in the same place.

Mr. McLaughlin, the Teele coach and sparring partner during the pre-tournament practice sessions at Palmer Beach, would have shaken his head sadly at his confrere's showing. Mr. Butters would have been openly pleased! For Arthur, who is sometime called the State of Maine Champ, has from time to time been rather more critical of the Teele horseshoe form than Royal's best friends could wish.

WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB SPONSORS FAIR

A statewide Country Fair sponsored by the Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee will be held at the Topsfield Fair Grounds, Saturday, June 23, from 10 a. m. to 11 p. m., Mrs. Robert Wood Reynolds, 58 Swan road, Local Chairman of the Country Fair committee, announced today.

Local Republicans plan to take an active part in the Country Fair. Mrs. Reynolds said that members of the committee are operating Ferris Wheel, Merry Go Round and Children's Fire Engine under the town's name. Also we have 500 tickets to sell which goes toward Winchester G. O. P. campaign money.

The ticket committee is headed by Mrs. Ralph Bonnell, Mrs. R. W. Reynolds, Mrs. Maxwell McCreery, Mr. William Twombly, Mrs. Muriel Barnes, Mrs. Ober Pride, Mrs. Walter Winship and Mrs. Don Greer.

DECORATED CLASSMATE'S GRAVE

Six members of the Phillips Exeter Academy Class of 1911, one of whom was Mr. Kenneth P. Pond of this town, stopped on their way to the reunion at the Academy to place flowers on the grave of their classmate, the late Dana J. P. Wingate, in Wildwood Cemetery.

Dana Wingate, son of the late Charles E. L. Wingate, formerly of Stratford road, won wide recognition as a baseball player, both at Exeter and at Harvard, where he had the rare distinction of captaining the Crimson for two years in succession. He later starred at shortstop for the old Winchester Town Team, one of the best in the early years hereabouts during the days of the late George LeDue.

HONORS FROM ROGERS HALL

Miss Dorothy Winship of 16 Sheffield road graduated from Rogers Hall School in Lowell on Tuesday, June 5.

During her four years at Rogers Hall Miss Winship was a member of the Kava Club, was a member of the Student Council for two years and was this year the Council president.

In addition to these honors Miss Winship won the Underhill Award for the highest scholastic average in the senior class and also received the senior Current Events Award. She will enter Connecticut College for Women in the fall.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Kelley, Jr., (Margery Carruthers) announce the birth of a son, Winslow Brackett on May 19 at the Winchester Hospital. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Kelley of Dix street and Mr. and Mrs. John Carruthers of Pine street.

WINCHESTER WOMEN STATE GOLF WINNERS

Mrs. Buffum in Upset Victory Over Medalist, Mrs. Howard

Mrs. A. C. Buffum of Yale street, who plays her golf at the Winchester Country Club, sprung a big surprise in the opening round of the Massachusetts Women's Golf Championship Tuesday at Charles River when she defeated the medalist, Mrs. Willard Howard of The Country Club, after a Marathon struggle of 21 holes.

Mrs. Buffum, a comparative newcomer to State Tournament play, was pitted against one of the best in Mrs. Howard, three times a medalist in the Massachusetts Women's tournament.

Mrs. Buffum began playing golf 15 years ago in Japan while her husband, an engineer, was stationed there, and since coming to Boston has taken lessons from "Jug" McSpaden and Johnny Thoren of Myopia. She and her husband and her two daughters, Barbara, a former Winchester High athlete, and Jeanne, 8, play every chance they get, one of the family golf maxims being "Never give up until the last putt is in!" This philosophy paid off for Mrs. Buffum Tuesday.

In 1941 Mrs. Buffum entered the Women's State Championship and was quickly eliminated by Dorothy Sullivan of Marshfield, who was to be her opponent in Wednesday's second round of play.

Other Winchester Country Club entries besides Mrs. Buffum won in Tuesday's opening round competition. Mrs. Frank E. Richart, Jr., beat Mrs. John A. Ames, Jr., of The Country Club, 2 and 1, in the championship flight; and Miss Marilyn Wilcox outclassed Mrs. Paul MacGregor, Bear Hill, 5 and 4, in the same bracket.

In the second flight Mrs. Allen A. Kimball, a former Winchester Country Club champion, was defeated by Mrs. Walter Cosgrove of Wachusett, 5 and 3.

Mrs. Buffum showing the effects of her long tense first round match against the medalist, Mrs. Howard, fell a victim to her old nemesis, Dorothy Sullivan of Marshfield, losing in the second round of the championship flight, 6 and 5.

Marilyn Wilcox also was eliminated from play in the second round, losing to Mrs. George Norby of Wachusett in the lower half of the draw, 4 and 2.

Mrs. Frank E. Richart, Jr., kept Winchester's championship hopes alive by winning her upper half match from Mrs. Donald McClusky of Worcester in 19 holes.

PROMOTION DAY

Promotion exercises will be held in the Primary, Junior, and Intermediate Departments at 10:00 o'clock Sunday morning at the First Congregational Church. Children are asked to be on hand by 9:50 so that the promotion programs may begin promptly at 10:00. Nursery and Kindergarten children will have their regular program at 10:00 so that parents may attend the exercises in the other departments.

At 10:30, all the children will line up for the procession into church when the annual Children's Day service will be held. Third grade children will receive their Bibles. The Junior choir will sing. Nursery and Kindergarten children will be excused before the sermon to go back to their own departments for their promotion exercises.

Parents and friends are cordially invited to the various departments for the promotion programs at 10:00, and to the morning church service at 10:45.

OLD FASHIONED PICNIC

The Sunday School and Church families of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, will have a picnic at Cherry Hill Farm in Beverly. They will leave the church at 10 a. m. tomorrow morning, June 9th.

Races, softball, ice cream and all that goes with a church picnic will supply a complete program until 3 p. m.

Bring your bats, gloves and of course, your own picnic lunch.

A number of private cars will be needed.

See you at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Faxon Bannister, who have been living for nearly two years in Cincinnati, Ohio, are returning east. Mr. Bannister having been sent to New Jersey by his employers, the Proctor and Gamble Company. For a time they will make their home in Montclair, N. J., with Mr. Bannister's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Bannister. Mrs. Bannister is the former Joan Wild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prescott F. Wild of Everett avenue.

COURT RECEIVES $500.

The story of how a reporter pitted his logical mind against that of a fiendish killer and proved him guilty of murder will be broadcast on "NBC's "Big Story," sponsored by Pall Mall cigarettes, on Wednesday evening, June 13 at 10:00 p. m. EDT.

Radio actor James Stevens will portray the reporter, Bob Court of the Boston Record. Mr. Court, a former Winchester boy, will receive the $500 Pall Mall award for notable services in the field of journalism.

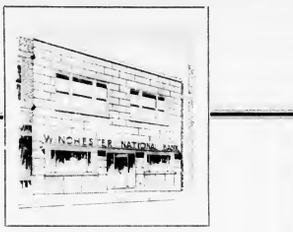

In the summer of 1935 the peaceful, slumbering little community of Fairfield, Maine, was transformed into a suspicious, armed camp all in the space of four hours. At large was a vicious murderer who had mercilessly slain two women. The single clue to the slayer's identity was a brown suit he was seen wearing on his flight from the crime.

Bob Court, working closely with the Attorney General, set out on a frustrating search for the killer. After days of unsuccessful questioning of suspects, the reporter suggested calling out the National Guard to smoke out the killer. This did the trick and the slayer was finally captured.

WILL RECEIVE DEGREE AT MIDDLEBURY

Among the Massachusetts men and women receiving their A. B. degree from Middlebury College at the 151st year Commencement exercises on Monday, June 18, is Miss Ellen Hight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hight of 21 Ledyard road. She attended Winchester High before entering Middlebury. In college she belongs to Pi Beta Phi sorority and holds membership in Mortar Board, highest women's honorary society. She majored in Mathematics.

Mr. George B. Cumings, who has been at the Winchester Hospital for a number of weeks following a severe heart attack, is reported as recovering slowly and no date has been set for his discharge.

MUSIC EDUCATORS CHOOSE FELMET

Mr. Fred Felmet, Supervisor of Music in the Winchester Public Schools, was elected president of the Massachusetts Music Educators' Association at the annual business meeting held on Saturday, June 2, at the New England Conservatory of Music.

Other officers elected were: first vice-president — Mr. Will C. Riggs, Supervisor of Music in Weston; second vice-president — Mr. Stanley Norwood, Director of Music in Worcester; secretary — Mrs. Frances Wilcox, teacher in the Brookline Schools; treasurer — Miss Florence Argy, Supervisor of Music in Turners Falls; members of the state Executive Board — Dr. William Fisher, Supervisor of Music in Needham, Mr. Edward Gilday, Head of the Music Department of the State Teachers' College in Framingham, Mr. Luther Churchill, Supervisor of Music in Middlebora, Mr. Rodney May, Supervisor of Music in Brockton, and Miss Georgia Sue Reuter, teacher in the Springfield Schools.

The Massachusetts Music Educators' Association is composed of approximately three hundred music supervisors and teachers in the schools and colleges of the state. Their purpose is the advancement of music education through sponsoring such events as the annual All-State Orchestra and Chorus Concert and the state music festivals held in May.

As president of the MMEA, Mr. Felmet will represent Massachusetts as a member of the Board of Directors of the Eastern Sectional Conference and as a member of the State Presidents' National Assembly of the Music Educators' National Conference, which is the Department of Music of the National Education Association.

John Swift
(b) "Why They March" by:
Herbert Thompson
Bonnie Low
John Utmson
Grade III — An Acrostic
Grade III and IV — These pupils told the history of Memorial Day, with original drawings.
Grade IV — Fourth grade pupils read the story "Why the United States is a Strong Nation"
Grade V — Fifth grade pupils presented a skit written by:
Kathy Dougherty
Betsey Snell
Jackie Coakley
Characters in the skit:

Mother	Judy Cussen
Father	James Wakefield
Jean	Sally McArthur
Bill	Kenneth Erb
Florist	Allan MacLatchey

Chorus:
Carole McFarlane
Paul Lamarche
Eddie Morse
Danny Chane
Carolyn Parks
Grade VI — Grade VI presented some Memorial Day thoughts in Choral Speaking.

THE DOCTORS DIAGNOSE

It's a kind hearted group who occupy the Professional Building on Dix street. The Doctors render every assistance to all and take everything in their stride. So when a poor lone cat became caught or imprisoned within the walls of the cellar or somewhere about the building, they immediately got the matter their attention.

To locate the cat however was a problem. They diagnosed the plaintive wails of the animal easily, but to ascertain its exact location was another matter. The Police, a prominent building contractor and an inspector and SPCA official were called in. Walls were opened and foundations torn down.

However, according to report it was the SPCA agent who proved the astute hero. He located the poor cat eventually as a squeek in the water meter in the basement!

The Doctors are willing to pay the bill for repairs and restoration, but it is said there are some red faces among the group. They are good on humans and know what is necessary to care for a cat, but when it comes to squeeky water meters — well it's just out of their line.

Miss Nancy Dowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Dowe of Belmont, formerly of Mystic Valley Parkway, was graduated this week from Belmont High School. She received the Olin Scholarship for scholastic excellence. Miss Dowe attended the Winchester schools up until her junior year of high school.

Sunday School is held at the same hour as the church service.
Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading room, 8 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson Street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Those attending Christian Science services next Sunday will hear that God is the Cause of all that really exists, and that all that He creates is good. This theme will appear throughout the Lesson-Sermon, the subject of which is "God the Only Cause and Creator."

The Golden Text states: "Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints" (Revelation 15:3).

Selections from the Bible (King James Version) will include the following: "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the Lord, and there is none else. - Isaiah 45:5,6).

Correlative passages from the Christian Science Textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "God, Spirit, alone created all, and that creation is good. Therefore evil, being contrary to good, is unreal, and cannot be the product of God." (p. 529, 8-10).

"God is not the author of mortal discords." (p. 241, 16).

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Mansfield of Pomfret, Conn., formerly of this town, will spend the summer at Canton, Maine.

Thomas H. Hoare of 101 Church street presided at the meeting of the New England Chapter of the Public Relations Society, on Wednesday evening, June 6 held at the Hampshire House.

Charles Hart, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hart, 3 Felsdale Close, was one of fifty seniors to graduate from Vermont Academy's 67th Commencement exercises, June 3rd. He plans to enter Middlebury College in the fall.

Miss Sally Morgan has returned to her duties at the Star office after a two weeks' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Kelley left this week for their summer home in Duxbury.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Clement of 8 Park avenue have opened up their summer home in Cranberry Knoll at Harwichport, Mass. Mrs. Clement recently returned from spending a week in Washington, D. C. with her daughter and family.

Yesterday's alarm of fire from Box 58 at noon was for a fire at the home of Arne Gudheim, 15 Calumet road. Firemen found burning paper and rubbish on the back porch had set fire to the porch railing, but that the damage done was relatively slight. At 10:18 yesterday forenoon there was a brush fire on Ridge street.

Mrs. George Dutting and Mrs. Ruth Hilton are leaving today for Greeley, Colorado, where they will visit with the George D. Nardin family, formerly of this town.

Kenneth W. Lamprey '44, 116 Wildwood street, treasurer of the National Cranberry Association, Hanson, was elected vice-president of more than 1,500 members of the Northeastern University Evening School of Business Alumni Association.

Misses Marjorie Wyman and Carolyn Merenda are vacationing at Hyannis this week.

A bulldozer owned by the Fitzgerald Contracting Company and left on a job at Lawson road extension over the week-end was put out of commission by vandals filling both the water and gas tanks with sand. A seat was also stolen from the machine.

GIRLS' SOFTBALL OVER ARLINGTON 13 - 4

At Ginn Field on May 31, the WHS softball team won its seventh consecutive victory by defeating Arlington, 13 - 4. Pitcher Sonny Smith allowed only four hits and struck out six, while her opponent Callahan struck out nine, but gave up twelve hits. Callahan was a very fast pitcher, the fastest Winchester has opposed this year, but the girls seemed to hit in the clutch. At the plate, Bugs Smith led the team with three hits and two runs batted in. Once again the girls excelled on the base paths, stealing fifteen bases to Arlington's three.

SWIMMING COURSES OFFERED BY THE RED CROSS

Beginning on June 18th and running for two weeks, early season swimming classes will be conducted by the Winchester Chapter of The American National Red Cross to fill the needs of those residents spending the Summer away from town.

Instruction at the Wedge Pond Beach will be offered in two ability levels.

Children of school age who are non-swimmers or beginners may come for instruction daily either at 11:00 or 11:30 a. m.

More advanced swimmers between the ages of twelve and fifteen wishing to try for the Junior Life Saving certificate may attend classes daily from 12:00 to 1:00 p. m. Such candidates should be able to dive, swim 220 yards continuously, surface dive to a depth of six feet, tread water and float.

The Red Cross has engaged the services of Larry Palmer, coach of the Tufts College Swimming Teams, for this instruction.

TWO RECEIVE DEGREE FROM YALE

Two Winchester boys are among 129 students from Massachusetts who will receive degrees at Yale University's 250th Commencement next Monday morning, June 11. George D. Gould of 28 Lakeview road receives a degree in Bachelor of Arts and Ferdinand L. Manning of 28 Symmes road a degree in Master of Fine Arts in Drama.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

At 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning, June 10th, the children of the First Baptist Church School will assemble at the regular Morning Sanctuary Service for their graduation and Children's Day exercises.

The theme of the program to be presented by the various departments of the school is "The Bible is Our Treasure Book", illustrated in song and Bible quotations.

Graduation exercises, with the presentation of certificates, will be held. Those graduating from the Primary to the Junior Department will receive a Bible inscribed with their name. The pupils graduating are:

Kindergarten to Primary: Carol Brink, Kenneth Carlson, Robert Chase, Bobbie Dyson, James Eliasen, Laverne Forrester, Paul Heymann, Walter Josephson, Paula McGraw, Peter Swanson, William Thoms, Jacqueline Webster, Paul Wickwire.

Primary to Junior: Shirley Bingham, Carol Cloute, Judith Donovan, Jon Horvath, Diana Kirkwood, Jeffrey McGraw, Richard Mc Latchy.

Cross and Crown attendance pins will be awarded for perfect attendance.

At the service of consecration the following babies will be dedicated: Marsha Jeanne Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Chase; Henry Stevens Cushman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Cushman; Susan Lorraine Dyson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dyson; Karen Helen Hermann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hermann; Susan Maria Swanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Swanson; Betsy Ann Thoms and Charles Damon Thoms, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. David Thoms; Craig Roos Wakefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wakefield; Prudence Margaret Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ward.

As has been his custom for many years Mr. Charles Burnham is providing a potted plant for each child in memory of his little daughter Alice.

ART EXHIBITION AT THE ROYALL HOUSE IN MEDFORD

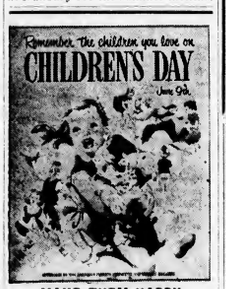

Those in Winchester who are interested in art and the preservation of antiques will be glad to know that the Eleventh Annual Exhibition of Paintings by Medford artists and artists who have lived in Medford is to be held at the old Royall House in Medford June 9th through June 18th. The exhibition opens with a tea on Saturday, June 9th from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock.

The Royall House is a magnificent portrayal of old colonial architecture and is filled with beautiful antique furniture, much of which down stairs they inherited last year from two Winchester residents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bridge.

G. Russell Mann of 17 Fenwick road is submitting his picture of the Tantrama Marshes in Nova Scotia.

The proceeds of the exhibition are to be used for the preservation of the Royall House.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whiton are at Duxbury for the summer months.

Every Brownie Mother is now well aware what the well-dressed young lady will wear this year, for any and every occasion. The Fashion Show was unusually well presented for the enjoyment of many besides the Mothers. Mrs. Edmund Wright was chairman of the committee and was assisted by Mrs. Helen Bingham, Mrs. Marion Black, Mrs. Helen Gaynor, Mrs. Carolyn Goodwin, Mrs. Phoebe Lowe, Mrs. Elizabeth Pollard, Mrs. Frances MacNeil, Miss Sally Sherbourne and Mrs. C. T. Walling. The Town Hall has never been more beautifully decorated and this was planned by Mrs. George E. Connor. Mr. A. Mourdian generously loaned the backdrop and rug used. Mr. Lester Whittaker furnished the many flowers which helped to create the festive atmosphere.

Mrs. Dorothy Ghirardini created the musical background as Mrs. Wright announced each of the 41 models. The beautiful costumes and accessories were furnished by the Winchester Filene Shop and were selected by Miss Ann De Cain.

A representative from each Brownie Troop presented the Juliette Low Money, of which each Brownie had earned 25 cents. The total presented by the group was $65.00 to be used to promote World Friendship. May we take this opportunity to thank each one, especially the models, who made this afternoon an outstanding success.

Scribe Mercey Wilson of Troop 26 sends us this interesting description of their trip to the:

Cushman Bakery

Our Brownie troop 26 went to the Cushman's Bakery on Wednesday, May 16. We were given a doughnuts free and some pop corn. We saw them make bread, we saw them make pies and wedding cakes and doughnuts. We like the Cushman's Bakery.

Mr. Olive took us around. The Bakery was very clean.

By Mercey Jeanne Wilson

On Wednesday, June 6th at the Girl Scout Cabin, Council and Co-workers met for lunch in honor of Mrs. George Cary who is soon to leave Winchester. Mrs. Cary, who has been an active Girl Scout for 35 years, has given many hours to the Girl Scout program and has served as Commissioner for the local group. She will be greatly missed but our best wishes go with her. She was presented with a lovely silver tray by the group. The committee who planned the party was: Mrs. C. A. Roberts, Mrs. Gilbert Tapley, Mrs. Ronald Thomson, Mrs. Lester Moulton, Mrs. A. S. Crockett and Mrs. Gerald Curtis. Miss Constance Lane was also honored at the luncheon. She, too, has contributed greatly to the growth of the Girl Scout work here by serving as a Leader and as Registrar. She received a "Thank You" Badge and a 20-year pin.

Don't forget — Camp Physical Examination Saturday at 10 a. m. at the office. If your own doctor is making the examination get the blank to be filled out at the office before Saturday. No Examination — No Camp.

BOOK CHARGING MACHINE

Gaylord automatic book charging machine is now in use in the Boys' and Girls' Department of the Winchester Public Library. Mr. Stephen Hopkins of the staff of Gaylord Bros., Syracuse, New York, is in Winchester this week establishing this charging service and explaining it to boys and girls and their parents.

All boys and girls are cordially invited to visit the library soon to see the new book charging machine in operation and to take out membership in the new service. This is free.

Books will no longer be charged in the old casual manner in the boys' and girls' library. Each boy and girl will have a charge plate or card and must present this to borrow books. This is an up to date method to insure accuracy in charging books and will be much appreciated by book borrowers.

Boys and girls are urged to visit the library soon and to register for the new membership so that they may enjoy it during the summer.

BAPTIST YOUTH FELLOWSHIP OUTING

The Youth Fellowship of the First Baptist Church will meet at the Church at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, June 9th, to go to the summer camp of Mr and Mrs. Walter Bosselman in Suncook, New Hampshire for an all day outing. There will be sports of all kinds with plenty of swimming and a good time will be had by all. They will return to Winchester before dark, and will be accompanied by the Director of Youth Activities, John Hunt Chapple, as well as members of the Youth Activities Committee, composed of parents of the young people. This will be the last get-together of the young people until fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Loring P. Gleason will spend the summer at Gloucester.

EUNICE M. KILEY

MISS KILEY'S PIANOFORTE RECITAL

Of special interest to Winchester folks is the approaching recital of Eunice M. Kiley, Grove street, West Medford at Arlington Junior High East on Thursday evening, June 21st at 7:30 p. m.

First, because many Winchester children will be taking part in this program and again because Miss Kiley is opening new studios at 433 Main street, Winchester, about July first.

These attractive studios will make it possible for the children to invite many more friends to their bi-mon'thly recitals, which will be held at the new location.

Miss Kiley is known for her use of contests to add interest and enthusiasm to the piano lessons.

Just now a scale contest is in process, namely, the building in paper and paint of the United Nations' Flag.

Each laured leaf painted in white, on the blue field of the flag represents a scale accomplished, together with the chords and arpeggios of the key being studied. Small member nations flags are also added on the border for added work.

This will be one of the contests Miss Kiley will present at the International Piano Teachers' Associations' Convention when it meets July 16th through 19th this summer.

The following is a quotation from the I. P. T. A. National Convention bulletin "On to New York".

"Contests for Piano Students Eunice M. Kiley, Boston, Mass. This unique lecture-demonstration will show you how to create exciting music competitions for your students. Miss Kiley has contests covering every phase of music learning. Each will be demonstrated with attractive displays. You will be especially impressed with her aquarium of tropical fish (artificial, of course)."

AWARDS TO W. H. S. MUSICIANS

WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB

Tanned, healthy youngsters, sappy snipes, a cool swimming pool on hot summer nights, delicious lobster dinners, a friendly spirit of young and old . . . these are some of the things that have made the Winchester Boat Club a favorite gathering place. Not only is it a recreational center, but it has long served as a meeting house for the community. David N. Skillings was elected first president of the Club on July 4, 1900 by seven prominent citizens who were responsible for its founding. They were: John R. Newman, George Adams Woods, John Murray Marshall, Frank Barry, Herman Dudley Murphy, Robert Coit, and Howard T. Dickson.

The site where the lighthouse now stands was selected for the house for the new club. However, plans were changed when the sheltered end of the Mystic Lakes where the club is today became available, and was purchased from a Mr. Blaikie.

The charter membership totaled 160 . . . only five still live in Winchester today. The original clubhouse was built when these members issued bonds to raise enough money. The industrious steward was kept very busy polishing and trimming the kerosene lamps which lit the building.

The Metropolitan Commission granted the Winchester Boat Club permission to use the lake for boating, but it was several years before they would allow the new and dangerous "sailing" on the Mystic on Sundays. Every time the Club has been on the verge of bankruptcy, and it has been several times in its history, the citizens of Winchester came through with financial aid.

At the end of one summer, the entire top floor was razed by fire, and luckily the rest was saved when a passing truck driver spied the flames. The hurricane of '38 raised havoc, and one season revenue from membership dues was almost nonexistent, because a main sewer pipe through the valley burst, and the lake was unusable for the entire summer.

From 1900 to the late 1930's was the golden age of canoeing. Paddling and sailing was all the rage for many years. The first sailing canoes were raced by Herman P. Murphy, Paul Bigney, David Goddard, Farnum Dorsey, Wm. Ladd, Ned Gage, and James Newman. The Board of Directors appropriated funds for two challenge cups — the Mystic Valley Sailing Challenge Trophy for sailing and the Mystic Valley Paddling Trophy for paddling. The paddling trophy is now in the possession of the club.

The canoes darting across the Mystic Lakes were a beautiful sight. Winchester skippers sailed everywhere in New England, New York, and Canada. In 1902 Herman Dudley Murphy challenged the Royal Canoeing Club of London for their trophy. He took two sailing canoes to England, and narrowly missed winning the trophy.

The paddling enthusiasts at the Club were LeRoy Pratt, William Little, Frank Gerlach, Jack Sheridan, Bill Randlett, Ken Pratt, Bob Hight, Waldo Manson, Russ Murphy, Jack Brozier, and James Newman. These men practiced over a grueling course from the Medford dam to Bacon bridge three nights a week. Their successful house-to-house canvass in 1905 enabled them to buy a war canoe. The war canoe contests between Winchester and Medford were hotly contested, and many residents gathered on the banks of the Mystic to watch.

Today the Winchester Boat Club snipe fleet is highly regarded. It has more than 25 registered snipes, and Winchester sailors have won the New England Snipe Championship at Marblehead every year, save one, since this series of races began.

The fleet began back around 1936. There were six, maybe eight, sailboats on the lake at Winchester then, with no two of them the same size or shape. That year a one design fleet was started with the International Snipe Class chosen as the most practical for a small lake.

The "Weave-It" shop was then located at 200 Boston avenue in Medford with ample floor space to permit the building of eight snipes without hindering the weaving operations. Five teams of father and son set up a work schedule which would not interfere with school. Eight boat were completed, assembled on an assembly line, and launched in May, and early June, 1937. The Dorgan Trophy was donated to the Fleet by Dan Fritz and Don Symonds, and is awarded every year to the skipper with the highest point score.

HIGH SCHOOL ART FEATURED BY ART ASSOCIATION

For their July exhibition, the Winchester Art Association is featuring the work of seven senior students from the High School Art Department: Phoebe Greenwood, Jan Meacham, Jean Nelley, Phyllis O'Neil, Sue Ordway, Gordon Bird, and Donald Cameron. The first four will major in art when they enter their specialized schools and colleges in the fall.

This exhibition is now hanging in the Art Gallery of the Public Library and will be open to the public until June 27. The work consists of regular class problems representing the year's course and has been done under the supervision of the High School Art teacher, Miss Pauline F. Goodrich.

WINCHESTER HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

All members of the Winchester Home and Garden Club are urged to attend the Annual Meeting and Election of Officers on Wednesday, June 13 at the Girl Scout Cabin, recently erected in the Fells a short distance down the 1st road on the left off Border road.

It is hoped that many will avail themselves of the opportunity to bring picnic lunches at 1 p. m. Coffee and dessert will be served to those who make reservations by June 11 with Mrs. George French (WInchester 6-0735-M) or Mrs. Robinson (WInchester 6-2706).

At the 2 o'clock meeting a vote will be taken on the recommendation of the Board for elimination of By-laws concerning "Finance Committee".

There will be non-competitive arrangements of wild flowers or any material found in the woods, and any member is invited to enter.

It has been suggested that members make and wear garden flower corsages, fashioned according to Mrs. Werman's demonstration lecture at the May meeting.

Guest speakers will be officers of Garden Federation, including Mrs. E. Carlisle Baker, President; our own Mrs. Austin T. Bunker, Treasurer; Mrs. S. Forrest Martin, Vice-president East Middlesex Region; Mrs. Harold M. Trembly, who will speak on "Garden Club Service"; also Miss Corrine Mead, and Mrs. James B. Willing of the Girl Scout Council.

"SALLIES" FIX DATES OF FALL APPEAL

Official dates for the Salvation Army 1951 - 1952 Greater Boston Friendly Annual Appeal have been announced by Colonel William H. Fox, Provincial Commander, and the Army's chief executive in this area.

The campaign will get under way Tuesday, September 11th. It will be finalized in Boston proper on Saturday, October 20th.

In most communities comprising Greater Boston, neighborhood canvasses will be organized.

Proceeds of the appeal will help the Army to finance 31 institutions, centers and departments serving Greater Boston, including its reactivated services for the armed forces, such as the new Red Shield Club on Dewey Square, opposite the South Station, Boston.

W. H. S. GIRLS' TENNIS

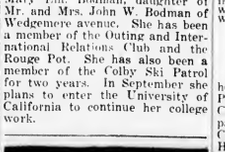

A week ago, June 1, the girls' tennis team ended the 1951 season by playing in Winchester against Winsor. The visitors, always a strong team, and considered by the locals the team to beat, won out 3 - 0, but that didn't prevent Winchester from coming out on top for the season with 4 wins and 3 losses, and it was an improvement over last year's Winsor score which was 3-1. The preceding day, W. H. S. shut out Arlington, 5 - 0 on home courts.

The local girls won more total sets from their opponents than last year, too, with 22 this season to 20 last, but they lost more, this year, 13 to last year's 8. A new team was added to the list of opponents this year, Newton, which replaced Beaver Country Day, and who was defeated 4 - 1 on local courts.

It is interesting to note that Winchester defeated Melrose and Concord both years, split with Malden, and lost twice to Belmont and Winsor. No one of the girls won all her matches this season, but Captain Carol Hawkins and Sue Morton each won 5 out of 7.

Although not undefeated, the team had a good year, and its potentialities for 1952 are very high. 4 Seniors: Carol Hawkins, Jane Chiswell, Mary Anne Damon, and Franceline Cullen are leaving, but Sue Morton, Carolyn Stone and Betsey Freeman will return to make up the nucleus of a very strong group for 1952.

Among the Winchester girls graduating from Colby June 11 is Mary Em. Bodman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bodman of Wedgemere avenue. She has been a member of the Outing and International Relations Club and the Rouge Pot. She has also been a member of the Colby Ski Patrol for two years. In September she plans to enter the University of California to continue her college work.

SMITH BOWS IN SEMI-FINALS AS TENNIS TEAM CLOSES SEASON

With Co-Captain Langdon Smith stroking his way to the semi-finals of the State Tennis Tournament for High Schools, the Winchester High School Tennis Team brought its 1951 season to a close this week. Led by Smith and Co-Captain John Borden, this year's racketeers played a hard schedule of ten team matches, emerging with two wins and eight losses. Smith proved himself the chief point-winner, racking up five wins in singles and three in doubles, pairing with Borden in the tandem events. In the State Tournament, points were won by Smith (5 points) and Bob Mirak (3 points), other members of the team being eliminated in their first match. Smith's defeat in the semi-finals came only after a three-set battle with Louis Bortnick of Boston Latin.

Varsity letter winners were as follows:

Langdon Smith (Co-Captain)
John Borden (Co-Captain)
Robert Mirak
David Archibald
Charles Mirak
Robert Apsey

Second team letter winners were the following:

Harvey Chaffe
Philip Gillette
James Myers
Richard Crosby
Robert Abbott
Joseph Canty
James Fielding
David Mackenzie

SOFTBALL TEAM ENDS PERFECT SEASON

Captain Bette Kneeland, Winchester's top girl athlete, led her softball team to a 16 - 4 victory over Winsor, and also to an undefeated season, as the girls have won eight games out of eight. Bette starred both at the plate and in the field. Batting .544 for the season, Bette got four hits, batted in a run and stole three bases. In the seventh inning, she made an unassisted double play by catching a pop up and tagging second to force out the runner; she also caught the next hit ball to end the game. Gretchen Daschbach, allowing only eight hits, pitched a fine game against the heavy hitting Winsor. The Winsor pitchers gave up twenty-three hits, one of which was a home run by Diane Greer and one was a triple by Jan Collins. In the top of the fourth, starting Winsor pitcher, Paige, was hit in the head by a hard line drive and had to be taken out. The Winchester team deserve a great deal of credit for several times this season they were without a coach and had to practice on their own.

CUB PACK SEVEN NEWS

Pack Seven's annual picnic was held June 2, 1951 at West Side Playground. Approximately 150 Cubs and parents were present to partake of the hot dogs cooked by Cubmaster Bob Low and Mr. E. Hawes Kelley and the coca-cola dispensed by Mr. William Morton. The Cubs even after consuming a large quantity of hot dogs, sandwiches, ice cream, and coke were still able to take the field and participate in a strenuous baseball game. The game was supervised by Mr. G. Hartley Curtis who also served as pitcher, coach and umpire. The Pack statistician is still working on the score. The Cubs dispersed wishing their friends a happy vacation until the Pack meets again next fall.

Mrs. E. W. Southworth has opened her summer place at Pigeon Cove.

JUNIOR LEGION BASEBALL

The Junior Legion baseball team will open their Middlesex League with games next week at Malden on Wednesday evening and at home against Reading on Friday evening. All home games this year will be played at Manchester Field which should attract better crowds because of its central location and better physical condition.

Coach Ted Bartlett is looking forward to a good season as he has several members of this season's high school team available and they have just enjoyed a 14 and 4 record. From this year's high school nine will come pitchers Charlie Murphy and Stowell Symmes, infielders John DiIorio and Bobby Flaherty, and outfielders Prep Keyes and Jim Griffin. "Jocko" Sericka was a high school outfielder this season but will catch for the Junior Legion this summer and looks very good at that position.

Other players who will round out the 16-man squad include Charlie McLaughlin, Ron MacKenzie, Dick Giacalone, Dave Russo, Jim Carroll, Charlie DiSilva, Stu Thomson, John Atkinson, and Jack Connors. Carroll and DiSilva are two sophomore southpaws that have shown promise as twirlers on the high school second team this past season and this summer's experience will be invaluable to them. Practice games have been held with Arlington and Reading with the locals looking good in annexing both contests. The Reading game next Friday night should prove to be a popular opener as the two teams are bitter rivals and are well matched as they ended in a tie for second place in the Middlesex League this past season.

TOWN SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Standing

Sons of Italy	5	1
Esso	5	2
Beggs and Cobb	3	2
White Shirts	3	3
Atomics	2	5
Ramblers	2	5
V. F. W.	1	3

Two big surprises featured the play of the Town Softball League during the past week. The first came on Wednesday evening when the Atomics came from behind to knock the Sons of Italy out of the undefeated class by an 11 - 8 margin. The Sons had rolled to an 8 - 0 lead but the Atomics hit the ball hard to go ahead while Scotty Connor did a masterful job of relief twirling as he held the Sons scoreless over the final four frames.

The other big surprise of the week was the collapse of the White Shirts who lost three games and dropped from second to fourth place in the League standing. At the same time, Guilotti's Esso nine grabbed three victories to move into second place only half a game behind the Sons of Italy. Beggs and Cobb continued to show improvement under manager Tom Connolly and look strong enough to annex a playoff spot.

Because of the frequent rains and postponements, next week's schedule will be full with two games being played each night. The teams are now into the second round and are beginning to get squared away so that a better line can be had on their relative strength. The V. F. W. is off to a slow start but veteran observers predict that the Vets will begin to play better ball and move up gradually in the League standing as they are too good a team to remain in the cellar.

Next Week's Schedule

Monday
White Shirts vs Atomics (Ginn Field)
Esso vs Ramblers (West Side)

Tuesday
White Shirts vs V. F. W. (Ginn Field)
Beggs and Cobb vs Sons of Italy (West Side)

Wednesday
Ramblers vs Atomics (Ginn Field)
Sons of Italy vs Esso (West Side)

Thursday
Esso vs Beggs and Cobb (Ginn Field)
V. F. W. vs White Shirts (West Side)

Friday
Beggs and Cobb vs V. F. W. (Ginn Field)
Rambles vs Sons of Italy (West Side)

WINCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES 134

Outdoor Exercises at Manchester Field Sunday

In an outdoor setting at Manchester Field Sunday evening, June 10, Winchester High School held its graduation exercises, 134 members of the Class of 1951 being awarded diplomas by the chairman of the School Committee, Mrs. Marion Chandler.

A surprisingly large number of parents and friends of the young graduates, in view of the cool weather, attended the exercises which were held at the flagpole toward the northerly end of the field. Preceding the exercises the High School Band, in full uniform, played appropriate selections under the direction of Fred Felmet, director of instrumental music in the Winchester schools.

Led by President Robert Mirak, and by their class officers and speakers, the graduates marched from the junior high school down the terrace steps through the football goal posts to their seats at the rear of the speakers' platform which was decorated in green and white and banked with palms. Girls wore the traditional long, light dresses, though some of the less hardy donned coats after reaching their places. The processional march, played by the band, was the stately "Pomp and Circumstance" by Edward Elgar.

The Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, made the invocation, after which the five student addresses were delivered on the theme, "Legacy for Living." The essays had to do with the activities, fun and achievements of the class during their undergraduate days in school as a preparation for after life. Harris MacDonald spoke on the year, 1948; Carol Hawkins, on 1949; David Archibald, on 1950; and Sheila Gray, on 1951. The class president, Robert Mirak, followed these speakers with a summarizing of their remarks and predictions for the future.

MISS ABRAHAMSEN, MR. CLARK WED

Mrs. Otto Abrahamsen of Winchester announces the marriage of her daughter, Anne, to Mr. Hugh S. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin S. Clark of Addison, Vermont. The ceremony took place Wednesday, February 14th, 1951 at the Valley Falls Congregational Church, Valley Falls, N. Y.

Mrs. Clark received a B. S. in Ed. from Boston Teachers College in 1947, and an Ed. M. from the same college in 1948. Mr. Clark received his Bachelor's Degree from Yale University in 1949, and entered Columbia University Graduate School the following term. He is now in the U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma for his basic training.

NATIONAL BANK OFFICIAL RETURNS TO SCHOOL

Adolph F. Forsberg, Cashier of the Winchester National Bank will return to the Graduate School of Banking at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey on June 18th for the summer session.

This will be Mr. Forsberg's second year in a three-year course of study under the sponsorship of the American Bankers Association.

ROULSTON — SMITH

Ripley Chapel of the First Congregational Church was the setting for the 4:30 wedding on Saturday, June 9, when Miss Barbara Attwater Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Attwater Smith of 17 Bacon street became the bride of Lieutenant Colonel Robert Kemp Roulston, United States Air Force, son of Mrs. Clarence Knight Roulston of Brookline and the late Mr. Roulston. Wrought iron candelabra and ferns decorated the chancel and flowers adorned the altar for the ceremony, conducted by Dr. Howard J. Chidley, minister of the church assisted by Dr. Emory S. Bucke of Auburndale, editor of Zions Herald.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white frosted organdy gown with a square train and fingertip veil. Her cascade bouquet was lily of the valley and white roses.

Miss Marcia S. Wickes of Rochester, New York, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Rosalind J. Roulston of Brookline, sister of the groom; Miss Marilyn A. Drake and Miss Anne C. Thompson of Winchester, and Miss Susan I. Hauser of Minneapolis, Minnesota. They wore ankle length gowns of lumina, three in green with gold and silver plaid and two in lavender. The flowers in their hair matched their cascade bouquets of yellow gladioli, baby's breath and ivy, the maid of honor carrying a similar bouquet of coral gladioli.

Mrs. Smith, mother of the bride, wore a gown of French blue crepe with corsage, elbow length gloves and matching hat of shell pink. Mrs. Roulston was gowned in green crepe with a hroad brimmed hat of purple, accented by her single orchid corsage.

Samuel Hayward, Jr., of Montclair, New Jersey, was his cousin's best man, and the ushers included Elbert R. Smith, brother of the bride, of Winchester; John H. Colby of Wellesley Hills, Dr. Darrell Voorhees of New York City, and John G. Callan of Sharon.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School and Mount Holyoke College, Lieutenant Colonel, Roulston, a graduate of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has recently been recalled to service.

After a reception at the Music Hall the couple left for a wedding trip to Bermuda. Upon their return Lieutenant Colonel Roulston reports to duty in Chicago.

FORMER WINCHESTER MAN NAVY COMMANDER

H. Wray Rohrman, who formerly lived on Highland avenue and graduated from Winchester High School in the class of 1913, has been promoted to the rank of commander in the United States Naval Reserve.

Commander Rohrman, who now makes his home at 120 Middlesex road, Chestnut Hill, is currently Research Reserve Program Officer of the First Naval District. He is a veteran of World Wars I and II.

AWARDED A GOLD MEDAL

At undergraduate exercises at Boston College High School tonight, John D. Barry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Barry, 304 Main street, completing his sophomore year will be awarded a gold medal for excellence in the Classics, Latin and Greek, and first prize in Algebra.

CASSIDY — TUFTS

Miss Jeanne Tufts, daughter of Mrs. Bowen Tufts of 120 Hutchinson road, Arlington, formerly of Stratford road, was quietly married at her mother's home on Saturday afternoon, June 9, to Frank James Cassidy of New York City. The Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, read the marriage service at 4 o'clock in an attractive setting of white peonies, snapdragons and greens. Mrs. Herbert Harris played the bridal music.

Given in marriage by her brother, David Tufts of Greenwich, Conn., Miss Tufts wore a simple white shantung dress and carried a bouquet of white flowers.

Molly Tufts Shultis of Hingham was her sister's only attendant, wearing light coffee-colored shantung with a white hat. William K. Mulvey of New York City was Mr. Cassidy's best man.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony, at which the bride's mother assisted in receiving. Mrs. Tufts was gowned in pale blue crepe.

After a week on the South Shore Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy will spend the summer at the Priscilla Beach Theatre in Manomet. They met while they were playing in summer stock last summer. Mr. Cassidy is an actor and director.

The bride is a graduate of, and taught at Beaver Country Day School. She has studied at the New England Conservatory of Music and has appeared in and directed Theatre Guild productions at her own summer theatre in Hull.

INDEPENDENCE DAY TO FEATURE NEW THEME

Winchester Post 97 American Legion has announced its plans for conducting the Winchester youngsters' celebration of Independence Day, July 4th. The plans are similar in many ways to those of 1949 when the program was also handled by the Legion. At that time the theme was the Circus. This year the theme is constructed around Fire Prevention.

Noted clown firemen will be at large during the morning of the 4th advertising the day's activities, which will begin at 1 p. m. at the Town Hall. Children are invited to dress in costumes of any kind and join the parade which will move at one p. m. from the Town Hall to Leonard Field via Washington street.

Several professional acts, contests, free rides in the fire engine so popular at the En Ka Fair, and many wonderful prizes will make for an exciting afternoon. It is even rumored that every child may receive a fireman's helmet plus the usual ice cream and cold drinks.

MISS JOHNSON, MR. MOORE ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Johnson of Glen road announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to Hardwick Bigelow Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Moore of Wellesley, and grandson of Mrs. Edith J. Moore of Winchester and Mrs. E. Victor Bigelow of Quincy.

Miss Johnson attended the Winchester schools and was graduated from Smith College with the class of 1951. She is the granddaughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Charles Otis Judkins of Glen Falls, N. Y., and Mrs. Richard Johnson of Brookline.

Mr. Moore attended Phillips Andover Academy and served two years in the Navy during World War II. He was graduated from Amherst College, class of 1950, where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. At present he is in business in Pittshurgh.

No date has been set for the wedding.

FRUIT AND FLOWER MISSION

June 19 and June 26 are the dates that Mrs. Frank S. Evans of Saint Mary's Church will have for the Fruit and Flower Mission. Mrs. Evans' address is 10 Woodside road. Her telephone number is WI 6-1743. If you have any flowers to spare please give generously. I know it is between seasons in gardens right now but even the field daisies are lovely. They are a favorite with many people including your writer. If you have no garden and would like to contribute something, jellies, fruit, and preserves, would be wonderful. Just once more as a gentle reminder the Fruit and Flower Mission is a service to shutins not in hospitals, of all ages, and religions, so, if you want to make your life happier and add a little happiness to someone else's.

ARTICLES APPEAR IN MONITOR

Dr. Langley Carlton Keyes, Copley street, has written articles to appear in the Christian Science Monitor on the subject, "How Mastery of English Can Enrich Your Living." Langley Keyes, A. B., A. M., and Ph. D., all of whose degrees were gained at Harvard University, is well known in this town as a former track star at his university and as assistant dean and instructor in English for both Harvard and Radcliffe. At present in the business world, he is vice-president and director of the Boston advertising agency of Harold Cabot and Co., previous to which he was on advertising executive for the R. H. Macy and Co. store in New York City. These articles on English by Dr. Keyes will appear June 16 first.

SARKISIAN — EKLUND

The Gothic beauty of the Daniel L. Marsh chapel at Boston University was the setting for the marriage on Sunday afternoon, June 10, of Miss Nanette Eklund of Winchester to Mr. Harry Sarkisian, son of Mrs. Unan Sarkisian and the late Mr. Sarkisian of New York.

The ceremony, performed at 2:30 o'clock, by the Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, was followed by a reception in the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. William J. Eklund.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess style gown of ivory satin with a short train, a bertha and cascaded overskirt of heirloom net and Venetian lace. Her chapel-length veil of the same net and lace was arranged in cap effect with a softdraped flare, caught with orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of white and yellow roses and stephanotis.

Miss Joanne Eklund, maid of honor for her sister, wore shrimp marquisette and velveray, with a matching taffeta jacket and marquisette hat. She carried a bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Miss Alice Sarkisian, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She wore a similar gown and hat of pale yellow and carried shrimp-colored gladioli.

Receiving with the bridal party were the bride's mother, and the mother of the groom. Mr. Aulisse Margiotta, Jr. of New York was the best man, and Mr. Roger Martin of Boston, ushered. Mr. and Mrs. Sarkisian are graduates of Boston University, where Mr. Sarkisian is now attending the School of Law. They will live in Winchester.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. William H. Smith, great-aunt of the bride, and Mrs. G. A. Gustafson, both of Duluth, Minn., Mrs. Sinpoy Kasiyan, grandmother of the groom, Mrs. A. R. Margiotta and Miss Frances Borzick of New York.

RALPH T. JOPE APPOINTED AT M. I. T.

The appointment of Ralph T. Jope as Director of the Development Office of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology was announced Wednesday by Dr. James R. Killian, Jr., president of the Institute. This office, which served as headquarters for the M. I. T. Committee on Financing Development during its recent $20,000,000 drive, is now established on a permanent basis.

Mr. Jope, who acted as assistant to the general chairman, Marshall B. Dalton, during the intensive phase of the fund-raising activities of the past two years, will have direct responsibility for the Institute's long range development program.

Mr. Jope, son of Mrs. Vesta S. Jope of Woburn and formerly of Fryeburg, was graduated from M. I. T. in 1928 and is Business Manager of the Technology Review, a post which he will continue to hold. He is a former treasurer of the M. I. T. Alumni Association and from 1934 until 1947 he was a member of the Advisory Council on Athletics at M. I. T. Mr. Jope is a director of Artisan Metal Products, Inc. and the Metal Fabricators' Corporation. He has been active in the Winchester Community Chest and is a former member of the Winchester Hospital Board.

In 1932, Mr. Jope married Miss Florence E. Clayton of Trenton, N. J. They have three children, Roxanne E., 15; Deborah C., 9; Theodore W., 4; and their home is on Dix street, Winchester.

ENTERTAINED M. I. T. REUNIONERS

Several couples, who came on to attend the tenth reunion of M. I. T., were guests at two Winchester homes this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison, Jr. of Park avenue entertained Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Turnock of Shaker Heights, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goodwin of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. While Mr. and Mrs. John Sexton of Rangely entertained Mr. and Mrs. William Folberth, Jr. of Lakewood, Ohio, Mr. James Thornton of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. William Hooper of Easthrook, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Storm of Amarillo, Texas.

CENTER BUS STOP MOVED

During the removal of the top story and the renovations going on at the White Block, the bus stop previously located at the corner of Church and Main streets has been moved to a location in front of the Star Office.

EUGENE MARTIN CLENNON

Eugene Martin Clennon of 53 Wedgemere avenue, surety claims manager for the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company, died Thursday afternoon, June 7, at the Winchester Hospital, following several weeks illness.

Mr. Clennon was born January 23, 1889, in Minooka, Ill., the son of Martin, and Josephine (Bean) Clennon. His great-grandparents had settled in Minooka a hundred years before his birth, migrating there from New York in the pioneering days, and Mr. Clennon began his education in a country grade school, erected by his grandfather on land he had given to the community.

Mr. Clennon later graduated from business school in Joliet, Ill., but returned to work on his father's farm before entering Campion College at Prairie Du Chien, Wis. There he completed a four year high school academic course in two years before enrolling in the college course, from which he was graduated with the degree of A. B., cum laude, in three years.

In 1915 Mr. Clennon became a part-time instructor at Creighton University in Omaha, where he taught by day and studied law by night. World War I interrupted his studies for service with the United States Army Air Force, but after the war he returned to Omaha and passed his bar examination before completing his course in law.

Two years later he entered the law offices of Kennedy, Holland, DeLacey & Svoboda in Omaha, handling bonding and fidelity cases. In 1925 he became general attorney at the home office of the General Casualty and Surety Company in Detroit. Commencing in 1933 he served as counsel for two of New York State's Superintendents of Insurance.

In August, 1936, Mr. Clennon became associated with the Massachusetts Bonding and Insurance Company as head of the Fidelity and Surety Claim Department, a position he had filled with distinction since that time. His residence in Winchester dates from that year. Mr. Clennon leaves his wife, the former Adele Mercil of Oak Park, Ill.; two daughters, Yvonne M. Pynn of East Hartford, Conn., and Mary Adele Clennon of Winchester; and twin sons, Gordon F. and Eugene M. Clennon, Jr., both of this town.

The funeral was held from the late residence Saturday morning with requiem high mass celebrated at St. Mary's Church.

Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery. Flags on the Common and town buildings were displayed at half staff until after the services.

WILL ENTER GRADUATE SCHOOL OF BANKING

Davenport F. Davis, Treasurer of the Winchester Trust Company is a member of the class of bank officers which will enter The Graduate School of Banking at its annual summer session this year. The session will be held at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, June 18 through 30.

Mr. Davis is one of over 1,600 bankers who will attend the two-week session of the School, which is sponsored by the American Bankers Association. This student body — from forty-two states, the District of Columbia, and two foreign countries — represents a capacity enrollment.

The Graduate School was founded by the A. B. A. in 1935 to provide an opportunity for advanced study for experienced bankers. The faculty for the 1951 session numbers fifty-eight, plus twenty-seven special lecturers. It consists of outstanding bankers, lawyers, economists, bank supervisors, and government officials who, during the session, will cover all phases of banking, economics, law, government, and related subjects.

In addition to attending the summer session, plus similar sessions in 1952 and 1953, Mr. Davis must complete two years of home-study at home and write a thesis based upon original research in some phase of finance, to be eligible for graduation.

IN DEBUTANTE LIST

Two Winchester girls were among the debutantes of the 1951 Season who made their bow to Boston Society at the Debutante Cotillion held last Friday evening in the ballroom of the Hotel Copley Plaza.

Miss Cecile L. Shanklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar L. Shanklin of Everett avenue, and Miss Sally Birnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Birnie of Myopia Hill road, were the Winchester buds, who this year as an innovation were escorted through the receiving line by their fathers. After making her curtsey, Miss Shanklin was escorted by her brother, F. Garrett Shanklin.

Both she and Miss Birnie are graduates of the Winsor School, with Miss Shanklin going on to Wellesley in the fall and Miss Birnie enrolling at Mt. Holyoke.

WINCHESTER PROFESSOR TO DIRECT B. U. WORKSHOP

Prof. Herbert D. Lamson of 23 Kenwin road will direct a workshop at Boston University starting July 9th and running for three weeks. The topic of the workshop is "Sex Guidance in Family Life Education". This will be in cooperation with the Massachusetts Society for Social Hygiene. Assisting Dr. Lamson will be Perry Dunlap Smith Lit. D. headmaster of the North Shore Country Day School in Winnetka, Illinois. The purpose of this workshop is to orient school administrators, teachers, parents, social workers, nurses, religious workers, librarians, guidance counselors, and others in the philosophy and teaching techniques of this topic. Outside lecturers will include: Luther E. Woodward Ph. D., Coordinator of Community Mental Hygiene Services, New York State Department of Mental Hygiene; Beatrice Kershaw, M. D., pediatrician at the James Jackson Putnam Children's Center in Boston; Libbie Bower, Ph. D., consultant School Project, Massachusetts Society for Mental Hygiene; Lester Dearborn, marriage counselor for the Massachusetts Society for Social Hygiene; Professor Neal B. DeNood, Ph. D. sociologist at Smith College; Dr. Joseph Weinreb of the Worcester Youth Center; Volta R. Hall, M. D., assistant psychiatrist at the Massachusetts General Hospital. In addition there will be lectures by Perry Dunlap Smith, by Albert Norris head of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology at Boston University, and by Herbert D. Lamson of the same Department.

Two hours in the morning will be devoted to lectures. An hour before lunch there will be a browsing period so that the members of the workshop may study books and pamphlets in this field. Motion pictures will be shown also in this period. In the afternoon the workshop will be divided into groups of from a dozen to fifteen for discussion purposes. In view of our high divorce rate this topic should be of interest to many persons. The workshop will be as practicable as possible. Further details may be secured by writing to Dr. Herbert D. Lamson, 2500 Bay State road, Boston 15, Mass. There will be opportunities for the members of the workshop to have individual conferences with the leaders. It is hoped that a number of persons from Winchester may avail themselves of this opportunity to secure orientation in this very important area.

OVER 2,500 PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX BILLS OUT UNDER NEW FORMULA

In former years the personal property tax has been paid according to the following:

A person living in a house and garage assessed between $6,500 and $10,000 paid on a $2500 personal property tax. When the value of house and garage was assessed from $10,000 to $20,000 the personal property tax assessed was $1,000. Assessments over a $20,000 valuation were treated as special cases.

The Board of Assessors have felt for some time that an improvement could be made for a more equitable distribution of the personal property tax and voted to follow a new percentage formula to be used in assessing all personal property for the year 1951.

With the new formula as a basis, any citizen wishing to figure his personal property tax can do so by applying for the following:

Take 20% of the total valuation of the house and garage, deduct $1,000 exemption, and the balance will be taxed as personal property.

All citizens living in houses with attached or unattached garages valued at $6,000 and over would be assessed according to the above formula, and any citizen already receiving a personal property tax under the $6,000 value will continue to receive the same tax.

The Board believes this method to be more equitable than the old method in arriving at a truer valuation of personal property, as the percentage rule applies to all citizens, except in special cases.

The Board of Assessors wishes all citizens of the Town to know that they are attempting to do their work with fair taxation for all. We welcome suggestions and constructive criticism in our attempt to reveal to the entire town and raise the necessary tax money to run our town on a sound program fair to all citizens and taxpayers.

The Assessors meet each Thursday morning, between the hours of 9 and 12, in the Assessor's Office, Town Hall.

MYSTIC GLEE CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

The Mystic Glee Club, having successfully completed its eleventh year, has chosen the organization for the 1951 - 52 season. The slate of officers which has been re-elected for a second term includes: Austin E. Nanry, President; Edmund H. Dewey, Vice-President; James J. Sewall, Recording Secretary; Ralph F. Curtis, Corresponding Secretary; and W. Donald Maxwell, Treasurer.

The Committee Chairmen for the coming year are: Ragnar T. Brandt, Sponsoring Membership; Benjamin T. Marshall, Jr., Music; George E. Niles, Voice; Edgar D. Hinton, Finance; M. Arthur Noble, Library; William W. Towner, Ways and Means; John H. Lyman, Entertainment; and William M. Hopkins, Publicity. The club will again be conducted by Donald D. Snyder and Mary Louise Middleton will continue as accompanist.

The Glee Club will not meet during the summer, but will start rehearsals on Monday, September 10.

CLASS OF '01 OBSERVES 50TH

Final arrangements have been completed for the 50th reunion of the Class of '01 of the Winchester High School. Active local members of the class have been busy for some time contacting the various living members of the class and have met with much success, a large number of out-of-town and far distant members signifying their intention of attending.

The reunion will be held at the Winchester Country Club on Saturday, June 23, with a dinner opening at six o'clock. Members and their friends are invited to attend and so contact Miss Laura B. Tolman, WI 6-1198-R.

WILL LEAVE SECOND STORY

Following the start of the work of tearing down the two top stories of the White Block at the corner of Church and Main streets, Selectman Harry Lino, owner of the building, has reversed his decision and will only remove the top story, leaving the first and second stories as they are.

This building was badly damaged by fire a few weeks ago. At first Mr. Cinella decided to remove the two top stories and he had already laid a new roof above the first story preparatory to removing the building above. He has now decided to make the second story into apartments.

JOSEPH W. DOWNS

Funeral services are being held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Waterboro, Me., for Joseph W. Downs, a former resident of Winchester who died in Waterboro on June 13.

Mr. Downs, then in the investment business, made his home in Winchester from 1933 to 1947, when he returned to his native Waterboro in Maine. He was 73 years old.

He leaves his wife, the former Ethel M. Sinclair; and five children, Carll S., of New York City; L. Warren, Jr., of Dunstable; Roger C., Sanford and John H. Downs of St. Johnsbury, Vt.

KIMBALLS ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. A. Allen Kimball of Cabot street, entertained at a cocktail party on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. Kimball's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Tuttle of Middleton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle came on to attend the graduation of their sons, Thomas, from Hodgekiss School in Connecticut and William Jr., from Williams in Williamstown.

DISTRICT NURSING JUNE MEETING

Cost of Visits to be $2.50

The June meeting of the Winchester District Nursing Association, held last Friday morning and afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry E. Damon, Jr., 70 Arlington street, was highlighted by a splendid talk by Dr. Harry L. Mueller on "Cancer, Cancer in Children, and especially Leukemia"; a morning business session and report by Mrs. Doris Wiklund, Executive Director, on "The Nurse's Responsibility in giving the New Drugs". Mrs. Henry E. Moffette presided, with Mrs. Theodore Browne in charge of the speakers' programs.

One of the most important pieces of business to be voted on last Friday was the increase in the cost of nurses' visits from $2.00 to $2.50 (for the first hour or any part thereof with 60 cents for each additional fifteen minutes. Office calls will be raised from $1.00 to $1.25) Other towns and cities have found it necessary to raise their visiting nurses' fees to meet rising costs, and Winchester cannot expect the Community Fund to make up its District Nursing Association deficit each year unless the Association first attempts to help itself. Ever supply costs are up, Mrs. Moffette pointed out, explaining the board's stand on the need to raise fees. Members passed the recommendation unanimously, and the new rate becomes effective July 1, 1951.

Dr. Mueller Shows Slides

The afternoon session of the meeting was of keen interest to the Association, for much has been written recently of cancer and leukemia in children. Dr. Mueller, widely known and respected pediatrician who is also associated with the Children's Medical Center in Boston, first explained to his audience exactly what cancer is, how vitally important "early removal of the growth" is. He reminded his listeners of the wonderful Children's Cancer Foundation which has grown from one small room in the Children's Hospital to a million dollar structure, made possible through the "Jimmy Fund". Here all arts and skills are devoted to research in cancer, particularly cancer in children.

The slides with which Dr. Mueller illustrated his talk were most compelling, telling a vivid picture of actual patients brought to the Medical Center. His splendid lecture seemed pointed in one direction — a hopeful direction — as he showed what has been done so far to fight cancer in children, and what the doctors are doing to push that fight into final victory.

Nurses and the New Drugs

With the new drugs, such as ACTH and cortisone, now being administered to patients by nurses, under doctors' orders and medical supervision, a spotlight has been focused on the place of the District Nurse in this picture. On Friday Mrs. Wiklund reported on a meeting for Public Health Supervisors on that subject, explaining just what ACTH is, how it is extracted from the adrenal glands of animals, and how it is administered to patients. Cortisone, which is practically synthesized, contains the bile salt from animals and is somewhat in scare supply at the present time.

Mrs. Wiklund's excellent report followed a resume by Mrs. Theodore Browne, education chairman, of the work accomplished by WDNA, its board and various committees, during the last six month period.

Business Session Highlights

The nursing report for May 1951, presented by Mrs. Wiklund, showed a continued heavy case load for the nurses, with 486 visits, 56 more than in the same period last year. Forty new patients were admitted, bringing admission to date to 228. The total number of visits made by the nurses to date this year is 2276 — 236 more than last year.

The nursing staff has voted to accept Social Security and the revised National Health and Welfare Retirement Plan, as of July 1.

Another item voted unanimously by the board comprised the increase in the visiting nurse's fee from $2 to $2.50 for one hour or any part, effective July 1.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Damon for her hospitality — for again offering her beautiful grounds and home as the setting for the Winchester District Nursing Association's June meeting. Members brought box lunches, and the Hospitality Committee provided coffee and dessert.

CIVIL DEFENSE

First-Aid Units To Be Organized

Thorough plans for the rapid mobilization and efficient operation of first-aid and ambulance services are basic to civil defense casualty care. The rescue of persons by other civil defense services must be followed closely by initial first aid, litter service where needed, initial surgical treatment, and ambulance transportation.

Bulletin No. 11 released this week by the Civil Defense Agency is issued for the purpose of coordinating the activities of local organizations for Civil Defense with respect to first-aid services called for in the State Civil Defense plan and program. The basic unit of organization for the first-aid service requires the following personnel:

Physicians	2
Dentists	3
Nurses	3
Pharmacists	2
Nurses' Aides and First-Aid Workers	15
Clerical	6
Litter Bearers	150
Ambulance Personnel	8
	189

It is estimated that one of these units could process a maximum of 600 casualties in its first 24 hours of operation. Bearing in mind that a single, nominal atomic bomb exploded over Boston could cause injury to as many as 202,841 persons, it is apparent that at least 338 first-aid units must be organized to meet the possibility of such an attack. In addition, it is necessary to allow for casualties among first-aid personnel themselves and for a reserve of first-aid units. Thus it can be seen that a total of 450 to 500 first-aid units would be none too large to meet our potential needs.

Since the Commonwealth now has a population of 4,664,284 according to preliminary results of the 1950 United States census, organization of first-aid units on the basis of one per 10,000 persons would give us a force of some 466 units. Therefore, the local organization for Civil Defense in each of the larger cities and towns are requested to proceed to organize the number of first-aid units allotted to them in this bulletin. Winchester's quota is two units. The work of organization of these two units will proceed without delay under the supervision of the Medical and Health Division of Winchester's Civil Defense organization.

Those who have already volunteered for service and have not as yet been assigned will be contacted and others interested are requested to write or telephone the Winchester Department of Civil Defense, Town Hall, telephone WInchester 6-3257.

Stuart S. Rae, fire control technician, third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Rae of 229 Pond street, is serving aboard the destroyer USS Massey.

MAY ENLISTEES

A total of eight (8) men from the Town of Winchester enlisted in the Regular Army or the Air Force during the month of May 1951, according to an announcement from U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Headquarters, Medford City Hall. These men enlisted for varying periods of time ranging from twenty-one months to four years. Those of the group who enlisted in the Regular Army were transferred to Fort Devens, Mass., for processing and from there will be reassigned to one of the many Army camps throughout the country. Those who enlisted in the Air Force were transferred to Sampson Air Force Base, New York for approximately six (6) weeks of basic training and from there will either be transferred to one of the many technical schools operated by the Air Force or be assigned to an Air Force Base for permanent duty.

The names and addresses of those enlisted are:

Romeo P. Rolli, 189 Washington street.

Joseph E. Lynch, 320 Cross street.

Janies V. Frongillo, 49 Harvard street.

Mark E. Strawbridge, 47 Myrtle Terrace.

Robert J. Sullivan, Jr., 30 Oak street.

Frank F. Errico, 398 Washington street.

James J. Casey, 16 Russell road.

Robert B. Singer, 7 Central street.

Enlisted for O. C. S., see elsewhere in the Star.

CAMP MOUNT PERO OPENS

Camp Mount Pero located midway between the Lakes Region and White Mountains of New Hampshire is anticipating another banner camping season. The camp has been outstanding because of its informality in the teaching and supervision of athletics, nature and handicrafts to small groups of boys. The natural environment of the many fine lakes and the rugged mountains give ample opportunity for the boys to learn to become independent in the great out-of-doors.

Campers from Winchester who are spending the season or part of the season include: Joseph Cussen, Paul Haggerty, Donald Campbell, Gary Gamage, Kenneth MacArthur, Lauren Keene, Donald Wyman, Jim Wakefield, Joe Donovan, Billy Morton, Tommy Smith, Albert Dacharms, Seth Weston, Ronnie Kolligian, John Mawn, Anthony Mucera, Jimmy Towle, John O'Donnell, Jackie Coakley, and David, Charles and Hollis Petri formerly of Winchester but now residing in Scituate.

The camp is directed by Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Nault of 203 Washington street, Winchester.

YOUTHFUL THIEF CAPTURED

While on patrol on Highland avenue near Lebanon street shortly after midnight last Sunday morning Officers William Callahan and William Haggerty noticed a boy riding a girl's bicycle along the street.

Upon being questioned, the boy admitted he had stolen the bicycle, owned by Jean Freeman, from her home on Lorena road, and had also stolen a pair of binoculars from an automobile in the yard of the home of Otto Hessler, also on Lorena road.

The boy, who lives in Medford and is 14 years old, was taken into custody by Officer Callahan and held at Headquarters for his parents. He will appear as a delinquent in the District Court at Woburn.

CHILD STRUCK BY CAR

Charles Lizotte, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lizotte of 35 Loring avenue, was struck and shaken up last Sunday afternoon by a Ford sedan being driven south on Loring avenue by Dorothy J. Roberts of 12 Clematis street.

Mrs. Roberts told the police the little boy ran from the east side of the street against the left front bumper of the machine. She took him to the Winchester Hospital where he was attended by Dr. Phillip J. McManus.

Charles was found to be shaken up but otherwise uninjured and was permitted to return home.

Funeral services for Mrs. Russell Parker Priest,a former resident of Winchester who died suddenly June 8 in Brookline, were held Monday at the Eastman Funeral Home in Boston. While in Winchester Mrs. Priest made her home on Dix terrace and later in Rangeley, the family building a home there. They left Winchester for Cambridge some years ago.

PHINNEY MERCHANDISING WINNER

William F. Phinney, of 69 Yale street, son of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur O. Phinney, has just been named the recipient of The Philip Morris Merchandising Award, for outstanding work on behalf of the Company on the campus of Harvard University. Phinney, who is majoring in Government at the University, has been gaining valuable practical business experience as the Campus Representative for Philip Morris.

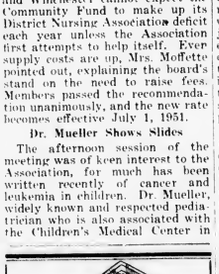

The Award, which was signed by Ray Jones, Vice President in Charge of Sales and Robert Larkin, Sales Promotion Manager of the firm, was made to Phinney for outstanding "conscientiousness and initiative in the execution of assigned duties."

The Merchandising Award Certificate from the cigarette firm—which is known in industry circles as a "salesman's company" — will serve in the future as a valuable recommendation of Phinney's ability. Three successive Philip Morris chief executives started as salesmen, as did many of the other key executives.

WINCHESTER BOY CONFERENCE PITCHER

Dick Coon, who graduated May 27 from Whitman College at Walla Walla, Wash., was selected as one of three pitchers on the all star team of the Northwest Collegiate Baseball Conference this year.

Dick, better known here as an infielder and outfielder with the high school and Winchester Warriors, was changed into a pitcher at Whitman and did well, having a record of six wins in eight games this past season. He had several offers to pitch for some of the strong teams in a red hot canning league in Washington, but passed them up in favor of his new job on a ranch at Washtucna.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Coon of Brooks street.

MARTIN WON COUNTRY CLUB CUP

Edward Martin, one of Winchester's ranking golfers, won the Country Club Cup last Sunday afternoon by defeating Jim Shea of Oak Hill, 4 and 3, at Clyde Park. Martin's victory placed him in a select group of three-time winners of the championship.

Shea got away to an early lead with a 30-footer for a birdie three at the second, but Martin's succession of pars wouldn't be denied and the Oakley entry gradually fell behind.

In the semi-final round Martin played 14 holes in four-over-par to eliminate Leo Mullin of Brookline, while Shea eliminated the medalist, Frank McArdle of Wayland, 2 up.

WINNER AT HORSE SHOW

Alison Hersey of 29 Woodside road, won a red ribbon and a yellow ribbon at the Bedford Grove Horse Show in Manchester, N. H., last Sunday afternoon, the red ribbon being a second place in the "Ladies' Western Class" and the yellow ribbon a third in the "Trail Horses" class.

Dr. Donald W. Ash of Oakland, California, arrived Sunday to spend a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ash of Fairview terrace.

MRS. RICHART REACHED SEMI-FINAL

Mrs. Frank E. Richart, Jr., who carried the Winchester Country Club colors to the semi-final round of the Massachusetts State Women's golf championship at Charles River, was finally eliminated in that round last Friday by Ruth Woodward of Acoaxet, 1949 titlist, 3 and 2. Playing in her first State tournament in 1949, Mrs. Richart was eliminated in the first round that year and again in the same round a year ago. In Miss Woodward she was playing one of the pre-tournament favorites for championship honors this year.

In the quarter-finals the Winchester entrant played good golf to defeat Mrs. J. W. Nichols, Jr., of Weston, 4 and 3.

In the semi-finals Mrs. Richart was victimized by her opponent's opening four pars which gave Miss Woodward three of the first four holes. A spectacular deuce won the 170-yard 14th for Mrs. Richart but even that left Miss Woodward three up with only four to play and she proved equal to the task of protecting her lead.

Mrs. Richard Homer of Brae Burn beat Miss Woodward in the final round, 3 and 1.

WINCHESTER GOLFERS AT BEAR HILL

Bob Fletcher of Winchester paired with Harold Ahern of the home club to win the second flight competition in the Bear Hill Golf Club's annual Member-Guest tournament last Sunday, beating Gene Arcand of Commonwealth and George Hurley, 2 and 1.

In the championship flight Vance Holdam of Winchester and Edwin Pietz were beaten in the semi-final round by Bob Woodward of Bellevue and Ellery Rogers, 3 and 2.

Roswell Boutwell of Tedesco and E. K. Blaisdell lost out in the final of the championship consolation to John Dingle of Mt. Hood and Leo Curley, 6 and 4.

Fletcher and Ahern won their semi-final round match from a former Winchester High School all around athlete, Wilmer Smith of Bear Hill, who was paired with Gardner Walker of Acton.

WALSH WINS BASKETBALL TROPHY

Robert L. Walsh of 15 Yale street was presented with the Berkshire School Basketball Trophy last Saturday at the school's annual commencement exercises in Sheffield, Mass. The trophy goes each year to the boy chosen by his coaches as the team's most valuable player.

Walsh, who played on the W. H. S. team a year ago, led Berkshire's five in scoring this past winter. He also played No. 1 on the tennis team. Walsh will enter Colgate University in September.

MISS BELCHER RESIGNS AS EXECUTIVE HOSTESS

Miss Elise A. Belcher, who for the past 25 years has served as Executive Hostess of the First Congregational Church, has tendered her resignation because of ill health.

Last Sunday morning, at the close of worship, a small group of the officers of the Church met in Dr. Chidley's study and presented her with a substantial monetary gift from individuals and organizations of the Church as an appreciation of the faithful service she had rendered.

A recognition, as follows, signed by a representative of the Women's Organization, the Prudential Committee, the Church Committee, and Dr. Chidley, was also given her.

Dear Elise:

Your friends in the First Congregational Church wish to express to you in some concrete form their appreciation of your competent and helpful service as Executive Hostess of the Church for the past twenty-three years.

They ask you, therefore, to accept the enclosed check as a token of their affection and esteem, with the prayer that peace may pursue your footsteps through all the coming years.

Sincerely yours,

WINCHESTER LADIES TO VISIT WELLESLEY

Mrs. Edward Anderson of 22 Ardley road, Mrs. Richard Gould of 14 Prospect street, Mrs. Edward Grosvenor of 12 Fenwick road, Miss Mary Hodge of 17 Edgehill road, Mrs. Paul Leverette of 3 Woodside road, Miss Nina Richardson of 15 Mt. Pleasant street, Mrs. Robert Stone of 35 Foxcroft road, and Mrs. Joseph Worthen of 29 Wedgemere avenue are among the 900 Wellesley College alumnae who plan to attend the first "Wellesley Week End" on June 14 - 18. Former students comprising 13 classes from 1886 to 1934 will be present at the reunion, whose program of lectures this year centers around the theme of "The Force of Democracy."

WINNER IN CANADIAN MEET

Jerry Whatmough has returned to Winchester for the summer vacation after completing his junior year at Upper Canada College, Toronto, Canada.

At the annual Upper Canada College track and field meet held in Toronto, Jerry came first in the mile race, Intermediate class.

During the past year, he was a Non-Commissioned Officer in the Upper Canada College Cadet Corps.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Remember Campers No Exam — No Camp. If your own Doctor is not making the physical exam you should be at the Girl Scout office at 10 a. m. Saturday without fail.

Becoming a Senior Scout is a great step in the life of a Girl Scout. Last Thursday night 54 Intermediates were so honored at a most impressive ceremony at the cabin. The following scouts from Mrs. Arthur Pratt's troop received the "Curved" Bar, one of the highest awards and it was earned by their work in Scout Forestry:

Bonnie Downs, Janet Fisher, Gretchen Long, Dorothy Pratt, Judy Roberts, Joan Sweetser, Margaret Thompson, Virginia Wadsworth.

Other leaders of Intermediate groups are:

Mrs. Charles McGregg, Mrs. Warren Lasky, Mrs. Barbara Metcalf and Mrs. James McElroy. These leaders have prepared these Scouts for Senior responsibilities through capable guidance and an appealing interesting program. Twelve Scouts in Mrs. McElroy's group were ready to become Junior First Aides at the end of seventeen weeks of work and study. Mrs. Lois Hersey, one of the leaders of Seniors, capped the girls into the Senior group and presented each with her Senior pin. In welcoming these girls into the Senior group, she spoke briefly of the challenge presented in our own locality to know and understand our immediate neighbors.

World friendship is developed best by first knowing how those who living in bordering towns and on nearby farms live and think. The Seniors who briefly outlined the Senior program were:

Leeta Berman, who explained Nurses Aide Work; Judy Higgins and Althea Hersey who told of the Out-door program; and Mary Cullen who spoke of her work as a Program Aide.

Mrs. Barbara Metcalf spoke to them of the chances to serve in the field of Defense and Service as well as outlining the plans for the trips.

Mrs. J. Willing helped the new Seniors to understand their new status by her talk on "What it means to be a Senior."

Scribe Katherine Swisher reports that troop 23 closed their year's program with a tea at the cabin for their mothers. These Brownies prepared the sandwiches, coffee, tea and punch and served the refreshments with no help from their guests.

The Senior troop of Mrs. L. Hersey closed the year with a dessert party at the home of Nancy Morse followed by a trip to Norembega Park.

WELLESLEY CLUB

The Wellesley Club of Winchester held its annual meeting at Fieldstones in Andover on June 7. A buffet luncheon preceded the business meeting at which were presented the Secretary's and Treasurer's Reports and a report on the Mornings Program. As previously announced, all season tickets to the Series of Winchester Mornings have been sold and guest tickets for individual lectures are available to holders of season tickets only.

Following the reports and a discussion on general business of the Club, the new officers were announced by the chairman of the Nominating Committee, Mrs. Ralph T. Jope. Mrs. Paul Leverette succeeds Mrs. Albert D. Swazey as President; Mrs. Wayne Davis, Vice-President; Mrs. Charles Sweetser, Secretary-Treasurer; Mrs. Alan Smith, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Peter Laban, Publicity Chairman; Mrs. Parker Heath, Acquaintanceship Chairman; Mrs. Richard Wyman, Social Chairman and Mrs. Lindsay Caldwell, Chairman of Ways and Means.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Barnes have opened up their summer place in Ocean Point, Maine.

EN KA SOCIETY GIVES FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS

A large and enthusiastic group of En Ka members gathered for their annual meeting on Tuesday, June the 12th at Camp Joy, the Girl Scout cabin tucked in the woods on Border road.

It was indeed a treat to have a picnic luncheon while enjoying the bright splashes of sunshine on tree tops and tracing the lacey shadows on fragrant pine paths.

It was most gratifying to listen to the reports of all the committees realizing how wholeheartedly every member has given more than her share to the activities contributing to the charities of Winchester.

Under the capable chairman, Mrs. Richard A. Harlow and her committee consisting of Mrs. Donald F. Conners and Mrs. Victor A. Wolf the report of expenditures follows.

12 Bassinets and new type incubators for En Ka Nursery	$1,200.00
Porch for Home for Aged	1,500.00
Retaining wall and steps Girl Scout Cabin	203.85
Instruments and uniforms for High School band	325.00
En Ka Scholarship	500.00
Hospital Library Service	100.00
Television and table, plumbing fixtures at Home for Aged	341.90
Community Fund	300.00
Salvation Army	150.00
Red Cross	150.00
March of Dimes	50.00
Hot pack for arthritic cases Winchester District Nurse	80.00
Cases in need of assistance	60.00
Red Cross yarn for knitting	25.00
Christmas party for Public Health	50.00

It was voted to add to the Board for the ensuing year a Chairman of Welfare.

Among the 550 baby pictures taken at the hospital by the Photo Service we hope to find many future members.

Mrs. Leslie A. Tucker received heart-warming acclaim when she gave her most successful report of this year's Street Fair with a profit of $5500.

Mrs. Thomas M. Righter, Jr., our president, who has shown such loyal interest during the past two years, turned the gavel over to Mrs. Richard A. Harlow the new president who also received much warm applause and so the 1951 season came to a close, each one taking away with her a feeling of deep satisfaction in the gratifying record of achievement for the past year.

Following are the officers for 1951 - 1952:

TO GRADUATE FROM BATES

Two Winchester girls will receive bachelor's degrees from Bates College Sunday, June 17th.

Ruth Bunten, daughter of Mrs. Alger T. Bunten of 40 Wildwood street, Winchester. Miss Bunten, who has majored in sociology, will receive the Bachelor of Arts degree. She has been active in the Choral Society, Robinson Players, and a former cheerleader. Miss Bunten, who graduated in 1947 from Winchester High School, has also served as co-director for a Winter Carnival ice show.

Melissa Meigs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Meigs of 11 Hancock street, Winchester. Miss Meigs, who has majored in English, will receive the Bachelor of Arts degree. She has been active on the yearbook staff, in the Women's Student Government, and on the staff of the weekly campus newspaper. Miss Meigs, who wrote the Class Hymn and Ivy Day Ode, graduated from Winchester High in 1947.

Edward Boyson, Station Commander, Medford Recruiting Station.

With center office buildings being turned into apartments and dentists moving into restricted private zones, it begins to look as if all of our previous concept of business and housing is relegated to the horse and buggy days.

The Star has heard favorable comment over the newly announced Building Committee for Additional Facilities for Senior and Junior High Schools. Its personnel is such as to encourage the confidence of both sides in the most recent controversy over a school building program as well as the general public. Including four of those recommended by the Referendum Committee should go far toward preventing any talk of "packing," and this committee would seem to number one or two members at least with the ability to sell a plan to the electorate, something the last committee definitely lacked. The new group faces a difficult problem and probably no one knows this better than the committee members themselves. It will help to have the confidence of the community, and those who may not be entirely pleased with the new committee would do well to remember that the town's treatment of past committees wasn't helpful to Moderator Wadsworth in his effort to secure new people to serve. It is quite likely that those particularly strong candidates you have in mind would not do so.

In connection with scholarship funds, like other charitable enterprises, we hear mostly appeals for contributions. This is natural for of course it is the money paid in by those interested that keeps the funds alive. In a general way we know what the funds accomplish, but specific instances are always so much easier to grasp that it really was a happy thought when Mrs. Greene, chairman of the Scholarship Committee of the Winchester Scholarship Foundation, while presenting the Foundation awards at high school graduation Sunday evening, told what a Winchester scholarship had meant back in 1933 to "Dick" Barksdale, one of Winchester High School's outstanding graduates of recent years. "Dick", a fine upstanding colored boy, played a lot of gritty football for Winchester High while making a splendid scholastic record, and it is of course entirely possible he would have continued his education had he not received a $100 scholarship. The scholarship, however, definitely resulted in his going to Bowdoin, where he continued his scholastic achievements and won the respect and affection of his classmates. After Bowdoin came graduate study and a Master's Degree from Syracuse, followed by teaching at several of the south's colored schools and colleges. Presently Professor of English and Dean of the Graduate School at North Carolina in Durham, "Dick", or "Barky" as he was known during his high school football days, has continued his studies and at commencement this year will receive his Doctorate from Harvard University. It is nice to think that a Winchester scholarship started this fine man on his career of service as an educator. It is equally pleasant to realize that a more recent recipient of a scholarship, charming Norma Farrar, was thereby started on a brilliant career at New Hampshire University, from which she was graduated this year, magna cum laude, while holding as president of the women's student council the highest undergraduate honor on the campus, all despite the handicap of blindness. Prof. Barksdale and Miss Farrar are but two cases where Winchester scholarships have been a blessing. There will be more Normas and "Barkys" coming along; eager to achieve and reflect credit upon themselves and the community. It is much harder to pay for a college education than it used to be, even with the greater earning power of the present. Worthy young people, more and more are needing, and are going to need, help in their effort to get a higher education. The Winchester Scholarship Foundation has been created to assist them, and to broaden the scope of those contributing to its funds the foundation has created sustaining memberships at $3.00 and up, the idea being to make it possible for every one to assist in its effort to help young people like "Barky" and Norma. You can send your $3, or more, to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Winchester Scholarship Foundation, Leslie J. Scott, at the Winchester National Bank. There ought to be a lot of Winchester people willing to spend three dollars so wisely and well!

AWARDED SILVER STAR

Editor of the Star:

On May 24, 1951 the writer was present at the awarding of the Silver Star (Posthumous) to Sgt. Anthony L. Langone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Langone, Sr., of No. Woburn. Inasmuch as Sgt. Langone had many friends in Winchester we think they would be interested in the wording of the citation: —

"... Sergeant Anthony L. Langone, RA11580808, Inf. Co. L, 27th Inf. USA, an infantry company occupying defensive positions on Sobuk-san, Korea on September 19, 1950 was subjected to repeated hostile attacks and artillery barrages. During one attack the enemy succeeded in penetrating the right flank positions. Leaving the relative security of his position, Sergeant Langone moved about the area encouraging the men and directing their fire. When the enemy attack was temporarily halted, he led his platoon in a vigorous counterattack which routed the hostile force and secured the company position. Sergeant Langone's outstanding leadership and notable courage reflect the highest credit on himself and the United States Army. Entered the military service from Massachusetts . . ."

Col. Ora Farnsworth, USA, who made the award, assisted by Capt. Robert Green USAF, and the writer bowed our heads in tribute to a very brave American.

Very truly yours,
G. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

REFERENDUM COMMITTEE DISBANDS

June 12, 1951

Editor of the Star:

The Moderator has appointed a new Building Committee highly qualified to solve the secondary school problem on the broadest base and to then build good structures to provide the necessary facilities.

The members of the Referendum Committee have full confidence in the new Building Committee, stand ready to assist it in any way possible and predict that its labors will be crowned with success resulting in long-range benefits to Winchester.

The Referendum Committee has therefore disbanded, with the confident belief that it will not be necessary for it to again arise, like the Phoenix of mythology, from its own ashes.

Richard M. Rush
For the Referendum Committee

Editor of the Star:

On May 24 another Winchester young man was sworn in for Officer Candidate School — Robert B. L. Singer of 7 Central street. "Bob" left the following day for Camp Kilmer, N. J., where he will stay for a few days before going to Ft. Dix where he will have 22 weeks of basic training and leadership school. Having been assigned to the artillery, on successful completion of his Ft. Dix training, he will then go to Ft. Sill, Okla., for 22 weeks. When Robert gets to Ft. Dix, he will "get the word" from Pvt. Peter Farnsworth and Pvt. Charles Flynn who are now up to their necks in rigorous training.

Robert Singer is a graduate of Winchester High School; after graduation he attended Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y. The writer is very proud of "Bob", he is only 19 years of age — young to be selected for OCS — but he has what the Armed Forces are looking for which is leadership qualifications. He will have to work hard in the year ahead but will make a fine officer.

I am sure the people of Winchester join me in sending best wishes for success to another of our boys who is about to take on great responsibility.

Cordially yours,
G. Toye, Chairman
Military Manpower Committee

PLAYGROUNDS OPEN JUNE 18

The Winchester Playgrounds will open for the season on Monday morning and everything is in readiness to receive the large turnout of youngsters on opening day. A new playground has been added this year at the West Side Field to accommodate the large number of youngsters in that growing section of town. All of the usual playground facilities will be available at that field and parents in that section are urged to make full use of the program and facilities offered. The Loring Avenue playground will not be in operation this summer as the field is not yet ready for use.

The playgrounds are supervised from nine to twelve in the morning and from two to five in the afternoon on Monday through Friday of each week. Saturday is a half-day with the instructors supervising the program from nine to twelve in the morning. Ted Bartlett will head up the entire program as Playground Supervisor, assisted by Mrs. Ruth Thomas who will direct the enlarged arts and crafts program. Ken Brandt and Patsy Mawn will be the instructors at Leonard Field, Dennis Sanford and Cynthia Wilson at Ginn Field, and Robert Walsh and Phyllis O'Neil at the West Side Field.

VETS GET MORE TAX TIME

The following Act of the Legislature is published at the request of the Board of Assessors.

(Chapter 301)

An Act extending the time within which certain soldiers and sailors and their wives, widows, fathers or mothers may file application for abatement or exemption of taxes.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 534 of the acts of 1949 is hereby amended by striking out section 3, added by chapter 165 of the acts of 1950, and inserting in place thereof the following: — Section 3. Application for abatement or exemption, as provided in section five of chapter fifty-nine of the General Laws, of taxes levied in the year nineteen hundred and fifty may be made not later than October first, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary.

(Approved May 8, 1951.)

APPEAL TO THE WOMEN

The Friends of the Winchester Hospital would appreciate assistance at all times with the services they render the Winchester Hospital, but especially during the summer months when so many workers are absent.

The volunteer services, which are varied, allow for a choice of work best suited to your time and preference. Clerical services are very much needed.

During the summer the Coffee and Gift Shop is closed, but the Gift Shop Cart will operate, as usual.

List of some of the Volunteer Services, and where to call:

Gift Cart — Mrs. Bruce Young, WInchester 6-3555.

Flower Arrangement — Mrs. Arthur Agnew, WInchester 6-6802.

Clerical — Mrs. Clarence R. Wickerson, WInchester 6-0507-W.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Benson are the parents of a second son, Frederick Stephen, born May 29, at the Winchester Hospital. Dr. and Mrs. Benson reside at 72 Yale street.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

WATCHES FOR SALE!

The proprietor of a Winchester filling station came to police headquarters last Sunday evening, reporting a man driving a car with a Georgia registration had borrowed $15 from him, giving a watch as security, and promising to return later to redeem the watch for $20.

The man was due back at 6, and at 7:30 the Station man appealed to the police. They found that he had distributed several watches under similar circumstances in Woburn, and on Monday he was reported still busy in East Bridgewater.

According to the police no charges could be made against the man even if he were apprehended.

LETTER CARRIERS HOLD BANQUET

On Sunday, June 10, the Northeastern District Letter Carriers held their spring meeting and banquet at Lawrence.

Among the carriers present from the local Winchester postoffice were Raymond "Ray" Ross, president of Branch 243 and Bernard "Barney" Callahan of the Executive Board of the Northeastern District.

A turkey dinner was served at Social Hall, Lawrence. The fall meeting will be held in Peabody.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL FIFTH GRADE ASSEMBLY

On Thursday, June 7th, the fifth grade pupils entertained their parents and friends with a fast-moving and original program, the theme of which was "Sports".

Lincoln Morison, as a most poised and able announcer, called attention to the fact that during the year many sports had been discussed in class, and the fifth grade thought that the end of the year was an ideal time to give a presentation of some of the highlights in sports, sportsmanship, and some interesting points connected with people in the various sports activities.

Following is a resume of the program:

Introduction — What the Word Sports Means — Paul Lamarche

Following the introductory talk a group of boys and girls presented pictures they had drawn, each depicting his favorite sport. As each pupil showed his picture he discussed the origin of this particular sport, and clues about the playing of it. Others in the group guessed the sport thus described. They also stressed the point that a sport is either individual or group, and clarified the values of each.

The Sports, as drawn and explained, were:

Baseball — Alfred Ducharme
Hockey — Allen McLatchy
Tennis — Carole McFarlane
Skiing — Dickie Low
Track events — Sally MacArthur
Fishing — John Gattineri
Golfing — Paul Haggerty
Indian Sports-archery — Danny Chane
Football — Joe Donavan
Basketball — Beverly Govoni
Horseback Riding — Kathy Dougherty
Bowling — Kim Harris
Colonial Children Sports — Paul Lamarche
Talk on Group Sports — Carolyn Parks
Talk on Individual Sports — Kenneth Erb

A mock baseball game showing the necessity for rules in group games was then staged by the following pupils:

Pitcher — John O'Donnell
Catcher — Jackie Coakley
1st Base — Billy Morton
2nd Base — Arthur Graham
3rd Base — Albert Ducharme
Fielder — James Wakefield
Batter — John Wakefield
Umpire — Lincoln Morison

Recitation of Rules Essential to Good Sports by Betsy Snell.

Recitation — "Casey at the Bat," as told by:

Judy Cussen
Paul Haggerty
Allen McLatchy
Joe Donavan
Arthur Graham
Alfred Magliossi
Jackie Coakley
Sally MacArthur
Kathy Dougherty
Paul Lamarche

A group of the pupils representing great sport heroes of yesterday and today then livened things up with a fast-moving 'guess-who' quiz game. The great sport heroes were played by:

Babe Ruth — Richard Huff
Knute Rockne — Billy Morton
Ben Hogan — Paul Haggerty
Joe Louis — Albert Ducharme

Lastly, a group of the girls presented an original skit depicting spectator-courtesy at a baseball game. This skit brought forth many laughs, aside from its teaching intent. Characters in the Skit:

Carolyn Parks
Sally MacArthur
Judy Cussen
Kathy Dougherty
Carole McFarlane

The program was well-blended, fast-moving and most interesting from its start to its last curtain.

Carolyn Parks, at the piano, provided enjoyable musical assistance to her fellow pupils.

MEMBER — GUEST TOURNEY AT C. C.

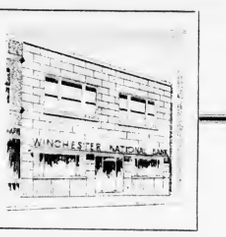

The Winchester Country Club's popular Member-Guest Golf Tournament begins next Friday, June 22, continuing through June 24. Participation is limited to 64 teams, basis. The low 16 teams will comprise the championship division. Only one round will be played in all divisions, except in the finals, Sunday, June 24, when two rounds will be played. The tournament dinner will be held as usual Friday evening after the first day's competition.

BOAT CLUB NEWS

Things have been really buzzing at the Winchester Boat Club this week. Ten tables of ladies playing bridge enjoyed iced tea and sandwiches on Wednesday. Mrs. Martin Swanson was committee chairman.

Members are urged to make their reservations for the Buffet Supper tomorrow night from 6 to 7 p. m. The menu consists of turkey, cold ham, bologna, cole slaw, potato chips, rolls, sweet pickles, and Indian pudding. Steward Maxwell will take reservations until Saturday morning. It promises to be delicious!

A large turn-out is promised tonight when Ted Miller of the Christian Science Monitor, noted cartoonist, entertains. George Roghanar of Arlington has generously offered to show boating and comedy movies after Mr. Miller's performance. The movie will be followed by cookies and punch and informal dancing.

The directors voted in twenty-eight new family memberships at their meeting Wednesday night. They also discussed the proposal of the local civil defense bureau that the clubhouse be used as an emergency station.

All the kiddies are delighted with the new teeter-totter which has been installed on the front lawn.

Teen-agers who are interested in the possibility of record dances in the downstairs lounge on Friday evenings should express their interest to Mr. Fitzsimmons, chairman of the entertainment committee.

Roger Swanson, perpetual winner, placed first in "Jam II" on Saturday afternoon. The runner-up was Carl Freyer in the "Bugaboo," followed by a snipe skippered by Ronnie Long. The weather was poor Sunday, so the juniors didn't race. The seniors placed as follows: "Jam II," skippered by Swanson, first; Ed Morse's "La Sus," second; and Newman's "Bv, George," third.

BAPTIST STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

All members of the First Baptist Church and congregation are invited to meet on the lawn of the Parsonage, 15 Fairmount street, Tuesday evening, June 19th, at 8 o'clock, for an old-fashioned strawberry festival. The committee is trying to contact everyone with a personal invitation, but it is hoped if you are not reached individually you will consider this a cordial invitation to meet your friends, old and new, for a pleasant evening.

If the weather is rainy the festivities will be transferred to the Church Social Hall.

D. A. R. DAY

Miss Clara Russell and Misses Louise and Eleanor Bancroft attended D. A. R. Day at Hillside School in Marlboro last Thursday. This school for boys from broken homes is one of a dozen Approved Schools to which contributions are made by the D. A. R. A picnic luncheon was enjoyed at large tables on the spacious grounds, and as this was the 50th anniversary of the founding of the school, a pageant was held depicting its early history.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Connors have opened up their summer home at Seal Harbor, Maine.

MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING

Mrs. Charles Wilson, New Head

The busy year of the Winchester Mothers' Association came to a close on Wednesday, June the 6th when Mrs. George Marks, the retiring president, had the Board of the Association, and Miss Mead and Miss Russell of the Library Staff as guests at her home preceding the annual meeting. A decorated cake appropriately honoring the president-elect, Mrs. Charles Wilson, was served. As an expression of appreciation for her dynamic and thoughtful leadership, Mrs. Marks was presented with a silver bowl from the members of the Mothers' Association Board.

From 2 to 2:30 p. m., punch and cookies were served on the terrace outside the High School Auditorium by Mrs. Richard Bolster and her committee. The students participating in the program later were also served refreshments.

At 2:30, parents representing all the schools of the town were seated in the Auditorium ready for a most enjoyable musical program given by the Boys' and the Girls' Glee Clubs of the Junior High School under the direction of Miss Eleanor Anifantis.

Mrs. Metcalf, Executive Director of the Winchester Girl Scouts, appealed for leaders for the 765 girls already registered in the local organization and the more than 100 members ready to join the troops in the fall. She explained that the prime requirements for leadership are interest in girls and the desire to help train them for better citizenship. Actual techniques will be given in leadership courses.

Mrs. Herbert Ross read a review of the activities of the1949-50 Mothers' Association in the minutes of the last year's annual meeting, and an outline of this year's many accomplishments in the Secretary's report. The annual tea in September; the Scholarship Foundation benefit; the Parents' and Teachers' Spring Party; ticket sale for the Jr. and Sr. High School Spring Concert; joint meeting of all parents of 6th graders with Mr. Dickman, assistance to the School Department, the School Committee, and the Junior and Senior High School Building Committee in promoting better understanding of the school problems and activities — these were some of the projects carried on under the sponsorship of the W. M. A. during 1950 - 51.

Mrs. Marks explained three recommended policies for all school chapters: —

1. All meeting dates he filed at Dr. Norris' office.

2. Copies of the Constitution and By-Laws of each chapter be filed with the Secretary of the Central Board of the W. M. A.

3. A speaker to explain the significance of the Winchester Scholarship Foundation he included in the program of each chapter once during the year.

The President of each school chapter reported the year's activities giving an inspiring summary of fine cooperation and worthwhile accomplishments evidenced in every school district. The reports were given by:

Mrs. Virginia Dickey — Wyman
Mrs. Clarence Donaghey — Noonan
Mrs. Stanley Mullen — Lincoln
Mrs. Melvin Sears — Mystic
Mrs. Lyndon Burnham — Parkhurst
Mrs. Thomas Purtle — Washington
Mrs. Mortimer Ward — Jr. H. S.
Mrs. James Coon — Sr. H. S.

The Junior High School Associates' report included a tribute to Miss Frances Hayward, retiring this June after teaching 31 years. A rising vote indicated the unanimous desire to thank Miss Hayward, and provided that a copy of the following excerpt from Mrs. Ward's report be incorporated in the minutes and a copy sent to Miss Hayward: — "After 31 years Miss Hayward is retiring. She has been a real teacher, a helper, and an institution, beloved by most and admired by all her pupils. For her helpfulness to the boys, girls, men and women of Winchester — teaching them to read, write, and speak intelligently and happily — we commend her faithfulness to the tenets of her profession, the challenge she has given her pupils through the years and hope that in her years of retirement she will remember only the funnier and brighter side of her many years with us."

Following Mrs. Richard Kepler's annual accounting of the Treasurership, Mrs. Leslie Scott, as Ways and Means Chairman, was enthusiastically applauded for her report of the "Evening with Charles Laughton" project which netted $1900. for the Winchester Scholarship Foundation.

Mrs. Frank d'Elseaux told briefly about the "Second Annual Spring Party" held on May 17, which gave parents and teachers an opportunity to know and enjoy one another socially. Mrs. Marks told about a questionnaire sent to many parents and all teachers following the party, requesting their reactions, recommendations, and criticisms of the affair. The results indicated a large majority favoring another party next year with some constructive changes.

Mrs. Marks also explained the activities of the W. M. A. in trying to bring to fruition the recommended plans of the Jr. and Sr. H. S. Building Committee which were defeated by a small number of votes at the Referendum Election.

For the Nominating Committee, Mrs. Ralph Webster read the following slate which was unanimously elected: —

President — Mrs. Charles Wilson
1st Vice-President — Mrs. Richard Bolster
2nd Vice-President — Mrs. Paul Nason
Secretary — Mrs. Herbert Ross
Treasurer — Mrs. Richard Keppler
Ways and Means — Mrs. Paul Dunn
Publicity — Mrs. Daniel Chane
Social — Mrs. Alexander Clark
Nominating — Mrs. Ronald Davis
Membership — Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth

At the request of Mrs. Wilson, the new president, Mrs. Marks introduced the guest speaker, the Chairman of the Winchester School Committee, Mrs. Marion Chandler.

Mrs. Chandler's topic was "How the School Committee Serves the Parents of Winchester and Works with the School Department." She used the agenda of an average School Committee meeting as the outline for her discussion of their activities. Concisely and clearly, Mrs. Chandler pointed out many interesting facts. The School Committee meets an average of once a week throughout the school year. The minutes of all School Committee meetings are on file and available to the public. Every bill incurred for school expenses is carefully scrutinized before approval. The School Committee initiates requests for school items included in the Town Warrant and supports them in Town Meeting. The amount of school tuition paid by non-residents of Winchester is set by this Committee based on the average cost per pupil in the grade concerned. The public may, upon request, attend any meeting of the School Committee. Annually, the School Committee must present a budget, report at Town Meeting, and elect teachers to their positions. Although the School Committee can by law decide the amount of money that is necessary to spend on school expenses, and is authorized to spend that amount, it has been the general rule in Winchester to accept the will of the town as expressed at Town Meeting and to try to make decisions on the basis of what is best for the citizens of the town. The Committee Chairman, as the elected representative of the people, must sign all teachers' contracts, and all diplomas. The School Committee formulates school policies on the basis of reports from educational specialists.

In conclusion, Mrs. Chandler observed that, though the position of School Committee Member is an arduous civic duty, it is one in which a broadening field of experience brings greater knowledge on which to base decisions, and also one which increases a deep and abiding interest in the schools.

Mrs. Chandler' talk was an appropriate conclusion to the annual meeting of the Winchester Mothers' Association since it added to the audience's knowledge of the duties and responsibilities of the School Committee Members, and increase their confidence in such duly elected guardians of school affairs as represented by Mrs. Chandler.

TOWN SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Standing

Sons of Italy	6	2
Beggs and Cobb	6	2
Esso	6	4
V. F. W.	3	4
White Shirts	3	5
Ramblers	3	6
Atomics	3	7

The race in the Town Softball League was really tightened up during the past week, due largely to the surge of the Beggs and Cobb nine which moved into a tie for first place on the basis of three victories this week. One of these was a thrilling 12 - 11 extra-inning win over the Sons of Italy at the West Side Field on Tuesday evening. The Beggs team has shown tremendous power at the plate as indicated by the 11 runs they have scored in their past three victories.

The Sons of Italy also participated in another extra-inning contest this week but had better luck this time as they edged the Esso nine by a score of 9 - 7 in eight innings. The Sons still look like the best team in the League but the others are giving them a battle in every contest and they are having no easy time with any of their opponents. The collapse of the White Shirts has the experts puzzled for after winning their first three games they have dropped five in succession.

Next Week's Schedule

Monday
Beggs and Cobb vs Ramblers (Ginn Field)
Sons of Italy vs V. F. W. (West Side)

Tuesday
Ramblers vs White Shirts (Ginn Field)
Beggs and Cobb vs Atomics (West Side)

Wednesday
V. F. W. vs Esso (Ginn Field)
White Shirts vs Sons of Italy (West Side)

Thursday
Atomics vs V. F. W. (Ginn Field)

Friday
Sons of Italy vs White Shirts (Ginn Field)

BAY STATE HISTORICAL LEAGUE

The Dukes County Historical Society would appreciate hearing from those of the Winchester Historical Society expecting to attend the Annual Meeting at Edgartown (Martha's Vineyard) on Saturday, June 23 at 2 p. m., as they are serving refreshments after the meeting at their Headquarters in the Squire Cooke House.

The 8:20 a. m. train from the South Station for Woods Hole connects with the 11:1 boat for Oak Bluffs, and then a short ride in a bus or taxi to Edgartown. The round trip may be made easily in one day by leaving the island at 4:30 and arriving in Boston at 8:35, or at 6:30 arriving at 10:13 p. m. (all daylight times).

For those wishing to spend the night in Edgartown the following places are recommended: - Great Harbour Inn, Colonial Inn, Charlotte Inn, Harborside Inn, Harbor View Hotel and Noepe Lodge. Meals are served at these as well as at the Coffee Shop. There are many restaurants, hotels and tourist places at Oak Bluffs.

TRAINING WITH ENGINEERS IN SOUTH

Ernest L. Freeman of 94 Middlesex street, Ormond M. Hessler of 29 Lorena road, and Stephen E. Root of 14 Seneca road are Winchester men who have been undergoing an intensive two-weeks training period with the 418 Engineers Aviation Brigade of the Organized Reserve at Fort Belvoir in Virginia.

Root, a captain, is a veteran of World War II with service in the European Theatre. Freeman, a corporal, attends Tufts College. Hessler is a lieutenant and also is a World War II veteran, seeing service in Africa and France.

PUPILS OF LAWRENCE SISTERS IN DANCE RECITAL

The town hall was well filled last week Wednesday evening for the dance recital by pupils of the well known Lawrence Sisters whose Winchester studio is at 28 Church street in Waterfield Hall. Dorothy Clement Evans was the pianist and the drummer was Gus Fisher.

A program of pleasing diversity was presented with the young dancers showing skilled instruction in the various dance routines and forms. Vocal selections varied the dance numbers and all the young performers were enthusiastically received.

SCHOOL CLOSING

Registrar King says: "Schools are closing for the summer vacation. Motorists and parents should try to make this period a vacation from injuries and death to their children.

Last year 22 children under 15 years of age were killed and 2973 injured in highway accidents during June, July and August. We are not proud of this record.

It's up to us to keep them safe! If we don't protect them, who will?

Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor Schneider are flying to Karachi, Pakistan. Dave, a third secretary of Embassy of the United States, has been appointed to serve in the American Embassy in Karachi for two years, beginning June 15th. He is the son of former selectman and Mrs. Ben Ross Schneider of Winthrop street.

MYSTIC SCHOOL GARDEN PROJECTS

This year for the first time at the Mystic School the children were given an opportunity to plant gardens as an active part of their study of science. Both Kindergartens, Miss Jurgenson's Fourth Grade and Mrs. McLean's Sixth Grade participated in the garden projects. A brief report on each garden follows:

1. Miss Dogherty's Kindergarten

For their science unit this spring, Miss Dogherty's Kindergarten children decided they would like to plant a flower garden under their east windows. Nasturtium and petunia seeds were planted after the soil was prepared. The children were eager to see which seeds would be the first to germinate.

The nasturtium plants were almost three inches high with secondary leaves, when the petunia plants were less than one inch high with just their primary leaves.

2. Mrs. Matson's Kindergarten Gardens

Early in the spring our Kindergarten planted several varieties of flower seeds such as pinks, zinnias, marigolds, etc, also parsley, radishes, and beans. When the seedlings were large enough, part of them were set out in the garden by the classroom windows. The rest were taken home by the children and planted in their own gardens.

We also conducted an experiment. We planted zinnia seeds in three separate tuna fish cans. The first receives sun and water; the second receives sun; and the third receives water. The plant in the first can is still growing. The second one lasted only a few days. The third is beginning to die.

3. Miss Jurgenson's Fourth Grade

The study of growing things, in Miss Jurgenson's fourth grade has culminated in the planting of a garden in front of their classroom. The children are tending it carefully, keeping the weeds down and giving it plenty of water. The seeds are beginning to sprout and each day new plants appear. There are heavenly blue morning glories, pink and purple petunias, zinnias and scabiosa of various colors. Among these have been planted geraniums, gladioli and violets. Besides having a lot of fun the fourth grade gardeners hope to have many bright blossoms during the summer and fall.

4. Sixth Grade Garden

As part of a Science unit classifying non-living and living things into groups, parts of flowers were studied by Mrs. McLean's sixth grade. Flowers were grouped as annuals, perennials and biennials. The main parts of a flower, reproduction and germination were also studied.

The class decided to plant a garden to gain further knowledge of the growth and structure of plants.

A garden plot on the Main street side of the new Kindergarten was selected. It was measured and seeded by groups of 6th graders.

Many donations of seeds and plants were offered and gratefully accepted.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fellows are at Manomet Point for the summer.

WON SCHOLASTIC HONOR AT NHU.

After a brilliant undergraduate career, during which she won many scholastic and extra-curricular honors, Miss Norma E. Farrar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Farrar of Myrtle street, was graduated last Sunday from University of New Hampshire, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts, magna cum laude, from the College of Liberal Arts.

Miss Farrar, who had to overcome the handicap of blindness in making her outstanding record, had the distinction of heading both the women's Student Council and Glee Club. At the college Baccalaureate last Sunday she sang the soprano solo, "Rejoice Greatly", from the "Messiah" by Handel.

Mrs. Frederick A. Russell, formerly of 23 Jefferson road, is flying on June 17 for a visit to her old home in England. The flight by Pan American Airways takes 17 hours.

RED CROSS WATER SAFETY

"Do you know how well your child can swim?"

"Will he be safe this Summer?"

You can find out by sending your children to Palmer Beach on Wedge Pond between 10:00 and 11:00 a. m. during the next two weeks.

A Red Cross Swimming Instructor will condition and test children in their ability to swim, dive and maneuver in the water. Each child will receive a card certifying accomplishments.

Pfc. William E. Violante of the U. S. Navy who has been stationed at Oceanside, California, was recently sent overseas.

ARE YOU SURE, SALLY?

Don't take the children unless you're sure of plenty of fresh milk and other dairy products on vacation. Why don't you call H. P. Hood & Sons. They'll deliver to your summer home. Call MYstic 6-8200. adv.

Just for fun I added them up

My husband remarked one day that women seemed to spend most of their time on the telephone.

"What do you find to talk about?" he asked me.

So, last month, every time I made a call I jotted down whom I'd called and why.

There were calls to the grocer and the dressmaker and the dentist; calls to neighbors to check up on the children's comings and goings; calls to my husband at his job to ask him to bring home something for me. They were routine calls, mostly, except for one to the plumber when a pipe broke.

Last night, I figured out how many miles the telephone has saved me on each call I'd made. And just for fun I added them all up. The total — just for one month — was over one hundred miles!

I'd have had to walk those miles . . .

Without the telephone I'd have had to walk those miles, or drive the car and buy gasoline. I'd never realized before how much money the telephone actually saves me. And as for time — just think of the hours I'd have to spend doing all the errands that the telephone does for me in minutes!

BUILT TO LAST 100,000 MILES

A Beautiful Long-Time Investment!

We admit that one of the very important attractions of this new Silver Streak Pontiac is its captivating appearance. Nearly everyone says it's a really beautiful car. But if Pontiac didn't have something in addition to its beauty, it couldn't possibly be in such tremendous demand today. That additional something is Pontiac's famous dependability. Talk to any Pontiac owner and you'll hear a wonderful story of months and years and thousands of enjoyable miles with an absolute minimum of routine service attention.

Add them together—beauty, performance and dependability—you'll realize that Dollar for Dollar You Can't Beat a Pontiac—a beautiful long-time investment.

SIXTH GRADE ASSEMBLY AT MYSTIC SCHOOL

The expansion of the United States from early Pilgrim Days until the establishment of the final Northwest boundary between Canada and the United States in 1846 was the theme of the assembly program presented by Mrs. McLean's sixth grade on Wednesday, June 6th at 9:30 a. m. in the Mystic School Assembly Hall. The dramatization, "Our own United States", was written by the participants with the help of the class as a project in Social Studies. It was correlated with Language, Handwriting, Art, Music and Square Dancing.

Linda Schweers as Reader, and Mary Kiley as Exhibitor, who pointed out on a large map on the stage the westward expansion of our United States, coordinated the story as the various characters appeared.

David Pingree as the Rev. Thomas Hooker was shown as one of the first who started to open our country. He felt that it was too crowded around Boston, and so went with a hundred of his followers to the Connecticut Valley where he had heard there was good farming and pasture land. In 1636 he founded Hartford. Doris Pullo, Sally Gould, John Foster and Louis Towner represented his followers, who knelt while the class backstage sang: "O God, Beneath Thy Guiding Hand".

Joseph Gray as Daniel Boone told of blazing trails into Kentucky and of building a fort called Boonesboro on the Kentucky River in 1775.

The Louisiana Purchase from France in 1803 was the next episode in the expansion of this country to be depicted. Thomas Jefferson, played by Roger Symnes, sent Alfred Doherty as James Monroe and Dennis Keane as Robert Livingstone to France to make the purchase. To conclude their act the boys sang "Roll, Mississippi, Roll On".

The Lewis and Clark Expedition expanded the Louisiana Territory to the mouth of the Columbia River, which it reached in 1805. Harry Preble as Meriwether Lewis and John Foster as William Clark were also sent out by President Thomas Jefferson, and had as their guide a most comical Indian woman, Sacajawea (bird woman), played by Ellen McNeilly.

Travel westward was facilitated by the opening of the Erie Canal in 1825, thanks to the wise and enthusiastic planning of Governor DeWitt Clinton, played by John Gillette. The laborers who helped to complete the project were played by Robert Kugler, David Pingree and Joseph Gray. As part of this act, the boys sang "Fifteen Years on the Erie Canal".

Expansion southward was symbolized by the incident of General Andrew Jackson, played by Alfred Doherty, winning his battle against the Creek Indians in Georgia and Alabama in 1814 and of his capture of Pensacola, Florida, which left the way clear for a march to New Orleans.

After this, the land west of the Mississippi was opened, claims were staked, and ranch life began. Louis Towner and John Nichols took the part of cowboys, who represented this aspect of our national life. They sang "Deep in the Heart of Texas" and "Carry Me Back to the Lone Prairie".

Dennis Keane was the Prospector rushing west after the discovery of gold in 1848 in Sutter's Creek in California (just west of Reno, Nevada). After the Gold Rush of '49, California was a very gay place, and an old-fashioned square dance was next on the program to show the spirit of those days. "Two Head Ladies Cross Over" was danced by Sally Gould, Catherine Tonon, Suzanne Goodwin, Annette Johnian, Alfred Crary, Harry Preble, John Nichols and Louis Towner. As the dance ended, the group joined in singing "O, California".

Alfred Crary took the part of Marcus Whitman, medical missionary and trail blazer of the west, who opened up the Oregon Territory with the help of his wife, Narcissa Whitman, who was played by Patricia Sears.

As all of the boys and girls gathered on the stage for the final number, Margaret Thomas dressed as a Refrigerator (Seward's Ice Box), representing Alaska, purchased by the United States from Russia in 1867, came rushing in crying "Don't forget me!"

Everyone then joined in repeating the American's Creed and singing "O Beautiful for Spacious Skies", a very fitting ending to such an interesting and instructive assembly.

Miss Barbara Burbank, a senior next year at Bouve-Boston School of Physcial Education, which is affiliated with Tufts College, is one of ten members of her class to be selected as a "Bouvette" for the school's camp session at Camp Monomoy on Cape Cod. She will assist the regular counselors teaching sports to the freshman and sophomore Campers. Miss Burbank is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bouldin G. Burbank of 12 Wolcott road.

MYSTIC SCHOOL TEACHERS' LUNCHEON

Mrs. James G. Baker was the hostess for the final Mystic School Teachers' Luncheon which was held at her home at 7 Grove street on Wednesday noon, June 6th. Dr. Forbes H. Norris and all of the supervisors, as well as Mr. Joseph C. Forte, Mrs. Maude Dover, and the regular Mystic School teachers were the invited guests. After a delicious luncheon, dessert was served on the terrace overlooking a lovely garden in which the peonies and iris were in full bloom. Mrs. Albert L. Fisher and Mrs. Melvin L. Sears assisted in receiving the teachers, while on the luncheon committee were Mrs. Colver P. Dyer, Mrs. Philip Boone, Mrs. William Davies and Mrs. W. Lawrence Usher.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE NOONAN SCHOOL MOTHERS' ASSOCIATION

The Annual Meeting of the Noonan School Mothers' Association was held in the School Auditorium on Tuesday afternoon, June 5th.

A "Musical Festival" by the Noonan School pupils, under the direction of Miss Helen Goodwin and Mr. Fred Felmet, Jr., was greatly enjoyed by an enthusiastic group of mothers at 1:45 p. m.

This program was followed by the last meeting of the Mothers' Association for the season and was presided over by the President, Mrs. Clarence Donaghey. The annual reports were read by the following officers and chairmen. Sec. report by Mrs. Leslie Nadeau, Treas. report — Mrs. John Elliott, Ways and Means report and Sixth Grade Dancing Committee Chairman, Mrs. William Haggerty — Room Mothers and Grade Teas Mrs. Warren Branch.

The Association voted to give the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) to the Elizabeth Naven Scholarship Award and also to purchase a Record Player and Records as our gift to the school.

Other gifts and disbursements made during the past year are as follows:

$25.00 to Mr. Fred Felmet, Jr., for the Music Fund.

$50.00 to the Winchester Scholarship Foundation Fund.

Broadloom rug and pad for the Teachers' Room.

Coffee table and corsage to Mrs. William Haggerty, Past-President.

One-half the expense of purchasing and installing a four burner gas stove for the school kitchen.

Corsages presented to all the Teachers at the first Fall Tea.

Christmas Party for the entire school with a professional magician and candy, ice cream and cookies for all. Also Christmas remembrances to the teachers and custodian.

The Nominating Committee, Mrs. Rosa MacArthur, chairman; presented the following slate of officers for 1951 - 1952. President, Mrs. Francis Manzie; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. William Crowley; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. Guy Willerger; Secretary, Mrs. Peter Frotten; Treasurer, Mrs. James Culen.

A social hour followed the meeting, delicious punch, cookies and cake being served by the Social Chairman, Mrs. James Flaherty, assisted by Mrs. Vernon Phinney and the mothers of the kindergarten.

The appointment, effective July 1, of Leon F. Fernandez as Manager of a newly established department covering the sale of all Atlas Tires, Batteries, Accessories and Specialties products in New England has been announced. Mr. Fernandez resides with his wife and two sons at 322 Main street and is an Adult Leader in the Junior Forum of the Congregational Church and a member of the New England Transit Club.

MEMORIAL DAY AFTERMATH

Despite the rain which again plagued Memorial Day morning, the full schedule of activities planned and conducted originally by Winchester Post American Legion was kept. Promptly at nine o'clock the parade set out for Calvary Cemetery to the smart music of the 567th Fighter Wing Band. It was necessary to group the units in different order than had been originally planned, owing to the rain, but good order was kept and only those units whose uniforms would be ruined by the elements were missing.

Led by escorts of the Winchester Police and Fire Departments, the line included the massed colors of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Commander Lester Gustin of the Legion, Commander Walter Bolivar of the VFW, cars bearing the Board of Selectmen, and Mrs. Kenneth Toye, their aides, a group of the 101st Artillery with their equipment, The Flying Band, The Legion members led by Parker Blanchard, the members of Aberjona Post VFW, the local Civil Air Patrol, the massed colors of the Knights of Columbus and the Elks, the members of each organization, and a number of the hardier Boy Scouts.

At Calvary Cemetery, services were conducted by Father Charles Anadore, Chaplain of Post No. 97 American Legion. A good sized group of spectators gathered at the War Memorial, despite the downpour.

Upon the return to Town Hall a wreath was placed before the War Memorial there and then a short recess was called during which a working party of Legionnaires served refreshments.

Since the weather had cleared to some extent, the parade was augmented by the High School Band, the Girls Scouts, added Boy Scouts, the Girls' Drill Team of The Immaculate Conception CYO, and last but by no means least, Company G, 182nd Infantry arrived more than slightly soggy from their earlier participation in Woburn's exercises, but smart and in sharp military bearing.

Despite the necessary readjustment in the positions of the units, the eleven o'clock restarting time was kept, and the parade massed before the War Memorial at the High School on schedule, only to be delayed ten minutes after regrouping again by the best efforts of the Boston and Maine's engineers.

Upon arrival at Wildwood Cemetery, services were conducted by the Reverend Walter Bailey. The weather was now more moderate and a large group was in attendance.

At noontime the parade arrived back at the Town Hall where it was reviewed by the Board of Selectmen and the Commander of the Veterans' organizations. After the parade disbanded, all Military Units were entertained at the Legion Home on Vine street. Members of the Legion Auxiliary had been working since early morning to provide a hearty and tasty collation for all, and it was certain that all left the Home sure of their welcome in Winchester, and echoing their praises for Winchester's and the Legion's brand of hospitality.

The Chairman of The Memorial Day Committee, Dr. Arthur Collins, wishes to express his thanks to all who participated in the exercises. The fact that so many turned out, with the full knowledge that their clothes and shoes would be ruined by the downpour, is added proof that Winchester does not intend to forget those men and women who served that we might live in freedom.

Mr. and Mrs. Manning C. Morrill of Madison avenue west are the parents of a fourth child, first son, Manning Elrod, born June 5th at Richardson House. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Manning W. Morrill of Leominster and Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Elrod of Hingham.

WINCHESTER HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES 134

After the band had played the "Coast Guards" march by King, the first of the honors awards was made by High School Principal Wade L. Grindle. These awards were the Elizabeth L. Naven Prize, given by the Noonan School Mothers' Association to the highest ranking former Noonan School pupil in the graduating class, and the Mary B. Davis Memorial Award given by the Winchester College Club for high scholastic achievement. Joseph Thomas Callahan, Jr., was the recipient of the Naven Prize and the Davis Award went to Carolyn Edgar.

The Jere A. Downs Memorial Awards were presented by Mrs. Chandler to Dorothy Brandt, who is entering Boston University; Virginia Dyer, Cornell; Felicia Mezzacappa, Jackson; Anita Watson, Chandler Secretarial School; Joseph Callahan, Tufts; Claire DeLay, Emanuel College; and Cynthia Lincoln, LaSalle.

Mrs. Christine E. Greene, chairman of the Foundation Scholarship Committee and former member of the School Committee, presented the Foundation Scholarships, prefacing her remarks by listing the contributors to the scholarship fund and by recounting what a Winchester scholarship meant to Richard Barksdale, an outstanding Winchester boy soon to get his Doctorate from Harvard after a brilliant scholastic career.

The Richard W. MacAdams Memorial Award, given by Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion, went to Donald Cameron, who is entering the University of Massachusetts. Other Foundation Awards went to Betty DeCourcy, who is entering the St. Elizabeth Hospital School of Nursing; Jean Farquhar, Ohio Wesleyan; Allene Goodwin, Lasell Junior College; Joan McFarlane, Boston University; Barbara Mulos, New England Baptist School of Nursing; Phyllis O'Neil, New England School of Art; Alene Robinson, Boston University Evening School of Commerce; and Martha Whiting, Boston University Evening School of Commerce.

Principal Grindle made honorary awards without stipend to the following highest ranking students: David Archibald, Sheila Gray, Carol Hawkins, Harris MacDonald and Robert Mirak.

Preceding her presentation of the diplomas, in which she was assisted by Principal Grindle, Mrs. Chandler found it pleasing that she as chairman of the School Committee and the Principal of the High School were cooperating to act for all the people of the town. She also stressed the community's obligation to provide an education for all of its young people.

When the graduates had filed to the platform to receive their diplomas the Band led the entire gathering in singing "The Star Spangled Banner," after which the graduation was concluded by Rev. Mr. Hadley, who pronounced the Benediction.

John D. Stevens, faculty adviser to the Senior Class, was in general charge of arrangements for graduation, assisted by the following faculty members: Speakers, Robert M. Keeney; Music, Fred Felmet; Public Address System, Thomas A. Morse; Chairs and Grounds, Henry T. Knowlton; Program, Joseph Aversa; and Tickets, Miss Ruth Bennett.

Edward A. Bartlett was in charge of the ushering with the following junior class boys serving as ushers: Earl Carrier, David Fessenden, Thomas Gallagher, George Haggerty, Rodney Long, Ronald MacKenzie, James Mawn, John Mills, Donald Rizzo and Loyal Wright.

Henry K. Fitts and Carl Reed were faculty members at the entrance gates of the field.

CLASS NIGHT

Seated at the head table last Saturday evening as the class of 1951 assembled for their Class Night Banquet were Treasurer Allene Goodwin, Secretary Marcia Flaherty, Student Council President Paul Boyle, Chairman Marion Chandler of the School Committee, Mrs. Forbes H. Norris, Principal Wade L. Grindle, President Robert Mirak, Dr. Forbes H. Norris, Miss Marion Bailey, Vice-President John Foley, Louise Kugler, Felicia Mezzacappa, Carolyn Edgar, and Junior Class President Ronald MacKenzie.

Decorations consisted of large colored cut-out figures illustrating freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior years and finally The Diploma and a large "51" on the back boards. The tables, decorated by Miss Helen Carroll and her staff, were very attractive with school colors of red and black running lengthwise. Placed in an open square the seating arrangement worked out very well. At each place was a printed card wishing the member well with a penny for good luck.

Louise Kugler read the Class History; Paul Boyle read the Prophecy; and Felicia Mezzacappa read the Will.

Mrs. Marion Chandler spoke briefly to the class extending the best wishes of the School Committee.

Carolyn Edgar's tribute to Miss Bailey was climaxed by her saying, "Miss Bailey not only taught us English, but she gave herself."

Mr. Grindle, called on for a few remarks, emphasized the importance of being realistic about life, taking firm step after firm step as an experienced mountaineer climbs a mountain.

Vice President John Foley presented to the High School the class gift, a sum of money for a trophy case, and Ronald MacKenzie, President of the Junior Class, accepted for the school.

Dr. Norris was asked to address the class and in his remarks stressed respect for self. Referring to the example of self respect set by President Lincoln, Dr. Norris urged the seniors to take their responsibilities seriously, to continue to educate themselves, and to give a helping hand to their fellow men, rather than to allow rancor and bitterness to rule their lives.

Turning to the guest of honor, Dr. Norris said that the ideal school could well be made up of teachers of her exemplary character and ability. Asking for a show of hands by those interested in teaching, he found one lone response easily illustrating the nation-wide difficulty involved in replacing teachers who retire or resign.

Paul Boyle as master of ceremony then introduced Miss Dorothy Brandt, popular soloist of the Girls' Octette who sang three selections, feelingly singing "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You 'Til We Meet Again."

Bette Kneeland, Sue Ordway, Phoebe Greenwood, Bernard Crowley, Paul Boyle, and Sonny Walters led community singing with Ricky Ives at the piano.

An exhibition dance by Phyllis O'Neil and Sandy Burbank, Allene Goodwin and Robert O'Brien concluded the entertainment.

The yearbooks were then distributed and autographed before the class departed for an Open House at June Ryan's home.

Miss Louise Cone was Faculty Chairman of Class Night, assisted by Mr. Henry Knowlton and Miss Helen Jay Carroll.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE NOTES

The Winchester School Committee at their regular meeting Monday evening, June 11, gave official recognition to Miss Frances Larcom Hayward and Miss Helen Niedringhaus who are retiring at the close of the current school year. According to school committee policy, special checks for services rendered were presented to them.

The committee approved the following elections: To be administrative assistant at the Wadleigh Building, Mr. Edward A. Bartlett; to be administrative assistant at the high school, Mr. John D. Stevens; to be head teacher of the Parkhurst School for the school year 1951-1952, Miss Constance Savard; to be assistant kindergarten teacher and afternoon clerk at Lincoln School, Mrs. Margaret Withington; to be caretaker of Manchester Field for the summer months, Mr. Robert O'Brien. Leave of absence for one year has been granted Miss Martha Cunningham, head-teacher of the Parkhurst School.

Re-elected were Miss Constance Doyle of Wakefield as teacher of the Americanization class, and Mr. Stuart Limrell as census taker and attendance officer.

Mr. Daniel Chase reported that the Washington School building committee would advertise for bids in the near future.

Following the opening of bids received from contractors, contracts were let as follows: The Berger Manufacturing Company of Boston to furnish and install lockers in the high school building; the F. A. Sheldon Equipment Company of Cambridge to supply physics laboratory equipment consisting of an instructor's desk and fixtures and six student tables; J. L. Hammett to supply twenty-six chairs for the tables in the physics laboratory; The Columbia Cornice Company of Cambridge to repair the roof on the senior high school building.

Reports for May, from Dr. William Barone, school physician, and Miss E. Gladys Niven, cafeteria manager, were received and placed on file.

WINCHESTER TUFTS AND JACKSON GRADUATES

Not often is a Bachelor's degree awarded to a college man, 31 years after his class was graduated, but a former well known Winchester boy, Preston Brainard Rowe, had that distinction last Sunday when he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts, as of March 8, 1951, from Tufts College.

Mr. Rowe who has lived and taught in New Bedford, graduated from Winchester High School in the class of 1913, making his home at that time on Myrtle terrace. He entered Tufts College the following fall with the class of 1917, but did not complete his college course. Now he has done so and has his degree, a real tribute to his perseverance. His Winchester friends and former classmates will be pleased to learn the good news.

In addition to Mr. Rowe a number of Winchester young people were graduated from Tufts and its Women's College, Jackson.

From Jackson, Joan Ellen Bostwick of 8 Hillcrest Parkway and Jean P. Noble of 14 Leslie road, received A. B. Degrees, Miss Noble receiving hers cum laude.

June graduates of Tufts with the A. B. Degree included Richard B. Briggs of 26 Allen road, Conrad B. Dana of 42 Rangely road, William S. Doub, 2nd, of 23 Sargent road, Klaus Hahn of 34 Fells road, and David Meyers of 19 Glengarry. Hahn received his degree, magna cum laude in English and plans to combine graduate work and teaching at Lehigh University.

Other A. B. Degrees were awarded Franklin J. Lane, Jr., of 4 Drexel avenue, as of March, 1951, and Richard C. Fourtellot of 9 Penn road, as of October, 1950.

Alfred L. Borgatti of 9 New Meadows road received the degree of Bachelor of Science from the School of Liberal Arts, and Thomas R. Bane of 12 Glengarry road, the degree of Bachelor of Science in Chemistry.

From the School of Engineering William J. McGrail, Jr., of 9 Elmwood avenue, Fred W. Redding, Jr., of 91 Pond street, Charles B. Slack of 32 Lebanon street, and Edmund M. Wright, Jr., of 79 Wildwood street, were awarded Bachelor of Science degrees in Electrical Engineering. Irving W. Dingwell, Jr., of 184 Mystic Valley Parkway and Donald E. Goss of 41 Allen road, received Bachelor of Science degrees in Mechanical Engineering.

Francis L. Poirier of 16 Mt. Pleasant street received the degree of Master of Education from the Graduate School and from the Dental School the degree of Doctor of Dental Medicine was awarded Leslie McL. Curtis of 36 Oneida road and Lawrence F. Quigley, Jr., of 101 High street.

Several of the graduates have been active athletically at Tufts. Bane holds the World's, and National AAU records for the 35 pound weight throw, both made during this past indoor season. He is also the ICAAAA champion for the 16 pound hammer throw. Briggs also competed in track at Tufts, running middle distances and relay events.

Doub captained the varsity hockey team, and had as teammates Merrow and Dingwell. Poirier played football until an injury cut short his career and Lane was active in yachting. Merrow and Doub also played freshman football.

David B. Sargent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sargent of 8 Central street, will receive the A. B. Degree from Dartmouth College on June 17. A member of Chi Phi, Sargent majored in English. He prepared at Winchester High School.

AWARD ASSEMBLY

Newly elected A. A. President Earl Carrier presided at the Final Assembly of Winchester High School held last Friday morning.

The first team awards were made by Henry K. Fitts, Coach of Tennis. After reviewing the season's play, Coach Fitts awarded letters to Co-Captains John Borden and Langdon Smith and the following varsity players: Robert and Charles Mirak, Tony Apsey and David Archibald. Charles Mirak will captain the netmen next year.

Second team awards went to James Fielding, Richard Crosby, Bill Gillette, Bob Abbott, James Myers, David MacKenzie, Harvey Chaffe, and Joseph Canty.

Miss Helen Jay Carroll reviewed the Girls' Tennis season and awarded letters to Captain Carol Hawkins, Captain-elect Sue Morton, Jane Chiswell, Franceline Cullen, Carolyn Edgar, Bette Nelson, Mary Anne Damon, Carolyn Stone and Betsy Freeman.

Miss Carroll then presented Winchester High's only undefeated spring sports team with an 8-0 record, the Girls' Softball team, and awarded letters as follows: Captain Bette-luise Kneeland, Sonny Smith, Nancy Young, Janet Easton, Captain-elect Diane Greer, Lynne Stevens, Paula Lanigan, Gretchen Daschbach, Cally Callahan, Sheila McGowan, Ann Hooper, Janice Collins, Carol Crockett, Bugs Smith, Jean Farquhar, Judy Nanry and Joan Moore, managers.

Calling up first his junior varsity baseball team, Coach Edward A. Bartlett awarded second team letters to the following: John Atkinson, Frank Carleton, John Connors, Richard Ginealone, Ted Harrigan, Maxwell McCreery, David Burke, Russell McLeod, James Carroll, Charles DiSilva, Charles McLaughlin, Ronald MacKenzie, Paul McGowan, David Russo, Stuart Thomson, and Stanley Godsoe and Richard Mawn, Assistant Managers.

Varsity baseball letters were awarded to Captain Tony Cirurso, Edward Crowley, Co-captains-elect David Dalton and John DiIorio, Peter Coon, Prescott Keyes, Charles Murphy, Stowell Symmes, Charles DeFilippo, Robert Flaherty, James Griffin, Edward Kenicka, and Manager Tom Gallagher.

Returning to the rostrum Miss Carroll awarded emblems symbolic of athletic ability, spirit, service, scholarship, and activity record to Jane Chiswell, Marcia Flaherty, Phyllis O'Neil, Sue Ordway, Harris MacDonald, and Bette Kneeland.

Principal Wade L. Grindle welcomed to the assembly the seniors who returned from their duties at various businesses to be students again.

Speaking of the non-athletic awards, Mr. Grindle called attention to the attainment in mathematics of David Archibald, Vernon Bonsinger, and Franceline Cullen and presented certificates for "Superior Achievement" from the Mathematics Clubs of the University of Mussachusetts.

Announced as representatives to Boys' State sponsored by the American Legion and held for a week at Amherst were Tom Gallagher and Douglas Hawkins.

Representative to Girls' State to be held at the Bridgewater State Teachers' College will be Sona Noian. Dotty Lazzaro was announced as alternate.

Mr. Grindle then read a letter from the Winchester Art Association complimenting the art students and their teacher, Miss Pauline Goodrich, for their excellent work. He announced the winners of the art contest as Jean Neiley and Jeanne Meacham who share the first prize.

Music Department awards were made to Dorothy Brandt, Phoebe Greenwood, Phyllis O'Neil, Shirley Cary, and Dominic Suppa. Mr. Grindle complimented the Music Department generally and gave special attention to the Girls' Glee Club and the Girls' Octette who were awarded "Superior" ratings at both the State Music Festival at Marblehead, and at the New England Music Festival in Boston. On Saturday evening, May 26, The Octette sang at the Hatch Memorial Shell, appearing on the same program with the bands from Deering High School of Portland, Gardner High School, Lynn High School, Stearns High School of Millinocket, Maine, Medford High School, and a brass quartet from Pittsfield High School.

The final award, the Harvard Club Book Prize for the Junior Class boy with high character and high scholarship, went to Robert Traut whose high school record shows all A's.

WHEATON GRADUATES

Miss Elizabeth B. Fenno, daughter of Mr. Richard F. Fenno of 75 Church street, and Miss Jane R. Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earle D. Owen of 32 Woodside road, received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Wheaton College on Sunday, June 10.

Miss Fenno, a graduate of Winchester High School, was the International Relations Club Scholar last year and studied during the summer at Oxford University in England.

Miss Owen was a member of the International Relations Club. She entered Wheaton from LaSell Junior College and also attended Winchester High School.

RECEIVED SIMMONS DEGREES

Miss Nancy G. Bigelow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Bigelow of 18 Mt. Pleasant street, and Miss Freda L. Corwin, daughter of Mrs. Nina Corwin of 27 Mystic avenue, were among those receiving degrees from Simmons College Monday morning in Symphony Hall, Boston. Miss Bigelow received the Bachelor of Science Degree from the School of Publication. She served on the Simmons News staff and on the staff of "Mic," the college yearbook.

Miss Corwin received the degree of Master of Science from the School of Library Science. She is a graduate of the University of Vermont, class of 1948.

JUNIOR LEGION OPENS TONIGHT

The Winchester Junior Legion will open its home schedule tonight against the Reading Junior Legion at Manchester Field at 6:00 p. m. This is a good break in the schedule for the locals to meet Reading in their opener as the two teams are bitter rivals and a hard fought contest is certain to develop. Winchester High and Reading High split their two-game series in the Middlesex League this past season as they finished in a tie for second place in the League. The Junior Legion teams of both towns are composed largely of high school players of the past season, thus continuing the intense rivalry developed in recent years.

Winchester has the two ace high school pitchers, Murphy and Symmes, playing for the Junior Legion and Reading is in the same position with their two high school aces, Arsenault and Runge, also twirling for the Junior Legion. Reading won their opening game on Monday evening as they defeated the Woburn Junior Legion by a score of 6 - 3 which indicates that Reading has a strong club, Coach Ted Bartlett is expected to send Charlie Murphy to the mound for this one and local fans will get their first look at "Jocko" Serieka behind the plate. The Winchester infield will have John Diiorio at first, Charlie McLaughlin at second, Bobby Flaherty at short, and Ron MacKenzie at third. Patrolling the outfield will be Jim Griffin, Prep Keyes, and Stowell Symmes.

Winchester will also be at home again on Sunday afternoon when they meet the Malden Junior Legion at Manchester Field at 2:30 p. m. Stowell Symmes will toe the mound in this one with Dick Giacalone moving into the right field spot vacated by Symmes. Another attractive game is on the schedule for next Tuesday evening as Winchester goes to Woburn and these two rivals always provide a good show.

NEW JUNIOR HIGH TEACHER FORMER SPORT STAR

Frank Provinzano, who comes to Winchester from Ayer High School to teach Science at the Junior High School, will be remembered by local sports followers as one of the best all around athletes to represent Winchester High during the days previous to World War II.

Frank entered high school in 1932, being a member of the football squad as a freshman. He was one of the mainstays of Andy Lentine's Middlesex League championship team of 1933, catching one of the passes and throwing the other that beat a fine Belmont team for the crown. He captained the '35 team, playing fullback and winning "all league" honors; and in addition he was outstanding in both basketball and baseball, being a real three-letter man.

From Winchester Frank went to Wilbraham Academy, one of the country's oldest schools, where he continued his athletic success and won the coveted award given yearly to the outstanding member of the senior class.

At Boston University Frank played both football and baseball, winning letters in both sports. Army service interrupted his educational and sports career temporarily, but after his service he finished up his college work and since getting his degree has been teaching and coaching at Wehster and Ayer.

WON BOSTON COLLEGE DEGREES

Prof. Lars V. Ahlfors of this town, professor of Mathematics at Harvard, was among those receiving honorary degrees from Boston College at Commencement exercises at the Boston Garden on Wednesday. Prof. Ahlfors won the Fields medal for mathematical research at the 1936 International Congress of Mathematics at Oslo in Norway.

A Bachelor of Science degree from the College of Arts and Sciences was awarded Hugh J. O'Doherty, Jr., of 43 Canal street, cum laude; and degrees of Bachelor of Science in Business Administration were awarded John J. King of 2 Bushcliff road, and Edward J. McGrath of 175 Highland avenue.

Mother Elizabeth Cecilia Farragher, R. C. E., of Maryeliff Academy, 15 High street, was awarded the degree of Master of Arts by the Boston College Graduate School.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL NEWS

The month of May was one of the busiest months in the Hospital's post-war history. 2,905 patient days were recorded. This represents practically 100% occupancy for the whole month. Such a high degree of occupancy makes the staff all the more anxious to get the new wing into operation.

An air-conditioning unit has been installed in the nursery. Even though the rest of the Hospital might feel the effects of the hot summer days, the babies will be comfortable in their scientifically controlled atmosphere.

We have another piece of good news for the babies. The En Ka Society has just announced that they will contribute part of the cost of a new "Isolette." The premature babies who arrive ahead of schedule should be especially appreciative of this very modern and expensive equipment. It is an advanced type of incuhator. On behalf of the babies who will be getting a better start in life because of this, we express our thanks to En Ka.

The threatened meat shortage is of concern to all hospital administrators. However, we have been assured by our suppliers that we will have first priority on any meat available in the Boston market. They all express the opinion that no matter how acute the shortage becomes, there should be sufficient meat available to serve the hospitals.

UNITARIAN PLAYERS' FINAL MEETING

On Wednesday evening The Unitarian Players, who just staged the successful play "Return Engagement," had their final meeting of the season.

Plans were discussed for the staging of a fall production which will take place on November 2 and 3. Mrs. William E. Spaulding, Mrs. Theodore Godwin and Mr. Dermott Townley Tilson were appointed members of a play reading committee.

The group elected the following officers for the 1951-1952 season:

President — Mr. William E. Spaulding
Vice-President — Mr. Bradford Darling
Secretary — Mrs. P. Eric Anderson
Treasurer — Mr. Everett F. Gray
Members of the Board:
Mrs. P. Eric Anderson
Mr. Bradford Darling
Mrs. William W. Davies, III
Mrs. Theodore Godwin
Mr. Everett F. Gray
Mr. George Hayden
Mr. William E. Spaulding
Mrs. Dermott Townley Tilson
Sustaining Membership Chairman — Mrs. Walter I. P. Badger
Active Memberhip Chairman — Mr. Robert Low.

SAILING CLUB

Want to go sailing this sumner? Without even a boat you can enjoy the thrill of a race by enrolling in the Summer Reading Club at the Winchester Library.

In order to stimulate a yearround interest in better reading, this club is open to all children from grades 1 through 7. Beginning Wednesday, June 20th each child may choose from the six classes of boats in the race, the one he wishes to join. Proceeding over the course which requires the reading of ten good books, he has until August 31 to cross the finish line.

Calling all Sailors!

Get an early start and make your class the winner.

RETURNING TO COHASSET

Miss Helen Jay Carroll, teacher of Physical Education and coach of girls at Winchester High School, is returning to Cohasset this summer as Red Cross swimming instructor for the fourth consecutive season.

This year Miss Carroll will also teach tennis to Cohasset children, something she is well qualified to do, being a former State Junior champion. She found the Cohasset Selectmen most enthusiastic about tennis instruction for their youngsters, and the town has completely resurfaced its courts and provided new nets for Miss Carroll's use.

Mrs. Cutler B. Downer left this week to spend the summer at West Chop, Mass.

CHILDREN'S OWN SCHOOL CLOSING DAY

The Closing Day party at the Children's Own School, May 29, was a gay and amusing affair, with the children entertaining their parents by dramatizing their favorite nursery songs. The program included:

"Mary Had a Little Lamb" — Mary, Alex Morris; Lamb, Robert Shillady; "Little Miss Muffet" — Miss Muffet, Sally Worthen; — Spider, Jonathan Moody; "Old King Cole" — King, David Mock; Fiddlers Three, Bobby Howard, Bill Blenn, Robert Shillady; Page Chester Machlin.

"The Muffin Man" — Charles Regan.

After festive refreshments, the parents viewed the exhibit of children's paintings.

On Thursday evening, June 7, Miss Dorothy Gove, Director of the School, entertained the members of the Board of Directors and the Parents' Committee at a buffet supper served under the trees in the School garden. Among the Board members attending were: Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Lamson, Dr. and Mrs. Leo Cass (Dr. Victoria), Mr. and Mrs. Roland Moody and Miss Mary W. Studley. Among the Parents' Committee members were: Mr. and Mrs. Chester Machlin, Mrs. Richard Novak and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shillady.

The final event of the season was a supper party for the teachers held on Monday evening, June 11. Following the supper, Kodachrome slides of Hawaii were shown by Miss Sadako Yamashita, a native of the Islands, who has been assisting in the Remedial Department of the School during the spring term while doing graduate work at Emerson College.

The School is looking forward, now, to its ninth year when several interesting research projects are to be undertaken.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL TEACHERS ENTERTAINED

At her home, 6 Brookside avenue, Mrs. Thomas Purtle, President of the George Washington Mothers' Association, and members of her Executive Board entertained all teachers of the Washington School, at a delightfully informal and highly edible luncheon this Tuesday noon.

The array of tasty casserole dishes, baked ham, salads, cakes, ices, etc., all prepared by the members of the Board, was conclusive evidence of the friendliness and cooperation, which has always existed between the teaching staff and parents of the school.

After the brief but gay luncheon hour, the party concluded with all present well-satisfied with life in general and wishing it happened more often.

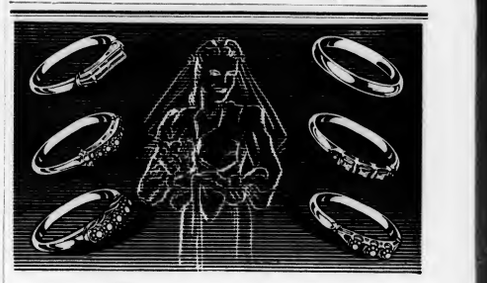

Mr. and Mrs. John Carruthers will be at Laconia, N. H., for the summer.

Members of the Fire Department have been busy this week giving the interior of the Central Station a coat of light green paint. Unofficial reports credit Capt. J. Edward Noonan with being the master painter and Firemen "Pep" O'Melia and Robert John Wyman, chief assistants. "Red" Hannon has offered a number of helpful suggestions, but thus far few of them seem to have been accepted.

The Fire Department was called to Arlington Wednesday shortly after 9 o'clock by an alarm from Arlington box 395, a mutual aid box at Hutchinson road and Lantern Lane. Their help was not needed.

HOAGLAND — RAY

With white fleurs d'amour, snapdragon and cybotium ferns decorating the altar, Miss Sara Inglis (Sallya) Ray, daughter of Mrs. Harold H. Blanchard of Calumet road, and the late Willard Haines Ray, was married at the Church of the Epiphany on Thursday afternoon, June 14, to John Hurle Hoagland, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hoagland of Beacon street, Boston. The rector of the church, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, read the service at 4:30 o'clock, and the bridal party proceeded to the chancel through an aisle of tall white candles and smilax.

Miss Ray was given in marriage by her stepfather. She wore her grandmother's gown of heirloom Chantilly lace, worn by her two sisters at their weddings, and a full-length veil caught to a Juliet cap of French thread lace fastened with stephanotis. Her bouquet combined stephanotis and white orchids.

MRS. BARBARA METCALF

Mrs. John S. Wurts (Robbie Ray) of Williamsport, Penn., and Mrs. Henderson Inches, Jr., (Joan Ray) of Chestnut Hill were their sister's honor attendants, wearing forget-me-not blue organza with coronets to match their bouquets of pale yellow iris and ivory stock.

Bridesmaids were Miss Joan Gale of Boston, Miss Joy Biddle of Cambridge, Miss Jane Rainie of Winchester, Miss Robbie Oxnard of Denver, Colo.; Miss Nancy Carter of Rockport, Miss Lucia Smith of Cleveland, O.; Mrs. William Shluter of Welland, Ont.; and Mrs. George Bushnell of Grosse Point, Mich. They wore yellow organza dresses and their coronets matched the delphinium of their bouquets, shading from pale to deep blue.

Mrs. Blanchard, mother of the bride, wore a gown of aqua crepe and starched lace with a matching flower hat and a corsage of cymbidium orchids. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Hoagland also wore orchids with her gown of pale pink chiffon and lace. Her flower toque was in deeper tones of velvet.

Mr. Hoagland had his father for his best man, and the usher corps included Henry W. Koehler of Louisville, Ky.; Stephen Moulton of Boston, William Whittemore of West Roxbury, William H. Greer of Owensboro, Ky.; Bradford Dillman of Santa Barbara, Cal.; James E. Duffy of Guilford, Ct.; David N. Platt and Louis G. Kreutzer of Bronxville, N. Y.; William F. Frech of Long Island, N. Y.; Connor N. Fay of Indianapolis, Ind.; Henderson Inches, Jr., of Chestnut Hill and John S. Wurts, Jr., of Williamsport, Penn.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's stepfather and mother. During the reception the guests were privileged to hear an impromptu concert by the Whiffenpoofs, famous Yale singing group, who sang in the marquee. The bridegroom, a Yale '51 graduate, was a Whiffenpoof and his fellow-members gathered to sing for the last time as a group at his wedding, singing among many other selections their beloved "Whiffenpoof Song" and a specially composed song in honor of Mr. Hoagland and his bride.

Wedding guests included many who came on to Winchester from Commencements at Smith and Yale. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Chadwell of Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Searle of Worcester, Mr. and Mrs. Conner Fay of Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. John Swan of Darien, Ct.; Mr. and Mrs. George Bushnell of Grosse Point, Mich.; Mr. John Eden of Detroit, Miss Barbara Gibbons of St. Louis, Mo.; and Miss Roxanne Weldon of Hanover, N. H.

The bride was graduated from the Brimmer and May School and from Smith College. She made her debut in the 1946-47 season and is a member of the Junior League and the Vincent Club.

Mr. Hoagland prepared for Yale at the Taft School and Noble and Greenough. Besides the Whiffenpoofs, he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon and Berzelius.

After a motor trip to Canada Mr. Hoagland and his bride will spend the summer at Wianno.

WINCHESTER IS HONORED

The local Girl Scout council was delighted to learn that Mrs. Barbara Metcalf, Executive Director of the Winchester Girl Scouts has been awarded a Scholarship to the International Conference at Edith Macy Training School July 25 to August 3 at Pleasantville, N. Y.

This Summer marks the 25th Anniversary of this well-known Girl Scout Training School. As a special feature they have organized a unique session for International Study. At this time 12 students from different sections and different types of communities of the United States will meet with 12 leaders from other countries to exchange knowledge and create better understanding of their mutual concerns in serving young people everywhere.

Just a year ago Mrs. Metcalf took 13 Senior Scouts on a most successful bicycle trip through England. At present she is director of Camp Joy. Winchester Girl Scout day camp, at the cabin in the Fells.

ENTERTAINING BRIDAL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Martin S. Swanson of 47 Cambridge street are entertaining tonight with a dinner at the Winchester Country Club for the wedding party of their son, Robert Lindsey Swanson and his fiancee, Miss Anne Cusack. The guests include the maid of honor, Miss Sheila Mary Campbell of East Orange, N. J., the bridesmaids, Miss Mona Rae Williams of Stanwood, N. J., Miss Marcia June Lindquist of Tarentum, Penn., Miss Julie Gibbs Farnham of Syracuse, N. Y., and Miss Carolyn Ledyard of Ogdensburg, N. Y., all graduates with Miss Cusack in the class of 1951 at Wells College; the best man, Mr. Richard W. Swanson, the head usher, Mr. Ralph M. Swanson, both brothers of the groom; the other ushers, Mr. Eugene Gro-den, Mr. Edward Hicks, Mr. John Patterson, Mr. Galen Vincent and Mr. John West, all of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cusack, parents of the bride, of 38 Rangely road, Rev. and Mrs. Walter Lee Bailey, Mrs. Richard Swanson and Mrs. Ralph Swanson. Mr. Robert Swanson graduated from Dartmouth College yesterday and will be married to-morrow in the Harvard Memorial Church.

OBSERVED 100TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Mary A. Meehan had the rare distinction of observing her 100th birthday anniversary on Friday, June 15, at the home of her son, Mr. Francis G. Meehan, 58 Salem street.

More than 150 friends and relatives gathered at the Meehan home, despite the inclement weather, and the guest of honor, who is in good health with full possession of her faculties, thoroughly enjoyed the festivities. She received flowers, gifts and many messages of congratulations from friends and relatives unable to greet her personally on her natal day.

A native of New Hampshire, Mrs. Meehan spent most of her life in Lowell, where she has many friends. She has two children living, the son with whom she makes her home and a daughter, Mrs. Mary McMahon of Minneapolis, Minn.

Mrs. McMahon was unable to attend her mother's birthday party, but her two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Brown and Mrs. Lillian Laquin, came east from Minneapolis for the event.

AWARDED PURPLE HEART

Pvt. George M. Osborne, of 11 Ciematis street, son of Clarence L. Osborne, has been awarded the Purple Heart Medal in Korea, the decoration being conferred for wounds received in action near Yongmyon-Ni on January 29.

Pvt. Osborne is in the 1st Cavalry Division's 77th Field Artillery Battalion, the colorful howitzer force that supported the spectacular September breakthrough of U. N. forces northward from Taegu to Osan.

MAYNARD — BLANCHARD

At the Unitarian Church on Saturday afternoon, June 16, Miss Sally Blanchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Blanchard of Mt. Pleasant street, became the bride of Robert Loring Maynard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren A. Maynard of Oxford street. The minister, Rev. Robert A. Storer, officiated at the 4 o'clock ceremony, for which the decorations were cybotium ferns and arrangements of white flowers. Mary Ranton Witham, church organist, played the bridal music.

Miss Blanchard was given in marriage by her father and had for her honor attendant her sister, Mrs. William C. Fisher of Philadelphia, Pa. Another sister, Mrs. John T. Gyger, Jr., of South Bridgton, Me., was an honorary attendant and the bridesmaids were Mrs. John A. Maynard of Winchester, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Miss Jean Leland of Wellesley Hills and Miss Rosanne Borden and Miss Jane Sharon, both of Winchester.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin with a portrait neckline trimmed with Venetian lace and a circular train. Her veil of imported tulle was caught to a heart-shaped tiara edged with seed pearls and she carried Eucharis lilies and stephanotis.

All the bridal attendants carried Chinese red African daisies and gladiolas, and wore organdy dresses, the honor attendant wearing pale yellow and the bridesmaids, lime green.

Dean Blanchard, brother of the bride, was best man for Mr. Maynard, and the ushers were Lt. (j.g.) John A. Maynard, USNR, of Winchester, brother of the bridegroom; Richard F. Fenno, Jr., of Cambridge; R. Gordon McGovern of Elizabeth, N. J.; Samuel B. Tompkins of Winchester; James R. Doty, Jr., of Ipswich and John C. Shimer of Stoneham.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, the receiving line standing in front of banked palms and ferns. Mrs. Blanchard, mother of the bride, wore grey crepe with navy accessories and a corsage of tuberous begonias. Mrs. Maynard, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in midnight blue and wore white accessories with a corsage of lavender orchids.

After a wedding journey through New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard will make their home in Bedford.

The bride graduated from Winchester High School, attended Colby College for two years and was graduated from the Nursery Training School of Boston.

Mr. Maynard, who is associated with Vicks Chemical Company, graduated from Bordentown Military Institute and from Boston University School of Business Administration. He is a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

RESCUE AT MILL POND

"Doug" Hawkins, high school basketball and track star, shared honors with Mrs. Emily Marks, retiring head of the Central Mothers' Association, in the rescue of little Monica Nollet, of 19 Kendall street, when the 4 year old daughter of Major Anthony Nollett, Marine officer stationed at M. I. T., fell into the Mill Pond at the rear of the Town Hall Wednesday forenoon.

Monica and her sister, Alice, had been left on the small island, reached by a footbridge from the town hall bank of the Aberjona, while their father went on an errand to the shopping center. While playing on the bank at a point between the duck-pen and a big willow tree, little Monica toppled into the water which is fairly deep there with the muddy bottom shelving sharply toward the center of the river channel.

Monica was unable to get out of the water and very probably would have drowned had it not been for Hawkins and Mrs. Marks. Hawkins, who is the son of Mr and Mrs. Frank Hawkins of 250 Highland avenue, is working for the Park Department this summer and was busy on the opposite side of the river near the Laundry. Using his sprinting ability to good advantage, he ran to the Mt. Vernon street bridge over the river and up the bank to the island, jumping into the water to the height of his armpits in time to pull Monica from beneath the surface.

Mrs. Marks, wife of Dr. George A. Marks of 32 Foxcroft road, and the mother of four children, was painting with members of the Studio Guild near the Parkway sidewalk on the same side of the island. A woman's scream called her attention to the child in the water, and also showing a burst of speed, Mrs. Marks ran to the island and dove into the channnel just behind Hawkins, aiding him in getting little Monica ashore.

Though soaked from head to feet, Mrs. Marks went with Monica to her home, the pair being taken there by Officer Thomas Parsons in the Patrol car. Meanwhile the astounded father was informed of his daughter's narrow escape by the Police when he returned to the island.

RECEIVES DEGREE

Henry F. Barry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Barry, 304 Main street, last week received his A. B. degree at Commencement Exercises at Holy Cross College, Worcester. He was also commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve.

His sister Gertrude was graduated from Boston Academy of Notre Dame this month.

METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOL PROGRESS

Rev. John Snook, Jr., pastor of the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church, announces a complete staff of teachers and officers, in what promises to be one of the outstanding years in the life of the Church School, beginning next Fall. It is unusual and indeed a very healthy situation to find more teachers ready for work than the program calls for, but several volunteers have brought the circumstances to such a point. With some reorganizing and adjusting made, the pastor, Rev. Snook, Sunday School Supt., W. Raymond Chase, and Chairman of the Board of Education, Mrs. Louise H. Armstrong, with their staff, shall be ready to meet every need in the spiritual development of the children and young people.

This past year's enrollment of students reveals an increase of 60% over a three year period, as reported by the secretary.

Citations were given to the following for perfect attendance one year or more:

MRS. AMANDA E. THRIFT

Mrs. Amanda E. Thrift, widow of Timothy Burr Thrift, died suddenly in her sleep Friday morning, June 15, at her home, 64 Salisbury street. She had been in ill health for the past four years, following her husband's death.

Mrs. Thrift was born July 20, 1882, in Chicago. As a young woman she prepared herself for a professional pianist's career, making many appearances on the concert platform in and around Chicago. She also had experience on the stage, playing for five seasons in a Chicago stock company.

During much of her lifetime Mrs. Thrift wrote short stories, essays and poetry. She was a particularly active member of the National Amateur Press Association, and it was at a convention of the Association in Chicago in 1905 that she met Mr. Thrift, who was also interested in writing and later became well known as an author.

They were married in 1906 in Chicago, moving from there to Cleveland, O., and then to Elmira, N. Y., where Mr. Thrift was associated with the American Saleshook Company. They came from Elmira to Winchester in 1934, living first on Winslow road and until Mr. Thrift's death, on Salisbury street. Mrs. Thrift having made her home there for the past 15 years. She was a member of the Fortnightly Women's Club.

Mrs. Thrift leaves a daughter, Mrs. Hall B. Gamage; and two grandsons, Peter Thrift Gamage and Gary Hall Gamage, all of Winchester.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at Ripley Chapel of the First Congregational Church with the minister, Rev. Howard J. Chidley, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

The Reverend and Mrs. John W. Cook, recently entertained at dinner a group of friends at their home, 473 Washington street. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts, of Providence, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Cote of Somerville, the Reverend William E. Smith, Chaplain of Boston University, Miss Mary Lou Claxton, Pittsburgh, Mr. Leonard Confar of Los Angeles, Miss Nancy Shoemaker of Worcester, Mr. Ralph Minker and Miss Peggy Reynolds of Wilmington, Delaware.

FRUIT AND FLOWER MISSION

Tuesday, June 26 Mrs. Frank Evans of Saint Mary's Church will be at the Boston and Maine railroad station at 8:30 a. m. to pick up any and all flowers to be distributed to shut-ins all over Boston. We have had a terrific week, rain and more rain. Most gardens have taken a beating, I know, which is all the more reason we should try to cheer those who not only are ill but have nothing to make their lives happier. If you can not bring your flowers please call Mrs. Evans, Winchester 6-1743.

THOMPSON — HOOPER

Miss Mary Jane Hooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver L. Hooper of 228 Highland avenue, had her sister, Miss Betsy Hooper of New York City, as her honor maid at her marriage on Saturday, June 16, to George Dale Thompson, Jr., of Alexandria, Va. The late-afternoon ceremony was performed at 5 o'clock in Meyer Chapel of the United Parish Church by the minister, Rev. Robert A. Storer.

Another sister, Miss Ann Hooper of Winchester, was also in the bridal party as one of the four bridesmaids, the others being two cousins of the bride, Miss Susan Hooper and Miss Cynthia Hooper of Gildersleeve, Ct., and Miss Dorothy Watt of Scarsdale, N. Y.

The bride wore the white satin and Pina cloth dress of her great-aunt, Mrs. Fred Cole of Winchester, with hand-embroidered illusion veil. Her flowers were white roses and stephanotis arranged in an old-fashioned bouquet.

The honor maid wore a white embroidered organdy dress over pale pink taffeta with a ballerina-length skirt. Her small hat was of white lace and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of white daisies and delphinium.

The bridesmaids wore dresses styled with ballerina skirts of embroidered organdy and pink taffeta bodices and overskirts. Their hat and bouquets were like those of the honor maid.

Henry Burgess of Chatham, N. J., was best man for Mr. Thompson, and the usher corps included Henry Hooper of Winchester, brother of the bride; Jay Hooper of Gildersleeve, Ct., cousin of the bride; Clark Mawgelsdorf of Cambridge and Philip Brandt of Weymouth.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, who assisted in receiving with the parents of the bridegroom.

After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will make their home in Baltimore, Md.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Swarthmore College in Pennsylvania. Mr. Thompson is a civil engineer in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

N. FREDERICK ANDERSON

N. Frederick Anderson of 15 Governor's avenue, a foreman at the Beggs and Cobb Tannery, died suddenly while at work Monday, June 18.

Mr. Anderson was the son of N. Frederick, and Amalia (Johannson) Anderson. He was born June 17, 1889, in New York City, but at the age of 17 months went to Oslo, Norway, with his parents, remaining in Norway until he was 17 years old.

At that time he returned to this country and settled in Winchester, learning the leather workers' trade at Beggs and Cobb, with which firm he had been associated for the past 40 years.

As a young man Mr. Anderson was well known as an amateur wrestler and weight-lifter, winning many medals and cups. He was a member of Viking Lodge of Woburn and formerly coached the lodge wrestling team as well as coaching both wrestling and weight-lifting at the Woburn YMCA.

Mr. Anderson leaves his wife, Mrs. Lillian Anderson; a daughter, Mrs. Richard F. Riley; and a grandson, Richard F. Riley, Jr., all of Winchester.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Bennett Chapel with the Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, officiating. Interment was in Wildwood Cemetery.

MISS PITMAN ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman of Winchester, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce, to Mr. David Jackson Schardt of St. Louis, Missouri.

Miss Pitman is a graduate of Walnut Hill School and of Smith College, class of 1947. She received her Masters Degree from Washington University in St. Louis. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, and honorary Educational Society.

Mr. Schardt is the son of Mr. Joseph C. Schardt and the late Mrs. Schardt (Lucy Bruton) of St. Louis. He attended the University of Dayton, Ohio before entering the United States Army in World War II, with services in the European Theatre. He received a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Illinois in 1949. He is the brother of Major Joseph C. Schardt, Captain Bruton Burke Schardt, both of whom are now stationed in Texas and Mrs. Francis Blakiston Kribs, formerly of Buenos-Aires, Argentina, now of Corning, N. Y.

The wedding is to take place in the latter part of August.

NORRIS — SMITH

Mr. Gilbert Hood Norris of Winchester and Miss Geraldine Maree Smith were married on Saturday afternoon, June 16th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt H. Smith in Marion, Iowa. Miss Emily C. Hood of Winchester, cousin of the groom, served as maid of honor and Mr. Robert Wight of Des Moines, Iowa, as best man.

Mr. Norris is the son of Lieutenant Colonel Raymond A. Norris of Washington, D. C. and the late Mrs. Emily Hood Norris and grandson of Mrs. Gilbert H. Hood, Sr. of Winchester and Derry Village, New Hampshire. He was graduated from Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa, on June 15th. Mrs. Norris is also a graduate of Iowa State College.

WINCHESTER LEGIONNAIRE CANDIDATE FOR HIGHER OFFICE

Announcement is made of the Candidacy of Robert F. Murphy for the office of Senior Vice Commander of Middlesex County Council, The American Legion.

Murphy, who is better known to his many friends as "Sam," is currently serving as Junior Vice Commander of Middlesex County and is probably one of the best known Legionnaires in this section of the state. A veteran of almost four years duty in the Pacific area with the Navy, Sam has served two terms as Commander of Winchester Post No. 97 and is widely acclaimed for his work in the interest of all veterans. He has already been endorsed by his own Post and many others throughout the County. The state department convention will be held in Holyoke, Mass. August 17, 18 and 19th with the election of officers taking place on the 18th. If elected to this office Murphy will automatically become a member of the Department Executive Committee and will have much to do with the making of future Legion policy.

MISS BUGBEE ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Bugbee of Symmes road, Winchester announce the engagement of their daughter Margery Seymour to Mr. Selwyn Ives Atherton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ives Atherton of Hanover, N. H.

Miss Bugbee attended the Winchester High School and graduated this June from Colby Junior College.

Mr. Atherton is a graduated of Dartmouth College class of 1951 and is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

He is the grandson of Mr. Llewellyn O. White of West Medford.

HARVARD FUND TO SKERRY

The Winchester Harvard Fund, organized in 1949 by graduates of Harvard University living in Winchester, announces the granting of its award for 1951 to Herbert Skerry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will B. Skerry of 63 Woodside road. Herbert will enter the sophomore class at Harvard this Fall. He was graduated from Winchester High School in 1950. Mr. Will Skerry is a teacher in Winchester High School. Another son is attending Brown University.

COMING EVENTS

25TH ANNIVERSARY

Close to one hundred friends and relatives gathered last Sunday, June 17, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lundin, who recently observed their 25th wedding anniversary. The Kenwin road home of the Lundin's was beautifully decorated for the occasion with spring flowers.

On behalf of those present, Mr. Herman Carlson of Wakefield, uncle of Mrs. Lundin, presented the honored couple with a purse, which was graciously accepted with an impromptu speech by Mr. Lundin. The guests then enjoyed delicious refreshments, including a handsome anniversary cake.

Out of town guests came from Medford, Woburn, Wakefield, Stoneham, Milton, Quincy, Salem, Peabody, Malden, New Hampshire, and Maine.

The Lundin's have a daughter, Irene, and two sons, Norman and David.

JULY FOURTH PLANS PROGRESS

Plans for the town's observance of Independence Day are progressing rapidly and generally call for a repetition of the program so successfully carried out two years ago by Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion.

The circus of 1949 will give way this year to a Fire Prevention theme, and Commander Lester Gustin of the Legion announces that fire helmets with the letters WFD will be available for the children, as well as the usual free ice cream.

A parade leaving the town hall at 1:00 p. m. will proceed to Leonard Field where there will be professional entertainment, contests, rides on a fire engine and other features. Only Winchester children are eligible for prizes.

MAY BUILD PRIVATE HOSPITAL

It is reported that a group of doctors may build a private hospital in north Winchester on the property which is under development between Forest and Washington streets.

WHAT'LL YOU HAVE!

No — we are not paging Mr Pabst Blue Ribbon. We are simply asking you owners of property who have your homes in the restricted residential district of Winchester.

What'll you have?

There are now operating in the restricted residential zone two business enterprises. One is at No. 2 Rangely and the other at No. 19 Church Street. Each of these establishments operates the first floor of the premises as a dental business with dental chairs, rest rooms, nurses quarters, laboratories, etc. The remainder of the buildings is given over to apartments. The two owners maintain their own residence elsewhere.

WE ARE UNABLE TO FIND A SIMILAR INSTANCE IN ANY TOWN WHICH HAS A RESTRICTED RESIDENTIAL ZONE. THESE APPEAR TO BE SIMPLE BUSINESS ENTERPRISES.

What'll you have?

In an endeavor to ascertain their standing the Star contacted various Town departments asking if these enterprises were allowed or not in our restricted residential zone.

It wrote the Selectmen, the Building Commissioner, the Board of Appeal, the Town Counsel and the Planning Board.

Not one of these five departments will answer our question. They will not say "Yes" or "No".

This of course is only the beginning. Legal opinion says similar establishments may be opened anywhere in Town, anywhere in the residential district.

What'll you have?

The Star wonders how home owners in the restricted residential district feel.

Do you want a dental clinic and apartments next door? Do you want a rooming house, a private hospital or a nursing home on the other side? Do you want a nursery school or a neighboring meat market across the street? How about a corner grocery?

Remember, this is only the beginning.

What'll you have?

Perhaps you prefer to keep up your home as it is in what you imagine to be a residential zone, to have your teeth cared for elsewhere and not next door.

Perhaps you prefer to send your children to the public schools, not next door.

Perhaps you prefer the Winchester Hospital to the private establishment next door?

Perhaps you prefer to do your trading somewhere else than at a next door grocery?

What'll you have?

We would like to find out.

If you would like to be recorded as opposing the present conditions, you may so be recorded by calling at the Star Office.

Or you may sign and send the coupon below to the Star Office.

WHAT'LL YOU HAVE!

With the understanding that if they are allowed to continue, similar enterprises may be opened anywhere in the restricted residential zone in Winchester, I wish to be recorded as objecting to the opening of the dental offices and apartments at No. 2 Rangely and No. 19 Church Street in the restricted residential zone of Winchester. It is my understanding that the owners of these enterprises reside elsewhere.

Four Bowdoin College seniors from Winchester will be among 180 men to receive Bachelor of Arts degrees from Bowdoin at the College's 146th Commencement exercises held Saturday morning, June 16. They are Robert A. "Angus" Johnston, Jr.; Lloyd Wallis, Jr.; Charles Watson, and William Knights.

Johnston is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Johnston of 83 Washington street and prepared for college at Winchester High School and the Tilton School. At Bowdoin he has been majoring in History and has been a member of the Glee Club, Meddiebempsters, and the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. Following graduation he will be associated with the John Hancock Life Insurance Company.

Wallis, who graduated Cum Laude, is the son of Mrs. Lloyd Wallis of 17 Everell road, and is a graduate of Winchester High School. He majored in Economics, and for the past year has served as a Cadet Major in Bowdoin's ROTC Battalion, having been recognized as a Distinguished Military Student. He has also been a member of the Student Council and the Sigma Nu fraternity. After graduation he will attend ROTC Summer Camp at Fort Eustis, Virginia.

Watson, also a graduate of Winchester High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Watson of 8 Salisbury street. He has done his major work in French and is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Knights is the son of Mrs. E. M. McGee of 45 Calumet road, and is a gradnate of Mercersburg Academy. He majored in Biology at Bowdoin and for the past two years has served as Manager of the Varsity Football Team. He is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity.

TO AID BAND AND ORCHESTRA

On Thursday evening, June 28, at 8 o'clock, Mrs. Albert Swazey will open her home at 336 Main street to parents of members of the high school band and orchestra, and to all other persons interested in actively supporting these groups.

In the past, parents and friends have aided the band and orchestra by caring for uniforms and giving whatever help was possible for them, individually, to give.

The purpose of the meeting on next Thursday evening is to band together these parents and friends, and persons interested in the progress of the band and orchestra, to form a sponsoring organization who, collectively, could accomplish far more in the behalf of the band and orchestra than any individual could.

This organization, scheduled to commence functioning at the time of the opening of school in the Fall, would raise money for the use of the band and orchestra and in general, work for their benefit.

Anyone interested in this project is cordially invited, and will find it very worthwhile to attend.

ENTERTAINED HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The seventy-five members of the Winchester High School Band and Orchestra with their conductor Mr. Fred Felmet and Mrs. Felmet were entertained at a supper party Wednesday evening, June 6th on the Outdoor Terrace of the Music Hall by the "Mothers of the Band".

The weather was perfect, the dinner delicious and a good time was had by all.

Mr. Gerald Hills entertained with his ever successful "Hour of Magic", and humor.

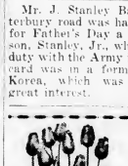

The following mothers assisted in the successful party: the Mesdames: Armstrong, Becker, Bingham, Calahan, Cunninghan, Curtis, Daschbach, Donnell, Derro, Dunn, Doucette, Dyer, Erickson, Fitzgerald, Hersey, Jope, Johnson, Johnston, Krell, McKinley, Mullens, Muncaster, Pratt, Rotondi, Sawyer, Simpson, Symmes, Swonger, Tarr, Traut, Wadsworth, Whitten, Wilson, Willing and Mrs. William Cusack, Chairman.

CUSACK RECEIVED DEGREE

William C. Cusack, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Cusack of 2 Lakeview road, received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y., on June 10th, majoring in Economics.

Cusack was a member of Chimera and Orange Key, Sophomore and Junior Honor Societies, and a member of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He played football and Lacrosse four years, winning the "Outstanding Player" award in football his Senior year. He was a member of the Yacht and Hockey Clubs and an Officer of the Senior Class as Class Historian. He prepared at Choate School in Wallingford, Connecticut.

Mr. J. Stanley Barnes of Canterbury road was happy to receive for Father's Day a card from his son, Stanley, Jr., who is on active duty with the Army in Korea. The card was in a form of a map of Korea, which was naturally of great interest.

CAMP FELLSLAND ADDS NEW SLEEPING CABINS

Through the loyal efforts of you and your Scouters from the local group, Camp Fellsland will have three new sleeping cabins for the boys this summer. The problem of course will be who will sleep in the new cabins and who will have to sleep in the old cabins. These new cabins are very large and roomy. One of these cabins was secured through a gift from the people of Troop No. 8 Medford and the other two Troop Cabins through a Capital Fund that the Council secured last year.

About 50 different Scouters have been going up to Camp Fellsland at Amesbury, Mass., every weekend since the middle of March to build these three Cabins and also to do regular repair work, and also to start the building of a new building known as a winterized cabin.

This winterized cabin is composed of two large sleeping roonts, a lounge room, and a kitchen. This will take care of 60 individuals for camping during the cold winter year, in addition to use during the summer months for the regular camp season.

Mr. Roland Chaput of Stoneham and four of his young men have been at Camp to complete the two wharfs so that they will be ready when the boys come to camp. All of the boating equipment is now ready and waiting for the boys to come on opening day Sunday July 1st. These boys who will be in camp the first week will have the advantage of celebrating the Fourth with a bonfire on the Fourth of July.

The camp staff this year will consist of: E. W. Nelson, Camp Director who will be serving in that capacity for his 12th season at Camp Fellsland. Mr. Francis MacFeeley, Field Executive, will serve as Camp Director and Program Director. This will be Mr. MacFeeley's ninth year in this capacity at Camp Fellsland. Mr. George Hooper who has been the cook for the past four years will again be the cook this summer, that of course means the best of food for everyone. Mrs. Lillian MacFeeley will again be the Camp Nurse to take care of boys during their stay. Other members who will be on the staff this year who have had previous experience at Camp Fellsland on the Staff are: Mr. Frank Cooper of Winchester who is in charge of Rangers, Eddie Cullen of Winchester, who is serving again as Assistant Waterfront Director, Charlie Sprott of Stoneham for another Assistant Waterfront Director, who served in that same capacity last year, Paul Bullard of Stoneham who will serve as Bugler and Nature Man, having served in that capacity last year, Donald MacFeeley, of Winchester will again be in the store the same as last year. Other members of the staff are: Richard Steenbrugen, Alan Davies, James Daley, Robert Kaiser, and Richard Kaiser of Medford. Ted Anderson, Dan Covell of Stoneham. Lawrence Worthen, Philip Dresser, Thomas Wilder, Robert Gaffney, Thomas Morrisey, and Neil Muncaster of Winchester, and Norman DeFont of Burlington.

The enrollment for camp this summer has been extremely high with better than 200 boys already signed up for 500 weeks. This means an average of 2½ weeks per boy. This in turn is higher than in other years when the average then was about 2 weeks per boy.

Due to the fact that the camp has built three new cabins there is still adequate room for any boy who wants to go to camp any one of the six weeks of camp. Six weeks starting on Sunday, July 1st and finishing on Sunday August 12th.

Reservations can be made through the boys' own Scoutmaster or by communicating directly with the Scout Office on South Border road, Winchester. Telephone number WInchester 6-2030.

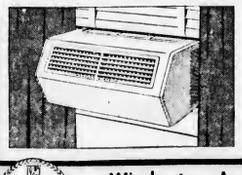

Bill "Nanjo" Nichols, former high school football star, now in the Marine Corps Reserve, left Monday night for Parris Island, South Carolina, where he will take a Platoon Leader's Training Course. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Loring P. Nichols of Winslow road, Bill commences his senior year at Dartmouth in the fall.

HIGH SCHOOL HAD SUCCESSFUL TRACK SEASON

Winchester High School closed a reasonably successful track season by finishing fifth in its class in the State Meet, and previously, finishing in the same spot at the Belmont Relays.

In dual competition Winchester beat Winthrop and traditional rival, Woburn; losing to Lexington, Punchard and Wakefield. The meets with both Lexington and Punchard were very close, the relay races deciding both competitions. Wakefield proved too good for the Indians, despite the fact that the locals showed their best times and distances against the winners.

Winchester won its Quadrangular meet with Woburn, Concord and Melrose, and also was returned a winner in a triangular meet with Melrose and Reading, giving the Indians a winning edge for the season.

Athletic Director Henry Knowlton was assisted in coaching the team by John Cogan, former Harvard Cross Country captain, the new School Committee policy of limiting faculty members to two extra-curricular activities depriving the team of the services of Tom Morse, Coach Knowlton's capable assistant in past seasons.

This year's team was captained by Bob O'Brien and Johnny Richmond, sprinters and relay runners. Richmond was lost to the team during much of the season with a muscle pull, but O'Brien won the hundred, two-twenty, or both, in most of Winchester's meets and his 22.9s for the furlong, made in his heat at the State meet is the best time shown by a Winchester runner since "Rat" DiMambro's winning 22.7s at the same meet in 1944.

Gordon "Buzzie" Bird turned in some consistently good times in the the State meet, in which he finished third, being the best Winchester clocking since Ray Underwood's mile, his best figures, 4m 40s at 4m 35 2 5s against Woburn in 1935. Lack of a closing sprint hurt Bird's record, but with better pacing he should improve his times.

Tall Doug Hawkins, in his first year of track, was only eight-tenths of a second away from Archie Walling's all-time Winchester High record of 53 seconds for the quarter, made in an interclass meet in 1909. Hawkins' 53.8 made in the State meet eclipses anything made by a Winchester runner in interscholastic competition, being better than the times turned in by Dick Merrow (54s, State Meet, '41) and later Ben Coe, best of the recent quarter milers.

John Foley had a 2m 7s half in the Quad meet, with the record, 2m 2 2 5 by Juddie Cross in 1934. Neil Muncaster in the highs and Bruce Corthell in the lows placed in the hurdles in the State Meet, despite the fact they had no opportunity for competition previously in the season.

This season was marked by excellent competition in all Winchester's meets and by the general improvement of the Indian competitors toward the end of the season. With a good Jay-Vee squad prospects are good for next year, despite the loss of stars like O'Brien and Bird.

Bruce Corthell, high jumper, relayer, sprinter and hurdler, and Doug Hawkins are co-captains-elect. Joe Donlon and Bob Johnson helped Corthell in the high jump with Donlon doing some relaying. Zeke Hicks ran the sprints and relay and Tom Wilder and Lou Ackerman were the best of the broad-jumpers, getting out around 18 feet.

Sandy Burbank, Hawkins and Jost Michelsen handled the shot-putting with Burbank doing most of the winning, but Hawkins getting out the best put, finally breaking 40 feet. Dick Brooks, Hicks, Corthell, Wilder, O'Brien and Donlon ran in the relay events.

LADIES' GUEST GOLF

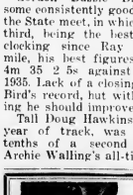

Ladies' Guest Day was observed at the Winchester Country Club Tuesday with a four-ball tournament in which members paired with guests from other clubs.

First gross prize went to Mrs. Vincent Farnsworth, Jr., and her guest, Mrs. Pinnaret. Mrs. A. Allen Kimball and her guest, Mrs. Drysdale were runners-up.

Mrs. Donald Belcher and her guest, Mrs. Baker, Jr., won net honors with Mrs. Shields and her guest, Mrs. Golden, winning second net. Third net went to Mrs. Clark Collins and her guest, Mrs. Gordon.

Prizes for being nearest the hole at the 9th went to Mrs. Trager and Mrs. Smyers, and to Mrs. Rochford and Mrs. Rush.

Earle F. Spencer, Jr., of 8 Yale street received his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Williams College on June 16. On the Dean's List, Spencer was vice president of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity, a member of the Outing Club, played freshman football and lacrosse and was on the Williams "Record." He prepared at Andover.

WINCHESTER HAD SUCCESSFUL BASEBALL SEASON

14 and 4 Record, Second in League

With the 10 inning Woburn thriller on June 2 Winchester High concluded another highly successful baseball season, during which the Red and Black, under the able coaching of Ted Bartlett, won 14 of its 18 games and finished in a tie for second in the Middlesex League with Reading.

An unexpected loss to seventh place Lexington during the latter part of the season prevented the Indians from tieing Melrose for the league championship, and as Winchester belted the champs 16 - 4 in their return game, the local boys would have welcomed a playoff for the league crown.

Winchester split with each of the leading Middlesex teams, Melrose and Reading, but got a bit careless against Lexington in its second game of the season with the Minuteboys after a five-game winning streak.

The Indians split with traditional rival, Woburn, winning the first game at Woburn, 13 - 7, and losing the return contest at Winchester, 2 - 0. This second game was one of the best schoolboy contests seen in Winchester for many a day, and characterized by Coach Bartlett as one of the best he had ever seen.

Winchester's Charlie Murphy and Lefty Reil of Woburn hooked up in a fork-handed pitching duel that went 10 hectic frames before the Orange was able to punch across the deciding tallies.

Against a team with a less capable center-fielder than "Butch" McLaughlin the locals would have won on June 2 in regulation innings. The great Orange outfielder had nine putouts and at least three of them took run-making triples away from Winchester.

Inexperience cost the Indians the winning tally in the 9th when its base-runner trying to score from second on a clean hit to McLaughlin, ran too wide rounding third and was barely nailed at the plate by "Butch's" perfect strike.

This year's team got good pitching from Stowell Symmes and Charlie Murphy, the right-handed Symmes winning six and losing two while Murphy southpawed his way to an eight and four record. Murphy's class sticks out in the fact that his mates failed to get him a single run in the two games he lost.

Peter Coon, a green but aggressive kid, who improved during the season, did the catching for the team, with the infield comprising Ed Crowley at first, Capt. Tony Cirurso at second, Johnny DiIorio and Dave Dalton at third and Bobby Flaherty and DiIorio at short. Jimmy Griffin, in left; "Prep" Keyes in center and "Jocko" Serieka in right were the outfielders, though both Murphy and Symmes also played the outfield on occasion because of their hitting.

The team didn't field too badly, by comparison, making 57 errors through the season against 74 for the opposition. At bat the team hit for a collective .281, which is good. Much of this average was amassed against the weaker opponents, the Indians showing little real batting strength against good pitching.

Murphy with a fine .440 average led the team at the plate, followed by Griffin with .329, Crowley, .328; Coon, .323; DiIorio, .295; Serieka, .284; and Keyes, .278.

This year's team started the season with four regulars, Murphy, Symmes, Crowley and Capt. Cirurso. DiIorio and Keyes were also letter men but not regulars. Next season's outlook is much brighter, with 10 of this year's 12 letter men returning and only Cirurso and Crowley missing. Tommy Gallagher, basketball manager, doubled in brass to manage this year's nine. Next year's team will be captained jointly by DiIorio and Dalton.

No mention of this season would be complete without a word of praise for the expert coaching of Ted Bartlett. His ability as an instructor and facilitian enabled a mediocre ball-club to turn in an outstanding record.

Following is the season's record:

JUNIOR LEGION PLAYS THREE AT HOME

The Winchester Junior Legion has a busy schedule for Manchester Field this weekend as they play the Lowell Junior Legion this evening, the Malden Junior Legion on Sunday afternoon, and the Stoneham Junior Legion on Monday evening. The Lowell game tonight is the feature attraction as Lowell always boasts of a strong Junior Legion nine and this year's team is undefeated to date. Charlie Murphy is expected to twirl this one for the locals and Murphy will have to be at his best to turn back the visitors.

On Sunday afternoon the Malden Junior Legion will be the attraction at Manchester Field with Stowell Symmes slated to toe the mound for the locals, Winchester and Malden played to an 11 - 11 tie at Malden last week but the locals are hopeful that they can do better on their home diamond.

On Monday evening Coach Tony DeTeso will bring his Stoneham Junior Legion nine to Manchester Field, featuring most of his next year's high school team. As this is a non-league game, Coach Bartlett is expected to use Jim Carroll or Charlie DiSilva on the mound in order to give the youngsters some valuable experience.

JOSLIN AIRMAN OF MONTH

Sgt. Ralph D. Joslin, Jr., of Winchester has been awarded the "Airman of the Month Award" for April in the Headquarters Squadron of the 102nd Fighter Wing, Massachusetts Air National Guard, Commonwealth Armory, Boston.

The announcement was made by Commanding Officer Captain Russell S. Dexter, who presented $5.00 out of the Squadron fund to Sgt. Joslin. The Award is based on all the preceppts of a good soldier.

A recent transfer now has Sgt. Joslin attached to Headquarters of the 102nd Maintenance and Supply Group at Logan Airport, East Boston, under command of Lt. Col. Olcott M. Brown.

Sgt. Joslin was assigned to the Operations and Training Section while on duty at Commonwealth Armory. He enlisted in the Mass. Air National Guard in July of 1949. He is a student at the Bentley School of Accounting, Boston.

The American Legion Auxiliary will conduct a weenie roast on Saturday evening, June 30 in the Legion Home at 8:30 o'clock.

JUNIOR LEGION TIED IN OPENER

The Winchester Junior Legion played the Malden Junior Legion to an 11 - 11 tie at Malden on Wednesday evening. It was the opening game of the league schedule for the locals and they got a lot of bad baseball out of their system as they made seven errors and as many more errors of omission.

Although Winchester made 13 hits they had to come from behind to score two runs in the top of the seventh to tie the game. Symmes and McLaughlin opened the inning with clean singles. Giacalone laid down a nice sacrifice bunt to advance both runners. Griffin came through with a hit to left to drive in the tying run, taking second on the throw to the plate. Keyes hit to right field, Griffin stopping at third. Murphy flied to right and Griffin was nailed at the plate on a nice peg as he tried to score after the catch.

The same two teams will play at Manchester Field on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

WOBURN 7 - 3 OVER JUNIOR LEGION

The Winchester Junior Legion dropped a 7 - 3 verdict to the Woburn Junior Legion at Woburn on Tuesday evening. The rain-enforced layoff of the past week seemed to have hurt the locals as they played listless, careless baseball and had lost their sharpness at the plate. The locals put 14 men on base in the eight innings played but were able to bring only three of them home in the last inning when the game was lost.

Charlie Murphy pitched well enough to win as he gave up five hits, walked four, and struck out eight in the seven innings he worked. Woburn scored four unearned runs in the seventh for their margin of victory on two hits, two bases on balls, and two costly errors.

WOLFF - CLARK FATHER'S DAY TOURNEY WINNERS

Victor A. Wolff and his son-in-law, Rem Clark, won low net honors in the Class A division of the annual Father's Day golf tournament at the Winchester Country Club last Sunday. The tournament is limited to club members and fathers may play with sons, grandsons or sons-in-law.

The Wolff-Clark team carded a net 66 to win in Class A, the division for sons 12 years old and over. J. Mulford Olivier and son, Jim, had a 67 second net and third honors went to the father of the tournament, Fritz B. Craven, who had a 68 playing with his son-in-law, Maury Tompkins.

Ineidentally the Wolff-Clark duo went out in 49 and back in 38 with Pa-in-law Wolff sinking putts all over the place, on the inward nine, including one sensational 40 footer at the last hole.

D. A. and son, "Tyke" Wilcox, won low gross honors for Class A with a 79. Just to keep it all in the family "Dave" paired with his son, J. B. Wilcox, to annex second gross honors in the class, being a stroke above his figures with "Tyke."

Evander French and son, Vandy, won the net prize for Class B, in which the sons have to be under 12. Their net was 71, eight under the runners-up, Larry Burke and son, Ronnie, who had a reduced 80. Low gross honors in B went to John Gibbons and son, Jack, who had 112.

A big gallery was on hand for the putting contest which was held on the putting green. Jay O'Donaghue and son, Jack, had a 39 to win in Class A, with J. B. Willing and son, Robert, showing the same figures to win in Class B. S. E. Neill and son, Stanley, Jr., were the Class C winners with 41.

Featuring the putting was the Derby team of Papa Ross and three-year-old Richard Donald, believed by many to be the youngest competitor in the history of this popular Father's Day tourney.

During the putting cookies and orangeade, crackers and cheese and punch for the grownups were served, first at the green and later when a thunderstorm interrupted, on the porch of the pro-shop, Richard A. Harlow was in charge of arrangements for the tourney.

TWO GRADUATE FROM PARKS COLLEGE

Pvt. Robert W. Gagan, son of Mr. Raymond A. Gagan of 21 New Meadows road and Pfc. Frank E. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustaf W. Johnson of 31 Englewood road, today received their graduation certificates from Parks College of Aeronautical Technology of Saint Louis University where they have been attending a fifteen-week basic course in aircraft maintenance. They will now be sent to an Air Force specialist school for further training.

Private Gagan had previously been assigned to Lackland AFB and Sheppard AFB in Texas before being sent to Parks College for his basic aircraft instruction. He is a graduate of Winchester High School and Tilton Junior College of Tilton, N. H., and completed one year at Boston College, Chestnut Hill, before entering service.

Private Johnson had previously been assigned to Lackland AFB and Sheppard AFB in Texas before being sent to Parks College for his basic aircraft instruction. He is a graduate of Winchester High School and completed one year at Boston University before entering service.

Miss Susan Joan St. Clair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. St. Clair of 6 Bacon street, graduated this past weekend from Colby Junior College in New London, New Hampshire. Susan was Secretary of her Junior Class, President of Rouge Pot and Delta Psi Omega and very active in student affairs. This September she will attend Katherine Gibbs School in Boston, but this summer you can get your best sellers from Susan at Mary Spaulding's Book Shop on Thompson street.

Eight months ago the Star became interested in what appeared an infringement of our residential zoning district. It contacted various Town departments in an endeavor to find out whether this encroachment was allowed or not. It got nowhere. No one was interested in the slightest. During that period we had our annual Town Meeting. Nothing was done. There was no interest by any Town Department. As time progressed it appeared that these business enterprises opened in the restricted residential district were contrary to our zoning laws. But no one appears to care. It is possible that the Town approves of this encroachment and does not care where similar establishments are opened. If that is the case the Star will withdraw any objection it may have to the conditions. In an endeavor to find out what the attitude of home owners is in the matter we are printing on the first page of the Star this week a request for an expression of opinion. If home owners in the residential district desire, something may be done. If they are satisfied, along with our Town departments, the Star expresses its regret that we allow a condition here in Winchester not permitted by any other place claiming to have restricted residential zoning.

"—AND THE BAND PLAYED ON"

Editor of the Star:

One of the heart-warming sidelights of the Winchester High School graduation this year was the protracted and enthusiastic applause of the members of the High School Band for two of their own group — Joe Callahan and Lew Curtis — who were receiving their diplomas. It indicated, beyond the shadow of a doubt, the team feeling that has developed during the many long hours of playing together in practice sessions, and before the public.

Much credit should go to Mr. Felmet who has been the director of this group. The warmth of the handshake of one boy concluding the work with him expressed silently the appreciation for Mr. Felmet's insistence on high standards of musicianship, appearance, and group loyalty which — although sometimes a temporary annoyance — can only result in ultimate appreciation for help in personal development. For, "Fred" has not merely worked to produce a Band which Winchesterites boast about with pride, but he is also interested in the growth of each individual member during important formative years, and in the fair recognition of effort as well as skill. In five and a half short years, he has taken a group of unorganized "Musicians" of varying degrees of experience and ability, and built them into an outstanding High School Band of 62 members. At the same time, he has, with the help of Miss Goodwin, organized a fine High School Orchestra, and a band and or an orchestra in practically every elementary school and the Junior High School.

However, loyal and talented as he is, Mr. Felmet could not have produced these results without the personnel with which to work. So, to the young people themselves who have devoted much time and effort, who have consistently been present from September to June at the games, the parades, the En Ka flag-raising, the concerts, the School assembly, the Music Festival and the High School graduation, we should say a word of thanks. Winchester has accepted the fact that our band is good, and that they are willing to play on numerous occasions. What we have perhaps neglected to remember is that it is only because the young people have been willing to give up a generous part of their very full and busy days to rehearsal as well as public appearance that we can benefit by the exhilaration and the glamor that they add to any occasion.

Were it not for the small but efficient group of parents — under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Simpson, and Mr. Roland Parker — who have helped to assign and fit the uniforms in the fall, the Band would not have appeared as such a well-turned-out assembly. If you have never been down to the mezzanine of the High School Auditorium at the beginning of the school year, and seen what the summer months have done to the height and girth of the former Band members that must be fitted into a limited number of uniforms with restricted limits to their adaptability, then you have never seen a real problem in "logistics". The Band members and their parents assume the responsibility for keeping the uniforms in tip-top condition once they are issued in the fall. Parents, friends of the Band — such as the En Ka Society, and the School Chapters of the Winchester Mothers' Association —, and sometimes even the players themselves have footed the bills for the instruments whose overall value is roughly $10,000.

One of the Band parents, Mrs. William Cusack, tried to show in a tangible way (and, I believe, succeeded) how proud the parents were of the young members of the Band and the Orchestra. One fine June evening recently, a long table was set up on the open porch of the Music Hall, and, with the assistance of the mothers of the musicians, there was prepared and served a buffet supper that not only wheedled the appetite, but also satisfied the appetites of some 70 teenagers whose only instruments on hand were knives, forks and spoons. The sight of Mr. and Mrs. Felmet seated in their midst, glowing happily at the enjoyment of a fine group of enthusiastic young people was a rich reward to those mothers privileged to be present.

In other words, "— and the Band played on" can only be said because a great deal of thought, care, and effort has been given to producing the results. (Things don't "just happen"!) This has not been done with the idea of getting a "Congratulations!", or a "Thank you!". However, let's not forget that — though financial support is an important factor — verbal support goes a long way towards encouraging us human beings in the direction of greater efforts and higher goals.

Sincerely yours,
An Appreciative Band Parent

NEW DEAL FOR WINCHESTER

Editor of the Star:

The Board of Assessors of our town, consisting of Alfred D. Elliot, a builder, Marshall R. Pihl, a lawyer, and Ernest R. Dadd, a manufacturer, have been quietly working in our interests, and have come up with a plan, wherein they have given us taxpayers, a 'New Deal'.

Somehow this name has a familiar sound, but sour recollections, and in this case it has to do with the "Personal Property" tax, and they have decided that we, the citizens, are not paying enough for our hidden wealth, so they will distribute this tax more fairly, by easing the burden for some, and increasing it for others.

Don't forget this is necessary for a sound program, and to be fair to all of us.

We have studied this plan as much as we were able, and so far the "easements" are missing, and the "increasements" will read like the MacArthur-Truman incident!

The amount of money this new plan will collect is going to be tremendous, but we will not know what this amount will be until next year.

Our assessors have already given us the 1951 tax rate of $40.00 per thousand valuation, but they failed to say at that time the figure was very misleading, as it should have read, $40.00, plus extra's, and these extra's are no "package of cigarettes," one could buy them by the case this time.

I don't think our board knows that at the annual meeting of one of our neighboring towns, this personal property tax was brought up, and the Town Fathers, 100% strong, rose up and everlastingly blasted this tax, and stated they were going to let their feelings be known in the matter!

You can rest assured no boosts were made to the tax payers.

There can be no argument that this tax is the most hated, and unfair, of anything ever put over on the people, and there never can be any plan to make it otherwise.

A straight real estate tax is the only solution, and our town fathers and our representatives should join with other towns, to work toward that end.

This year we needed a new addition to the George Washington school, and also pay increases for all our town employees, and this was done, which we thought the $4.00 increase in the tax rate would take care of.

The board welcomes constructive criticism. Ours is destructive, but possibly they will be willing to try and refute our charge that nine tenths of our tax payers will pay increases.

Next year we are probably facing a huge building program, which will call for another substantial increase, and we think our assessors had this in mind, when they decided to spread out the personal property tax.

They might also explain the handling of the $20,000 and up, special cases. They know, and we also, that if their plan was followed with the properties in the higher brackets, the tax would be too great, the home owners would move elsewhere, and their lovely estates, which add to, and make up the beauty of this town, would be sold, and broken up into small lots; but what they consider fair for one, should be just as fair for another.

It will be interesting to learn the results of these special handling cases.

To those of you who protest, don't forget it will be necessary to itemize individually every article you own, and if you have coal in the cellar, weigh it up, if you burn oil, report your stock on hand, but if you burn gas, you get a break, as that supply is underground, and of course electricity remains in the wires until you turn it on!

The number one question of your board will be, (you know it as well as I), "Have you a television?" but they will also want to know about your refrigerator, stove, radio, furniture, jewelry, knick-knacks, clothing — we give up! The list is endless, and impossible to figure.

MY GARDEN

Editor of the Star:

May, the resurrection month, has revealed its miracle that all the world might see. No longer sleeping beneath the brown mantle that winter's protecting white spread had hidden, the swales and the hills are verdant with myriad life responding to the welcome of the vernal sun.

The roses of June are celebrating the miracle and the brimming streams playfully sway the lush grasses and nodding ferns in the swales, with an eddy here, a ripple there, laughing and roaming over the shallows, smooth as a mill pond in the deep water, until, at last their course is run and they join the welcome river. This is the joy and freshness of spring.

All the air is filled with melody, the birds returning from the southland, mingling their happy songs with nature's other voices, celebrating the great awakening of unquenchable life, filling hearts with joy and hope.

May awoke the beauty slumbering in the rolling country of the northland, a blessing rich and inspiring. Now, the roses in my garden tell me June is here, ready to carry on her glorious heritage from May. My song sparrow has returned, the robins have completed their nest on their favorite limb in the great ash tree, the mocking bird enjoys the bird bath; my oriental poppies, the beauty bush from China, the azaleas from the wooded valleys of Carolina and all the blossoming plants give me peace as I linger with them.

In the softening light of the passing day the evening star heralds the glory of the starry firmament soon to be revealed when twilight fades away into the early darkness of night. As darkness deepens the glory of the starry heavens expands; the beauty, wonder and mystery of it increases. Uncover in reverence, lift up your eyes as did the psalmist two thousand years ago as he exclaimed, "What is man that Thou art mindful of him!"

"No dim cathedral is as still
As twilight in this holy place;
I never knew Thee, Lord, until
My garden brought us face to face."

Daniel C. Dennett, M. D.

ASSESSOR'S COMMENTS ON RECENT TAX RATE

The Board of Assessors is concerned with the increasing cost of running our town with respect to the increasing income received from assessed values of new houses, adjusted neighborhood values, and all other sources of income to the town.

In spite of the fact that we had an increase of almost two million dollars in over all valuation of the town this year, the Board of Assessors were compelled to increase the tax rate by $4.00.

The town's people are probably wondering why this should be with all the additional revenue that new building is bringing into the town. The answer is simply this:

At the Annual Town meeting the appropriated budgets for the town amounted to $267,438., more than the previous year. In order to offset this additionnl expense, it would be necessary to increase the value of our town, not two million dollars, but over six million dollars. This could not be accomplished, hence the $4.00 increase in our tax rate. In other words, our new valuation for the year gave us an increased income of roughly $76,000., and the amount spent was an additional $267,000.

The Board of Assessors knows that some of these added costs cannot be avoided, but it would like to go on record as issuing a warning to the people interested in town government to keep the budgets as reasonable as possible to avoid further increases

TROOP 6 IROQUOIS PATROL CAMPS OUT

Last Friday, in the traditional Troop 6 rainy weather, the Iroquois Patrol of Troop 6, B. S. A., under the leadership of Teddy Elliott, Patrol Leader, left for Mt. Washington in Mr. Elliott's car.

Tents were pitched at the Dolly Copp campground just before dark in an increasing drizzle that settled down into a good heavy rain after dinner was over.

Saturday morning everyone drove to the Glen House, met "Tex" who formerly cooked at Pinkham, and started hiking up the Carriage road towards the Summit, 8 miles away. As this was the first taste of mountain climbing the boys had experienced, rest stops were very frequent and the two rides part way up by repair trucks were more than appreciated. The last mile and a half were on foot and ended in a cloud of rain at the summit.

The group happened to arrive just in time to see the weather broadcast from the weather station at the summit by short-wave and one of the A. M. C. hut managers with medical experience checked for appendicitis symptoms on one of the boys, but fortunately this later seemed to be more a case of too much water consumed along the road on the way up. Brooky Dodge, the famous skier and son of Joe Dodge of Porky Gulch, drove the gang down in the A. M. C. truck. At about the 6 mile mark, they emerged from the cloud at the summit and everything was all green and sunny. Then back to Dolly Copp and an arctic swim in Ranger Pool which is fed with mountain ice water. The first event for Sunday was the discovery of 4 baby red squirrels that had adopted Teddy Elliott's jacket for a warm nest during the night. After breakfast, Mr. Elliott drove the boys to church at Gorham.

First stop on the way home was to visit Joe Dodge at Pinkham and to take a short walk over to the look-out ledge for a view of the summit and Tuckerman's Ravine, still covered by clouds, thence to White Lake campground for lunch and a swim in White Lake.

The squirrels had been drawn for by the Lucky boys who kept them in charge. They were very well behaved little squirrels all the way to Winchester, where the scouts broke up at Purtle's drug store and the squirrels were stored overnight by Teddy and turned over to the Stonehmn Zoo on Monday, except one which Mr. Harry Damon took home for a pet.

The 6 scouts who accompanied Teddy on this trip were Albo Lynch, Moe Russo, Flappers Flaherty, David Harrold, Pucky Perritano and Bob Carter. This was their first camping trip out of the state and entitles all of them to wear the "Mass." patch on their left shoulder from now on, showing that they have camped over night out of the state.

BOAT CLUB NEWS

Members of the Winchester Boat Club enjoyed an evening's entertainment at the Clubhouse last Friday evening, June 15. Ted Miller, cartoonist of The Christian Science Monitor, gave an interesting and amusing talk. He traced the history of cartoons, explained how they are drawn, and drew many cartoons, some of which were taken from his own comic strip, "Snubbs."

Mr. George E. Roghaar of 39 Fairview avenue, Arlington showed some of his movies. They were about sailing technique and racing. He also showed several comic shorts.

Baseballs, fans, and candy were given to the children as door prizes. The winners were Bob deRivera, Danny Adams, Robert Phillips, Allun Osborne, Pete Redding, Claudia Kirkpatrick, Peter Montminy, Ralph Carvalho, and Rosamond Slack.

The Ladies' Bridge scheduled for June 27 has been changed to a Dessert Bridge to be held at 1:30 on the same day. Mrs. Rodney W. Long is the chairman. Call Mrs. Long, WI 6-2235, for reservations.

JUNIOR LEGION SWAMPED LEXINGTON

The Winchester Junior Legion swamped the Lexington Boys' Club under a 15 - 1 score at Lexington on Wednesday evening. It was a close game until the fourth inning but the locals scored six times each in the fourth and fifth innings to turn the game into a rout. In the six innings the locals made 10 hits, received six bases on balls and benefited by six Lexington errors to pile up their big margin.

Stowell Symmes was on the mound for the Junior Legionnaires and had a good workout as he allowed four hits, passed three, and struck out five in the five innings he hurled. Jim Griffin led the hit parade with three safeties while Symmes and Charlie McLaughlin chipped in with two hits apiece. Ron MacKenzie came up with two brilliant defensive plays at third base while McLaughlin and Dick Giacalone threw out ambitious Lexington runners at the plate.

A Thought to Remember

"It is not the placidity of stupid ease that we should covet, but the repose that is requisite for the renewal of exhausted strength, the serenity that succeeds the storm, and the salubrity, or health, that repays its ravages."

May the rest, which comes through change, recreation or relaxation of the body, become as requisite this Summer, for each excellent year ahead for all and strengthen us all for the glorious labors God shall call us to do.

Sunday School in held at the same hour as the church service.
Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson Street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

That the true universe, including man, has a wholly spiritual origin and is governed by spiritual law, will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon read in all Christian Science churches next Sunday. The subject is "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"

The Golden Text is from Revelation: "We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned." (11:17).

Selections read from the Bible (King James Version) include the following verse from Isaiah: "For thus saith the Lord that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth, and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the Lord; and there is none else." (45:18).

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Heath with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, include the following: "God creates and governs the universe, including man. (p. 295:5). "Infinite Mind creates and governs all, from the mental molecule to infinity." (p. 507:1; 24-25).

TIBET TREATY UNFURLS RED FLAG OVER FORBIDDEN LAND OF BUDDHA

Gold-roofed shrines, cliff-dwelling lamas, yak tails, buttered tea — and an 1,800-mile border with India — these are the prizes of Communist China's quiet conquest of Tibet.

As Red soldiers march into Lhasa, people of the forbidden City of the Gods may stick out their tongues and hiss. By such traditional signs of welcome, the National Geographic Society says, Tibetans have long met friends in their legendary, mysterious land. But what their true thoughts will be as Peiping's five-starred flag is unfurled over the "roof of the world," only Tibetans will know.

Mongols, Chinese, Nepalese and British conquerors have come before. Each time, Tibet has nursed its ancient culture, and eventually the foreigners have gone away. Among the frozen mountain peaks and windy valleys of the loftiest nation on earth, life has gone on much as before, unchanged by time, more fantastic than in the fictional "Shangri-La."

Ancient Isolation

China's "peaceful liberation" pact with Lhasa gives the Communists control of a huge province whose strategic position is offset partly by the sheer difficulty of reaching it. Tibet meets half-explored fringes of India and Burma along rain-soaked southern slopes of the towering Himalaya wall. To the east lies China's wild, grassy Sikang Province; to the north, beyond the forbidding Kunlun range, the broiling deserts of Sinkiang lead to Russia.

Situated thus at the very heart of central Asia, Tibet has long enjoyed aloofness buttressed by inaccessibility. For a caravan — or an army — to reach Lhasa from western China, six months of bitter, roadless travel across glacier-guarded passes and gale-whipped plateaus are required. To move on to India means many more weeks of climbing narrow mountain trails through rarefied air at heights up to 16,000 feet above the sea.

Copper-burnished nomads roam unmapped plateaus far above timberline, guarding herds of sheep, goats and the sure-footed shaggy yaks which furnish wool and hides, meat and butter, and tails which traders send to America for Santa Claus beards. Peasants in windy fields flail barley as they chant prayers to Buddha. Silk-gowned nobles and monks in smoky red govern in mountain-circled villages and Lhasa, nurturing Tibet's ancient isolation and religious tradition.

Airfields, railroads or highways are unknown. To build air bases in Tibet, the Communists would have to maintain a sky supply line far longer and more difficult to fly than the Berlin airlift, landing among jagged mountains at levels well over 12,000 feet.

Rich minerals are believed to lie beneath the surface of this lofty kingdom: gold in great quantity, iron, copper, lead, mercury. Russian and British explorers have talked of urnanium in Tibet — the material of atomic bombs. But Tibetans, fearing the ire of earth spirits, have not dug beneath the surface. There are no mines.

Living Buddha

By annexing Tibet, however, China has gained a spiritual hold over millions of Asian peoples. Here a teen-aged youth, 14th reincarnation of the Living Buddha, rules a religious order which is everything in the lives of its followers. Materialism is nothing, scientific progress an unnecessary evil.

Golden images of Lamaistic Buddhism's gods, smiling inscrutably in remote monasteries, wield tremendous influence in the Oriental world. Pilgrims spinning prayer wheels come great distances to gain merit in the spiritual world for future incarnations. Along the mountain trails are great cairns of stones, each inscribed with the mystic prayer of Buddhism, "Om mani padme hum" — O! the jewel in the lotus, Amen!

The Dalai Lama, priest king born in a peasant's hut, held absolute temporal power. But a puppet Panchen Lama put forward by the Communists has been recognized by Lhasa in its pact with Peiping. This 12-year-old boy returns to Tibet to vie for the spiritual leadership of the people which the Dalai Lama has led unchallenged since the last Panchen Lama fled in 1924.

SUNSPOTS IN WANING CYCLE, FAVORABLE TO UN IN KOREA

Spots on the sun's face, like those large enough to be visible through plain dark glasses recently, should be relatively few in the months just ahead. That could be good news for UN forces fighting in Korea.

What have sunspots to do with UN success against Asia's communists? Scientists have found sunspots to be closely related to "magnetic storms," which can and often do disrupt radio, telephone, and telegraph transmission for hours on end, says the National Geographic Society. Since UN armies, bulwarked by United States forces, make greater military use of these communication methods than the communists, they are more inconvenienced when the magnetic storms render their signaling unreliable.

Through decades of observation, science has also learned that sunspots wax and wane in frequency of occurence through a cycle of slightly more than 11 years. They reached a peak in 1948-49 and are now receding. The fact that World War II was fought during a time of minimum sunspots played a part in winning that war.

Sunspot Jets Bathe Earth

Dr. Carl W. Gartlein, physicist directing a National Geographic Society-Cornell University study of aurora or "northern lights" since 1938, describes magnetic storms caused by sunspots in this way:

Picture gigantic streams of electrified particles spouting forth from the sun and speeding millions of miles into space like jets of water issuing from a rotating lawn sprinkler. Occasionally one of the streams catches the earth in its path, and then for hours or days the planet is drenched with the shower of electrified particles.

Sunspots are gigantic whirlpools or cyclones in the molten or gaseous surface of the sun, and are accompanied by flamelike flareups of hot gases from the sun's surface. There is reason to believe, Dr. Gartlein notes, that the streams of particles are shot forth from the sunspots by the pressure of the sun's tremendous light.

Moving at 1,000 miles per second, the streams of electrified particles take about 24 hours to travel from the sun to the earth. Colliding with the earth's magnetic field, they disturb the layers of the ionosphere, 50 to 250 miles above the earth, which normally reflect radio signals and enable them to travel long distances.

These streams from the sunspots also upset the normal magnetic field where it runs through the earth itself, causing the "scrambling" of telegraph and telephone messages. By exciting the atoms in the ionosphere, the sunspot streams also induce the atoms to give off light, setting up the glow known as the aurora. Hence, study of auroras can give both short - and long - range warnings of magnetic storms and makes it possible to plan to offset the sunspot's bad effects on communications.

London Fog Serves Purpose

Because the sun rotates in about 27 days, the stream of particles causing one magnetic storm and aurora is likely to encompass the earth again in about that length of time. Near the minimum stage of the 11-year sunspot cycle, the streams seem to have longer life, sometimes persisting for five to 12 months.

The group of spots on the sun's face recently visible without telescopes was estimated to be perhaps 125,000 miles across; the sun's diameter is about 865,000 miles. The largest sunspot groups ever observed have measured close to 200,000 miles.

Magnetic storms have no connection with storms associated with weather. Londoners early in 1949, however, looked skyward into their famous fog at a time when it dimmed the sun to just the right degree to allow them to see three distinct sunspots — two south of the orb's equator and one to the north.

Without a timely fog, the sun and its spots should be viewed only through darkened glasses or film to avoid injury to the eyes.

NEW JOB AT HIGH SCHOOL

The School Department notes in last week's Star indicated that the School Committee has created a new job at Winchester High School that of administrative assistant to the principal in the senior building. This position is in addition to that of administrative assistant at the Wadleigh Building which houses the high school freshman class and which has been for some time in charge of a man teacher, known first as an assistant principal, and now as an administrative assistant to the high school principal.

The School Committee has filled both jobs, appointing Edward A. Bartlett, teacher of Geography and Bookkeeping, administrative assistant at the Wadleigh Building, and John D. Stevens, teacher of English, administrative assistant at the high school building. Mr. Bartlett has been at Winchester High since 1933, Mr. Stevens, since 1936. Both have been active in extra-curricular work at the school, Mr. Stevens as director of publicity for the School Department staff and Mr. Bartlett as coach of both basketball and baseball and assistant coach of football.

Mr. Bartlett was chosen for the Wadleigh post from among several applicants. Mr. Stevens was the only one considered for the position at the senior high building. The School Department considers the positions of equal rank.

The administrative assistant at the high school building will relieve Principal Wade L. Grindle of much of the attendance and disciplinary routine, enabling him to devote more of his time to class room observation and duties of a more administrative nature. With the many extra-curricular activities presently at the school, Mr. Grindle has for some time been asking for such assistance.

In accepting the new high school position Mr. Stevens will give up his work as publicity director, a post he has filled ably, both from the news and public relations angles.

Mr. Bartlett will also have to give up some of his coaching duties, but it will be good news to local fans that he will be able to continue coaching basketball, in which, as in baseball, his work has been outstanding.

Mr. Bartlett has assisted in football since 1934, with the exception of the time while he was in the service. His loss to Head Football Coach Henry Knowlton will be a heavy one, since few teacher-coach candidates are available with Mr. Bartlett's knowledge of football and coaching skill, and of course no new coach can have his knowledge of local players, which is particularly helpful.

The addition of Frank Provinzano to the Winchester junior high faculty comes at a good time and Superintendent of Schools Forbes Norris expects him to take over some of the coaching formerly done by Mr. Bartlett.

Many in town will think a bit about Mr. Bartlett's appointment to the Wadleigh post, since most of the men teachers who have filled this position have left the Winchester school system to fill administrative jobs elsewhere. Samuel M. Graves, Burns Winslow, William Rodgers and the latest incumbent Otis Jason, are some of those who have left the Wadleigh Building and the Winchester schools for service elsewhere.

POWER GLIDE DEMONSTRATIONS JUNE 18 TO 30

If you want to drive a Power-Glide Chevrolet visit the showrooms of the Charles H. Ungerman Co. Inc. from June 18 to 30.

Mr. Ungerman has set aside special demonstrators for use of the public and the period will be devoted to giving as many people as possible rides in the cars.

Because of the customer demand for Powerglide automatic transmissions in this area, Charles Ungerman explains, he has been unable to set aside demonstrators. However, he will hold cars solely for this purpose through the demonstration period.

"Chevrolet has just built its 500,000th Powerglide and to observe the milestone it has requested all dealers to co-operate in mass demonstrations," he declared.

Mr. Ungerman pointed out that Powerglide differs from other automatic transmissions on the market in that it represents a "package" improvement. Included, besides the revolutionary automatic shift, are a more powerful engine of 105 horsepower and an "Economiser" rear axle.

"The opportunity for mass demonstrations here will show what owners have learned in more than a billion miles of driving," Mr. Ungerman declared. "Even a brief trial will prove that Powerglide-equipped cars are easier and more restful to drive.

"With Powerglide, the car has no clutch. This means the elimination of hundreds of manual operations in the course of an average day's driving. The result is that a driver finishes the day more refreshed and relaxed. A person has to experience the effortless process of automatic Powerglide fully to appreciate its advantages.

"We urge everyone not acquainted with Powerglide automatic transmission to visit our showrooms during the special demonstration period to find out for himself all the features of Powerglide automatic transmission."

Chris Powers and Jack Watts are available from 8 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. and will be pleased to demonstrate the automatic marvel at your convenience. adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Wood of 63 Church street are the parents of a second son, Lawrence Hamilton Wood, born June 12 at the Richardson House, Boston. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Pilkington of Arlington and Mr. and Mrs. William B. Wood of 61 Church street.

LADD — TABER

The marriage of Miss Bernice Lee Taber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Walter Taber of Pierrepont road, to Chester Edson Ladd of Arlington took place on Saturday afternoon, June 16th, at the Church of the Epiphany. White gladiolas and candelabra decorated the church for the 4 o'clock service which was read by the rector, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley. Enos Held, organist and choirmaster, played the bridal music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight satin gown fashioned with a silk net yoke, embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent beads, long pointed sleeves and a court train. Her long tulle veil, worn exactly 31 years before by her mother, was held in place by a tiara of pearls and brilliants and she carried a bouquet of white roses, white sweet peas and stephanotis centered with a large matching orchid.

Miss Elva Nelson of Boston, a college classmate of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Sandra Phelps of Arlington, three-year-old niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Hugh J. Erskine of Winchester, Mrs. Gavin McIver of Needham, college classmate of the bride; Mrs. Charles H. Cutting of Cohasset, cousin of the bride; and Mrs. Carl Winget of Somerville, sister of the bridegroom.

The honor maid wore a floor-length dress of apple-green silk marquisette over green taffeta with matching mitts. Her crescent-shaped headdress of green ribbon was decorated with talisman rosebuds, white sweet peas and stephanotis and the same flowers were combined in her old-fashioned bouquet.

The bridesmaids also carried old-fashioned bouquets of lavender sweet peas, stephanotis and yellow roses and wore crescent-shaped headdresses of the same flowers and ribbon to match their dresses and mitts. Two of the bridesmaids were gowned in yellow and two in orchid, their dresses being styled like that of the honor maid.

The flower girl wore a floor-length frock of apple-green organdy with a sash of fir-green flared over a hoop-skirt. White gloves and a crescent-shaped headdress of sweet peas, stephanotis and talisman rosebuds, matching her bouquet, completed her costume.

Frank H. Ladd of Milwaukee, Wis., was best man for his brother, and the ushers were Hugh J. Erskine of Winchester, William D. Phelps of Arlington, cousin of the bridegroom and Carl Winget and James Naugler both of Somerville and brothers-in-law of the bridegroom.

A reception was held after the marriage in the parish hall of the church which was decorated with palms, pale pink carnations, delphinium and marguerites. Assisting in receiving were the parents of the bride, the bridal attendants and Mrs. William Phelps of Arlington, aunt of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Taber wore melon-colored crepe and matching lace with a white hat and a corsage of yellow roses, blue delphinium and stephanotis. Mrs. Phelps wore pink roses, blue delphinium and stephanotis with her dress of dusty rose crepe and lace and white hat.

Mr. Ladd and his bride left to spend their honeymoon in New Hampshire and Vermont.

The bride, who is a cataloguer at the Winchester Library, was graduated from Winchester High School and from the College of Library Science at Simmons. Mr. Ladd graduated from Arlington High School and from the Foreign Division of the College of Business Administration at Boston University. He served with Patton's Army during World War II and is now associated with the Foreign Department of the First National Bank of Boston.

RECEIVES ALUMNI SERVICE AWARD

A feature of the recent Commencement Week-End at the University of Maine was the presentation of the Alumni Service Award. The award this year was made to Hazen H. Ayer of Winchester. Mr. Ayer was also elected President of the University of Maine Foundation, succeeding Raymond H. Fogler of New York.

The citation accompanying the award referred to the record of the recepient who is a member of the class of 1924. Mr. Ayer has served as a member of the Alumni Council since 1934, has been President of his class and for the years 1947-48 was President of the General Alumni Association. Locally he has occupied various offices in the Boston Alumni Association and in the recent successful campaign to raise $900,000 for a new Union Building he was chairman of Special Gifts for Massachusetts.

The Alumni Service Award plaque is in the form of a bronze pine tree emblem mounted on a mahogany base. As indicated by the inscription it is "In Recognition of Outstanding Service through the Alumni Association to the University of Maine." The award was established in 1920. Mr. Ayer is the twenty-second graduate of the University to receive this particular recognition.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY

The VFW Auxiliary of Winchesterter, 3719, held a garden party at the VFW Home on White street on Monday evening, June 18. The honor guest was Sue Fiore, recently elected Historian of the Middlesex County Council.

Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald, chairlady of the affair, presented Sue with a check and flowers in behalf of the Winchester Auxiliary.

The State encampment of the VFW is being held in New Bedford from June 21 to June 23. Miss Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Miss Sue Fiore and Anna Notemyer are delegates to the encampment.

1926 HAD 25TH REUNION

The Winchester High School class of 1926 held its 25th anniversary reunion on Saturday evening, June 16, at the high school gymnasium with 23 class members in attendance together with husbands, wives and invited guests.

Supper was served at 6:30, the long tables being decorated by Phoebe Dotton Low with June roses and the class colors, blue and gold.

At the head table with the class president, Nicholas Fitzgerald, and the chairman of the reunion committee, Wilfred Prue, were Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Prue, and the invited guests, High School Principal and Mrs. Wade L. Grindle, Arthur E. Butters, head of the Mathematics Department, and Mrs. Butters; Mrs. Ella Stacy, head of the History Department; John E. Fuller, former Science teacher, and Mrs. Fuller; Wendell D. Mansfield, former Athletic Director, and Mrs. Mansfield, who as Priscilla Wheeler coached and taught physical education at Winchester High; Ernest Benshimol, former English teacher; and Rufus B. Bond, former teacher and successful football and baseball coach.

President Fitzgerald presided and acted as toastmaster, reading first the Class Honor Roll, comprising Lorna Nicholas, Flavio Rolli, Wilhelmina Simmons and Helen Swenson. He then read interesting letters from class members unable to attend the reunion.

Class members then identified themselves and told of their activities since high school days, after which the teachers, past and present, responded to toasts.

President Fitzgerald presented prizes to reunionists as follows: best looking girl graduate, Kathleen Valley Grant; boy with least hair, Russell Kendrick; girl graduate with most children, Ethel O'Donnell Govostes (5); boy graduate with most children, Ernest Reardon (8); girl coming furthest distance, Elizabeth Foley Tebeau (Wilmington); boy coming furthest, Charles Cassidy (Hyannis).

The reunion was concluded by a showing of class graduation pictures and former teams in the auditorium by Athletic Director Henry Knowlton, whose wife, the former Ella Howlett, was secretary of the reunion committee.

Others on the committee, besides Messrs. Prue and Fitzgerald, were Mary Carr Baker and Katharine Carlise; Frank McCauley and Howard Ambrose.

Following are the class members present:

WORK ON WATERWAYS BEGUN

Chairman James F. Dwinell of the committee in charge of cleaning up the town's waterways, announced Wednesday that a crew started Tuesday morning at the Woburn line to clear the banks of the Aberjona and remove the accumulation of debris from the water, restoring rip-rap and pointing up masonry where necessary.

This work, which is expected to last through the summer, is being done by a crew specially recruited by the Waterways Committee and paid for by appropriation voted the committee under a special article at the March Town Meeting. The Park Department is cooperating in the work as far as possible and is making some equipment available to the Waterways Committee. After completing the work on the Aberjona, the Committee plans to do both Horn Pond Brook and Wedge Pond Brook.

Meanwhile the Committee has succeeded in getting the Metropolitan District Committee to agree to clear out the growth along the banks of the river from the new Parking Space south to Bacon Street, also removing debris from the water in that area.

The Waterways Committee has found that the Town of Winchester and several Woburn industries are pumping between six and eight million gallons of water daily from the Aberjona River valley, which accounts in large measure for the near-drying of the river during the hot weather when pumping is at its peak. This situation is receiving careful study, both from Federal and State, as well as local authorities.

Besides Mr. Dwinell, the Winchester Waterways Committee includes Richard Parkhurst, Lowell R. Smith, Chandler Symmes and Dr. Eugene Pollard. Dr. Pollard having been assigned to the committee by the Board of Park Commissioners.

FRIZZELL — HADLEY

Miss Carol Ellen Hadley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hadley of Wilmington, became the bride of David Prescott Frizzell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur Frizzell of Church street, Winchester, on June eighteenth at an eight o'clock candlelight ceremony in the Wilmington Methodist Church. The Reverend John Snook, Jr. of Winchester, and Reverend Otis Maxfield officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was exquisite in a princess gown of white satin, trimmed with rose chantilly lace and made with a full court train. Wearing her mother's rose-point veil and carrying a bridal bouquet of roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid, she made a picture of breath-taking beauty.

Miss Dorothy Prescott Allen of Winchester, an aunt of the groom, attended the bride as maid of honor. Gowned in gold lace over gold satin with matching satin hat and shoulder length lace veil, she carried a bouquet of tea roses and delphinium.

The bridesmaids were Miss Martha Bailey of Winchester, Miss June Newhouse, Miss Muriel Martin and Miss Ann Chipman of Wilmington. Miss Bailey and Miss Newhouse were gowned in pale gold satin and Miss Martin and Miss Chipman were gowned in pale blue satin. Bouquets were carried of yellow carnations and delphinium.

Flower girls were Miss Joan Currier of Wilmington and Miss Susan Landwher of Marion, Mass. Both wore gowns of pastel blue satin and carried dainty white baskets filled with rose petals. Master Paul Currier of Wilmington was a strikingly handsome little ring bearer.

Mr. Richard Arthur Frizzell of Winchester, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Mr. Paul Frederick Allen of Lexington, uncle of the groom, Mr. Edgar James Hammond of Winchester and Mr. George Delbert Jackson of Lexington, both cousins of the groom, Mr. Barry Grace of Winchester, Mr. Edward Kashian and Mr. Walter Kashian of Everett.

Adding to the beauty of the sacrament were the magnificent white gladioli and fern floral decorations.

Guest soloist, Mr. Robert Pipes, rendered "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ console by Mr. Harry Upson Camp of Reading.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church vestry where the parents of the bride and groom assisted in the receiving line. Mrs. Hadley, mother of the bride, appeared charming in a gown of light blue trimmed with gold and wearing a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Frizzell, mother of the groom, was graciously beautiful in a gown of dusty rose trimmed with lace and wearing a corsage of roses.

Mr. Frizzell and his bride are spending a few days in the White Mountains after which they will leave for San Antonio, Texas, where the groom will be reassigned to an Air Force Unit in Washington, D. C.

The bride was educated in Wilmington and in Winchester, and was associated with the State Street Trust Company in Boston prior to her marriage.

The groom received his education in Woburn and in Winchester and attended Tilton Academy in Tilton, N. H., after which he was also with the State Street Trust Company. He enlisted in the United States Air Force in December, 1950 and has been stationed since that time at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas. Both the bride and groom are accomplished musicians.

The couple plan to make their residence in Washington, D. C.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

A kindly weatherman smiled on Tuesday evening last, and his smiles were reflected in the happy faces and voices of the 175 or more people who gathered at the attractive grounds of the Baptist Parsonage at 15 Fairmount street for an All-Church Strawberry Festival.

This delightful affair was sponsored by the Eight O'Clock Club of the church, directed by Mrs. Walter Josephson, with the co-operation of all the other church organizations.

The spacious lawn, with its lovely garden, made a perfect setting, the summery gowns of the ladies gave a real garden party atmosphere, and tables and chairs provided a comfortable place in which to relax and enjoy the delicious and abundant refreshments of ice-cream with fresh crushed strawberries, homemade cookies and coffee.

No formal entertainment was attempted. Mr. Bailey spoke a few cordial words of welcome, and expressed to Rev. Arthur L. Winn, who happily was able to be present, the appreciation of the church people for his generosity in giving his home, some years ago, for a parsonage.

Otherwise an atmosphere of complete informality reigned. People chatted with friends, greeted newcomers, and enjoyed the brief respite from today's "busyness".

So thoroughly was the occasion enjoyed that it was decided to make this an annual affair, before the church people disperse for the summer.

DUNBAR — REEVES

Miss Carolyn Reeves, daughter of Mrs. Henry Everett Reeves of 75 Church street and the late Mr. Reeves, was married on Friday evening, June 15, at the Church of the Epiphany to William Dart Dunbar, son of Mrs. Margaret Dart Dunbar of Saunderstown, R. I., and Mr. Henry Frederick Dunbar of Slocum, R. I. The rector of the church, Rev. Dwight W. Hadley, read the 8 o'clock service in a setting of white peonies, gladiolas and ferns.

Charles Philip Reeves gave his sister in marriage and the bride had for her honor attendant Miss Elizabeth Brooks Fenno of Winchester. Miss Leslie Anne Sheaff of Winchester, small neice of the bride, was flower girl, and the bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Ann Johnson of Winchester and Miss Margaret Dunbar of Saunderstown, R. I., sister of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a period gown of white organdy with peach embroidery and a fingertip-length veil caught to a matching organdy Juliet cap. Her flowers were eucharis lilies, stephanotis and pinocchio roses.

The honor maid wore an ankle-length dress of white organdy over pale green taffeta and carried Nassau roses and yellow marguerites.

The bridesmaids' dresses, styled like that of the honor maid, were white organdy over peach taffeta and their bouquets combined white marguerites and Nassau roses.

The flower girl wore a frock of white organdy over pale green taffeta and carried a basket of Nassau roses, marguerites and babies' breath.

Ormston Carr Aldred of Providence, R. I., was best man for Mr. Dunbar and the usher corps comprised Henry F. Dunbar, Jr., of Saunderstown, R. I., brother of the bridegroom; Edgar J. Lowne, III, Nathan M. Fales and William A. Viall, all of Providence; Dean L. Evans of Glen Ridge, N. J.; M. William Swanson of Worcester and Allen G. Brailey of Newton.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the Winchester Country Club, the mothers of the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving with the brother of the bride and the members of the bridal party.

After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar will live in Providence.

The bride is a graduate of Winchester High School and studied for two years each at Smith College and the Cambridge School of Design. Mr. Dunbar prepared at Moses Brown School and graduated from Amherst College in the class of 1951. He is a member of the Chi Phi fraternity.

RECEIVED RADCLIFFE CERTIFICATE

Miss Jane Alice Rainie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rainie, of 41 Calumet road, received her course certificate from the Radcliffe Management Training Program at the 69th Radcliffe College Commencement exercises held June 20.

Before enrolling in the ten month program, which provides basic training for college graduates in personnel work and other branches of administration, Miss Rainie attended Radcliffe College, where she received her degree in social relations.

Mrs. Eda Lynch, 320 Cross street, spent last weekend with her son, Joseph who is now taking Air Force indoctrination training at the Sampson Air Force Base, N. Y.

WINCHESTER HOME AND GARDEN CLUB

About 60 members of the Winchester Home and Garden Club gathered at the Girl Scout Cabin at 12:30 on Wednesday, June 13 for the Annual Meeting. Mrs. George French and her Social Committee served coffee and a delicious strawberry dessert to eat with our box lunches.

The President, Mrs. Frank J. Robinson, most graciously welcomed our members and guests. Each guest spoke as she was introduced and they were Mrs. E. Carlisle Baker of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. Austin T. Bunker of Winchester, Mrs. S. Forrest Martin of Lincoln, and Mrs. Walter Gaskell of Belmont, who spoke more at length on "Garden Service". The other speakers were Miss Corrine Mead, our popular Librarian, Mrs. Barbara Metcalf, Executive Director of the Girl Scouts of Winchester, and Mrs. James B. Willing, the Commissioner.

Mrs. Robinson expressed the gratitude of the Club for the wonderful opportunity to meet in this attractive and up-to-date camp, and said that later the Club would donate some appropriate plantings for the grounds.

Mrs. Norman Mitchell gave an interesting account of the Horticultural Meeting in Boston. About the room were arrangements using wild flowers, etc., done by members.

The following officers were elected for 1951 - 52: President, Mrs. Alexander P. Aitken; 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Percy Bugbee; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. John Chipman; Recording Secretary, Mrs. E. J. McDevitt, Jr.; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Louise Bancroft; Treasurer, Mrs. Robert S. Bayliss. Committee Chairmen: Horticultural, Mrs. Frederick W. Cole; Nominating: Mrs. Theodore Elliott, Mrs. Wellington L. Caldwell, Mrs. Clifford H. Williams; Press: Mrs. Frederick Churchill; Social, Mrs. George French; Program, Mrs. Edward B. Mansfield; Exhibition, Mrs. Norman Mitchell; Auditor, Mrs. Clifton S. Hall.

LITTLE FOLKS' PLAYSCHOOL CLOSING PARTY

The Little Folks' Playschool closed its third season with a last day of school party on Friday morning, June 15, at 10 a. m. After a social half hour with coffee and other refreshments for the grown-ups, and ice cream and cookies for the children, a program of songs was presented. With dramatization, marching, bells, triangles and cymbals, and simple dance steps, the children thoroughly enjoyed their own program, and their grown-ups guests fully shared in the children's happy enthusiasm. The little entertainers were—Leslie Dalrymple, Deborah Hitchcock, Janet Hogan, Tamson Myers, E. Dana Chase, Charles Dutoit, Richard Kaknes, and Porter Mulford.

At the close of the morning, Mrs. John H. Burt, Director of the school, distributed favors to the children. It can be truthfully said that the heavy rain outside was temporarily forgotten, for the "climate" inside was so bright and sunny!

SECOND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH YOUTH

The Youth Group of the Second Congregational Church recently entertained the youth of the Dorr Memorial Church, Lynnhurst, at a beach party at Crane's Beach. The groups returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farnham, 5 Highland View avenue for a picnic supper and vesper service. Three of the group from Second Church, Dora White, Natalie Anderson, and Shirley Farnham, will spend next week at the Christian Endeavor Conference at Northfield, Mass.

PARKHURST NEWS

The final meeting of the Parkhurst Junior Red Cross was held on Monday, June 11, Vice-president Ronnie Burke conducted the business meeting at which time a report of the year's activities and the financial statement of the organization were read. Ways of insuring summer safety were stressed in a report by Talbot Page. The Sixth Grade's gift to the school, sponsored by the Mothers' Association was presented by Judy French, and accepted by Richard Guarino, a representative of Grade Five, on behalf of the school. This year the gift was divided into three parts, each of which is associated with some phase of class activities, and by which the class chooses to be identified. The parts: one year's subscription to the weekly news bulletin "Science News Letter"; one year's subscription to a quarterly publication called "Plays"; an album of Goldwyn marches.

Following the meeting, Mrs. James Dwinell, Jr., awarded sports letters for the year to the boys of grades five and six who participated in the football, basketball, and baseball programs. School victories and losses in these sports were reported by David Bergquist, James Dwinell, and Quentin Roberts. Tribute was paid to Mr. Alvin Wilson, coach, who could not be present because of his participation in a current European track meet.

Music Festival

Parkhurst School's first Music Festival was held Tuesday, June 12, under the sponsorship of Miss Eleanor Anifantis, Miss Helen Goodwin, and Mr. Fred Felmet. In an attempt to share with parents and friends some of the joy derived from the universal language, the school band opened this presentation with a march, and the program unfolded as follows: Grade One Teacher — Miss Nerissa Purington.

First Announcer — Ted Neill.

Song: "The Paw Paw Patch" — Traditional Kentucky Mountain Song.

Second Announcer — Martha Dodge.

Song: "Froggie" — Norwegian Folk Tune.

Third Announcer—Roger Eaton.

Song: "Three Dukes" — American Traditional.

Princesses: Martha Collins, Paula DeLong, Lynn Lamson.

Dukes: David Whittaker, Scotty Wild, Philip Stewart.

Grade Two — Miss Constance Savard.

Rhythm Band — "Le Secret"

Director — David Burke

Grade Three — Mrs. Ruby Wiggett.

Announcer — Gail Pettingell.

Songs: "The Sailor", soloist Robert Hodges; "Pay With a Smile", soloists Diana Kirkwood and Robert Eaton; "Cousin Michael", soloists Jean Withers and Cynthia Stewart.

Grade Four — Miss Martha Cunningham.

Announcer — Carl Masi.

Songs: "Poodle-Noodle Nonsense"; "The Sawmill", soloists Sue Herrick and Billy Sibley; "Village Talk", duet — Sandra Albertelli and Leonard Mead

Grade Five — Mrs. Jane Kirkpatrick.

Announcer — Carol Fisher.

Songs: "The Giant", soloists Georgina Wilson and Charlotte Goodwin; "The Cowboy" — soloist James Downes; "The Battle Hymn of the Republic", soloist Douglas Kirkwood.

Grade Six — Miss Martha Cunningham.

Announcer — Patylyn Bruno.

Songs: "Little Brown Church in the Vale", quartette — Marjorie Reynolds, Joan Peabody, Jill Sibley, Penny Nichols; "Bake a Little Cake", "The Big Corral", soloists David Bergquist, Gregory Downes, Robert Jackson.

Because of Miss Goodwin's illness, the string group did not play at this time. Instead, Judy French played a piano selection, Charminade's "Scarf Dance" and Jill Sibley offered "Ritual Fire Dance".

Finale — Parkhurst Band.

Play Given at Parkhurst

In a modern version of an old time favorite theme, the sixth grade at Parkhurst presented "The Three Wishing Bags" on Friday evening, June 1.

True to tradition evil was punished, good received its reward, and the right lady won her prince.

Two performances were given, different actors taking some of the leading parts in the two presentations.

Colorful murals, drawn and painted by the pupils of the class, formed interesting backgrounds for the two scenes, the first laid in the kitchen of Lord and Lady Bustledown, the second in the great hall of the castle of the king.

Cook — Quentin Roberts.

Jester — Jimmy Dwinell, David Moore.

Witch — Elliot Speers.

Lady Eloise — Patylyn Bruno.

Lady Catherine — Ruth Ann Leander, Barbara Rizzo.

Lady Dorothea — Jill Sibley.

Lady Margaret — Jane Bowman.

Lady Juliana — Marjorie Reynolds.

The Prince — Donald Withers, David McLean.

King — Wayne Robinson.

Doctor — Bob Jackson.

Doctor's Assistant — Howie Bates.

Guards — Norman Farrar, Howie Bates.

Accompanist — Judy French; Curtain and Prompter — Ronald Roberts.

Announcers — David Bergquist, Joan Peabody, Hart Birnie, Penny Nichols.

ENJOYED TRIP TO CONCORD

The Sixth Grade of Parkhurst School closed the year's social and educational activities with a most enjoyable and instructive field trip to the Antiquarian House in Concord, Mass.

This last trip was made possible by the kindness of some of the parents: Mrs. D. Runia, Mrs. Quentin Roberts, Mrs. Donald Bowman, and Mrs. Howard Bates, who came with cars to drive the class to Concord.

Highlights of the visit to this interesting museum were the early colonial rooms, the antique time - pieces, Thoreau's room, Emerson's study, the miniature replica of the historic fight at the bridge, and the interesting herb garden and antique bee hives in the yard.

The trip was a most enjoyable climax to a busy year at Parkhurst.

CIVIL DEFENSE

The following is Advisory Bulletin No. 40 sent to State Civil Defense Directors from the Federal Civil Defense Administration. It is requested that it be widely disseminated in the public interest. Will you please publish it in your next issue of the Star.

James W. Blackham,
Director of Civil Defense

Suggested List of Items for Home First-Aid Kit for Emergency Use

I. Purpose

The purpose of this Advisory Bulletin is to suggest a practical list of items that should be included in a civil defense first-aid kit for homes in critical target areas. An effort has been made to minimize the use of critical items required by Federal, State, and city civil defense organizations as reserve stores, and by the Department of Defense for the Armed Forces. Civil defense home kits should be reserved for emergency use and should be placed in that part of the home chosen as a shelter area. These items should not be confused with those previously recommended for first-aid stations. They should be used only for home emergency first-aid, and until organized first aid is available.

II. Suggested First-Aid Supplies

Item	Quantity
1. Antiseptic Solution (such as Benzalkonium Chloride aqueous solution 1:1000)	One 3 to 6 oz. bottle
2. Aromatic Spirits of Ammonia USP	One 1 to 2 oz. bottle
3. Baking Soda (Sodium Bicarbonate, USP)	One 8 to 10 oz. can
4. Bandage, muslin, triangular, compressed (37 x 37 x 52 inches, folded with 2 safety pins)	Four packages, 1 each
5. Bath towels, huge	Two
6. Bath towels, small	Two
7. Bed sheets	One
8. Dressing, First-Aid Medium (8 inches by 7½ inches, folded, sterile with gauze enclosed cotton pads, muslin bandage and 4 safety pins)	Two packages, 1 each
9. Dressing, First-Aid, small (4 inches by 7 inches, folded, sterile, with gauze enclosed cotton pads, gauze bandage)	Two packages, 1 each
10. Drinking Cups, paper, envelope	Package of 25 to 50
11. Emergency Eye Drops (Castor oil, USP)	Half to one oz. bottle
12. Flashlight, with batteries	One, with extra batteries
13. Pins, safety, medium (1½ inch in length)	Ten or fifteen
14. Razor Blades, single edge	Two or three
15. Salt and Soda Tablets (Sodium Bicarbonate or Sodium Citrate, 5 grs.)	Bottle of 100 to 200
16. Soap, toilet	One or two cakes
17. Splints ¼ to ½ in. thick by 3½ inches wide by 12 to 15 inches long, plastic, basswood or household material	Two, three
18. Tongue blades, wooden	Twelve to fifteen
19. Water Purification Tablets (Halazone or Iodine Compound	Bottle of 100

III. Explanatory Notes

A. While the purpose of many of the above items is self-explanatory, the following notes will serve as a guide to the use of others:

1. Any suitable aqueous antiseptic may be used in place of the one suggested. It is to be used on open wounds, not burns.

2. Ammonia Spirits may be used for fainting or near collapse, either internally or by inhalation. Internally, for adults, use ½ teaspoonful to glass water; for children, use 5 to 10 drops in a little water.

3. Baking Soda furnishes a measure of protection against nerve gas in two ways. Add 2 ozs. or about 4 level tablespoonfuls to one quart of water and use to wash parts of body exposed to nerve gas, or saturate a cloth with this same solution and use as a face mask for protection against inhalation of nerve gas.

4. The triangular bandage may be used as a sling or as a bandage covering.

5. Bath towels and bed sheets may be used as improvised bandages and dressings. These towels and sheets should be thoroughly laundered and ironed, and packaged in heavy paper. They should be relaundered every three months. Old, soft towels are preferable. When towels are used for burn dressings, place dressing and fasten down with triangular bandage or strip of sheet.

6. The first-aid dressings should be packaged sterile and may be used either on open wounds or as dry burn dressings.

7. The castor oil eye drops suggested may be replaced with other liquid eye drops which are suitable for painful irritation of the eye. Use two drops in each eye, then apply cold compresses and repeat every 20 minutes. Go to aid station if irritation persists.

8. The flashlight batteries should not be kept in the flashlight but should be wrapped in cellophane or something similar.

9. Salt and soda tablets in the above suggested size may be used as an aid in reducing shock after burns or injuries by adding 6 such tablets to one quart of water and having the victim drink as much of the solution as he will. A teaspoonful of common table salt and a half teaspoonful of baking soda in one quart will serve the same purpose.

10. Splints are used by first enclosing the fractured member in strips of towelling, then aligning the splints and fastening with triangular bandage or sheet strips.

11. The tongue blades may be used in the same manner for finger splints. They may also be used to stir solutions.

12. Use water purification tablets if water cannot be boiled readily. Use one or two tablets per one quart of water suspected of being contaminated by germs or bacteria. Neither boiling nor use of these tablets will make water safe for drinking if it has been contaminated by radioactive particles.

13. All items of the list should be packaged together in a suitable container or case for protection against dust and moisture.

IV. First-Aid Training

The best way to learn the proper use of these items is to take a Red Cross First-Aid Training Course. At least one member of every family should be well-versed in first aid.

LILLIAN ALEXANDER RECITAL

The Junior group of pupils of Lillian Alexander of Fletcher street, played a program of piano music to entertain parents and friends on May 19. The program consisted of eighteen numbers.

On June 13, a quiz program was held for first and second grades, consisting of a selection by each pupil and also tests in sight reading, ear training, and appreciation. Prizes were awarded for correct answers to ten questions.

On June 14, Thursday evening, the fourth and fifth grades entertained guests with the following program:

INDIANS STUDIED ON TRIP TO WAYSIDE MUSEUM

The Wayside Museum, founded by Clara Endicott Sears in Harvard, Massachusetts, was visited on a field trip by members of Miss Salice's third grade at the Mystic School on Monday, June 11th. The children have been looking forward to this trip all year, and it was gratifying that no child was absent for any reason on Monday and everyone could take the trip.

The North American Indians have been the object of special study by the third grade during the year, and the trip was planned as a culmination of this study. The museum presents a selection of North American Indian relics: prehistoric implements, burials, and specimens of Indian arts and industries. Among dioramas depicting events in the local history of the Indian is one showing a typical Indian life in the Nashua Valley, King Philip's war club is a prized exhibit. Two life-sized bronze statues of Indians, Pumunangwet ("He who shouts the stars") and Wo Peen ("The Dreamer") both the work of Philip S. Sears, stand outside the museum. The children were taken on a specially arranged tour during the morning, although the museum is open usually from 1:00 to 5:30 p. m. from May 26th to September 30th, and is well worth a visit by anyone.

The Wayside Museum is located on a beautiful fifty-acre tract overlooking the Nashua Valley, Mt. Wachusett and Mt. Monadnock. Across from it is an old Shaker house built during the 1790's, and just below it is the house which was occupied by Bronson Alcott when he started his experiment in communal living in 1843, and is now known as Fruitlands. Each of these is open for the nominal charge of only twelve cents each, and it is hoped that the children may visit the old Shaker house and Fruitlands another year.

The children were driven by five mothers and one father, and the cars kept together during the entire trip. Mrs. Colver P. Dyer, President of the Mystic School Mothers' Association, drove the leading car. With her was Miss Lillian Salice, who had been over the route the previous week. With them were Martha Bond, Martha Dyer, Cornelia Frazier and Nancy Morrison.

Mrs. Seth Shorey drove the next car, and with her were Jeffrey Drury, John Johnson, Janet Kearns, Nan Shorey and Sandra Wolsey. Following her came Mrs. W. Campbell Ross who was driving Charles Corey, Judy Davis, Dorothy March, Stephen Murphy and Mariana Ross. Next came Mrs. Robert B. Williams with Virginia Blake, Suzanne Fisher, David Grant, David Kennedy and Robert Williams. With Mrs. Everett A. Tisdale was Parker Allen, Joan Caldwell, Louise Huntoon, Bill Schweers and George Tisdale. It certainly gave a feeling of assurance to the group to have a father driving the last car, and the group was particularly grateful to Mr. A. D. Towle, Jr. for giving up his time to join them. The remaining boys were in his car: Clark Chandler, John Hosmer, Richard Peterson, Shaun Scanlon and James Towle.

After a refreshing picnic lunch in a delightful pine grove, the class returned home via the historic bridge in Concord. Both children and parents were most grateful to Miss Salice for planning such an enjoyable trip.

PARSONAGE TO APPEAR IN LADIES' HOME JOURNAL

A photographer from The Ladies' Home Journal recently took pictures of the exterior of the parsonage of the Second Congregational Church, 473 Washington street. The pictures will appear in an early issue with pictures of other houses built from the same plan which was drawn up by Royal Barry Wills, noted Boston architect.

STAFF COMPLETED FOR COMMUNITY SCHOOL OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Community School of Christian Education is pleased and proud to be able to present at this time a complete list of the courses that are to be given this fall, starting September 24th at the First Congregational Church. The Planning Committee should be congratulated on the splendid staff they have obtained.

We are fortunate in having two teachers from Winchester, Mrs. Norman Padelford and Rev. Robert A. Storer. Dr. Lemuel K. Lord of Melrose is well known in Winchester, and the other two teachers, Mrs. Norman Erb and Mrs. Ruth Richards Miller, are well qualified to teach their courses.

The Bible Study course with two evenings on the Old Testament, conducted by Dr. Elmer A. Leslie of Boston University, and two evenings on the New Testament with Dr. Edwin P. Booth of Boston University in charge, should prove most interesting to all persons attending the school. These two men are unexcelled in their fields, and should attract a large audience.

The school, as previously stated, will be held on five consecutive Monday evenings, starting September 24th and continuing through October 22nd. Each evening will start with dessert and coffee at 7:30 o'clock. The first class session will be from 8 o'clock until 8:50 with a General Assembly at 9 o'clock for the Bible Courses.

The courses to be given are listed below. Please cut this out of the "Star" and place it where you can see it occasionally during the summer. Then when fall arrives you will have decided which course you are going to take, the one that will be the most interesting and beneficial to you, either as a parent or a teacher.

It's a fine opportunity — your presence will guarantee success to the Community School of Regilious Education. See you in the fall!

1. "You Can Teach" — Mrs. Norman Erb.

Director of Christian Education of Old South Church. On Curriculum Committee for the Weekday School of Religious Education. Co-author of the "Ways of Living" series and "Out of the Past," textbooks for Public Schools.

2. "Creative Activities" — Mrs. Ruth Richards Miller.

Supervisor of Cambridge and Somerville Weekday Religious Education Schools. She has a wealth of experience in Laboratory and Leadership Education.

3. "Youth Work With Junior High" — Mrs. Norman J. Padelford.

Has a Master of Religious Education Degree. Superintendent of the Junior High Department at the First Congregational Church in Winchester for many years. Her sincerity and true Christian spirit make her an ideal teacher.

4. "Parents' Problems" — Dr. Lemuel K. Lord

Minister of the First Methodist Church in Melrose. Has majored in the fields of Psychology and Religion.

5. "Dramatics" — Rev. Robert A. Storer

Minister of the Unitarian Church in Winchester. Will demonstrate choric speech and motion choir to be used in worship service. Rev. Storer pioneered in motion choir work, and received his dramatic experience on the professional stage.

"Old Testament" — Dr. Elmer A. Leslie

Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature at Boston University School of Theology. Has recently published a book on "The Psalms."

"New Testament" — Dr. Edwin P. Booth

Professor of Historical Theology and also teacher of the New Testament at Boston University School of Theology.

Frank McLean who has just returned from a week at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec City, leaves today for Victoria, B. C. via Los Angeles and San Francisco. After a week at the Empress Hotel, he expects to take in Yellowstone National Park enroute back.

WINCHESTER TOASTMISTRESS CLUB

A delightful meeting of the Winchester Toastmistress Club combining a business and social meeting took place at the home of Mrs. Grant Bagley in Ipswich last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Bagley is one of the charter members of the Toastmistress Club and was a former president of the group.

Mrs. Walter Last of Medford, president welcomed members and guests and presided at the business meeting. Among the members attending and welcomed back was Mrs. Elsie Finnegan of Woburn who has been on an extended tour of the southern states this past winter. Mrs. Rene Bagley of Medford who has been away also returned to the club at this time. Mrs. Bagley is also one of our charter members of the club and one of its most enjoyable speakers.

Mrs. Grant Bagley was Topic Mistress for the evening and Mrs. Erie Anderson of Winchester was Toastmistress. The speakers were Mrs. Joseph Harrigan on 'A Current Event' and Miss Orrie Grant of Winchester on 'How To Have A Garden'. Club members all participated in the two minute extemporaneous speeches.

The Nominating Committee composed of Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Samuel Schwartz, Boston and Miss Anne Mootz of Newton, presented the slate of nominees for the incoming term's officers. The election will take place at the next meeting, June 26th.

The place of meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Margaret Quirk of Woburn.

FLOWERS FOR BEDFORD HOSPITAL

The Surgeon General of the United States Army recognizes the therapeutic value of flowers, flower arrangements and all related activities. At Bedford Veterans' Hospital a well rounded program is being carried on and the men are enthusiastic and grateful.

The Garden Club Federation of Massachusetts sponsors this project and the clubs in different towns take turns decorating the various rooms in the large hospital.

Now this is how you and your family can help. If you have flowers or flowering shrubs and would like to share them please call Mrs. John H. Wills, Winchester 6-1322, of the Winchester House and Garden Club or, better still, see that she gets the bouquets on Friday, June 29th around 9 a. m. The address is 238 Highland avenue.

At Bedford there are many rooms to be decorated plus two large arrangements to be provided for on either side of the altar in the Chapel, so plenty of material is necessary and welcome.

Two other dates to remember for this wonderful project are Friday, July 13 and Friday August 10.

VISITORS FROM GAINESVILLE

Mrs. Kathryn Murphy Lowe has come north from Gainesville, Fla., with her son, "Butch" and daughter, Martha, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murphy of Mystic avenue, while her husband, Lt. Col. Robert L. Lowe, is on maneuvers with the artillery. Col. Lowe is on a three-year army assignment at University of Florida at Gainesville, teaching military science and tactics.

"Butch" Lowe signalized his arrival in town by going to the Winchester Hospital for several stitches to close a bad cut on his forehead sustained Monday when he and another player collided while chasing a fly in a baseball game at Ginn Field. He was not seriously hurt.

MYSTIC SCHOOL NEWS

At the last meeting of the 1950-1951 board of the Mystic Chapter of the Winchester Mothers' Association, held at 10:00 a. m. on Tuesday, May 8, at the home of the President, Mrs. Melvin Sears, a record number of board members and room mothers were present, as were Schools Superintendent Dr. Forbes Norris and Mystic School Principal Mr. Joseph Forte.

Among other reports was that of Mrs. John Ghirardini on the Ways and Means project of the year which showed a final good profit, of which $150.00 had already been turned over to Mr. Forte. From the remainder it was voted to give $50.00 to the Scholarship Fund.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Sears introduced Dr. Forbes Norris, who gave many interesting facts and figures concerning the problems he and the School Committee face. Increases in school enrollment bring with them increasing school costs which are very evident in the increasing prices of textbooks and supplies, teachers' salaries, repairs and upkeep of buildings, utility and telephone bills. His greatest concern, however, is to get the best possible teachers for Winchester on a limited budget. He believes that it is more important now than ever before to have people of high calibre because the worries and problems of parents today are being increasingly reflected in the children, thereby making teaching more difficult. He discussed the pros and cons of State aid as a solution to our present salary dilemma but felt that Winchester would prefer to be independent of such aid, which carries with it the possibility of State interference. In further discussion Dr. Norris stated that the needs of the Junior and Senior High buildings are good permanent repairs; that Munchester Field is now ours to care for; and that the Mystic School, the playground of which is to be re-graded, rolled and finished with a hard surface, is so rapidly expanding that it should have its own full time principal.

Speaking for the Mystic School, Mr. Forte thanked the Association for their $150.00, with which had been purchased two three-speed phonographs which are to be permanent fixtures in the kindergartens, subscriptions to magazines helpful in the planning of assembly programs, various arithmetic devices which will help improve instruction in all schools since Mystic heads the arithmetic program for the town, and other experimental and teaching aids.

Mr. Forte's talk brought to a close this final pleasant board meeting which had opened with coffee and light refreshments served from a table attractively decorated with spring violets.

ART ASSOCIATION JUNE EXHIBITION

The June Exhibition, works of Art by high school students, now hanging in the Art Gallery of the Public Library, if lacking any single work of outstanding genius, does possess a quality which master painters might well envy, a youthful force and vitality which transcends weaknesses of stroke or technique.

It demonstrates admirably the field covered by the art department of the Winchester High School and falls into well-defined groups, Scratch Board Technique, decorative Pen and Ink Technique, pencil sketches and portraits, the creation of abstract designs built around a topical subject, tie print textiles, full page layouts for advertising purposes, illustrations for literary texts, operas and recordings, one one or two paintings which might well fall into the group of American primitives. Experimental paintings or sketches with two media are also exhibited.

For the most part, the works are the answers to problems set by the instructors. The same subject may be dealt with by several students with individual and characteristic difference. For example, the three large paintings on "The Dancer." One student has painted the classical ballet dancer, another a dark-skinned dancer performing probably some ritual dance against a native background and the third a flamboyant tango dancesue posturing with abandon. In the second painting what might be called a trick technique has been used, not entirely successfully. The tawny dancer has been cut out and fastened loosely to the painting, the subject was improved by the treatment, which is certainly not traditional art.

Among the gayest and most vibrant paintings in the collection, are those illustrating scenes from the "Barn Dance", and this work especially exudes a youthful buoyancy.

Some quite lovely results are shown in the Scratch Board Technique exhibits, all of the eight samples are graceful and artistic, the dancing sprites sketch has both fantasy and rhythm and the relaxed attitudes of the three puppies sketched are both natural and appealing. The pen and ink sketches, too, are competent and attractive.

Perhaps the least successful of the works in the collection are those illustrating some line from a Christmas Carol. For the most part the angels and saints depicted are efficient and rather hard young women whose only resemblance to the soft and sorrowing figures of the traditional religious Christmas cards is found in their flowing garments.

There are four paintings creating an abstract design built around a given subject, the four subjects being Christmas, Danger, Delirium and Sorrow. It would be extremely difficult if not impossible to interpret the first two paintings without the aid of the explanatory note, with the last two, lurid or sombre colour and sweeping lines have helped the observer in understanding the artist's intention.

There are several pencil sketches, executed according to the attached data in from five to thirty-five minutes. While for the most part, these sketches do indicate a facility in the artist's for rapid sketching, there are perhaps only two in which the mood of the subject has been caught and expressed.

The painting illustrating what was learned on "planes of distance", arouses nostalgic memories of summer days spent in Maine, but it does not, it may be suggested, sufficiently obscure the third and last plane. In a down east fog, ships in the third plane would be for the most part entirely blotted out.

The paintings illustrating two point perspective and the experiment with two media are interesting and ambitious, the ball-room scene of the latter, depicting and cartooning the various guests may be considered more advanced and finished in execution than some of the other works.

Two paintings, both having the same title 'The Battle', have each an individual appeal. In the first, a dapple gray horse, has been caught in a fiery moment, and if the horse itself is rather reminiscent of a merry-go-round steed, nevertheless it is well done and full of vigour.

In the second, two game-cocks are about to engage in battle. To an unprofessional observer, this work has more finish, better colouring and more artistic merit than might be expected from this age group.

In conclusion, it is an exhibition of works by youthful artists who have given in their paintings some of their own youth and bouyancy. If at times the colours are crude or even garish, they are never vapid. In a storm such as that depicted in the painting by that name, the turbulent waves would be dark and sullen and probably not the cheerful blue and green depicted, but there is real action and motion in the fury of the elements.

It is not one of the less successful exhibitions of the Winchester Art Association.

Miss Linda Fielding, daughter of Mr. Andrew B. Fielding of Lawrence street, is leaving June 26 from Montreal for Salzburg, Austria, where she will spend the summer in the home of an Austrian family as a member of the "Experiment in International Living." Miss Fielding only recently received her degree from Wellesley College as a member of the class of 1951. She prepared at Winchester High School.

MYSTIC SCHOOL OUTING

The combined 6th grades of Mrs. McLean and Mrs. Thompson went together to Ginn Field right after school on Wednesday, June 13th for their Farewell Frolic. Gaily dressed in white hats labeled Mystic '51, the boys and girls enjoyed a varied program, which included relay races, organized games, and a tug of war, with a cook-out to end the afternoon's festivities. After a strenuous hour on the field, hot dogs, cole, cookies and ice cream were a most welcome treat.

Mrs. Clifton J. Keane and Mrs. Lewis M. Foster were in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Ralph S. Pingree, Mrs. Herbert Preble, Mrs. Burnham G. Preston, Mrs. Russell Symmes, Mrs. Alton B. Fowler, Mrs. Alfred C. Doherty, and Mrs. Nelson K. Brown. Richard Foster, an 8th grade Boy Scout, was on hand to help build the fires, and give other invaluable assistance. Mrs. Raymond Thomas was in charge of games and Mrs. Melvin L. Sears had prizes ready to award to all of the winners.

An exciting game of softball, spontaneously organized by the children themselves, provided a fitting climax to the afternoon's activities.

Miss Harriette Smith is at New Harbor, Maine until after Labor Day.

ADDITION AND ALTERATIONS TO GEORGE WASHINGTON SCHOOL

INVITATION FOR BIDS

The George Washington School Building Committee will receive sealed bids for the construction of an Addition and Alterations to the George Washington School, Winchester, Massachusetts, at the office of Kelly & Gruzen, Architects and Engineers, 73 Tremont Street, Boston 8, Massachusetts, until 5:00 p. m. (Eastern Daylight Saving Time) July 13, 1951. Bids will be publicly opened and read in the General Committee Room, Town Hall, Winchester, Massachusetts, at 8:00 p. m. (Eastern Daylight Saving Time) July 13, 1951.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a Performance and Payment Bond, as set forth in the Specifications.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wage rates set forth in a schedule contained in the Specifications must be paid on this project. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment.

Contract Documents, including Drawings and Specifications, will be available on or after 12:00 noon, June 20, 1951, at the office of Kelly & Gruzen, 73 Tremont Street, Boston, Massachusetts. Copies of the documents may be obtained by depositing Fifty Dollars ($50.00) in the form of a certified check made payable to the Town of Winchester. This deposit will be refunded upon return of plans and specifications in good condition to the Architect-Engineer.

Sub-bids will be taken on the following portions of the work:

1. Heating
2. Plumbing
3. Electric

Bids of sub-bidders designated above shall be in the possession of the George Washington School Building Committee, at the office of Kelly & Gruzen as noted above, and delivered or mailed to the General Contractor or Contractors to whom such sub-bids are to be submitted by 12:00 noon at least two (2) days before the date of opening of General Contract Proposals. The George Washington School Building Committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids of the general bidders and to waive any informalities in bidding if it be in the public interest so to do. The George Washington School Building Committee also reserves the right to reject all bids of the sub-bidders on any item or items and to waive any informalities in the bidding if such rejection or waiver be in conformance with Section 44C of Chapter 149 of the General Laws.

Cash, certified check on, or a certificate of deposit issued by, a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Town of Winchester, or a satisfactory bid bond executed by the bidder and a surety company, shall be submitted with each bid as follows:

1. By General Bidders, in the amount of five per cent (5%) of the amount of the General Bid, but not in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00).
2. By Sub-bidders listed under Item 2 of the General Contractor's Bid Form in an amount not less than five per cent (5%) of the Sub-bidder's bid price.

No bid of a General Bidder or a Sub-bidder shall be withdrawn prior to thirty (30) days from the date of opening such bids.

TELEPHONE PIONEERS TO AID BLIND

On the evening of May 24, the North Metropolitan Council, Thomas Sherwin Chapter, Telephone Pioneers of America, held its Spring meeting at the Hotel Continental in Cambridge. There was something unusual about the meeting in that members were asked to consider the selection of a hobby that could be enjoyed by everyone in the group.

The hobby suggested for consideration was that of service, service to the blind. If the hobby is accepted by the group, and its acceptance seems certain at the moment, members of this council will be pioneers in another field; theirs will be the first council to add a very vital humanitarian service to its program.

There is an interesting story behind this decision to choose and develop a group hobby, a story about seven-hundred telephone people who make their headquarters in Cambridge Belmont, Arlington, Somerville, Winchester, Wakefield, Woburn, Stoneham and Reading, and who, individually, have had 21 years or more of service with the Company.

At a meeting of the executive committee last fall, the matter of a hobby for the group was discussed and it was decided to canvass members by mail in an effort to determine their hobby interests. Among the large number of suggestions received was one recommending an aid to the blind program. The employee submitting the suggestion stated that he had been busy in his spare time transcribing printed material into braille for use by the blind and that he had found the hobby most satisfying. The suggestion attracted a great amount of attention and the employee was asked to tell the committee more. After listening to his very interesting story, committee members unanimously agreed to submit the matter to the entire body for consideration. The committee felt, however, that members should have a picture of state wide activities for the blind prior to any attempt to make a decision and Mrs. Sumner C. Jacobs, Voluntary Chairman, Hand Transcribing Division, National Braille Press, Boston, was asked to review those activities at the Spring meeting.

Mrs. Jacobs, who has performed outstanding service to the blind over a long period of years, described the many essential services to the blind that are being performed by the Massachusetts State Division for the Blind, by the several independent agencies operating in the state, and by the National Braille Press.

The National Braille Press was founded in 1927 for the purpose of publishing a newspaper for the blind. Later came a magazine and since 1941 the organization has carried on an international hand transcribing service supplying blind persons all over the world with braille transcriptions free of charge.

Mrs. Jacobs then described the assistance being given to the blind through the medium of voice recordings of all types of printed material. It was her opinion that the Telephone Pioneer Group was well qualified to carry out a successful voice recording program.

Yes, it now appears that these telephone people will do their share in providing a service that is so vital to the blind.

PUBLIC RESPONSIBLE FOR RAILROADS

"Because railroad operations are thoroughly regulated by representatives of the public, it follows that the public has a responsibility to take a thoughtful and intelligent attitude toward the whole problem of transportation regulation," it was stated last week by H. E. Bixler of Rangely, General Superintendent Transportation of the Boston and Maine Railroad and the Maine Central Railroad, addressing the Sanford-Springvale Rotary Club in Sanford, Maine.

Citing as an example of an unthinking type of criticism, Mr. Bixler stated that in some quarters the railroads were being censured for not having spent large sums of money which they were not earning in 1949 and early 1950 to repair and purchase cars for which there was no need at that time. The railroad official stated:

"In February 1950 there was a surplus of 200,000 freight cars in this country. The drop in freight events in 1950 was not foreseen by the railroads any more than it was by the Federal Government. The railroads of the United States have in the last 12 months placed orders for 140,000 new freight cars, 55,000 of which have already been placed in service. This represents an investment of private capital of nearly one billion dollars.

"I refuse to believe that the railroad industry is a dying industry or that it will be crushed by its current problems. The solutions will be found more quickly and more satisfactorily if the public takes a thoughtful, intelligent attitude toward its regulation of the railroads. But in any case their problems will be met because the railroads are too important a part of our civilization to be permitted to die, because the spirit of railroadmen which met their original challenge is still capable of meeting current problems.

"We will be dependent upon railroads in this country for many years to come and the issues will be solved out of national necessity, but whether this is done under private enterprise or socialism will be greatly influenced by the American public and its attitude toward transportation regulation and competition over the next few years."

Mrs. G. G. Ganger and infant daughter of Boulder, Colorado, are spending two weeks at the home of Mrs. Ganger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McCormick of 3 Sheffield road.

State Senator George J. Evans of Wakefield, who will serve as Chairman of the Metropolitan Division, comprised of more than 50 cities and towns, for The Salvation Army 1951-1952 Greater Boston Friendly Appeal, it was announced today by Charles P. Howard of Reading, President of the Greater Boston Advisory Board.

TOWN SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Standing

Beggs and Cobb	8	2
Sons of Italy	7	3
Esso	7	4
White Shirts	5	5
V. F. W.	3	6
Ramblers	3	8
Atomics	3	8

For the first time this season the Sons of Italy dropped out of first place as the Beggs and Cobb moved into sole possession of the top rung. The Sons were an upset victim of the White Shirts on Wednesday evening as the White Shirts rallied from a 7 - 2 deficit to pull out an 11 - 9 victory over the favored Sons. The Beggs and Cobb nine continues to score a lot of runs as they annexed two more victories during the past week. Manager Tom Connolly has this team of young fellows really hustling and they use their speed to good advantage on the base paths.

Gullotti's Esso nine won a thriller from the V. F. W. by a score of 6 - 5 at Ginn Field on Wednesday evening. The Vets were leading 5 - 1 in the last of the seventh when the Esso came to bat and scored five runs after two were out to eke out a thrilling victory. Bob Humphrey did a good job on the mound for the Esso in holding the hard-hitting Vets to five runs until his teammates came through with the winning runs.

As indicated above the League race is really tightening up as the teams battle for the four playoff positions. This coming week's play will complete the first half of the League schedule and the teams will be really bearing down now as each game becomes increasingly important. None of the teams are soft touches any more as any one of them has demonstrated that they are capable of knocking off the leaders on any given night which makes for good competition and tremendous interest for the spectators.

PLAYGROUND NOTES

The Winchester Playgrounds opened for the season this past week and the various programs got underway to an excellent start. Try-outs were conducted on all three fields for positions on the three baseball teams representing each playground. The three teams on each playground are divided into age groups so that all boys have an opportunity to play supervised ball, with the Juniors being comprised of elementary school youngsters, the Intermediates being made up of Junior High age boys, and the Seniors representing the high school group. In addition, try-outs were held for the Junior boys' softball teams on each field which are made up of boys too young for the baseball teams.

The arts and crafts program under the direction of Mrs. Thomas was enthusiastically received by the youngsters and they are turning out articles in surprising volume. The special project for this week has been the making of pocketbooks, knitting boxes, jewelry boxes, and vases out of twisted crepe paper in various colors. The youngsters have taken hold of this project wholeheartedly and have made many beautiful articles which are planned to be displayed later this summer in a centrally located store window.

Registration on the fields for the first three days of this week totaled 182 at Leonard Field, 55 at Ginn Field, and 53 at the West Side Field for a total of 290 youngsters. With the opening of the playground league schedules next week in baseball and softball for the boys and softball and kickball for the girls, it is expected that average attendance will increase. The enlarged arts and crafts program is certain to attract more youngsters, too, which will help to swell the totals.

PUPILS OF MISS KENNEALLY PRESENT FINE PROGRAM AT MUSIC HALL

Luella G. Kenneally presented pupils in two pianoforte recitals at Music Hall Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday evenings, June 19th and 20th.

On Tuesday evening the hall was filled with enthusiastic friends and relatives of Miss Kenneally's junior pupils. Solo, group and two piano numbers were enjoyed by all.

These children with all their joy and enthusiasm of sharing, were an inspiration to all.

Many of the children performing in the first quarter of the program were under eight years of age. Among these were six year old Virginia Joyner, who opened the program delightfully with, "The Fox Hunt" followed by six year old Bert Comins, in "Swing Song". Barbara Lewis, Jane O'Malley, Gene Ramsdell, Phyllis Rogde all within that age group and studying less than the year showed decided skill and poise.

Carol McLean a year older, and Phyllis Rogde are beginning the pleasure of ensemble playing, that is now a necessary part of music education, and of which the reward is one of the most satisfying forms of musical companionship.

Miss Kenneally was most proud of each and every one of her boys. They were all excellent.

Ada Silvagni of Belmont, age 13, gave a most mature rendition of the Warsaw Concerto. Her decided artistic talent was appreciated by all.

The opening and concluding numbers were supplied by Debbie French and Shirley Kinney. Their two piano work is outstanding and one of the highlights of the evening. Their smooth flowing interpretation of Weber's "Invitation to the Dance" and their stirring syncopation of the Mexican Folk Dance "La Cucaracha" had everyone "up on their toes."

The following pupils contributing solo numbers, completed the well balanced program:

Linda Maroney
Gerry Patrick
Judith Ghirardini
Robert Gray
Donald Lewis
Jack Gibbons
Robert Mulford
Nancy Geggis
Jeanne Buffum
Robert Dickey
Elsie Darrah
Douglas Scott

NEW HYDROELECTRIC PLANT ON TIBER WELCOME ADDITION TO ITALIAN POWER

Along Rome's historic Tiber River a literal as well as symbolic temple to power has joined the ghost-haunted relics of imperial and fascist Rome.

Just opened by the president of postwar republican Italy, this modern temple is a hydroelectric plant which will harness Tiber waters at Castel Giubileo, about 10 miles north of the Eternal City. It is expected to contribute 70,000,000 kilowatt hours a year to Italy's power resources.

Compared with the 20-odd billion kilowatt hours annually produced in Italy as a whole, the Tiber plant's capacity is relatively minor, observes the National Geographic Society. The station, however, is part of a large-scale program for the region, and will meet a pressing need in Rome and environs.

It also represents an expansion of general power reserves now playing a vital part in rebuilding and expanding Italian industrial and economic strength.

Italy long has been handicapped by lack of domestic coal and oil. Most of such fuel has had to be imported at heavy cost and inconvenience. Thus, the nation has come to depend more and more on electric power, generated chiefly from streams and waterfalls of the Alps and of the Apennines mountain spine along the peninsular "boot."

An estimated 87 per cent of the electric power that operates Italy's factory machines, its heating, lighting, and household equipment, comes from these water sources.

The other 13 per cent is derived from thermal (heat-produced) electricity. Of the latter, nearly half is man-made in plants that burn coal, oil, and gas — mostly coal at present. The rest, known as geothermic power, is obtained through the ingenious tapping of nature's own heating system, available in various volcanic areas of Italy.

The main sources of volcanic power so far developed is an awesome area of steam vents and boiling pools near the town of Larderello in west-central Italy. There a vast supply of underground energy was first put to work in a practical way before World War I.

Today, with the help of Uncle Sam's ECA funds to further Italy's over-all power programs, the modern plant and drilling machinery at Larderello are turning out a billion kilowatt hours annually, with considerably more in prospect.

Italy's electric power output in all fields has grown spectacularly. On the eve of World War I, a total of two billion kwh was produced. By 1926, the figure had reached the 7,500,000,000 mark; in 1941 it was 20,600,000,000 kwh.

Although World War II brought damage and destruction, 1947 found Italian power back at the 1941 level. Last year marked an all-time record of 24,900,000,000 kwh.

Yet in spite of advances, Italy's power needs still outrun supply. Weather hazards sometimes sharply lower hydroelectric production, as was proved by the shortage and rationing of electricity following the severe 1948-'49 drought.

However, thermal energy is being rapidly expanded, and numerous new hydroelectric plants have been built or are under construction. In addition to Castel Giubileo, for example, another station is already under way at Nazzano on the Tiber, with others to follow in a vast program of irrigation as well as power production.

GEOGRAPHIC ODDITIES AND BRIEFS

Iceland has an immense tract of devastated wilderness which in native lore is known as the "fire focus of the north," the National Geographic Society notes. Here burning sulphur beds, geysers and seething cauldrons of mud testify to dying fires of the earth close beneath.

The sum total of all tin mined within the jurisdiction of the United States in 1949 amounted to only 68 long tons — 51 in Alaska and 17 in Colorado. Yet the gaping jaws of American industries must be fed more than 70,000 tons of tin a year. The supply comes across long sea lanes, the National Geographic Society notes, from Asia, Africa, and South America.

Of all precious stones, the aquamarine is found in the largest flawless crystals. The largest gem ever found was a 220-pound aquamarine the size of a nail keg uncovered near the Brazilian village of Marambaia in 1910, says the National Geographic Society. It yielded 200,000 carats of cut gem stones.

The first state visit of a reigning British king to Stratford on Avon where William Shakespeare was born in 1564 did not occur until April of 1950. Yet London is only 92 miles away.

THE WINCHESTER STAR.

VOL. LXX NO. 45 THE WINCHESTER MASS., STAR, FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1951 PRICE TEN CENTS

LT. EDWARD C. GANZ, JR.

SILVER STAR TO LT. GANZ

First Lt. Edward C. Ganz, Jr., whose wife is the former Muriel Fifield of 8 Woodside road, has been awarded the Silver Star, third highest combat award of the nation, for gallantry in action near Seoul in Korea last January 3. He has been fighting in Korea almost continuously since last October, and commands Company K, 26th Regiment, 25th (Wolfhound) Division.

Lt. Ganz graduated from Staunton Military Academy in Virginia, attaining the rank of 1st Captain and being awarded the highest military honors in the Corps of Cadets. He was commissioned in the Army in 1944 and took part in the occupation of Japan. His wife, and their year-old daughter, Judith, are making their home while Lt. Ganz is in Korea with Mrs. Ganz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fifield, at 8 Woodside road.

The citation issued by Brigadier General Joseph Bradley to Lt. Ganz follows:

"Lieutenant Ganz's outpost line was under heavy attack by a numerically superior hostile force. Despite exposure to intense small arms fire and hand grenades, he moved throughout his position to coordinate more effectively the movement and fire of his men.

"As the line withdrew to another series of prepared positions, he held off the onrushing foe with effective rifle fire until the movement had been completed and then carried two wounded soldiers through bursting grenades to a place of safety.

"Returning to his platoon, he supervised an orderly displacement to the main line of resistance. Lieutenant Ganz's courageous leadership, military abilities and selfless devotion to duty are in keeping the highest traditions of the United States Army."

DOCTORATE FOR BARKSDALE

Prof. Richard K. Barksdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Barksdale of Chester street, received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in English Language and Literature at the 315th Commencement of Harvard University Thursday, June 21.

Dr. Barksdale, a former Winchester High School football star and honor graduate, makes his home with his family in Durham, N. C. He is a member of the teaching faculty at North Carolina College at Durham and previously taught in other colored schools and colleges in the South.

He holds the Bachelor of Arts Degree from Bowdoin College and got his Master's Degree from Syracuse University.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL ADDITION GETS GREEN LIGHT

Mr. John C. Wakefield of Forest street, chairman of the George Washington School Additions Committee has been notified that the National Production Authority in Washington has granted permission to proceed with the construction of the addition to the school, for which money was appropriated at the March Town Meeting.

WINCHESTER MAN APPOINTED

[illegible] Fund Drive, which [illegible] August, 1951. Greater Boston Friendly Appeal, to be launched in September, has announced the appointment of Mrs. Herbert F. Ross, 26 Lakeview road, as residential chairman for Winchester.

Mrs. Ross is active in the En Ka Society, College Club, and Florence Crittenton League.

Gratification at Mrs. Ross's acceptance was expressed by William A. Nicol, executive director of the Greater Boston appeals for more than 25 years. "The neighborhood canvass is a key factor in the success of the appeals in the 50 or more communities of Greater Boston," he said. "It takes a person of energy, ability and enthusiasm to put it across, and we feel this is what Mrs. Ross brings to her position. I am sure that under her direction the canvass in Winchester will measure up to its possibilities."

Mrs. Ross is now enlisting volunteers for the canvass. It is estimated that 10 precinct chairmen and vice-chairmen, with about 400 workers can adequately cover Winchester residential areas.

DR. ALBERT G. H. DIETZ

WILL VISIT JAPAN

Dr. Albert G. H. Dietz, 19 Cambridge street, professor of building engineering and construction at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, has been named a member of a Commission on Engineering Education to visit Japan this summer at the request of the Supreme Commander for the Allied Powers, it was announced today in Boston. The Commission is being jointly sponsored by the American Society for Engineering Education and the Unitarian Service Committee, which will handle administrative arrangements.

Dr. Dietz, who is director of M. I. T.'s plastics laboratory, was appointed to the faculty there as an assistant in 1934. He was made a full professor last year.

He also has served as senior consulting engineer of the Forest Products Laboratory, and as consultant with the field service of the Office of Scientific Research and Development. He is a member of a number of technical organizations including the Society of Plastics Engineers of which he is national director, the American Society for Testing Materials, and the American Society of Civil Engineers as a member of the structural timber committee.

In all, 15 American engineers representing the principal areas of engineering education will leave for the Orient in early July to consult with the Japanese Ministry of Education as well as with educators and administrators of engineering colleges in Japan.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Morris of 850 Main street announce the engagement of their daughter, Rosemary Anna, to Mr. George Arthur Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Kelley of 848 Main street.

Mr. Kelley is in the service, being presently stationed at Randolph Field in Texas.

HAZEN H. AYER

Former Chairman of the School Committee, recently elected president of the University of Maine Foundation, which holds gifts, bequests and trust funds for the University.

WINCHESTER MAN STILL MISSING

The family of Harold J. Slack, 62, of 32 Lebanon street, missing since June 20 when he left home to fish Nashoba Brook in Acton, had no recent news of him when the Star called at press time yesterday.

Mr. Slack, an experienced fisherman and woodsman, was to meet his son, Charles, in Acton after a day's fishing, and when he had failed to keep their appointment as late as 1 o'clock Thursday morning his son informed the Police.

Acton Police and State Troopers from Andover and Concord, with Boy Scouts and private citizens have combed the woods around Nashoba Brook and the water was drained from the Brook's dams without any trace of the missing man. No fishing equipment was found, and this fact made the searching authorities hopeful that Mr. Slack had gone on to some other fishing spot. Dogs used by the police would go no further than a pond known as the Mill Pond near an icehouse, tracing Mr. Slack to the Pond, but finding no trail leading into the woods.

At the Slack home the family is still hoping for good news, believing that Mr. Slack may have decided to do some fishing elsewhere and had gotten a ride along the main highway near Nashoba Brook. This belief was intensified by the fact that Mr. Slack was seen at the Mill Pond on Nashoba Brook at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 20. At that time he was talking to a short dark man who had an automobile, and it is believed this man may have taken the Winchester fisherman to some spot where he knew the fishing was good.

Mrs. Slack told the Star that it is nothing unusual for her husband to be gone on fishing trips for several days, but she confessed to being worried over not hearing from him for so long.

She still expects to hear that he has been camped somewhere, not knowing about the anxiety caused by his disappearance. Like everyone else who knows Mr. Slack, she refused to believe he could have been lost in the woods, being too experienced a woodsman for that.

MISS HAMMOND GIVEN SURPRISE SHOWER

Miss Barbara Jean Hammond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. S. Hammond of 7 Glengarry, was given a "surprise bridal shower," on the evening of June 25th at the home of her maid of honor, Miss Marjorie Johnston of 7 Myrtle street. The guests included Mrs. John W. S. Hammond, Mrs. John K. Colony, Miss Dorothy Byford and Miss June Moffette of Winchester; Mrs. Richard Carter and Miss Phyllis Carter of West Newton; Mrs. Lester M. Black of Watertown; Miss Marjorie Abbott of Weymouth; and Miss Beatrice Couloris of Arlington.

The gifts were attractively hidden under an aqua umbrella festooned with a shower of miniature umbrellas. Dainty sandwiches, punch and ice cream were served by Miss Johnston and her mother Mrs. J. Warren Johnston.

Miss Hammond has just returned from Langhorne, Pa., where she was a member of the teaching staff of "The Woods Schools". She will be married to Mr. Allen E. Sither of Washington, D. C., and Lexington, Ky., on July 6, at the Church of the Epiphany.

BORN

A first child, Dana Robinson Calkin, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bailey Calkin of Hudson, N. H., on June 22 at the Nashua Memorial Hospital.

He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Calkin of Hillsboro, N. H. and Commander and Mrs. E. B. Robinson of Stetson Hall.

HAWKINS BOYS' STATE GOVERNOR

Governor's Councillor is Schoolmate Tom Gallagher

[illegible] Hawkins, Winchester High School graduate, was elected Governor of Boys' State at the seventh annual election held June 26 at the University of Massachusetts. Hawkins' classmate, Tommy Gallagher, was elected to the governor's council, making Winchester High School the distinction of having both its representatives to Boys' State filling important posts.

Hawkins' election is a real honor, both for him and for his school. Boys from all over Massachusetts to the number of several hundred are sent to the University of Massachusetts each year for a week by sponsoring American Legion Posts, each of which sends two boys. Being elected governor is a tribute to a boy's ability to impress a stranger group with his personality during the short time given over to party primaries and an election campaign. After the officers and various groups are chosen they are set up like the State governing bodies and the boys actually conduct state affairs for several days, gaining a fine insight into practical politics. The boys live in dormitories and get up each morning with calesthenics in the gym at 7.

Hawkins, who was assigned to the Nationalist party, has been prominent in athletics at Winchester High, playing regular center on the championship basketball team last winter and running on both the cross country and track teams. His time in the quarter is the best made by a Winchester High boy in many years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Hawkins of 242 Highland avenue.

Gallagher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Gallagher of 25 Grayson road. He has been manager of both basketball and baseball, and both he and Hawkins had to rank scholastically in the top ten of their class to be eligible to be sent to the Boys' State. Character, leadership and good school citizenship were also factors considered. The boys left town last Friday and return home tomorrow.

Winchester Post, 97, the American Legion, sponsored Hawkins and Gallagher, paying their expenses to the state activities at Massachusetts University. The selecting committee comprised High School Principal Wade L. Grindle, High School Faculty Member, Edward A. Bartlett, Louis E. Goddu and Kenneth S. Hall.

DROWNS SURPRISED ON ANNIVERSARY

Custodian Henry Drown of the Noonan School and his wife, Blanche, observed their 25th wedding anniversary Wednesday evening, June 27, by having dinner at the Meadows in Framingham and going on to a show in Boston afterward.

It was late when they returned to their home at 19 Carter street, and as a consequence the Drowns were surprised to have a visitor, who had walked some little distance from her home on Middlesex street to extend her personal anniversary congratulations and those of the Noonan School Mothers' Association.

The visitor was Mrs. Helen Nadeau, an active worker in the Association, and she presented the Drowns with a package from that group. Upon being opened by Mrs. Drown the package was found to contain 40 silver dollars and an appropriate anniversary card, signed by the Association members. It was later learned that Mrs. Nadeau had been the instigator of the gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Drown expressed their appreciation, both for the gift and the spirit that prompted it. Its receipt and Mrs. Nadeau's visit made a particularly pleasant ending to a delightful day.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. Raymond C. Mercener of Westfield, New Jersey, announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen, to Mr. Robert H. Morrison of New York City, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Morrison of 12 Glen road, Winchester.

Miss Mercener is a graduate of Duke University and the Columbia School of Journalism. Mr. Morrison is a graduate of Holderness School and Harvard College, class of 1948. He served three years in the U. S. Army. He is a news writer with the Wall Street Journal. A fall wedding is planned.

BELA E. ANDREWS

[illegible] Bela E. Andrews, 71, died [illegible] at his home on Mystic Valley parkway [illegible] after a long illness. He was a native of Lowell [illegible] day.

A son of Bela and Augusta (Stephens) Andrews, he was born in Somerville, Maine, [illegible] the late Stephens and Matilda (Anderson) Andrews, and remained on the family farm until he was a young man he went to Providence, R. I., where for ten years he was employed by the Providence Street Railroad. He then went to Malden, going into partnership with his half-brother, Stephen Sidelinger, in the Middlesex Market, which they operated for 15 years.

Thereafter he spent 19 years as senior officer at the House of Correction in Billerica, from which he was retired four years ago.

He was a member of the Baptist Church of this town.

Besides Mrs. Andrews, the former Cora E. MacDonald, he leaves his daughter, Miss Ruth C. Andrews; a sister, Mrs. Leola Mank of North Waldoboro, Maine; and four half-brothers, Claude E. Sidelinger of Monson, Maine, Bertelle and Merle Sidelinger of Washington, Maine, and Stephen Sidelinger of Melrose.

Funeral services conducted by Walter L. Bailey were held at the Weir Funeral Home, Malden, Friday afternoon, June 22nd, with interment at Puritan Lawn cemetery.

Edward R. Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Ball of 7 Marshall road, enlisted in the U. S. Navy on June 27th.

Ball, better known to his many friends as "Eddie" was graduated from Winchester High School class of '48. He attended Northeastern University for two years where he majored in business administration. Just prior to his enlistment he was a senior at Boston University. He is now being trained at the U. S. Naval Training Station at Newport, R. I.

MAIL SHIPMENTS ABROAD REQUIRE EXPORT CONTROL - CLEARANCE AT P. O.

Any person presenting a package for mailing abroad by surface or air parcel post must present to the Post Office a validated export license or state on the wrapper that no export license is required according to an announcement by Postmaster Thomas J. Gilgun. Only mail shipments to Canada are not covered by the new rule.

These revised controls over mail exportations represent a concerted action by the Office of International Trade, U. S. Department of Commerce, and the Post Office Department to improve enforcement of existing export control regulations over shipments through the international mails.

KUGLER ELECTED TREASURER

William A. Kugler, 26 Winslow road, was elected treasurer of the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company at the meeting of the board of directors on June 20. Mr. Kugler, a 1922 graduate of Wesleyan, spent two years with a public utility holding company and joined the New England Mutual's investment department in 1926 following his graduation from the Harvard Business School. He became assistant treasurer in 1930. He is chairman of the investment committee of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

JOYCE MARIE LINDSAY

ENGAGED

Of interest to friends of Lawrence and Marjorie Ordway Mattan is the recent announcement in Washington of the engagement of their son, James L. Martin, to Joyce Marie Lindsay, daughter of Mrs. Theodore Thomas of that city. James is the grandson of Mrs. Harold F. French of Winchester.

Miss Lindsay received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Maryland and is now with the Office of Foreign Agriculture in Washington. Mr. Martin is a senior at the University of Maryland where he is studying food processing engineering. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, and a graduate of the Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps.

A September wedding is planned.

They flew to New York and will return by plane, making their headquarters at the Statler.

OBSERVED SILVER WEDDING

[illegible] Mr. and Mrs. Grace [illegible] 77 Myrtle street, were pleasantly surprised [illegible] evening by [illegible] coming in [illegible] a 25 anniversary [illegible] and friends from Winchester, Medford, Malden and Arlington gathered at their home to congratulate them upon their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Grace received gifts of many silver dollars and were also presented with a beautiful sterling silver console set, the gift of their family, the presentation being made by the two older daughters, Miss Althea Grace, a nurse at the Malden Hospital, and Mrs. Samuel Trezzera of Medford.

Besides Miss Grace and Mrs. Trezzera, Mr. and Mrs. Grace have a younger daughter, Jane, and two sons, James and Leslie Grace, all of whom were at the anniversary surprise party.

The program was informal, but after the presentation of the gifts there was dancing by talented guests. The serving of refreshments and a social hour brought the evening to a pleasant close.

For Winchester Children under Twelve Only!

In consideration of the response, we are again printing the following.

WHAT'LL YOU HAVE!

No — we are not paging Mr. Pabst Blue Ribbon. We are simply asking you owners of property who have your homes in the restricted residential district of Winchester

What'll you have?

There are now operating in the restricted residential zone two business enterprises. One is at No. 2 Rangely and the other at No. 19 Church Street. Each of these establishments operates the first floor of the premises as a dental business with dental chairs, rest rooms, nurses quarters, laboratories, etc. The remainder of the buildings is given over to apartments. The two owners maintain their own residence elsewhere.

WE ARE UNABLE TO FIND A SIMILAR INSTANCE IN ANY TOWN WHICH HAS A RESTRICTED RESIDENTIAL ZONE. THESE APPEAR TO BE SIMPLE BUSINESS ENTERPRISES.

What'll you have?

In an endeavor to ascertain their standing the Star contacted various Town departments asking if these enterprises were allowed or not in our restricted residential zone.

It wrote the Selectmen, the Building Commissioner, the Board of Appeal, the Town Counsel and the Planning Board.

Not one of these five departments will answer our question. They will not say "Yes" or "No".

This of course is only the beginning. Legal opinion says similar establishments may be opened anywhere in Town, anywhere in the residential district.

What'll you have?

The Star wonders how home owners in the restricted residential district feel.

Do you want a dental clinic and apartments next door? Do you want a rooming house, a private hospital or a nursing home on the other side? Do you want a nursery school or a neighboring meat market across the street? How about a corner grocery?

Remember, this is only the beginning.

What'll you have?

Perhaps you prefer to keep up your home as it is in what you imagine to be a residential zone; to have your teeth cared for elsewhere and not next door.

Perhaps you prefer to send your children to the public schools; not next door.

Perhaps you prefer the Winchester Hospital to the private establishment next door?

Perhaps you prefer to do your trading somewhere else than at a next door grocery?

What'll you have?

We would like to find out.

If you would like to be recorded as opposing the present conditions, you may so be recorded by calling at the Star Office.

Or you may sign and send the coupon below to the Star Office.

WHAT'LL YOU HAVE!

With the understanding that if they are allowed to continue, similar enterprises may be opened anywhere in the restricted residential zone in Winchester, I wish to be recorded as objecting to the opening of the dental offices and apartments at No. 2 Rangely and No. 49 Church Street in the restricted residential zone of Winchester. It is my understanding that the owners of these enterprises reside elsewhere.

Signed .....

Street and No. .....

WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN CLUB

The Winchester Women's Republican Club took an important part in the G. O. P. Country Fair at the Topsfield Fair grounds Saturday, June 23rd which was held to raise Campaign funds by The Massachusetts Republican Finance Committee.

The club sold 500 tickets and were the only town club who were 100% sold—except Mr. Fred Ayers' Town which is Wenham and they sold 300.

We also sponsored 3 concessions — the Ferris Wheel, the Merry-Go-Round and cute Little Red Fire Engine which old and young found great fun.

The weather until evening was really grim but the enthusiasm was wonderful.

Our 6th Middlesex District Chairman Ralph Bonnell and the town committee all helped along with the Winchester men and women who manned the booths and worked like beavers. It was hard work but fun and we made some money.

Mrs. Robert Wood Reynolds, President of the Club wishes to thank the many people who helped: Some of the list follows:

Mrs. Ralph Bonnell made a wonderful ticket chairman and did a tremendous job.

Sen. and Mrs. Robert P. Campbell
Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Barnes
Mr. William Speers
Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Madge
Mrs. Forrest L. Pitman
Mrs. James M. Beale

CLAM BAKE AND SQUARE DANCE AT WINCHESTER BOAT CLUB

The umpteenth Annual Clam Bake is scheduled to be held at the Winchester Boat Club (on the lawn; weather permitting) at 6 p. m. on the holiday.

Once again the Club's competent chefs will boil luscious lobsters and all the fixings preceded by steaming bowls of Seiler's Clam Chowder and followed by Ice Cream, Punch or Coffee.

Following the feast, there will be a Square Dance on the black top to the rhythmic tunes of an outstanding band and the vocal instructions of a competent caller.

The tariff for the whole terrific party is only $2.00 per person. If you can't make the feast, come on down and dance anyway. There's no charge for the fancy capering on the black top.

Because the Clam Bake is being put on by the Club members, only a limited number of tickets have been printed. They are on sale at the Club now and must be purchased by Saturday, June 30. There is an excellent chance there won't be many available at that late date, better get yours right away!

Fleet Facts

The battle for the 1951 Championship of the Winchester Boat Club Snipe Fleet has been strictly a battle between Roger Swanson and Rodney Long up to this stage of the season. These superb skippers have managed to divide all the first places between them. None of the other skippers being able to break into the magic winner's circle. However, things may get a little rougher for the two leaders in the weeks to come, because Ken Cook, a former Fleet Champion, and Peter Redding, another top Fleet Skipper, have finally floated their boats.

There has been a very exciting contest for the third place between Bart Sullivan, Jim Newman, Ned Morse and Carl Freyer, with the position changing hands at the conclusion of almost every race.

Jack Streeton, a former Fleet Champion, paid us a visit last weekend and soon discovered to his disgust that the winds on the Mystic were still as unfaithful as ever. Jack is sailing a Star boat on Long Island and at this writing is in second position. Looks like he has lost none of his sailing skill.

Late Monday afternoon the Somerville police recovered an automobile owned by John J. Noonan of 43 Holland street and stolen on June 4.

WINCHESTER GIRL SCOUTS

Camp Joy, the Winchester Girl Scout Day Camp in the Fells started camp on Monday, June 18, with the largest registration in history. A total of 180 girls and 17 leaders arrived bringing their lunches and high hopes for wonderful adventures in the out of doors.

These campers went up the lovely pine path to their nine different units which will be their "home" during the four weeks of camp.

Swimming at Wedge Pond under Larry Palmer and his aides Judy Nanry, Ann Hooper, and Barbie Hammett, starts the day at 9 a. m. A bus transports the campers to the play field at Camp Joy where the flag ceremony opens the day at the cabin. Then, off to their units where Leaders and Senior aides work with the girls on crafts, nature, songs, games, and dramatics.

Each unit is scheduled for a noon cookout during the first two weeks, and girls from Brownie fly-ups have an overnight at the cabin.

The following is the staff for Camp Joy:

Unit I
Leader — Mrs. Dorothy Cullen
Aides — Nancy Morse — Dottie Pratt

Unit II
Leader — Mrs. Anna Crockett
Aides — Eugenia Flaherty — Mary Murray

Unit III
Leader — Mrs. Caroline Goodwin
Aides — Mary Rhem — Betty Joyce

Unit IV
Leader — Mrs. Catherine Cavanaugh and Mrs. Dorothy Caldwell
Aides — Sheila Scanlon — Margie Finn

Unit V
Leader — Mrs. Marion Lasky and Mrs. Ruth Switzer
Aides — Mary Lou Armstrong — Connie Jowdy

Unit VI
Leader — Mrs. Lou Finn, Mrs. Thelma Kalmes and Mrs. Hewis
Aides — Nancy Dowling — Nancy Switzer

Unit VII
Leader — Mrs. Alice Towle and Mrs. Barbara Gross
Aides — Tina Tonon and Andrea Erskine

Unit VIII
Leader — Mrs. Dorothy Harvey
Aides — Mary Cullen and Dorothy Parker

Unit IX
Leader — Betty Ann Carlisle (Nursery Unit)
Aides — Peggy McNally
Day Camp Director — Mrs. Barbara H. Metcalf
Camp Chairman — Mrs. Roswell Harding
Camp craft consultant — Mrs. Francis Parsons
Craft instructors — Mrs. Vivien White and Miss Patsy Willing Song Director (Part time) — Mrs. John Ryan
Cabin Hostesses — Mrs. Arthur Pratt and Mrs. Shepard Pond
Errands — Mrs. Ernest Parker and Mrs. Arvid Monsen

Camp Joy opened its second week on June 25 with a total registration of 219.

The Audubon Covered Wagon spent the day with us today. We learned all about the raccoon, the great horned owl, the woodchuck, and even held four snakes. (If we wanted to). Then we all gathered in the Great Hall for movies on wild life. After this Mr. Wood and Mr. Whitmore from the Audubon Society took a few from each unit on a wonderful nature walk.

The Caravan actually carried all these animals in cages so we could watch them eat and sleep.

Watch the Star next week for our next adventures!

4-H CLUB

The 4th meeting of the 4-H Club was held on June 22, 1951. President Richard Foster opened the meeting and the secretary Dorothy Pratt took attendance, two members were absent. We voted on a name for the Club, 80% were for the name Aberjona Aggies, therefore this is the name of the club. We then visited some of the gardens, the best crop in each garden was as follows:

Dick Foster: Onion
Dick Bingham: Watermelon
Dorothy Pratt: Rhubarb
David and Peter Gowing: Tomatoes

The meeting was closed as it was voted to hold the next meeting August 3.

Miss Dorothy E. Brandt of 5 Thornton road, has been awarded a scholarship by Boston University. A graduate of Winchester High School, she will enter the B. U. College of Music in September.

MEMBER-GUEST TOURNEY WON BY GEARY-MARTIN

Cal Geary, club champion at Concord, paired with Ed Martin, home club standout, to win the annual Member-Guest golf tournament at the Winchester Country Club last Sunday, defeating Franklin T. Pfaelzer, Jr., of The Country Club and Rod Bullen of Winchester, 3 and 2.

Geary and Martin tied with Joe Batchelder of Salem and Dave Shean, Jr., for medal honors on last Friday, but Batchelder and Shean failed to survive the semi-finals Sunday, going down before the Pfaelzer-Bullen combine in that round, after a tense struggle, 1 up.

Last year's member-guest winners, Joe Keirce of Concord and "Little Joe" Monahan, were eliminated in the semi-finals by the ultimate winners, Geary and Martin, 2 and 1.

After halving the first five holes of the championship match the Geary-Martin team won the sixth, ninth and 10th holes, holding this three-hole advantage as the 10th when the match terminated. Bullen and Martin swapped birdie fours at the 12th and 13th holes, and Geary made two spectacular shots, chipping in for a birdie to equal Pfaelzer's three at the first and then driving to within five inches of the cup from the tee on the short ninth.

Geary and Martin had a big advantage in age over their opponents, the combined ages of Bullen and Pfaelzer being 98 years.

Following are the summaries:

JUNIOR LEGION UPSET LOWELL

The Winchester Junior Legion played their best ball of the season to upset the previously undefeated Lowell Junior Legion nine by a score of 5 - 1 at Manchester Field last Friday night. The locals were sharp in all departments as they fielded expertly, came up with timely hitting, and ran the bases smartly. Charlie Murphy pitched superb ball as he gave up only four hits, two of which came in the last inning for Lowell's only tally, struck out eight batters, and granted three bases on balls. It was a top rate pitching performance against a good team, comparable to his excellent performance against Woburn High.

Winchester scored once in the first inning as Griffin opened with a base on balls, stole second, and rode home on a sharp single to left by Murphy. The locals added two more in the third when DiIorio opened with a single to center, Serieka drew a base on balls, Keyes sacrificed expertly, and McLaughlin drilled a single to center to drive in a pair of runs. The final two runs were scored in the sixth when McLaughlin singled to center to open the frame, MacKenzie sacrificed, Griffin doubled to left for one run, moved to third on an infield out, and scored on a wild pitch. Charlie McLaughlin had a great night with three solid singles in three trips to the plate while Jim Griffin connected for a double and a single in three official times at bat.

SYMMES STAR OF JUNIOR LEGION WIN

Behind the brilliant pitching of Stowell Symmes the Winchester Junior Legion defeated the Malden Junior Legion 6 - 1 at Manchester Field on Sunday afternoon. Symme's bid for a no-hit triumph was spoiled with one out in the ninth when Fucci slashed a clean single through the middle. Symmes struck out nine Malden batters while passing only three. So effective was his pitching and the excellent support he received that he faced only 30 Malden batters in nine innings in a ball game that took only an hour and three-quarters to complete.

Prep Keyes was the batting star of the afternoon with three hits in four trips to the plate. Charlie McLaughlin continued his batting streak with two hits in three official turns at bat while John DiIorio and "Jocko" Serieka also contributed two hits apiece to the Winchester attack. Ron MacKenzie turned in another sparkling performance at third base as he had five assists, two of which were tough.

JUNIOR LEGION PLAYS TO-NIGHT

The regular Friday night game for the Winchester Junior Legion will be staged tonight at Manchester Field with the Medford Junior Legion nine as the attraction. Medford has a record of two victories and three defeats in Legion League competition and will be out to climb at the expense of the locals. Since their victories over Lowell and Malden, however, Coach Bartlett's charges are in the thick of the fight for first place and are hungry for a win over the visitors. Stowell Symmes will twirl this one for Winchester as he attempts to duplicate his great performance of last Sunday when he pitched a one-hitter.

This is the only home engagement of the week for the locals as they travel to Lowell on Sunday and play at Stoneham on Monday in a non-league contest. The attraction next Friday night will be the Lexington Boys' Club nine, composed of many of this past season's Lexington High performers.

WALSH CRIMSON BASEBALL CAPTAIN

A former Winchester High School all-around athlete, Charles "Sarto" Walsh, has been elected captain of the Harvard Baseball Team for the season of 1952.

Walsh has played varsity ball for two years at Harvard, following a regular assignment as catcher on his freshman team. As a sophomore he played the outfield with a veteran backstop available, but this year he has been regularly behind the bat and has given a good account of himself both in the field and at the plate.

In high school "Sarto" was regular quarterback on the football team for two seasons, captaining the 1941 team which many believe the best team the high school has fielded in recent years, if not for all time. He also played second base and catcher on the baseball team and was a member of the hockey team.

After high school "Sarto" went to Choate School in Connecticut, from where he entered the service. He was earmarked for Yale after the war, but decided on Harvard, and played varsity football as a sophomore, injuries hampering what gave promise of being a fine career on the gridiron.

He comes by his baseball ability naturally, his father, known far and wide as "Tweet" Walsh, having been a star second baseman at Holy Cross and later playing top flight minor league ball before entering business.

NAMED TO WCOP ALL-SCHOLASTIC BASEBALL, TENNIS TEAMS

Len Masters, high school sports reporter on WCOP, named two Winchester athletes to All-Scholastic teams on the "Pepsi-Cola Schoolboy Sports Parade" broadcast at 6:45 p. m. over WCOP last Saturday.

Langdon Smith, of Winchester High School, was elected to the WCOP All-Scholastic Tennis team, and John DiIorio, of the Winchester High School baseball team, was named to the All-Scholastic Baseball Team for his outstanding performance as third baseman during the past sports season.

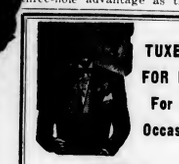

In addition to the radio salute, both athletes will receive All-Scholastic Certificates of Merit for "outstanding sports ability and sportsmanship."

Byron Wiswell sailed his "Goose" to another win in the U. S. One-Design Class competition at Marblehead last Saturday, winning a close race from the Iris and Morning Star and distancing the other ten starters. The race was sailed in light airs and showers.

MUST GET WORKING CERTIFICATES

The office of the Superintendent of Schools, 84 Washington street, Winchester, will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. from Monday through Friday.

Working Certificates for all minors will be issued by this office on these dates and hours. The State law requires all employers to grant time off for all employees to procure these certificates, if the employee cannot get to this office before the time of employment. The State law furthermore, requires the employee to appear in person at this office for the necessary certificate.

How many parents are availing themselves of the opportunity to have their youngsters attend the town playgrounds regularly and get the benefit of supervised sport, game and craft programs. The town spends a lot of money on its playground setup and the more the playgrounds are used, the better this setup will be. With motor traffic at an all time high, streets are emphatically no place for children to play and more peaceful neighborhood conditions can easily be fostered by having the kiddies vent their propensity for baseball and their need to race and run on open fields maintained for that purpose rather than on private property. Many parents fear to send smaller children to the playgrounds by themselves, but surely some system of turn-about adult escort can be worked out. The playgrounds are for the use of all the children. A lot more ought to be availing themselves of their facilities.

ATTENTION

Editor of the Star:

"There were 90,000 more motor vehicles registered in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts on June 1 this year than on the same date in 1950, and 80,000 additional licensed operators. This will mean the heaviest highway traffic yet experienced in our Commonwealth, and every motorist and pedestrian is expected to drive and walk in keeping with the anticipated conditions of this holiday period.

"Approximately 7,000 enforcement officers will be engaged in this enforcement program to regulate and control traffic over this holiday period. Particular attention will be directed to the control of unreasonable speed, cutting out of line and passing where the view is obstructed, and recklessness in any form. Any driver found operating a motor vehicle after drinking will be removed from behind the wheel and all violators will be penalized.

"Our highways must be safe for everyone to use and we urge the complete co-operation of all motorists and pedestrians. Parents should protect their children from highway accidents. Enforcement officers are giving up their holiday to protect motorists and pedestrians and they are entitled to complete support by every citizen of the Commonwealth. Your co-operation may save your own life.

"A vacation traffic accident can throw you for a loss — financially, physically.
Don't let a wreck ruin a good vacation record!
Heed all traffic signs and pavement markings.
Drive a mechanically safe vehicle (both car — and trailer).
Always drive at a safe speed — a speed geared to weather, road and traffic conditions.
Avoid fatigue. Make frequent off — the — road rest stops.
Never drive after drinking."

Charles J. Harrold
Chief of Police

THANKS FROM MURPHY ARMY HOSPITAL

Editor of the Star:

May I take this opportunity to thank all those who contributed to the television set for the Murphy Army Hospital, and also the Winchester Savings Bank for handling the funds. The following letter from Col. Stapleton should bring a feeling of satisfaction to those who were good enough to cooperate: —

"Dear Mrs. Toye: —

Please accept my gratitude for the splendid donation of $345.00 made to the patients by the 'Winchester friends' of Murphy Army Hospital for the purpose of procuring a television set for the use of patients confined to private rooms.

Television has had a most receptive audience and has been an excellent means of alleviating the ennui connected with long periods of hospitalization. In particular, bed patients receive considerable entertainment and enjoyment from television as they cannot take advantage of normal channels of recreation.

Thank you for your kind consideration of the needs of the patients."

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) James B. Stapleton
Col. MC
Commanding

I especially with to thank "Mrs. Anonymous" for her most generous contribution of $100.00. There are some very kind people in the world.

Cordially yours,
G. Toye

HIGH SCHOOL ART

Editor of the Star:

Something nice has just taken place in Winchester that reflects a tremendous advancement in high school art education.

I would like to convey my impression of the recent student art exhibit at the Winchester Library. Early this Spring, two seniors arranged for an interview and presented about the most outstanding high school art work I had seen for some time. It was then I decided to see the final exhibit at the close of the school year so that I might have an overall picture of what was being done in the high school art department.

The exhibit was a delightful surprise. I liked the freedom of expression and manner in which the students have been trained to visualize and record pictorial compositions in line and color. A nice feeling of design and an abundance of good draughtsmanship and knowledge of perspective was very much in evidence. It was a splendid example of perfect co-ordination of mind and hand. As a matter of fact, I saw about six drawings I would be proud to have in my private collection.

Some marvelous new techniques are being brought forth almost daily by embryo artists still in high school and the Winchester High School Art Department can well be considered a leader in that direction.

It takes a person with an avenue of approach and judgment based upon psychology plus ingenuity and a well developed creative mind to enthuse and inspire teen-agers today. It is very evident that the Winchester High School has just such a person in Miss Goodrich. Although I have seen Miss Goodrich twice in ten years, I have had numerous opportunities to formulate my personal opinion.

I have found that pupils who have been under her guidance possess an excellent appreciation of art and a willingness to follow direction. Several from the class of 1951 are giving this school the opportunity to prepare them to enter the professional field of their choice.

I think you will agree that a few kind words are always welcome and with that thought in mind I felt you might appreciate these few line about the recent art exhibit.

Bertram C. Hargraves, President

FIREWORKS PROHIBITED!

Editor of the Star:

Will you kindly print the following notice in your next edition of the Star.

I would like to warn the residents of town that the sale, keeping or use of fireworks is prohibited by State Law (G. L. 148, Sec 39). Paper caps containing only twenty-five hundredths grains or less of explosive for use in toy pistols, guns or canes, or similar devices are the only types of fireworks permitted. Violations of the above law will be prosecuted.

THANKS FROM FLAG DAY COMMITTEE

Editor of the Star:

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation to the Police Department, School Department, Park Department and Winchester Appliance Company for the co-operation and assistance in connection with the Elks Flag Day Exercises, and to all others who helped in any way to make the exercises a success.

Community spirit of this kind is what makes America Great.

Esteemed Loyal Knight

AN APPRECIATION

The current exhibition of the work of the seven outstanding senior pupils of the Winchester High School art classes closed this week. This exhibit has received much favorable comment from the unusually large number of visitors. These young artists deserve great credit for their originality, execution and their fresh and vigorous color.

This success could be achieved only as the result of the excellent teaching which they have received in our Winchester High School. Few high schools even in larger communities could show exhibitions comparable to this.

CORRECTION

Through an error in copying the list of those attending the 25th Reunion of the Winchester High School Class of 1926 on June 26 the name of Louise Stinson Fish was omitted from the account of the reunion published in last week's Star. Mrs. Fish, a member of the class was on the list given the Star by the reunion committee secretary, Ella Howlett Knowlton and her omission from the published list was due to an error in this office. We are sorry!

SWANSON — CUSACK

Miss Harriet Anne Cusack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Cusack of 28 Rangely road, became the bride of Robert Lindsey Swanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin S. Swanson of 47 Cambridge street, on Saturday afternoon, June 23, at the Harvard Chapel in Cambridge. White roses, gladiolas and ferns made an attractive setting for the 4 o'clock ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Walter Lee Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Miss Cusack was given in marriage by her father. She wore a princess-style, off-the-shoulder gown of silk Chantilly lace over satin with long sleeves and a very long train. Her long veil of silk illusion was paneled with Spanish lace and arranged with a self cap, and her cascade bouquet combined Eucharis lilies and stephanotis.

Miss Sheila M. Campbell of East Orange, N. J., was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Julie G. Farnham of Syracuse, N. Y.; Miss Marcia Lindquist of Tarentum, Penn.; Miss Mona Williams of Fanwood, N. J.; and Miss Carolyn Ledyard of Ogdensburg, N. Y.

The honor maid wore a ballerina-length dress of chenille-encrusted larkspur-blue net. Her matching nose veil was caught with delphiniums and she carried a shaded bouquet of the same flowers.

The bridesmaids wore identical dresses like that of the honor maid. Their matching nose veils were caught with veil flowers and rhinestones and their cascade bouquets were of yellow daisies.

Richard W. Swanson of Winchester was best man for his brother and the ushers were Ralph Swanson, brother of the bridegroom; Eugene Groden, Galen Vincent, John Patterson and John West, all of Winchester.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Winchester Country Club, the parents of both the bride and bridegroom assisting in receiving. Mrs. Cusack, mother of the bride, was gowned in mauve chiffon and matching lace. She wore a large natural straw hat trimmed with mauve and royal purple and carried orchids pinned to her handbag. Mrs. Swanson, mother of the bridegroom, wore a corsage of orchids with her beige lace and chiffon gown and small flowered hat.

After a wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Swanson will live at 40 Inman street in Cambridge where they will be at home after August 1.

The bride is a graduate of Kent Place School, Summit, N. J., and of Wells College, Aurora, N. Y. Mr. Swanson graduated from Winchester High School and from Harvard University. He is a chemist associated with Frank Bownes, manufacturer of Modene Paints.

TO MAINTAIN HIGHER LEVEL AT AT MYSTIC LAKE

The Waterways Improvement Committee, created to clean up and improve the town's waterways, has received many appeals from residents of Winchester concerned with the lowering level of the Mystic Lakes during the dry summer season.

Although not a part of its job, the Committee has gone into the matter with the Metropolitan District Commission, having control over the lakes, with the result that the Commission has agreed not to let the lake fall below a level of 15 feet 4 inches above sea level. The height will be checked at the wooden building on the Parkway side of the dam separating the upper and lower lakes, long the headquarters of the iceboat fleet.

Chairman James F. Dwinell, Jr., of the Waterways Committee told the Star this week that the M. D. C. has also agreed to the Committee's suggestion that extra water be permitted to accumulate in the Lakes during the rainy season, so that the level might reach a height of 15 feet 7 inches, providing insurance water for long dry spells An extra flash-board has been inserted in the dam for this purpose.

It has been found that in New England as much as 24 inches is lost by lakes through evaporation during dry periods, so that it is necessary to store up water surplus to provide against such depletion.

ELKS OBSERVED FLAG DAY

Colorful Outdoor Exercises Held

Winchester Lodge of Elks held its 29th Flag Day observance at Manchester Field last Thursday evening, a gathering of about 2500 attending the exercises which had been postponed for a week because of rain. It was the second out-of-doors observance for the local lodge and one of the most successful yet held.

The Program opened with a parade, which formed at the rear of the Town Hall at 7 o'clock. Led by the officers and members of Winchester Lodge, 1445, B. P. O. E., with the Lodge Colors, the roster included the Woburn City Band, led by Woburn High School Drum-majorettes; Winchester Post, American Legion, and Colors; Aberjona Post, VFW, and Colors; Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, Winchester Council, Knights of Columbus, and Colors; Immaculate Conception Drum and Bugle Corps and Colors, Immaculate Conception Drill Team, Catholic Daughters of America and a detachment of Boy Scouts. Nine members of the VFW Auxiliary carried the nine flags, showing the development of the United States Colors and used by the Elks in their Flag Day ritual.

Many lined the sidewalks to watch the parade pass through the center to Manchester Field where Carl Thomas, chairman of the Elks Flag Day Committee, welcomed the gathering and distinguished guests and introduced Newell Purington, Exalted Ruler of Winchester Lodge, who presided.

The program was opened by the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the Woburn City Band, conducted by Edson Kimball, after which the Immaculate Conception Bugle and Drum Corps and Drill Team gave exhibitions of playing and marching. Both are championship outfits and gave very finished performances which were loudly applauded.

Past District Deputy James E. Kelliher, P. E. R. of Medford Lodge, gave the History of the Flag, weaving into his address the part the Colors have played in many past battles. The principal speaker was Judge John E. Fenton, past exalted ruler of Lawrence Lodge and past district deputy grand exalted ruler, who delivered an inspiring patriotic address built about the Nation's Flag.

Midway through the program the Woburn Band played "Auld Lang Syne" and at the conclusion of the program, the selection, "America."

Officers of Winchester Lodge exemplified the Elks Flag Day Ritual which was brought to a close with the ringing of a floral bell, representing the famous Liberty Bell of history.

The observance of Flag Day is obligatory in the Elks Order, this year representing the 41th annual observance.

Assisting Mr. Thomas with arrangements for the local observance were Joseph Peel, Michael Penta and Thomas Murphy.

SELECTMEN'S NOTES

The attention of the public is called to Article III of the General By-Laws of the Town of Winchester concerning inoculation of dogs.

The Selectmen have instructed the Chief of Police to strictly enforce sections 10a and 10b which read as follows:

10a. No dog shall be permitted to run at large in the town at any time unless it shall have been vaccinated against rabies within the preceding twelve months and evidence thereof shall have been filed in the office of the Police Department.

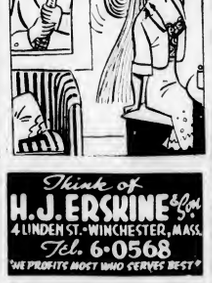

10b. Any owner or keeper of a dog who violates the provision of section 10a shall be subject to a fine of not more than ten dollars ($10) for each offense.

LOST AND FOUND AT THE LIBRARY

If you have lost a boy's brown corduroy jacket, there is one waiting to be claimed. To do this call at the main desk in the Public Library and identify your ownership of the jacket. If you can tell us where the jacket was purchased that will be a good way to identify it.

Yesterday, someone left a blue and pink plaid shirt in the library. Think carefully. Did you lose it?

PLAYGROUND NOTES

The Playground League baseball schedules opened this week with each playground fielding three teams apiece corresponding to the elementary school ages, junior high school ages, and the senior high school group. The only team to win both of its games was the Leonard Field Seniors who appear to have the strongest pitching staff in Norman Delorey, Ralph Kerrigan, and "Moose" Bellino.

The best game of the week was the 3-1 victory of the Leonard Field Seniors in which Ralph Kerrigan bested John Bushell in a well-pitched game. The West Side Juniors and the West Side Intermediates dropped two one-run ball games in which the game was won in the top of the seventh and then saved in the last of the seventh. The West Side Juniors bounced back from this hard-to-take defeat to beat Leonard Field 11 - 5 behind the steady pitching of Bobby Gray.

The arts and crafts program continues to receive an enthusiastic response from the youngsters. Because of the popularity of the work in twisted crepe paper, this project was continued through this week and many of the youngsters are becoming quite adept at this work. Introduced as the special project of this week was the making of lanyards, bracelets, and lapel pins from bright-colored, plastic gimp. This project was so well received that it will be carried forward to next week so many youngsters want to make more articles from gimp. The old standby project, the making of pot holders, was continued and it is amazing how many of these the children turn out in a week.

A total of 65 more children were registered on the three playgrounds this week which brings the total registration to 355. This is especially good as the Loring Avenue Playground is not in operation this summer and that field usually has the largest registration. Many of the youngsters from that section, however, are regularly attending other playgrounds because of their interest in the baseball and softball leagues and the arts and crafts program.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST, WINCHESTER

Sunday Services at 11 a. m.
Sunday School is held at the same hour as the church service.
Wednesday testimonial meeting 8 p. m.
Reading room, 5 Winchester Terrace (off Thompson Street). Open daily except Sundays and holidays from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The Science by which the inspiring rules of Christianity can be successfully applied in daily life will be dealt with in Christian Science services next Sunday. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Christian Science."
The Golden Text is from Habakkuk: "The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea." (2:14).
Readings from the Bible (King James Version) will include this promise: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." (John 14:12).
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine metaphysics is now reduced to a system, to a form comprehensible to and adapted to the thought of the age in which we live. This form enables the learner to demonstrate the divine Principle, upon which Jesus' healing was based, and the sacred rules for its present application to the cure of disease." (119:31).

TWO SERVICES EACH SUNDAY, SECOND CHURCH

Some of the cries of Protestants these days are: "I'd go to church if you had an early service. I go away on Sunday mornings in summer, or else I play golf." Mothers say, "I'd go to church, but it comes just when Baby has to be fed and put to bed." Still others say, "It is so hot to go to church in the summer. I'd go to church if there were an early service."

Well, at least two weeks this summer there will be early services. On July 1 and 8 there will be two services each Sunday at the Second Congregational Church. One, an abbreviated service, will be held at eight o'clock. This service is for people who, for one reason or another, cannot attend the later service. The service at 10:45 will be a regular service with choir and soloists. The message will be the same at each service.

This is an experiment. If people show an interest in the early services at Second Church, at least two other ministers in town have said they would hold early services, also.

Dick Bane of Glengarry, former Tufts weight-throwing star, placed third in the 16-pound hammer event at the annual American AAU Track Championships at Berkeley, Cal., last Saturday, finishing behind Sam Felton, former Harvard star, and Henry Dreyer, ex-R. I. State. All three represented the New York A. C. Felton's winning toss was 184 ft. 2¾ in. Bane got the ball out 170 ft. 8½ in. He is the record-holder for the 36 pound weight event.

FRITCH — BIGELOW

The altar of Ripley Chapel of the First Congregational Church was decorated with white snapdragons, carnations, and ferns on Saturday, June 23, when Miss Nancy Glover Bigelow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Glover Bigelow of 18 Mount Pleasant street, became the bride of Donald Jerrold Fritch, son of Mrs. Marion Davis Fritch of 20 Mount Pleasant street and Brigadier General Donald Fowler Fritch, U. S. Air Forces Retired, of Virginia Beach, Virginia.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Howard J. Chidley at twelve noon, and the reception followed in the Parish House.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace and marquisette with a hoop skirt and rounded train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a cloche cap of chantilly lace over white taffeta. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and variegated ivy.

Miss Lois Powers Bigelow, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were Miss Jacqueline Fritch, sister of the bridegroom of Winchester; Miss Shirley Anne Boudreau of North Easton, Miss Lillian Stott of Washington, D. C.; and Miss Ruth Bunten of Winchester. They wore heavenly blue marquisette gowns with wide satin cummerbunds and tiny matching capes. They carried colonial bouquets identical to that of the maid of honor.

Mrs. Bigelow, mother of the bride, chose a gown of ashes of roses crepe with matching elbow length gloves and a hat trimmed with deep blue delphinium. Mrs. Fritch, mother of the bridegroom, was gowned in blue lace with matching hat and gloves. Her corsage was of cardinal roses.

Robert Ramsdell of Winchester acted as best man for Mr. Fritch. The ushers were Richard Spencer of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Charles Whitney of Arlington, Paul Osborn of Rochester, New York, all fraternity brothers of the bridegroom; and Frank Cole of Syracuse, New York.

Miss Marion Horwood of Winchester, a sorority sister of the bride, was the organist. Leon Fernandez of Winchester decorated at both the chapel and the reception.

Mrs. Fritch attended Boston University, College of Liberal Arts, where she was a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. She was graduated from the School of Publications at Simmons College on June 13.

Mr. Fritch, who was graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology in the Class of 1950, is a member of Phi Beta Epsilon fraternity. He is employed as an electrical engineer by the Calidyne Company in Winchester.

After a wedding trip to Nantucket Island, Mr. and Mrs. Fritch will live at 22 Marathon street in Arlington.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. H. Coleman Bigelow of Charlottesville, Virginia, uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Hanbury of New York City, Miss H. Patricia Lynch of Miami Beach, Florida, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Richardson of Willimantic, Connecticut, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; and Commander and Mrs. Carl F. Fritch, Junior, cousins of the bridegroom.

COON — SNYDER

In the garden of Bar U Ranch, her parents' home in Washtucna, Washington, Miss Stephanie Thoma Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Waldo Snyder, was married on Saturday afternoon, June 2, to Richard Arthur Coon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hathaway Coon of Brooks street. The Rev. Willard B. Hall, pastor of the Congregational Church of Newport, Washington, officiated at the 4 o'clock double-ring ceremony, and the bridal music was played on a Hammond organ by Arthur Biggs of Spokane.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Snyder wore a white silk marquisette gown having a yoke and panels of Meehlin-type lace, and fashioned with a high neck, long pointed sleeves and a court train. Her long hand-made veil of illusion and Meehlin lace had been worn by her sister, Mrs. Wallace T. Cleveland, at her wedding, and was caught to a coronet of illusion and stephanotis. Her flowers were stephanotis and white rosebuds.

Miss Ann Burgett Snyder of Washtucna, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Miss Emily Cornelia Reid, small niece of the bride, was flower girl. Bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte Hall of Newport, Wash., Miss Gladys Awai of Honolulu, T. H.; and Miss Barbara Martin of Kapoho, T. H.

The honor maid wore an embroidered organdy dress in a shade of rosy orchid, with a crownless garden hat of matching organdy and horsehair. Her bouquet was of pale rose carnations, and the bridesmaids carried the same flowers combined with carnations of a deeper shade of rose. Their dresses were embroidered organdy of a pale green shade and they wore matching garden hats like that of the honor maid.

The flower girl wore a delicate pink embroidered organdy frock with a crown of pink carnations and carried flower petals in a tiny straw hat.

Mr. Coon had his father as best man, and the usher corps included David B. Coon, son of Winchester, brother of the bridegroom; and Ralph William Snyder of Hilltop Farm, Washtucna, brother of the bride.

Ringbearers were Johnny Cleveland of Portland, Ore., and Joseph Richard Snyder of Washtucna, nephews of the bride; and two more nephews of the bride, Ralph William Snyder, Jr., of Washtucna and George William Reid of Beaverton, were in the bridal party, carrying white satin kneeling-cushions.

A reception was held after the ceremony on the lawn of the ranch, with Mrs. Sanford H. Moses of Winchester substituting for the bridegroom's mother in the receiving line. A supper of pit-barbecued beef was served on the terrace to 350 guests.

After a wedding journey to a forest lodge on Priest Lake in Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Coon will make their home at Bar U Ranch in Washtucna.

The bride studied art at the University of Hawaii and at Whitman College at Walla Walla, Washington, where she was social chairman of the independent women's group.

Mr. Coon was president of the independent men's group at Whitman, from which he was graduated in June with a degree in Economics and Business Administration. He previously attended Harvard and during World War II served in the European Theatre as a lieutenant in the Army.

SARGENT — HULL

There is Winchester interest in the marriage which took place in Youngstown, Ohio, on Saturday afternoon, June 23, when Miss Anne Hull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Hull of 273 Crandall avenue, Youngstown, Ohio, became the bride of David Burroughs Sargent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon F. Sargent of 8 Central street. The ceremony was performed at 3:30 o'clock by the Rev. Russell J. Humbert, D. D., pastor of Trinity Methodist Church in Youngstown, and a reception followed at the Youngstown Club.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Hull wore a gown of white marquisette and Chantilly lace, the bouffant skirt extending into a chapel train. Her tulle veil had been worn by the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Donald Smith of Kennebunk, Me., and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and white roses centered with white orchids.

Mrs. Paul Joy of Monrovia, Cal., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the maid of honor was Miss Betsy Sargent of Winchester, sister of the bridegroom. Also in the bridal party were two small cousins of the bride, Miss Edith Ordway Clifford of New York City and Miss Susan Leslie of Rowayton, Conn., who were flower girls.

The honor attendants were gowned alike in full-skirted dresses of aqua tissue taffeta with marquisette yokes. Their cap bonnets matched their gowns and they carried cascade bouquets of pink roses, carnations and babies breath.

The flower girls, wearing white organdy frocks, carried small nosegays of sweetheart roses and babies breath tied with aqua ribbons.

John King Sargent was best man for his brother and the usher corps included Paul Joy of Monrovia, Cal., brother-in-law of the bride; and four college classmates of the bridegroom, William Fraser of Hartford, Conn.; Richard Austin of Birmingham, Mich.; William Birkenmeier of Maplewood, N. J.; and Charles Eccles of Mendham, N. J.

The bride is a graduate of Colby Junior College. Mr. Sargent graduated from Winchester High School and was graduated this June from Dartmouth College where he was a member of the Chi Phi fraternity.

Wesley B. Swanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Swanson of 3 Marshall road, is a member of the seventy-second graduating class at Burdett College in Boston. Mr. Swanson has completed the Business Administration course.

FAY - MOORE NUPTIALS

Candles and white flowers marked the pews in the Crawford Memorial Methodist Church Friday evening, June 22, for the wedding of Miss Martha Marie Fay and Mr. Herbert Bell Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kingsley Moore of Winchester. The eight o'clock ceremony was performed by the Reverend John Snook, Jr., and a reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cecil Fay of Winchester.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory skinner satin with an illusion neckline, a Chantilly lace over satin bodice, and lace sleeves. There were two lace panels down the front of the skirt and one in back which extended into a full train. A Quaker bonnet of matching lace held her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion in place, and she carried a semi-cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Her sister, Mrs. Rosanna Jury of Winchester, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles F. Doe, (Shirley Bonnell) of Cambridge, Mrs. Richard F. King, (Mary Jean Browning) of Urbana, Illinois, Miss Mary Seaton of Winchester, and Miss Nan Stoffregan of Lexington. Sandra Curtis of Winchester was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns of white frosted organdy had small buttons and a belt of white satin. They carried cascades of red roses and ivy leaves.

Mr. L. Kingsley Moore of Winchester was his brother's best man, and the ushers were Mr. John D. Moore of Winchester, another brother, Mr. Richard F. Fenno, Jr. of Cambridge, Mr. R. Gordon McGovern of Elizabeth, N. J.; and Mr. Donald S. Lord of Pittsfield.

The bride's mother was gowned in coral tucked crepe with stole effect and wore a corsage of split carnations and stephanotis. The groom's mother wore a champagne lace and chiffon dress with a white corsage of delphinium and ivy.

Nearly 200 guests enjoyed the beautiful setting of the outdoor reception. A large marquee in the garden at the foot of the hill was very effective. The refreshment table, the punch table, and the wedding-cake table were all beautifully lighted. A three-piece orchestra played during the reception. Mr. and Mrs. William Platzoeder of Winchester were in charge of the guest book.

The bride's going-away costume was a navy and white checked suit with matching accessories.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: Mrs. Vernon Fay and son, Conner, of Indianapolis, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Fay of Miami, Florida; Mrs. Marie Butler of Bethany, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Bowie of Jonesboro, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Chester B. Koontz of Tenafly, New Jersey; Mrs. Herbert M. Bell and Mrs. Ella B. Ransom of Sea Cliff, Long Island, New York; Mrs. Ellen B. Rikel of Brooklyn, New York; and Mr. and Mrs. Wendall S. Moore of Roslyn, Long Island, New York.

The bride attended Beaver College, Jenkintown, Penn. and was graduated in 1950 from Boston University. The bridegroom was graduated in 1947 from Bowdoin College and is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. He is a teacher at the Belmont Hill School. After a wedding trip to Lake Winnepesaukee, they will live in Belmont.

PRISLEY — BOYD

Mrs. Edward F. Boyd and Mr. Leonard C. Prisley were married at the Church of the Epiphany on the morning of Wednesday, June the 27th. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dwight Hadley. Only members of the immediate families were present, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gammons of Wallingford, Conn., son-in-law and daughter of Mr. Prisley, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Hall, son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Prisley, and her two granddaughters, Martha and Pam Hall.

WINCHESTER HOSPITAL NOTES

The summer season is welcomed by hospital employees, as it is by most other people, as a time to have a vacation from their daily routines and when recreation activities are stepped up. The vacation program is now in full swing at the Hospital. Those employees who are not already on vacation are in the process of making plans for their coming time off. There is an air of excited anticipation among the personnel who very much deserve a change from their task of caring for the sick.

Social activities for the Hospital personnel got off to a good start this past week with a tea given by Mrs. Bruce W. Young and held at the home of Mrs. Ben R. Schneider. Approximately fifteen nurses and technicians attended. This is one in a series of social programs sponsored by the Friends of the Winchester Hospital to bring together the employees of the Hospital and members of the community.

On Tuesday, June 19th, the nurses of the Obstetrical Department held a clambake at Wingaersheek Beach. The statistics of the party indicate that each nurse consumed two lobsters. Figures on the clam consumption are not available. It is reported that the party was most enjoyable and well worth the effort.

The following new employees are welcomed to the Staff of the Hospital: - Mrs. Katherine Sullivan, night switchboard operator. Miss Joan Kelliher, student X-ray technician. Mr. Felix Russo, cook. Miss Martha Crockett, office.

Independence Day

"And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the Protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor."

The concluding words of the Declaration of Independence remind us of the debt we owe to those who established our rights as an independent nation. Let us renew their pledge, remembering that our freedom is a heritage which must be defended by each generation.

This bank will not be open July 4, a legal holiday.

MARRIED SATURDAY

At a 2 o'clock ceremony in Saint Mary's Church, Winchester, on Saturday, June 23rd, Miss Ruth Loretta Loftus, daughter of Mrs. Arthur William Loftus and the late Mr. Loftus of Rangely, became the bride of Lt. William Warren Tunnicliffe, USNR, son of Mrs. Homer W. Tunnicliffe and the late Mr. Tunnicliffe, of Athol, Massachusetts. The wedding ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. Reverend John P. O'Riordan. Reverend Cornelius Hogan, a former curate of the parish, was present in the sanctuary. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother in Rangely.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. Charles F. Smith of New York City, wore a gown of white, satin-trimmed marquisette and an heirloom veil of rosepoint lace belonging to her mother's bridesmaid. She carried a bridal bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Loftus was attended by her sister, Mrs. Philip C. Putnam of Hudson, N. H., who acted as Matron of Honor, and by the following bridesmaids: Miss Mary Virginia Loftus, of Winchester, sister of the bride; Mrs. Harold Crowther of Cheverly, Maryland; Mrs. Jack Streeter of Mineola, New York; and Miss Rose Thomas of Boston. The Matron of Honor wore frosted white organdy over orchid taffeta and carried a bouquet of marguerites, green ivy and baby's breath. The four bridesmaids wore identical gowns over fern green taffeta and carried similar bouquets. The five attendants of the bride wore picture frame hats of white net trimmed to match the gowns.

Mr. Sherman B. Campbell of Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania, acted as best man for Lt. Tunnicliffe, and the ushers were Philip C. Putnam, brother-in-law of the bride; Jerome D. Greene of New Rochelle, New York; Arthur Bergstrom of Arlington, Massachusetts; and Robert Dillon of Malden, Massachusetts.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Loftus wore a pearl gray gown of silk and net, with a lavender flowered, veiled toque. Mrs. Tunnicliffe, mother of the groom, wore aqua crepe with black velvet hat and gloves. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

The wedding music was provided by Miss Callahan, organist at Saint Mary's Church, and Schubert's "Ave Maria" was sung immediately before the ceremony by Philip C. Putnam.

The bride is a graduate of Lesley College, and Boston University. Mr. Tunnicliffe is a graduate of Worcester Polytechnic Institute, and received his M. A. from the Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences. He is a member of Sigma Xi, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternities. He is at present stationed in Saint Paul, Minnesota where the couple will live, after an extended wedding trip through New England and the Canadian Provinces.

CLASS OF 1901 CELEBRATES ITS 50TH

Neither unfavorable weather nor the passing of many years prevented the members of the class of 1901 of the Winchester High School from enjoying to the fullest extent the celebration of their 50th anniversary at the Winchester Country Club on Saturday evening June 23rd.

Nine members of the class and seven guests sat down to dinner after an informal hour during which the members identified themselves as 25 years had elapsed since the last reunion and some changes in personal appearance had come about. The guests were introduced and by the time dinner was served a very congenial and happy group was assembled.

The table was attractively decorated with flowers and place cards in the class colors. A very lovely bouquet of red roses added to the beauty. This was the gift of Mr. Loring Hawes in memory of his sister, Miss Edna F. Hawes; a member of the class.

Conversation during the dinner naturally concerned interesting and amusing events of the past and personal experiences of the intervening years.

After dinner Dr. Arthur N. Holcombe of Harvard acted as toastmaster, presiding in his usual kindly and humorous manner. After a few remarks about Winchester as a very desirable place in which to spend one's youth a minute of silence was observed in memory of the classmates who are no longer with us. Letters were read from Mrs. Jones, formerly Miss Harriman, a science teacher; Henry Kellogg, Ruth Laurence, Dutch and Wyatt Eustis. The Eustis letter was most entertaining and give a very vivid picture of life in Winchester at the turn of the century. Dr. Holcombe then read parts of the president's address written and delivered by Frank Payne in 1901. This was much appreciated especially by the author who came from Chicago to learn his words of wisdom were still preserved. The extracts from the class prophecy, written by A. N. Holcombe and foretelling the future of nine members present caused much amusement. There followed brief informal talks by the guests and members, all unanimous in the opinion that the reunion was a most pleasant experience, renewing old friendships and making new ones. As "Good Nights" were said all expressed the hope that another reunion would be possible in the not too distant future.

Those present were Mr. Edwin L. Abbott, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Allen, Cambridge, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard M. Berry, Clearwater, Florida; Miss Ella M. Emerson, St. Petersburg, Florida; Dr. and Mrs. Arthur N. Holcombe, Cambridge; Dr. and Mrs. Harry S. Parsons, Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Payne, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Perry, Wilmington; and Miss Laura B. Tolman, Winchester.

All regretted the absence of Dr. and Mrs. George A. Lyons of Lynn who had planned to be present.

RED CROSS NEWS

New Swimming Classes start July 2nd at Palmer Beach under the auspices of the Red Cross.

10:30 a. m. Intermediate Classification
11:00 a. m. Non-Swimmers or Beginners.

Kenneth Brandt of 5 Thornton road, was one of a group of nine Burdett College students who recently toured the Nashua River Division Plant of the St. Regis Paper Company in East Pepperell. Brandt is a member of a class in Advertising Production and this field trip to an operating paper mill was part of the College plan to supplement class work with actual practical knowledge.

FOURTH PROMISES FUN FOR KIDDIES

The July 4th celebration in Winchester is going to be something to remember. The theme, as we told you before, is Fire Prevention because it is being stressed so strongly all over the country. July 4th used to signal the outbreak of thousands of fires. Now we celebrate it more sanely and even stress Fire Prevention.

At promptly 1:00 p. m. Winchester children are asked to meet at the Town Hall in costume, any costume, to join the costume parade to Leonard Field. One thousand fire helmets will be distributed among the youngsters before the parade starts, and rumor has it that as the parade forms more than one fire engine of one kind or another will join the line of march. Music will be supplied by a portion of the Immaculate Conception Drum and Bugle Corps. With good weather favoring us, we can anticipate one of the most unique and colorful parades ever seen in Winchester. Beautiful prizes are to be given for the prettiest, funniest, most original and most authentic costumes and these are on display in Rutherford's window, next to P. T. Foley & Co., for inspection before the big day.

When the kids arrive at Leonard Field they'll be treated first to a demonstration by the Winchester Fire Department. Following this will be professional entertainment.

The kids may not believe this until they see it, but the fact is, one of the acts is the Bouncing Bodos, the same act they can see Saturday morning at 10:30 on Channel 7 in the Big Top Show. This is a trampoline acrobatic act that is borrowed from the real circus big top.

Then there is our old friend Hal Rodman, the make-up artist, who can make any youngster look like General Lee or Clark Gable, and does. He also gives plenty of laughs throughout the show.

Another outstanding act is the Shanghai Twins whose contortions and acrobatics have amazed audiences ever since they landed in America.

Forty blueberry pies are ready for forty hungry boy contestants and forty slices of watermelon for forty hungry girls.

Then comes the big costume contest — and wait till the kids see those prizes.

During all this time the fire engine will be giving free rides and there will be free ice-cream for all and there will be the 15 Legion clowns making sure that every youngster has the best July 4th yet.

Don't miss a minute of it kids!

ANOTHER WIN FOR IMMACS

The Girls Drill Team of the Immaculate Conception Church won top honors in the competition last Sunday afternoon at the Stoneham Athletic Field under the auspices of St. Patrick's Bugle and Drum Corps of Stoneham. It was the first time St. Pats has held a competition and both corps and teams were attracted from near and far.

Both the Immaculate Conception Drill Team and Bugle and Drum Corps participated in the maneuvers competition, the girls' rating of 98.1 being exceptional for a high school group.

The Bugle and Drum Corps finished third in maneuvers, but local supporters didn't have to feel unhappy since the competition was open and there were several corps having boys much older on the average than the "Immacs."

The competition took place in intense heat, but this did not seem to affect the young musicians or the girl marchers. The pastor of the Immaculate Conception Parish, Rev. Fr. Herbert K. A. Driscoll, who has been actively interested in both the Bugle and Drum Corps and Drill Team, gave both organizations the benefit of his personal attendance at the competition, forming with the two groups at the rear of St. Patrick's Church and marching to the field with the boys and girls. Father Driscoll's interest has been an inspiration to both groups and meant much last Sunday. Charles Duran led the Bugle and Drum Corps and Mary Welch, the Drill Team at Stoneham.

Both the Bugle and Drum Corps and the Drill Team participated in the Music Festival held under the auspices of the Lynn Daily Item at Manning Bowl on Wednesday evening, June 20, emerging with second prize in maneuvers in their respective classes against the stiffest sort of competition.

The Immacs are rapidly winning a place for themselves among the top bugle and drum corps and drill teams of the district, seldom failing to place in any sort of competition. Winchester is proud of both.

BAY STATE HISTORICAL LEAGUE

Five Winchester people were among the 130 Bay State Historical League members to enjoy the hospitality of the Dukes County Historical Society on Saturday, June 23, beginning with the special busses waiting at the boat at Oak Bluffs for the ride to Edgartown six miles away.

Throughout the town were many old houses with their dates inscribed, and all around were lovely gardens full of unusually large and brilliantly-colored flowers. The most outstanding gardens were at the Harborside Inn, where there were enormous larkspur of every color, some very beautiful single pink roses, fox-glove, iris, etc.

At the old Colonial Congregational Meeting House Mr. Charles Tapley of Danvers presided at the 2 o'clock Annual Meeting, where business was shortened as much as possible in order that those having to leave on the late afternoon boat might see as much as possible. Mr. Nelson Bishop of Reading presented the Dukes County Society with six documents pertaining to the history of the Island, two of which were dated 1776, all having been salvaged from bundles of old papers.

Mr. Gerald Chittenden, President of the Society, welcomed the visitors, and spoke briefly on the importance of studying history and spoke of interesting material to be found in log-books. He gave a short history of Gay Head Light, its first lighthouse being one of the first to be erected, and that this one had been lighted with whale oil lamps and now with kerosene, but within the year the Light would be electrified and run automatically. At that time the Society will acquire the very powerful lens and prisms made in France in 1851.

From one of the "Wing Pews" at the front Judge Brayley told how the Vineyard was discovered and named by Bartholomew Gosnold in 1602, purchased and settled by Thomas Mayhew in 1641-42 and how much missionary work was done among the Indians by later Mayhews. Later the Methodists held camp-meetings in tents and then in little houses at Cottage City (now Oak Bluffs). Edgartown was a very important whaling port and furnished over 200 sea captains for New Bedford boats as well as their own.

Homemade cookies and punch were served in the Society's Headquarters, the Thomas Cooke House, built in 1765 by ship's carpenters, and has the original fireplaces and panelling intact. The west living-from served as a court house and a custom house, and the brick-paved cellar was used for the jail. The house was beautifully furnished and also contained many interesting collections.

In one of the rooms Miss Lucy Adams, 91 years spry, a former member of Tom Thumb's Troupe of Midgets, held a reception and told, in a lively manner, humorous and interesting experiences. She does her own work at her home in Oak Bluffs and even has a Sunday School class.

At the ancient D. A. R. House on Main street were valuable collections of scrimshaw, jewelry, china, embroideries, costumes, original documents, utensils, and even the gate-leg table used by President Grant in his Headquarters during the Civil War.

On Sunday morning there was a 50-mile tour of the Island, with a stop at the harbor of Menesha with nice sandy beaches. More time was spent at Gay Head walking along the trail and marveling at the many colors in the clay, which the Indians there use in making pottery and other souvenirs. Across the cliffs was the famous Gay Head Light, and it was said that a movie "White Cliffs of Dover" was filmed there.

Those from the Winchester Historical Society were Miss Clara Russell, Mrs. P. J. Glendon, Mr. Arthur Noyes, and the Misses Eleanor and Louise Bancroft.

(Louise Bancroft)

NOT DONALD DERBY

The Star made an error last week in reporting the name of the youngest participant in the putting contest which was a part of the Fathers' Day golf tournament at the Winchester Country Club on June 17.

We got the name as Donald Derby, playing with Dad Ross. The age, three years, we had right, but the name should have been Robert Gile Derby. We are sorry, because when a golfer is believed to be the youngest ever to compete in a tournament he surely ought to have his name given correctly!

NOVEL THEFT

Police Headquarters was notified Monday forenoon that some time over the past weekend a nine-bank Burroughs adding machine was stolen from the office of the Rex Machine & Tool Company at 95 Hemingway street. Access may have been gained through an unlocked rear window.

Patience Will Reward You!

Let us say, just for the sake of emphasizing a truth, that we are talking about you.

All your life, since you were old enough to see and understand, you have known that Cadillac represents unquestioned supremacy in the motor car world.

And you have said that—"when the time arrived"—you would own a Cadillac.

Now, "the time has arrived." You have reached the point in your endeavors where you feel you are entitled to a Cadillac—and all the things it represents.

But you hear that some delay in delivery has become unavoidable.

"Maybe," you think, "there is a substitute. Perhaps some other car, which I can get more quickly, would do."

For the sake of your own welfare—please listen to this:

There is only one car which is recognized wherever highways lead as the "Standard of the World."

There is only one car which is held in the highest respect by newsboys and millionaires alike.

There is only one car which is the hope and the ideal of motorists everywhere.

And there is only one car which you, yourself, really and truly want.

So stand firm in your convictions! Be patient! For patience will bring you the richest reward in the motor car world. It will bring you—a Cadillac!

See your Cadillac dealer today—and get your name on his order list.

THE BOUNCING BODOS

One of the enjoyable factors about the Bouncing Bodos who will appear at Leonard Field on July 4th is that they seem to be having so much fun.

Certainly, what they do doesn't seem like work and people who see this famed trampoline act feel like going out to the barn, taking an old mattress and trying a few tricks.

The three people in this act, two young men and an attractive young girl, bounce and turn on the trampoline with such gusto and zest that you just want to go down on the stage and get right into the act.

That's one thing that makes a trampoline act so appealing. The things they do certainly aren't easy but they look as if they are. Many famous athletic coaches use trampolines nowadays to help get their star athletes into condition, which proves that bounding on a trampoline is far from being child's play.

Everybody loves a clown, too, and "Georgie Porgie," the clown on the trampoline, will give everybody plenty of laughs. As a matter of fact clowning on a trampoline just seems the natural thing to do because when "Georgie" starts bouncing he just goes higher and higher and faster and faster and everybody just goes crazy.

Officials of Post 97 American Legion secured this amazing act through the office of George A. Hamid and Son, 10 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City, the country's most famous booker of interesting outdoor amusements.

The Bouncing Bodos can be seen this Saturday morning on TV Channel 7 at 10:30 a. m. as part of the Big Top Show.

V. Natalie Cox of 7 Salisbury street, has received her diploma in the Junior Accounting Course from the Bryant and Stratton Commercial School of Boston. Miss Cox completed her studies earlier this year and received her certificate of accomplishment.

RECITAL AT MUSIC HALL

On Wednesday evening, June 20th, Luella G. Kenneally presented her older group of pupils in their annual pianoforte recital at Music Hall. A large and appreciative audience filled the hall, congratulating the pupils on their splendid performance.

The program was opened by Sandra Mueller playing a spirited "Folk Dance" of Newton. Shortly followed by several solos, the first for Becky Cotton. Janet Wallace did a most interesting transportation study in any major sharp key. Sandra and Getchen Mueller's duets are looked forward too now with delight.

The beauty of melody, the charm of rhythm, and the richness of harmony was decidedly pronounced with the numbers presented by the following pupils:

Armine Geleniean
Edward Stevens
Eunice Maietta
Janet Fisher
Judy French
Barbara Darrah
Eleanor Niles
Paul Geary
Sandra Curtis
David Pingree
Patricia Sears
Judy French
Mary Ellen McGreggs
Suzanne Goudwin
Jackie Hogan
Nancy Switzer
Ada Silvagni
Ray Udall
Shirley Kinney
Debbie French

Debbie French and Shirley Kinney brought the program to a close with their joyous two piano numbers.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT NOTES

The last regular meeting of the School Committee for this school year was held on June 25th. The next regular meeting will be on September 4th at 7:30 p. m.

The Fuel Oil bid No. 5 Oil was awarded to Petro, and the Coal was awarded to Parker Lane Wine Company. Fuel is now being delivered to the schools.

The Committee awarded the work for the exterior painting of the High School to the John D. Ahern Company of Melrose.

The following resignations were accepted:

Miss Constance Doyle, Americanization teacher;

Mr. John D. Stevens, Director of Publicity;

Mr. Edward A. Bartlett, Baseball Coach.

Mrs. Helen W. Corcoran was elected as an Elementary teacher.

The final report of the Cafeteria Director showed a net loss of $576.-28 for the year.

An Educational Film Kit for use in the Driver Education program and produced by General Motors Corporation was given to the schools by the Ungerman Motor Company.

The Committee met with the Finance Committee at 9:30 p. m. to discuss future plans and policies as applied to salary and wage schedules.

Summer repairs and other work in the schools is now under way. The James Barry Company is painting the interior of Wyman; Alfred Elliott has started work on the High School toilets; the remainder of the Cafeteria ceiling in the High School has been covered with acoustic tile.

WINCHESTER BOXER

Alan McDougall, age 7, of Rangeley Ridge was among the boys awarded a Certificate of Merit for excellence in first year boxing, wrestling and Judo by the Nishimoto School of Judo and Body Building, Boston.

Director Earl Nishimoto, a native Hawaiian, is a former intercollegiate champion wrestler and a holder of the coveted "Black Belt," highest award, which he received while studying Judo in Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Armstrong have opened up their summer home at Friendship, Maine.

RECEIVE HONORS AT PIANO RECITAL

"Let your life be counted by the milestones of achievement, not by the time-pieces of years" (Clara Barton) was the inscription on the front page of the program given by pupils from the studio of Eunice M. Kiley, at the Assembly Hall, Junior High School East, Arlington, last Thursday evening.

Prominent among prize winners were many Winchester children who helped to fully demonstrate the above quotation.

A "Scales, Chords and Arpeggios" contest, which took the form this season of a United Nations flag, was of timely interest to the large and enthusiastic audience.

On March 15th each pupil was provided with a paper flag, a plain blue field on which was traced the emblem of the United Nation flag.

For each scale finished a laurel leaf was painted, in white, on the paper flag, until the entire round of 24 keys, major and minor completed the central part of the flag. Added to this were the fifty-nine smaller flags of the member nations for the chords, arpeggios and written work, five for each key. These colorful flags were pasted in unique designs on sides and ends, forming an effective border.

On the platform, in front of the stage were displayed the flags of all the winners, together with the first prizes, consisting of silk flags of United Nations, and a large silk American flag in the center, to complete the picture.

First prize winner of the "Three Octave Group" was Susan Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Wallace of Church street. She received a silk flag of United Nations, and a cute little button pin inscribed "There's a U (you) in the United Nations." Susan had finished the twenty-four scales, plus three extra weeks of assignments, which entitled her to three narrow red, white and blue ribbons, hung from the top of her paper flag.

Barbara Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Eaton, of Rangely road and Roger Symmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Symmes of Symmes Corner; both received the U. N. pin for having completed the twenty-four keys. Roger also shared honors with Ralph Haynes of Medford, for playing on two pianos, the Entrance March. Roger received honors in memory work for the season.

Judy Davis, 8 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davis of Goddu street, received honors in memory work.

Peggy Padelford, seven year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Padelford of Ravenscroft road, received a prize — piece for having memorized forty little studies and pieces since she began her lessons, March 14th.

James Stone, 7 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stone of Washington street near Woburn line, received two prizes, a silk U. N. flag for his first prize in the "Two Octave Group" Scale Contest, and a prize-piece for having learned, from memory, seventy pieces and studies during the season.

Other prize winners and pupils performing, besides the children above mentioned, were from Melrose, Arlington, Belmont, Cambridge, Boston, West Newton, Bedford, and West Medford.

Miss Kiley's appearance on the first day's program at the National Convention of the International Piano Teachers' Association when it meets at Hotel Statler, N. Y. City, this July 16th through 19th, will be of interest to her many friends in Winchester. She has been active, for the past nine years as organist of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Winchester; where she is better known as Eunice Kiley Catharin.

FUN WITH READING

The Boys' and Girls' Summer Reading Club at the Public Library is only one week old and even now, shows promise of a good Race ahead. More than fifty members are enrolled in the six Classes of Boats in the Reading Race. New members sign up every day.

In order to stimulate year-round interest in better reading, the summer reading clubs is open to all children from grades 1 through 7. Each child may choose from the six classes of boats in the race, the one he wishes to join. Proceeding over the course which requires the reading of ten books, he has until August 31 to cross the finish line.

Some boys and girls who are vacationing out of town, have made arrangements to join the summer reading club and follow the race from distant points. You, too, may do this.

So - - - Boys and Girls - - - Come Join in the Fun!

Savings Bank Treasurer "Bill" Priest and Sgt. "Tom" Cassidy of the Police Dept., a couple of old fishermen, looked with sparkling eyes at several literally whopping pickerel taken from the North Reservoir Monday to be put in Mystic Lakes. The fish were among many bass, pickerel and perch taken from the reservoirs by the State authorities to stock other nearby lakes and ponds. And just in case you local fishermen have a yen to try your luck in the town reservoirs, remember "Uncle Edmund" Sanderson of the Water Commissioners doesn't go for fishing in the town's water supply and neither does the Maiden Court!

WINCHESTER 3 - READING 2

Winchester moved into second place in the Junior League Baseball League by edging the Reading Junior Legion at Reading on Wednesday evening by a score of 3 - 2. Reading and Winchester have developed into bitter rivals and the game was hard fought all the way, with the locals winning it with a three-run rally in the seventh after two were out. Reading scored a cheap run in the second and in the third, the last coming on a steal of home, but Murphy was supreme after that as he allowed only one hit over the final five innings.

The winning rally for Winchester was started in the seventh with one out when MacKenzie received a base on balls which was followed by a single to right by Gincalone. Symmes dropped a surprise bunt but was out at first on a close play, both runners advancing. Murphy hit a sharp grounder to right which the second baseman deflected but could not control as the tying runs crossed the plate. DiIorio kept the rally alive by drawing a base on balls and Serieka came through with a sharp single to center to drive in Murphy with the winning run.

Orchids for this tingling victory must go to the battery of Charlie Murphy and "Jocko" Serieka as they made two hits apiece with Murphy driving in the tying runs and Serieka sending home the winning run. Murphy pitched steady ball in allowing only four hits, collected eight strike outs, and gave up six bases on balls. The same two teams meet at Manchester Field a week from tonight and baseball fans are urged to take in this contest which is certain to be close and hard fought as the two are bitter rivals.

STONEHAM EDGED BY LEGION

A big seven-run first inning enabled the Winchester Junior Legion to edge the Stoneham Junior Legion 9 - 8 at Manchester Field on Monday evening. Five of these runs were scored after two were out and it was well that the locals had such a cushion as Picano proved tough after that opening inning. Two hits apiece for Charlie McLaughlin, Jim Griffin, John DiIorio, and Ron MacKenzie represented the bulk of the Winchester attack.

As it was a non-league contest Coach Bartlett used two of his younger hurlers on the mound. Charlie DiSilva looked very good in the four innings he pitched and should have had a shut out which was spoiled when an error that should have retired the side in the third was followed by a three-run double. Jim Carroll was unable to get anybody out in the fifth and was replaced by John DiIorio after Stoneham had scored three times and had two runners on base. DiIorio twirled good ball over the final four innings as he struck out five, walked two, and gave up one hit.

Sweeney is stationed with the Air Force at Tampa. On the way south Mrs. Knowlton stopped off in Philadelphia to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Knowlton, who make their home in that city.

LOCAL COUNCIL TO FLY AT STEWART FIELD

Once again the Older Scouts known as Explorers of Fellsland Council will have their annual Encampment at Stewart Field, Newburgh, N. Y. from August 4th to August 11th. Fellsland Council will again sponsor the Encampment, known as the "Wings of West Point," by providing the adult leadership and taking care of the general program.

This is the 7th annual Encampment and will be limited this year to 220 who may participate. The Encampment is limited to young men who are members of an Explorer Post, Air Squadron or Air Scout Ship. Any young man who is an Explorer in a Troop within Fellsland Council.

At the present time all are planning to go from here to Newburgh, N. Y. on busses but arrangements are being made that if world conditions are favorable the young men and their leaders will fly from Bedford Airport to Stewart Field on the 4th of August and return on the 11th of August.

FRUIT AND FLOWER MISSION

On July 3rd and 10th Mrs. John B. Wills of the First Congregational Church will be at the Boston and Maine station at 8:30 a. m. Mrs. Wills' telephone is WI 6-1322. Mrs. Wills will be most grateful for any and all contributions of flowers. We have two hampers we would very much like to have filled.

The Florists in Winchester have been most generous, and we give our wholehearted thanks and appreciation.

Also, although I do not know her name, it has been brought to my attention that there has been a very faithful donor who has not missed a Tuesday morning in thirty years. I would like to know her name so that I might more fully thank her.

These flower contributions do so much good, give so much happiness, and cheer. I am sure if you had any idea just how much happiness they give you would see that both hampers would be filled. If you cannot bring or send flowers to the Boston and Maine station please call Mrs. Wills, WI 6-1322.

GOT LOST PURSE BACK

It looked pretty dark for John Handy of 11 Park avenue last Friday forenoon when he discovered he had lost the purse containing $2.05, with which his mother had sent him to do some errands in the center. He was much happier when he left Police Headquarters, after reporting his loss, with the precious purse and contents clutched tightly in his hand.

Richard Conte of 3 York road, had found the purse on the sidewalk near the Shell Filling Station at the railroad crossing, and instead of keeping the small amount of money it contained, as many a youngster might, he took his find to the Police Station, leaving his name and telephone number in the event no one claimed his find.

He checked with Officer John Murray later in the day and learned that the purse had been returned to its grateful owner. Officer Murray praised young Conte for his honesty in bringing in the purse.

Harold F. Walden, who died suddenly June 25 in Flint, Mich., leaves a brother, William, and three sisters, Mrs. George McIntyre, Mrs. Arthur Hooper and Mrs. Charles Doherty, all of this town. An executive with General Motors in Cleveland, the deceased lived in Winchester for a time as a boy, later living in Woburn. He was a veteran of World War I.

TOWN SOFTBALL LEAGUE

Standing

Beggs and Cobb	9	2
Sons of Italy	10	3
Esso	8	5
White Shirts	6	7
Ramblers	4	9
Atomics	4	10
V. F. W.	3	8

As the half way mark of the Town Softball League schedule was reached this past week, the race for first place between the Beggs and Cobb and the Sons of Italy continues to be close. The Esso nine looks strong enough to maintain their third place position but the fourth play off spot is open to the other four teams, none of whom have been able to show any consistency.

"Hokey" Procopio pitched the best game of the week in blanking the White Shirts 3 - 0 at Ginn Field last Friday evening. The Ramblers surprised the V. F. W. for the second time this season as they came up with a 6 - 4 victory over the Vets at the West Side Field on Tuesday evening. The White Shirts won a nice game from the Esso at the West Side Field on Wednesday evening by a score of 7 - 6 as they rallied to tie the score in the sixth and Jack Tarbell belted a tremendous drive to send home Art Hills with the winning run in the bottom of the seventh.

Next week's schedule is limited to Monday, Thursday and Friday evenings because of the holiday. Some interesting games appear on that schedule, however, with the meeting of the Vets and the Sons of Italy at Ginn Field on Monday and the Sons of Italy and the White Shirts at Ginn Field on Thursday looming as two of the better contests.

Next Week's Schedule
